As the First Order arrives, Rey senses that Chewie is alive. As the heroes escape on Ochi's ship, the group makes the decision to use the passage device to board the Star Destroyer and recapture the Falcon and save Chewie. The device works, and their ship lands without question. Rey uses a mind trick to confuse the stormtroopers, enabling them to find Chewie; though Rey splits off, feeling as if something is calling to her. Meanwhile, Poe and Finn find Chewie, but their rescue attempt fails and they are all taken captive.

The calling Rey feels is caused by the dagger which draws her to it in Kylo's living quarters. Rey finds and grabs Ochi's blade, but when she does, it gives her visions of what happened to her parents. Ochi found and killed them with that dagger and that her parents were trying to hide her from Ochi. When she breaks free of the vision a bond with Kylo begins.

He discovers that she is on his Star Destroyer and a lightsaber duel breaks out between the two of them across two different locations, Kylo on the surface of Kijimi and Rey aboard the Star Destroyer. During this encounter, Kylo reveals that there is more to the story behind Rey and her parents. Ochi was sent to find and recover Rey, not kill her. Her parents just got in the way, so he killed them. She is still wanted for the darkness that resides within her. It's clear that by this point, Kylo is fully committed to the Sith Lord's mission for him.

A new revelation

Kylo Ren reveals to Rey the truth about her origins and the nature of their bond.

When it appears that all is lost for Finn, Poe, and Chewie, who have been captured by the First Order, General Hux arrives and surprisingly not only allows them to escape but points them in the direction of the Falcon. Hux was the mole within the First Order that Finn and Poe had received information from. When asked, he tells them that he wasn't doing it to help the Resistance, but rather because he didn't want Kylo Ren to win.

Ren arrives and faces off Rey, in which he reveals that she is Sidious' granddaughter; her father was the son of the Emperor. He also reveals that they are a dyad in the Force, two that are one in the Force. Then, Kylo once again offers for Rey to join him, but she refuses, escaping in the Falcon.

After they leave, Pryde kills Hux for treason against the First Order and assumes control of the First Order military. The Emperor contacts Pryde and demands that he use one of the specially equipped Star Destroyers to destroy Kijimi as an act of loyalty and Pryde complies. Pryde tells Kylo that even though they don't have the dagger, they know where the Resistance is going because they scanned it while it was still in their possession.

Mission to Kef Bir

The information learned from C-3PO's translation of the dagger's writing leads to the location of a second wayfinder device which turns out to be aboard the wreckage of the second Death Star on the ocean moon of Kef Bir.

The team eventually meets a woman named Jannah. She heard about them from Babu Frik and at their urging, offers to take them to the location of the wayfinder the next day.

While fixing the Falcon with Finn, Jannah reveals she was once a stormtrooper known as TZ-1719 and that her whole tribe were former troopers. They mutinied at a battle in which they were told to fire on civilians.

But soon, the group realizes they had not seen Rey. She had, in fact, taken a skimmer and was headed to get the wayfinder.

Rey uses the dagger to locate the wayfinder by aligning a plate hidden in the hilt with a specific part of the Death Star's wreckage, and discovering the two shapes match perfectly. Upon contacting the wayfinder, she envisions herself as a Sith; a short duel between Rey and the Sith vision ensues. Shortly after, Kylo, having tracked the group to Kef Bir, finds and destroys the wayfinder to prevent her to face Sidious alone. Rey becomes furious and duels him. Ren, however, gets the upper hand, but as a dying Leia calls to Kylo by his name Ben through the Force, Rey impales him. Sensing Leia's death, Rey regreats her action, and heals Ren. She confesses to him that she did wanted to join him and take his hand as Ben Solo. She then takes his TIE whisper to exile herself to Ahch-To, still shaken about her own actions and by her Sith lineage.

As she prepares to throw the Skywalker lightsaber into the burning wreckage of Kylo's TIE whisper, Luke's Force spirit appears. He tells the story of Leia's Jedi training and encourages Rey to face the Emperor as he faced Darth Vader, giving Leia's lightsaber and his old X-wing. Rey leaves for Exegol, using the wayfinder on Kylo's ship.

On Kef Bir, Kylo converses with a vision of Han Solo, his father, and throws his lightsaber into the water near the wreckage of the Death Star, reclaiming his identity as Ben Solo.

Upon the Steadfast, the Emperor communes with Pryde over a hologram. The Sith Lord discusses the failure of the late Kylo Ren before Pryde, now de facto leader of the First Order. Pryde, a loyal Imperial during the time of the Empire prior to the Galactic Civil War, pledges the organization to the Final Order to the Emperor. The Emperor then commands Pryde to join him on Exegol, and informs the Allegiant General that a Xyston-class Star Destroyer from the Sith fleet is to be transferred to the First Order, intending to prove the General's loyalty by ordering him to send it to a planet with ties to the Resistance. Subsequently, Pryde has the Star Destroyer sent to destroy Kijimi with its axial superlaser at the Emperor's behest. With the deed done, the Sith fleet on Exegol sees itself headed by Pryde aboard the Steadfast.

Confrontation on Exegol

Rey arrives on Exegol and transmits her location to the Resistance. She confronts Darth Sidious and the Sith Eternal, who demands that she kill him to transfer his spirit into Rey. The Resistance engages in battle with the Sith Lord's fleet, though they are overpowered, suffering losses like Temmin Wexley.

Ben overpowers the Knights of Ren and arrives to help Rey, but Sidious rejuvenates himself by absorbing the life essences of Rey and Ben and then disables the Resistance fleet above with Force lightning. The Emperor tells Ben that he will be the last Skywalker and uses the Force to throw him into a nearby chasm, seemingly killing him.

A weakened Rey hears the voices of past Jedi (Obi-Wan Kenobi, Qui-Gon Jinn, Ahsoka Tano, Yoda, Mace Windu, Kanan Jarrus, Aayla Secura, Luminara Unduli, Adi Gallia, Luke Skywalker, and Anakin Skywalker), who lend their strength and encourage her to continue on. The Emperor furiously attempts to destroy Rey with lightning, but she deflects it back towards him using the two lightsabers, disintegrating his body and killing Darth Sidious once and for all. However, Rey dies from the effort of the powerful attack.

A hand appears at the edge of the chasm and an injured Ben pulls himself up, falling to his knees beside Rey and pulling her dead body into his lap. He embraces Rey's body. Pulling away, Ben puts his hand on her stomach and uses the Force to resurrect her. Rey awakens, smiling at Ben and touching his cheek gently. The two embrace before Rey kisses him. Moments later, Ben falls backward and vanishes, having given his remaining life essence to her. His body fades away at the same moment that Leia's body becomes one with the Force.

After returning for Finn and Jannah, Lando leads the Resistance, now backed by reinforcements, including Zorii Bliss; who were able to destroy the remainder of the Sith Lord's armada, ending the First Order-Resistance war and beginning a new age of peace across the galaxy.

A war ends

The Resistance and the galaxy at large celebrate their victory. Maz Kanata bestows Chewbacca with a Medal of Bravery, which Han was awarded following the Battle of Yavin. Poe and Zorii exchange a look and it seems like Poe is trying to ask Zorii if she would like to celebrate with him privately, to which she shakes her head. Jannah asks Lando where he is from and he tells her that he is from the Gold system. Lando in turn asks Jannah where she is from, and she tells him that she doesn't know, and Lando responds by saying "well, lets find out". Rey then returns and shares a hug with Finn and Poe.

Rey visits the Lars homestead on Tatooine, where she buries Anakin and Leia's lightsabers in the sand, having now built her own- a black-handled lightsaber with a yellow blade. A local asks her name and, seeing spirits of Luke and Leia look on, Rey gives her name as "Rey Skywalker". Rey and BB-8 then watch the twin suns of Tatooine rise.

We were shocked to see that Palpatine had somehow survived the explosion of the Death Star 2 and we were shocked even more and glad to see that he was destroyed and sent off to hell where he belongs. When it was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That was awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

Laney: Love the Star Wars movies!

Lincoln: Me too.

Naruto: But what happened to Anakin because of Palpatine was absolutely crazy!

Lana: It sure was.

Ahsoka: I can't believe that Master Anakin would slaughter all of the Jedi like that because of Palpatine.

Me: Palpatine has terrorized the entire Galaxy for a long time and he will now answer to us for his crimes. Lets head to the ship and get ready for a massive journey through the entire Star Wars universe.

We cheered wildly and we went to the ship.

DARTH MAUL

---

We went into the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and we were ready to embark on the biggest adventure of all in the world of Star Wars.

Me: This is it guys.

We were off into the worlds of Star Wars. We arrived at the planet Naboo.

---

Naboo was a small pastoral world in the Mid Rim, located near the border of the Outer Rim Territories. Unlike most other worlds, the ancient planet lacked a molten core, and instead comprised a conglomerate of large, rocky bodies that made up a network of tunnels and flooded caves. The native Gungans, who built their homes in the waters of Naboo, rarely ventured into the core, fearing the ravenous sea beasts which resided in areas such as the Caves of Eleuabad. Despite this, certain Gungan navigators utilized time-honored trade routes through the planet's structure, which served as the most expedient avenues to reach other areas of the planet. Naboo's interior was rich with plasma, a naturally-occurring energy unique to the planet, and this coupled with its lack of molten core gave Naboo a reputation as an enigma to astrophysicists, who regarded the world's structure as an extremely rare phenomenon in the galaxy.

Naboo's surface comprised a vast array of different landscapes, from rolling plains and grassy hills to swampy lakes caused by the water-filled network of deep-sea tunnels. Beside its natural features, Naboo was considered a world of classical beauty due to the aesthetics of its population centers. The porous crust's natural plasma was harvested for energy and building material, and was generally thought to be the key to many of the planet's secrets.

While most of Naboo's land animals were peaceful, as exemplified by the gentle shaak, the planet's oceans teemed with menacing creatures, such as the opee sea killer and the sando aqua monster.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2827.9: We have all begun a huge journey through the universe of all nine movies of the awesome Star

Wars Universe and we are doing all of this for Star Wars Day today. It's gonna be an awesome adventure as we destroy the entirety of the Sith Empire.

Lincoln: This is gonna be awesome!

Nico: We're at the planet Naboo.

Nicole: It's just as beautiful as I remember it.

Laney: It sure is pretty.

Lana: Who are we going after first?

Me: Darth Maul.

I pulled up the history of Darth Maul.

Darth Maul, later known as Maul, is a major antagonist in the Star Wars franchise. He was a Sith Lord and the first apprentice of Emperor Palpatine prior to the Battle of Naboo and his abandonment by his former master. A Zabrak Nightbrother male from Dathomir, Maul later resurfaced during the Clone Wars and sought revenge against all who had wronged him turning to a life of crime and terrorism and plunged much of the galaxy into fear and chaos in the process. He is the younger brother of Savage Opress and the archenemy of Obi-Wan Kenobi.

Maul first appeared as the central antagonist of The Phantom Menace, the first film of the prequel trilogy. He later returned as a major antagonist in the 2008-2020 television series Star Wars: The Clone Wars, serving as the final antagonist of Season 4, as one of the main antagonists of Season 5, and as the main antagonist of Season 7. He also appeared once again as a major antagonist in the 2014-2018 television series Star Wars Rebels, appearing as one of the two main antagonists (alongside Darth Vader) of the two-part Season 2 finale, and as the secondary antagonist of Season 3. He next appeared as the overarching antagonist of Solo: A Star Wars Story. He is also the titular protagonist of Darth Maul: Son Of Dathomir, Darth Maul: Saboteur, and Maul: Lockdown; as well as the tritagonist of Darth Plagueis.

In The Phantom Menace and Solo: A Star Wars Story, he was portrayed by Ray Park, who also played Toad in X-Men. However, in The Phantom Menace, his voice was provided by Peter Serafinowicz, who also played Pete in Shaun of the Dead, the Agency Director in Rick and Morty and Iofur Raknison in His Dark Materials. In his TV appearances and Solo: A Star Wars Story, he was voiced by Sam Witwer, who also played Galen Marek/Starkiller in the Force Unleashed, the Son in Star Wars: The Clone Wars, and Agent Liberty in Supergirl.

The boy who would become known as Darth Maul was born the son of the Nightsisters Matriarch Mother Talzin on the planet Dathomir. As a Dathomirian Zabrak male, he was a Nightbrother and had two blood brothers, Feral and Savage Opress. Before his first birthday, Talzin gave Maul and his brother Opress their first tattoos. When Maul was a child, Mother Talzin became an ally of Darth Sidious, the Dark Lord of the Sith, and the two exchanged wisdom and power. Sidious eventually left Talzin, despite considering making her his apprentice, and instead took Maul once he realized the boy's potential. Once under Sidious' tutelage, Maul began training as his Sith apprentice.

For years, Maul was trained to become a weapon of the Sith. He became an acrobatic warrior, one trained to be relentless against his enemies, and learned to use a dual-bladed lightsaber. His Sith training made Maul long for revenge against the Jedi Order, which had defeated the Sith a millennium earlier. With his master, Maul hoped to destroy the Jedi and restore the Sith to galactic power. Against his master's orders and risking their secrecy, Maul killed Jedi Padawan Eldra Kaitis on the Moon of Drazkel to test his skills.

The Phantom Menace

Maul waited in secrecy next to his Master, as Sidious spoke about the trade embargo on Naboo with the Neimoidians. He was excited when he learned two Jedi had been sent to bring peace and Sidious ordered the Neimoidians to deal with them. Maul asked if they had any chance of actually killing the Jedi, knowing it was impossible for them to succeed. Sidious said they did not have the skill to do so, but they might get lucky. After learning that the Queen of Naboo had escaped the blockade, Maul was introduced to the Neimoidians and was sent to retrieve her. Maul discovered the Queen was hiding on a desert world named Tatooine. He encountered and ambushed Jedi Master Qui-Gon Jinn when he and a young boy named Anakin Skywalker were on their way back to the Naboo Starship. He made Qui-Gon fight him in a lightsaber duel, launching quick attacks after swings but the Jedi managed to escape the planet with Queen Amidala.

After all the people on the starship had arrived at Coruscant, the Jedi were surprised that the Sith had returned, believing them to be nonexistent for more than 2,000 years. Shortly after the Queen had planned and started an attack on the droid armies of the Trade Federation, Qui-Gon and his apprentice Obi-Wan Kenobi entered the ship hangar where Nute Gunray was hiding. After the Jedi, Queen, and Republic officers had taken out the droids, Maul stood behind the blast door and drew out his double-bladed lightsaber, before engaging the two Jedi. Obi-Wan and Qui-Gon fought Maul in a long battle. He chased them into the reactor room, and after Obi-Wan was separated from his master by one of the laser walls in the security hallway, Maul quickly killed Qui-Gon. Obi-Wan was overwhelmed with despair and anger by the loss of his master, and let anger grow inside him. He delivered several vicious attacks on Maul, catching him off guard and slicing his saber in two.

With only one functional lightsaber blade, Maul fought back and knocked Obi-Wan into the shaft, and kicked the Padawan's weapon into the pit. While Obi-Wan was hanging on for his life, he remembered what his master had told him: "Be mindful of the Living Force". At that moment, the Force flowed within Obi-Wan, and he jumped up, called his master's lightsaber to his hand, and struck Maul. The Sith stood still, groaned weakly, and fell backwards into the pit, splitting in two at the waist as he fell and a dying Qui-Gon tells Obi-Wan to train Anakin as a promise before he dies. For over a decade, the Jedi Order believed Darth Maul was dead.

The Clone Wars

However, Maul survived, using his hatred and will to survive to grab onto an air vent, landing in water. He ended up in a container that brought him to the junk world of Lotho Minor and he managed to use the Force to piece together a six-legged arachnid cybernetic attachment to replace his missing lower body. Maul spent the next 12 years in the caves of Lotho Minor, where he deteriorated into a state of near-madness, losing all of his memories except Obi-Wan taking his legs, unaware of his true identity. Maul's only companion was an Anacondan named Morley, who helped him find shelter and food. On Dathomir, his mother Talzin believed Maul was alive and in exile somewhere in the Outer Rim. After Asajj Ventress betrayed Savage Opress, Talzin informed the Nightbrother that he had a brother who could teach him to become more powerful. The witch gave Opress the task of traveling there to search for Maul with a magic compass.

Reunion with a Brother

Savage tracked Maul to the depths of Lotho Minor, a junk planet and was eventually guided to Maul, who attacked him at first. There, Maul lived as a feral creature with a broken mind. The fallen Sith Lord didn't recognize him, not knowing of his having a brother. When Opress showed him a talisman from the Nightsister witch Mother Talzin, Maul started to regain some of his memories, giving him a new focus to his existence. He remembered his need for vengeance. Savage returned with the raving Maul to Dathomir, and was treated by Talzin. The Nightsister placed Maul into a deep enchanted sleep and then subjected him to to her dark magicks with her powers restoring his mind, healing the madness that had afflicted him to normal and rebuilt his legs with a pair of magical mechanical limbs constructed from parts of the Separatist droids destroyed during the Battle of Dathomir, replacing his spider-like replacement legs. With her work complete, Talzin vanished in green smoke leaving Maul and Savage alone.

Maul awoke and began to recall his past and felt the Force was out of balance, before Opress told him of the Clone Wars. The Sith Lord expressed his regret that the war had started without him remembering his Master had bigger plans for him, before he was robbed of his destiny and told his brother of his life and his hatred for Obi-Wan. Savage gave Maul the half of his severed lightsaber and he said they would "start" with vengeance.

Quest for Revenge

Maul and Opress killed people on Raydonia so they would gain Obi-Wan's attention, before Maul contacted the Jedi Council as he did so, demanding that the Jedi come to him. With his brother's help, the Sith Lord knocked out Obi-Wan, but didn't kill him right then, wanting to draw out his demise. However Asajj Ventress arrived, so as to collect the bounty on Opress, and she teamed up with Obi-Wan to fight the two brothers.

Maul and Opress killed people on Raydonia so they would gain Obi-Wan's attention, before Maul contacted the Jedi Council as he did so, demanding that the Jedi come to him. With his brother's help, the Sith Lord knocked out Obi-Wan, but didn't kill him right then, wanting to draw out his demise. However Asajj Ventress arrived, so as to collect the bounty on Opress, and she teamed up with Obi-Wan to fight the two brothers. Maul and Opress engaged them and Obi-Wan and Ventress managed to escape, but Maul said he could wait a little longer for his revenge because he had already waited for a decade. Opress said that the Jedi would soon be pursuing them, but the Sith Lord said he was counting on that fact. Maul and Opress went to Yellow Blade's Landing, where they went to a cantina full of thugs, which the Sith Lord tried to recruit. When they refused, the brothers slaughtered all the cantina patrons, after Maul reminded Opress that to survive by hiding, they needed to make sure there were no witnesses.

Terrorizing the Galaxy

After this, Maul and Opress launched a number of raids throughout the galaxy, before stopping at a space station above Cybloc. They sparred with Maul showing himself to be the superior fighter and declaring himself Opress' master. The two then headed to Florrum, where they recruited a group of Weequay pirates. They engaged Obi-Wan and another Jedi, Adi Gallia, who'd joined forces with Hondo Ohnaka, former leader of the pirates the two had recruited. After an intense brawl, Maul and Opress managed to kill Gallia, before pursuing Obi-Wan, but in the fight, the Jedi managed to sever Opress' arm, prompting Maul to decide to retreat.

The two were also forced to deal with their former minions, who'd rejoined Ohanaka, with Maul getting one of his legs shot off releasing a puff of Nightsister magic emerging from his ruined limb. They managed to get onto their ship, but its engine was shot with a rocket launcher, causing it to crash. Maul and Opress managed to escape and the Jedi Council declared them dead, but Obi-Wan felt otherwise. Maul and Opress were found by Death Watch, a Mandalorian terrorist organization, who tended to their wounds with Maul even gaining a new set of legs. He joined forces with Death Watch after learning they had a common enemy in Obi-Wan. The alliance then headed to Mustafar to recruit the Black Sun group. Though Maul and his allies' offer was laughed off at first by the group, the Black Sun captain of the guard, Ziton Moj, decided to joined after seeing Opress kill all of the other Black Sun leaders. Maul and the others returned to their camp where the Pykes and Lom Pyke arrived to join his alliance. The Sith Lord's next stop was the Hutt Grand Council to ask for the Hutt's allegiance.

When met with refusal, Maul and his allies killed Oruba the Hutt and Jabba the Hutt declared that the Hutts would join the Sith's coalition. Thus, Maul named his new organization the Shadow Collective. He began making plans to make the Duchess Satine Kryze of Mandalore seem weak by having the Death Watch attack Sundari, then the rest of the Shadow Collective could drive them off. But when Vizsla has no intention of continuing to follow him, Maul is imprisoned but told he'd keep to the deal of killing Kenobi. Knowing Vizsla had no intention of aiding him, Maul decides to replace him with someone he could easily control. Easily breaking free, Maul and Savage came across Satine and he told her of how he had plans for her. He also learned of the prime minister Almec, whom Satine had imprisoned for corruption. Almec suggested Maul challenge Pre Vizsla to a duel to take over the Death Watch and Mandalore; he succeeds in killing Vizsla and then claims his former co-conspirator's darksaber. He wins the loyalty of most Death Watch members, but Bo-Katan Kryze retreats along with those loyal to their previous leader.

Afterwards, Almec took back power as Prime Minister of Mandalore while Maul secretly pulled the strings. When asked what he commands, Maul orders him to lead the people of Mandalore.

Facing his Old Master

Maul allowed Satine and members of the original Death Watch to escape, so they could get a message out to the Jedi Temple, intended for Kenobi. Shortly after her message, she was recaptured.

After Kenobi received the message, despite the fact that Mandalore was neutral, borrowed a ship called the Twilight from Anakin, and traveled to Mandalore to rescue the Duchess. Disguised as a Mandalorian Super Commando, Kenobi managed to free Satine from her cell and bring her aboard the ship, but the pursuing commandos fatally damaged and destroyed the Twilight. Having narrowly escaped the crash, Kenobi and Kryze were taken into custody by Maul and Savage. At his mercy, Kenobi attempted to reason with Maul, knowing that the decision to join the Dark Side was made by the Nightsisters, not himself. However, this only fueled Maul's anger. In an act on vengeance on Kenobi, he forced him to witness Satine's murder by stabbing her with the Darksaber, and left him in a cell to rot in his anguish.

Soon afterwards, Darth Sidious arrived to confront Maul, having learned of what his former apprentice had been up to after his actions on Florrum. Maul was shocked to see Sidious again and pleaded with him as the latter saw through this and declared Maul as his rival before he engaged Maul and Opress, who briefly managed to gain the advantage until Sidious managed to finally beat them, fatally stabbing Opress. Maul ran to his brother's side as the latter stated he was unworthy as his apprentice as he slowly died. Sidious then taunted Maul by mentioning the rules of the Sith: there could be two a master and apprentice. He stated that Maul was no longer his apprentice as he was replaced. Enraged, Maul used both his lightsaber and darksaber against Sidious' dual lightsabers and put a good fight. Despite this, Sidious overpowered him by using the force to throw Maul on the ground and into a nearby wall.

Disarmed and helpless, Maul begged Sidious for mercy but the latter stated "There is no mercy" before blasting Maul with Force lightning, defeating him. As he tormented Maul with his powers, the Dark Lord stated that he would not kill Maul, stating that he had other uses for him.

Son of Dathomir

As revealed in the comics following the events of the Clone Wars, Maul eventually escaped Sidious' clutches with aid from his Mandalorian loyalists. Maul's forces on the Mandalorian Death Watch were eventually overrun by General Grievous, and Maul was forced to retreat. When Maul faced off against Dooku and Grievous at Ord Mantell, he sought Mother Talzin's aid. Talzin told Maul to raise an army from the Shadow collective and she sent his old clan; the Nightbrothers led by Brother Viscus to aid her son. Though his use of deceit and trickery, Maul successfully captured General Grievous and Count Dooku. Maul then tempted Dooku into joining him against Sidious, hoping to lure him to Mother Talzin on Dathomir.

Upon reaching Dathomir, Maul and Talzin tried to sacrifice Dooku so that Talzin (who revealed herself to be Maul's biological mother) could return to physical form (as her previous form had been destroyed by Mace Windu). However, the arrival of Sidious and Grievous halted their plans and after a duel in which Talzin sacrificed herself using her magicks to telekinetically throw Maul to safety allowing him to escape. Grievous then slaughtered Talzin, causing her magicks to fade and her body turned to stone. With his mother dead and his plans in ruins, Maul and his lieutenants fled Dathomir, leaving the planet to its conquerors as his army was destroyed, fleeing back to Mandalore. In Sidious' eyes, Maul was no longer a threat or a Sith Lord.

A New Plan

Maul and other parts of his loyal forces returned to Mandalore and at this time, continued to rule over the organizations that remained loyal to him. Among them was forging ties with the criminal organization, Crimson Dawn, and the Pykes' spice mining operations. The Pykes hired Rafa Martez to deliver the spice, but her sister, Trace, dumped the spice into hyperspace, leading to their capture by the Syndicate. Shortly aftewards, Maul contacted the new leader, Marg Krim, who informed him of his delay in production, especially recalling that Republic forces have raided one of his bases. Maul questioned if there were Jedi involved but Krim was not sure since none of his men made it out alive. However, he warded it off and surmised the Jedi were likely involved. Mid-way through the conversation, Maul felt a presence of Ahsoka Tano, who was spying on them from below). Maul warned Krim to risk no more delays or else Crimson Dawn would take control of their operations before ending the transmission.

The Siege of Mandalore

At the close of the Clone Wars, Maul began having nightmares and visions about Sidious' plan coming to fruition, the formation of the Empire and Order 66,Maul also saw the name Skywalker as the name of Sidious' next apprentice, Maul then planned a trap with the intention of not only killing Skywalker but also finishing his vengeance on Kenobi, by intentionally leaking information to Bo-Katan that he was in Sundari, the capital of Mandalore, where she hoped to capture Maul. However Skywalker and Kenobi were distracted by General Grievous' attack on Coruscant and kidnapping of Chancellor Palpatine, so they sent former Jedi Ahsoka Tano and newly appointed Clone Commander Rex instead. When his Mandalorian warriors informed Maul of the girl's trail, he ordered them to lure her into the trap and kill her Clone Trooper escort. However, Maul did not anticipate Ahsoka to be the Jedi. He personally confronted her, and questioned why she was there instead of Kenobi. Maul suspected the absence of Skywalker and Kenobi was a sign Sidious plan was almost finished so he decided to retreat until he found out more about his new enemy and disappeared into the sewers after a quick duel.

Maul later ambushed a group of clones killing all of them except for one of them named Jesse,after dispatching Saxon to prevent the imprisoned Almec from revealing his plans, Maul interrogated Jesse extracting everything about Tano from the troopers mind. As he knew Order 66 was coming he decided to warn his subordinates from the shadow collective to go into hiding, so his powerbase could survive the impending disaster. He then gave a speech to his Mandalorian servants preapring them for battle and promising them a honorable death. Maul then secretly entered the throneroom sitting in the throne, and having his prisoner with him. When entering the throneroom Bo-Katan rushed towards him, firing blaster bolts which the former sith deflected. However, Mandalorians attack the Republic's forces and Ahsoka told Bo-Katan to handle it herself, leaving the former Jedi alone with Maul, who finally has the chance to speak with her alone. She offers to make things right by telling Maul he can help the Jedi stop Sidious'threat. However, Maul reveals that the Republic and the Jedi are over and offers Ahsoka to help him defeat Sidious, the former Padawan accepts but asks what he wants with Anakin. Maul reveals that he orchestrated the Mandalorian Civil War in hopes of luring Anakin there and kill him so he can deprive Sidious of an apprentice and tells Ahsoka how Anakin will fall to the dark side, as the whole war was about Sidious grooming Anakin to become his Sith Apprentice, causing Ahsoka to activate her lightsabers. When he realizes Ahsoka will not join him, Maul duels the young Padawan before attempting to flee, where Saxon asks him for reinforcements. However, Maul reveals he is abandoning them and to die for their cause before trying to escape. However, Ahsoka finds him as he is about to escape. During the battle, they nearly fall. Maul offers her one last chance to join him but she refuses. As he tries to kill her, Ahsoka loses her lightsabers and pushes him in self-defense but catches him with the Force. As Maul yells for Ahsoka to let him fall to his death, he shouts to his captors that they will all die for what is to come. However, Bo's and Ahsoka's men stun him, successfully capturing Maul. Maul was then put into a special container, which was made for capturing Jedi during the mandalorian war. The clones then brought Maul's container into a cell in their star cruiser.

However their victory is shortlived when Order 66 is enacted, and the clones get the orders to immediately execute Maul and Ahsoka Tano. Maul is saved by Tano and questions him, suspecting him to be behind the incident. Maul denies this and begins to put Sidious' Plan together being impressed with the genius of his former master. He then attempts to get Ahsoka to join him again which she quickly dismisses, explaining she only saved him so he can serve as a distraction and that she doesn't care whether he survives or not. Despite not being in the possession of a lightsaber, Maul proves to be a more than even match using the force to slaughter as many clones as he can before they decide to retreat, closing the door between them. Maul then forcepulls the arm of a clone through the closing door, severing it. He then uses the comlink on the arm to inform himself on the current plans of the clones.

Nico: I know him.

Laney: He was ruthless.

Lola: This is gonna be a rough battle.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Me: Lets head down and deal with Darth Maul for good.

We went down to the planet and we went into the palace of Naboo. We then stood before DARTH MAUL!

Me: So we meet again Darth Maul!

Darth Maul: You will not stop me this time Knudson! Soon the Republic and the Confederacy will be ashes and my revenge will be complete.

He ignited his double-bladed red lightsaber!

Anakin: You're deluded Maul.

Lincoln: Your hate blinds you.

Darth Maul: We shall see.

Me: What kind of fucked up world do you live in!?

Nico: You will pay for your crimes Maul.

I ignited my Purple Bladed lightsaber infused with Force Lightning.

Darth Maul: I cannot be killed, not by you, not by anyone!

Me: Except us!

I flared up my power and we went at him and clashed with his lightsaber staff and fired blasts of Force Fire and Force Lightning and massive explosions of fire exploded all over the place.

COUNT DOOKU

---

We arrived at the desert planet Geonosis.

---

Situated in the Geonosis system of the Arkanis sector in the Outer Rim Territories, the planet of Geonosis was 43,000 light years from the Galactic Core, and less than a parsec away from the neighboring Outer Rim planet of Tatooine. It was the homeworld of the Geonosians, a species of sentient insectoids. It had a breathable atmosphere, but an arid climate. Its irradiated surface was covered in harsh, rocky deserts, marked by mesas and buttes. Both its rocks and sky were tinted in shades of red. Surface water was scarce, amounting to only 5% of the entire total planetary surface. However, Geonosis had frequent flash floods. From space, it could be seen that Geonosis had awe-inspiring rocky rings. The planet was orbited by fifteen moons, four of which were major.

---

Me: Here we are guys. Planet Geonosis.

Lincoln: We were here during the Total Drama Galaxy show and beat General Grievous.

Nico: We sure were.

Lily: Who are we gonna fight here?

Me: Count Dooku.

I pulled up Count Dooku's history.

Count Dooku, also known as Darth Tyranus, is a major antagonist in the Star Wars franchise. He is the secondary antagonist of the Star Wars prequel trilogy, serving as the main antagonist of the 2002 film Attack of the Clones, and as a minor yet pivotal antagonist in the 2005 film Revenge of the Sith. He is also the main antagonist of both the 2008-2020 television series Star Wars: The Clone Wars and its 2008 animated feature film of the same name, as well as a recurring antagonist within the Legends continuity and the protagonist of the audiodrama Dooku:Jedi Lost and its novelisation.

Dooku was once a Jedi Master and Yoda's apprentice, as well as Qui-Gon Jinn's master. Now, he is a powerful Sith Lord and the second apprentice of Darth Sidious, as well as the founder and Head of State of the Confederacy of Independent Systems. He is the arch-enemy of Anakin Skywalker and Obi-Wan Kenobi throughout the Clone Wars and is the master of General Grievous. He is the perpetrator of the Clone Wars, alongside Palpatine.

He was portrayed by the late Christopher Lee in all his film appearances, who also played Saruman in The Lord of the Rings trilogy, Francisco Scaramanga in The Man with the Golden Gun, King Haggard in The Last Unicorn, Lord Summerisle in The Wicker Man and Count Dracula in the Hammer Dracula films. In the Clone Wars animated TV series, he was voiced by Corey Burton, who also played Brainiac, Megatron, Captain Hook, Quint in Disney's Timon & Pumbaa series, and Shan Yu in Kingdom Hearts.

Dooku was once a Jedi himself, trained by Master Yoda, he rose through the ranks to become one of the finest Jedi of his generation. Dooku's lightsaber skills were inspirational to many younglings, and he was a veteran of many conflicts. During his time with the Jedi Order, he took two Padawans Rael Averross and Qui-Gon Jinn, forming strong attachments with them. In Legends, Dooku had another apprentice named Komari Vosa. Known only to Rael and Qui-Gon, Dooku became obsessed with the ancient prophecies of the Jedi mystics. These prophecies lead to Dooku to secretly explore the dark side of the Force, even using Force lightning to protect Qui-Gon in battle. At one point, Dooku ascends to join the Jedi Council, but he leaves the Order so he could inherit the title of Count of Serenno. Qui-Gon later became a Jedi Master and took Obi-Wan Kenobi as his apprentice.

While Dooku claimed his reason for leaving is that he disagreed with the Order's methods, he was secretly keen to further explore the dark side of the Force, quickly gaining power both in authority and knowledge. Dooku became one of the Lost Twenty, twenty Jedi who voluntarily left the Order. Dooku joined the Sith as Darth Tyranus, and supervised the creation of a clone army on Kamino. Dooku hired the Pyke Syndicate to kill his old friend Jedi Master Sifo-Dyas. As Darth Tyranus, he co-opts the creation of the clone army on Kamino ordered by Sifo-Dyas. Dooku chose bounty hunter Jango Fett as the genetic donor for the army and orders the Kaminoans to insert control chips into each clone.

Dooku also emerged as the political leader of a Separatist movement that persuaded thousands of star systems to split away from the Republic. Count Dooku gave orders to officers and commanders of the Confederacy and other powerful corporations to secede from the Republic. Dooku was a challenging opponent in lightsaber-wielding, and usually had the upper hand due to his unique fighting techniques and many years of experience.

Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones

After turning to the dark side, Dooku met with Nute Gunray and other Separatist leaders and formed the Confederacy. Afterwards, Dooku and the Separatist Council stationed themselves on the planet Geonosis, where they constructed a droid factory and began manufacturing Battle Droids to prepare for war on the Galactic Republic.

Meanwhile, Dooku hired the bounty hunter Jango Fett to assassinate Senator Padmé Amidala. Dooku also captured Obi-Wan Kenobi when the Jedi council sent him to investigate the droid factory, but not before transmitting information to his Padawan Anakin Skywalker of the threat.

Eventually, Anakin and Padmé arrived on Geonosis to rescue Obi-Wan, but were also captured and sentenced to be executed in the arena along with Obi-Wan. Before they could be executed by gargantuan beasts, however, Jedi Master Mace Windu and a group of Jedi arrived and rescued them and they fought off the droids and the beasts and eventually killed the beasts, Dooku then becomes even more horrified when he witnesses Windu killing Jango. Yoda then arrived with the Republic's Clone army to combat the droids for the first time while the Separatist Council fled the planet. On Geonosis, war finally breaks out between the Separatists and the Republic.

After the Jedi and their Clone troopers emerged victorious over the droids and Windu killed Jango, Dooku fled on a speeder bike, but was pursued by Republic Gunships to his lair near the destroyed factory, where he confronted Obi-Wan and Anakin. Swiftly knocking out Anakin and engaging Kenobi, Despite Kenobi's best efforts, Dooku fairly easily overpowered and defeated Obi-Wan and soon enough dueled Anakin, who managed to wake up in time and save Kenobi from Dooku's attack, and although it took him more effort, soon defeated and severed Anakin's right arm. Unfortunately for Dooku, before he could kill the defeated duo, his former master and the Grandmaster of the Jedi Order, Yoda, himself personally arrived to save his defeated foes and confronted Dooku.

After a cordial greeting between Yoda and Dooku, the two battled with the Force, but Yoda quickly proved that his power and skill with the Force exceeded that of Dooku by deflecting all of Dooku's telekinetic assault and even catching and repelling Dooku's Force lightning with his bare hands without showing much effort and any strain, which Dooku barely deflected. After another attempt to use Force lightning which proved to be useless against the Grandmaster, Dooku then tried to kill Yoda with his lightsaber, but Yoda proved to be the superior duelist and quickly gained the upper hand. Dooku barely escaped defeat and death at the hands of the immensely powerful and skilled Grandmaster by dislodging one of the pillars supporting his chamber and made his escape, leaving the three Jedi to die. Yoda was able to save Obi-Wan and Anakin from being crushed by Force pushing the pillar out of the way, but Dooku escaped Geonosis in his Solar Sailor..

Having fled the battle, Dooku set his course for Coruscant, landing undetected on the Republic capital with his solar sailor. Arriving in the industrial part of the planet called The Works, Tyranus met with his Master inside the LiMerge Building and informed him that events were moving forward and the long-planned war had begun. Darth Sidious was pleased with what his apprentice had accomplished and that things were going according to his plan. While the Jedi were aware Dooku was a Sith, they were unsure if he is the master or the apprentice.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Movie

Count Dooku lead the Separatists' battle droid armies, aided by his Dark Jedi apprentice Asajj Ventress and the cyborg General Grievous. At some point during the Clone Wars, Dooku ordered the kidnapping of Jabba the Hutt's son Rotta on the planet Tatooine carried out by his assassin Asajj Ventress and Ziro the Hutt, Jabba's uncle, in an attempt to frame the Jedi and forge an alliance with the Hutts. The attempt was successful and Dooku arrived on Tatooine to lie to Jabba about the Jedi kidnapping his son.

However, Anakin, now a Jedi Jedi Knight with a cybernetic right arm, and his Padawan, Ahsoka Tano, were able to rescue Rotta and escape Teth while Obi-Wan stayed behind and defeated Ventress. Dooku was later informed that Anakin and Ahsoka were heading for Tatooine with Rotta and ordered his magnaguards to shoot their ship down. After they successfully shot down their ship, Dooku left to confront Anakin while his magnaguards fought Ahsoka.

When Dooku found Anakin, he ordered the hero to surrender Rotta to him or die, but Anakin revealed Rotta was with Ahsoka, sparking a duel between the two in the desert. During the fight, Dooku revealed to Anakin about Ahsoka's conflict with the magnaguards. In response, Anakin knocked Dooku onto the sand and stole his speeder bike to save Ahsoka. After destroying the droids, Anakin and Ahsoka returned Rotta to Jabba and told the truth about Dooku and Jabba allied with the Republic as thanks, foiling Dooku's scheme. However, Dooku had escaped from Tatooine while Anakin returned Rotta to his father and Ziro was arrested.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Series

Towards the beginning of the war, Dooku sent Ventress to Toydaria in hopes of allying King Kantuunko with the Separatists. When Kantuunko decided to join the Republic, Dooku ordered Ventress to kill the king but was foiled by Yoda, and Ventress escaped Toydaria.

Later, Dooku assisted his cyborg right-hand servant General Grievous on board his warship the Malevolence, which possessed a powerful ion cannon that could destroy entire Republic fleets. As time went by, Grievous destroyed many Republic fleets and many warships, most notably the Triumphant during the battle of Abregado which had impressed Dooku. Later, Dooku ordered Grievous to attack a Republic medical station in the Kaliida Nebula. Grievous attacked, but during the battle, the ion cannon was badly damaged just as Republic reinforcements arrived to destroy the Malevolence. Dooku informed Grievous via hologram that Senator Amidala was heading for the sector and if Grievous could capture her, the clones would have to retreat, giving enough time for the Malevolence to escape.

Grievous captured the senator, but a Jedi invasion forced Grievous to flee. The Malevolence was destroyed when it crashed into a nearby moon, but Grievous escaped in his starfighter, and Amidala was rescued by Anakin, much to Dooku's frustration. Later, Dooku was informed of Viceroy Nute Gunray's capture on the planet Rodia. In response, Dooku sent Ventress to attack the Tranquility, which was the ship Gunray was incarcerated on and was heading to Coruscant, and rescue Gunray.

When Ventress and a group of battle droids infiltrated the Tranquility and fought the Jedi Luminara Unduli and Anakin's padawan Ahsoka Tano on board the ship, Dooku sent a signal to senate commando Faro Argyus, whom he bribed, to liberate Gunray. Ventress was able to evade the Jedi and escaped with Gunray and Argyus.

After their escape, Argyus was killed by Ventress when he tried to discredit her. Later, Dooku contacted Grievous, demanding more dead Jedi and clones. To set up a test for his second-in-command, Dooku used a Republic tracking beacon to trick the Jedi into thinking Gunray was on the third moon of Vassek and lure them into Grievous's fortress. Jedi Kit Fisto and Nadhar Vebb intercepted the signal and headed for Vassek with a small group of clones and made their way into the fortress. When they figured out Gunray wasn't there, Dooku appeared to the search team via hologram and offered them an "alternative prize".

Later, Dooku contacted Grievous again and Grievous informed him that he killed all the clones and Vebb, but Fisto defeated him and escaped to Coruscant, to which Dooku replied that there was "room for improvement". Later, the Republic tracked Dooku down and Anakin and Obi-Wan infiltrated his frigate and cornered him as Republic troops arrived, but Dooku fell through an escape hatch before Anakin could capture him. Anakin went after him through the hatch, but Dooku delayed him with his force lightning. When Dooku reached the hangar, he boarded his solar sailor and escaped, but was pursued by Anakin and Obi-Wan using a stolen Separatist ship.

The Jedi opened fire on the Count and shot Dooku down, forcing him to crash-land on the planet Vanqor. Dooku attached a tracking beacon to his ship and escaped into the caves just as Anakin and Obi-Wan landed on the surface to capture him. Anakin destroyed the beacon and went with Obi-Wan into the caves. Dooku caused a cave-in with the force that trapped the Jedi and stole Anakin's lightsaber. After escaping the caves, Dooku came across a gang of Weequay pirates led by Hondo Ohnaka.

Dooku asked Hondo to take him to a civilized planet. Hondo and his gang took Dooku with them to their headquarters on the planet Florrum. Upon arrival, the pirates captured Dooku and disarmed him. Later, Hondo contacted Chancellor Palpatine and informed him of Dooku's capture and was holding him for ransom. He offered 1,000,000 credits in spice in exchange for Dooku. Palpatine sent Anakin and Obi-Wan to Florrum to confirm Dooku was indeed being held by the pirates. They found Dooku in a holding cell who warned them not to trust the pirates, but they did not listen and were captured by the pirates who were wanting to triple their pay. Meanhile, Senator Kharrus, Representative Jar Jar Binks, and a group of clones led by commander Stone arrived in Florrum to pay the pirates. Dooku, Anakin, and Obi-Wan escaped three times, but were recaptured and imprisoned. Later, Anakin and Obi-Wan were taken to Hondo for electrical torture. Later, during a power outage caused by Jar Jar crashing a tank into a power field, Dooku killed the pirate guarding his cell and escaped.

After retrieving his lightsaber, Dooku made his way to the hangar and force choked Hondo's second-in-command, Turk Falso, to death, but not before forcing him to kill his partner Barb Mentir with his blaster. Dooku then stole their ship and ultimately escaped Florrum as Anakin and Obi-Wan were rescued by Jar Jar and Stone. Later, Dooku gave general Lok Durd permission to construct the weapon called the Defoliator. Durd demonstrated the Defoliator's capabilities: it could incinerate organic life and leave battle droids unharmed. Dooku was impressed when the first test was successful, but knew Durd only created the Defoliator to get a promotion. Dooku then instructed Durd to use the Defoliator on the Lurmen inhabitants of the isolated planet Maridun, so they could see how the Defoliator affected living creatures. Unfortunately, the attempt failed as a small group of clones and Jedi defended the Lurmen and Anakin destroyed the Defoliator and captured Durd.

Later, Separatist leader Wat Tambor invaded and successfully took control of the planet Ryloth. Dooku gave Tambor strict orders to prevent the Republic from interfering with their control. However, the Republic arrived and broke through the Separatist blockade and proceeded to deploy clones and Jedi to the surface to liberate Ryloth from Tambor's control. Dooku ordered Tambor to steal every valuable resource from the capital city Lessu and escape Ryloth before the Republic arrives. TA-175, Tambor's tactical droid, kept in contact with Dooku against Tambor's orders. Later, clone troopers led by Jedi general Mace Windu and the Twi'lek freedom fighters led by Cham Syndulla attacked Lessu to capture Tambor.

However, unknown to Tambor, Dooku planned to bomb Lessu whether Tambor had fled or not and TA-175 betrayed Tambor and fled in Tambor's vessel, leaving Tambor behind to be captured by Windu. Meanwhile, Dooku's plan to bomb Lessu ultimately failed as Anakin and Ahsoka shot down the bombers before they could drop the bombs. Later, Dooku forged an alliance with a Mandalorian terrorist organization known as Death Watch, led by Pre Vizsla, whose goal was to take over the planet Mandalore and defeat the pacifist government called the New Mandalorians, led by Duchess Satine Kryze. Dooku urged Vizsla to give the Republic a reason to send military presence to Mandalore, which Dooku believed would inspire a revolution. However, despite multiple assassination attempts, Satine proved her case to the senate and caused them to call off the occupation of Mandalore, despite the actions of an assassin sent by Dooku and Vizsla to kill her.

When a frustrated Vizsla promised to attack Mandalore, Dooku told him to hold off his attack as he would likely end up ruling Mandalore for one day and that there were other ways to accomplish Death Watch's goal to conquer Mandalore. Later, the Galactic Senate refused to de-regulate the banks and Techno Union officials contacted Dooku, suggesting he bring the war to Coruscant's doorstep. In response, Dooku ordered Grievous to send Demolition droids undercover to Coruscant to sabotage the capital. Meanwhile, on planet Raxus, Dooku publicly supported a peace treaty between the Republic and the Separatists. However, Dooku still planned to prolong the war. Grievous's successful sabotage of Coruscant prolonged Dooku's plans. After the attack, Dooku was informed that senator Mina Bonteri had been responsible for the peace treaty and ordered his agents to kill her, and Dooku later contacted the Republic and lied to them about a Republic attack on Raxus to cover up Bonteri's death, but was blown by spies.

Later, Dooku hired two bounty hunters, Robonino and Chata Hyoki, to kill any senators voting against their new bill. The duo managed to injure or kill twenty senators, but was arrested after an attempt on Amidala and Bail Organa's lives and the bill was vetoed. Later, in his lair on planet Serreno, he was informed by his Master of Ventress's growing power and Dooku decided to eliminate her. He ordered his droids to destroy their command ship, where Ventress was fighting Anakin and Obi-Wan. Anakin and Obi-Wan escaped while Ventress was seemingly killed. Unknown to Dooku, Ventress survived and escaped to planet Dathomir where she enlisted aid from the Nightsisters. Later, Ventress and two Nightsisters turned invisible and used Jedi lightsabers to attempt to assassinate Dooku, who fought them. Dooku eventually defeated the Nightsisters and used Force lightning to send them off a cliff, which they survived. Dooku believed the Jedi were responsible for the attack and contacted Mother Talzin who informed him that she would find a replacement for Ventress. Later, Dooku travelled to Dathomir to discuss with Talzin.

She mentioned Darth Maul, who Dooku knew had died on Naboo at the hands of Obi-Wan. Later, the Nightsisters presented a Nightbrother with enhanced dark Force abilities named Savage Opress to Dooku and he took Opress to Serenno to be his new apprentice. On Serreno, Dooku gave Opress his first task: attack a sanctuary on planet Devaron, which he carried out successfully. After informing Dooku of his success, Dooku congratulated him and promised one day they will rule the galaxy together. After training, Dooku sent Opress to Toydaria to capture King Kantuunko. Despite resistance from Anakin and Obi-Wan, Opress successfully captured the king, but killed him in an escape attempt. When Opress returned to Dooku with the deceased king, Dooku got very angry and shocked Opress with lightning, causing Opress to beg for forgiveness. Dooku said that forgiveness is not the way of the dark side and continued electrocuting him.

During the punishment, Ventress revealed herself to Dooku and reminded Opress that he is her servant. Despite his best efforts, Opress was no match for Dooku's Force lightning. Ventress angrily ordered Opress to continue, but he refused and attacked Ventress, giving Dooku time to flee. He soon confronted Ventress again, but she failed to defeat him and escaped in an escape pod, but not before blinding Dooku for the time being.

Later, Dooku was informed of Jedi general Even Piell's capture and imprisonment in a Separatist prison called the Citadel on the planet Lola Sayu and figured out he had information on the Nexus Routes which could change the tide of the war. Because of this, Dooku pressured the sadistic warden of the Citadel and Separatist operative, Osi Sobeck, to interrogate Piell and his men about the Nexus Routes. Later, a group of Jedi and clones led by Anakin, Ahsoka, and Obi-Wan infiltrated the Citadel frozen in carbonite, but their cover was blown when one of the clones accidentally triggered an electro-mine and was killed.

Despite his best efforts, the Jedi evaded Sobeck's traps and successfully rescued Piell and his head naval officer Wilhuff Tarkin and many others. Dooku was furious and contacted Sobeck and ordered him to recapture Piell and his naval officers and capture the rescue squad, but Sobeck assured him that everything was under control and ended transmission and proceeded to prevent the Jedi from escaping with Piell by destroying a Separatist ship and killed a clone named Echo, ho sacrificed himself to destroy the droids, but the Jedi and the surviving clones and naval officers fled to the caves below to contact the Republic for assistance. At the same time, Dooku attempted to contact Sobeck again, but Sobeck ignored him to cut off the Jedi's escape.

Eventually, Dooku was able to contact Sobeck, who informed the warden of the significance of the Jedi's capture, to which Sobeck swore to accomplish, but Dooku reminded him that Sobeck's promises to capture the Jedi were the only things that were keeping him alive. Although Sobeck sent Anoobas to track the Jedi and successfully killed Piell, Sobck ultimately failed to stop the Jedi from escaping the Citadel with the Nexus Route information and was killed by Ahsoka and the Jedi, clones, and the naval officers escaped. Later, Dooku sent Separatist operative Riff Tamson to assassinate Yos Kolina, the king of planet Dac, to disrupt tensions between the planet's two native species: the Mon Calamari and the Quarren, which Tamson carried out successfully and relations between the two races declined and the Quarren allied with the Separatists, while the Republic backed the Mon Calamari and sent an army of clones and Jedi to quell the tensions, but Tamson attacked the Mon Calamari on Dooku's orders and attempted to kill Prince Lee-Char, son of the deceased Yos Kolina, but the Republic forces drove him back and retreated.

Dooku contacted Tamson and ordered him to unleash the Hydroid Medusas on the Mon Calamari, which he did successfully and captured many Mon Calamari and clones and killed several others. After this, Dooku contacted Tamson and ordered him to kill Lee-Char. However, the Republic destroyed the Separatist signal tower and sent a distress signal to Naboo and the Gungan army came to their aid, but Tamson was able to capture the Jedi and a majority of Gungans, but Lee-Char was able to elude him with Ahsoka.

When Dooku contacted Tamson and Nossor Ri, Ri questioned the outcome of the defeat of the Mon Calamari, but Dooku responded that Tamson had sent his own troops to help. However, Lee-Char was able to liberate his people and the clones and Jedi freed themselves and Lee-Char convinced the Quarren are only being used by the Separatists to further their goals. Lee-Char then confronted Tamson himself and threw an explosive knife at Tamson, killing him and foiling the Separatists once again. Later, Dooku travelled to Naboo. While there, he ordered his agent Minister Rish Loo to hypnotize the leader of the Gungans, Boss Lyonie, to rallying the gungans against Naboo, but was foiled by Anakin and Lyoni was knocked out while Rish escaped. Later, representative Jar Jar Binks disguised as Lyonie put the attack on Theed, Naboo's capital, on hold and Rish escaped on a speeder bike pursued by Anakin. Later, Dooku was informed of Grievous's capture and planned a trap for Anakin and contacted Rish to lure Anakin to his location.

When Rish lead Anakin to Dooku, Dooku killed Rish and fought Anakin. During the fight, Dooku activated MagnaGuards to help him. Anakin destroyed the Magnaguards, but Dooku defeated the hero and captured him. He later contacted Amidala and told her if she would release Grievous, he would return Anakin in exchange. Amidala accepted the Count's request and released Grievous and in turn, Dooku released Anakin and the Separatists left Naboo. Later, Dooku met up with the Zygerrian race, who were allied with the Separatists from the beginning and were seeking to rebuild their slave empire after it was destroyed by the Jedi years before the war.

Dooku and the Zygerrians later travelled to planet Kiros and made an agreement with the Togrutan colonists to protect them for the rest of the war, and Dooku promised the colonists a "temporary safe haven" until the war had ended. The Separatists then proceeded to abduct all of the colonists and board them on Zygerrian slave ships which carried the colonists to slavery on the planet Zygerria where the Zygerrian queen Miraj Scintel was planning a royal slave auction. Dooku left a Zygerrian slaver and Separatist operative Darts D'nar in charge of his droids on Kiros. D'Nar proceeded to plant bombs across the village and linked the final two together so one would go off if the other was tampered with. Later, Republic forces arrived to rescue the colonists to no avail, but they easily defeated most of D'Nar's droids, prompting him to contact Obi-Wan to agree on terms of surrender. While negotiating surrender with Obi-Wan, Dooku ordered D'Nar to kill Obi-Wan and ended the transmission. Obi, Wan narrowly subdued D'Nar while Anakin and Ahsoka disabled the bombs.

D'Nar then proceeded to flee in his ship to Zygerria, but one of the ship's engines was disabled by Anakin and Anakin and Ahsoka captured D'Nar and forced him to reveal the location of the colonists. Later, Dooku was informed that Anakin, Obi-Wan, and clone commander Rex infiltrated Zygerria disguised as Zygerrian slavers and Ahsoka was disguised as a slave. Anakin kept Scintel occupied while Rx and Obi-Wan attempted to free the colonists, but were captured. Ahsoka was captured as well, but Scintel kept Anakin as her servant while Obi-Wan, Rex, and the colonists were relocated to planet Kadavo. After being informed of this, Dooku travelled to Zygerria to speak with Scintel. Once there, Scintel told Dooku that she kept Anakin alive because she believed him to be a valuable servant and revealed that Obi-Wan would soon realize that he could no longer help the colonists and cause his spirit to sink into servitude and told Dooku about the advantage of having an army of enslaved Jedi at his command.

However, Dooku revealed to the queen that he has no desire to enslave Jedi, but execute them and ordered her to summon Anakin and kill him, but she refused and Prime Minister Atai Molec betrayed her and Dooku force choked her before Anakin intervened using a shock whip, but was no match for Dooku and escaped from the palace with a dying Scintel to regroup with a freed Ahsoka. Later, Dooku contacted Keeper Agruss stationed on Kadavo and ordered the execution of Obi-Wan and ended transmission just as Anakin, Ahsoka, and Republic reinforcements arrived.

During the battle, Dooku's plans to enslave the colonists failed and the colonists were freed by Ahsoka and Rex killed Arguss and Anakin and Obi-Wan and the rest of the Republic escaped just as the facility exploded. Later, Dooku told Separatist operative and criminal mastermind Moralo Eval to orchestrate a plan to kidnap and kill Chancellor Palpatine on Coruscant. During the plan, Eval hired the bounty hunter Cad Bane to help him carry out his plan. Eventually, Republic forces tracked down and captured Eval and incarcerated him, but Palpatine and the Republic believed that the attempt on his life was still in effect.

Bane was also incarcerated sometime later. In response, the Jedi council had Obi-Wan disguised as the assassin Rako Hardeen to infiltrate the prison where Eval was being held in hopes of getting information on Eval's plans. After gaining their trust, Obi-Wan, Bane, and Eval escaped from prison and fled to Nal Hutta, where they acquired a ship and new weapons and contacted Dooku, who was frustrated that Eval was late to the meeting on Serreno. Eval told Dooku he would be running late and ended the transmission. Eventually, Eval, Bane, and Obi-Wan escaped Nal Hutta and were briefly pursued by Anakin and Ahsoka, who were unaware of Obi-Wan's undercover mission, but the trio lost them. After landing on Serrano, Dooku greeted the trio and ordered Eval to prepare the box, a training facility Eval invented to test a group of eleven bounty hunters to kidnap and assassinate Palpatine. As the tests went on, Dooku questioned Eval about Hardeen and was growing suspicious, to which he replied that he "killed" Obi-Wan. In the end, Bane, Obi-Wan, and three other bounty hunters survived and Dooku selected

Bane as the leader of the bounty hunters.

The next day, Dooku briefed the bounty hunters on their mission and gave them holographic devices to disguise themselves as senate commandos. After the briefing, Dooku, who was still suspicious about Hardeen, suggested he keep a close eye on him, which the bounty hunter agreed to do. Obi-Wan was given orders to snipe the chancellor. Later, Palpatine arrived on Naboo for the ceremony of light. After Obi-Wan gave the signal to Windu to alert him of the bounty hunter's presence, Bane and his men attacked and Obi-Wan began assisting Windu and Anakin by sniping the bounty hunters, but Bane and Eval succeeded in taking Palpatine hostage and fled in a speeder heading for the rendezvous point where Dooku would meet them, though Obi-Wan pursued in a speeder. Upon arrival, Bane and Eval noticed Dooku was absent. Instead, Dooku took advantage of the chaos and slipped a comlink in Obi-Wan's sniper blaster's case to listen in on Obi-Wan and eventually discovered that Rako Hardeen was Obi-Wan in disguise.

Meanwhile, Obi-Wan revealed himself to Bane and Eval and rescued Palpatine, leaving the infuriated duo to be arrested by Windu and Anakin. After the failed attempt on Palpatine's life, Dooku awaited Palpatine and Anakin in the palace's dining room accompanied by two magnaguards, which shocked the Jedi and the chancellor. Anakin ordered Palpatine to run, which he did, but a third magnaguard blocked the entrance to the dining room, preventing the chancellor's escape and Dooku fought Anakin. Eventually, Anakin destroyed the magnaguards and drove Dooku into the corridor, where Anakin slowly gained the upper hand, but Dooku used his force lightning to shock Anakin for the time being, but Obi-Wan(still disguised as Rako Hardeen), intervened to help Anakin. Anakin, with Obi-Wan's help, successfully overpowered and defeated Dooku, but Dooku hopped aboard his waiting Solar Sailer and ultimately escaped Naboo. Later, rebels on the Separatist-occupied planet Onderon began to strike back against their tyrannical king, Sanjay Rash. After the rebels, led by Steela and her brother Saw, attacked the capital city Iziz with help from Republic troops led by Anakin, Obi-Wan, and Ahsoka, Rash contacted Dooku, requesting assistance. Dooku agreed not only to send more droids but to send General Kalani to lead them.

It was later revealed that his involvement in the origins of the Clone War stretched much deeper. With new evidence into the death of Sifo-Dyas, the Jedi who supposedly ordered the creation of the clone army, Obi-Wan Kenobi and Anakin Skywalker visited the Pyke Syndicate on Oba Diah. They learned that the Pykes were hired by a man named Tyranus to kill the Jedi, but that the crime family had secretly kept his companion, Silman, alive. Obi-Wan and Anakin began to speak to the captive, but he was quickly Force choked by an unseen attacker: Count Dooku had arrived, sent by Darth Sidious to tie up all loose ends to the death of Sifo-Dyas. Lom, leader of the Pykes, called Dooku by his Sith name, revealing to the Jedi the unsettling truth behind the mystery of the clone army. Dooku, or Darth Tyranus, escaped, and the Jedi had no choice, but to continue playing the Sith's game.

Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith

Near the end of the war, the Republic gained the upper hand over the Separatists. Eventually, Grievous was able to capture Palpatine successfully near the end of the war, which impressed Dooku. Sometime after Palpatine's kidnapping, Dooku launched an attack on Coruscant with intentions to take over the capital and destroy the Republic and rule the galaxy once and for all. Upon arrival, a huge battle between Dooku's fleet and the Republic fleet protecting Coruscant began. Later, Dooku sensed Anakin and Obi-Wan had boarded the ship to rescue Palpatine and Dooku left Grievous in charge of the bridge and left to confront the Jedi.

Despite his own machinations, Dooku never suspected that Sidious planned to remove him all along. Eventually, Dooku found Anakin and Obi-Wan within the room where Palpatine was held and told them not to "make a mess in front of the Chancellor". Obi-Wan vowed that Dooku would not escape this time and the duo fought Dooku. During the fight, Anakin revealed that his powers doubled since their last battle, to which an overconfident Dooku replied that with "twice the pride, double the fall", and continued the fight.

Count Dooku overpowered Obi-Wan and Force pushed him into the wall, knocking him unconscious and forcing Anakin to carry on the fight alone. Dooku challenged Skywalker while Palpatine watched, pretending to be a helpless prisoner. Because Dooku had dueled

Anakin multiple times before, he did not expect the Jedi Knight to put up much of a fight. When Dooku taunted Anakin about Obi-Wan's possible death and telling Anakin that he has sense great fear in him and that he has both anger and hate, but he can't use them, Anakin grew enraged and attacked Dooku with great ferocity, eventually severing both of the Sith Lord's hands.

Anakin then grabbed Dooku's lightsaber and held both his and Dooku's lightsaber at Dooku's throat. Dooku hoped his Master would intervene but Palpatine encouraged Anakin to kill him on the spot; Anakin initially hesitated, as it was not the Jedi way, but Palpatine firmly insisted. With nothing more to be said, Anakin decapitated Dooku, finally ending the tyrant's life and giving his position of head of state to Grievous who would join Dooku few days post the count's death hours before Anakin became Darth Vader proving his slain victim Darth Tyranus's words true of his senses of Anakin's hate, fear and anger.

After Dooku's corpse fell to the ground, Anakin almost immediately expressed regret over his un-Jedi-like action, but Palpatine assured and congratulated Anakin, stating that Dooku was too dangerous to be kept alive and Palpatine told Anakin that Dooku severed his arm and he wanted revenge, including the loss of his mother and the sand people who killed her before Anakin, Obi-Wan and Palpatine tried to escape.

In actuality, Palpatine's kidnapping at the hands of Grievous was a ruse planned by Palpatine himself, for Palpatine was secretly the Sith Lord Darth Sidious, and his capture was part of his greater plan to manipulate Anakin into succumbing to the dark side of the Force. Dooku helped Palpatine put this plan into action, but as for Grievous, he wasn't in on the scheme since he was unaware that Palpatine and Sidious were the same people. Before Dooku was murdered by Anakin, he was shown to have a look of horror on his face when Palpatine told Anakin to kill him, for because Dooku knew Palpatine's secret identity as Sidious and helped him with his plan to manipulate Anakin, he realized that his master had betrayed him. Dooku finally understand the inevitability of Sith betrayal.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

We later left for the next world and the next Star Wars Villain.

ANAKIN SKYWALKER

---

We later arrived at the volcanic planet called Mustafar.

---

Mustafar was a small lava world located in the Outer Rim Territories, and the planet contained valuable mineral allotropes. There was also a fortress of the infamous Black Sun during the Clone Wars.

Historically, Mustafar was once a lush planet thriving with life. After the Bright Star's destruction, the planet was allowed to regrow.

The planet was situated between the two gas giants Lefrani and Jestefad. The two giants were in a tug-of-gravity with both trying to claim tiny Mustafar as a moon by pulling the planet towards them. Mustafar owed its hellish volcanic landscape to this battle as it caused massive tidal disruption that heated the planet's interior.

In addition, Jestefad's gigantic electromagnetic field swamped Mustafar, which generated huge electrical storms on the planet, posing a significant risk for off-world arrivals. Those caught in one such storm without the assistance of surface-level tractor beams found, at best, their starship's navigational equipment interfered with, and in certain cases torn apart, as Mustafar was by Lefrani and Jestefad.

While still very hot, the lava on Mustafar was of a lower temperature than that found on other worlds, due to unusual mineral allotropes that were molten at lower temperatures. The lava's great wealth in minerals were exploited by mining operations, attracting business interests into the otherwise untouched world.

The core of Mustafar housed a locus of the dark side of the Force, which Darth Vader used to his advantage when bleeding the kyber crystal for his new lightsaber.

Me: The planet Mustafar.

Anakin: The very place where Jedi go to die.

Obi-Wan: And a very dangerous planet.

Me: Yep. We're here to fight Anakin as he was turned to the Dark Side of the Force.

Lincoln: I remember seeing that. Palpatine, he really poisoned your mind with lies about everything the Jedi stand for.

Anakin: I know.

I pulled up the history of Anakin before he was turned into Darth Vader.

Anakin Skywalker was a young child from a desert planet called Tatooine, controlled by the Hutts. Anakin and his mother Shmi were poor slaves owned by Watto, a Toydarian junk dealer. In his spare time, Anakin had built a protocol droid named C-3PO.

During the battle between the Galactic Republic and the Trade Federation, a Naboo cruiser's hyperdrive had been damaged, and it is forced to land on the planet. Jedi Master Qui-Gon Jinn searches for a replacement, and finds the nine-year old boy. He sensed that the Force was very strong with Anakin, and sent a blood sample to his apprentice, Obi-Wan Kenobi. The result came back as a reading higher than Yoda's midi-chlorian count. This suggested that Skywalker was the Chosen One who could bring balance to the Force.

Since Qui-Gon didn't have credits that were worth anything on Tatooine, he placed a bet with Watto in an attempt to win the needed hyperdrive, involving the pod race which Anakin was going to participate in. Before the race, Qui-Gon gave the boy advice about using his instincts, and to feel, not think. Anakin won, and he made the Jedi proud, as well as his mother, Shmi.

As soon as Qui-Gon acquired the needed parts for his ship, and as soon as Anakin brought home the winnings, the boy was freed. His new destiny was to become a Jedi. It was very difficult for him to leave his mother, and he knew there was much ahead of him. Qui-Gon and Obi-Wan took him to Coruscant to meet with the Jedi Council, who refused to allow Anakin to be trained as a Jedi because they sensed great fear in him.

When the corrupt Trade Federation invaded the planet, Naboo, however, Anakin proved his worth by piloting a space fighter and destroying the Federation's command ship, helping the Galactic Republic claim victory. After Qui-Gon was mortally wounded in a lightsaber duel with Sith Lord Darth Maul, his dying request was that Obi-Wan had to train the boy and Obi-Wan promises. The Council reluctantly approved the request, and Anakin was sent to be trained as a Jedi.

During the mission, Anakin formed strong friendships with Naboo's Queen, Padmé Amidala, and its senior senator (and the Republic's future Chancellor) Palpatine, who promised him, "We will watch your career with great interest."

Star Wars: Episode II - Attack of the Clones

Ten years later, Anakin was a young Padawan he had been trained in the ways of the Jedi. But as he grew stronger and more powerful, he wanted more, yet he knew it was wrong. Anakin gotten to see Padmé again. His crush on her turned into genuine love. Anakin was assigned to protect Padmé from Jango Fett (a bounty hunter trying to kill her). Meanwhile, they hid in Naboo until Anakin had a dream of his mother, Shmi Skywalker, in pain. Anakin and Padmé went to Tatooine to find Shmi.

The two of them, with the droid R2-D2, came across Anakin's old droid C-3PO, who now had platings covering his wires, and Watto, Anakin's old owner, who told him that he sold Shmi to a man named Cliegg Lars, who then married her. Anakin soon met his stepfather Cliegg Lars and his stepbrother Owen Lars. They learned that Shmi had been kidnapped by Tusken Raiders a month before, so Anakin headed off and eventually found her at the Tusken Raider camp. Unfortunately, Shmi died in her son's arms, having been starved and terribly beaten by the Tusken Raiders. Consumed with grief and rage, Anakin slaughtered all the Tuskens; men, women and even children. He tearfully confessed his crime to Padmé, who comforted him.

After Shmi's funeral, they got a message from Obi-Wan who was captured on Geonosis and both went there where they reunited with Kenobi in an arena with scary creatures.

When Count Dooku attacked with his supporting droids from the Confederacy of Independent Systems, which he led alongside Palpatine, by striking at planet Geonosis, the Jedi Order plunged into war with Dooku using the army of clones made from the DNA of mercenary Jango Fett. Anakin and Obi-Wan chased after Dooku as he tried to escape Geonosis, and in the battle, Obi-Wan was slightly injured while Anakin's right forearm was cut off. Yoda fought Dooku and overpowered him, but the latter got away when Yoda had to prevent a pillar from flattening the wounded Anakin and Obi-Wan.

After the battle, Anakin was fitted with a robotic arm, and married Padmé in a secret ceremony on Naboo.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Movie

Anakin received a Padawan, Ahsoka Tano, with whom he did not agree at first, but ended up accepting her after their mission to save the son of Jabba the Hutt, Rotta.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Series

Anakin and Ahsoka continued to battle evil together during the duration of the war, sometimes with Obi-Wan and sometimes with R2-D2 and Padmé.

During an unexpected journey to Mortis, Anakin saw a vision of himself sinking to the dark side and his future as Darth Vader.

At one point, Ahsoka was framed for crimes against the Jedi Order and the Republic. Anakin caught the Jedi who set her up, Barriss Offee, but Ahsoka still left the Order, much to Anakin's dismay.

Episode Appearances

Towards the end of the Clone Wars, Chancellor Palpatine was kidnapped by General Grievous during the Battle of Coruscant. Obi-Wan and Anakin went to rescue him. Little did they know that this would lead to events that would ruin their bond forever.

They came across Count Dooku and the two Jedi battled him once again. In the middle of the fight, Dooku knocked Obi-Wan unconscious and Anakin had to fight him alone. Using his anger and hatred, Anakin brutally overpowered Dooku and sliced off both of the Sith Lord's hands, leaving him helpless. Palpatine then encouraged Anakin to kill Dooku; after initial hesitation, Anakin, deciding that Dooku was too much of a threat, decapitated Dooku with both his and Dooku's lightsabers. Anakin then freed the Chancellor.

After Palpatine was saved, Padmé told Anakin she was pregnant. When he saw in a dream that Padmé was going to die for some unknown reason in childbirth, he swore that he would do everything he could to save her. He talked to Yoda and told him of his feelings of loss and pain. If the Jedi Council knew he had a wife, and love was strictly forbidden for a Jedi, then he would be expelled from the Jedi Order.

Anakin found security and refuge in talking to Palpatine. The Chancellor had been like a father to him and had made him a member of the Jedi Council. But while talking to his dear friend one day, Palpatine revealed to Anakin that he knew the ways of the dark side of the Force, and it was clear that he was indeed the Sith Lord. Anakin was nearly brought to kill him on the spot, but Anakin realized that the evil Chancellor was the only person who might be able to help him save Padmé without risking losing his spot on the Jedi Order.

The Choice and Becoming Darth Vader

Shortly after Obi-Wan Kenobi had dealt with General Grievous on Utapau, Anakin delivered the message to the Chancellor. Palpatine began to talk calmly with Anakin, about how he was being excluded from the Council, and that they distrusted him. It was then that Palpatine revealed the truth about himself he was Darth Sidious, the Dark Lord of the Sith.

Anakin pulled out his lightsaber to kill him, but he knew that since he was a Sith, he had the power to save his wife. In despair, he told Jedi Master Mace Windu about the news. In great shock, Mace needed to move quickly to make sure the Jedi Order survived, Anakin asked to come along but Mace told Anakin to wait at the Jedi Temple. Anakin insisted he had to come, but Mace told him that he had earned his trust.

So Anakin waited at the temple while Mace took various members of the Jedi Council, including Kit Fisto, to arrest the Chancellor. Anakin stared at the building which contained Palpatine's office, and his thoughts and emotions took control of his decisions. Anakin heard the Sith Lord's voice in his head: "If the Jedi destroy me, any chance of saving her will be lost." Anakin did not want to lose Padmé the way he lost his mother. He hurried as fast as he could to the Chancellor's Suite.

After going to the office of Palpatine, the young Jedi found the Sith Lord on the ground, with Mace's lightsaber blade pointed at his chest. Mace told Anakin the only way to bring peace was to destroy the Sith Lord, but Anakin said it should not be done; it was not the Jedi way. Anakin had to make the choice, Jedi or Sith. As soon as the purple laser started its way to kill the Sith, Anakin's blue blade cut off Windu's hand. As Mace screams in pain, Palpatine yelled power cackling with glee torturing Windu and throwing the Jedi Master out of a the window with devastating Sith lightning to his death. After helping the Sith Lord, Anakin realized that he had nowhere left to go and pledged himself to Palpatine's teachings. At this point, Palpatine then christened him as Darth Vader before Palpatine summoned all of the Clone Troopers to execute Order 66: the death of all Jedi.

Knightfall and Duel of the Brothers

Palpatine convinced Vader that the Jedi were the enemy of the universe, including Obi-Wan. Vader then led Clone Troopers in Operation Knightfall and assaulted the Jedi Temple, killing even younglings in the process. He then was sent to Mustafar and then killed the Separatist leaders, including Nute Gunray, and deactivated the battle droids. The CIS was no more and then Padmé arrived. Vader then met her for the last time and offered her half the power that he would have after he overthrew Palpatine.

Padmé could not believe what she was hearing and realized Obi Wan was right and that the Anakin she knew was no more. Obi-Wan appeared, having stowed away on Padmé's ship, and Anakin accused his wife of bringing his former master to kill him, lashing out at her with the Force and choking her into unconsciousness. The Sith apprentice accused Obi-Wan of turning her against him, when it was his own anger, entilement, and lust for power that did that. Anakin-Vader then attacked his former friend and mentor, and the two men engaged in a vicious and brutal lightsaber duel that ripped across the Separatist stronghold, eventually causing it to deactivate and fall into the molten lava rivers of the planet.

The duel came to a climactic end when Obi-Wan claimed the high ground and warned Anakin-Vader not to attack. In a mixture of anger and pride, Anakin-Vader attempted to continue the duel, only to have his legs and left arm severed by his former master's blade. Obi-Wan could only express his regret and disappointment in Anakin-Vader's ways, chewing him out for not living up to his mantle as the Choosen One before the Sith Lord psychopathically expressed his hatred for Obi-Wan and slid too close to a lava flow, getting burned alive. Obi-Wan retrieved his former pupil's lightsaber and departed, leaving his former student to die.

Me: Geez.

Nico: No kidding.

Me: I will face Anakin first. Then you all can come in for the kill. We're going to leave him here for dead. I sense that Padme is also here. Lets go! Anakin, you stay here on the ship. We don't want him to see you with us.

Anakin: I understand.

Muscle Man: Hey, Anakin! You know who else thinks you've gone nuts? My mom!

We laughed.

Qin: So funny!

We flew down to the planets surface.

Anakin 2: You're with him! You brought him here to kill me!

I fired a blast of Force Lightning and sent Anakin 2 flying as we landed and he saw us standing in front of Padme as she was pregnant with Luke and Leia.

Me: It's over Anakin!

Anakin 2 got up and he saw us.

Anakin 2: You all turned her against me!

Obi-Wan: You have done that yourself!

Me: You will pay for your crimes!

Anakin 2: You will not take her from me!

Obi-wan: Your anger and your lust for power have already done that. You have allowed this Dark Lord to twist your mind until now you have become the very thing you have sworn to destroy.

Me: That's right.

Anakin 2: Don't lecture me Obi-Wan. I see through the lies of the Jedi.

Me: The Jedi aren't the liars, Palpatine is.

Anakin 2: I do not fear the Dark Side like all of you do.

Me: You should fear it.

Anakin 2: I have brought peace, freedom, justice and security to my new empire.

Obi-Wan: Your new empire?

Anakin 2: Don't make me kill all of you.

Me: Your new empire is a tissue full of lies.

Obi-Wan: Anakin, my allegiance is to the Republic. To democracy!

Me: That's right. Your empire will destroy everything in the entire galaxy!

Anakin 2: If you're not with me, then you're my enemy!

Me: I'll handle this Master Obi-Wan.

Obi-Wan: Of course.

I stood ready.

Me: Only a Sith deals in absolute. I will do what I must.

I had my lightsaber ready.

Anakin 2: You will try.

I ignited my lightsaber and Anakin 2 did the same and we clashed violently as sparks were flying all over the place at an incredible level and setting much of the whole planet on fire. I kick him in the face and punch him in the stomach and he went flying down a hall into the Mustafarian control room. I run after him and fire Force Lightning and he deflects it and it hits the controls for the heat blocking system and destroys them. I run out onto a blocker and we fight over the lava and Anakin 2 was on a blocker as it melted and fell into the lava and we were on it. I spread my wings and fly onto the land by the lava river. I sensed Anakin 2 coming and he was not going to stop until he killed me.

Me: Here he comes.

I saw him jump onto the head of a robot and I flew over the river of lava and we clashed some more. We stopped and I was looking into this eyes. They were flooded with the very essence of the Dark Side of the Force.

Me: I don't understand you Anakin. How can you believe all of Palpatine's lies so easily? Are you really that gullible?

Anakin 2: He told me that the Jedi were trying to take over.

Me: That is a total crock of pure bullshit! Palpatine is evil in its purest form. He's the Devil Incarnate.

Anakin 2: From my point of view the Jedi are evil!

Me: How fucked up are you!?

We were flying over the lava and clashed some more.

I jumped back and landed on the land.

Me: You won't win Anakin.

Anakin 2: You underestimate my power!

Me: Bring it!

He jumped into the air to get to me!

Me: NOW!

The blasts combined and they hit Anakin 2 and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew off his left arm and his legs and sent him rolling and he was next to the edge of the river of molten lava. He was groaning in excruciating pain and he looked at us and his eyes were flooded completely with the Dark Side of the Force.

Obi-Wan: YOU WERE THE CHOSEN ONE! IT WAS SAID THAT YOU WOULD DESTROY THE SITH! NOT JOIN THEM! BRING BALANCE TO THE FORCE, NOT LEAVE IT IN DARKNESS!

Me: That's right Anakin! You brought all of this on yourself. Now you will have to share the fate of all Jedi when they come here.

I took Anakin 2's lightsaber.

Anakin 2: I HATE YOU!

Our auras flared up with incredible intensity!

Obi-Wan: You were my brother Anakin. I loved you.

But then he got lit on fire and screamed in pain as he was burning. We looked away as he was being burned. We left and left Anakin 2 on Mustafar for dead.

DEATH STAR 1

---

Next was an epic space battle and we were gonna destroy the Death Star. We got in our star ships and we were ready to destroy THE DEATH STAR!

---

The Death Star, known officially as the DS-1 Orbital Battle Station, or the Ultimate Weapon in early development stages, and later referred to as the Death Star I and the First Death Star, was a moon-sized, deep-space mobile battle station constructed by the Galactic Empire. Designed to fire a single planet-destroying superlaser powered by massive kyber crystals, it was the pet project of Emperor Palpatine, Director Orson Callan Krennic, and its eventual commander Grand Moff Wilhuff Tarkin to expound the military philosophy of the aptly named Tarkin Doctrine.

Some of the earliest plans for a mobile, planet-destroying superweapon dated back millennia to the ancient Sith. Thousands of years later, shortly before the outbreak of the Clone Wars, the Geonosians, aligned with Count Dooku and the Confederacy of Independent Systems, designed the Ultimate Weapon in secret. After the fall of the Confederacy, construction of the Death Star was appropriated by the nascent Empire. It was built in orbit of Geonosis and supported by a complex logistical network of bases. The station, which took many years longer to complete than expected, was eventually moved from Geonosis to Scarif in its final stages of construction.

When the Alliance to Restore the Republic learned of its existence, rogue operatives Jyn Erso and Cassian Andor led a mission to steal the Death Star plans, which the Rebellion against the Empire eventually joined, realizing it was essential for its survival. These plans were ultimately transmitted to Princess Leia Organa of Alderaan aboard the Tantive IV, before her capture and demonstration of the weapon's capabilities on her home planet. After a daring rescue, Organa got the plans to the Rebel base on Yavin 4, from which the Alliance launched the Battle of Yavin with a small squadron of starfighters. The original station was destroyed by a shot fired by Rebel pilot Luke Skywalker with the aid of the Force.

The destruction of the Death Star weakened the Imperial Military, and Rebel assaults on Imperial installations prompted the construction of a second Death Star, both as a sign of defiance and technological terror. Despite this, it, like its predecessor, was destroyed with all hands lost. Decades later, the Empire's successor state, the First Order, constructed Starkiller Base, a much larger planet-destroying superweapon considered to be an evolution of the Death Star project of the Old Empire.

We were in the Yavin System and we were in our starships heading towards the Death Star and ready to fight and blow it to smithereens.

Red Leader: All wings report in.

Me: Roger that.

The Y-Wings went into the trench and laser turrets were firing at them.

Gold Leader: Switch all power to front deflector screen. Switch all power to front deflector screen.

They flew down the trench as lasers were being fired at them.

Gold Leader: How many guns do you think Gold 5?

Gold 5: I'd say about 20 guns. Some on the surface, some on the tower.

Gold Leader: Switch to Targeting computer.

The computer was in his face and he had 47,080 feet to go and counting.

Gold 3: Computer is locked. Getting the signal.

They continued flying and the turrets stopped firing.

Gold 3: The guns, they've stopped.

Gold 5: Stabilize your rear deflectors. Watch for enemy fighters.

But it didn't go in and exploded on the surface.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM

Me: Negative Impact. Nico, Luke, Vince, lets head in and see if we can finish the job.

Nico: Right.

We flew through the Trench and it was gonna be an awesome run.

Me: I see the exhaust port. Luke, everyone, lets use the Force and do it.

DARTH VADER

Now we were over at the Gas Giant planet Bespin and we were inside the famous Cloud City.

Bespin was a gas giant in the star system of the same name. Forming a part of the Anoat sector, its riches manifested in the form of rare tibanna gas. Attracting mining interests and remaining unaffiliated in galactic affairs, ugnaughts were employed to extract tibanna from repulsorlifted facilities whilst Bespin's mostly human population resided in the open upper levels, exposed to a thin layer of breathable atmosphere in an area known as the "Life Zone."

Bespin was an immense gas giant located in the vicinity of the Anoat sector, a desolate sector of the galaxy. Bespin had two moons, and its gaseous mass contained a thin stratum of habitable atmosphere above a source of rare tibanna gas. The planet completed a full orbit around its star every 14 standard-years and a full rotation every 12 standard-hours. Viewed from the upper levels of Cloud City, in the breathable layer of the world, sunsets lasted 2 hours.

Tibanna gas was harvested and refined in several mining complexes, including Cloud City, an opulent metropolis suspended in the planet's huge billowing clouds, and Chinook Station, a fuel depot and refueling station The Ugnaught city of Ugnorgrad also was located over the planet, being ruled by King Ozz in the time after the Battle of Endor.

Bespin was home to many types of life, which was rare for a gas giant. The planet had two sister worlds, from which is was separated by an asteroid belt called Velser's Ring.

Swimming pools were considered a rare luxury on Bespin.

History

During the Galactic Civil War, Bespin remained unaffiliated, but that did not prevent the Galactic Empire from garrisoning the planet and seizing Cloud City. However, with the Empire's defeat at Endor, the gas giant and its prosperous mining colony ended up recovering their freedom.

---

We were in the bowels of Cloud City and it was amazing.

Me: Wow!

We then heard breathing and we saw DARTH VADER!

---

Shortly afterwards, the crippled and disfigured Anakin-Vader was rescued by Palpatine and his clone troopers, and brought to a medical facility on Coruscant. He had prosthetics fitted into his legs and left arm before being outfitted with a life support suit of armor with his speed being reduced as punishment for his failure. Vader then inquired Palpatine of Padmé's fate saying "Where is Padmé? Is she safe? Is she all right?" and the newly-crowned Emperor lied, saying, "It seems in your anger, you killed her." This was partially true as Padme died sometime after Anakin choked her. Devastated and heartbroken by this news, Vader broke of the cuffs restraining his wrists and ankles to the table he was strapped to, releasing the powerful Force, and shouted "NOOOOOOOOOOOO!". Anakin's transformation into Darth Vader was complete. With his wife gone, the heart-broken Sith Lord only had one remaining purpose in life and that was to serve Palpatine, unaware that before Padme's death, she had given birth to two children, Luke and Leia, who would grown up to redeem their father and defeat his new evil master.

After his recovery, Vader took his place as the Emperor's right hand and chief enforcer, serving as the Supreme Commander of the Imperial Military, as well as a Jedi Hunter. Unknown to him, Palpatine, on top of using him, made his transformation as painful as possible on purpose to punish him.

Star Wars Rebels

Shortly after the fall of the Jedi Order and the rise of the Empire, Vader and the Emperor formed a band of Force-Sensitive Imperial Inquisitors to serve as Vader's assistants in hunting down and killing any Jedi that had survived Order 66's strike. The most notable individual of this organization was the yellow-eyed Pau'an "Grand Inquisitor," though it also consisted of the grey-skinned Fifth Brother, the blue-eyed Sixth Brother, the deadly, green-skinned Seventh Sister, and the nimble and acrobatic Eighth Brother.

Fourteen years later, the Emperor sensed a new threat that could rise against him; the children of the Force. Under the command of his master, Darth Vader tasked the Grand Inquisitor with hunting down this new enemy.

Following the escape of a rebel cell consisting of crew members of a freighter called the "Ghost" that led to the Inquisitor's death above Mustafar, rumors of what had happened became known, riots and uprisings begun to occur on several worlds. Concerned at the rise in rebel activity, the Emperor sent Vader to Lothal with Grand Moff Wilhuff Tarkin to end the growing rebellion.

Vader met with Agent Kallus and Minister Maketh Tua to discuss his plans with dealing with rebels. Vader then had Kallus escort the Minister to her shuttle, where she was killed and the incident was blamed on the rebels. When the Rebels tried to steal a ship to make their escape, Vader and his Stormtroopers confronted them. Vader then dueled with the leader of the rebels, a former Jedi trained under Master Depa Billaba named Kanan Jarrus, and his apprentice, Ezra Bridger. Vader was easily able to overpower them and attempted to kill Ezra with his own lightsaber until Kanan intervened. Their fellow rebels Zeb Orrelios and Sabine Wren used thermal detonators to cause an AT-DP to fall on Vader, but he survived and used the Force to lift the burning walker off him. The Rebels fled the scene in a stolen shuttle and instead of pursuing them, Vader let them go.

Vader then allowed the rebels to escape through the blockade, letting them lead him to his true target; the Rebel fleet. Vader took his TIE Advanced x1 fighter to attack the Rebel fleet, destroying most of the fighters and severely damaging the command ship.

During the fight, Vader sensed that his former apprentice, Ahsoka Tano, was alive and part of the Rebel fleet. Vader tried to capture her, but was unable to get past the Ghost. When two Star Destroyers arrived, Vader tried to stop the Rebels, but lost them when they jumped into hyperspace and he was caught in the tractor beam instead.

Following his victory, Vader contacted the Emperor and informed him that Skywalker's apprentice was still alive and working with the rebels. Both Vader and the Emperor were pleased by this, knowing she could lead them to other Jedi survivors, even Obi-Wan Kenobi, whom Vader was still obsessed with seeking revenge upon for his defeat on Mustafar. The Emperor urged Vader to to be patient when searching for his former master, and then ordered him to send another Inquisitor to hunt the rebels down. As per his master's orders, Vader assigned the Fifth Brother and Seventh Sister to the task.

Many months later, Vader arrived at the Lothal Jedi Temple and was impressed by the Fifth Brother and Seventh Sister's work. The Fifth Brother revealed that the Jedi are growing in their power, to which Vader calmly retorted that it would be their undoing.

Later, Vader arrived on Malachor on top of his TIE Advanced x1 and confronted Ezra. He questioned the boy as to how did he open the path to the Malachor Sith Temple; Ezra told him to find out himself and engaged Vader in battle, but the Sith Lord was too strong and easily destroyed Ezra's lightsaber.

But before he could finish the boy off, Ahsoka arrived and engaged Vader. He eventually managed to knock Ahsoka out of the Temple and attempted to stop Ezra and a blinded Kanan from escaping with a Sith Holocron.

A recovered Ahsoka charged up behind Vader and slashed half of his mask off, knocking him down to the floor and exposing a considerable amount of his disfigured face, including his yellow right eye. Seeing that he really was her former master, Ahsoka refused to leave him again. For a moment, Ahsoka's compassion appeared to have reached Vader, but he then shrugged it off. Coldly declaring that she would die, he ignited his lightsaber and moved to attack her again. As the pair resumed their battle, the temple collapsed and exploded around them, with Kanan and Ezra barely managing to escape.

Vader had the opportunity to strike Ahsoka down, but at that moment a time-displaced Ezra pulls Ahsoka into a portal with a dumbfounded Vader left alone in the collapsing temple.

Vader survived the collapse and later limped away from the ruins, unaware that Ahsoka was able to return to the temple's ruins some after his departure.

Episode Appearances

Shortly after the confrontation with Ahsoka, with a meeting with Grand Admiral Thrawn (whom he highly regards), Vader returns to his refuge, a sinister castle on Mustafar. While in a regeneration capsule and guarded by two of his loyal Imperial Royal Guards, Vader is visited by Imperial Director Orson Krennic, who is in charge of the creation of the Death Star. Krennic complains to him that Grand Moff Tarkin has taken over the Death Star - his project. Krennic urges Vader to allow him to present the weapon to the Emperor to make sure the Emperor understands what the weapon is capable of. However, Vader is more concerned with the recent security leak and orders Krennic to make sure that the weapon will be operational and invulnerable. Seeing that as a sign that he and not Tarkin is in charge of the Death Star operation, Krennic asks Vader, who is already leaving, whether Vader will secure him an audience with the Emperor. Enraged at being questioned by one of his underlings, Vader silences Krennic by force choking him while turning around to see the man, telling Krennic to 'be careful not to choke on his aspirations' before releasing Krennic and returning to his regeneration chamber.

When the plans of the Death Star are broadcast from Scarif to the Rebel fleet, Vader arrives in his Imperial Star Destroyer the Devastator moments before the fleet can jump to hyperspace. Leading a boarding commando himself, Vader enters the flagship of the Rebel fleet, intending to retrieve the plans. Once aboard the ship, he starts slaughtering the nearby rebel soldiers but cannot prevent a small group escaping onto a smaller ship with the plans.

As Vader enters the hangar, he can only watch as the ship carrying the plans docks loose and escapes.

Star Wars: Episode IV - A New Hope

Shortly afterwards, Vader is charged with recovering the stolen plans of the Death Star and finding the Rebel Alliance's secret base. He and the storm troopers attack the ship owned by Princess Leia, who was in fact his own daughter. He captures and "interrogates" Princess Leia and, along with Death Star commander Grand Moff Tarkin, destroys her homeworld of Alderaan. Shortly afterward, he duels his former master, Obi-Wan Kenobi, who has arrived at the Death Star to rescue Leia, and cuts him down, turning him into a spirit in the Force. He then encounters his son, Luke, during the Battle of Yavin, and senses in him a great strength in the Force; this is confirmed moments later when the boy destroys the battle station. He was about to shoot Luke down using his TIE fighter, but Han Solo disabled his ship using the guns on the Millennium Falcon, and sent Vader spinning into space. The Death Star was then destroyed by Luke's torpedo, forcing construction of a second one.

When Obi-Wan told Luke about Vader and his father, instead of revealing Anakin's fall from grace, Obi-Wan instead said that Anakin and Vader were separate entities: Anakin was said to be his friend while Darth Vader used to be his apprentice until he joined the dark side of the Force, and killed Anakin during the fight. This was the half-truth however, though in some ways, it was true from Obi-Wan's point of view: The statement where Vader killed Luke's father actually refers Anakin's fall from grace where the good inside him almost gone, and Vader was his apprentice right when he was Anakin.

Star Wars: Episode V - The Empire Strikes Back

Three years later, Vader leads an assault on a rebel base on planet Hoth, dispatching probe droids to confirm this. Though the Empire takes the base after a while, Leia, Han Solo, Chewbacca and Vader's old droid C-3PO escape in the ship, the Millenium Falcon. One scene shows Vader speaking with Emperor Palpatine via hologram, when Palpatine senses a disturbance in the Force that confirms the rebel Luke Skywalker to be Vader's son. In Cloud City, he strikes a deal with the administrator of Cloud City, Lando Calrissian to give Han over to the bounty hunter Boba Fett. Calrissian, Fett and Vader he capture Leia, Han, Chewbacca, and 3PO on Cloud City to lure Luke into a confrontation. and has Solo frozen in carbonite. Luke, who has been partially trained by Yoda, confronts the Sith Lord in the carbonite chamber, and ignites his lightsaber. Vader does likewise, and Luke attacks him. An increasingly one-sided duel broke out, in which Luke was overwhelmed by lightsaber, Force and strategy time and again, all the while Vader calmly fended off every single attack. Eventually, Luke managed to land a blow on Vader's shoulder. Then, deciding that the duel had gone on long enough, Vader resorted to unleashing the full breadth of his lightsaber skills and brutally overpowers Luke, ending the duel abruptly by cutting off his right hand. Vader then reveals his true identity as Luke's father and offers his son the chance to overthrow Palpatine and rule the galaxy as father and. Luke refuses, throwing himself down a mine shaft. He is sucked into a garbage chute and rescued by Leia, C-3PO, Chewbacca and Lando. He is fitted with a robotic hand to replace the one Vader had cut off.

Star Wars: Episode VI - Return of the Jedi

Some time later, he was charged with overseeing the completion of the second Death Star. He met with Palpatine on board the half-constructed station to plan Luke's turn to the dark side. By this time, Luke had nearly completed his Jedi training, and had learned from a dying Yoda that Vader is indeed his father. He learned about his father's past and fall to the dark side from Obi-Wan's spirit, and also learned that Leia is his sister. On a mission to the forest moon of Endor, Luke surrendered to Imperial troops and is brought to Vader. Luke then talked with his father, insisting there is good in him, which Vader denies. Aboard the second Death Star, Luke resisted the Palaptine's appeals to his anger and fear for his friends, but eventually tried to attack Palpatine. Vader stepped in and defended his master, and Luke and his father engaged in a fierce lightsaber duel. This time, they seemed to be evenly matched, but Luke calmly resisted Vader's lulling him to the dark side. However, when Vader telepathically probed his mind, learned of Leia's existence, and threatens to corrupt her instead, Luke snapped. Enraged, Luke violently attacked and very nearly killed Vader, severing his father's mechanical right hand and falls on the floor yelling in pain as Luke points the lightsaber blade near his face. He controlled his anger at the last minute, however, as he looked at Vader's cybernetic hand and then at his own; he realized that he was perilously close to suffering his father's fate.

Redemption and Death

As Palpatine approached, encouraging Luke to kill Vader and take his place at his side, the Jedi threw down his lightsaber, refusing to strike the final blow. Angered, Palpatine viciously attacked Luke with Force lightning and ignoring the second Death Star's shield down allowing Admiral Ackbar to order Lando Calrissian and Wedge Antilles to prepare the assault on the defenseless second Death Star. Luke writhed in agony under the Emperor's lightning, begging his father for help. As Palpatine tortured Luke, Vader looked at Palpatine then at Luke. Then, as he was unable to bear the sight of his son in pain, Vader remembered his life as Anakin Skywalker - his thoughts of Shmi, Qui-Gon and Padme coming back to him - then suddenly Vader spiritually ceased to exist and became Anakin Skywalker once again. Anakin knew that despite all the terrible things he had done as Darth Vader, he couldn't let his son be killed. So with whatever strength he had left in him, Anakin picked Palpatine up in the air, carried him away from Luke and over to the very core of the second Death Star and with a final shred of strength, Anakin threw Palpatine right down the core. When Palpatine hit the bottom of the shaft, he exploded into a wave of dark side energy. Anakin had redeemed himself and saved his son and the whole galaxy from Palpatine's wrath and also fulfilling the prophecy as the Chosen One. However, some of Palpatine's lighting went into Anakin's suit and mortally wounded him.

After regaining enough strength, Luke dragged his father (who had been mortally wounded by Palpatine's lightning) from the throne room to the docking bay holding the ST-321 shuttle. Moments from death, Anakin realized that he would die whether or not his son got him into the shuttle in time. He begged his son to take off his Darth Vader mask so he could look at Luke "with [his] own eyes." Luke complied and for the first (and as it turned out, the only) time, Luke and his father truly saw each other. In his dying breaths, Anakin told Luke that he was right about the good in him, and then died of his wounds, forcing Luke to mourn for the loss of his father. Luke escapes with his father's body as the second Death Star explodes, destroyed by the Rebel Alliance.

That night, Luke burned his father's Sith armor in the manner of a Jedi's funeral. During the victory celebration on the forest moon of Endor, Luke saw the spirits of Obi-Wan and Yoda, standing with the spirit of a redeemed Anakin Skywalker.

Legacy

In the years following Vader's death, his family kept the fact that Anakin Skywalker and Darth Vader had been the same person a closely guarded secret. No one outside the Skywalker family knew that Luke and Leia were the children of Darth Vader (other than Obi-Wan, Yoda and Bail Organa), though some people like Mon Mothma long suspected that Leia was Skywalker's daughter.

The secret was finally revealed in 28 ABY by New Republic Senator Ransolm Casterfo. This had the effect of ruining Leia's political career, and she resigned from the Senate not long afterwards. Leia soon founded the Resistance when it became clear that she could not talk the Senate into opposing the First Order.

Star Wars: Episode VII - The Force Awakens

Though Vader has been long dead by this point, he was referenced a lot in the sequel trilogy. Darth Vader's damaged mask has appeared in trailers for Star Wars: The Force Awakens, set 30 years after Return of the Jedi, directed by J.J. Abrams.

Instead of Vader, the new villain Kylo Ren took Vader's place. Taking Vader's damaged mask aboard his flagship, Ren vowed to Vader that he would finish what Vader had started. It is revealed later in the film that Ren is truly Ben, the son of Han and Leia, thus making him Vader's grandson.

The events of The Force Awakens revealed such an unfortunate fact where the impact of Anakin's evil actions as Vader proved to be greater than either he, Luke, Leia, and Han Solo expected: Ben, Luke's nephew and apprentice as well as Han Solo and Leia's son, whom upon learning Anakin's dark past as Darth Vader, decided to embrace the dark side and became Kylo Ren. This causes a major setback on Luke's dream to restore the Jedi Order to the point that he went to exile until Rey discovered him and give him a hope. Worse, Ren would ultimately be the frightening dark warrior who was responsible for terrorizing and killing possibly millions of innocent people, and the means to bring him back to the good side proved to be more difficult.

Star Wars: Episode VIII - The Last Jedi

Following the destruction of Starkiller Base and the evacuation of its surviving personal, including its prominent leadership, Kylo Ren is brought before his master, Supreme Leader Snoke, and is scorned by Snoke for his failure to protect the base and how he was defeated by Rey, a non-Jedi and a rookie lightsaber wielder. Ren leaves in anger and after he manages to deal heavy damage to the Resistance fleet, he begins communicating with Rey through the Force and she eventually turns herself into the First Order in an attempt to convince Kylo to turn away from the dark side.

She's then brought before Snoke where he then praises Kylo for his actions even going as far as to call him the Heir of Vader in another reference to the Dark Lord. Snoke is seen having his own guards similar to Palpatine and the interactions between Snoke and Kylo are similar to that of Vader and Palpatine. After Rey is pinned down and is a position to be executed by Kylo Ren, he instead kills Snoke and cooperates with Rey in killing his guards. After the fight, Kylo reveals that he only helped Rey just to deal away with Snoke and he reveals his true intentions to her; establish a new legacy where the previous establishment, the Jedi, Sith, Rebels, etc. are all erased from galactic history and their impact negated.

Kylo Ren takes on the role as Supreme Leader, surpassing the ranking his grandfather once held as he now leads the First Order.

Star Wars: Episode IX - The Rise of Skywalker

In the conclusion of the Skywalker Saga, Kylo Ren discovers that the call to the dark side he thought is from Vader was actually from a resurrected Emperor Palpatine.

Kylo Ren keeps Vader's helmet in his trophy room, and uses it to help himself see into the Force for guidance. When Rey sneaks onto the command ship and into Kylo Ren's quarters to steal back the dagger needed to find Sith technology, she sees Vader's helmet for the first time. She and Kylo are connected via the force and do battle; during the skirmish, Vader's helmet is destroyed. Upon seeing his destroyed heirloom, Ren relizes where Rey is and goes after her, though she manages to escape.

When Rey finally confronts Palpatine, Kylo has been convinced by her and the memory of his mother and father to betray the dark side and join her. However, the Emperor feeds off of their connection through the Force to each other, allowing himself to become whole once more. He throws Ben Solo down a pit and proceeds to attack the Resistance fleet. However, Rey hears the voices of past Jedi in her mind, including Anakin Skywalker, who encourage her that she is not alone. Rey finds the strength to fight back with their guidance, and uses the power of the past Jedi to kill Palpatine once and for all. This, however, weakens her to the point of death. Ben sacrifices himself, transferring his life to her via the Force, and the two share a kiss before Ben Solo dies and becomes one with the Force, having redeemed himself as his grandfather once did.

Darth Vader: The Force is with you young Knudson. But you are not a Jedi yet.

Me: We shall see about that.

Me and Luke went up to Darth Vader and ignited our Lightsabers.

Me: En garde.

We clashed powerfully in a powerful clash as sparks were setting much of the station on fire.

Then out came Dark Spicer.

Nico: Dark Spicer.

Dark Spicer: Hey guys.

Nico: Having a good Star Wars Day?

Dark Spicer: I sure am.

Me and Luke jumped back and we saw Dark Spicer.

Me: Dark Spicer.

Dark Spicer: Hello J.D. (to Luke Skywalker) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Luke: We shall see.

Me: You obviously have two new aliens to show us.

Dark Spicer: I do.

Dark Spicer turned into an Amperi form. It looked like a black Amperi with yellow and blue lines and it had spines on its tentacles and 4 extra eyes and it was surging with lightning.

Tesladoom: I call this form… Tesladoom!

Shanan: An Amperi mutant.

Fuse Man: Can you read minds in this form?

Tesladoom: Yes. But I know you all have some kind of protection in your minds. (shoots electric blast at Fuse Man)

Lincoln absorbed the lightning and fired it back at him and electrocuted him all over.

Lincoln: Try this one. LIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: ORDO HERETICUS/WITCH HUNTERS!

Lincoln fired a wave of light and it turned into the hunters of Ordo Hereticus and they slashed Tesladoom all over.

Dark Spicer: Good shot Lincoln. But how about this?

Dark Spicer turned into a Talpedon Mutant and it looked more like a mole and had a black appearance with red eyes.

Seismadoom: Meet Seismadoom!

Ed: It's one of the Cannibal Underground Mole Mutants!

Seismadoom: I'm sorry, Ed. But I don't know what you're talking about.

Laney: He has a crazy overactive imagination. He reads a lot of comic books.

Seismadoom: I see.

Seismadoom activates the drill in his arm and does a charging punch at Rhino.

Lynn kicked him away.

Lily: Try this one on. LIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: THE SISTERS OF BATTLE!

Lily fired a blast of light and it formed into a powerful group called Adepta Sororitas and they slashed and blasted Seismadoom all over.

Dark Spicer: Alright, Houndoom! Time to Mega Evolve!

Houndoom Mega Evolved into MEGA HOUNDOOM!

Me: A Mega Houndoom! Very impressive.

Dark Spicer: Thanks.

Lincoln powered up and fired powerful lightning at the Mega Houndoom and electrocuted it and knocked it out.

Dark Spicer: Nice job guys. I'll stay and watch with you all.

Nico: All right.

Me, Luke and Darth Vader clashed some more and we were demonstrating powerful skills of the Force and the Lightsaber and more. I threw objects at Darth Vader with the Force and Luke slashed at Darth Vader. We went down to a platform in the heart of the city and Darth Vader was there! We resumed out clash and it was brutal. We clashed all over the place and set stuff on fire and more. Luke was out on a beam and Darth Vader got the drop on him and slashed his whole hand off!

Luke screamed in pain and he clutched the stub of his arm.

I grabbed Luke's lightsaber and his severed hand.

Dark Spicer: YIKES! That must've hurt!

Me: No shit!

Darth Vader: There is no escape. Don't make me destroy you. Luke, you do not yet realize your importance. You have only begun to discover your power. Join me and I will complete your training. With our combined strength, we can end this destructive conflict and bring order to the galaxy.

Luke: I'll never join you!

Darth Vader: If you only knew the power of the Dark Side. Obi-Wan never told you what happened to your father.

Luke: He told me enough! He told me you killed him!

Vader: No. I AM your father.

We gasped in sheer shock! This was one of the most shocking and biggest revelations in all of the history of television and entertainment!

Me: OH MY GOD!

Nico: I DID NOT SEE THAT COMING!

Varie: IT CAN'T BE!

Aylene C.: HOW IS THAT POSSIBLE!?

Laney: HOW CAN THAT BE!?

Lana: ANAKIN IS ALIVE!?

Lola: BUT I THOUGHT HE WAS DEAD!

Vince: HOW DID HE SURVIVE!?

Dark Spicer: WHOA!

Luke was shocked and horrified!

Luke: No. NO! THAT'S NOT TRUE! THAT'S IMPOSSIBLE!

Darth Vader: Search your feelings. You know it to be true.

Luke: NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO! NOOOOO!

Darth Vader: Luke, you can destroy the emperor. He has foreseen this. It is your destiny. Join me and together we can rule the galaxy as father and son.

Me: He's not interested!

I grabbed on to Luke and floated in the air.

Me: Finish him.

Lucy Loud: DARK STYLE NINJA ART: THE NECRONS!

Sam S.L.: PLASMA STYLE NINJA ART: THE TAU FIRE WARRIORS!

Leo and Life Stream Dragon fired a powerful blast of energy and Lemmy fired a bunch of bombs.

Leo with Life Stream Dragon and Lemmy Koopa: LIFE STREAM MEGA BOMB BLAST!

Lucy, Sam, Leo and Lemmy: TWILIGHT BOMB KAMIKAZE BURST!

The warriors and bombs slammed into Darth Vader and exploded and blew him into a million pieces and killed him in an instant in a huge explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We went back to the ship and Ben used Alien X to give Luke back his arm.

DEATH STAR II

---

We were above the moon of Endor.

---

Endor, designated IX3244-A, also known as the Forest Moon of Endor or the Sanctuary Moon, was a small forested moon that orbited the Outer Rim planet of the same name and was the homeworld of the sentient Dulok, Ewok, and Yuzzum species, as well as the semi-sentient Gorax and Wistie races.

The moon was covered in dense woodlands, tall mountains, and savannas, and home to the sentient Ewok, Dulok, and Yuzzum species. It contained a breathable atmosphere to humans and 8% surface water. It also had two suns: Endor I and Endor II. Some of Endor's trees reached more than 1,000 meters in height.

History

Throughout galactic history, offworld raiders occasionally came to Endor to hunt the native Ewok population to make Ewok Jerky, which was a popular snack across the Outer Rim.

Sometime during the reign of the Galactic Empire, the Empire established an outpost on the moon that included a shield generator complex to protect the incomplete second Death Star in orbit of the moon. In order to make way for the complex, an Ewok village was razed by Imperial troops, leading to strained Imperial-Ewok relations. As a result of the repulsorlift field emitted by the SLD-26 planetary shield generator to keep the Death Star in a stationary orbit, Endor was prone to earthquakes, tidal imbalances, and other geological disturbances.

The moon was later the site of the monumental Battle of Endor that saw combat between the Alliance to Restore the Republic and its Ewok allies against Imperial forces who were attempting to protect the shield generator and prevent the Alliance from destroying its superweapon in orbit. After fierce combat on the forest moon, the Rebel Alliance managed not only to destroy the shield generator complex, but also the second Death Star. With the destruction of the Empire's dreaded battle station and the death of Galactic Emperor Palpatine and his enforcer, Darth Vader, the Rebels and Ewoks held a victory celebration on the moon, one of many across the galaxy.

The Rebels set up shields and tractor beams to protect the moon from debris from the destroyed space station. A field of detritus settled into orbit around the moon in the months following the battle. Additionally, the many hyperspace anomalies present in the Moddell sector absorbed the worst of the Death Star debris fallout. Despite that, some debris still rained down on the moon for a decade after the battle, but Endor's ecosystem proved resilient.

In 35 ABY, following the battle of Exegol, a Resurgent-class Star Destroyer stationed above the forest moon was destroyed through use of the Holdo maneuver. The event was watched by Wicket W. Warrick and his son, Pommet Warrick.

Me: The planet Endor. And we're right in the middle of the battle with the Death Star II.

Lincoln: The Rebel ships are all really outnumbered.

Me: Better summon a lot of ships to help out.

They all created Flagships of said elements and blasted a lot of fighters all over the place and blew them all into kingdom come.

But then the Death Star fired its superlaser at the ship. The shield held and blocked its power as the blast exploded!

KRAAAAABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Holy fuck!

Lando Calrissian: That blast came from the Death Star! That thing is operational!

Me: Not good!

Lando Calrissian: 01 this is Gold Leader.

Admiral Ackbar: All craft prepare to retreat.

Lando Calrissian: We won't get another chance at this Admiral.

Admiral Ackbar: We have no choice General Calrissian. Our cruisers can't repel firepower of that magnitude.

Me: My ship can Admiral. Just hang in there.

Lando Calrissian: Right. Han will have that shield down. We got to give him more time.

Nico: Right!

We were blasting more enemy ships apart. But then we got a good surprise.

Admiral Ackbar: The shield is down! Commence attack on the Death Star's main reactor!

Me: Lets do it!

Lando Calrissian: We're on our way! Red group, Gold group, all fighters follow me! (Laughs) Told you they'd do it!

Me: They sure did Lando.

We went over the Death Star surface and we went down a tunnel that lead to the Power Reactor.

Me: Here we go.

Lando Calrissian: Here goes nothing.

We flew through the tunnel.

Lando Calrissian: Now lock on to the strongest power source. It should be the power generator.

Me: Roger.

We sensed for the energy signal.

Wedge: Form up and stay alert. We could run out of space real fast.

Varie: Right.

We stayed together.

The TIE Fighters followed us and blasted an X-Wing.

Lando Calrissian: Split up and head back to the surface and see if you can get a few of those TIE Fighters to follow you.

Green 3: Copy Gold Leader.

We flew through the tunnel and we arrived at the Power Reactor.

Wedge: There it is.

It was a massive Power Reactor!

Nico: It's huge!

Lando Calrissian: All right Wedge go for the Power Regulator on the north tower.

Wedge: Copy Gold Leader. I'm already on my way out.

He fired Proton Torpedoes at the north tower and destroyed it.

Crow and Black-Winged Dragon fired a powerful blast of fire and dark energy and Roy fired a massive blast of energy from his cannon.

Crow Hogan with Black-Winged Dragon and Roy Koopa: BLACK-WINGED PLASMA CANNON BURST!

Their blasts combined and Lando fired proton torpedoes and they hit the reactor and destroyed it. We got out of there fast as the whole reactor exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We were flying through the tunnel as the whole place was starting to fall apart in a massive series of explosions and we got out of the tunnel just in time!

Me and Lando Calrissian: YEE HAW!

The whole Death Star II exploded in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: BINGO!

Nico: Galactic Empire you have failed this universe!

Lincoln: You said it Nico!

May: Yeah!

Varie: Awesome!

Laney: That was epic!

STARKILLER BASE

---

We arrived at the ice planet of Ilum. It was also the location of the

STARKILLER BASE!

---

Starkiller Base was a military base located on the ice planet of Ilum in the Unknown Regions. The base served as a stronghold of the First Order thirty years after the Battle of Endor. Commanded by an unofficial triumvirate of General Armitage Hux, Kylo Ren and Captain Phasma, it was armed with a superweapon capable of destroying entire star systems halfway across the galaxy. The First Order viewed this ability as an evolution of the planet-destroying capabilities of the Galactic Empire's Death Star designs, with the weapon serving as the ultimate culmination of Old Empire research into dark energy translations and hyperspace tunneling.

The base and planet was ultimately destroyed by a Resistance attack due to a weak point exploited by pilot Poe Dameron, causing the implosion of the entire planet as the superweapon was firing upon the Resistance base on D'Qar. The stored stellar energy then expanded, causing the planet to turn into a star.

Starkiller Base, also called "the Starkiller", was a base located on the forested ice planet of Ilum rich in kyber crystals that was located in the Unknown Regions. The First Order, a regime that believed themselves to be the successors to the ideals of the Galactic Empire, converted the planet into a base of operations owing to its unique energy-transmitting crystalline deposits, and used it to house a superweapon capable of destroying entire star systems. The superweapon consumed suns as a power source. Its mobility was provided by rocket ports on the far side of the base.

The weapon was powered by a type of dark energy called "quintessence", which was ubiquitous in the universe, and offered a practically unlimited power source to the First Order. Using a star as a power source, an array of collectors on one side of the planet would gather dark energy in stages, redirecting it to the planetary core, where it was held in place by the natural magnetic field of the planet, as well as an artificial containment field maintained by the machinery the First Order had installed within the crust. As the planetary magnetic field would not be enough to contain the amount of energy that the weapon required, a thermal oscillator was built into the planet. It generated an oscillating containment field which allowed the installation to expend considerably less energy at containing the dark energy than would be required using a steady containment field. A colossal hollow cylinder, large enough to dominate the view of the planet from orbit, penetrated the containment field to a predetermined distance, in order to direct the blast towards its target, and also to absorb its energy, which would otherwise cause catastrophic groundquakes. This design made the weapon vulnerable when it was fully charged, as the destruction of the containment field oscillator the moment before the weapon fired would release the accumulated energy not through the firing cylinder, but throughout the planetary core where it was being held, leading to the gradual collapse of the surface into the core.

As Starkiller Base was charged through the power of stars, it gradually blocked out sunlight until, running at full capacity, it extinguished it completely, leaving the surface in darkness. In order for the weapon to fire, its weapons engineers would induce a breach in the containment field, allowing the collected dark energy to escape the core through the hollow cylindrical opening on the antipodes of the planet relative to the stellar collector. During this process, the dark energy transformed to a state known as "phantom energy", and left the planet behind, tearing a hole through hyperspace along a perfectly linear path. The people stationed at the base called the dimension through which the phantom energy beam traveled "sub-hyperspace", and this method of delivering the payload was near-instantaneous across vast distances. The rotation and inclination of the planet had to be taken into account for the weapon to target something, and also the lack of obstacles between it and the target, as the phantom energy beam would only be intercepted by an object of sufficient mass (like a planet). When the phantom energy struck a planet, the interaction produced enough heat to ignite the planet's core, creating a pocket nova. The space-time disruption caused by the phantom energy's passage would make the nova instantaneously visible thousands of light years away, for a short time.

Starkiller Base was protected by a planetary shield that was strong enough to deflect any bombardment, and could not be penetrated by any ship traveling at sublight speeds. The shield had an exploitable flaw, however; a fractional refresh rate necessary for a shield of its size, which could be exploited by a single ship exiting hyperspace inside the shield, with barely a second to right itself before crashing on the planet's surface. The shield control was also localized, which meant that, in case it was disabled via malfunction or sabotage, the planet would be unprotected in the time it took technicians to arrive at shield control and reestablish its operation. If shield control was damaged beyond repair, shield control had to be overridden, which was a time-consuming process. These flaws were utilized by the Resistance to destroy the base. The Millennium Falcon entered the shield after traveling through hyperspace and crash-landed on the edge of a cliff.

In addition to the primary weapon and shield control, Starkiller Base's facilities included numerous ship hangars, sanitation infrastructure, amenities for the garrison of stormtroopers, flooding tunnels and a room dedicated to communications with Supreme Leader Snoke via hologram. Snowtroopers utilized Light Infantry Utility Vehicles to help maintain the vast technological accomplishment that was Starkiller Base, as its technology penetrated the entire planet. Crew and support staff helped maintain this vast technological terror in both surface and subsurface facilities, while the sheer size of the planet meant that droid workers were essential in maintaining the base. Sentry droids utilized rolling casters to travel through the base's interior, while patrol droids utilized long-range communications antennae to survey the wilderness above. The planet was also host to the largest known deployment of First Order military forces by the time of its destruction, with its command and operations crew drawing from both Army and Navy ranks.

We were now facing a new foe. It was the evil FIRST ORDER!

---

The First Order is the central antagonistic faction of the Star Wars sequel trilogy. The First Order is a reactionary, military, and political organization made up of the surviving remaining members and forces of the former Galactic Empire that were able to form together to create an organization bent on destroying the New Republic and the Resistance, and restoring the fallen Empire.

For roughly a thousand years, the Galactic Republic maintained peace and stability within the galaxy, aided by the efforts of the monastic Jedi Order and the Republic Judicial Forces. With the believed extinction of the Sith-ancient enemies of the Jedi Order and the Republic-the ruling Dark Lord Darth Sidious secretly plotted to overthrow the Republic with the formation of his own Sith Empire.

Sidious, along with his apprentice Count Dooku, orchestrated a secessionist movement by fomenting political chaos across the galaxy. Sidious secretly commanded a rival galactic government known as the Confederacy of Independent Systems in the destructive three-year Clone Wars, while ensuring himself elected as the next Supreme Chancellor of the Republic. Gradually amassing far more emergency powers than would be ordinarily allowed, along with changing the Galactic Constitution, Sidious eventually issued the Proclamation of the New Order, officially transforming the thousand-year-old democracy into the Galactic Empire in an instant and installing himself as the first Galactic Emperor.

During the Battle of Endor, the Galactic Empire lost the Sith Lord Darth Sidious when Darth Vader redeemed himself and turned against the Sith Lord, throwing the Emperor down a Death Star shaft to his doom. Vader became Anakin Skywalker once again in the last moments of his life. The Battle of Endor ended in victory for the New Republic. Soon after Endor the Rebel Alliance formed a new galactic government called the New Republic.

Without the leadership of the two Sith Lords, the Empire began to dissolve into the Imperial remnants. Just over a year after the Battle of Endor Republic and Imperial forces met over Jakku, and that battle ended in a decisive victory for the New Republic.

The surviving Imperials, represented by Mas Amedda, were forced to sign the Galactic Concordance with the New Republic and one Imperial remnant founded in the Core Worlds and Inner Rim. Left unable to form an effective resistance against the New Republic many Imperials fled to the Unknown Regions to escape and regroup in hopes of restoring the former Empire and founded the two Imperial remnants one locked in the cold war and the other in the Queluhan Nebula.

Origins

Amongst the fleeing officers were Grand Admiral Rae Sloane, Commandant Brendol Hux, his son Armitage, Enric Pryde, and several child soldiers. Meeting with the Emperor's flagship Executor-class Star Dreadnought Eclipse, Sloane and other surviving Imperial Forces regrouped. Upon discovering the Eclipse, Sloane ordered the Sentinel piloting the replica of Emperor's yacht Imperialis to bring the ship in and rejoin with the others. There, she intended to board and saw an opportunity to rebuild the Empire stronger and purer. As part of a contingency developed by Palpatine in the event of his demise, he commissioned the exploration of the Unknown Regions, where the Empire was to retreat and reestablish itself in the event of it's defeat. In addition to Contingency (which involved physical destruction of the Empire in the event of Palpatine's untimely death), secret bases, factories, shipyards and research laboratories were established in the Unknown Regions to act as a base for rebuilding the new Empire and it's war machine.

Not long after that the First Order was born and would model itself from the principals of the former Empire and would appoint former Imperial Officers to lead the order. Eventually the First Order would fall under the control of Snoke, a powerful being strong in the dark side of the Force, who assumed the title of Supreme Leader, with absolute control over the new regime. Through currently unknown means Snoke engineered the takeover of the First Order from old Imperial veterans such as Hux and Sloane. However, same was done in part by creating a new generation of Officers, trained and indoctrinated from birth in the ideology of the First Order, loyal to Snoke. He also managed to win over to his side Armitage Hux, the son of Brendol, who rose quickly through the ranks to General partly thanks to Snoke's favor, but also due to his own scheming, treachery and assassination of his rivals (including eventually his own father Brendol).

Rise of the First Order

The First Order would soon continue to grow and prosper as the order saw more and more of the Empire's lost strength return. The former assistants to the late emperor would return and became members of the First Order and began carrying out the order's greatest military secrets.

The First Order would later on begin to conduct mass militarization and growth and established multiple military bases, facilities, factories, and research centers to help speed up the growth of the order to help rebuild the strength of the former Empire to have a strong resistance against the New Republic. To circumvent laws passed by the New Republic banning arms sales to the First Order, many companies simply spun off subsidiaries (BlasTech and Mer-Sonn created Sonn-Blas, for example) that operated in First Order space.

The First Order would later go on to expand greatly with new fleets of Star Destroyers and the colonization of multiple worlds and control over vast star systems and planets that were previously left unexplored. General Armitage Hux was eventually put in charge of the regime's most important military projects, including Starkiller Base, which converted an entire planet into a hyperspace superweapon capable of destroying entire star systems. The indigenous inhabitants of the planet were exterminated or entirely enslaved to prevent the repeat of the Battle of Endor. Other projects including experimental technologies developed by the old Empire under the Tarkin Initiative, such as active hyperspace tracking.

Height of the First Order

Supreme Leader Snoke, through use of the dark side of the Force, was able to manipulate a young Ben Solo (later naming himself Kylo Ren) into joining the dark side of the force, and Kylo turned on his former Jedi Master and uncle, Luke Skywalker, destroying his temple, recruiting a dozen of his Jedi students to join him and slaughtering those who had fought, bringing Luke's plan to reestablish the Jedi Order to an end. Eventually, Kylo joined the Knights of Ren which would become the secret state religious body of the First Order. It became forbidden on all First Order controlled worlds to even pronounce Kylo Ren's original name, presumably under penalty of death.

The First Order remained unnoticed by the Galactic World for the first thirty years of its existence and the New Republic was reluctant to take any action even with the Chancellor going as far as to ignore them. Eventually however, the First Order began to violate Galactic Laws set up by the New Republic and soon, Leia Organa, along with many other senators who were concerned with the First Order, managed to fund and create the Resistance as a means of opposing them and soon war began between the two factions.

Thirty years after the Battle of Endor, the First Order has risen to power and is now at its height. The Order has been able to construct Starkiller Base on an ice planet called Ilum, which also serves as a superweapon which can destroy entire star systems when fired. On the planet of Jakku, the First Order sends down a division of Stormtroopers led by Kylo Ren down to the surface to capture Poe and find a map which would lead them to Luke Skywalker, whom the First Order has been searching for sometime now after he went into self-exile for his failure to carry on the future of the Jedi Order.

They couldn't find the map, so they captured Poe and had the entire settlement massacred which lead to a First Order Stormtrooper named Finn to free Poe and defect from the First Order. After his defection, a unit of Stormtroopers were sent down tot he surface of Jakku where they eventually found out where Finn was and attacked both him and Rey along with BB-8.

New Galactic War

Sometime later, General Hux gave a speech to a large gathering of Stormtroopers and other military personnel on Starkiller Base where he announced the end of the New Republic, the destruction of the Resistance, and the conquest of the galaxy under the banner of the First Order. Seconds afterwards, the Starkiller fired its planet-shattering beam and it managed to target and successfully destroy the Hosnian system where the New Republic's capital and main fleet was based at the time. Not long afterwards, the Starkiller was found and was destroyed in a bombing run by T-70 X-wings led by Poe Dameron, but the First Order leadership managed to escape, regroup, and survive.

After Starkiller Base was destroyed, the personnel killed on the base were avenged when the Resistance fleet was found and was ambushed by the First Order Navy. The effort was spear-headed by General Hux, but was later usurped by Snoke due to his failures. During the attack, the Mandator IV-class Siege Dreadnought Fulminatrix was destroyed, but the Resistance Navy was found and would be ambushed and destroyed one by one until only a few hundred remained alive and they evacuated to the planet of Crait to set up shop in an old Rebellion-era base.

While the fleet was being attacked, the New Republic began falling into disarray with the Core Worlds being weakened to the point that the First Order could conquer them within weeks and some Republic systems, most likely in the outer regions of New Republic territory, had already surrendered to the First Order, some of whom were already leaning towards the First Order due to a promise of order, others because of fear. Kylo Ren brought Rey to Snoke's throne room on board the Mega-class Star Dreadnought Supremacy, but he killed his master along with his guards and the Supremacy itself was severely damaged when the last Resistance cruiser was used to cripple the Supremacy and destroy twenty other Resurgent-class Star Destroyers escorting the Mega Destroyer via the hyperdrive.

Kylo Ren took over as Supreme Leader and he, along with Hux, lead the ground invasion of Crait where they attacked the Resistance forces on the planet with the intent on destroying them once and for all. Despite their best efforts though and most of the Resistance soldiers being killed, the remnants managed to escape and the First Order was left with the Resistance still active and an abandoned planet to annex into their territory. Despite the failed attempt at destroying the Resistance once and for all, the First Order has emerged as the new dominate galactic power as the New Republic is in disarray with some of its systems, Republic or not, already surrendering and the major member worlds are said to be conquered within a matter of weeks.

Fall of the First Order

One year following the death of Snoke, the First Order gained more power in the galaxy under Kylo's leadership as more worlds submitted to his rule. However, the stakes are raised when rumors of the return of Emperor Palpatine were confirmed after a message was broadcasted to the entire galaxy. Using a Sith wayfinder, Kylo tracked down Palpatine's location in the Sith world Exegol in the Unknown Regions. There, he learns that Palpatine revived himself by unknown means of the dark side, and that he was the true founder and benefactor of the First Order as he created Snoke as a figurehead to lure Kylo to the dark side. Palpatine also revealed that during his absence, he has created a cult called the Sith Eternal and a new massive fleet of Xyston-class Star Destroyers that are capable of destroying planets. Palpatine offers Kylo a chance of power by tasking him to track down and kill a scavenger girl named Rey, who turns out to be the granddaughter of Palpatine.

With that in mind, Kylo directs the First Order to search for Rey, and when they tracked her down, Kylo explains to her about her true lineage. However, Rey escapes, and Allegiant General Pryde soon learns that Hux has betrayed the First Order by sending out information to the Resistance as he felt disillusioned under Kylo's leadership. As such, Pryde executes Hux while Palpatine usurps full control of the First Order from Kylo and merges it with the Sith Eternal to create the Final Order, which drove an angry Kylo to sever his ties with the First Order and the dark side of the Force.

As Rey heads over to Exegol to confront her grandfather, she is horrified to find out that he is awaiting for her arrival and that he intends for her to kill him so that his power and life force can transfer to him. Palpatine also revealed that he had tricked Rey into leading the entire Resistance fleet into a trap in Exegol so that the Sith fleet (commandeered by Pryde) will wipe them out. However, Kylo arrives to the rescue, but Palpatine resurrects himself by draining the life forces from Kylo and Rey, before casting Kylo down a pit. Rey receives the strength of the deceased Jedi and uses them to destroy Palpatine for good. With Palpatine finally destroyed, the Resistance fleet was able to destroy the entire Sith fleet, crippling the Final Order and bringing peace to the entire galaxy.

Government

The First Order is a military dictatorship similar to that of the former Galactic Empire. The regime is lead by the Supreme Leader as its head of state and overall leader. Snoke was the first Supreme Leader as he ruled with an iron fist similar to that of his creator

Emperor Sheev Palpatine, in how he governed his subjects and subordinates. Much like that of Darth Vader, Kylo Ren held a position of power that was outside the formal rank of the First Order military and this would lead to conflict between Kylo and other members of the First Order military hierarchy, primarily General Hux, whenever their objectives and agendas conflicted with each other. The only Force-sensitives existing within the ranks of the First Order were Snoke, Ren, and the Knights of Ren, as the regime lacks members of either the Sith Order or the Inquisitorius due to the extinction of both dark side organizations respectively, with the exception of Palpatine, whom unbeknownst to them until 35 ABY, ressuscitated himself and is their secret benefactor and true leader.

Much like the New Republic, the First Order lacks any official capital and uses a mobile headquarters instead. Starkiller Base served its purpose as the unofficial capital of the First Order due to it being used as the main military base of operations by the leadership of the First Order prior to the destruction of the base at the hands of the Resistance. The Supremacy also served this purpose as it was the flagship of the First Order Navy and the personal headquarters for Supreme Leader Snoke. After both were destroyed, the First Order remains active, but continues to lack a central capital and most likely has a rotation system in which they switch between various unofficial capitals like the New Republic does with their government.

The First Order Security Bureau acts as the intelligence agency of the First Order and helps reinforce the regime across the galaxy both within and beyond the Unknown Regions. One notable agent was Terex, a known crime lord and former Stormtrooper. The other was Agent Tierny.

After Snoke's death, The First Order was governed by Kylo Ren and the Supreme Council until it dissolution in 35 ABY, caused by many members died including Kylo Ren.

Foreign Affairs

Due to the terms of the Galactic Concordance on the defeated remnants of the Galactic Empire, the First Order denounced the New Republic as an illegitimate government and fled to the Unknown Regions where they plotted how to undermine the new galactic government. During its early years, the First Order operated in deep secrecy and slowly rebuilt supported only by a select few group of people. As it rearmed and violated the Galactic Concordance, reports of its activities by the Senate Intelligence Committee were leaked, but the New Republic and its Senate did nothing. Seeking to make sure the New Republic didn't take any action against them, the First Order made deals with the Corporate Sector to influence members of the Galactic Senate such as Senator Erudo Ro-Kiintor to prevent the senate from imposing sanctions on the First Order and expanding the size and strength of the New Republic Defense Fleet.

As the First Order grew, it used diplomacy and established diplomatic connections with various groups, organizations and independent governments to grow its influence. It managed to secure deals with the Corporate Sector Authority and secured funding and support from the organization. The First Order managed to secure support and informants from sympathetic beings such as Imanuel Doza, a former Imperial Officer, and various different criminal organizations such as Warbird Gang on Castilion. After thirty years of subverting the New Republic, the First Order attacked them by destroying their capital of Hosnian Prime and invading their territories while the government was destroyed. The First Order also secured deals and agreements with various arms companies that later manufactured the starships and weapons they'd use in their campaigns of conquest.

Military

The First Order military is the armed wing of the regime as well as its most important and dominant aspect. Formed from fleeing Imperials seeking to escape the New Republic and the Galactic Concordance, the First Order would eventually rebuild itself over the course of thirty years after the end of the Galactic Civil War through Project Resurrection, a rearmaments program which saw the rapid growth and expansion of the First Order military through secret deals and the abduction of children to conscript into their own ranks. The First Order soon grew and conquered much of the Unknown Regions and managed to secure deals with major arms companies such as BlasTech Industries and Merr-Sonn Munitions. Both companies, seeking to support the First Order and avoid being caught due to supporting them being a criminal offense, created a subsidiary called Sonn-Blas Corporation within First Order space and armed the order with its weapons.

Years of expansion has allowed the First Order to establish arms factories and produce state of the art weapons from TIE fighters to blasters and other weapons. The Sinear-Jaemus Fleet Systems company created many of the ships and starfighters the First Order uses such as the Upsilon-class command shuttle, TIE/fo space superiority fighters and many others. Kuat-Entralla Engineering helped create and develop the Resurgent-class Star Destroyer for the First Order Navy which had both heavy firepower and invoked the fearful image of their predecessor, the Imperial-class Star Destroyer. One of the largest ships ever fielded by the First Order was the Supremacy, a Mega-class Star Dreadnought that served as their mobile capital and flagship of Supreme Leader Snoke before his downfall and death.

Just like their predecessors, the First Order fields a large army comprised of stormtroopers that formed the backbone of its army and the First Order Stormtrooper Corps. First Order Stormtroopers were usually either conscripts from when they were taken as kids and raised to fight or enlisted men from member worlds and go through tough and rigorous training with consistent standards and trained in the art of counter-insurgency tactics and improvisation. Many different variants exist such as heavy assault troopers, snowtroopers, and riot control troopers with different types appearing per every ten regular stormtroopers in a First Order Army unit. First Order Stormtroopers are highly trained, high quality professional soldiers that are battle-hardened warriors and have higher quality compared to their Imperial predecessors, especially since they lack the numerical advantage the Imperial Stormtroopers had. Since many of the stormtroopers were trained from infancy, they remain fierce and formidable warriors on the frontlines.

One of the many planets under First Order control is the snowy planet of Starkiller Base, a planet-sized superweapon capable of destroying entire star systems, was used as a major training ground and station for countless stormtroopers and other First Order personnel. The base was lead by an unofficial command triumvirate comprised of Kylo Ren, General Hux, and Captain Phasma; prior to its destruction by the Resistance. Despite its loss, the First Order had formed a massive army from decades of secret buildup and its size and scale shocked the New Republic who believed that the First Order's military was made up only of local planetary defense forces and ceremonial guards. Since the Resistance monitored their activities, they believed that the First Order was hiding more weapons than were known such as the Mandator IV-class Siege Dreadnought.

Judiciary

The First Order is governed as an authoritarian military junta and as a result have strict laws that are met with harsh punishments for those who break them. The First Order is merciless towards anyone accused of the act of treason and is met with the death penalty via public execution. Loyalty among the troopers is key for the First Order and will punish anyone for even the slightest breach of loyalty every day. Those responsible for public executions come from those in the Stormtrooper Corps and the executioners are rotated constantly and are random unlike standardized execution troopers that the Galactic Empire had. Stormtroopers who are chosen for public executions are picked at random and have their identifies kept anonymous. Executioner troopers have stormtrooper armor with black markings and carry laser axes for executions.

It's unknown what other laws exist within the First Order's borders, but they're most likely strict and other harsh punishments exist for those who break them beyond execution. Riot Control Stormtroopers act as the law enforcement branch of the First Order and are stationed on worlds under the order's control to maintain law and order on the worlds and keep them in line. They're given F-11D Blaster Rifles, like regular troopers, and only use them if riots grow out of control. They also have regular non-lethal weapons like shields and batons.

Science and Technology

Just like their predecessors in the Galactic Empire, the First Order is a highly advanced society with state of the art technology. The First Order continued weapons development and research into dark energy translations and hyperspace tunneling, the latter of which was also done under the Empire prior to their collapse. Starkiller Base was one of the proudest achievements of the First Order due to the sheer power and technological advancement the base had and was a testament to the First Order's technological capabilities. Starkiller Base was powered by quintessence, a form of dark energy, that kept the superweapon mobile and functioning and it was capable of draining energy from nearby stars so it could have the power to destroy entire star systems. Another advanced weapon that the First Order has is the superlaser siege cannons with a range of 200 meters and being made from miniaturized Death Star technology, though this weapon did require support due to its power and had a tracer beam to support its accuracy. It was used during the Battle of Crait and blew open the large blast door on the abandoned Alliance Base used by the surviving remnants of the Resistance.

Me: So that's the Starkiller Base.

Nico: Hard to imagine that it has the power to obliterate multiple planets all at once.

Laney: No kidding.

Me: We need to blow up this whole planet and make sure they never use it again.

Carol: I'll do it.

Me: Go for it.

Lana: Sensors are showing a shield around the planet.

Me: Engage cloaking device and fire tachyon bursts into the shields.

Liberty: Like in Star Trek IX.

Me: Exactly. When they reset their shield harmonics we strike.

The ship went invisible and fired massive tachyon bursts into the shields and it disrupted the shields.

Me: Now!

Carol: Here we go! ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: EXTERMINATUS!

Carol charged up a massive blast of atomic energy to an incredible level and she fired it and it hit the center of the Starkiller Base and it destroyed the entire planet from the inside out.

Me: Lets go!

We got out of there just as the whole base planet exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: BINGO!

Nico: NICE! Way to go Carol!

Leia: That was amazing!

Luke: Well done!

Obi Wan: Most impressive.

Me: Lets head on to the next world.

We were at the salty planet Crait.

---

Crait was a small salty mineral planet located in a remote sector of the galaxy's Outer Rim Territories. Covered with a layer of white salt over its red soil, the planet once hosted a Rebel Alliance outpost during their early rebellion against the Galactic Empire. Many years later, the uninhabited planet became a haven for Leia Organa's Resistance, which resulted in a battle between the Resistance and the First Order on the planet's surface.

Crait was a small, desolate, and uninhabited planet located in a remote star system of the same name. The planet was rich in minerals and orbited one star. A thick crust of white-colored salt covered nearly the entire planet surface, with red-colored rhodochrosite base beneath. Though dominated by large salt flats, the planet also featured mountains, canyons, and deeply sunken waterways-which were possibly home to aquatic creatures. Among these subterranean water reserves was a "briny" ocean. The planet had an atmosphere breathable to oxygen-breathers, such as humans, which was fed by the dissolution of underground reserves of solid oxygen and nitrogen-suspending crystals. The white salt-covered surface reflected the planet's sunlight, which would be blinding at midday. The sodium-containing salt also made the planet surface slippery, hard to travel; with gusts of wind sending up flumes of white salt. The planet was also inhabited by Vulptices, fox-like creatures with white, crystalline fur that lived within the burrows and tunnels beneath the surface of Crait. Occaisonally, large crystalstorms would break out.

Imperial Era

During the reign of the Galactic Empire, the early rebel movement-a loose network of rebel cells led in secret by Senator Bail Organa of Alderaan-established a secret outpost on the northern continent of the planet Crait. In the year 3 BBY, one of these rebel groups attacked Calderos Station, a large Imperial facility used as a deep-space waypoint, to weaken Imperial control and cover rebel shipment tracks to Crait. Although the rebels presumed that all data about Calderos Station was erased, Bail's adopted daughter, Princess Leia Organa, managed to find some old space traffic data which linked Crait and Calderos Station. To discover the identity of the attacker, Leia Organa and her guard Lieutenant Ress Batten traveled to Crait aboard the Polestar. After the ship landed on the planet's surface, Leia was detained by rebel soldiers as she refused their proposal to leave Crait immediately. Upon being taken to the base, Leia found out that it was her father who was in charge of this facility, and her parents were secretly organizing a rebel movement against the Empire.

The rebel movement eventually turned into a more organized Rebel

Alliance, and the Crait outpost was abandoned some time before the Battle of Scarif in 0 BBY, which marked the outbreak of the Galactic Civil War.

Later in the Galactic Civil War, Rebel heroes Leia, Han Solo, and Luke Skywalker led the Rebellion to Crait while searching for a location for a new Rebel base. During the search, they encountered Trusk Berinato, a male individual who employed some mining droids to work in the Mines of Crait. As Berinato showed the site to Leia and Solo, the Empire's SCAR Squad had arrived and fought Leia's team. However, SCAR squad was forced to limp away and Leia knew that Crait was not a viable location for a new base.

First Order-Resistance War

Many years later, some time after the destruction of the Starkiller Base in 34 ABY, Crait became a haven for the fleeing forces of the Resistance, a small military force founded by Leia Organa to combat the First Order. As a result, the planet became a battleground between the two factions, which involved V-4X-D ski speeders and the Millennium Falcon facing off with All Terrain MegaCaliber Six walkers, First Order AT-ATs, TIE/fo, and TIE/sf space superiority fighters.

---

Me: The planet Crait.

Nico: Sure looks like a strange place.

Lincoln: It sure does.

Laney: This is where Luke is fighting Kylo Ren.

Me: Yep.

I pulled up the history of Kylo Ren.

---

Kylo Ren, originally born as Ben Solo, is the central antagonist of the Star Wars sequel trilogy. He appears as the main antagonist of the first two installments, The Force Awakens and The Last Jedi; and he progressively becomes the deuteragonist of the third and final installment, The Rise of Skywalker. He is also the overarching antagonist of the second and final season of the animated television series Star Wars Resistance.

He was the dark, powerful, and extremely obsessive Master of the Knights of Ren, as well as the apprentice of Supreme Leader Snoke, before killing him to become the new and second Supreme Leader of the First Order and the new apprentice of Emperor Palpatine. He was also the son of Han Solo and Leia Organa, the nephew of Luke Skywalker, the grandson of Darth Vader (Anakin Skywalker) and Padmé Amidala as well as the archenemy-turned-ally of Rey.

He was portrayed by Adam Driver in his first villainous role.

Ren was born as Ben Solo, the son of Han Solo and Leia Organa, a year after Episode VI - Return of the Jedi, in which his parents and uncle Luke defeated the Galactic Empire and its leader Emperor Palpatine. He proved to be sensitive to the Force like his mother and uncle.

Fearing that Ben was too much like his maternal grandfather Darth Vader, Leia sent him to Luke to teach him about the ways of the Force and become a Jedi. However, Luke sensed a force of darkness inside Ben and contemplated on killing him, but cannot bear himself to do so because it would break both Leia and Han's hearts. However, Ben soon learned of Luke's intentions and took this as a sign of betrayal, fearing that he'll never be as powerful as he wanted to be. This insecurity is what allowed Snoke, the leader of the evil First Order organization, to corrupt Ben's mind. Snoke was actually a creation of Emperor Palpatine that was once again trying to manipulate a Skywalker to fall into the dark side. Sensing that Ben was on the edge of being turned to the dark, Luke decided to go to Ben's hut - located away from the Jedi temple - and to talk to him about it. He went into the hut where he found Ben sleeping. To his horror, Luke sensed the darkness in Ben and realized that he had already been corrupted by Palpatine through Snoke.

For instance, Luke thought that killing Ben would end the danger and he drew his lightsaber but immediately ignored the thought.

However, it was too late. Waking up at the sound of the lightsaber, Ben saw his armed uncle standing above him. Surprised by Luke's betrayal, Ben brought down the entire hut with his Jedi powers in an attempt to defend himself, burying Luke underneath. In this same night Luke's Jedi Temple was destroyed by lightning and most his pupils where killed. Ben took the blame for the Temple's destruction and left to meet Snoke feeling that he had nowhere else to go. Meanwhile, when Luke finally freed himself from under the hut, he only found death and destruction among him.

Later, Ben would join the Knights of Ren and become their master after killing their former leader, adopting "Kylo Ren" as his new name. He would also don the uniform of a Sith, with a black cloak and a mask (resembling Darth Revan's Sith attire from the Legends series) and officially join the First Order as Snoke's disciple and a warlord of the First Order. He also developed a rivalry with General Hux for Snoke's appreciation.

Star Wars: Bloodline

The reason for Ben becoming evil was not just Snoke's corruption and Luke's supposed betrayal, but also his parents' tumultuous relationship, given Han's career as a smuggler and Leia's role as a political figure. 6 years prior to events of The Force Awakens, Leia's political enemy Carise Sindian exposed her parentage to the public, which is likely the reason how Ben learned that he was the grandson of Darth Vader.

Star Wars Resistance

Kylo Ren is mentioned in the episode "The Children from Tehar", in which he murdered a prominent family in the village on Tehar. The children witnessed him wielding a lightsaber, which they've heard in the old stories about the Jedi. Kazuda Xiono reported this to the Resistance, the information was later sent to General Leia Organa. He later appears in the Season Two finale "The Escape", which takes place after the events of The Last Jedi.

In retaliation against the Aeosians who supported the Resistance, a fleet of Resurgent-class Star Destroyers invaded their homeworld of Aeos Prime and devastated it. After completing the orbital bombardment, First Order Security Bureau Agent Tierny and Stormtrooper Commander Pyre reported their actions to General Hux but found Supreme Leader Kylo Ren waiting on the other side of the holoprojector.

Ren had been keeping track of Pyre and Tierny's failure to defeat Colossus resistance and declared that he would not tolerate the existence of any Resistance out through the Force, Ren influenced the two to stand and point their blasters at each other. He then severed the transmission, leaving his subordinates with an ominous warning about the price for failure.

Though they managed to locate the Colossus station in the Barabesh system, the ensuing battle did not turn in the First Order's favor. Betrayed by the TIE fighter pilot DT-533, the First Order failed to prevent the Resistance operatives Kazuda Xiono and Jarek Yeager from warning their allies of the impending attack. Rather than retreat, however, the citizenry of the Colossus held their ground against the forces of the First Order. While the Ace Squadron intensified their attack run on the main Star Destroyer, Tierny received a transmission from Supreme Leader Ren. She beseeched him to send reinforcements, but Ren rejected her request, declaring the First Order had no tolerance for the weak. Once again, he reached out with the Force, but this time Tierny found herself struggling to breathe as Ren unleashed his final punishment on the First Order agent.

Star Wars Battlefront II

The hunt for Skywalker caused Ren to undertake a journey the planet Pillio. Although San Tekka was not found on the world, the First Order's allies captured and detained Del Meeko, a veteran of the Galactic Civil War who served the Empire and New Republic, in turn, as a member of Inferno Squad. Upon his arrival, the dark warrior was greeted by Protectorate Gleb of Jinata Security. Dismissive of the formalities, he instructed the Aqualish officer to lead him to Meeko. He found the former soldier wounded and alone on the bridge of the Raider II-class corvette Corvus.

Ignoring the prisoner's sarcasm, Ren used the Force to probe through Meeko's mind, determined to learn where San Tekka took the map. For all of Meeko's efforts to resist the probe, invading his mind was a relatively simple task for Ren, who saw memories ranging across the former commando's life-from his service on Scarif as a coastal defender stormtrooper to his participation in the Battle of Endor and the skirmish on Vardos. He also learned that Meeko encountered Skywalker on Pillio and subsequently discovered his faith in the Force. Ultimately, Meeko was unable to resist Ren's powers and revealed that San Tekka took the map with him to Bayora.

Having gained the information he sought, Ren turned the prisoner over to First Order officer Gideon Hask, one of Meeko's former teammates in the Inferno Squad prior the Empire's fall, who executed Meeko shortly thereafter.

Star Wars: Episode VII - The Force Awakens

Knowing that somewhere on the planet Jakku there is a map leading the way to Luke, Kylo arrives on the planet. His stormtroopers quickly round up all citizens of the nearby village, including village elder Lor San Tekka, who gives the map to Resistance pilot Poe Dameron before Kylo arrives. Poe witnesses the chaos the troops cause and gives the map to his droid BB-8, telling him to get away as far as possible. Kylo interrogates San Tekka, who recognizes him as Han's son and tells him that he cannot run away from the family he was born into. Kylo then murders the man with his lightsaber and orders Captain Phasma to kill all the captured villagers before putting the village off the map.

While the Stormtroopers carry out the gruesome task, one of them, Finn, does not participate in the slaughter. Poe, witnessing the murder from a hiding spot, fires his blaster at Kylo, but Kylo stops the laser blast midair, freezing it. Kylo then uses the Force to overpower Poe and has the stormtroopers take him captive. After Poe is brought onboard, Kylo leaves the scene and frees the frozen laser blast. Aboard the Resurgent-class Star Destroyer Finalizer, Kylo interrogates Poe and questions the location of the map. Poe's unwillingness to cooperate prompts Kylo to torture him using the Force to the point where he gives in and confesses the location. He sends his troops back to Jakku to find BB-8, who has already met the scavenger Rey. Poe is then saved by Finn, who has chosen to desert the First Order, and escapes with him to Jakku. After being told about Poe's escape, Kylo furiously demolishes the ship's interior with his lightsaber.

Kylo later talks with Snoke, who tells him that he soon will have to face his father. Kylo replies that, with Snoke's training, he is prepared, but Snoke nonetheless calls it the hardest test Kylo has to face. After Finn and Rey have met Han and Chewbacca, Kylo tracks the signal of the Millennium Falcon to Takodana. While his soldiers attack the building Finn and Han are in, Kylo tracks down Rey in the forest. Upon finding her, Kylo demands to know the location of BB-8, but after realizing that Rey has already seen the map, he takes her captive, planning to get the information out of her. Kylo tells his troops to retreat, as he now deems BB-8 unimportant.

Kylo brings Rey to Starkiller Base. When Rey refuses to talk to a man hidden behind a mask, Kylo takes off his mask, revealing how young he really is. When she refuses to tell him Luke's location, Kylo tries to break her spirit by using the Force, but is shocked when Rey blocks him out of her head, instead reading his mind and revealing his greatest fear: That he will never be as powerful and evil as Darth Vader. Disturbed by the fact Rey is actually strong with the Force, Kylo leaves the room, leaving Rey behind with a stormtrooper guard. However, Rey uses a Force trick on the stormtrooper to force him to free her. When Ren returns to see Rey's chair empty, he flies into a rage and destroys the room's interior with his lightsaber while calling the guards, prompting two nearby stormtroopers to leave the scene before Kylo can harm them.

After General Hux's speech, Kylo witnesses the destruction of the New Republic's capital planet as well as the Republic fleet by Starkiller Base. When the Resistance witness the power of Starkiller Base, they plan to destroy the facility before the First Order can destroy them with it. Han, Chewbacca, and Finn plan to infiltrate the base to turn off its shield generators as well as to save Rey. Before they leave, Leia tells Han to try to get their son back, which he promises. At Starkiller Base, they deactivate the generators and rig parts of the facility with explosives. Kylo, who is present on the base, senses his father's presence and tries to find him.

Han instead sees Kylo, who is just crossing a bridge; he then calls him by his birth name, Ben, and approaches his son. Although Kylo states that Ben Solo was weak and therefore eliminated by Kylo Ren, Han tells him that Snoke corrupted him and that he still has the choice to change. He also tells his son to come home, as his mother misses him. This touches Kylo, who admits that he is torn. Knowing that he would feel drawn to his family as long as his father is there, Kylo begs Han to help him in executing the choice he has made. Han promises and Kylo slowly hands him his lightsaber, intending for his father to kill him to end the pain. But instead, Kylo then activates his lightsaber and thrusts it into his father's chest, thanking him for making this choice possible, as without his father, he believes that his ties to the Light Side are forever severed. Han touches his son's face one last time before his deceased body falls into the abyss, causing Kylo to feel a little remorseful of what he had done to his father. Chewbacca, furious about his friend's death, activates the explosives and shoots at Ren, hitting him and dropping him to the ground.

Kylo sees Rey and Finn leave the building, then pursues them into the frozen woods outside of Starkiller Base. Rey calls Kylo a monster and tries to attack Kylo but he uses the Force to throw her far off into the trees, knocking her out. While Kylo screams at Finn that he is a traitor, Finn activates Anakin's lightsaber. The two engage in a furious sword fight in which Kylo gets the upper hand by ramming the crossguard of his lightsaber into Finn's shoulder. Though both of them are hit and injured multiple times, Kylo in the end defeats Finn and slices his back, causing Finn to drop the lightsaber and fall to the ground. Kylo then tries to use the Force to get his grandfather's lightsaber, but is shocked when the lightsaber flies right past him into the hands of Rey, who now attacks Kylo to avenge both Han and Finn. As a climactic fight progresses, the Resistance manages to destroy Starkiller Base, which results in a massive earthquake which creates deep rifts in the surrounding landscape; one of these chasms opens right behind Kylo and Rey.

Kylo drives Rey towards the edge of the rift. While pressing his lightsaber against hers, Kylo offers to train Rey instead of pushing her down, hinting that he has no true intention to kill her. This, however, causes Rey to realize her potential and, with the Force, she drives Kylo back, hitting him multiple times with her lightsaber and eventually slicing him across the face. Badly injured Kylo drops to the ground but before Rey can do more, a rift opens right between them, separating Rey from Kylo. Chewbacca then steers the Millennium Falcon towards Rey and she boards the ship with Finn's comatose body, leaving Kylo behind on the imploding planet. Shortly before the ultimate destruction of the planet, Snoke gives Hux the order to evacuate Starkiller Base and to bring Kylo before him so that Kylo's training can be completed.

Though Kylo is only last seen when a rift separates him from Rey, he fails to prevent the return of the Jedi when Rey finally finds Luke and tries to convince the last surviving Jedi Master in the galaxy to rebuild the Jedi Order once more with her aid.

Star Wars: Episode VIII - The Last Jedi

Following the destruction of Starkiller Base, Kylo feels that he is growing weaker ever since he killed his father; even a disappointed Snoke compares Kylo unfavorably to Vader by calling him an immature child hiding behind a mask, a statement that left Kylo very angry, causing him to destroy his mask and even tried to attack Snoke, only to be quickly beaten to the ground with a single burst of Force lightning. As Snoke becomes delighted to hear that Hux found a way to constantly track down the Resistance fleet and deduce their current location through hyperspace and orders Hux to lead a series of assaults on the Resistance fleet, Kylo decides to intervene to try to regain his master's acceptance, unaware that Snoke was merely inspiring him to make him go deeper into the dark side.

During the initial attack on the Resistance ship called the Raddus, Kylo uses his own TIE silencer to attack, but relents after learning that his mother Leia is onboard the ship. However, his wingman Poldin LeHuse relentlessly continued the attack on the Raddus, killing everyone onboard, though Leia saved herself by using the Force to pull herself to safety, while Poldin LeHuse is then shot down by the Free Virgillia-class Bunkerbuster Ninka in response, leaving Kylo, who is saddened to the point of tears, unable to do anything to help his mother.

Around the same time, Kylo and Rey have developed a Force Bond, which later is revealed to be the result of them being a dyad in the Force. During their Force Bond connections, they can communicate through their minds, and even see and touch across spaces. Ren at first tried to control Rey but found he could not, as they were too far and he is quick to realize that she is not projecting herself as it would kill her with her current abilities instantly, but he manages to find out that Luke is currently her mentor. Ren, fascinated by his connection to Rey, sought to understand it better and soon it reached levels where they can see each other's feelings and he grows attached to her, even showing a level of sadness when she referred to him as a monster and somewhat ominously warning her of Luke due to his past experiences.

Seeking to squash Rey's hopes of her parents being any significant, when they connected again, Ren was at the time bare to the chest yet he still taunts Rey for continuing to want parental figures and reveals Luke's supposed 'betrayal' that caused him to turn to the dark side. In one of their later connections, Ren and Rey finally genuinely bond over their common sentiment of abandonment and loneliness, touching hands across spaces. This moment is interrupted by Luke, who deactivated it with his regained Force powers. Nevertheless, Rey decides to bring Kylo back into the light side in hopes that the war would end peacefully but Ren believes otherwise. He believes that Rey is destined to join him and turn to the dark side. To that end, Rey surrenders herself to Kylo in the Mega-class Star Dreadnought Supremacy, and he takes her into custody.

Being brought over to Snoke's throne room occupied by Snoke and his Elite Praetorian Guards, Rey is horrified to learn that Snoke plans to use his Force skills to torture her into giving out the location of Luke so that he can destroy the Jedi legacy and cement the First Order's reign across the galaxy. Snoke even confessed that he used the connection between Rey and Kylo as part of his plan. However, this reveal also infuriates Kylo, that feels manipulated and used by his master and that had developed feelings for Rey during their interactions. As Snoke tortures Rey, he sadistically orders Kylo to finish her off by gloating of his ability to read Kylo's mind and calling the latter a 'foolish child' for his hesitation. However, Kylo tricked him into believing he's striking Rey but activated Luke's lightsaber and used it to cut Snoke in half by the waist, killing him instantly in an act of treachery.

After helping Kylo finish off Snoke's guards to their deaths, Rey tries to convince him to return to the light and help the Resistence as he finally killed off Snoke for good. Unfortunately, despite of his feelings for Rey, Kylo has no intention in returning to the light or helping the Resistence. Instead he stands his hand to Rey and offers her a place by his side to build a legacy far more different from that of either Snoke's or Luke's, letting the past and all old things die. Rey hesitates, but in the end, refuses to take his hand even after he pleaded to her. She escapes completely heartbroken and disappointed that he wouldn't come with her. Then, Kylo is found alone in the Throne room by Hux and when the General asks what happened, Kylo frames Rey for the murder of Snoke and Force-chokes Hux into compliance when the latter refused to oblige to his role as the new Supreme Leader.

Directing the First Order's new attack to the planet Crait where a hidden Resistance base is located, Kylo orders his forces to attack the base. After the base is breached, Kylo decides to face an arriving Luke by himself. Engaging his uncle in combat, Kylo manages to slice through him, only to realize that Luke was actually projecting himself through the Force from Ahch-To as part of his true plan to let the remaining Resistance members escape. Luke then warns him that the war has already started and the rebellion is already reborn and he will not be the last Jedi. As Luke dies in peace while bidding farewell to Kylo, this left Kylo very upset that he failed to seize his chance of killing Luke, knowing that even if he would lead the First Order into greater power, Rey will still continue on with the Jedi teachings to future generations. Afterwards, Kylo and his forces scoured the now-empty base, but finding only Han's golden hanging dice. Simultaneously, as the Resistance evacuates, Ren sees Rey again through their Force Bond as she boarded the Millennium Falcon; no words were said between them as she closed the door on him, making Ren look depressed and bow his head in defeat as he watched his fathers dice vanish from his hand.

Star Wars: Episode IX - The Rise of Skywalker

Despite his failure to kill Luke, Ren was able to obtain more power in the galaxy for a year as more worlds submitted to his rule in the First Order. However, he learns of the return of Emperor Palpatine, the founder of the former Galactic Empire who was thought to be killed by Vader. Ren then searches throughout the galaxy for a Sith wayfinder, which leads him to the Sith planet of Exegol, with the hopes of killing Palpatine as a show of his power. When Ren finds the wayfinder and arrives on Exegol, Palpatine reveals that he revived himself through untold means of the dark side of the Force, and that he has been manipulating Ren all along, having created Snoke and the First Order as a means of turning Ren to the dark side and training him in the ways of the Force. Palpatine promises Ren a new Empire upon which Ren will rule as Emperor, stating that they will accomplish this through a massive Sith Star Destroyer fleet, though he first gives Ren the condition that he must kill Rey.

Ren searches the galaxy for Rey and continues corresponding with her through the Force, using these correspondences to discern her location. Around the same time, he learns that a spy within the First Order is selling out information to the Resistance, so he orders his troops to be on the lookout for the spy. Ren tries to stop Rey from finding the other Wayfinder, though in one of his conversations with her, he warns her about Palpatine, tells her that she has a larger part in the story than he had initially thought, and promises to tell her the whole story in person. When they finally meet face-to-face once more, Ren tells Rey that she is actually the granddaughter of Palpatine, and that her parents lived as 'nobodies' and abandoned her in Jakku in order to protect her from Palpatine, who subsequently ordered their deaths afterwards. Ren also stated that he and Rey are a dyad in the Force with extremely powerful potential when joined together, two that are actually one in the Force. He urges her once more to take his hand and to join him to defeat Palpatine and take his throne together, but Rey refuses.

Later, he follows her to Kef Bir and meets her on the wreckage of the second Death Star. He urges her to join him again and destroys the wayfinder to stop her from going to face Palpatine without him. Rey becomes furious and they engage in a lightsaber duel. The duel ends with Rey impaling Ren, just as a dying Leia reaches out through the Force to both of them. Leia's death helps Rey to let go of the rage she was losing herself into and realize what she had just done. Immediately regretting hurting someone dear to her, Rey uses the Force to heal Ren and leaves him aboard his ship, after telling him that she did wanted to take Ben Solo's hand but not Kylo Ren's, which confirms that she does has romantic feelings for him but would never join Kylo Ren in the dark side.

Alone on the wreckage, Ren sees a vision of his father, Han Solo, and in an echo of their final encounter. Han Solo encourages him to leave the dark side and shows his affection to him touching his face, as he did on Starkiller Base. Ren gets emotional talking to his father, even close to tears. Ren tells Han that "I know what I have to do but I don't have the strength to do it." He then throws his crossguard lightsaber away, severing his ties to the First Order and the dark side, reclaiming his former identity as Ben Solo.

Now moved solely by the desire to save Rey, Ben follows her back to Exegol, where he learns that Palpatine is planning to sacrifice himself to Rey so that his spirit will be transferred to her and she will claim her new role as Empress of the Galaxy. It is also revealed that Palpatine has tricked Rey into leading the entire Resistance armada to Exegol so that his armada can wipe them out, to ensure that Rey will consumed by her hatred so that his sacrifice will be imminent. But Rey refuses to given to any hatred and agrees to do Palpatine's wishes to save her friends. However, Ben arrives to the rescue, which inspired Rey to refuse Palpatine's wishes and instead give Luke's lightsaber to Ben. Ben defeats the Knights of Ren and Rey defeats Palpatine's guards while the Resistance brings in a large armada to counter against the Sith fleet.

Unfortunately, Palpatine anticipated this move as he senses Rey and Ben's connection as a dyad of the Force, and absorbs the dyad to restore a full body for himself. With his body rejuvenated and his powers in full strength, Palpatine throws Ben into a bottomless pit out of complete spite against the Skywalker family for causing his previous death. Believing that Ben is seemingly disposed of, Palpatine cackles evilly as he uses his full power of Force lightning to attack the Resistance armada, putting them in complete peril. However, Rey uses the powers of the deceased Jedi to finally destroy Palpatine at the cost of her own life, thus saving the Resistance armada and allowing them to destroy the Sith armada for good.

Following the destruction of the First Order, Ben climbs out of the pit, seeing that Rey has sacrificed herself to destroy Palpatine. At first, Ben mourns as he developed romantic feelings for her, but decides to give her a second chance by transferring his life force into Rey, successfully resurrecting her. As Rey awakens, she and Ben passionately kiss and smile at each other in love before he, while still in her arms, peacefully vanishes into the Force, having used all of his life force to revive Rey in an act of love and sacrifice.

After the destruction of Palpatine and the First Order, the galaxy is finally at peace. In honor of Ben's sacrifice and love, Rey happily repudiates the Palpatine surname in favor of the Skywalker's as she recognizes them as her true family, thus leaving Palpatine's plans for conquest and power in vain.

Me: Whoa! He killed Han!?

Han: He killed me!?

Me: That does it.

We went down to the planet and saw Kylo Ren facing Luke Skywalker.

Me: I'll face him first. When I give the signal, destroy him.

Nico: Right.

I went down and I was facing BEN SOLO A.K.A. KYLO REN!

I was looking at him with eyes blazing full of hatred and they were red and demonic. Overflowing with retribution and avenging Han Solo.

Kylo Ren: So you are the famous J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Kylo Ren: Did you come here to say you forgive me? To save my soul?

Me: Not at all. I came here to kill you.

I ignited my lightsaber.

Me: You will pay for your crimes.

Kylo Ren ignited his Lightsaber and it had blades in the hilt.

I flared up my rainbow aura.

Me: I will never forgive you for everything you've done.

We went at each other and we clashed violently in a massive clash and sparks were flying all over the place and setting much of the planet on fire and I fired powerful blasts of Force Lightning and energy blasts and they hit by him and exploded in massive explosions of fire and more.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: How could you kill your own father in cold blood like that!? Han Solo was your father! The man who helped raise you!

Kylo Ren: He was weak! I killed him because he was holding me back! From destroying everything!

Me: You are a lost soul. All that power and you have no love for anyone but yourself. I pity you.

Kylo Ren: I'm sure you do! The Resistance is dead! The war is over! And when I kill Luke, I will have killed the Last Jedi!

Me: You are completely delusional. You don't have any idea how wrong you are. The war is just beginning. Luke is no longer gonna be the last Jedi.

Kylo Ren knew I was right. He saw into my eyes blazing with fury.

Kylo Ren: I'll destroy her, and you, and all of it.

Me: No. Not if I kill you first. Strike me down in anger and I will always be with you more powerful than you can ever imagine. Just like your father when you killed him.

Kylo Ren then came at me with incredible rage and I teleported into the air.

Me: NOW!

The AT-AT's and ships all exploded in massive fiery explosions as energy blasts and elemental blasts hit them and destroyed them.

Lincoln: LIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: STORMTROOPERS!

Lily: LIGHT STYLE GODSPLITTER, THE DAEMONHAMMER!

Linka: LIGHTNING STYLE: THE LOST AND THE DAMNED!

Laney: CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: THE EXODITES!

Maggie: DARK STYLE NINJA ART: DEATHWATCH!

Lisa Simpson: ENLIGHTENMENT STYLE NINJA ART: TAU ETHEREALS!

They fired blasts that turned into said armies and they overpowered and destroyed all of the ships and AT-AT's in an instant!

I went at Kylo Ren and slashed his stomach and cut him open.

Me: I've had it with this guy.

I summoned Phoenix Rebirth Dragon.

Ludwig Von Koopa: Lets get him.

I fired blasts of fire and Phoenix Rebirth Dragon fired a massive blast of fire and Ludwig Von Koopa fired blasts of energy.

Me with Phoenix Rebirth Dragon and Ludwig Von Koopa: MUSICAL FIRESTORM PHOENIX FLAME!

The blasts combined and they hit Kylo Ren and obliterated him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Go to Hell Kylo Ren.

He was sealed into the Book of Vile Darkness.

Snake Jailbird then appeared.

Fiona: Snake Jailbird!?

Snake: Surprised, Fiona? I brought rubber gloves to provide insulation against your electricity!

Fiona: That won't protect the rest of your body.

Fiona fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and knocked him down.

Hydro Man then appeared.

Hydro Man: Great job J.D.! I never liked Kylo Ren. He was as bad as they get.

Me: I know.

Luna Loud: Ready to dance?

Hydro Man: You know it.

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was KARAOKE ORG from episode 17 of Wild Force!

Karaoke Org was one of the ancient Orgs that tried to take over the Karaoke Org: Time for you all to listen to some music!

Hydro Man: I agree.

Luna: Shall we fight dude?

Hydro Man: Lets. Time for Gyarados to Mega Evolve as well!

He had his Gyarados Mega Evolve into MEGA GYARADOS!

Me: Whoa! A Mega Gyarados!

Hydro Man: Yep. What do you think?

Luna: Rockin dude!

Hydro Man: She we dance?

Luna: Lets.

Luna flared up her power and blasted Hydro Man with water all over and pulverized him and Mega Gyarados all over the place. They were knocked down.

Me: Nice!

My Signer Mark started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer.

Out came Devack.

Me: Devack.

Devack: Yes me.

Me: You have it out for me don't you?

Devack: I sure do and I won't stop till I kill you.

Me: Get in line. There are others who want me dead.

Nico: Yeah and we have our hands full with the Sith Emperor and his forces for Star Wars Day.

Devack: Then I will kill you first Nico!

He charged at Nico. Nico then kicked Devack in the stomach with devastating force and knocked him out in one devastating kick.

Nico: Sorry Devack but we don't have time for you.

Me: Lets go face the Emperor.

We were off to face the Emperor.

EMPEROR PALPATINE

---

We arrived at the planet Exegol.

---

Exegol (also spelled Ixigul in ancient texts) was a dark desert planet located within the Unknown Regions that, according to legend, was the hidden world of the Sith. It was occupied by the Sith Lord Darth Sidious and the Sith Eternal by 35 ABY. It was also the birthplace of Supreme Leader Snoke, whom Sidious created to rule the First Order while concealing himself in the shadows. Exegol was used to hide the Sith Eternal fleet amassed by Sidious and the Sith Eternal, from where they planned to deploy the Sith fleet and establish a New Empire. Exegol was the site of a battle during the war between the First Order and the Resistance, which saw the defeat of the Sith loyalists.

Exegol was a dark, barren, and rocky planet with desert flats. Its dry conditions, combined with the rubbing of dust particles in its atmosphere, created enormous static discharges that appeared as lightning strikes from the planet surface. The desolate world was covered with enormous fissures that reached deep into its crust. These were excavated by Sith loyalists who were attempting to reach a vergence they believed to lie beneath the surface.

Exegol's nearby space was littered with the remains of megafauna, resulting in a cloud of red gas and stardust to form before the world, posing a navigation barrier.

Early history

As mentioned by the Jedi writer Kli the Elder in the Rammahgon, Exegol (or Ixigul, as Kli wrote it) once had a fertile environment, until the Sith established their presence there and lay waste to the planet just as they did with Korriban, Ziost and Asog.

Exegol was one of the oldest Sith bastions, dating back to about a thousand years prior to the fall of the Galactic Republic. Under the Sith, the Sith Citadel was built on Exegol for meetings and rituals to be conducted within, and Sith loyalists excavated the world's large and deep planetary fissures in hopes of reaching a vergence believed to lie beneath the planet surface.

Darth Sidious

By the era of the Galactic Empire, the last Sith Lords, Darth Sidious and Darth Vader, possessed the only two wayfinders leading the way to Exegol. After Sidious' death at the Battle of Endor, the Sith Eternal cult chose Exegol as their base because it was completely hidden from even the most studious of galactic historians, some of whom knew about Korriban/Moraband and the other Sith worlds.

The Sith loyalists then proceeded to construct a massive fleet of warships. This was comprised of hundreds of Xyston-class Star Destroyers, which were intended for the Sith's reconquest of the galaxy. As threats of their return to the wider galaxy loomed, the Resistance mustered its forces and fought a desperate battle against the Sith. Ultimately, with the help of the galaxy fleet, the Resistance was able to destroy the Sith Star Destroyers and kill Emperor Darth Sidious.

Me: This is it guys. We're going to make that monster pay for his crimes against the entire galaxy and the universe.

Nico: Yeah.

Laney: It's hard to imagine that we are going to face Emperor Palpatine.

Me: He's the worst monster ever known.

I pulled up his history.

---

Emperor Sheev Palpatine, also known as Darth Sidious or simply The Emperor, is the main antagonist of the Star Wars franchise.

He serves as the main antagonist of the Skywalker Saga, as the overarching antagonist of the 2008 animated stand-alone film Star Wars: The Clone Wars, its 2008-2020 animated TV series of the same name, and the 2014-2018 animated TV series Star Wars Rebels; and as the unseen overarching antagonist of both the 2016 stand-alone film Rogue One: A Star Wars Story and the 2019 video-game Star Wars Jedi: Fallen Order.

He also appears as the main antagonist, as the overarching antagonist, and/or as a posthumous antagonist in several novels and comic books within both the Legends and Canon continuities.

He is an immensely powerful Sith Lord and the ruler of the Galactic Empire, which he formed from the Galactic Republic, who was also the de-facto ruler of the CIS, which he used to give himself autocratic powers as Chancellor of the Galactic Republic. As the Dark Lord of the Sith, Sidious plotted to overthrow the Jedi by manipulating the events of the Clone Wars to bring himself to rule the whole galaxy; thus posing as the Supreme Chancellor of the Republic throughout these events. He is the Jedi's archenemy and they were suspicious of him even just after Count Dooku's death when they were unaware that he was Darth Sidious.

Sidious is also later revealed to be the secret benefactor and true leader of the First Order, and that he is the paternal grandfather of Rey.

In the saga films, he was most famously portrayed by Ian McDiarmid in the original, prequel, and sequel Star Wars trilogies, after previously being voiced by Clive Revill and portrayed by the late Marjorie Eaton in the original version of The Empire Strikes Back; McDiarmid returned to voice Sidious in the final season of Star Wars Rebels. In Star Wars: The Clone Wars, he was voiced by the late Ian Abercrombie, and later Tim Curry, who also played Frank-N-Furter in The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Hexxus in FernGully: The Last Rainforest, Pennywise the Clown in It, Lord of Darkness in Legend, Wadsworth in Clue, Ben Ravencroft in Scooby-Doo and the Witch's Ghost, Drake in The Pebble and the Penguin, King Chicken in Duckman, Billy Flynn in Criminal Minds, Kilokahn in Superhuman Samurai SyberSquad, Farley Claymore in The Shadow, Big Bayou in Courage the Cowardly Dog, Cardinal Richelieu in The Three Musketeers, Long John Silver in Muppet Treasure Island, Evil Manta in The Little Mermaid, The Goblin King in Scooby-Doo and the Goblin King, Professor Calamitous in Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius, Belial in The Legend of Atlantis, Slagar the Cruel in Redwall, Big Brother in Johnny Bravo, Dr. Slicer in Recess, Thaddeus E. Klang in TaleSpin, Maestro Forte in Beauty and the Beast: The Enchanted Christmas, El Malefico in Mucha Lucha: The Return of El Malefico, and Mouse King in Barbie and the Nutcracker.

Palpatine was born on Naboo and very early on showed himself to be a violent, spoiled, and misanthropic sociopath who used his rich family's connections to get him out of trouble even when he indulged in reckless driving that hurt others and killed two people. Palpatine was expelled from one of the highest education institutions in Naboo and possibly the entire galaxy. Palpatine also despised his father, Cosinga Palpatine, whom he viewed as a weakling and a coward. This resentment would come to a head when the younger Palpatine, now under the name Darth Sidious killed everyone he's ever known in his own family, including his parents, his two younger brothers and his two sisters, and in his later master's words "baptized himself in the dark side."

In his thirties, he was the Senator of Naboo. As Darth Sidious, he subsequently became the apprentice to Darth Plagueis the Wise, a Sith Lord who was a master of arcane and unnatural knowledge. In true Sith tradition Palpatine betrayed and killed his Master after he "became unnecessary" due to teaching Sidious too much too quickly and achieving the ability to do so. It was during his apprenticeship to Plagueis that Darth Sidious took on his first apprentice Darth Maul, who he decided to turn him into the ultimate living weapon with one purpose, kill the Jedi. Sidious continued the Sith Order in absolute secrecy, right under the noses of the Republic and the Jedi.

Star Wars: Episode I - The Phantom Menace

Glimpsed mostly as a cloaked holographic figure, Darth Sidious conspired with the Neimoidians to carry out his 1,000-year-old plan to wipe out the Jedi for good, by setting up a war against the Republic as the secret leader of the Trade Federation. The invasion of the planet Naboo was the first step to a vaster more ambitious plan Sidious had sent in motion, a plan secretly involving Republic Senator Palpatine. When Palpatine eventually leads the Republic, he becomes a leader on both sides, ensuring that neither side gains enough upper hand to win the war. This, in turn, causes countless deaths of fighters in the Galactic War, including Jedi. Using the Trade Federation to cause conflict with the planet Naboo, Palpatine ordered a blockade around the planet. Hoping to resolve the conflict swiftly, Supreme Chancellor Valorum sends Jedi Master Qui-Gon Jinn and his Padawan Obi-Wan Kenobi to the Trade Federation Control ship in order to negotiate, as requested from the Queen of Naboo.

After their arrival, the Neimoidians discovered they were Jedi and contacted Darth Sidious. Appearing through hologram robed and face obscured by a hood, Sidious made contact with the scheming Viceroy Gunray ordering him to assassinate the ambassadors, interrupting their mission. When the Jedi escape, the Dark Lord has the viceroy end all communication down to the planet.

As part of Darth Sidious' plan to become the new Supreme Chancellor of the Republic, he promises Queen Amidala that he will "end the corruption," as her people were suffering while the Trade Federation's control on the Naboo system increased. Delegates and other members of the Senate continued to argue, and even the Chancellor, failed to make any decisive action. During a Senate meeting, Amidala finally agrees with the senator to "call for a vote of no confidence" in Chancellor Valorum's leadership, and elect a new, stronger Chancellor, to stop the tragedy. The crisis on Naboo prompted a strong sympathy vote for Palpatine in the election.

Following Darth Maul's supposed death, Palpatine successfully becomes the new Supreme Chancellor of the Republic. His future apprentice Anakin Skywalker was a child at the time and the decision was made that he would be trained to become a Jedi. At that point, he officially began his schematics for upcoming warfare; even assuring to the young Anakin that he would be watching his incoming career with 'great interest'.

Star Wars: Episode II - Attack of the Clones

A decade after his nomination, Palpatine was faced with the challenge of a popular Separatist Movement led by the charismatic leader, Count Dooku (secretly his Sith apprentice Darth Tyranus). Many in the galaxy feared that the conflict would escalate, starting a larger-scale war (known as the Clone Wars), but Palpatine was adamant that the crisis would be resolved by negotiations, but the Separatists didn't agree. Palpatine, however, had planned Dooku's rebellion from the beginning. As Sidious lured Dooku to the dark side encouraging him to rally corporations and systems to breakaway from the Republic and become the Confederacy of Independent Systems. Palpatine, as the Chancellor held meetings with Senators and the Jedi hoping to resolve the conflict peacefully. Both parties were unaware that the evil Sith Lord lurked beneath the politician.

Upon discovery of a secret droid army, it became apparent that the Separatists were on the verge of declaring war against the Republic. The Republic countered this by needing a military, and Palpatine required the authority to activate a newly forged army of clones, that were discovered by Obi-Wan on the planet Kamino, an ocean-planet with a cloning facility holding thousands of trained human clones. Palpatine had secretly set in motion the clone army many years ago.

On Geonosis, Count Dooku tells a captured Obi-Wan Kenobi that the Republic was now under the control of the Dark Lord of the Sith. Kenobi claims the Jedi would be aware of that but Dooku states the dark side of the Force has clouded the Jedi's vision. Dooku says that hundreds of senators were now under the influence of a Sith

Lord called Darth Sidious. Kenobi thinks he's lying but counters that Nute Gunray was once in league with Sidious but then claims the viceroy was betrayed by the Sith Lord, which was actually a lie as Gunray and Sidious still worked together. Dooku asked Obi-Wan to join him and together they would destroy the Sith but Kenobi refused the offer.

Senators loyal to Palpatine motioned that the Chancellor be given emergency powers to deal with the Separatist threat. In the Senate, Representative Binks nominated the motion that allowed Palpatine to use the Kamino clone troopers in open warfare. With spoken regrets, Palpatine accepted the new mantle of power and promised to return his absolute authority back to the Senate after the emergency subsided. As the Senate cheered, the Chancellor announced the formation of the Grand Army of the Republic.

After the Battle of Geonosis, Dooku escaped to Coruscant landing in the LiMerge Building on the industrial side of the planet called The Works meeting with his Master informing the Sith Lord that their long-awaited plot was finally in motion. Sidious was pleased with these turn of events, and later with the leaders of the Senate in a viewing stand, oversaw the new Republic army marching towards war in quiet awe while others were disturbed by the recent events. What no one realized was that the galaxy would undergo further upheaval and that a state of crisis would ensure Palpatine's authority for decades.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Film

As the Clone Wars began and raged across the galaxy, the Sith Lord Darth Sidious plotted and masterminded many events and secretly gained more and more influence and power in the Senate. Later in the war, Palpatine arranged a plot to recruit Jabba the Hutt to join the Separatists by kidnapping his son Rotta and framing the Jedi as the culprits. Asajj Ventress had brought Jabba's son to the monastery on Teth and reported to Dooku who was pleased. Sidious then entered the hologram transmission and stated the Jedi would be at war with both the Sith and the Hutt Clan.

The plan eventually failed with the rescue of Jabba's son by Anakin Skywalker and Ahsoka Tano exposing Count Dooku as the real culprit. As the Chancellor, Palpatine expressed his gratitude to the two Jedi for their help. At first, Dooku dreaded having to contact his Master reporting another setback for the Separatists in their campaign to overthrow the Republic and seize Coruscant. But the Sith Lord seemed oddly unconcerned by the losses assuring his apprentice that the tide of war still turned in their favor according with Sidious' master plan as Jabba allowed the Republic to use the Hutt Cartel hyperspace lanes.

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Series

During the Clone Wars, Darth Sidious watched as his apprentice, Darth Tyranus engineered new battles and trained new dark siders such as the Dark Assassin Asajj Ventress. First Dooku tested Ventress' skills in both lightsaber combat and dark side of the Force abilities pleasing the Sith Lord who watched through a mobile hologram unit. Dooku introduced her to Sidious who applauded her efforts and personally gave her a task; to find Anakin Skywalker and eliminate him. As Ventress flew away, Dooku remarked confidence in her success, but the Dark Lord replied that her success or failure was irrelevant as she was only an instrument to test Skywalker, which would eventually lead to the downfall of the Jedi.

At another time, Nute Gunray was captured by Senator Amidala and taken into custody to face trial on Coruscant for his war crimes. Palpatine praised the senator, but this angered the Dark Lord. Communicating with Darth Tyranus via hologram, Darth Sidious told him how dangerous this situation was as the weak-minded viceroy would likely slip vital information and ordered him to be retrieved fast. Dooku told his master that he will send his apprentice Ventress who Sidious saw as useless but allowed him to proceed. Ventress successfully rescued Gunray without him telling the Jedi about his existence.

Darth Sidious' next plan would make a huge impact on the galaxy. Darth Sidious plotted to steal a Jedi holocron that contained a list of the galaxy's Force-sensitive children that he planned to kidnap and turn into his loyal spies. First the Sith Lord hired bounty hunter Cad Bane via hologram to steal a holocron from the Jedi Temple vaults with plans that he provided that allowed Bane to successfully steal the holocron. Next he required Bane to retrieve a kyber memory crystal that would activate the information hidden in the holocron from a Jedi Master named Bolla Ropal in the Mid Rim. Cad Bane captured and tortured Ropal who eventually gave Bane the crystal and had Anakin open the holocron by threatening his Padawan Ahsoka who used the Force to open it.

Escaping from the Jedi, Cad Bane retreated to his hideout and contacted Sidious through holographic transmission and told the Sith Lord of his success. Darth Sidious next assigned Bane to kidnap four children from the list and bring them to Mustafar. Cad Bane only managed to kidnap two children before he was captured by the Jedi. The Jedi later reported to Chancellor Palpatine who discussed with Anakin if they found who was behind the plot. Anakin stated that a far more powerful being other than Bane or Dooku was behind the event and not suspecting Palpatine at all which satisfied the Chancellor who told Skywalker to have patience.

On Mustafar, Darth Sidious observed the children through hologram using an astromech droid. Sidious told the nanny droids of the children's natural talent and how he would harness that power for his own needs. Looking into the future, Sidious saw a vision of Force talented spies trained in the dark side that would appear in every corner of the galaxy doing his bidding. The nanny droid told the Dark Lord that subjects rarely survive the procedure at a young age but Sidious said the risk was necessary and that if the procedure failed he would lose nothing. As the surgery was about to happen, an alert from a nanny droid told the Sith Lord of an incoming shuttle that was approaching and it did not belong to the bounty hunter. This surprised Sidious as he did not foresee this and ordered the droids to evacuate the children and destroy the facility to protect his identity and ended the transmission quickly. The Jedi rescued the children and thwarted Sidious' plans.

During the Republic occupation of the neutral world of Mandalore, the Death Watch hoped to reclaim the planet from pacifists and join the Separatists cause once the planet was secured. Aboard a Separatist ship, Count Dooku contacted his Master that Death Watch was prepared to fight off the Republic forces when they arrive, and the splinter group will be viewed as saviors by the people. Darth Sidious expressed concern about possible interference by the Duchess Satine, but was assured by Dooku that a Death Watch assassin would take care of her, causing the Sith Lord to smirk.

Later in the war, Sidious felt Asajj Ventress growing stronger in the ways of the dark side of the Force. Through a hologram, Darth Sidious accused Tyranus of wanting to overthrow him as Dark Lord which shocked his apprentice who stated his loyalty belonged only to his Master. Sidious then demanded proof and ordered him to eliminate Ventress which the Count sadly obliged to. After assuming success in the death of his former disciple, Dooku contacted Sidious of his apparent success. Satisfied, Darth Sidious praised his apprentice for once again proving his loyalty.

In a second attempt to invade Naboo, the Separatists launched an assault to conquer the planet. The Gungan Army fought against the droid army and Captain Tarpals battled General Grievous and subdued him at the cost of his life. From a secret lair hidden inside an ancient Naboo structure, Count Dooku received orders from Darth Sidious. The Sith Lord stated that Grievous is an integral part of his plan for the Clone Wars and told his apprentice to lure Anakin into a trap, capture him and arrange a prisoner exchange. Sidious assured Tyranus that Senator Amidala will agree to the terms.

Darth Sidious later had his apprentice kidnap an entire colony of people from the planet Kiros and sell them into slavery that would rebuild his Sith Empire. Aligning with the Zygerrians to resurrect the slave empire, the captured people were brought to the prison planet Kadavo to await processing. En route to Zygerria aboard his solar sailor, Count Dooku communicated with his Master. Darth Sidious lectured of how long Sith Empires have been built upon the backs of slaves and told his apprentice that to carry on this tradition millions of slaves will be required. Darth Sidious ordered Dooku to gain the Zygerrian Queen Miraj Scintel's cooperation or to end her rule if she fails to comply.

During the Banking Clan crisis, the banks had become bankrupt and Palpatine sent Padmé to Scipio to deal with the matters. As the Dark Lord, Sidious hired bounty hunter Embo to originally assassinate the Banking Clan representative Rush Clovis but he managed to escape the planet with the aid of Padme and Jedi Knight Anakin Skywalker.

Embo contacted Sidious and was pleased to hear of the success and assured the bounty hunter that he would deal with them himself.

Later the Muun Nix Card contacted Darth Sidious and reported that Clovis had managed to escape with the evidence of the bank records. Sidious stated that Nix would be protected in the scandal. The Sith Lord later contacted Dooku on Serreno and devised a plan that would place Clovis in command of the Banking Clan as a puppet leader but first Tyranus had to entrap the senator.

After placing Clovis in office and framing him by aligning Scipio with the Separatists and massacring the Republic forces, the Senate called for an emergency session and the Chancellor launched a mercy mission. As Dooku was leaving the planet, Sidious contacted him with an update and told him that Republic forces were on their way. Tyranus informed his Master that the deception was complete. The Dark Lord stated because of the treachery, control of the banks would be placed in the hands of the Supreme Chancellor as Sidious cackled with delight.

In an unexpected turn of events, the long forgotten Sith Lord Darth Maul was discovered to be alive by the Jedi which reported back to the Chancellor startling Palpatine at this revelation. After the briefing, the Chancellor told the Jedi to ignore the Sith brothers and their focus should be on finding Dooku and bring the Clone Wars to an end then dismissed the Jedi from his office. As the Jedi left, Palpatine sat in his chair and smirked as he had plans for the rogue Sith in the future.

Later in the Chancellor's Office, Palpatine mediated and sensed the increasing power of the Nightbrothers on the planet Mandalore. Mas Amedda entered and was told to prepare the Chancellor's shuttle which Palpatine took to Mandalore in order to confront the brothers in his secret persona Darth Sidious. Upon arriving, a robed and hooded Sidious Force chokes two Shadow Collective members and rode a speeder to the royal palace where he confronted the brothers in the throne room. Sidious enters the throne room easily choking two guards to death and exchanges a few words with his former apprentice and looks at his brother, Savage Opress. Darth Sidious declared Maul a rival and Force pushed Maul and his brother into the wall windows cackling.

After releasing the brothers from his telekinetic grip, Maul and Savage ignited their lightsabers while Sidious summoned two from the sleeves of his robe to duel them. The battle moved from the throne room to the balcony where Savage pushed him off while Sidious Forced pulled Maul and Savage to the ground below. The Dark Lord Force pushed Maul to a wall briefly knocking him out while Sidious dueled Savage alone and in mere seconds impaled the Nightbrother in the chest, killing him. As Maul rushed to his dying brother, the Nightsisters magicks left his body and Sidious cackled telling Maul the Rule of Two and leaped to the plaza below continuing their duel. Maul charged at Sidious with both his saber and the darksaber and after a brief duel, Sidious disarmed Maul and brutally battered him against the wall and ground. Broken and exhausted Maul begged for mercy and the Dark Lord replied there was no mercy and launched a barrage of Force lightning on his former apprentice. Darth Sidious cackled with glee as he tells the defeated Nightbrother that his plans don't involve killing him, but has other uses for him.

Near the end of the war, Darth Sidious faced some unexpected events. During a battle of the Ringo Vinda system, a clone seemed to have a mental breakdown and shot and killed a Jedi Knight for no apparent reason. The Separatist Admiral Trench saw the event and reported the betrayal to Count Dooku. On Serenno, Lord Tyranus made contact with his Master via hologram to report the clone incident. Sidious worried that it would expose evidence of the Sith Lord's secret programming and ordered Tyranus to seize the clone for examination.

As the Supreme Chancellor, Palpatine learned the clone trooper Tup died and another clone named Fives may have discovered the conspiracy. The Chancellor than suggested the clone be brought to Coruscant for medical attention which the Jedi reluctantly agreed to. Arriving at the medical station, the Jedi Shaak Ti, Kaminoan doctor Nala Se and the Chancellor met with the clone and asked if he could speak with Fives in private. Palpatine then framed Fives for an assassination attempt and issued a manhunt for the clone. Fives eventually was killed and died without spilling a word of the conspiracy. Later in his office, Palpatine told the Jedi that his personal doctors discovered a virus that Tup and Fives had inside of them from Ringo Vinda as the source of their mental breakdowns which the Jedi believed. Darth Sidious later made contact with his apprentice that Protocol 66 has been undiscovered and the Jedi will soon learn of it as Sidious cackled.

Some time later, the Jedi discovered a shipwreck on the planet Oba Diah belonging to the Jedi Master who was killed long ago, Sifo-Dyas. Darth Sidious later learned the Jedi were looking into the investigation of Dyas and worried they would uncover secrets not meant to be discovered. Sidious appeared to his apprentice as a large hologram and demanded to know why the Jedi were sniffing around the loose end that is Sifo-Dyas. The Dark Lord demanded that Tyranus and the Separatists clean up the affairs lest their plans be threatened. Sidious made sure his apprentice understood what it meant if he failed by Force choking him through the hologram then ended the transmission.

During the conflict, Darth Sidious looked into the Force and saw Master Yoda was on Moraband, the ancient homeworld of the Sith, and summoned his apprentice back to Coruscant. Inside the LiMerge Building on the industrial side of the planet, Tyranus met with his Master who plotted to strike a devastating blow on the Jedi Order. In a ceremonial chamber with statues lining the room, Darth Sidious informed his apprentice of Yoda's location and that they would be exploiting Dooku's Force-bond with Yoda, which the two had established as Master and apprentice, to find out why Yoda had ventured to Moraband and to break his will.

Over a sacrificial altar basin, Sidious produced a knife cutting Dooku's hand, allowing a single drop of blood to fall into the altar filled with water. Sidious then recited an ancient Sith incantation in Balc as the Sith Lords together then jolted the basin with Force lightning, and once Dooku focused on his bond with Yoda, Sidious harnessed the power creating a dark illusion for Yoda on Moraband that would lead the Jedi into a trap. Sidious then stated he would appear as someone familiar as he dipped his face into the sacrificial altar.

In the Moraband execution chamber, Sidious appeared to Yoda as Sifo-Dyas in disguise and tempted the Jedi with the knowledge of the Sith Lord's identity. But Yoda refused and suddenly Sifo-Dyas transformed into a cackling Sidious and surrounded him with chains of energy. Forced into a deeper illusion, Yoda awakened to find Anakin Skywalker along with a squad of 501st clones in the hold of a Republic Gunship flying towards the LiMerge Building in an ongoing pursuit of both Dooku and Sidious in the Works.

The gunship landed in the deserted tower hangar where they confronted the Sith Lords. Captain Rex spotted the Sith huddled over the altar basin when Dooku ignited his lightsaber and electrified the approaching clones with lightning. Anakin engaged Dooku while Yoda confronted the hooded Dark Lord who escaped while Anakin killed Dooku by severing his head. Darth Sidious ignited his lightsaber and Yoda his and both engaged in fierce whirling duel. Anakin attempted to enter the duel but was blasted unconscious by Sidious' lightning. He then blasted Yoda who blocked the lightning with the Force causing a disruption of energy sending both Jedi back.

Sidious then taunted Yoda stating if he lets Anakin die it thwarts his plans of eliminating the Jedi Order. The Jedi Master was then presented with a choice: Either learn the identity of the Sith Lord once and for all or save Skywalker, whom Sidious had thrown off a catwalk. Yoda chose the latter and sacrificed himself. Yoda hurled his saber at Sidious and both plummeted to the ground below while Sidious cackled and when Yoda attempted to remove his hood, he found the robes to be empty falling into the depths of Coruscant with the vision of Sidious as the dark illusion fell apart. After the illusion ceased, Darth Sidious emerged from the glowing sacrificial altar snarling as the illusion had failed to break the Jedi Master's spirit and the Dark Lord told Tyranus they would need more time to defeat Yoda and destroy the Jedi Order.

Towards the end of the Clone Wars, Darth Sidious watched through hologram a sparring session between Lord Tyranus and General Grievous. Tyranus lectured Grievous of the importance of mastering his lightsaber skills and to ensure victory not be reckless. Appearing before them on a mechno-chair, Sidious praised Dooku's counsel and asked Grievous for the report from the front. The general told the Sith Lord that the Jedi forces were stretched thin across the Outer Rim worlds which Sidious seemed pleased with. Darth Sidious then told both that the time to strike was now and to launch their final operation and asked Grievous if everything was ready for his "special mission" and Grievous affirmed the Dark Lord that everything is in place and the unsuspecting Jedi knew not what awaited.

Striking a devastating attack on the Republic capital, General Grievous entered with the Droid Army and launched a full scale invasion of the planet. Grievous' mission was to capture the Supreme Chancellor who was protected by a squad of clone troopers and Jedi protectors. Through the whole pursuit Palpatine seemed calm and at times sarcastic. After disposing of the clones, Grievous chased the Jedi and Chancellor all through the city-planet until finally disarming the Jedi. Grievous captured Palpatine and seemed annoyed at his charismatic nature. The Chancellor later boarded a ship that took him to the Separatist flagship The Invisible Hand and was transported to the tall spire tower of the ship and placed on a throne with shackles on the arm rests, setting the events of the third film.

Supreme Chancellor Palpatine is first seen shackled and bound to a throne in the General's quarters of Grievous' flagship, Invisible Hand when Obi-Wan Kenobi and Anakin Skywalker arrived to rescue him just before Count Dooku intervenes. In the ensuing lightsaber battle, Kenobi and Skywalker teamed against Dooku while Palpatine watched. The Sith Lord subdued Obi-Wan but was brutally defeated by Anakin, who cut off both his hands and was now corning Dooku with their lightsabers. Palpatine was impressed and ordered Anakin to kill Dooku at his own request, which he momentarily hesitated before complying. Anakin later regretted killing Dooku as it was not the Jedi way, but Palpatine was quick to console him. Although Grievous escaped into space, the Jedi successfully returned Palpatine to Coruscant.

After getting rescued, Palpatine, as Sidious made contact with General Grievous who was hiding on the Outer Rim world of Utapau and ordered the droid general to relocate the Separatist Council to the planet Mustafar. Grievous obliged and Sidious informed him the conclusion of the war drew near. Grievous questioned Count

Dooku's loss meaning it would be the end of the Confederacy but the Sith Lord assured the general that the loss was necessary as he soon would have a new apprentice one far younger and more powerful than Tyranus. Later Palpatine began to form an interactive friendship with Anakin by telling him important information and appointing him as his Representative on the Jedi Council. The Jedi had grown wary of the Chancellor and his decrees that redirected power away from the Senate and Constitution and into his Office. Reluctantly they agreed to the appointment but only in the hopes of turning Anakin into their spy on the Chancellor, causing much turmoil in the young Jedi.

The Chancellor later took in a performance at the Galaxies Opera House with Anakin as his guest. Palpatine spoke about the war's progress and of Anakin's appointment to the Council. Anakin stated his trust in the Jedi had been shaken due to his assignment which Palpatine could tell what it was. Palpatine then began to tell the tale of Darth Plaugeis the Wise where the Sith Lord used the dark side of the Force to stop loved ones from dying. Anakin was plagued with death visions of his wife Padme at the time and took an interest in the legend. Anakin asked the Chancellor if learning the power was possible, Palpatine replied "Not from a Jedi."

Anakin later visited the Chancellor in his office delivering more Jedi news about the war and Palpatine doubted the Jedi's trust in Anakin. Knowing the time was right, Palpatine dropped his guise admitting he possessed knowledge of the dark side revealing his true identity to him. Anakin realized the Chancellor was the sinister Sith Lord the Jedi had been hunting since the start of the war and drew his lightsaber. Palpatine said he was the path to the power that could save his wife from dying. Stunned by the revelation, Anakin responded by reporting him to the Jedi. Anakin was deeply conflicted realizing that he could not lose the Sith Lord as he thought he needed to learn the dark side power to "save" his wife Padmé.

Mace Windu ordered Anakin to remain behind in the Temple while he arranged a group of Jedi Masters to arrest the Chancellor for his crimes. In the inner recesses of the Chancellor's Office, the Jedi confronted the Chancellor announcing his arrest. Sidious scoffed at the news that the Senate would determine his fate, and with a roar of "I AM the Senate!" Igniting a red-bladed lightsaber from the sleeve of his robe, Sidious sprang into action murdering the three Jedi Masters before engaging Windu in an intense lightsaber duel. The two dueled, transforming the office of politics into an arena of combat. Anakin, tormented by the fear of loss, traveled to the Chancellor's office and witnessed a stunning sight. Mace Windu had cornered Sidious with his lightsaber blade extended at his heart.

Sidious unleashed a torrent of dark Force lightning at the Jedi Master, but Windu was able to deflect it back at the Sith Lord with his lightsaber blade. The evil energies twisted Sidious' face as they flowed through him, revealing his true yellow almost slug like face; his eyes burned yellow and voice grew ragged and deep his teeth yellow and gross. Sidious slumped in the corner seemingly too weak to continue his lightning assault. Fearing the Sith Lord too powerful and too well-connected, Windu decided he couldn't be taken alive. Before Windu could take justice into his own hands, though, Anakin sprung into action severing Windu's weapon hand with his lightsaber. Defenseless, Windu was then bombarded by Sidious' dark side lightning that tortured and blasted the Jedi through the window to his death.

Due to his part in Windu's murder, Anakin Skywalker had taken his first irreversible step to the dark side causing Sidious to grin. Skywalker knelt before Darth Sidious, and the Sith Lord bestowed upon him the title of "Darth Vader", Lord of the Sith. Concealing his true face, Sidious returned to his simple Sith robes. First he tasked his new apprentice to raze the Jedi Temple before the treacherous Jedi could strike back at them. Vader marched to the temple with a column of loyal clone troopers, gutting the sacred edifice from within.

Meanwhile, Sidious, knowing the time had come, took care of the Jedi scattered across the galaxy waging the Clone Wars. Using his authority as the Supreme Chancellor, Sidious executed Order 66, a coded command that identified the Jedi Knights as traitors to the Republic. He broadcasted this order to the clone commanders on the various different battlefronts, and the loyal soldiers killed their Jedi generals in cold blood. Only a handful of a handful of Jedi survived, including Master Yoda and Obi-Wan Kenobi.

The next day, Darth Sidious later spoke to the Separatist Council members via hologram, with Gunray remarking confidently that their plan had gone just as Sidious had promised. Though Gunray and the other leaders did not know what was planned for them, the Dark Lord promised that his new apprentice would soon arrive to take care of them claiming that he had come to make peace, but he actually was to be sent instead to eliminate the council who had gathered on Mustafar.

As his apprentice cut down the Separatist leaders, Sidious, as Palpatine called for a special session of the Galactic Senate to deliver an emergency address. With his true face hidden in the shadows of his hood, Palpatine claimed to have survived a Jedi assassination attempt. He denounced the conspiracy of the Jedi rebellion and assured the Republic that his resolve had not faltered. He delivered the good news that victory in the Clone Wars had at last been achieved. By the end of his rousing speech, supported by the thunderous applause of patriots and politicians, Palpatine declared his new order as the First Galactic Empire with himself as Emperor. Vader then slashed Gunray shortly before reuniting with his wife.

Obi-Wan Kenobi and Yoda eventually caught up with the betrayal and deceit, realizing that Anakin, now Vader, and his troops had slain everyone in the Jedi Temple and that Palpatine was the Dark Lord of the Sith. Viewing a security hologram, Obi-Wan saw the carnage inside the Temple, with Anakin killing everyone and Sidious traveled there where he found Vader who knelt before the Sith Lord in obedience. Sidious praised his new apprentice and told Lord Vader to go and bring peace to the Empire. Vader left the planet to see to his second task which was dealing with the Separatists. Obi-Wan could not believe it but both were determined to stop the murderous Sith Lords. After the slaughter, Vader reported his mission's completion to Sidious who told his apprentice to send a shutdown signal to the Confederate navy and army deactivating the droid armies, effectively ending the Clone Wars.

While Obi Wan Kenobi confronted Vader on Mustafar, Yoda tracked down the Emperor in his office beneath the Senate Chamber, and the two began an intense battle. Sidious first blasted Yoda with Force lightning sending the Jedi Master across the room knocking him unconscious. The Emperor taunted Yoda stating the Jedi were all but lost but Yoda Force pushed and later stopped Sidious from escaping with both users brandishing their lightsabers. As both combatants dueled, Sidious claimed that Vader would become more powerful than either of them. Yoda remarked that his faith in Vader and the dark side was misplaced as the fight moved from the holding office into the grand Senate Chamber.

Sidious was nearly overpowered by Yoda in their lightsaber duel and only managed to even the field by finally beginning to use the Force to combat Yoda. The Emperor relished the chance to to destroy the legendary Jedi by using the dark side of the Force to hurl Senate pods at Yoda. However, Sidious failed to kill Yoda with his telekinetic assault and was forced to close range by Yoda once again but is able to rip the Grandmaster's lightsaber from his hand with a blast of Sith lightning forcing Yoda to absorb the attack using the Force.

Although Sidious came quite close to overcoming Yoda with the lightning attack, Yoda was ultimately able to win their struggle by returning the lightning causing a blast so powerful that it pushed the two masters apart. Sidious fortunately was not clearly blasted off the Senate pod as Yoda was and managed to hang on the pod briefly before losing his grip and was flung all the way to the bottom of the Senate Building. Following the battle, Sidious stood with Mas Amedda on a Senatorial pod as they searched for the Jedi Master. However, the clone troops could not find any trace of a body. Deciding not to personally pursue Yoda, Sidious demanded that his shuttle be dispatched immediately and left for the planet, Mustafar, where his apprentice was battling his former master, Obi-Wan, as he had sensed that Vader was in danger of being destroyed which Vader near was.

When Darth Sidious arrived, he found Vader's wounded almost limbless charred body lying next to a river of lava. The Emperor ordered his soldiers to prepare a medical capsule for his apprentice. As they left to obey his instructions, Sidious crouched beside his fallen apprentice, determined to find a way to keep him alive. Transporting in his Imperial Shuttle, Vader is taken to the large city-planet of Coruscant so that he could be repaired.

Inside a medical center, Sidious oversaw the operation of Vader reconstructed as a cyborg with medical droids treating his injuries, and he is encased in the black armour and mask that will preserve his ruined body. Upon completion of the surgery, Sidious approached his apprentice asking if he could be heard, and Vader answered. Anakin asked his master what had become of Padmé if she was safe and alright, and Sidious told Vader he accidentally killed Padmé in his anger, causing the new Sith Lord to scream in heartbreaking despair using the Force to destroy the droids and facility. The Emperor appeared gleeful upon having finally plunged Anakin Skywalker into the dark side.

Unknown to both Sidious and Vader, Padmé died giving birth to fraternal twins that she named Luke and Leia, and that Obi-Wan and Yoda separated the twins for safety; Luke was left into the care of the Lars family in Tatooine while Leia was left in the care of the Organa family in Alderaan. With the Galactic Empire now in control and the Jedi Order destroyed, Vader joined his Master on the bridge of a Star Destroyer with Governor Tarkin as the two Dark Lords oversaw the construction of the super weapon moon-sized battle station; the Death Star above Geonosis.

Star Wars Rebels

Throughout his reign, the Emperor expanded his dictator's reach across the galaxy by bringing more star systems under Imperial control. Informed of a rebel cell on the planet Lothal, Palpatine had the Grand Inquisitor deal with the growing resurgent. The rebels managed to destroy a portion of the Imperial Fleet and killed the Grand Inquisitor in the process led by the renegade Jedi Kanan Jarrus and Ezra Bridger. The Emperor sent his apprentice to handle the growing rebel threat. After the Siege of Lothal the Emperor was contacted by Darth Vader after he struck a critical blow on the rebel cell, and informed his Master that the apprentice of Anakin Skywalker, Ahsoka Tano, lived and was helping the rebels. This pleased the Emperor as he saw this an opportunity to locate more surviving Jedi. Vader stated to his Master that he rather search for Obi-Wan but was told to have patience and ordered his apprentice to dispatch another Inquisitor to hunt down the rebels, Tano, and other undiscovered Jedi.

When Kanan and Ezra visited the Lothal Jedi Temple seeking answers, the Inquisitors Fifth Brother and Seventh Sister tracked them and discovered the temple. While the Jedi escaped, Imperial forces arrived and secured the Temple. The Inquisitors informed their master Darth Vader, who came to visit the site in person, of their power growing and Vader assured them it would be their undoing. Following the discovery, the Emperor directed Minister Veris Hydan to lead the excavation of the Temple and deciphering its mysteries.

After learning Kanan Jarrus had perished, the Emperor contacted Minister Hydan at the temple excavation site. Appearing as a large hologram, the Emperor listened as Hydan informed him that they made some miraculous discoveries and uncovered the Painting of the Mortis gods which he believed to be the key to unlocking the gateway. The Emperor told Hydan of a great disturbance in the Force and spoke of how Kanan's death had altered the fate of Lothal though how he did not know. The Minister suggested full access to the temple would give them more clarity of it. The Emperor urged Hydan to hasten his efforts of seizing the power within believing the gateway to be a conduit between the living and the dead. The Emperor then commanded Minister Hydan to proceed before ending his holographic connection.

Unknown to Hydan, Ezra Bridger and Sabine Wren managed to unlock the portal by moving the painted hand of the Daughter opening the gateway and Ezra jumped through entering the World Between Worlds. Inside the mystical dimension, Ezra came across a convor that led him to a portal where it showed him Ahsoka Tano dueling Darth Vader inside the Malachor Sith Temple years ago. As the Sith Lord was about to finish her off, Ezra reached through the portal and pulled Ahsoka to safety saving her life. After waking up, Ahsoka recognized the convor calling her Morai and thanked Ezra who spoke of Kanan and the Cosmic Force.

The Emperor learning that Ezra Bridger had entered the World Between Worlds, went to the altar located at the Sith Shrine underneath the Imperial Palace, formerly Jedi Temple, and used Sith Alchemy to open a portal to the realm peering inside to see where Ezra and Ahsoka were. Ezra believed he could save his master and went to the portal the Emperor created where he was shown an illusion of Kanan's last moments of him saving the Ghost Crew. Ahsoka convinced Ezra to let go and honor his master's sacrifice because pulling him out of the moment would cause the deaths of the ones he saved. While walking away from the nexus, Darth Sidious appeared inside the portal while unable to to physically enter the realm cackling evilly as he found both Ezra and Ahsoka. Both see Sidious looking at them through the portal where they had seen Kanan's last stand.

The Emperor recited an incantation of dark side magic casting forth blue flames from his altar towards the pair and Ahsoka blocked it with the Force however the process proved too much and injured her as a result of using too much energy to repel the attack. Ezra helped her and the flames dissipated. The Emperor cackled as he unleashed another wave of dark side blue flames as Ezra and Ahsoka ran while the fire pursued them. While running, the flame caught Ezra the energy wrapping around his leg and pulled him while Sidious tried to get through the portal and the Emperor gloated. Ahsoka, however, hacked at the blue flame lasso with one of her lightsabers, causing the Emperor to howl in rage. Ahsoka told Ezra to keep running and he made her promise to find him when she returns and agreed. Ahsoka and Morai escaped back to their portal on Malachor. Ezra ran towards the Lothal Gateway as the Emperor was closing in on him with his fire magic and escaped the realm enraging the Sith Lord.

After escaping the realm, Ezra reunited with the crew and managed to seal the portal by using the painted hand of the Son and locked the Gateway to the World Between Worlds. Sealing the Gateway caused the Lothal Jedi Temple to to collapse upon itself and the temple began to sunk into the ground in a blinding flash of light. Minister Hydan lamented at losing the knowledge the Emperor wanted and fell into the chasm to his death. With the Temple lost, the Emperor was denied access to the mystical realm and the ability to control the universe.

Shortly after, the rebels attacked the Empire to liberate Lothal, Grand Admiral Thrawn ordered Ezra to surrender, but refused. Thrawn then began a bombardment of the city, but Ezra gave in and surrendered taking himself to his ship the Chimaera. The Grand Admiral then brought Ezra into a special chamber containing a portion of the Lothal Jedi Temple, which the Emperor had ordered to be placed there. Being off-world, the Emperor appeared to Ezra as a projected hologram in his benevolent fake form. The Emperor dismissed Thrawn and spoke to Ezra explaining that he had the remains of the Temple brought aboard the ship for him.

Attempting to unlock the portal to the mystical realm again, Darth Sidious tried to tempt Ezra with an opportunity of reuniting with his deceased parents. The Emperor took Ezra inside the Temple entrance and showed him a portal to an alternate reality where his parents were still alive. Despite his desire to reunite with his family, Ezra saw through the Sith Lord's manipulation realizing that doing so would mean he never joined the Rebellion and used the Force to tear down the structure turning it into rubble.

The Emperor was infuriated by this causing his hologram projection to shift rapidly between his non-corrupted appearance and his true form. As Ezra leapt from the wreckage, Sidious emerged from the temple ruins, his hologram still changing until it landed in his scarred form. The young Jedi told Darth Sidious he had a family and didn't need anything from him. The Emperor called his decision unfortunate and, with his plans ruined, ordered three of his Imperial Royal Guards to execute Ezra before shutting off the holographic transmission. Using modified Force pikes, the guards held Ezra in the air while three stormtroopers entered and began firing at the Jedi suspended in the air. Ezra, however, used the Force to hurl boulders and rocks from the Temple ruins at his attackers, crushing the troopers and guards to death and the Jedi escaped.

Episode Appearances

Palpatine wasn't in the original film, but is mentioned by Governor Wilhuff Tarkin, who explains to the Death Star staff that the Emperor has dissolved the Imperial Senate (due to their secret support for the Rebel Alliance) and has given direct control to all regional governors of the systems controlled by the Empire.

Star Wars: Episode V - The Empire Strikes Back

Palpatine appeared in a hologram projection while communicating with Lord Vader. The Emperor felt a disturbance in the Force as Luke Skywalker, son of Anakin, Jedi powers developed and knew the boy had destroyed his space station, and foresaw that Luke could destroy him. Vader insisted that Luke was just a boy and his mentor, Obi-Wan Kenobi, can no longer help him as he was gone. The Emperor sensed the Force was strong with the boy and told Vader to prevent Luke from becoming a Jedi, as he could become a serious threat. When Vader suggested turning him to the dark side of the Force, the Emperor agreed and ordered Vader to capture Luke and bring the young Jedi before him. Lord Vader responded that Luke would join the dark side or be destroyed.

Star Wars: Episode VI - Return of the Jedi

The Emperor arrives aboard the second Death Star to oversee the final stages of the war between the Empire and the Rebel Alliance. He has a short talk with Darth Vader about the whereabouts of Luke and their plan to make him leave his Jedi path to join the dark side. Sidious then ordered Darth Vader to the command ship and capture Luke Skywalker and bring him before him. A band of rebels led by Luke Skywalker, Han Solo, and Princess Leia managed to land on the forest moon of Endor and Vader sensed his son's presence reporting the find to the Emperor who found it strange that he was unable to sense it. Darth Sidious then told his apprentice to go to Endor and await his son's arrival stating he had foreseen Luke's surrender and again bring him before him.

Aboard the second Death Star, Luke meets Sidious face to face and dismissed his Imperial Guards and removed his cuffs. Sidious attempts to make Luke succumb to the dark side and join him as his new apprentice alongside his father, but Luke turns down the offer several times and keeps resisting to the attempts of both Sidious and his father of corrupting him. Afterwards, Sidious gives Luke a view of the Rebel fleets hardly battling the Empire fleets but in trouble against the second Death Star revealing it to be fully operational. The Emperor then manipulated Luke telling him of the Alliance and his friends' impending dooms. Sidious then taunted the young Jedi stating his fate is to be his apprentice as his father's was and Luke tried to resist but gave into his anger. When Luke has no choice than killing the Emperor, he used the Force to take his lightsaber back from Sidious and Darth Vader blocked the strike and both engaged in a duel as Sidious cackled with delight. Luke dueled with Vader trying to end the Emperor's reign of terror for good.

During the duel, Luke at first managed to restrain himself until Vader probed his mind and learned that Leia was his own daughter. With this knowledge, Vader speculated that he could corrupt her instead, but the threat enraged the young Jedi and drove him to attack Vader in a frenzy. Luke nearly killed his father cutting off his mechanical hand but controlled his anger realizing he was dangerously close to the dark side he discarded his lightsaber and turned to face the Emperor. Sidious encouraged him to kill Vader and become his new apprentice, (ironically the same way when he made Vader kill Dooku). Luke refused stating he would never turn to the dark side and that he was a Jedi, like his father before him.

Enraged by this, Sidious responded by attacking Luke with Force Lightning, causing him to suffer the Emperor's wrath. As Sidious attacked Luke and taunted him, he did not realize that the shield generator protecting the second Death Star had been destroyed by the strike team with help from the Ewoks allowing Lando Calrissian and Wedge Antilles to prepare to attack the defenseless second Death Star. The Emperor proceeded to torment Luke bringing the Jedi to his knees and tearing his body with more lightning.

However, Darth Vader could not stand to see his own son to suffer in so much pain and reborn as Anakin Skywalker, he grabbed the Emperor from behind lifting him up in the air his arms raised and lightning firing everywhere hurling him down to his death at the bottom of the main reactor shaft, causing the evil Emperor to explode in a burst of dark side energy that seemingly destroyed him. Unfortunately, the wild lightning coming from the Emperor's hands damaged Vader's life support and Anakin died too shortly afterwards fulfilling the prophecy of old bringing balance to the Force, for a short time.

Star Wars Battlefront II

Not long after the destruction of the second Death Star and the supposed death of Emperor Palpatine, the news got out and special droids, known as Sentinels, were handed out to select and elite members of the Imperial Military. These droids broadcasted orders that Palpatine pre-recorded and would have given out after his death via the droids and the orders were to initiate Operation Cinder, which was for the complete destruction of the Imperial system and its eventual reconstruction from scratch. To achieve this, major Imperial worlds such as Naboo and Vardos were to be targeted by weather-altering satellites and they would inflict major natural disasters on the worlds and reduce them to ruin. The operation was essentially a scorched earth policy where not only would the Rebellion be denied access to Imperial resources and technology, but it would also show that the Empire was still in control of the galaxy even without Emperor Palpatine.

Without Palpatine's leadership and the deaths of almost all high-ranking officers and generals of the Imperial Military, the Galactic Empire as a whole began to fragment and break apart with Imperial generals and military leaders vying for power over the potential successor to Palpatine with Gallius Rax being the closest to achieving such a goal after declaring himself Counselor to the Empire, making him the de-facto leader of what remained of the Empire at large. Infighting had persisted however and Imperial remnants were formed and Imperial governors began taking desperate measures to secure their territory. Operation Cinder was still carried out and the result was the near-destruction of the entire Empire as a whole, but it served a purpose as those chosen for the operation were also tasked with traveling out into the Unknown Regions and were to establish a new government that would rebirth the Galactic Empire as a whole. The survivors fled into the Unknown Regions and they would go on to establish the First Order (led by Supreme Leader Snoke) with the full intention on restoring the Empire and preserving Palpatine's legacy.

Star Wars: Episode VII - The Force Awakens

Palpatine doesn't make an appearance in the film, but his voice is heard when his granddaughter, Rey, touched Luke's lightsaber, experiencing a vision of the past before deciding to fight against the First Order. It is also told that Snoke has corrupted Han and Leia's son Ben Solo into the dark side of the Force, christening him as Kylo

Ren, similar to how Palpatine christened Anakin as Darth Vader.

Star Wars: Episode VIII - The Last Jedi

Just like the last film, Palpatine doesn't make an appearance in this film, but he was briefly mentioned by Luke as he explains to Rey about the fall of the Jedi Order and the rise of the Galactic Empire. Eventually, Kylo betrayed Snoke by killing him and taking over the First Order in hopes of creating a legacy far more different than that of the Jedi and the Sith.

Star Wars: Episode IX - The Rise of Skywalker

In the final film of the saga, it is revealed that Sidious managed to revive himself in a clone body by using his great mastery over the dark side of the Force along with the knowledge on how to cheat death by manipulating the midi-chlorians. However, the clone body is left physically impaired because it could not handle Sidious' spirit, so he took refuge in the ancient Sith world of Exegol, where he had to be moved and sustained by machinery before carrying out the orders of Operation Cinder. It is also revealed that the Emperor was responsible for the creation of Snoke as a figurehead, thus making him responsible for the creation of the First Order and Ben's fall to the dark side as Kylo Ren. It also turns out that Sidious himself is the paternal grandfather of Rey, as he fathered a clone, whom he considered as his "son". However, his son was considered a failure, due to his lack of Force Sensitivity. Despite this, Sidious allowed his son to escape from Exegol as he wanted his bloodline to live on through natural means. His son would later marry a woman and give birth to Rey eleven years later, following the Battle of Endor.

Unlike Sidious, his son refused to bear the idea of continuing his father's Sith legacy, so he and his wife hid themselves and their daughter away from sight by living as 'nobodies'. However, Sidious was able to track down his son and daughter-in-law and had them murdered by an assassin named Ochi, who later died of starvation in the planet Pasaana. Nevertheless, Rey's parents managed to hid away Rey by abandoning her in Jakku before they died. Also, during his supposed absence, Sidious has created a group of Sith cultists called the Sith Eternal, who were tasked in creating a massive fleet of Xyston-class Star Destroyers that are much more effective than the Death Stars and Starkiller Base in destroying planets.

One year following Snoke's death, the Emperor broadcasted a message to the entire galaxy of his return. Upon hearing of this, Kylo finds a wayfinder on Mustafar detailing the location to Exegol, so he heads over there, hoping to finish off the Emperor in securing his power of the First Order. However, Sidious reveals that he was the one responsible for the creation of Snoke and the First Order, and that he was manipulating Kylo into doing his bidding the entire time. After revealing the might of the Sith fleet, Sidious offers Kylo a chance to prove himself by tracking down Rey and kill her. Kylo accepts the task, though in secret, he plans to use this as an opportunity in having Rey join him to take down the Emperor.

Kylo was able to track down Rey, and he explained to her about her true lineage and what happened to her parents; he was even surprised to see that Rey had actually inherited Sidious' skills in Force lightning after she accidentally destroyed a First Order transport ship with it. However, her continued survival caused Sidious to suspect treachery from Ren and as such contacted him through the Force threatening to turn the Sith fleet against the Supreme Leader unless he killed Rey. Despite this revelation, Rey refused to join Kylo in overthrowing Sidious, and engaged into a fight against Kylo in the remnants of the second Death Star in Endor. However, Rey backed away in horror after injuring Kylo when he sensed Leia's death, and upon realizing what happened to Leia that distracted Kylo into letting his guard down, a remorseful Rey heals Kylo before escaping to Ahch-To, feeling that she's becoming ruthless as Sidious.

Completely ashamed of the fact that she's the descendant of a cruel Sith emperor who has destroyed many star systems and murdered trillions of lifeforms, Rey resolves to remain at Ahch-To in self-exile. However, Luke's spirit convinced her to defy her lineage by tracking down and facing the Emperor in order to become stronger. Around the same time, the Emperor learns from Allegiant General Pryde that General Hux has betrayed the First Order by supplying information to the Resistance, so he had Pryde to execute Hux. Sidious also usurps full control of the First Order from Kylo and transforms it into the Final Order. Sidious orders the destruction of the planet Kijimi through a Sith Star Destroyer (commandeered by Pryde) as a show of force. Meanwhile, Kylo (on the advice of the spirit of his deceased father Han) severs his ties with the First Order and the dark side of the Force, retaining his former identity as Ben Solo, runs to save Rey and help her defeat the Emperor and his forces for good.

Using Ben's wayfinder and Luke's X-wing, Rey managed to find the location of Sidious' base of Exegol before sending out the information to the Resistance. Upon confronting Sidious at his throne with all the Sith Eternal cultists awaiting for her arrival, the Emperor revealed to Rey that he actually intends to be killed by Rey so that his spirit will be transferred into her, and that she will become the new Empress and secure full power over the galaxy. To ensure of this, Sidious revealed that he tricked Rey into bringing the entire Resistance to a trap in Exegol so that the Sith fleet could wipe them all out.

At first, Rey was tempted to strike down Sidious in desperation to save her friends, but upon sensing that Ben has renounced his ties from the dark side and came by to help her, Rey realizes that there is hope and hands over the Skywalker's lightsaber to Ben, using their Force dyad to take down the Knights of Ren. Even better, the Resistance managed to bring a powerful armada (led by Lando himself) from other systems to take down the Sith fleet. Unfortunately, Sidious sensed the power of their Force dyad and restrained both Ben and Rey, draining their Force energy, weakening them and rejuvenating himself in the process.

Casting Ben into a bottomless pit out of spite against the Skywalker family for causing his previous death, the Emperor used his powers to unleash a series of Force lightnings into Exegol's atmosphere, putting the entire Resistance armada in chaotic peril. Though Sidious is about to accomplish his ultimate goal for power and revenge as he cackles evilly in triumph, several of the past Jedi (such as Luke, Qui-Gon Jinn, Obi-Wan Kenobi, Mace Windu, Yoda, Anakin Skywalker, Ahsoka Tano, Kanan Jarrus, Adi Gallia, Aayla Secura and Luminara Unduli) gave their strength to Rey, allowing her to make one final stand and distract Sidious long enough to focus his wrath on her.

Sensing Rey's newfound strength given by the past Jedi, Sidious decides to finish off his granddaughter as an example to secure his power over the galaxy. To that end, he unleashed his full power of Force lightning on Rey, though she was able to fend this off with her lightsaber. With all of his rage, Sidious angrily declared that Rey is no match for him as he represents all of the Sith. Though Rey agreed with this, she declares that she represents all of the Jedi before using her powers to grab the other lightsaber, using both lightsabers to deflect the Force lightning back on her evil grandfather. Realizing this too late as his powers have turned against him thanks to Rey's newfound strength, Sidious screams in complete agony as the Force lightning vaporizes his flesh before his body explodes, killing the evil Emperor once again but this time for good and avenging Rey's parents and all the past Jedi. Sidious' death also resulted a massive explosion that killed all of the Sith Eternal cultists, bringing the threat of the Phantom Menace to an end once and for all.

With Sidious and his cultists finally dead, the Resistance was able to take down the Sith armada, thus putting an end to the Final Order. The Emperor's death led to Rey succumbing to her injuries inflicted by the Force lightning. However, Ben sacrificed himself by pouring his own life Force into her body, reviving her and vanishing into the Force as a consequence. Thus, Sidious was apparently successful in destroying the Skywalker family bloodline as he desired. Nevertheless, as the entire galaxy celebrates over their victory against the Final Order, Rey happily repudiates the Palpatine name by renaming herself as "Rey Skywalker" in honor of the sacrifices of Ben and his family, thus leaving Sidious' goals for conquest and power in vain.

Digimon Adversaries of the Past

FELIZ CINCO DE MAYO 2020 AMIGOS!

---

In the estate we were laughing our heads off at a funny cartoon that Bart made a long time ago. It was a computer cartoon called ANGRY DAD. It was based on Homer Simpson and it was really funny. It was from Season 13 episode 18 and it was really funny.

We saw Angry Dad walk into the living room.

Angry Dad: Oh what a day. Now to check the headlines in todays newspaper.

He sat down in the chair and read it and the newspaper said "YOU SUCK ANGRY DAD!"

Angry Dad: (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY) THAT'S OPINION! NOT NEWS!

His head swelled up and his eyes exploded.

We laughed hysterically.

Hydro Man, Carly and Dark Spicer were with us.

Dark Spicer: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Carly Carmine: It sure is!

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) It sure is.

Trent Fernandez: (laughs) You know when Homer finds that we're watching Angry Dad, he's gonna kill us, right?

Dark Spicer: It's worth it!

Me: But Bart you sure did a great job on this. It's a great cartoon.

Nico: He sure did.

We then watched Angry Dad work at the Nuclear Power Plant.

Angry Dad: This job sure is easy. Now to press this button.

He pressed a red button and the entire reactor exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Angry Dad: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) NOT AGAIN!

The boss came in and he was a man based on Mr. Burns.

Boss: Angry Dad, you're fired!

Angry Dad's head exploded!

BOOM!

Falcon: (laughs) Bart, I've gotta hand it to you. You sure know how to make something funny!

Bart: Thanks Sam.

Falcon: It was funny.

Homer: BART! WHY YOU LITTLE! (tries to strangle Bart but gets Hydro Man instead)

Hydro Man: (pushes Homer off him) Take it easy! I'm not looking forward to dying a third time!

Homer: Sorry.

Me: But Homer this is yours and Bart's cartoon. You and Bart did win an Academy Award for this.

Homer: Oh yeah I remember that. That was true. But do you all think it's funny laughing at me?

Octopunch: (nervously) Of course not, Homer. What gave you that impression?

Homer: I'M ABOUT TO LOSE IT NOW!

Me: Homer calm down. You got to give Bart some credit.

Homer: Ah you're right. (to Bart) Why don't you make a cartoon about J.D. and the Loud Kids? They get angry too!

Seaspray: Well, their anger moments aren't as funny as yours.

Homer: Yeah that's true.

Later Dark Spicer and Hydro Man went back to the Masters of Evil headquarters.

---

Later we were watching TV and playing cards.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and found out that the city was under attack but two enemies from Nico's past that he thought that he would never see ever again! They were the evil Digimon ARUKENIMON AND MUMMYMON!

Arukenimon

Arukenimon (Archnemon in the Japanese version) is one of the supporting antagonists in Digimon Adventure 02, and one of Oikawa's two henchmen. She and Mummymon are also the secondary arch-nemeses of the Digidestined.

She was voiced by Mari Devon, who also voiced Togemon from Digimon Adventure series and Renamon from Digimon Tamers.

Appearance

Arukenimon is an Ultimate Level Digimon that is spider-like. She poses as a human woman with odd red and purple clothing and large shades concealing her gold-tinted eyes.

Digimon Adventure 02

Arukenimon is a Digimon created by Yukio Oikawa when he spliced his DNA with data, creating one of two Digimon hybrids to serve as his eyes and ears in the Digital World when he plotted a means to enter the other world through the Control Spires. Arukenimon made her first appearance in the storyline after Ken Ichijouji sheds his Digimon Emperor personality. Appearing in her human form, confusing the DigiDestined on how an adult is in the Digital World, Arukenimon started causing terror with the artficial Digimon she creates from the Control Spires. But when the DigiDestined break her hold over Giga House's resident insect Digimon she was using on them, Arukenimon reveals her true form and puts up a fight with the Digidestined and their Digimon before being defeated by Paildramon in a very undignified way. Through saved by her partner Mummymon, Arukenimon vowed revenge and attempted to get it with the creation of BlackWarGreymon. However, when BlackWarGreymon is revealed to have a will of his own, Arukenimon takes Mummymon's suggestion to focus their attack on the Destiny Stones.

But on BlackWarGreymon destroys the first of the seven stones, Arukenimon resolves to hinder the DigiDestineds' attempt to stop him before they managed to save the last stone and Azulongmon convinces BlackWarGreymon to find his own path. Later on, during the Christmas holiday, Arukenimon opens numerous Digi Gates to keep the DigiDestined occupied worldwide while Mummymon lured twenty children to Oikawa to implant copies of Ken's Dark Spore into during the attack of the Daemon Corps. After this, despite Black WarGreymon entering the real world, Oikawa and his followers go into hiding until the time for the Dark Spores comes. Though learning of her origins, Arukenimon focuses her achieving her creator's goals. But in the end, but when the Oikawa-possessed Myotismon became reborn as MaloMyotismon, Arukenimon is tortured and killed by MaloMyotismon in the world of dreams as an excuse to test his new-found powers on her.

Profile

A Demon Beast type Digimon in the form of the "Queen of the Spiders" in Greek mythology. As the Queen of Golemon, she is a highly intelligent, constantly cunning Digimon. Arukenimon is good at deceiving her prey by transforming into a humanoid female and luring them near her with her lust. In addition, because of her violent nature and impatience, she is feared by many Digimon. Her special attacks are "Spider Thread", razor-sharp wires she throws at the enemy that slices them in half, and "Predation Spider", which attacks the enemy by unleashing hordes of Dokugumon that she keeps in her abdomen.

Attacks

Spider Thread: Chops up the opponent with razor-sharp wires.

Predation Spider: Attacks the opponent with the countless carnivorous Dokugumon hidden in its abdomen.

Acid Mist: Sprays green acid from its mouth.

Spirit Needle: Plucks strands of its human hair and uses them to convert Control Spires into artificial Digimon. More strands of hair will create stronger Digimon. 1 hair piece for champions level, 10 hair pieces for ultimate level and 100 for mega level such as BlackWarGreymon.

Mummymon

Mummymon is Arukenimon's right-hand partner who is not very bright. He can also disguise himself as a humble old man. He also has a not-so-secret crush on Arukenimon herself. He is a supporting antagonist in Digimon Adventure 02.

Appearance

Mummymon is an Ultimate Level Digimon that resembles a mummy. He has a large gun, braces on his legs, claws on his hands and feet, and spikes on his body. He also has a second form of a one-eye gentleman with a cane.

Biography

Mummymon first appeared during the fight with Arukenimon and Paildramon. He defeated the Digidestined and came to Arukenimon's rescue, and the two villains retreated. Most of the time throughout of the episodes, Mummymon is not very bright and very dim-witted.

During the Christmas holiday, Mummymon lured 20 children to Oikawa to implant copies of Ken's Dark Spores into while Arukenimon opened numerous Digi-Gates to keep the Digidestined occupied worldwide. Though learning of his origins, Mummymon focuses his achieving his creator's goals along with Arukenimon. But in the end, after MaloMyotismon kills Arukenimon in the world of dreams, Mummymon became furious and attempted to avenge his partner's death and attacked MaloMyotismon, but was melted away by MaloMyotismon's Crimson Mist, killing him as well.

Abilities

An Undead type Digimon whose body is covered in bandages, like the mummies of Ancient Egypt. Because he is able to summon and manipulate the souls (residual data) and wills of Digimon during their time of deletion, he is nicknamed the "Necromancer". He defeats his cornered enemies by first battling them thoroughly with his brandished arms, before firing his favorite "Obelisk" machine gun at random, although he doesn't let others see what he thinks about easily, because he seldom shows his expressions. His "Snake Bandage" attack allows him to expand the bandages from his arms like snakes and throttle the enemy with them. His special attack is "Necrophobia", which summons ghosts to drive the enemy mad until it dies.

Attacks

Snake Bandage: Coils the bandages on both of its arms around the opponent, like a snake.

Necrophobia: Summons ghosts to drive its opponent into maddened death.

Nico: ARUKENIMON AND MUMMYMON!?

Me: I thought they were destroyed!

Qin: Didn't you tell me that MaloMyotismon destroyed them Nico?

Nico: I sure did. They were obliterated by MaloMyotismon. Arukenimon was obliterated by MaloMyotismon's shoulder mouths Sodom and Gomorrah and Mummymon was destroyed by his Crimson Mist attack.

Lincoln: They must've come back because of a Dark Orb.

Laney: That could be the case.

Elena: I didn't think that Dark Orbs would work on Digimon.

Nico: Me neither.

Nico then got enraged.

Me: Nico where are you going?

Nico: To finish what I was gonna do years ago. I'm going to destroy Arukenimon and Mummymon!

He walked to the door and May saw him about to leave.

May: Nico, where are you going?!

Nico: I'm going out there and finding Arukenimon and Mummymon. I'll do it alone if I have to!

Maria: By yourself?! Are you crazy?!

Nico: It's too dangerous! Just let me hnadle it!

But just as Nico was about to reach for the door…

May: (starts to cry) WHO THE HELL WAS THE ONE WHO TAUGHT US NOT TO FIGHT ALONE?!

This stop Nico in his tracks.

Maria: (also starts to cry) YEAH! AND WHO WAS THE ONE WHO TAUGHT US NOT TO ACT RECKLESSLY?!

May: (hugs Nico) The Nico that I know wouldn't go off by himself. He would actually form a plan to take down Mummymon and Arukenimon and include us!

Maria: (grabs his shoulders) You're not alone, Nico. We'll help defeat those two Digimon. But only if you let us help you.

Me: That's right Nico! You said that we are never in this alone. Divided we are weak, united we are stronger.

Nico: You're right. Lets all get them.

Maria: YEAH!

Nico: Lets go!

We went out to face them.

In the middle of the city Arukenimon and Mummymon were destroying the city and blowing up cars and some buildings.

Nico: HEY!

Mummymon: Well, look who finally showed his face to us.

Arukenimon: Never thought we would see you again Nico.

Nico: For the last time. You two should've been dead forever. Because of you two I killed Ken.

We all jumped out.

Me: Arukenimon and Mummymon. You two are ugly.

Mummymon: Well you are disgusting too.

Leni: (Freaks OUT!) SPIDER!

Leni smashed Arukenimon with a hammer.

---

Arukenimon: OW OW OW! STOP IT!

Davis: Word of advice, you two? Stay dead this time.

Me: That's right.

Vypra, Myotismon and Vanitas appeared.

Me: Vypra, Myotismon and Vanitas.

William: Did you two see Angry Dad?

Vypra: We sure did! I didn't know Bart was an expert in animation.

Bart: It's a really good cartoon I made.

Myotismon: Long time since we faced each other Nico.

Nico: It sure has been a while and your two lackeys there had a hand in helping in corrupting Ken, turning him into the Digimon Emperor.

?: That was a dark time.

A figure came out and it was MONKEYWI of Episode 16 of Jungle Fury!

---

Monkeywi was personal Rinshi of Grizzaka. After Grizzaka overthrowed Dai Shi/Jarrod, he summoned Monkeywi. Grizzaka send Monkeywi with Rinshi to Ocean Bluff to gather the fear of people. R.J. (Jungle Fury): Monkeywi!

Monkeywi: (to RJ) I liked it better when you turned into a werewolf. At least you were on my side!

Me: I remember you! You were sent to gather the fear of people for Grizzaka.

Monkeywi: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

My Signer Mark then glowed and out came Rex Goodwin!

Me: Rex Goodwin.

Rex Goodwin: Yes didn't expect me again huh?

Me: True. Brittney, you and the Goths of Darkness will help me and the Signers face Rex.

Haiku: Lets do it.

Troy: This time, we don't need a Legendary Mode to take you down!

Megaforce Rangers: Super Mega Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Super Mega Mode Rangers.

Me: Lets do it!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the nightmare planet FIENDRONOMICA!

Nico: Whoa! So this is Fiendronomica.

Laney: Horrifying!

We went at them.

Battle 1: VYPRA

---

Luan was facing Vypra.

Luan: You are doing well Vypra.

Vypra: Indeed. Shall we dance?

Luan formed a sword of light.

Luan: Lets Dance the Knight away. (Laughs to rimshot) Get it?

Vypra: (Laughs) Good one! Lets shall.

Luan and Vypra clashed in a powerful sword fight and sparks were flying everywhere. Luan kicked Vypra in the face and knocked her down.

Luan: You got the Boot! (Laughs)

Battle 2: VANITAS

Spiderman was facing Vanitas.

Vanitas: Great video Bart did.

Spiderman: Thanks Vanny. Lets dance.

Vanitas: Lets.

Spiderman punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and crotch and then he wrapped up Vanitas in webbing.

Spiderman: Try beating that.

Battle 3: MONKEYWI

The Megaforce Rangers were facing Monkeywi.

Troy Burrows: Lets get him!

They blasted and slashed Monkeywi all over the place and the blasts hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!

Monkeywi fell down and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Troy Burrows: That's it for him.

Lori Jimenez then got another ring on her finger and it had a red gem on it with a baboon in it.

Lori Jimenez: The Baboon Spirit chose me.

Isabel: It sure did. The Baboon symbolizes ingenuity, adaptability, generosity, caring for others, benevolence, lack of greed, creativity, playfulness, curiosity and new ideas. It's a great spirit for you.

Lori Jimenez: Thanks Isabel.

Then a red light appeared and it landed in Lori's hands and it was the Baboon Wild Zord!

Lori Jimenez: The Baboon Wild Zord!

A Crystal Dagger appeared in a holster on Lori's left hip.

Lori Jimenez: Wow! It chose me for this.

Isabel: Wow. This is perfect for you.

Battle 4: MYOTISMON

---

Nico was facing Myotismon.

Nico: This will hurt you a lot.

Myotismon: I've handled worse.

Nico: Lets dance.

Nico went Super Saiyan 2.

Myotismon: Lets! (Echoing) GRIZLY WING!

Myotismon fired a massive swarm of his Bat Familiars at him.

Nico: (Echoing) RIVER OF POWER!

Nico fired a massive blast of energy with MetalSeadramon's River of Power attack and it slammed into the Bat Familiars and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico punched Myotismon in the face and kicked him in the stomach.

Myotismon: Why you!? (Echoing) CRIMSON LIGHTNING!

Myotismon fired a stream of blood red lightning!

Nico: (Echoing) TERRA DESTROYER!

Nico used BlackWarGreymon's powers and formed a huge ball of Negative Energy and threw it at Myotismon and it slammed into the Crimson Lightning and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico appeared out of the smoke and kicked him in the face and kicked him many times in the chest and sent him flying into the air.

Nico: (Echoing) GIGA CANNON!

Nico fired Machinedramon's Giga Cannon and the blasts hit Myotismon and exploded all over and it really hurt as he was blasted all over the place.

Nico: Try this one on. (Echoing) CORONA BLASTER!

Nico used Beelzemon's powers and formed his arm into a powerful blaster and it fired a massive blast of energy and it hit Myotismon and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Myotismon fell to the ground and was knocked down.

Nico: Awesome.

---

Battle 5: REX GOODWIN

---

Me and the Signers and the Goths of Darkness were on the Duel Runner Arena and we were racing along the Condor Nazca Line.

Me: I don't understand you Rex. Why are you so determined to kill me to get revenge? I haven't done anything to you. I don't even remember even doing anything at all to you.

Rex Goodwin: I want you dead because you are a menace to my new world order and you are a monster that is standing in my way! I will kill you if it's the last thing I ever do!

Me: What kind of fucked up world do you live in!?

Yusei: He's insane!

Akiza: He has totally lost his mind!

Brittney: No kidding.

Haiku: He's really delusional.

Maggie: No kidding.

Lucy Loud: I know.

Me: I will never forgive you for killing so many innocent people all because of your own selfishness. KIBAL! LETS HOWL!

I turned into WOLF MOON!

Rex Goodwin: I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL WIRAQOCHA RASCA!

He summoned the Condor Earthbound Immortal Wiraqocha Rasca!

Me: So that's how you want it to go down.

We powered up and summoned the Signer Dragons and the Goths of Darkness summoned the monsters of Demons and the Undead.

Me: Lets dance.

We went at Rex and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and kicked him in the back of the head. I flipped over in front of him and Rex fired a massive blast of purple fire at me and I fired a blast of blue fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I flew through the smoke of the explosion and punched him in the face and Brittney fired a blast of black fire and it slammed into Rex and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Haiku and Maggie both fired blasts of black fire and the blasts hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: (In my head) I'm gonna have to get tough and intimidate him.

I went at him.

Me: If this is all you're made of Rex, then I'm not impressed.

Rex Goodwin: You won't think so when you are dead!

Me: I'm immortal. I don't die that easily.

I punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the mouth and knocked out one of his teeth. I then punched him in the stomach with devastating force and Rex belched out a huge amount of blood.

Me: It's strange. And you call yourself the leader of the Dark Signers. How disappointing. If this is all that you're made of it's pathetic. Your brother is a better fighter than you are.

Brittney: That's right and every other Dark Signer is better than you are.

We fired energy blasts at him and they hit Rex all at once and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Signer Dragons and our Duel Monsters fired blasts of energy and power and they hit Wiraqocha Rasca and exploded and destroyed him.

Rex was knocked down.

---

Battle 6: ARUKENIMON & MUMMYMON

---

We regrouped and faced Arukenimon and Mummymon.

Me: It's over for the both of you. You are the ones that made Nico kill Ken in the first place.

Arukenimon: Ken was just a pawn in our plans to destroy the world and remake it in our image.

Nico: YOU BITCH!

Lincoln: You are the true murderers of Ken Ichijouji! You make me sick!

Laney: Yeah! You will pay for your crimes! Because of you, you both made Nico kill him and scar him forever!

Qin: You will pay for your crimes!

Lincoln: Lets get them!

We went at Arukenimon and Mummymon and I punched Arukenimon in the face and fired a massive blast of energy at her and it hit her and exploded and Nico kicked her and Mummymon in the face and fired a barrage of energy blasts at them both and they hit them and exploded all over the place and Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted them all over and Laney fired blasts of fire and burned them and Lana fired blasts of ice lightning and froze them in blocks of ice and Lily and Lucy fired blasts of water and black lightning and drenched and electrocuted them both all over and Vegeta, Goku and Gohan fired energy blasts and they hit Arukenimon and exploded with incredible power and burned her all over.

Lucy Heartfilia: Take this. CONSTELLATION STYLE NINJA ART: THE BIG DIPPER!

The stars of the constellation of the Big Dipper appeared behind Lucy and she fired seven blasts of stellar energy from each star and the blasts hit Mummymon all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lucy fired a wave of blood and it turned into Khorne, the Blood God and he smashed Arukenimon and Mummymon all over the place.

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called SLPOUGE FANG! It looked like a serpentine creature with 6 tails and he 3 eyes and spines on his head and deadly pinchers.

Ben: SLPOUGE FANG!

Me: Whoa! That's a new one.

Shanan: Whoa! That's an Optiserpentus from the planet Sightra. They are the natural predators of the Opticoids, Eye Guy's species.

Lana: Whoa! That is cool!

Riley: This is the coolest one.

Julie Yamamoto: He sure is.

Slpouge Fang: Lets see what he can do.

He slashed Mummymon all over with his blade tentacles.

Me: Lets see how they like our teamwork. Lets him him with our combos all at once.

Nico: Right!

Zhuqiaomon: Lets do it!

Kazemon: Right with you!

Izzy: Prodigious!

Octopunch and Trent Fernandez used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced their Acetylene Torch Gun and Dragon Blade 100-fold.

Me: Time to finish you both once and for all. Lets hit them both all at once.

T.K.: Right!

Nico: Lets do it!

Kari: Yeah!

T.K.: Lets do it.

Me, Davis, Yolei, Cody, T.K., Kari, and Nico: DIGIMON MEGABLAST FIRESTORM!

I fired a blast of Purple energy, Nico fired a blast of Orange energy, Cody fired a blast of yellow energy, Yolei fired a blast of red energy, Davis fired a blast of blue energy, T.K. fired a blast of green energy and Kari fired a blast of pink energy. The blasts combined and they slammed into Arukenimon and Mummymon and completely obliterated them in an instant and vaporized them in a massive explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Izzy made sure that Arukenimon and Mummymon would never return and he used his laptop to purge the data of them and destroy them once and for all. Once a document is purged, it's gone forever.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Nico: Yep. It's over.

Vanitas, Myotismon and Vypra appeared and Myotismon had Rex in his hands.

Vanitas: (to Nico) I'm actually glad that JD was able to calm you down before the fight.

Nico: Why's that?

Vypra: Because you're usually the one who thinks of plan instead of acting recklessly.

Myotismon: That's pretty much the Nico that defeated me before.

Yolei: You guys actually have a good point.

Nico: Trust me. I'm not gonna act out of character again.

Vanitas: Glad to hear it.

With that, Vanitas, Myotismon, and Vypra teleport out.

Me: Good. Lets head home.

We went back to Earth.

---

Back at the estate we were having a Cinco De Mayo party.

Manaphy, Poromon, Horsea and Poliwag: FELIZ CINCO DE MAYO COMPADRES!

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: It's so awesome!

I was having a chalupa.

Nico and May were having Mole Poblanos.

Jack Atlas and Carly were having Chalupas and Chiles En Nogada.

Me: Mmm. Delicious.

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) I'm glad you like my chalupas and tamales J.D.

Nico: It's all good food.

Laney: It sure is.

Lana: I love all Mexican food.

Lola: Me too.

We were having an awesome Fiesta.

Davis: (To the viewers) At least we are now free of Arukenimon and Mummymon forever and we never have to see them again. It's gonna be a good future without them.

Me: You said it Davis.

THE END

---

Another Awesome fanfic complete.

Arukenimon and Mummymon were ugly and evil to the core and they tormented Nico's life for the last time. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the old movie from 1972: Night of The Lepus. We're gonna see a massive group of giant cute adorable bunnies attacking the citizens of a town and killing them. It's gonna be one strange and cute battle.

See you all tomorrow.

NIGHT OF THE LEPUS

At the mall, May and Francis were going on a shopping spree and they were looking around for all kinds of great clothes and stuff for Nico and Teresa.

Francis: Lets see. Teresa will love these clothes.

He had all kinds of awesome pink clothes for Teresa and May had a lot of amazing clothes for Nico and they were blue and purple.

May: Nico will love these.

Later they went to the grocery store and were buying food.

But little did they know that something was watching them from the shadows. He fired a blast of energy and it hit Francis and May and did something to them. When they came too, it can be described as nothing short of confusing.

Francis: What happened?

May: Francis?

Francis saw May?

Francis: What the!? May is that you!?

They went to the mirrors and they saw that their reflections were switched and this meant that their bodies were switched!

They screamed in shock in horror!

At the estate we were seeing a very unusual and weird dilemma. We saw Francis Stone in May's Body and May was in Francis's body! WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED!?

Shadow the Hedgehog: So, wait. Right now, Francis is in May's body. And May's in Francis' body?

May (In Francis's Body): Yeah.

Francis (In May's body): THIS IS A NIGHTMARE!

Me: This is like something out of that movie Freaky Friday!

Goku: And this is like what happened to me when Captain Ginyu switched bodies with me when we were fighting back on Namek!

Armada Cyclonus (to Francis): I thought you'd be more happy to have powers again.

Francis (in May's body): Well, I'm really not used to shooting ice! Not to mention this ice gun

May (in Francis' body): And I can't deal with not having powers and having to rely on this flamethrower!

Toad (Super Mario): Manaphy, can't you use your Heart Swap to swtich May and Francis back?

Manaphy: I can't. I can only switch people that I've Heart Swapped.

Powerglide: Look, how about you two teach each other how to use your respective abilities to better understand them?

Me: That's a good idea. Until we find out who did this and make them pay.

May and Francis got to teaching each other how to use their powers and more.

It took a while but it worked.

Me: How do you guys feel?

May (In Francis's Body): Amazing! I feel ready for anything.

Francis (In May's Body): Yeah it's awesome.

The alarm then went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that a small town in Tennessee was under attack.

Me: Lets move!

We were off to Tennessee.

---

We arrived in the small town we were called to. When we got there, we saw what could only be described as a bloodbath! We gasped and saw numerous mutilated bodies all over the place. They were shredded and bloody all over.

Me: What happened?

Vince: Looks like there's a killer on the loose.

Sasuke: I don't think so. These wounds weren't caused by a human being. They were caused by a wild animal.

Naruto: What animal could do all this damage and kill so many people?

Kiba: I don't know. But I have a really bad feeling about this.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Me too.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) I got a bad feeling about this too.

Lord Drakkon and Hydro Man came out!

Me: Lord Drakkon and Hydro Man.

Lord Drakkon: Come to see what's up?

Me: Yeah. Everyone in this whole town was killed by some kind of terrible force.

Hydro Man: Whew! You aren't kidding. What in the world happened here?

Me: We don't know. The people of this town were all mutilated. I know you guys didn't do this.

Lord Drakkon: We're just as stumped as you all are.

?: Same with me.

A figure came out and it was TRANCEFERER from episode 13 of Power Rangers Super Megaforce!

---

Tranceferer was sent by Prince Vekar to switch a human with a Bruiser, only to fail when Emma and Jake encountered him. Tranceferer swapped Noah and Jake's bodies and returned to the Armada Mothership to swap the bodies of Earth's leaders. After the death of Turtlelini, a commander who was sent to Earth to keep the rangers busy, Tranceferer was sent back to fight the rangers, only to be killed by a Final Strike. After being enlarged, Tranceferer was finally destroyed once and for all by the newly formed Legandary Ninja Megazord.

---

Jake Holling: Tranceferer!

Tranceferer: Its been a while Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You switched Noah and Jake's bodies.

Tranceferer: That's right. You watched us fight on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Tranceferer: You like what I did to your friends?

Francis (in May's body): Wait. You were the one who switched our bodies?!

Tranceferer: That's right! It was all part of an experiment.

May (in Francis' body): What experiment?

Drakkon: We wanted to see how Francis would fare with having powers again while May fared with having no powers at all.

Me: I can see that.

Hydro Man: We also have some new members for you to face. I'm sure you know this one.

A figure came out and it was WHITEOUT!

---

Whiteout is a villain in the Marvel universe and an enemy towards the X-Men.

History

Nothing is known of the past of the being called Whiteout. It may be assumed that she has resided in the Savage Land for some time, and it was there that she was recruited by the mutant Zaladane to join her forces of Savage Land Mutates.

In her only known mission for Zaladane, Whiteout and other Savage Land Mutates attacked the mutant group known as the X-Men in Chile while they were looking for their compatriot, Polaris. The X-Men defeated the Savage Land Mutates in this battle, and Whiteout presumably fled.

Whiteout later turned up as a member of Superia's all-female supervillain army the Femizons. Her current whereabouts are unknown.

---

Me: Whiteout!

Cyclops: We haven't seen her in a long time.

Whiteout: Its been a while X-Men.

Squirrel Girl: (to Whiteout) I'm surprised Vypra actually decided to recruit you.

Whiteout: I guess she got impressed by my abilities.

Me: Maybe. And I'm guessing she recruited a bunch of others as well.

Lord Drakkon: She sure did and you'll have to wait and see who they are.

My Signer Mark started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Out came Roman Goodwin.

Me: Roman. Your brother took one helluva beating.

Roman: He did thanks to your friends.

Me: Nice to know that I left my mark. I suppose we should start fighting.

Lord Drakkon: Yes.

Tranceferer: Face it, Rangers! I know all of your Legendary Modes by now.

Gia: Not all of them!

Jake: This is actually going to be our first time using these keys as a team.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dino Charge!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into 6 of the Dino Charge Rangers! Troy just became the Red Dino Charge Ranger, Emma just became the Pink Dino Charge Ranger, Gia just became the Black Dino Charge Ranger, Jake just became the Green Dino Charge Ranger, Noah just became the Blue Dino Charge Ranger, and Orion just became the Gold Dino Charge Ranger.

Me: Nice! Lets get them!

We went at them.

Battle 1: Lord Drakkon

I was facing Lord Drakkon.

Me: Are you all right after Kazex slashed your back?

Lord Drakkon: Much better now thanks.

Me: Good. Shall we dance?

Lord Drakkon: Lets.

We went at each other and I unsheathed my sword and Lord Drakkon unsheathed his sword and we clashed violently and sparks were flying all over the place and setting some of the town on fire and making the town a battle zone. We fired energy blasts at each other and blew some of the town apart in massive explosions of fire and more. I fired a blast and it hit by Lord Drakkon and exploded. Sending him crashing into a wall.

Me: Good fight.

?: But it will be your last!

I then saw an enemy I thought would be gone for good! It was KING EINON!

Einon: Well, well, well, it can't be! But it is! J.D. Knudson.

Me: Einon. I thought I killed you back 1,000 years ago!

Einon: You did and I came back thanks to black magic.

Me: Vypra.

Einon: Time's not been kind to you, J.D.

Me: I could say the same thing to you because you're in the wrong century. I will live forever.

Einon: You should never have broke with me.

Me: Sorry but I don't serve you. Those days died when I killed you 1,000 years ago. And you picked a bad time to come back for round 2.

Einon: We shall see!

He unsheathed his sword.

Me: All right then.

I walked up to him and we walked in a circle and then we clashed and sparks were going all over the place and setting buildings on fire. I pinned him my sword on his back.

Me: I'm sure you've learned this one. Only expose your back on a corpse.

He pushed my sword.

Einon: You are a corpse. You just don't know it!

Me: Fuck you!

We resumed clashing and I kicked him in the face and he had his sword ready for me.

Einon: Lie down J.D.! You're the sorry scrap of dead worlds and dead beliefs!

Me: You should know that. I'm the one who killed you! And Bowen taught you the Old Code and the beliefs of knighthood! They were your beliefs too!

Einon: Never. Never mine.

Me: You spoke the Old Code! Spoke them from your heart!

Einon: I vomited them up because I couldn't stomach them! Because I knew it was what you wanted to hear!

Me: You honorless monster and pathological liar! Bowen taught you what it meant to be a knight!

Einon: He taught me to fight, That's all! I took what I needed from him. He taught me to fight!

Me: But you didn't learn this!

I blasted him with fire and the blast hit him and his chest exploded.

Me: You also lost your heart to the very woman you "Loved". Kind of ironic huh that the very woman was part of an army that killed you? You've underestimated Bowen and Draco. You've lost because of him and us.

Einon: (ENRAGED) NO!

He resumed his clash with me and I kicked him and got the drop on him and stabbed him in the chest and it went through his black heart.

Me: It's over for you Einon. I think Hell and the Afterlife are both too good for you.

I pulled my sword out and had my hand in his face.

Me: HAKAI!

Einon glowed purple and he screamed in pain as he was completely obliterated. Einon was erased from Existence forever as if he was never born at all.

Me: Never meant to be.

---

Battle 2: Hydro Man

---

Luna was facing Hydro Man.

Luna: You ready to dance dude?

Hydro Man: Always ready.

Luna flew at him and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and fired a massive blast of water at him and smashed him into a wall.

Luna: Love a good fight dude.

---

Battle 3: Whiteout

---

Squirrel Girl was facing Whiteout.

Squirrel Girl: So the Masters of Evil made you my arch nemesis.

Whiteout: That's right. You would be amazed what Vypra can do.

Squirrel Girl: So we have seen.

Whiteout: I was normally expecting to have one of the X-Men as my archenemy. But you'll do just as good.

Squirrel Girl: Thanks. Lets see what you can do.

Squirrel Girl went at Whiteout and called a bunch of squirrels and she and the squirrels clawed and smashed Whiteout all over and sent her crashing into a store.

Squirrel Girl: Awesome fight.

---

Battle 4: Tranceferer

---

Nico, May, Francis and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Tranceferer.

Nico: You will pay for messing with my girlfriend!

Tranceferer: (taunts) Ooh I'm so scared!

Francis (In May's body): You should be!

He fired a blast of frozen fire and froze him in ice and Nico, May and the Megaforce Rangers as the Dino Charge rangers blasted Tranceferer all over. They slashed him with Dino Blades, Dino Spike, Tyranno Smasher, Gold Ptera Saber, and more. Troy used the T Rex Smasher, Gia used the Para Chopper, Noah used the Stego Shield, Jake used the Raptor Claws, Emma used the Tricera Drill, and Orion used the Gold Ptera Saber and they viciously pulverized him all over and blew him apart in a massive fiery explosion.

Nico: Tranceferer you have failed this universe.

May and Francis glowed in a ball of light and they were switched back.

Francis: Are we back?

Nico: You sure are Francis. You and May are back to normal.

May: Awesome!

Francis: Thank goodness!

Troy Burrows: That's a relief.

Gia Moran: No kidding.

---

Battle 5: Roman

---

Allie was facing Roman.

Allie: I get to face you this time Roman.

Roman: Indeed. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

Roman summoned the Spider Earthbound Immortal Uru!

Roman: By the way, I'm happy that Jack and Carly are dating and are a couple.

Allie: I am too. I have a Harpie Lady Deck like Mai Valentine does. I summon HARPIE LADY, HARPIE LADY SISTERS, HARPIE GIRL, HARPIE ORACLE, HARPIE PERFUMER, HARPIE LADY'S 1, 2 and 3, HARPIE'S PET DRAGON, HARPIE QUEEN, HARPIE HARPIST, HARPIE DANCER, HARPIE CHANNELER, CYBER HARPIE LADY, and HARPIE'S PET PHANTASMAL DRAGON!

Allie summoned said monsters.

Roman: Very impressive. You have quite the collection of Harpie Lady monsters.

Allie: Thanks. It's what I like. To make it interesting, I equip myself and my 15 Harpie Lady's with AERO NAIL!

Allie had a wrist gauntlet appear and it had a deadly scythe blade on it.

Allie: And ROSE WHIP!

Allie and her Harpie Lady's were all equipped with a whip made of rose thorns.

Roman: Very impressive.

Allie: Thanks. Lets dance.

They went at Roman and the Spider Earthbound Immortal and they slashed and cut them all over. Uru exploded and Roman was knocked down.

Allie: Awesome.

Battle 6: GIANT BUNNIES!

We regrouped and the Masters of Evil came.

Me: Good fight.

Lord Drakkon: Thanks.

William: Can I ask you guys a question before you teleport out?

Drakkon: Why not?

William: Why did you have Tranceferer swap May and Francis' bodies specifically?

Hydro Man: Because the two of them have guns that used fire and ice. And those two elements are polar opposites.

William: I get it now.

Me: Yeah ever since the beginning of time, Fire and Ice have always been competing with each other.

Lord Drakkon: That's right.

Whiteout: I'm looking forward to more of my fights against you all.

With that, Whiteout teleported out with Drakkon and Hydro Man.

Me: We're not done yet.

We saw the sun go down and we heard what sounded like a stampede of cows and a bunch of skittering.

Me: Do you guys hear that?

Laney: Yeah I hear it.

Lana: Sounds like a stampede of cows.

Nico: It's not cows. Look!

We saw something coming at us and we saw that it was a massive stampede of giant bunnies!

Me: It's a herd of giant bunnies!

Ed: Whoa!

Luna Loud: I hope my allergies don't act up.

Liam: (Southern Accent) Those are massive bunnies.

Nico: I've never seen bunnies that giant!

Maria: (Squeals) They are so cute!

Laney: How did they get that big!?

Lisa Loud: Wait, I've heard about this but years ago there was an experimental serum designed to control the growth of rabbits. It backfired and made the rabbits as big as wolves.

Naruto: Whoa!

Lola: There's blood on their fur and mouths! Look!

We saw that Lola was right! These bunnies killed all the people in the entire town!

Lana: These bunnies killed all the people here!?

Lily: How can something so cute and so cuddly do that!?

Lucy Loud: But aren't rabbits usually vegetarians?

Syd Chang: Normally yes. But it looks like that serum turned them into flesh-eating monsters!

Maria: I'll never look at bunnies the same way again!

Warren: (to Maria) Maria, I hope you still like me and my sisters.

Maria: I would never speak ill about you or your sisters Warren.

Betty: Thanks Maria.

Beatrice: That means a lot to us Maria.

Maria: You're welcome.

Me: These bunnies are an abomination!

Nico: I agree! Lets get them!

We went at the giant bunnies and really were massacring them all over the place and splattering their blood and guts all over the place at a vicious level.

Brenda: You monsters give rabbits a bad name!

Warren: What she said!

We blasted them with energy and elemental blasts and more.

Maria and Carmen found a giant bunny eating a bunch of carrots and they pet it and it was friendly and they saw that it was a true vegetarian. It was clean and not covered in blood at all.

Maria: This one will make an awesome pet.

Carmen: It sure will sis.

Lana: Go for it guys.

Warren: Lets see how these bunnies like this. LEAF STYLE NINJA ART: DRYAD!

Warren fired a wave of leaves and they turned into the Terrarian Dryad and it blasted a bunch of giant rabbits and slashed them apart.

Betty: I will silence you abominations! SLIME STYLE NINJA ART: KING SLIME!

Betty fired a wave of slime and it formed into the King Slime and engulfed a lot of giant rabbits and ate them.

Beverly: Try this one! DARK STYLE NINJA ART: EYE OF CTHULHU!

Beverly fired a wave of dark energy and it formed into the Eye of Cthulhu and it ate a bunch of giant rabbits and spit out their bones.

Blair: Try this. PLANT STYLE NINJA ART: QUEEN BEE!

Blair fired a wave of plants and it turned into a huge bee and it stung a bunch of rabbits and caused them to explode.

Brenda: I hate all of you rabbits! CRIMSON STYLE NINJA ART: BRAIN OF CTHULHU!

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Night Of The Lepus from 1972 was a really strange movie and one of the weirdest I've ever seen. I never saw the full movie in real life but it was the weirdest I've seen from the trailer and some clips for it. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a Victorian London adventure as we travel through the world of The Great Mouse Detective! We're going to take down the nefarious Professor Ratigan and bring an end to that ugly bubonic plague-ridden scum bucket.

See you all tomorrow.

A Mouse Detective in Victorian London

In the middle of the lush countryside of Iowa, we were riding our Rapidash and flying and we were on our way to the famous Saffron City. We were heading there to visit the Gym Leader of the Saffron City gym, Sabrina. She is a powerful Gym Leader with immensely powerful psychic abilities and she is a strong Psychic Pokemon user.

Sabrina (in Japanese: ナツメ, Natsume) is the Gym Leader of Saffron City's Gym, known officially as the Saffron Gym. She hands out the Marsh Badge to Trainers who defeat her. She is a young lady with psychic abilities, and thus trains Psychic-type Pokémon. She serves as a villain in the anime, and in the Pokémon Adventures manga.

In Japanese version she was voiced by Kae Araki while in English version she was voiced by Lisa Ortiz, who also voiced Mars.

Games

Prior to Pokémon X and Y, Sabrina has appeared in every generation of Pokémon as the Gym Leader of the Saffron Gym. Known as "The Mistress of Psychic-type Pokémon", she has had psychic powers ever since she was a child, when she accidentally bent a spoon. She apparently dislikes battling, but is hard to beat because she can communicate with her Pokémon telepathically. Her fame has grown so much that even Trainers living in the Sevii Islands have heard of her. Previously there were two Gyms in Saffron City, a Fighting-type Gym, and a Psychic-type Gym. Sabrina used her advantage to defeat the rival gym and strip them of their Gym status.

In Pokémon Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Fire-Red, Leaf-Green Let's Go! Pikachu, and Let's Go! Eevee, Trainers must navigate warp tiles to find Sabrina hiding in the middle of her Gym. Defeating her will earn them the Marsh Badge and a Psychic-type TM: TM46

(Psywave) in Generation I; TM04 (Calm Mind) in Generation III. The Gym maintains a similar style in Pokémon Gold, Silver, Crystal, HeartGold, and SoulSilver. The warp tiles are maintained, as is the badge: Sabrina, however, gives no TM in Generation II and TM48 (Skill Swap) in Generation IV.

In Pokémon Gold, Pokémon Silver, and Pokémon Crystal, we learn that Sabrina can see into the future, as she states that three years ago she foresaw the arrival of another strong challenger (realized in the form of Ethan, Kris, and Lyra). After this second defeat, she accepts that the ability of foresight may be limited.

In Pokémon HeartGold and Pokémon SoulSilver, Sabrina has received a major redesign, now sporting a vastly different hairstyle and changing her wardrobe from a conservative dark-red turtleneck to a completely new, more casual-looking outfit. After her initial defeat in Saffron City, she ventures outside of her Gym. She can be found at the dock for the S.S. Aqua in the Olivine City Harbor at any time on Friday. After the player has obtained her phone number here, she can be called during Sunday afternoon to arrange a rematch at the Fighting Dojo she once defeated.

In Pokémon Black 2 and Pokémon White 2, Sabrina appears in the Pokemon World Tournament as a participant along with other Gym Leaders. She also takes part in Pokéstar Studios movies as Magic Queen Bellelba, a villain in the Mystery Doors of the Magical Land series.

Anime

In the anime, Sabrina was the fourth gym leader Ash encountered. He challenged her initially in Abra and the Psychic Showdown, and had a rematch with her in Haunter Versus Kadabra.

Sabrina inherited her psychic power from her father, who had the ability to teleport from location to location, as well as telekinesis. It manifested when she was young, and it was soon apparent that Sabrina's abilities far exceeded her father's. She was able to use her psychic powers to do many things- teleportation, telepathy, psychokinesis, and transmutation.

As her power increased, she grew more obsessed with developing it. She became less and less emotional, using her abilities for destructive purposes, even transforming her mother into a doll and destroying her house. This caused a deep psychological rift. The emotions she tried to shut off developed into a separate personality- a young girl who manifested as a puppet around Sabrina. Sabrina's mind was divided into the cold, callous, emotionless woman with a thirst for power and the little girl who just wanted to have fun.

Sabrina became the leader of the Saffron Gym, and turned it into an institute where fellow psychics could develop their powers. Ash was headed to Saffron one day, unknowingly watched by Sabrina. Sabrina's younger self used her psychic abilities to save Ash and his friends from Team Rocket. The next day, despite warnings from a mysterious man, Ash challenged Sabrina and lost miserably.

Sabrina used her powers to shrink Ash and his friends, but they were saved by the man. He cautioned Ash that only Ghost-type Pokémon could defeat Psychic-types.

Ash resolved to catch a Ghost-type Pokémon. After a trip to the Lavender Tower, Ash returned with a Haunter he had befriended. Ash challenged Sabrina to a rematch, but Haunter had wandered off in the meantime. Ash managed to escape Sabrina's wrath, rescued by the mysterious man once again, but Brock and Misty were transformed into dolls and placed into a dollhouse, where they met Sabrina's mother in the same predicament.

After talking with the man, who was revealed to be Sabrina's father, Ash returned once more, and during the match, Haunter appeared and started to playfully tease Sabrina. Haunter's antics delighted Sabrina so much, that she was no longer able to contain her emotions and started to laugh. This caused her two personalities to merge back into one. Ash was deemed the winner of the match due to the inability of Sabrina or her psychically-linked Pokémon to battle, and the young man won the Marsh Badge. Haunter chose to stay with Sabrina and her reunited family.

Pokémon Adventures

Sabrina was one of the three villainous heads of Team Rocket, and serves under Giovanni in Pokémon Adventures.

She is first seen on top of her Kadabra after Red leaves Celadon City with an experimental Eevee, commenting how perfect that is even though it was thought that the Eevee had simply escaped. Under her boss's orders, she captured Moltres and brought it to Saffron City. She then used her Mr. Mime's Barrier to totally close off Saffron City from the outside world. Red's Pikachu was able to pass through the barrier by using Substitute. He was then able to defeat Mr. Mime and let Red, Blue, and Green in. At Silph Co., Sabrina took on Green, but the younger Trainer was able to best Sabrina by outwitting her than incapacitating her using her Jiggly's Sing. However, she snapped out of it soon and found Red and Green in the room that contained the Badge Energy Amplifier. Green then reveals that the badges she returned to Red were fakes, and flees. She was the one who controlled Zapmolcuno when it was created by Green by accident, but after Saur's evolution to Venusaur, she and the birds were defeated. The bird went free as the Silph Co. building collapsed.

Two years later, Sabrina helped the Pallet Town Trainers in the fight against the Elite Four during the Cerise Island battle. Sabrina's Alakazam created magical items called the Spoons of Destiny. When held by a strong Trainer, the Spoons of Destiny would point out a Trainer of a similar style and personality. Using these tools, Blue was paired with Koga, Yellow was paired with Blaine, Red was paired with Lt. Surge, and Sabrina herself was paired with Green. It would seem that all eight members still carry the spoons to this day, as Red made some usage of it in the Gold, Silver, & Crystal chapter.

Green and Sabrina found themselves battling Lorelei, who used her ice dolls to chain them to each other, something that proved to be a great disadvantage due to their lack of teamwork, which resulted Green being knocked out by Lorelei's Jynx. However, with Green's quick thinking and the act she put up, Lorelei was eventually beaten.

Sabrina suffered severe frostbite injuries on her wrist. Because of this, she later traveled to mystic springs at Johto's Mt. Silver to heal. There, she found Red in the springs with the same injury, and warned him of the assaults the Mask of Ice was about to commit in the Pokémon League that was to be held soon.

Afterward, she travels to the Pokémon League to have an exhibition match with the other Kanto Gym Leaders against the Johto Gym Leaders. Sabrina is paired up against Bugsy, whose attempts to befriend her end in vain. Despite the type disadvantage, Sabrina manages to defeat Bugsy with her Mr. Mime, who uses it abilities to create invisible walls to its advantage. When the Mask of Ice attacks the Pokémon League with his army of mind controlled Team Rocket Grunts, Sabrina assists her fellow Gym Leaders by battling the army. Once the battle had finally ended, Sabrina went back to usual Gym Leader duties.

Sabrina makes an appearance in the Black 2 & White 2 chapter. Here, she is revealed to have become an actress at Pokéstar Studios. When she notices Whitley having trouble picking a movie to act in, Sabrina has her Alakazam use its abilities to pick out a Brycen-Man movie for her.

We arrived in Saffron City and it was right next door to Iowa City.

Me: Here we are guys. Saffron City.

Arixam: So this is Sabrina's place?

Me: Yep. Now we have to find the Saffron City Gym.

Ash: I know where it is.

May: I can't wait to meet Sabrina.

Dawn (Pokemon): Me too. I've heard so much about her.

Mewtwo: I've heard so much about her and I sense a huge and powerful level of psychic energy coming from her.

Me: She's a strong Psychic user from what I had heard and her power is incredible.

We went into the city and it was an amazing city of incredible beauty.

Me: Wow. So this is Saffron City.

Laney: It's amazing.

Lincoln: Saffron City is amazing.

Lana: And I do like saffron when it's used in dad's cooking.

Lola: But from what I have read, Saffron is a very expensive spice.

Lily: No kidding. Where does Saffron usually come from?

Me: It's found in a plant called the Crocus flower. They grow in our greenhouse and we have a lot of them.

Lucy Loud: I like Saffron. It's potent and tasty.

Me: But it's really expensive. It can range up from $15.00 to $150.00 per ounce.

Nico: Wow! That is expensive.

Me: Yep.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) It sure is expensive.

Yusei: No kidding.

Akiza: I've always loved food from high society and it's really good.

Crow Hogan: It sure is.

Leo: Love it.

Ash: Here we are guys.

We arrived at the Saffron City Gym.

Me: So this is the Saffron City Gym.

Ash: Yep.

We went into the building and in an arena on a throne chair we saw

SABRINA!

Sabrina: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Me: Sabrina. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Ash: It's great to see you again Sabrina.

Sabrina: Same to you Ash. You and all of your friends have come a long way since we met the last time.

Ash: We sure have.

Misty's Corsola: Corsola!

Mallow: We're from the Alola Region.

Sabrina: You've all come a long way. And I see you all have Jessie and James of Team Rocket with you.

Me: Yeah they are not part of Team Rocket anymore.

Jessie (Pokemon): Yeah we got fired before J.D. and everyone killed Team Rocket.

Sabrina: I see.

Me: There was a massive battle with Team Rocket over a year ago and it destroyed all of Team Rocket. And you won't believe who their boss was.

Sabrina: Giovanni right?

Me: Exactly. He was the Viridian City Gym Leader.

Ash: We were looking at Team Rocket's boss the whole time without even knowing it.

Sabrina: That's awful. Team Rocket was a menace to all Pokemon.

Me: Not just Team Rocket, but also a bunch of Villain teams that we've encountered and exterminated.

Laney: We killed all of Team Rocket, Team Flare, Team Galactic, Teams Aqua & Magma and just recently Team Plasma.

Sabrina: Wow. You guys have been busy.

Me: We sure have. But there are more villain teams out there and we have another Villain Team under our ever-watchful eyes: Team Skull.

Mallow: They are causing a lot of problems in the Alola Region and so far they haven't made a move yet. But they have done minor crimes.

Sabrina: I see.

Me: But if they do make a move, it will be their last as we kill them.

Sabrina: I see.

We saw a really cute doll in Sabrina's hands.

Me: Your dolls are really cute.

Sabrina: Thank you.

Cybertron Ransack: I didn't know you liked dolls.

Sabrina: Loved them since I was a little girl.

We went to a room Sabrina had and we saw lots of dolls.

Me: Whoa! Look at all of them.

Beachcomber: Can we keep one of these dolls for Lola? She really likes dolls.

Sabrina: Go for it.

Lola: Thank you.

Lola took a doll that had blue hair.

Lily: Sabrina I have an awesome song for you. It will show you that you will never be alone forever. SUNSET STYLE NINJA ART: TIME TO SAY GOODBYE!

Lily spread her wings and she floated into the air and the beautiful glow of a massively beautiful amber sunset over a beautiful ocean as she sang Time To Say Goodbye by Sarah Brightman.

Quando sono solo sogno all'orizzonte e mancan le parole

Sì lo so che non c'è luce in una stanza quando manca il sole

Se non ci sei tu con me, con me

Su le finestre

Mostra a tutti il mio cuore che hai acceso

Chiudi dentro me la luce che

Hai incontrato per strada

Time to say goodbye

Paesi che non ho mai

Veduto e vissuto con te

Adesso sì, li vivrò, con te partirò

Su navi per mari che, io lo so

No, no, non esistono più

It's time to say goodbye

Quando sono solo sogno all'orizzonte e mancan le parole

E io sì, lo so che sei con me, con me

Tu mia luna, tu sei qui con me

Mio sole, tu sei qui con me, con me, con me, con me

Time to say goodbye

Paesi che non ho mai

Veduto e vissuto con te

Adesso sì li vivrò, con te partirò

Su navi per mari che io lo so

No, no, non esistono più

Con te io li rivivrò

Con te partirò

Su navi per mari

Che, io lo so

No, no, non esistono più

Con te io li rivivrò, con te partirò

Io con te

Rays of sunlight shined all over the gym and it was beautiful as it lit up the whole place and shined with the gorgeous beauty of an amber sunset over the ocean. It was a beautiful sight and it touched Sabrina's heart and made her cry in tears of happiness.

We cheered wildly for Lily.

Later back at the estate, we were watching on of my favorite movies from 1986: The Great Mouse Detective.

---

In London 1897, a young Scottish-Welsh mouse named Olivia Flaversham was celebrating her birthday with her toymaker father, Mr. Flaversham. Suddenly, a bat named Fidget, who has a crippled wing and a peg leg, bursts into the Flavershams' workshop, and after a short struggle disappears with Flaversham.

It was later revealed that the evil Professor Ratigan kidnapped Flaversham to create a clockwork robot which mimics the Queen of the Mice so Ratigan can rule England. Flaversham refuses to take part in Ratigan's scheme, whereupon Ratigan orders Fidget to capture Olivia. If Flaversham refuses to cooperate, Ratigan will have Olivia fed to his pet cat, Felicia.

Then Olivia searches to find Basil of Baker Street, a world-famous detective and Ratigan's archnemesis. Dr. David Q. Dawson stumbles upon Olivia, and helps her find Basil's residence. At first Basil was reluctant, but when Olivia mentions the peg-legged bat that kidnapped her father, Basil realizes that this was his chance to capture Ratigan. Basil and Dawson then uses Sherlock Holmes' pet, a Basset Hound named Toby, to track Fidget's scent to a nearby toy store. Fidget was surprised by Basil, Dawson, and Olivia in the toyshop where he was stealing clockwork mechanisms and toy soldiers' uniforms for Ratigan's plan. He hides and later traps Olivia by ambushing her from inside a toy cradle. Basil and Dawson pursue Fidget but become entangled in some toys and fall behind, giving Fidget enough time to escape with all the materials he needs, along with Olivia.

While searching the shop, Dawson discovers Fidget's forgotten checklist, which details everything Fidget has taken with him. Basil and Dawson return to Baker Street, where Basil discovers by means of close examination and some chemical tests that the list came from the riverfront, and they look for a small tavern near the Thames where the sewer would connect to the river. Basil and Dawson disguise themselves as sailors and go into the tavern, inquiring for Ratigan. As they wait, Fidget stumbles through the pub. They follow Fidget through some pipes to Ratigan's headquarters, only to discover that Ratigan and his henchmen had prepared for their arrival. Triumphant, Ratigan ties them to a spring-loaded mousetrap, connected with a Rube Goldberg machine made of a gun, a crossbow, an axe, and an anvil with record being the timer stated by Ratigan that when the song ends the trap starts. Ratigan sets out for Buckingham Palace, where Fidget and his accomplices manage to defeat Royal Guard and kidnap the queen. Basil briefly despairs at being outwitted, but snaps out of it just in time to deduce the trap's weakness and escape.

Back at Buckingham Palace, Ratigan forces Flaversham to operate the toy Queen, while his men pose as Royal Guards and the real Queen was being taken by Fidget to be fed to Felicia. The fake queen declares Ratigan ruler of all Mousedom, and, after thanking his robotic consort he announces his tyrannical plans for his new "subjects", including several unfair taxes. Just then, Basil, Dawson, and Olivia saves Flaversham and the real Queen, and apprehend Fidget along with Ratigan's other two henchmen (Bill Lizard and one mouse). Basil then seizes control of the mechanical mouse-queen, forcing it to denounce Ratigan as an impostor and tyrant, all the while breaking into pieces. The crowd, enraged by Ratigan's treason, start climbing onto him and defeating his shanty guards. Ratigan frees himself and escapes on his dirigible with Fidget, and holding Olivia hostage.

Basil, Dawson, and Flaversham create their own craft with a matchbox and some small helium-filled balloons, held under the Union Jack. A high-speed chase above the city ensues. Ratigan throws Fidget (who can't fly) into the Thames River below to "lighten the load", and then attempts to drive the dirigible himself. Basil jumps on to the dirigible to confront his nemesis; however, with no helmsman, Ratigan was unable to steer his craft, and it ends up crashing straight into Big Ben. Inside the clock, Ratigan and Basil face off in a final battle. Basil manages to gets Ratigan's coat tangled in the clocks gears. Seeing Basil escaping, Ratigan completely loses his mind and goes insane. Basil rescues Olivia and safely delivers her to Flaversham, who was still on the balloon with Dawson. He plunges into Basil, and they both fall onto the clock's hour hand. The fight ensues, and Ratigan begins to viciously thrash Basil. It seems as if Basil's luck was about to run out until the bell tolls and Ratigan plunges off the hand taking Basil with him, however Basil saves himself just in time with the motor of Ratigan's destroyed dirigible.

Back at Baker Street, Basil and Dawson recount their adventures as well as the queen's gratitude to their saving her life, and afterwards, the Flavershams leave. Dawson figures it's time for him to leave as well, but the scene was interrupted by a distraught new client. Basil then persuades Dawson to remain as "my trusty associate, Doctor Dawson, with whom I do all my cases".

We were watching the movie and we cheered wildly and it was awesome! With us was the famous cat and mouse duo Tom and Jerry.

Me: That was so awesome!

Nico: I love Basil of Baker Street. He was awesome.

Laney: He sure was. Vincent Price did a great job voicing as Ratigan.

Lana: He sure did.

Tom: Boy that was amazing. I didn't know that.

Jerry: Tom we've been on TV for 80 years and it's awesome.

Tom: Right sorry.

Lincoln: It's great you two are with us Tom and Jerry.

Jerry: Thanks Lincoln.

Lola: Didn't Vincent Price do a lot of horror movies as well?

Lucy Loud: He sure did Lola. He starred in mostly movies based on the Edgar Allen Poe poems.

Me: He sure did. My favorite movie he starred in was The Pit and The Pendulum.

Nico: I remember that one. He was really insane in that one.

Vince: No kidding.

Me: That was from 1961 and it was crazy.

Laney: I remember, he would strap his victims to a table and have them cut in half by a giant razor sharp axe that swings back and forth.

Lincoln: Ugly.

Me: I know. Vincent Price was very famous for starring in the Edgar Allen Poe movies. My dad knows those movies all too well. Movies that were from his past: House of Wax, Last Man on Earth, The Abominable Dr. Phibes, The Raven, The Masque of the Red Death, and The Pit and the Pendulum were his 6 biggest movies that made him known as the Master of Terror.

Luna: That's amazing dudes.

Lori: Literally amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Linka: That's amazing.

Lola: It sure is.

Leni: What was the last movie he starred in?

Me: Edward Scissorhands. He died in 1993 of lung cancer. He was a lifelong smoker.

Milhouse: Ouch.

Bart: Yeah.

Me: Yeah. He would've been 109 Years old this year.

Lisa Loud: Indeed.

Vince: Yep.

Me: Sora, have you ever been to the world of The Great Mouse Detective?

Sora: Yes I have. When we were on our quest to find Riku.

Me: Wow.

Donald Duck: It was amazing.

Goofy: It sure was.

Aqua: It'll be cool to see Basil of Baker Street again.

Me: Lets see what it says about Ratigan first.

I pulled up Ratigan's information.

Professor Padraic Ratigan, or better known as Professor Ratigan or also simply known as Ratigan, is the main antagonist of Disney's 26th full-length animated feature film The Great Mouse Detective, which is based on the children's book series Basil of Baker Street by the late Eve Titus and the late Paul Galdone. He is the arch-nemesis of the famous mouse detective known as Basil of Baker Street, and is also the world's greatest criminal mind who plotted to be the supreme ruler of all Mousedom.

In the original film, he was voiced by the late Vincent Price, who also played Egghead in the 1960s Batman TV series, Dr. Phibes in the horror film series of the same name, and Zigzag in the 1993 animated fantasy film The Thief and the Cobbler. In the Read-Along Storybook, he was voiced by Corey Burton. In House of Mouse, he was voiced by Maurice LaMarche (which is his current voice).

Ratigan is planning upon his next diabolical scheme: to use a robot to replace the Queen of Mousedom and then have the robot programmed to name him supreme ruler of all Mousedom during the Queen's Diamond Jubilee at Buckingham Palace. In order to start off, he sends his bat henchman named Fidget to kidnap the local mouse toymaker Hiram Flaversham. Ratigan then forces Mr. Flaversham into building the robot for him by having his daughter Olivia kidnapped and held hostage if Hiram refuses to cooperate. He ensures that his henchmen do what he wants by threatening to have them fed to his pet cat Felicia if they displease him in any way.

After Fidget successfully captures Olivia, outsmarts Basil, and keeps her contained inside a bottle, Ratigan is very impressed that Fidget has gotten the supplies they need for the plan; such as the royal guard uniforms for the henchmen and the tools and gears needed for the robot's modifications. However, he is angry to learn that Fidget lost the list he wrote, and that Basil was chasing Fidget during Olivia's capture. Knowing that any mouse of Basil's caliber can use the list to track down to his lair, Ratigan attempts to have Fidget fed to Felicia, but later changes his mind when he realizes that he can use this opportunity to trap Basil. As planned, Ratigan awaited for Basil's arrival along with his newly associate David Q. Dawson. After having himself and his henchmen to surprise Basil and Dawson with a welcoming celebration, Ratigan mocks Basil for falling into his trap, and his men start to laugh, causing Basil to sink into depression, much to Dawson's dismay and to Ratigan's delight.

Ratigan then had his men to tie up Basil and Dawson in a mouse-trap, planning to have them killed by using a Rube-Goldberg contraption: Ratigan will play a record, and as the song plays, the phonograph arm will tighten up a rope, which will release a tiny ball that will set off the mouse trap and trigger a gun, a crossbow, an axe, and a giant anvil that will kill the two. Ratigan then leaves for Buckingham Palace, where Fidget and his henchmen kidnap the Queen and attempt to have her fed to Felicia. During the ceremony, Flaversham (forced via gunpoint) controls the robot into introducing Ratigan to the mice as her new consort, much to their shock. Ratigan then proceeds to announce his new dictatorial laws to his "subjects", such as proposing a heavy tax policy against the elderly, the disabled, and children. However, the queen robot starts to rebel against him, much to his embarrassment; it turns out that Basil managed to break himself and Dawson free from the death trap and they head onward to Buckingham Palace (with the help from Shelock Holmes's pet dog named Toby), where they managed to rescue the Queen and tie up several of Ratigan's men. Controlling the robot, Basil denounces Ratigan as a fraud and traitor before revealing himself to Ratigan.

With his plan exposed, Ratigan is now being trampled by Basil and his friends while the rest of Ratigan's men are pummeled down by the angry civilians. However, Fidget manages to break free and take Olivia hostage, allowing himself and Ratigan to escape on a hot air blimp over London. During their getaway, however, they are pursued by Basil, Dawson, and Flaversham on a makeshift balloon. Ratigan steers his blimp while Fidget pedals the propeller, and tries to outrun them. Fidget almost succeeds, but the extra weight is too much for him, so he tells Ratigan that they have to "lighten the load". Ratigan agrees with him, but rather than throwing Olivia off (as he still needs her as a hostage), he instead betrays Fidget by throwing him off, resulting Fidget (who cannot fly or swim) to fall into the Thames River below. Ratigan pedals the blimp himself, but Basil leaps onto Ratigan's blimp to fight him. However, with no helmsman, Ratigan is unable to steer his craft and it crashes into Big Ben. Inside the clock tower, Ratigan tries to ambush Basil, but fails and Basil traps Ratigan by throwing his cape in the gears and escapes with Olivia.

It is then that Ratigan (out of sheer bad temper) finally breaks free of the gears, tearing his clothes (including his shoes) in the process, and transforming from a very formal, composed rat to a highly savage one. He pursues Basil with great speed and leaps into him, and they both fall onto the clock's hour hand. Finally, Ratigan extends his long and strong claws and physically assaults Basil with all of his rage, wounding him. He manages to knock Basil off the hand, but Basil grabs onto the wreckage of the blimp. Then Basil reveals that he only took the blows to remind that the clock bell will strike at 10:00, having pickpocketed Ratigan's tiny bell to prove his point. Ratigan realizes this too late as the minute hand strikes at 10, and the clock bell tolls, causing Ratigan to plunge off the hour hand screaming.

As Ratigan falls, he tries to take Basil with him, but he fails and falls into the darkness below. It is speculated that Ratigan has died from the fall, as the local newspaper shows a small caption reading "Time Runs Out for Ratigan" (a pun of Ratigan falling from a clock to his death). Also, Basil proudly keeps Ratigan's tiny bell as a memento of his role in Ratigan's defeat.

Isle of the A Descendants Novel

Professor Ratigan is one of the villains brought back to life to be imprisoned in the Isle of the Lost. It is mentioned once that he and his crew went to Ursula's Fish and Chips Store and every time they go there, Ursula chases him out.

---

We gasped!

Laney: Whoa! But you know who Ratigan reminds me of? He reminds me of Professor Moriarty from the Sherlock Holmes stories.

Me: He does remind us of that and Basil of Baker Street is based on Sherlock Holmes - the Greatest Detective in the world.

Nico: He sure does. But it will be awesome to meet Basil.

Me: Awesome. Lets go take down Ratigan and make that Bubonic

Plague-ridden vermin pay.

We cheered wildly.

Tom: I'm gonna turn that rat into a ratburger.

Jerry: Save seconds for me!

We went to the simulator.

---

We were in the simulator getting ready. We were gonna make sure that Ratigan is dead. The simulator activated and we found ourselves in Victorian Era London.

Me: Here we are guys. Victorian Era London, England in 1897.

Alice Liddell: (British Accent) It feels good to be home again.

Nico: It's amazing.

We saw that we were the size of mice and everything was gigantic.

Me: WHOA! We're the size of mice!

Fievel: No kidding! We're all now the same size!

Nico: We sure are.

Lori: This is literally awesome!

Me: Lets get moving. Lets find Basil of Baker Street.

We walked around the giant city of London and it was amazing.

We arrived at the famous home of the legendary Sherlock Holmes and it was there that we will meet Basil of Baker Street.

Me: The legendary home of Sherlock Holmes.

We then saw in his chair, Basil of Baker Street.

Basil: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome and it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Basil.

Sora: It's great to see you again Basil.

Basil: Ah Sora it's great to see you too.

Goofy: How have you been?

Basil: Doing great my friends.

Dawson: You're all looking amazing.

Aqua: Thanks Dawson.

Basil: Aqua it's great to see you again.

Dawson: We all thought you were dead.

Me: She was trapped in the Realm of Darkness for 10 years and she had to go on for that long without friends.

Basil: Wow. That's awful.

Sora: But me and Aqua have now become Brother and Sister.

Dawson: Amazing!

Basil: I'm so happy for you.

Kairi: And me and Sora are now officially husband and wife.

They showed their rings.

Basil: Congratulations to you both!

Nico: It was a happy day for them both.

Me: We're here to help you guys take down Ratigan.

Lincoln: Yep and we're gonna make sure that Bubonic Plague-filled vermin dies.

Varie: Painfully.

Basil: We haven't a moment to lose!

We were off to find him.

Our first stop took us to a bar.

Nico: We're gonna need disguises to get into that bar. I'll be part of the group that volunteers.

Me: Okay.

Nico, Basil, Dawson and the Loud Kids dressed up in Sailor Clothes and went into the bar. They got to watch a bunch of great acts and more and then a massive bar fight erupted and everyone was thrashing each other and more and it was a brutal fight. They found the rat with the peg-leg and Nico thrashed him all over and pulverized him into pulp and tied him up.

Me: That's one down. Ratigan is heading to the palace! Lets head to Buckingham Palace! Once Basil comes out, we'll bust in on his signal.

Nico: Right.

Me: Let's roll.

Meanwhile, at the palace, Ratigan's thugs are playing the trumpets to announce the queen's entrance. The crowd is fooled by the Robot Queen as it steps out.

Robot Queen: On this most august occasion, we are gathered here not only to commemorate my 60 years as Queen, but to honor one…

Ratigan watches from behind the curtains with the voice was really Flaversham. A rifle is pointed at his back as one of the thugs is holding the notecards for Flaversham to read.

Flaversham:… of truly! Noble! Stature I present to you a statesman among mice, a gifted leader…

Robot Queen: (Continously)… a crusader for justice…

The Queen was still muffled crying, is being dragged to the balcony by Fidget.

Fidget: Over here, fatty. You're a ton, toots.

The Queen's eyes widen as she sees Felicia jumping up and down outside, eager for a snack fit for a queen.

Fidget: Here kitty, kitty. Time for mouse chow.

Robot Queen:… a majestic mountain of humility, and my new Royal Consort… Professor Ratigan!

The crowd backs away, horrified as Ratigan bursts out, wearing a crown and purple robe decorated with medals. A child blows a raspberry at him, and his mother quickly covers his mouth.

Outside, Basil, Olivia and Dawson are now back at the waterfront. Basil whistles and Toby comes running.

Basil: Toby!

Toby kisses Olivia.

Basil: The game's afoot, Toby. Our Queen is in mortal danger.

Toby puts his game face on, and his ear makes a whip sound as he folds it into a staircase. Basil and the others climb onto his neck, and Basil points ahead.

Basil: (Shouting) To Buckingham Palace!

Barking, Toby rushes ahead. Back at the Palace, Ratigan gives an exaggerated bow to the Robot Queen.

Ratigan: Thank you, Your Majesty. And now, as your new Royal Consort, I have a few… slight suggestions. (he pulls out a roll of paper and lets it fall, where it rolls down the aisle of the Grand Hall and well past the curtain, where one of his men has opened it for him.) Ahem. Item one.

Fidget is grunting as he carries the Queen on his back, who is kicking him.

Fidget: Stop that! (Grunting)

Toby is still racing towards the castle, running right in front of a carriage. The horses rear back, but Toby, undaunted, keeps running. Dawson has once more fallen back and is hanging on to Toby's tail for dear life.

Fidget has made it to the edge of the balcony, where Felicia is sitting below, waiting patiently. Toby has made it to the palace, and holds his nose to a ledge, where Basil, Olivia, and Dawson race in through a mouse hole. Fidget now has the Queen held high over his head, and Felicia's jaws are open.

Fidget: (Straining) Nuts… Open wide. Bye-bye!

Basil and the others race down the hallway. Just as Fidget is about to throw the Queen over, Basil grabs her. Fidget falls, and attempts to fly away from Felicia, who is unintentionally attempting to eat him instead of the Queen.

He manages to cling to the edge of the balcony, and is trying to avoid Felicia's jaws.

Fidget: Down, down, kitty! Down!

The sound of barking distracts Felicia, and she turns to see Toby running straight for her. She screeches, and runs as fast as she can, with Toby close behind.

Inside the Great Hall, Ratigan is continuing down his list of tyrannical laws.

Ratigan: Item 96… (Snickers) A heavy tax shall be levied against all parasites and sponges… such as the elderly, the infirm, and especially (Snickers) little children.

Ratigan leans upside down over the railing to sneer at the boy from before. He looks at the rat defiantly before his mother whisks him away.

An old man with a cast and crutch approaches him angrily.

Old Man: That's ridiculous. You're insane.

Ratigan: Perhaps I haven't made myself clear. (takes the crutch from the man, who falls to the ground, triumphantly.) I have the power! (He breaks the crutch in half to accent this.)

Robot Queen: Of course you do.

Ratigan: (jumps on the banister.) I am supreme.

Robot Queen: Only you.

Ratigan: This is MY kingdom! (laughs evilly as the crowd cowers under his shadow.)

In the backroom however, Basil has found Flaversham and the rest of Ratigan's men. Ratigan stops laughing and clears his throat, and sits on the banister to address the Robot Queen.

Ratigan: (Modestly) That is, of course, with your Highness' permission.

There is no answer right away, and Ratigan gives it a light slap, making it spring back to life.

Robot Queen: Most assuredly… (However, its expression and voice suddenly changes…)… you insidious fiend!

Ratigan: (Shocked) What?

Robot Queen: You're not my Royal Consort!

Ratigan: (catches on, covers the Robot Queen's mouth and addresses the crowd.) What a sense of humor.

Robot Queen: (ducks down to free itself.) You're a cheap fraud and impostor.

Ratigan: (Yells to the back) Flaversham!

As Ratigan smiles nervously at the crowd, we see that behind the curtain, it is now Basil at the controls. Olivia and Flaversham embrace as Dawson holds a rope around Ratigan's thugs. The Queen has her rope around Fidget, and gives it a tight tug.

Basil: A corrupt, vicious, demented, low-life scoundrel. There's no evil scheme you wouldn't concoct.

Basil jerks at the controls, causing the robot's head to fly up and spin, biting Ratigan's nose. He forces the head back down, but both arms spring out, hitting him in the stomach. Ratigan moves in front of the robot, hiding it from the crowd's eyes, but they aren't buying his scheme anymore. The Robot Queen pushes past Ratigan.

Robot Queen: No depravity you wouldn't commit.

Ratigan tries to force his weight on the robot, but it springs upward, bringing him up with it, then letting him fall.

Basil: You, Professor- (jerks even harder on the controls.)

Outside, the robot is falling apart.

Robot Queen:… are none other than a foul stenchus rodentus, (Rising pitch) commonly known as a..!

Ratigan's temper flares as he seizes the robot by the neck, knowing what is next.

Ratigan: (Desperately was Robot Queen's death.) DON'T SAY IT!

Basil: (bursts from behind the curtain and points at his nemesis.) SEWER RAT!

Ratigan: AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!

Basil: Arrest that fiend!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A Massive fiery explosion blasted through the ceiling of the palace and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed in front of him.

Me: It's over Ratigan!

I punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth.

Basil, Dawson, Flaversham and the Queen tackle Ratigan as several other mice rush forward to help. Other mice are fighting of the rest of Ratigan's men. Olivia watches from behind the curtain, not noticing that Fidget has managed to free himself from his ropes.

Ratigan: Bravo, Basil! A marvelous performance. Though frankly, I expected you 15 minutes earlier. Trouble with the chemistry set, old boy?

William: (smirks) Sorry, rat boy. We got stuck in traffic!

Sora: It's over Ratigan!

Ratigan: The Keyblader. Nice to see you again.

Sora: For the last time.

Donald: Yeah!

Me: Lets get him!

We went at him and I punched him in the face again and sent him crashing into the wall and Ratigan got up and went into a balloon craft he made and went away.

Me: After him!

We flew after him and Basil got on his bike and they crashed through the clock face window of Big Ben.

Me: They crashed into Big Ben.

We went into the clock tower and it was huge.

Me: Wow. So this is Big Ben on the inside.

Laney: Incredible.

Vypra and Zs'Skayr appeared.

Qin: Vypra and Zs'Skayr.

Vypra: You're all mouse size too.

Me: Yep. This is a world where humans are giant and we're mouse size.

Zs'Skayr: Very unusual.

My Signer mark glowed.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer coming.

Carly Carmine appeared.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys.

Jack Atlas: Hey Carly.

Me: This is your first time in England isn't it?

Carly: I've honestly always wanted to go to England.

Me: I can see that.

?: And it will be the place of your final tombs.

Lori: (GROWLS) I thought I was literally rid of that voice forever.

Out of a Dark Corridor came XALDIN!

---

Xaldin, also known as the Whirlwind Lancer, is the third member of Organization XIII and a major antagonist in the Kingdom Hearts series. He is a silver-tongued Nobody who controls the wind. He wields six lances named Lindworm and uses his powers over wind to manipulate all six at once, for both offensive and defensive purpose.

Xaldin's lances can transform into a dragon-shaped contraption to attack opponents with whirlwinds. He controls the lance-wielding Dragoon Nobodies.

He is the main antagonist of the Beast's Castle arcs in Kingdom Hearts II and a minor ally and playable character in 358/2 Days.

He was voiced by David Dayan Fisher in the English dubbed version, and Yōsuke Akimoto in the Japanese version.

Xaldin was once Dilan, a castle guard working under Ansem the Wise, benign lord of the Radiant Garden kingdom, who met Ventus and later took Aqua's armor and Keyblade into the castle. Becoming a Nobody to be free of feelings, Xaldin understood the setbacks of lacking a heart, but kept a clear disdain towards people who follow their hearts, especially towards the Beast.

Xaldin secretly begins his attempt to manipulate the Beast's rage to create a powerful Nobody and Heartless. He then kidnaps Belle, forcing the Beast to choose whether Belle or the rose is more important to him. The plan fails when Belle gets away with the rose and Xaldin falls against Sora and the Beast, fading into nothingness.

However, in Dream Drop Distance, it's revealed that he was revived as Dilan along with Even, Aeleus, Ienzo and Lea.

---

Me: Xaldin!?

Beast Boy (to Vypra): You even brought Xaldin back as well?

Vypra: Well, your request didn't fall on deaf ears. I thought about it and decided that just a few resurrected Organization XIII members won't hurt.

Me: That makes sense.

Lori: Xaldin you are a fucking monster! You literally disgust me! I will never forgive you for trying to ruin Belle and Beast's relationship!

Me: I will never forgive that either.

Vypra: I agree. What he did was really evil.

Me: And we sent him into the River of Fire for a reason. Xaldin is just an utter waste of a life with no soul and no conscience.

Lori: Yeah me too.

?: Don't forget about me.

A figure came out and it was NIGHTMARE from episodes 3 and 16 of Super Dino Charge!

---

Nightmare is first seen sleeping in a cell within the ship before Heckyl gently wakes him up. No longer asleep, he excuses himself and asks if he was snoring too loud, to which Heckyl answers he was, but his reason for awakening him is to aid him in his next plan against the Rangers. His first target is Shelby, as she sleeps on a pillow Heckyl gives her to rest. Upon touching it, Nightmare enters her mind and causes her to perceive all around her as Vivix. She attacks her friends, which evade her moves, until she slashes the pillow in half, at the moment held by Tyler. He reveals himself before the heroes and makes his escape after taunting them. The day is excruciating for them, as they cannot rest while Kendall seeks the connection of the pillow to the outlaw, eventually figuring it out. In response to the Rangers' strategy, Fury sends out real Vivix to tire them out even more. Though exhausted, they successfully defeat them, only for Ivan to attack them, suffering from sleepwalking. Koda tracks down the pillow and rips it in two, freeing the knight. After leaving Shelby at school, Riley is controlled by a pillow left on the helmet of his scooter by Curio. Meanwhile, Heckyl deals with the other weary Rangers until Shelby finds him out, her suspicions all but confirmed when Snide takes over and retreats from the battle. Nightmare is then left by Fury and Curio to deal with the fatigued heroes, but fails as he is defeated both in normal size, by a combined attack of six of the Rangers, and as a giant by their three

---

Tyler Navarro: Nightmare!

Nightmare: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You went into the Ranger's dreams and messed around with them and you switched the bodies of the Red, Pink, Black and Blue Rangers and made it a Freaky Friday situation.

Nightmare: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Leni: Why are you here?

Nightmare: Believe it or not, I'm actually here to help you, Leni.

Leni: Say what?

Nightmare took out a pillow and used it to make Leni fall asleep.

Lynn: What the Hell do you think you're doing?!

Zs'Skayr: Curing Leni of her spider fear.

Lana: Say what now?

Me: Why are you doing that? We've tried everything we could think of to help her conquer her Arachnophobia and Leni still won't let go of it.

Vypra: You'll see.

In Leni's dreams, Leni was seeing a lot of spiders. But they were really cute spiders.

Nightmare: See, Leni? These spiders are cute. So, there's really nothing to fear from them.

Leni: Why exactly are you doing this?

Nightmare: Because Mistress Vypra and the others really want you to stop being afraid of spiders. Otherwise, the fear's just going to control you for the rest of your life.

Leni: You know my friends are going to destroy you after you help me, right?

Nightmare: That's fine. As long as I complete my task. We'll stay in this dream for as long as it takes.

Leni: Okay.

Leni was in there for a while. But in the dream world, Time accelerates and she was done and cured when she came out. Leni woke up and she was better than ever!

Me: How do you feel Leni?

Leni: I feel totes better than ever! I'm not afraid of spiders anymore!

Luan: Lets test that out.

Luan pulled out her fake spider and held it in front of Leni's face.

Leni: Nice try Luan. That doesn't work on me anymore.

We gasped in total shock!

Me: I don't believe it!

Nico: It really worked!

Laney: Incredible!

Lisa Loud: Sweet mother of all things great and small!

Ed: All right Leni!

Gia: Thanks for helping Leni. But we still have to kick your butt!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightspeed Rescue!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers!

Suddenly a water balloon hit me in the face!

SPLAT!

Me: (Spits) Hey!

Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney came out.

Jimbo: See how you like these water balloons! (throws water balloon at Sam)

Sam then caught it and threw it back at Jimbo and it hit him in the face.

SPLAT!

Sam S.L.: It takes more than one water balloon to extinguish me and the heat of a volcano.

Bart: And now we're going to kick your ugly butts!

Jenny: Yeah! Jerks!

Me: Lets dance!

We went at them.

Me: Not if I make yours worse than what you went through in the River of Fire.

We went at Xaldin and I punched him in the face and Lori summoned her Wind Spears and slashed him all over with them and kicked him in the face. Beast Boy turned into a Spinosaurus and chomped on Xaldin and sent him crashing into a gear and he got crushed by them. He was flat as a pancake.

Me: Jerk.

Lori: No one messes with relationships on our watch.

Carly Carmine: I can see that. You have amazing muscle mass and a powerful spirit of sports. Hence the football and number one on your jersey.

Anna: Thanks Carly. Shall we dance?

Carly Carmine: Lets.

Anna and Carly went at each other at a ferocious level and they were punching and matching each other's moves at an incredible level! Thunderous shockwaves were blasting all over the place and more. The Spirit Monsters blasted Aslla Piscu and the Fortune Ladies all over and they destroyed them.

They stopped and backed away.

Anna: I think we're evenly matched like this.

Carly Carmine: Indeed.

Nico: GUILTY!

Nico fired an energy blast and put Nightmare in a containment card.

Nightmare: Well it's better than being blown to bits.

Nico: It is.

Nico picked it up and put it in his shirt pocket.

---

Battle 7: RATIGAN!

---

We regrouped and we were facing Ratigan!

Me: It's over Ratigan.

Nico: You have failed all of Victorian England.

We went at him and I punched Ratigan in the face and kicked him in the stomach. Nico bit his tail.

CRUNCH!

Ratigan screamed in pain as he was bit.

Lola kicked him in the face. Ratigan then extended his razor sharp claws and he slashed at me and I dodged his swipes and Sora and Aqua blasted him with their keyblades and kicked him in the face and I slashed at him with my sword.

Luan: Hope you're hungry. CHEESE STYLE NINJA ART: LIMBURGER CHEESE KAMEHAMEHA!

Luan formed a sphere of stinky Limburger cheese and it smelled really horrible! She fired it in the same manner as a Kamehameha and it hit Ratigan and exploded. When the smoke cleared, Ratigan smelled like moldy rotten socks.

(FOGHORN)

Me: Stinky!

Nico: P.U.!

Lana: Cool!

Naruto: I've never heard of Cheese Style before.

Paige: Me neither. PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: AUGUSTUS CAESAR!

Paige fired a blast of fire and it turned into into the army of Augustus Caesar and they slashed and burned Ratigan all over the place.

Liberty: This will hurt. MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: THE WARDEN AND THE PAUNCH!

Liberty fired a wave of magic and it turned into the Warhammer Armies of Orcs and men and they slashed and pulverized Ratigan all over the place.

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator called TECHFLY! It looked a lot like a mechanical bug and it had a long tail, one red eye and deadly pinchers and arms.

Ben: (Tiny Voice) TECHFLY!

Me: Whoa! That's a small one.

Shanan: It sure is. That's a Nanohivemite. It's from the planets of where the Alien Microchips came from. They are the natural predators of the Hive Aliens, Nanomech's species.

Elena Validus: Wow! I didn't know the Nano Aliens had predators.

Riley: Me neither.

Julie Yamamoto: That is really something.

Techfly fired laser and lightning blasts at Ratigan and electrocuted and burned him all over. Tom slashed Ratigan all over with his claws and Jery blasted him with fireworks and dynamite that exploded in Ratigan's face.

Me: Lets hit him with our combos all at once!

Misty: Right!

Arixam: Lets get them!

Me: KIBAL! LETS HOWL!

I turned into WOLF MOON!

Misty used the Pokemon Cyber Planet Key and Beachcomber used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Misty's Corsola's abilities and Beachcomber's abilities 100-fold.

Cybertron Ransack used the Velocitron Cyber Planet Key and it turned his seat into a powerful blaster and Arixam used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced her water powers 100-fold.

Misty and Beachcomber: BUBBLE AGILITY MEGAPUNCH!

Cybertron Ransack and Arixam: MAELSTROM ENERGON TSUNAMI!

Snake Man and Bai Tza: TSUNAMI SNAKE SEARCHBLAST!

Crow Hogan with Black-Winged Dragon and his Blackwings and Nico: BLACKWING FIRESTORM NOVASTRIKE!

Sophie Casterwill and me as Wolf Moon with Phoenix: WOLF MOON FIRESTORM AUGERFROST!

Lincoln and Carly Carmine with Aslla Piscu: HUMMINGBIRD LIGHTNING HURRICANE!

Akiza with Black Rose Dragon and Qin: FIRESTORM ROSE FIRE DRAGON!

Piper (Mysticons) and Lok: PHOENIX BOLTFLARE BURST!

Aerrow and Jack Atlas with Red Dragon Archfiend: STORM ENERGY CRIMSON FIRESTORM!

The blasts all hit Ratigan all at once and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Olivia: You'll never hurt me and my father again!

Me: Lets finish him with our Final Smashes!

Fievel: Right!

Olivia: This is for my family!

Basil: You are through!

Fievel, Olivia and Basil of Baker Street: MICEFIRE CHEESE MEGABLAST!

They fired blasts of cheese made of cheddar, Swiss Cheese and Limburger and they hit Ratigan and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

But Ratigan wasn't finished yet as he grabbed Basil and they fell down.

Me: Oh my God!

Basil looks relieved, but is barely able to take a single step towards his friends when Ratigan attacks him from behind, lifting him up with one arm. Basil manages to wriggle free and runs up towards the edge, but with frightening speed and agility, Ratigan is there, blocking his path.

Ratigan: There's no escape this time, Basil!

Basil slides down the hand and tries to put distance between himself and the raging rat, but he is there once more, blocking him. Ratigan holds out his hand and unsheathes his razor-sharp claws, and hits Basil twice with such force it sends him flying back. His friends are trying to reach him as fast as they can, but Basil can't hold out much longer.

Before he can even stand, Ratigan hits him again, this time at the face. Finally, he had drawn blood. Basil stumbled back, his hands covering a gash across his muzzle. A hard swipe across the chest knocked him off his feet. Gnashing his teeth, Ratigan swung downward as Basil turned his back on him to try and stand up. The black claws truly met their mark this time, slicing into the flesh of Basil's back and sending pieces of fur and cloth flying. Basil cried out, falling to his knees. The next heavy blow smacked him to the very tip of the hour hand. He scrambled away from the edge and staggered up again, clutching his bleeding arm in pain.

Ratigan was upon him in a moment, still too rage-blind to recognize that Basil was on the verge of collapse. This was too profoundly satisfying to quit now. With yet another brutal smack to the throat, the battered mouse was flung up in the air and over the edge, where he just managed to grab hold. Ratigan snarled with savage frustration. He looked down, surveying the drop. It was a good seventy or eighty meters to the ground. Basil was staring up at him with huge, terrified eyes, his tattered jacket blowing in the gusts. Basil almost let go at the sight. Ratigan's bulging yellow eyes and enormous teeth were just above him. His head appeared small in front of the massive shoulders and shaggy muscled chest. His breath hissed noisily through his teeth as he raised a bloody hand high over his head.

Lightning strikes as Ratigan rears back. Basil braces himself, but Ratigan's blow sends him down.

Dawson and Olivia both try to grab for him, but miss. They stare in disbelief as their friend plummets to the ground. Ratigan himself almost doesn't believe it, but a cruel smile spreads across his face as he leaps up and laughs maniacally.

Ratigan: [After knocking Basil off the clock hand, seemingly to his death] I'VE WON! AHAHAHAHA!

However, his victory is cut short…

Basil: On the contrary! The game's not over yet!

Nico: It's just getting started!

Basil rang Felicia's bell.

Ratigan only has time to check his pocket for his missing bell before

10:00 strikes. The striking hammer falls, and Big Ben sounds off.

BBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The vibrations force Ratigan over the edge and he falls.

He makes one final grab at Basil, catching him by his jacket. The ropes snap under the extra weight. Ratigan falls as Basil clings to the propeller, which has snapped free. Olivia, Dawson and Flaversham are helpless as both Ratigan and Basil, screaming, disappear below the clouds, but Ratigan was defeated. Then Olivia turns to her father and begins to sob.

Me: Basil! No!

Nico: Poor guy.

A squeaking noise is approaching from below, and she leans back to look down. Basil is slowly making his way back up, pedaling with all his might as the propeller is lifting him higher. He hears his friends cheering and smiles.

Dawson: Ho ho! Hooray!

Olivia: Hooray! It's Basil! (hugs Dawson as Flaversham jumps up and down.)

Me: He did it!

Nicole: And I sealed Ratigan into the Book of Vile Darkness forever.

Me: Good riddance.

The Masters of Evil came and Xaldin was badly mangled up.

Beast Boy: (to Xaldin) Are there any other of your Organization XIII buddies beside Vexen that Vypra brought back?

Xaldin: Sadly, besides me, there's only Larxene and Saix.

Lincoln: Can't wait to face Larxene.

Luan: And me for Saix.

Vypra: Like I said, I'm evil, not suicidal.

Zs'Skayr: And you should enjoy the sights of England now that Ratigan's gone. I think you've earned it.

With that, the Masters of Evil members teleport out.

Dawson: Good fellow. Jolly good! Ha!

Me: Thanks Dawson.

Basil: (To the viewers) Never do bad like Ratigan did. Or else you will answer to Team Loud Phoenix Storm and me.

Me: Yep.

We stayed for a while and enjoyed the sights and sounds of all of Victorian London. It was awesome.

THE END

---

Another Awesome movie done and another Disney Villain bites the dust.

The Great Mouse Detective was a great Disney movie from 1986 and more. Vincent Price did a great job voicing Ratigan back then and they didn't call him the Master of Terror for nothing. Awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a non-combat exploration chapter for us. We're going to visit the strange tidal-locked planet Aurelia and we're going to see how the planet looks.

See you all tomorrow.

Exploration of Aurelia

In the estate, things were not going well. The Loud Kids have been under a dark cloud of wallowing in self pity. We were watching TV.

News Reporter: The top story this morning is that Nico Chan once again foiled a bank robbery. Today makes at least half a dozen times Nico has done the job we used to depend on J.D. Knudson and the Loud Kids for. It leaves this reporter wondering… are J.D. and the Loud Kids washed up?

Nico: (to me) I just want you to know that I didn't mean to make you look bad.

Me: No worries buddy. You're doing a great job. I just have to help all the time around the house with my family.

Nico: Good.

Later as the days went by, things were not getting any better for the Loud Kids. As I meditated under the Willow Tree, I was getting a strange disturbance.

Me: Uh oh.

Nerri: What's wrong J.D.?

Me: My friends have been under a lot of distress lately. Something is causing them to become lost and sad.

Nerri: Hmm. Maybe they went to go do a little soul-searching.

Me: That could probably be the case.

I went into the house.

Me: Hey Nico.

Nico: Hey man. Have a good meditation?

Me: Yep. But I can't help but show concern for my friends.

Nico: I know. Something is wrong with the Loud kids.

The doorbell rang.

Nico: I'll get that.

Nico went and answered the door and it was Dark Spicer.

Nico: Oh hey Dark Spicer.

Dark Spicer: Hey, guys. (notices certain people missing) Where are Lincoln and his sisters?

May: (sighs) They're not here. Again.

Dark Spicer: Man, it's been like this for the last week. Me and the others have been trying out different crimes like bank robberies to get their attention. But they still won't show up. Not a good sign if you ask me.

Maria: Well, they've got their reasons.

Me: I know. Something got to them and we don't know what.

That's when Hans Rotwood and Brad Morton walked up to us.

Hans Rotwood: (smirks) If you ask me, the reason that Mr. Loud and his sisters aren't here is because they're cowards.

Me: Oh great. Not you two douchebags again.

Brad Morton: (laughs) Yeah! They can't handle the criticism on the news and the fact that Chan seems to be getting better at them in hero stuff.

Nico: Hey! Lincoln and his sisters aren't cowards! And we can prove it! Come on, guys.

With that, we stormed off. Leaving Dark Spicer alone with Morton and Rotwood.

Dark Spicer: I can't believe it.

Rotwood: What? That the Loud Children are cowards and that the rest of Team Loud Phoenix Storm won't admit it?

Morton: (smirks) You better believe it.

Dark Spicer: There's that. And I can't believe I'm talking to assholes like you! (storms off as well)

We found the Loud Kids minus Laney, Liberty, Lyra, Lee and Lila on the hill where I did my soul-searching and they were sad and upset.

Me: Guys!

Nico: Guys what's wrong?

May: Why are you all upset?

Lori: Why should you care?

Nico: Look, we've been keeping our mouths shut and making excuses for you guys. But everyone's noticed that you guys have been skipping out on missions and not going out for the last week. Even Dark Spicer.

May: We don't understand. What's your problem?

Lola: (glares at us) Let us make this clear for you guys and everyone else, ok? We're done.

Maria: What's that supposed to mean?

Me: Yeah what's gotten into you?

Lincoln: It means we're leaving Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

We gasped.

Maria: You guys are quitting the team?!

Lori: We're not quitting the family. But we're literally staying here now. Where no one's going to criticise us.

Me: Guys you can't! We're a team and a family!

May: You're seriously never going out again because of you guys hating the criticism on the news?

Lynn: (sighs) I don't know, May. We're not used to people criticising us. And not to mention that the only way for us to gain Super Angel forms is for us to let our emotions out. But if we do that, we get reckless and risk hurting people. Maybe it's a sign for us to retire and leave the hero work to you guys from now on.

Me: You guys can't be serious!

Nico: (to the other Loud Kids) Do the rest of you feel the same way?

Loud Kids: YES!

Lincoln: And if you stop us we'll kill you!

Me: Guys you're overreacting. Something has made you become like this.

Nico: That's right.

Vince: Yeah we are a team and a family.

Lori: I don't care!

Leni: Me neither!

Me: We'll be back.

We went and huddled.

Me: These guys are stubborn.

Nico: Yeah what are we gonna do?

Qin: It's gonna be like moving a donkey off a railroad track.

Me: Yeah.

But then we heard a voice.

?: J.D., Nico.

We saw storm clouds come in and a figure appeared. It was a woman that looked just like Lucy.

Nico: Lucy?

Me: Wait a second. I remember seeing you in a photo that Lucy showed me. You're the Loud Kids great grandmother Harriett Loud.

Harriett Loud: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you J.D. Lucy told me so much about you all.

Me: I can tell.

Nico: Wow! You're their great grandmother Harriett? You look so much like Lucy.

Harriett Loud: I sure do.

Nico: Boy J.D. you weren't kidding when you said that Harriett looked so much like Lucy. The resemblance is completely uncanny.

Me: And she was also a master of the mystic arts like me.

Nico: (to Great Grandma Harriet) Good luck trying to talk to them. They're so stubborn it's like talking to a brick wall.

Harriett Loud: I will try.

She went over to the Loud Kids.

Harriett: Lincoln and kids.

They looked up and saw her

Lincoln: Whoa Lucy is that you?

Lucy Loud: No I'm right here.

Harriett: [She appears in the sky as a group of stars] Hello Lincoln. Hello girls.

Lincoln: Wait a minute I've seen you from a photo that Lucy showed me. Then that means-

Lucy Loud: Gasp!

Harriett: Yes everyone I am your Great Grandmother Harriett.

Lincoln: But why are you here?

Harriett: I been watching what you were going through and I was disgusted by how people are treating you these days because of people's smugness.

Lori: They won't leave us alone and they are making a total mockery of us.

Luna: It's really hurtful dudes.

Luan: They are ruining us.

Harriett: You must remember who you all are. You have forgotten your true family.

Lily: No. How could we?

Harriet: You have forgotten who you all are and so have forgotten who your true family is. Look inside yourselves, all of you. You all are more than what you have become. You must stand up and face your problems head on with the people who have judged you.

Lincoln: How can we stop them? We're not the ones who we used to be.

Harriett: [Now fully formed in the sky] Remember who you all are. You are my great grandchildren, 11 beloved daughters and 1 son and a caring brother. Remember who you are.

Lori: But how? We feel like we're losing who we are.

Harriett: You must remember who you are: great protectors of the world and friends to all.

Lincoln: I'm sorry. We feel like we're losing ourselves.

Harriett: I once told your grandfather that I was most proud of one thing: having you as my child.

Lynn: That was a long time ago.

Harriett: No Lynn. That is forever and always will be.

She started fading away.

Lincoln: Please! Don't leave us!

Harriett: I've never left you all and never will. (Fading) Remember who you all are. (Fades) Remember.

Me: So who are all of you?

Lori: I am Lori Loud, the Eldest child and master of wind in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Leni: I am Leni Loud, 2nd borne and master of Gravity in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Luna: I am Luna Loud, 3rd borne and master of music and water in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Luan: I am Luan Loud, 4th borne and master of light and comedy in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lynn: I am Lynn Loud Jr., 5th Borne and master of volcanoes and sports in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lincoln: I am Lincoln Loud, 6th borne and master of lightning in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lucy Loud: I am Lucy Loud, 7th borne and master of darkness in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lana: I am Lana Loud, 9th borne and master of Ice in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lola: I am Lola Loud, 10th borne and master of fire in Team Loud

Lisa Loud: I am Lisa Loud, 11th borne and scientist and master of technological power in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lily: And I am Lily Loud, 12th borne and photographer and master of Glowing Water in Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Loud Kids: WE ARE LOUD'S AND WE ALWAYS LOOK OUT FOR EACH OTHER!

We cheered for them!

May: Do you guys feel better now?

Lori: Much better May.

Luna: I don't know what we were thinking.

Luan: Yeah how can we let ourselves get clouded like that.

Lynn: Yeah.

Me: Welcome back guys.

Lily: Thanks J.D.

We went back home.

---

Later the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the endless void of space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2827.8: We are en route to another planet located 40 light-years away from Earth and we were gonna go there to explore this strange amazing planet.

Maria: What planet are we visiting this time?

Me: It's a really cool one. It's an Earth-light planet in orbit close to a red dwarf star.

Lisa Loud: Very interesting world.

Laney: Very interesting world.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived.

Me: On screen.

We arrived at the planet and it was the hypothetical planet Aurelia.

---

Aurelia is a hypothetical terrestrial planet orbiting around a red dwarf star. Aurelia's size is roughly the same of Earth's, and like Earth, Aurelia is a world with lots of surface water and a wide variety of native organisms. The planet is not home to any sapient species, though. Aurelia is tidally locked to its star, meaning that one half of the planet permanently faces the star, while the other side is in eternal darkness. As a result, the day side of Aurelia is under a giant, never-ending hurricane and violent rainstorms; and on the night side the ocean is frozen and a perpetual ice age takes place.

Galaxy: Milky Way

System: Aurelia System

Class: Terrestrial

Age: 4,700,000,000 years old (4.7 billion)

Complex life is only found on the habitable zone between the two. On this area, swamps and wetlands are the primary terrain. All life on Aurelia is carbon-based. Covering much of the habitable terrain are plant-like animals called Stinger Fans. Eating the roots of the Stinger Fans but also giving living space are the Mudpods. Mudpods are small creatures that are amphibious. They are the main prey for Gulphogs. Gulphogs are large ostrich-like predators that have a hierarhichal structure. The most dangerous known animal is the Hysteria. The animal itself is incredibly small but can group into large colonies that poison, digest and grow breeding spores out of animals.

Background

The scientists on the project theorized that aiming the TPF at a red dwarf star might yield the best opportunities for seeing smaller planets. Due to the slow rate at which they burn hydrogen, red dwarfs have an enormous estimated lifespan; allowing plenty of time for life to evolve on surrounding planets. Also, red dwarves are very common in the universe. Therefore, if they support habitable planets, it substantially increases the chances of finding life in the universe. However, being much dimmer than other stars, it will be harder to detect planetary systems around them. In addition, lower gravity would limit the potential size of a system. The discovery of Gliese 581 g raises hopes of finding more red dwarf systems, including potentially habitable ones.

Tidal lockEdit

However, the dwarf's smaller nature and feeble heat/light output would mean that such a planet would need to be particularly close to the star's surface. The cost of such an orbit would be that an Earth-sized body would become tidally locked. When this happens, the object presents the same face to its parent at all times as it orbits, just as the Moon does with the Earth (more technically, one sidereal day is exactly equal to one year for the orbiting body).

Traditional theories

Traditional scientific theories proposed that such a tidally locked planet might be incapable of holding on to an atmosphere. Having such a slow rotation would weaken the magnetic effect that protects the atmosphere from being blown away by solar wind (see Rare Earth hypothesis).

Traditional assumptions tested

Nonetheless, the scientists employed by the programme decided to test the traditional assumptions for such a planet and start a model out for it from a proplyd through to its eventual death. Their estimations suggested such a planet could indeed hold on to its atmosphere, although with freakishly unusual results by Earth standards. Aurelia would be gravitationally locked to its star (a red dwarf). Due to this, Aurelia would not have seasons or a day-night cycle, as half of Aurelia would be in perpetual darkness and would be in a permanent ice age. The other half would contain a giant, unending hurricane with permanent torrential rain at the point directly opposite the local star. In between these two zones would be a place suitable for life.

This hurricane could perhaps generate enormous waves in the ocean and the waves would migrate outwards. Oceanographers should test how high these waves would be in the postulated nearby swamps and delta area. They would be wind driven waves and would not reach from the top of an ocean to the bottom like a Tsunami. Nonetheless, waves as big and as devastating as those that humans call freak waves might be regular.[citation needed] Simple bacterial and algal life would not be threatened.

Continued theories

The theorizations continued, and assuming that there was land in this habitable zone, it would be likely to form large networks of river deltas and swampland, due to rain runoff from the nearby storm.

At the far end of assumptions about Aurelia were attempts to construct lifeforms based on Earthly evolutionary models and how ecosystems might develop. The scientists assumptions included the idea that the long life of a red dwarf allows for evolution to fine tune any ecosystem on the planet. The scientists involved in the project hypothesized that the vast majority, if not all, of extra-solar biology will be carbon based.

This assumption is often referred to by critics as carbon chauvinism, as it may be possible for life to form that is not based on carbon.

From this carbon-based hypothesis the scientific team assumed some form of staple photosynthesizing animal/plant combination would be the principal autotroph. They decided upon a plant-like creature called a Stinger Fan. It has five hearts and limited mobility. Its fan-like leaves trap the red dwarf star's energy to produce sugars. Its hearts pump them around its body.

Feeding upon the Stinger Fans are six-legged semi-amphibious creatures called Mudpods, based somewhat upon beavers. They use their long, continually growing thumb claws to cut down a Stinger Fan and dam the river systems, creating artificial lagoons and swamps which provide safety from predators. Upon that animal, a large emu-like carnivore, a Gulphog, is the main predator. These 2 meter tall carnivores live socially in packs, and display promising signs of intelligence. Finally, there is a second semi-amphibious creature called the Hysteria - a cross between a plague of tadpoles and piranha. These tiny, orange creatures can collect together (in a manner similar to slime molds) and form one huge super-organism, moving together up banks to paralyze and consume other animals. Scabian Slugs that live by the water can fall victim to the Hysteria, but it can take something as large as a Gulphog to satisfy them.

The planet's ecosystem suffers from a number of particular peculiarities, most notably evolutionary quirks to allow all living organisms to detect and avoid solar flares. Red dwarf stars are unstable and eject frequent solar flares. Such intense ultraviolet radiation is deadly to all carbon-based life forms as it breaks down the atomic bonds formed by organic compounds. The Gulphogs have adapted by having an ultraviolet light sensitive eye on top of their heads. Stinger Fans fold up to protect themselves. Mudpods have sensitive backs that can sense the ultraviolet rays. The Hysteria's adaption is unknown. However, the flare stage might only be when the red dwarfs are relatively young.

Nico: Wow! This planet is interesting.

Laney: Very interesting.

Me: This is the planet Aurelia. I've seen this planet in a documentary.

Lincoln: Wow! Amazing!

Laney: It says here that the planet is Tidally Locked. One side is always facing the red dwarf star and the other is in darkness and frozen in ice.

Lincoln: So it doesn't rotate at all?

Laney: Not at all.

Me: You guys will see how interesting this planet is when we land.

We landed on one of the continents and we got out.

Me: (Inhales) The air is like Earth.

Nico: Wow! Look at this planet.

Horsea: This planet is amazing!

Maria: It sure is. Wow.

Carmen: This is incredible!

Lisa Simpson: It sure is amazing.

Lincoln: It's amazing. It's so much like Earth here.

Nico: But look at the Red Dwarf star.

We saw that the Red Dwarf Star was never moving.

Me: Because this planet is tidally locked and doesn't rotate at all, the Red Dwarf Star here is always shining down. It's perpetual daylight here.

Lincoln: Wow.

Lola: Incredible.

Spiderman: Does anyone live here?

Me: Nope. Just the animals here on this planet.

We went into the strange forests on the lagoons and we saw that the trees looked animal like. They were the Stingerfan Forests.

The Stingerfans are half flora, half fauna life forms native to planet Aurelia. They look like plants, but their roots have muscles and act like slow moving tentacles. The Stingerfans also have five hearts. But they do utilize photosynthesis and multiply by growing young Stingerfans from the adults' tentacles.

In few words, Stingerfans are photosynthetic autotrophic fauna native to Aurelia that reproduce by budding like hydra do on earth. The Stingerfans close their fans during a solar flare, and reopen them when the flare subsides.

Their roots are pierced and eaten by mudpods, who fell their tall bodies to build dams. Those same fallen Stingerfans also provide shelter to Gulphogs who hide from the searing heat of the solar flares.

---

Lori: Wow. What kind of trees are these?

Me: These are not trees Lori. These are called the Stingerfans.

Shanan: They are animals that look like plants. But they gather sunlight from the Red Dwarf Star and photosynthesis to feed from sugar.

Lana: Wow.

Lily: This is amazing.

We heard their hearts beating.

Lynn: What's that noise?

Shanan: That's their heartbeats.

Lola: They are big hearts in them.

Shanan: They have 5 hearts in them that pump the nutrients they need.

Nico: Like plants on Earth.

Me: Exactly.

We saw them move incredibly slowly across the mud.

Linka: They sure move slowly.

Me: Yep.

We then saw a huge ostrich-like creature coming and it was a huge 16 foot creature. It was a huge creature called the GULPHOG!

---

The Gulphog is a carnivorous creature native to Aurelia.

Characteristics

The Gulphog is an Aurelian carnivore that vaguely resembles an Earth ostrich, which eat Mudpods. Gulphogs are 4.5 metres tall and weigh 500 kilograms, making them the largest predators on Aurelia. Gulphogs possess a sophisticated social and hierarchical structure with a dominant male surrounded by multiple females and their young with maybe a few younger males allowed to stay with the pack. They have a early warning system for the solar flares that erupt from Aurelia's sun in the form of a third eye on top of the head, giving the Gulphog's enough time to take cover behind the Stingerfans. The parent Gulphogs educate their young and protect them with great care. They use their long teeth to pick up vibrations made by the Mudpod's felling the Stingerfans to make dams. Their only known predator is the Hysteria. There is a possibility due to their social nature and ability to nurture the clan's young, the Gulphog might evolve into a sapient species.

---

Lincoln: Wow! What is that?

Shanan: That's the Gulphog. It's the largest carnivorous creature here on Aurelia.

Nico: It's huge.

Lily: It's amazing.

Eliza: I've never seen a creature like this.

Naruto: Amazing.

Me: And the cool part is that they live in clan's like some of our people.

Sakura Haruno: How do they hunt?

Me: They put their teeth in the ground and feel the vibrations in the ground to find their favorite prey: Mudpods.

I pointed to something in the beaches of the lagoons and we saw a strange amphibious creature called the Mudpod.

---

The Mudpod is a 1 meter long amphibious creature that inhabits the swamps of Aurelia. They have three pairs of legs and a long tail for swimming. Their eyestalks allow them to watch for predators above the water surface. They also have poisonus spines for defense.

Mudpods are centrally essential animals. They build dams that block rivers and create deltas for the wildlife to prosper. They feed on Stinger Fans and kill many, but also make room for the new generation. Mudpods are hunted by Gulphogs, which hunt them in groups. Mudpods have no warning of solar flares and their only defense is to crawl into their burrows.

---

Lana: Wow! They look like frogs.

Lola: They sure do.

Lori: Amazing!

Leni: What do they eat?

Me: The Stingerfans. They use a claw on its upper left foot to cut the fan out and knock it down.

Lucy Loud: Wow.

But then my device beeped in a warning beep.

Me: Uh oh. I forgot to tell you guys that all Red Dwarf Stars are powerful flare stars and they happen without warning and can cover the whole planet within minutes.

Lincoln: Wow.

A powerful flare blasted the planet and Lucy Loud formed a force field of darkness and it protected us as the fans of the Stingerfans closed and it came in full force and it was massively intense and more. The light from the Red Dwarf Star was incredibly intense and more. After 3 minutes the flare subsided and life returned to normal. The force field vanished.

Me: Wow. That was intense.

Laney: It sure was. And I don't think that the strongest sunscreen would stop that.

Lincoln: Red Dwarf stars are that dangerous?

Me: They are. Red Dwarves are volatile stars and they are much different than our sun. One difference is their massive life span. Our sun is a class G star and it will only last for 10 billion years.

Lori: So our sun is over 5 billion years old now.

Me: Right. Red Dwarf Stars last 100 times longer than our sun will. They can last up to 500 billion to 1 trillion years.

Everyone: WOW!

Nico: That's incredible. And the reason for that is because they burn less fuel than our sun.

Me: Exactly. Red Dwarf Stars are class M stars and they burn much less fuel which makes them last longer. Stars like those of Class O or B will burn for only a few million years.

Lincoln: Whoa!

Lucy Loud: That's amazing.

Me: But the deadliest lifeform we have yet to see.

We went to the edge of the lagoon and we saw something moving in the water.

Laney: Something is moving in the water.

Lola: I don't see anything.

Lincoln: I see something. It looks like strange orange mist.

We saw a huge swarm of microscopic predators called HYSTERIA!

---

The Hysterias are microscopic predators living in big swarms. They look like tadpoles with big teeth, but as a group they appear as a yellow current.

Biology

Living in the waters of the big Stingerfan-forests of Aurelia they communicate chemically and act perfectly together. A Hysteria-Swarm is able to kill and eat everything, from a Mudpod to a Stingerfan, even a Gulphog, because the swarm acts like one organism. They kill their prey by injecting them with neurotoxins and consuming the corpse.

In the cases of larger prey such as Gulphogs, they swarm up to land and bite into the prey's foot. After consuming the prey's body and innards, the Hysteria-Swarm builds itself into a mushroom that bursts into eggs that hatch into more Hysterias.

---

Shanan: Whoa those are the Hysteria!

Linka: Yikes I remember using a technique for them. They are the deadliest predators I've seen when I used the technique for them.

Me: They are terrifying.

Lana: They sure are.

Lily: They're heading for a pair of Gulphog's fighting.

We saw the Gulphog's fighting like deer and rams do.

Nico: They're fighting like deer and rams.

Lincoln: They sure are.

Linka: But watch.

We saw the baby move away and the Hysteria mass crawl onto land and it got onto the Gulphog's foot and it screamed in pain as they burrowed into it and poisoned it. It died in an instant. We saw it consume the Gulphog's body and organs until it was nothing but bones. Then we saw a mushroom grow out of it and burst open and it spread eggs all over.

Me: WHOA!

Lori: OH That is literally disgusting!

Laney: But that's life and death for you.

Lucy Loud: Yep.

Luan: Scary but cool.

Me: Lets head home.

We went home and we had seen an awesome planet.

Angel of Fire VS Angel of Evil

Along the beaches of the east coast we were flying and riding to Cerulean City. This was gonna be an interesting place as it was the city that Misty came from.

---

Cerulean City first appeared in The Water Flowers of Cerulean City, where Ash decided to challenge the Cerulean Gym. At the Gym, he found out that Gary and the other two Trainers from Pallet Town had already beaten the Gym. As their only remaining Pokémon after those challengers was a Goldeen, the Sensational Sisters were ready to give Ash the Cascade Badge without a battle, until Misty appeared, revealing herself to be one of the Cerulean Gym Leaders as well. Ash and Misty started a Gym battle, but just when Ash was about to win, Team Rocket busted their way into Gym, interrupting the battle. After Team Rocket had been defeated, the Sensational Sisters decided to give Ash the Cascade Badge as thanks for saving the Gym.

Cerulean City made a reappearance in The Misty Mermaid, where Misty reluctantly agreed to help her sisters in a new underwater ballet performance. However, in the middle of the act, Team Rocket appeared again, once more trying to steal the Gym's Pokémon. A battle between Ash and company and Team Rocket ensued, during which Cerulean Gym's Seel evolved into a Dewgong. Once the situation was solved and Ash and company prepared to leave, Misty left her Horsea and Starmie at the Gym, the latter due to her sisters' request.

Cerulean City was also featured in the Pokémon Chronicles episodes Cerulean Blues, The Blue Badge of Courage, A Date With Delcatty, and Luvdisc is a Many Splendored Thing!, which mostly focused on the Cerulean Gym and Misty. In A Date With Delcatty, Cerulean City was revealed to have a container port, the Cerulean Marine Stadium, and a lighthouse.

Ash, his classmates, Misty, Brock, and Professor Kukui visited Cerulean City in Alola, Kanto! and When Regions Collide! to visit the Cerulean Gym and teach Ash's Alolan friends about Gyms and Pokémon Leagues. To experience a Gym battle, Mallow and Lana had an unofficial Gym battle against Brock, while Lillie and Sophocles had a battle against Misty. After these battles had been called off with no clear winner, Kiawe requested to have a serious battle against Brock, while Ash issued a similar challenge to Misty. During these battles, Brock and Misty demonstrated their new ability to use Mega Evolution by Mega Evolving their Steelix and Gyarados, respectively. Kiawe lost his battle against Brock, while Ash managed to defeat Misty.

The Battle Factory is also located near Cerulean City.

Nico: So what do you think Cerulean City is like?

Me: We'll find out when we get there.

Misty: You guys will love it. It's home to where I challenged Ash for the Cascade Badge.

Ash: That's right. It was amazing.

Lincoln: This is gonna be amazing.

Miranda (W.I.T.C.H): It's about time we got to see Misty's hometown.

Me: It sure is.

We arrived in front of Cerulean City. It was right along the shores of Georgia.

Me: Here we are guys. Cerulean City.

Laney: This is gonna be amazing!

We walked around the city and it was amazing.

Jessie (Pokemon): It's cool being back here again.

James: It's just as beautiful as I remember.

Meowth: It sure is.

We arrived at the Cerulean City Gym and it was a beautiful gym.

Me: Wow. So this is the Cerulean City Gym.

Laney: It's beautiful.

Ash: It's amazing.

Mallow: It sure has changed from the last time we saw it.

Lillie: It sure has.

We went in and inside the gym we met Misty's three beautiful sisters: Daisy, Violet and Lily.

Me: Wow. Are you three Misty's Sisters?

Daisy: That's right. We are the Sensational Sisters. I'm Daisy.

Violet: I'm Violet.

Lily (Pokemon): And I'm Lily.

Daisy: It's an amazing honor to have you all here Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: It's a pleasure to be here.

Violet: We have heard so many amazing things about you all.

Ash: It's great to see you all again.

Lily (Pokemon): Same here Ash.

Pierce Wheels: It's really nice to meet you girls.

Daisy: Same here.

Violet: I see you have Jessie and James of Team Rocket with you all.

Me: They aren't part of Team Rocket anymore.

Jessie (Pokemon): That's right. We got canned before the team battled the entire team.

Me: It was a brutal battle and we killed all of Team Rocket.

Nico: And you won't believe who the leader of Team Rocket was.

Ash: It was the Gym Leader of the Viridian City Gym: Giovanni.

All three girls gasped.

Daisy: Giovanni was the leader of Team Rocket!?

Violet: That's insane!

Lily (Pokemon): No kidding.

Me: I know. Ash and everyone on his journey were looking at the leader of Team Rocket the whole time and didn't suspect it.

Brock: It sure was crazy that we met Team Rocket's boss.

Me: Yep.

Maria: Yeah it was weird.

Daisy: (sees Horsea) Is that Misty's Horsea?

Mindwipe: (gestures to Misty's Horsea) No. Misty's Horsea is over there. What you're looking at is Maria's Horsea.

Maria: Yep.

Horsea: It's really awesome to meet you all.

Daisy: Wow! You taught Horsea to talk!?

Maria: I sure did.

Horsea: Yep.

Nico: She learned from me when I taught Poliwag to talk.

Poliwag: That's right.

May: It's really cool.

Manaphy: I learned how to talk on my own thanks to my love for mama May.

Violet: That is amazing!

Misty: We've been through a lot.

Meowth: One of these days, I should introduce you guys to Big Town.

Cosmos: What's that like?

Meowth: Really amazing place. It's where Pikachu met his pre-evolved form Pichu.

Me: Ash told me all about that.

Nico: We'll have to see for ourselves later on.

Vince: Yep.

We got to meet all of Misty's Pokemon. She had amazing Pokemon: Goldeen, Staryu, Starmie, Gyarados, Psyduck, Corsolla, Horsea, Politoed, Caserin and Azurill. She also had a Dewgong which was the Cerulean City Gym mascot.

Xerneas: Wow! You all have amazing Pokemon.

Daisy: Thanks Xenia and is it true that you are the legendary Pokemon Xerneas?

Xerneas: I sure am. I am the legendary Pokemon of Life.

Lincoln: It's a really awesome story.

I went over what happened when we saw Dark City and the turmoil it was under and it was amazing and awesome!

Violet: Wow! So you are now one of J.D.'s awesome fiancé's?

Daisy: That is so amazing!

Laney: It sure is.

We talked about all kinds of awesome things.

---

At the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games.

I was meditating in front of the Willow Tree.

Me: Oooooooooommmm…

During my meditation I heard a voice call out to me.

?: J.D. can you hear me?

Me: That voice. Ophanimon? Is that you?

Ophanimon: Yes J.D. It's me. I have really bad news. Lucemon is about to return.

Me: (Gasp) Lucemon!? I thought I he was sealed in the Dark Area.

Ophanimon: He is being revived and you have to stop him at all costs.

Me: Oh man. We're on our way Ophanimon.

I went back into the house.

Me: Guys! We've got big trouble!

Nico: What's wrong?

Me: An evil Digimon named Lucemon is going to return. I told you about him before right?

Nico: Yes you said that you faced him when you met Kazemon.

Me: Yes. Let me tell you all the story about how it happened. It was 10 years ago.

I went over all of Lucemon's dark history.

History

Digimon Frontier

Lucemon was the final antagonist in the TV show Digimon Frontier. According to Bokomon, there was a great war between Human Digimon and Animal Digimon. The war was never ending until Lucemon showed up and brought peace to both Digimon species. There was peace for a while until Lucemon was corrupted and obsessed with his own power and tried to destroy the world and recreated it in his own image. He would have succeeded in his plans until the 10 Legendary Warriors defeated Lucemon and trapped him in the Dark Area within the Digital World's core.

Years later, Lucemon corrupted Cherubimon, causing him to steal and corrupt five of the spirit warriors, also corrupted the Spirits of Darkness, creating Duskmon. He also creating an army of beast-type Digimon to attack Seraphimon's Castle, and kidnaps Ophanimon.

After Cherubimon was defeated by EmperorGreymon, Lucemon summons his two Royal Knights; Dynasmon, and Crusadermon to absorb the rest of the data from the Digital World so he could be free from his prison. After they accomplished their mission, Lucemon was free, and banishes Takuya and the others to the moon of the Digital World.

Lucemon then talks to his Royal Knights about giving them the key to the Real World if they defeat the Digidestined. But the Royal Knights finally met their match against EmperorGreymon and MagnaGarurumon and were defeated by them. Just as they were about to purify the knights' data, Lucemon unexpectedly arrives and attacks EmperorGreymon and MagnaGarurumon and kills his two knights for their failure. Doing so, Lucemon absorbs their data and transforms into his Chaos Mode form. In this form, Lucemon was even stronger and he easily defeats EmperorGreymon and MagnaGarurumon, then attempts to continue on with his plans. Lucemon then went to the Dark Area and created a portal to the Human World while the image of Lucemon himself appears on all of Earth's electronic communications (phones, monitors, tvs, etc.). As Lucemon does this, he was interrupted by the Six Legendary Warriors, who arrived in the Dark Area to confront him. The six warriors fought Lucemon, but he was very powerful and deflected every single attack from them. Lucemon tries to kill Takuya and the others with his Ultimate Sacrifice attack, but Koichi nobly sacrifices himself to save his friends, giving his brother Koji his spirits. Lucemon absorbed Kouichi's soul and data, leaving Koji grieving over the loss of his brother, thus struggling to control the dark. Takuya, now fumed by rage, caused him and Koji to Ancient Spirit-Evolve into the powerful warrior, Susanoomon for the first time to confront Lucemon.

Even though Susanoomon was powerful, Lucemon was still able to attack him, and used his Ultimate Sacrifice attack on Susanoomon in an attempt to destroy him. But fortunately, Koji and Takuya survived Lucemon's attack, and reverted back to Susanoomon. Susanoomon used his Celestial Blade attack, cutting through the Dark Area as well as defeating Lucemon. Susanoomon purifies Lucemon, but his spirit lived on, leaving only the evil data. As the Dark Area vanishes, it absorbs the evil data Digi-Egg for Lucemon to be reborn in his Shadowlord Mode form. He then goes to the Human World as the world's electronic communications suddenly recieves Lucemon's cryptic message that reads "you must choose to follow me or be destroyed", and the heroes try to stop him, but were still no match. Suddenly the 10 Legendary Warriors emerged, and the spirits of the Celestial Digimon told Takuya and his friends that the only way to defeat Lucemon for good was destroying his true form.

Inside the Shadowlord's black orb was Lucemon's true form; Lucemon Larva Mode. After Susanoomon broke the black orb, the dragon Lucemon went out of control on a mindless rampage. Susanoomon managed to pin the dragon down with his Heaven's Exposure attack and sliced through the dragon Lucemon's body with his Celestial Blade, killing him. The larva Lucemon then attacked Susanoomon, but Susanoomon split into the 10 Legendary Warriors and used the Orochi sword each and completely destroyed Lucemon forever.

However, Lucemon absorbs too much dark energy, transformed against his will into Lucemon Shadowlord Mode. Lucemon's enemies

Susanoomon (Digimon Frontier only).

The Fusion Fighters (Digimon Fusion only).

Profile

An Angel type Digimon which took on the form of a child; he is said to have descended into the ancient Digital World long ago. He appeared at a time where the Digital World was still new and disordered, and it is recorded that he brought peace and order to this world. But there also came a dark age brought on by the treacherous and manipulative Lucemon after this happened, and a mighty 'Rebellion' broke out. He has power and intelligence contrary to his child-like form, but enough to surpass even that of Ultimate-leveled Digimon. It is said that, at this moment, Lucemon's abilities have been divided and inherited by the Three Great Angels. His special attack is "Grand Cross", which creates 10 super-hot photospheres, aligned in the shape of a cross and positioned like the planets in our Solar System. This attack's power surpasses even Seraphimon's "Strike of the Seven Stars" attack.

Attacks

As Lucemon

Grand Cross: Fires ten super-heated spheres of light arranged in a cruciform syzygy, a technique more powerful than Seraphimon's "Strike of the Seven Stars".

Divine Feet

As Lucemon Chaos Mode

Paradise Lost Punch (Paradise Lost): Launches the opponent high into the air with a wild dance of blows, then holds their limbs fixed as it drives them back into the ground.

Ultimate Sacrifice (Dead or Alive): Produces a three-dimensional magic square as a glowing orb of Light and Darkness and traps the opponent within this orb, which has a 50/50 chance of either completely annihilating them, or merely inflicting massive damage.

Deadly Roll

Terrible Dance

Blistering Orb: (Used in Digimon Fusion only) Produces two huge fireballs and fires them at his opponent.

As Lucemon Shadowlord Mode

Tide of Despair (Purgatorial Flame): Exhales flames of destruction which purify everything.

Nihilism Maelstrom (Divine Atonement): Fires a light of annihilation from the seven Crowns.

Dimension Slasher: Slashes enemies with sharp claws that can pierce dimensional walls.

Wrath of Darkness (Wrath of Satan): Uses the orb Gehenna to emit a ray of destruction.

* * *

Everyone gasped.

Nico: He's THAT Evil!?

Vince: My god. That is terrible!

Me: Yes. And there's a reason why I was chosen for this. 10 years ago, there was a terrible and brutal war that lasted for a long time. It was a brutal battle between the Human and Beast type Digimon. The war lasted for what seemed to be eons. It was an extremely fierce battle that lasted for years. Then Lucemon appeared and stopped all the fighting and brought peace between the warring sides. But the peace however was short-lived as Lucemon became mad with power and he started tormenting and oppressing Digimon on a grand scale. It was then that the 10 Legendary Warriors and myself banded together and rose up with nothing but the light of truth and right in our hearts. We fought valiantly against Lucemon and quickly brought an end to his oppression and injustice and defeated him. We imprisoned him in a special place called the Dark Area. The Dark Area is a void of darkness in the very core of the Digital World. We imprisoned him there for all eternity. After that, the Three Celestial Digimon were formed: Cherubimon, Ophanimon and Seraphimon. They worked together to bring peace and harmony to all of the Digital World. Seraphimon upheld all of the Digital World's laws and order, Ophanimon fostered the appreciation of all life and love and Cherubimon protected all of the legends and knowledge. Fearing that Lucemon would return, I stood before the Three Celestial Digimon where they granted me the biggest task I've ever received in all of the world of Digimon.

FLASHBACK - 10 Years ago

Ophanimon: J.D. the reason we called you here is to help us destroy Lucemon should he ever return.

Young me: I have a strong feeling that he will return some time in the future. But you have my word that I will defeat him for good when the time comes.

Seraphimon: I knew we could depend on you J.D.

Cherubimon: Your power is incredibly strong J.D. and we are forever grateful that you have come to help us.

Ophanimon: We chose you to be our emissary for this very reason. Your biggest mission is to destroy Lucemon when the time comes.

Young me: I will not fail you all.

The three Celestial Digimon stood in a triangle formation around me and I was in a pillar of light and I was given a really powerful sword of immense power!

Ophanimon: This sword is a powerful weapon imbued with the strength, power and light of the mighty 10 Legendary Warriors. It is also imbued with the immense power of all Digimon throughout the Digital World.

Cherubimon: With its power you will be able to utilize all the powers and skills of all the Digimon ever known.

Seraphimon: We have very powerful faith in you J.D. Your power is very strong and we know that you will succeed.

Young me: You can count on me Lord Seraphimon, Lady Ophanimon and Lord Cherubimon.

I grabbed the sword and its power surged all over me and more and made me stronger than ever before.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: My mission ever since that day 10 years ago has been to destroy Lucemon once and for all. I am the Emissary of the Three Celestial Digimon.

Vince: Whoa!

Nico: So that's how you know all of the powers and abilities of the Digimon.

Laney: That's incredible!

Naruto: What a massive responsibility.

Lana: That is huge.

Me: Yes and I just received a message from Ophanimon as I was meditating. Lucemon is about to be revived and now we have a chance to finish him for good.

Nico: This is gonna be a big battle.

Sora Takenouchi: It sure will be.

Me: Lets head to the Digital World.

Lincoln: Here we go.

Me: Look out Lucemon, we're coming for you!

We went to the simulator and we got ready for one of the biggest fights ever.

---

In the Simulator we got ready for a massive fight with a Digimon that is right on par with the Devil himself.

The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in The Digital World, but what we saw was horrific. Most of the Digital World was destroyed and gone.

Me: My god.

Jeri Katou: What happened here? Most of the Digital World is all gone.

Me: It's Lucemon's followers. They are gathering data for him to use to revive himself.

Lincoln: We got to stop him.

Maria: How exactly are we going to find Lucemon?

Me: We're going to find his followers and have Lucemon come to us.

Shadow the Hedhehog: I have an idea. Maybe I can use Chaos Control to teleport us to Lucemon's hideout.

Me: We'll go with your idea later on Shadow. Lucemon is in the core of the Digital World. We're going to find Lucemon's followers and let Lucemon come to us.

Nico: That just might work.

KRABOOOOOMMM!

We heard a massive explosion and we saw a library under attack by Lucemon's followers Dynasmon and Crusadermon!

Me: Dynasmon and Crusadermon!

Nico: Whoa! I know them. Very dangerous Digimon.

Me: Yep.

Lori: Who is that fighting them?

Me: That's EmperorGreymon and MagnaGarurumon. They are the unified spirits of the 10 Legendary Warriors.

Sora Takenouchi: I know the 4 kids with them. That's Koichi Kimura, J.P. Shibayama, Zoe Orimoto and Tommy Himi.

Nico: Friends of yours Sora?

Sora Takenouchi: They sure are. We went to school together.

Me: Wow. Lets go help them out!

We went over and I kicked Dynasmon and slashed him in the arm.

Me: (Echoing) PYROBLASTER!

I fired a huge fireball blast and it slammed into Dynasmon and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

EmperorGreymon: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Zoe Orimoto: It's an honor to meet all of you!

Koichi: Thank goodness you all came.

Me: Looks like we arrived just in time.

Nico: Yep.

Tommy Himi: We appreciate it.

Vince: Thanks guys and we're not alone.

A Massive army of Digimon lead by the 4 Digimon Sovereign arrived. It was a massive army of all the species of Digimon.

MagnaGarurumon: Wow! What an army!

Me: Yep. All 1400+ Digimon Species.

Nico: Whoa! That's a lot of Digimon!

Ash: More than Pokemon!

Sakura Haruno: Yeah.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Dynasmon: You won't win! Lord Lucemon will return!

He and Crusadermon scanned the land and it went down into the core of the planet.

EmperorGreymon: OH NO!

The data went into an orb of darkness and then it shattered and a figure with wings emerged from it. It was LUCEMON!

Dynasmon: LORD LUCEMON IS FREE!

Zoe Orimoto: Lucemon?

J.P: That little boy?

Lucemon: (Opens his eyes) (Exhales) It is done as it was meant to be. I am your ordained ruler with absolute power over your very existence. You will serve me as you were born to do. You will give me my every desire, even yourself.

Takuya: Well that is never gonna happen!

Me: Don't let his appearance deceive you Takuya. He may be a Rookie Level Digimon now, but he possesses the strength and power of a Mega Level Digimon.

Nico: Whoa! I didn't know he was that powerful!

Me: Its been a long time Lucemon. How have things been for you in the Dark Area?

Lucemon: It has been a while J.D. Now I can get my revenge on you for imprisoning me in the Dark Area!

Me: I can't believe you would become like this Lucemon! You are exactly like what happened in that book I read: Paradise Lost. First you helped break up the fights with Human and Beast Digimon. Then you grew mad with power and the 10 Legendary Warriors defeated you with my help and we imprisoned you in the Dark Area forever. Then you resurface after all this time to cause more pain and suffering.

Zoe Orimoto: How do you know Lucemon, J.D.?

Me: Because 10 years ago, I was the one that imprisoned him in the Dark Area.

Takuya: What!? You defeated Lucemon?

Me: Yes. 10 years ago, I helped the 10 Legendary Warriors band together and defeat Lucemon and I was chosen by the Three Celestial Angel Digimon to be their Emissary and given the mission to destroy Lucemon for good should he return.

Zoe Orimoto: That's incredible!

Me: Lucemon I will never forgive you for your crimes.

Nico: I can't believe you are that despicable!

Azulongmon: Behold, Lucemon! You face the power of 4 Digital Sovereigns!

Me: And the all powerful Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Number 7 and Ebon appeared.

Ed: I actually knew you were going to be here, Number 7.

Number 7: What can I say? The data in the Digital World is actually interesting to me.

Me: It is interesting.

Ebon: Strange seeing you all here.

?: How interesting.

Lincoln: Oh no.

Out of a dark corridor came LARXENE!

---

Larxene, the Savage Nymph (in Japanese: 非情の妖姫, Hijō no Yōki, lit. Callous Vixen), is a recurring antagonist in the Kingdom Hearts series, and the Nobody of Elrena, a member of the Dandelions. She is the twelfth member of Organization XIII as well as being the only official female member of the team (with Xion being an unofficial member), and also has a very sadistic nature. She wields a set of knives named Foudre and the power of thunder, which she uses for quick and lethal attacks.

She is voiced by Yuko Miyamura in Japanese and by Shanelle Workman in English.

Past

Elrena was a Keyblade Wielder during the age of fairy tales. As her original self she was a member of the Dandelions. She first appears when Lauriam (Marluxia's original self) seeks her to ask about his missing sister Strelitzia, since the she and Elrena were friends.

Through unknown means, she and several other Keyblade wielders were spared from the desolation of the Keyblade War and ended up in the current timeline before losing their hearts to darkness. Elrena's empty vessel became the Nobody named Larxene who was recruited into Organization XIII.

Kingdom Hearts: 358/2 Days

Larxene appears as a playable character in Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days' mission mode and a minor character in story mode. She is ranked number 12 within the organization, and joins Marluxia in his plot to overthrow Xemnas as they are assigned to Castle Oblivion to manipulate and control Sora.

Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories

Larxene is the secondary antagonist of Sora's storyline during the events of Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories, appearing frequently to taunt Sora and taking delight in the rage and agony she spurs in him.

Nevertheless, Larxene's cruelty was ultimately proven to be her own undoing; after she discovers Axel's unexpected betrayal and sees her plans with Marluxia have fallen apart, her friendly manner vanishes and she attacks Sora in a rage. Ultimately, she pushes Sora, Donald and Goofy too far and suffers their combined wrath after hurting Naminé and trying to kill them. She ends up being defeated and, surprisingly in death, she sounds out a cry of what appears as sadness as she is fading.

Kingdom Hearts II

Although she does not have a role in Kingdom Hearts II, she appears as an optional boss in Kingdom Hearts II: Final Mix, where the location of her Absent Silhouette is located at Port Royal, as well as in the Data Battles with the other Organization members.

Kingdom Hearts III

Larxene returns in Kingdom Hearts III, as a member of the True Organization XIII. Her sadistic nature is more toned down (presumably from being defeated by Sora) and she appears to be more patient, calculative, and cautious. She also appears to have little interest in Xehanort's plans.

She encounters Sora again in Arendelle where she explains that the said world has a Princess of Heart and she believes it to be Elsa. However, Anna's actions cause her to think Anna could be the Princess she is looking for. Ultimatly, she learns that both Anna and Elsa are Princesses of Heart, and leaves to report this information to Xehanort.

Later in the final battle, Larxene, Luxord and Marluxia are fighitng Mickey until Sora gives the King backup. Larxene is defeated again. While she is angered by her second defeat, she does not respond to death in fear. Larxene accepts her fate, and dies with dignity, choosing death over being a vessel for Xehanort. She genuinely smiles at Sora when telling him her reasons for "going along for the ride" are secret before fading away, impling that she only joined the old and the real Organization to be with Marluxia. She later was presumably reborn as her former complete self.

Lincoln: Larxene!

Elena: (to Larxene) So that's what I looked like during my Organization XIII days.

Larxene: (to Elena) So that's what I look like without a black coat.

Me: It's like looking at yourself in the mirror.

Larxene: It sure does feel that way.

Qin: Is that Larxene the Savage Nymph?

Sora: That's her Qin.

Elena: I can't believe that this monster was my Nobody.

Kairi: I know.

Aqua: Larxene is a monster.

Kairi: And a ruthless fiend.

?: And I thought I was ruthless too.

A figure came out and it was SPELLBINDER from episode 19 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

With the planets aligned, Olympius, Loki and Vypra had the Spellbinder perform a ritual to bring back Queen Bansheera. The plan had almost succeeded until the Power Rangers came along, as Kelsey, Chad, Joel and Dana take on Vypra, Loki and the army of Batlings, The Titanium and Carter take on Spellbinder, the Spellbinder was too strong for the Red Ranger to handle and was quickly out matched, but the Titanium Ranger came to the rescue with his Titanium Laser Axe Mode, giving the Red Ranger a clean hit on the monster with his V-Lancer which seemed to finish off the monster. However, when the Rangers managed to get outside, Spellbinder revives himself as a giant and the Rangers summon the Lightspeed Megazord and the Max Solarzord to take on Spellbinder, but the monster was too much powerful and had the upper hand, being able to stop a kick from the Max Solarzord and even the Fire Circle finisher had no effect. The Rangers then quickly combined the Zords to form the Lightspeed Solarzord but both the Lightspeed Solarzord and Spellbinder were evenly matched. By then, Queen Bansheera had returned and she conjures a massive tidal wave to wash away all of Mariner Bay. Luckily, the Titanium Ranger retreats back to the area where the Prism Orb lies beneath and destroys it with the Titanium Axe, and not only did it cause Spellbinder to lose his Prism Power, but it also prevented Queen Bansheera from using her tidal wave (she did however return ether way). With the monster greatly weakened, the Rangers used the Lightspeed Solarzord's energy bombardment to take out Spellbinder once and for all.

Carter Grayson: Spellbinder!

Spellbinder: Its been a while.

Me: I remember you all too well! You were sent to complete the ritual to bring back Queen Bansheera when the Planets aligned.

Spellbinder: That's right. You watched all of us on TV didn't you J.D.?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Spellbinder then fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit the Loud Kids minus Laney, Liberty, Linka, Lee, Lyra and Lila and exploded with incredible power!

Me: Just like on TV.

The Loud Kids got up and they were hurt all over.

Lincoln: (to Spellbinder) I didn't expect you to hit us that hard.

Spellbinder: Well, that's what you guys get for nearly quitting!

Me: I guess Dark Spicer told Vypra about what happened to the Loud Kids last week.

Spellbinder: He did and Vypra was not very happy about it and she sent me to show you how wrong you are about that.

Vince: I see.

My Signer Mark then glowed.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer incoming.

Misty Tredwell appeared.

Me: Misty.

Misty Tredwell: J.D. (Sees the thrashed Loud Kids) WHOA! What happened to all of you!?

Me: Complicated story. They got their butts handed to them because of trying to quit the team because of a stupid news report fabricated by Rotwood and Morton.

Laney: Yeah. It's not pretty.

Nico: Next time we see Rotwood and Morton, we're putting them in the farthest prison away from Earth.

Me: Yep.

Vince: I hate those two.

Me: Me too partner.

Troy: You're not the only one who can use magic, Spellbinder!

Volcana and Lincoln were facing Larxene.

Lincoln: You are a monster Larxene.

Volcana: That's right. You will pay for messing around with Sora's mind.

Larxene: Then I will eliminate all of you!

Lincoln: I don't think so!

Lincoln then transformed into his Super Angel 20,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird form and he was ready!

Lincoln: (Older Voice) Lightning is gonna destroy you.

Lincoln took off faster than lightning and punched Larxene in the face and sent her crashing into a rail line and she flew at Lincoln and Lincoln flew at her and they collided with incredible force and power and in a massive explosion of lightning they clashed with ferocious fury and more. Lightning arched and struck all over as they fought ferociously and struck all over the place with incredible ferocity. Laney activated Dark Sanctuary and it turned the area into a scary fortress that looked like something from the nightmare world and it looked like a true fortress from the very darkness of Hell itself.

Misty Tredwell: Whoa! Very nightmarish.

Laney: It sure does look scary huh. Now watch this.

Laney then flared up her power and she transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 Graceful Rose Assassin form. Her power was astronomically stronger than ever.

Misty Tredwell: Wow! What power!

He did so and turned into his CHAOS MODE!

We regrouped and faced him. He laughed malevolently!

Zoe Orimoto: Is that Lucemon!?

Me: It is. This is his Chaos Mode.

Lucemon: I want you all to understand, Every living creature in this world is precious to me.

Me: Bullshit!

Zoe Orimoto: That is a bold-faced lie!

Laney: I won't believe that for a second!

Lucemon: How can you think of it as a lie young humans? It was difficult to put those poor knights out of their misery. But for their eternal happiness I had to!

Tommy Himi: You wiped them out to take their power!

Lori: You heartless monster!

J.P.: You want to control them! It's not right!

Me: That's right! A world without free will in my eyes is the ultimate fate worse than death.

Lucemon: Most of you can't control yourselves. So I'm here to help you.

Me: By killing us with oppression? I don't think so!

EmperorGreymon: It sounds like you don't want us to act or think for ourselves!

MagnaGarurumon: You want us to be slaves and to accept living in a world run by you!

Lucemon: Without a loving being to shepherd you, this new world order I am creating could become chaos! I'm inviting all of you to share in my vision of paradise.

Me: There will never be such a thing as true paradise as long as evil exists in the universe.

Lucemon: It is frustrating having to reason with beasts like you who only think of themselves in order to consider the common good. Now I ask you to join me and share the vision I have for all of us. You need me for only I have the wisdom to command this utopia.

Varie: Your utopia is a world without free will!

EmperorGreymon: We've seen what your evil has done here! We don't want you!

Lucemon: That's too bad. I had hoped you would hear me out with an open mind. You've all made a mistake!

Me: The biggest mistake here is you Lucemon! Lets power up!

Lucemon screamed in pain as he was scanned.

We thought that would be the end of him but we were dead wrong. We saw a black Digi-egg and it was growing.

Takuya: It looks evil.

Tommy Himi: I thought Lucemon had been scanned. That means his data has been purified. So why does this Digi-Egg look weird?

Bokomon: Oh no not that!

Me: What's wrong Bokomon?

Bokomon: When Agunimon scanned Lucemon he may have only been able to scan the data that was good. Which means all of his evil data still exists and I'd say it's growing again.

Nico: Not a good sign.

Kouji: Then if what your suspicions are right…

Bokomon: He's been stripped of all goodness and is now Evil Incarnate. His reign of terror will be unstoppable!

Lucemon reformed into a terrifying dragon! He was now in his SHADOWLORD MODE!

Me: If you ever need our help again Ophanimon, we will gladly answer the call.

Ophanimon: We will call for you when needed.

Ebon, Number 7 and Larxene appeared.

Ebon: I'm actually glad you guys aren't going to quit anytime soon.

Me: Not in a million years Ebon.

Lincoln: Well, I admit that we let cristicism get to us. But that won't happen again.

Number 7: We are glad to hear that. (she and Ebon teleport out with Larxene)

Me: Lets go home.

We left and went back home.

Azulongmon: (To the viewers) Digimon are the greatest friends to all and the greatest protectors of everyone. Be sure to help out whenever needed.

We arrived back home and we took a rest and I moved the Digital World to the orbit of Earth and it was gonna be awesome having the Digital World with us.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Lucemon from Season 4 of Digimon was one ruthless monster. Mona Marshall did a great job voicing him back then and it was so awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is the 3rd Storm Hawks chapter and we're going after the evil Carver and we're going to take him down for good.

See you all tomorrow.

Fall of the Red Eagles

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY 2020 EVERYONE!

---

We were walking through the city and we were enjoying the sights and sounds as we walked to the house of Lola's rival in the beauty pageant world, Lindsey Sweetwater. Lindsey has hated Lola ever since she started and she has always came in second place ever since.

Elena Validus: Why are we visiting Lindsey Sweetwater again?

Me: To recruit her and strip her of her darkness if she gets out of control.

Matilda Honey: If she gets out of line, we're knocking her out!

Me: Calm down Matilda.

Lola: I would normally be against this. But I want Lindsey to be one of my friends. I've let myself be clouded by the competition of Beauty Pageants for too long and I want to bury the hatchet.

Nico: Good thinking Lola.

We arrived at Lindsey Sweetwater's house and it was a massive and beautiful mansion.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: This is Lindsey's house? Amazing!

Lincoln: I didn't know she was filthy rich.

Lana: Me neither.

We went up to the door and I knocked on it.

The butler answered it.

Butler: Yes?

Me: Hello good sir. We would like to come in and talk to Lindsey if we could please.

Butler: Right this way.

We went in and we were amazed at how beautiful Lindsey's house was.

Lola: Wow! Lindsey's house is amazing.

Laney: It sure is.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Boy Lindsey's house is incredible lads.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Amazing laddies.

Hunter: (German Accent) It's amazing.

We went into the living room and we saw Lindsey's mom sitting on the sofa.

Butler: Ma'am, Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here.

Me: Hello Naomi.

Naomi Sweetwater: It's good to see you again J.D.

Me: Same to you.

We went in and sat down with her and we got to talking.

Naomi Sweetwater: So you want to help Lindsey and recruit her?

Me: I know this is really sudden Naomi. But we think she would be a perfect friend for Lola.

Lola: I know. Lindsey and I have been fierce rivals ever since I started in the world of Pageantry. But I want our rivalry to stop.

Naomi Sweetwater: I completely understand. Lindsey?

Lindsey: (Offscreen) Coming mom!

Lindsey came down.

Lindsey: Yes mom?

Me: Hello Lindsey.

Lindsey: Hey J.D. Its been a while.

Me: It sure has.

Lindsey: I'm sorry I punched you in the eye during that one time.

Me: Ah it's all water under the bridge.

Lindsey saw Lola and she was enraged.

Lindsey: LOLA!? WHY ARE YOU HERE!?

Outback: Hey! You better calm down, kid! Self defense!

Me: Stand down Outback. Lindsey just let Lola talk.

Lola: I came here to talk to you. I want us to put aside this rivalry we're having now and become friends. Lindsey, you and I have been rivals ever since we entered the world of pageantry and I think it's time we bury the hatchet and become friends. I've been a terrible girl ever since I started and it's time I start setting a positive example for us by becoming friends.

Lindsey: Wow. That's a big and noble start Lola.

Suddenly Lindsey got a splitting headache!

Naomi Sweetwater: Lindsey what's wrong!?

Me: Stand back Naomi. This is her dark side separating.

Lindsey was then enveloped in an aura of darkness and a blob of pitch black darkness separated from her and it then formed into another LINDSEY! But this one looked more feral and it had black clothes and evil red eyes.

Cybertron Crumplezone: Is that her dark side?!

Me: That's her. Now Bobby!

Bobby: Right!

Bobby encased Dark Lindsey in a massive cluster of aqua blue crystal and we beamed her over to the Pluto Prison.

Me: That was a close one.

Lindsey was free of her darkness. She woke up and she was better than ever now that she was purified.

Lindsey: Lola? LOLA! (Hugs her and cries) I'M SO SORRY!

Lola: It's all right Lindsey. It's all right.

Lindsey was recruited into our group and she had a lot to learn.

Later the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the skies of Atmos.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2829.1: We are flying through the skies of Atmos on another awesome action-packed mission with the Storm Hawks to bring down another one of their enemies and more forces of Cyclonia. This is gonna be a big battle like it is all the time against Cyclonia.

Lana: I wonder who we're going to face this time in Atmos.

Aerrow: We're going to face Carver.

Me: What can you tell us about him?

Aerrow: He was the leader of the Red Eagles and the greatest of the Sky Knights ever since the original Storm Hawks were defeated 10 years ago.

Aerrow went over Carver's history.

---

Carver was originally the leader of the Red Eagles, considered to be the greatest Sky Knight squadron after the Original Storm Hawks destruction 10 years prior. As such, he was seen as being both the greatest living Sky Knight and true hero, until his imprisonment by the Storm Hawks for stealing the Aurora Stone in the pilot episode.

Carver was famed throughout the Atmos for his heroic deeds and adventures, such as the time he slept covered in slugs to capture a group of poachers, or went without food and water during his rescue of Princess Hannah. Carver led his team into becoming recognised as the greatest Sky Knight squadron in the entire Atmos. He even had his own fan-club, with a newsletter that kept its thousands of members up to date on his deeds. Carver's squadron wore only the finest armour and clothing, living a life of celebrity as the heroes of Atmosia.

In the pilot episode, Carver and his squadron are seen arriving on Terra Atmosia, to a cheering crowd of admirers. One member of the crowd states that Carver and his men are "true Sky Knights", in reference to the newly reformed Storm Hawk's age and inexperience.

Carver and his squadron later arrive at the tower of the Aurora Stone, where his surprised squad mates are quickly betrayed and incapacitated by their (now former) leader. Carver then successfully steals the Aurora stone, but his escape is stopped by the arrival of the new Storm Hawks. Carver then claims to be more intelligent then the rest of the people of Atmos, because he can tell that the winds of favor are blowing in Cyclonis' direction. After a brief dual, in which he was able to initially overcome Aerrow, he is taken off guard and promptly defeated by the Storm Hawk's newly discovered move, the "Lightning Claw". Carver was then captured and imprisoned within Atmosia's High Security Stockade.

In the episode Second Chances, Carver eventually convinces everyone that he stole the stone because he was under Cyclonis' Mind Control. This granted him freedom and he then joined the Storm Hawks, much to the excitement of Finn, who saw him as being "the coolest, most famous Sky Knight ever". Carver initially played nice and got the Storm Hawks new uniforms and a large fan base with more exposure than ever. Carver quickly began to overshadow Aerrow, being a key part in the Storm Hawks rescuing a kitten, diverting a crashing airship and defeating giant monsters in the wastelands.

These heroics were only for show however, as Carver had been subtly trying to eliminate Aerrow through a series of traps during every mission. He eventually managed to convince the Storm Hawks that Aerrow was under Cyclonian Mind Control, causing Aerrow to be imprisoned. Carver then tried to murder Aerrow by letting Stork's poisonous spider loose in his cell. The spider however, turned out to be a tickle spider rather then a deadly one and Carver's scheme was uncovered. After once again dueling Aerrow, this time in a far more prolonged fight, Carver was once again defeated and placed back in prison.

We gasped in shock.

Me: So he's a traitor that allied with Cyclonia.

Piper (Storm Hawks): That's right. The man that we once respected is now a monster.

Aerrow: But he did help us reform the Storm Hawks and we became the greatest after Cyclonia fell.

Me: So some good did come out of him with the rebirth of the Storm Hawks.

Laney: Wow.

Aerrow: Yep. The Storm Hawks came out of retirement thanks to him and Carver is gonna be after me for putting him in prison.

Finn (Storm Hawks): Hard to believe that Carver used to be a great Sky Knight.

Lincoln: The greatest from what I was told.

Me: An arrogant one at that.

Lori: J.D. we have enemy signals at 95˚ Northeast.

Me: How many?

Lori: Scans show over 402,000 enemy signals.

Aerrow: Cyclonians.

Me: ALL HANDS RED ALERT!

The sirens and alarms blared and we got to our battlestations and into our ships and we were ready for a huge fight.

Me: This is it guys.

Han Solo: We're coming up on them fast. Hold them off Chewie. Angle the deflector shields while I charge up the main guns.

Chewie: (Roars) (Right)

Chewie charged up the main guns.

Han and Leia got the main laser guns ready.

We flew out and we were ready.

Me: All wings report in.

Nico: Blue Leader Standing by.

Wedge: Red Leader Standing by.

Lincoln: Orange Leader standing by.

Troy Burrows: Megaforce Leader standing by.

Nick Russell: Mystic Leader standing by.

Aerrow: Storm Hawks Leader standing by.

Arkayna: Mysticons leader standing by.

We were ready.

Me: Lock S-Foils in Attack Position.

We were ready as the wings unfolded.

Me: Lets get them boys.

We went at the Cyclonians and it was gonna be a massively powerful fight.

Cyclonian 1: Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Storm Hawks, you all will pay for killing all of Cyclonia!

Me: Cyclonia will fall by our hands! Fire at will!

We all went at them. I fired lasers and blew a bunch of Cyclonia Ships apart in powerful fiery explosions.

We saved most of the Cyclonians because of them being kids. We went onto the ship and we saw a flying bike land and it was CARVER!

Carver was ready as he had an energy blade ready.

Me: Carver. So we meet at last.

Carver: The famous J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You all make me sick!

Me: Fuck you.

Carver: (to me and the Loud Kids) It sickens me how you all have so much power and yet you use it for good.

Laney: Hey, we've learned that with Great Power Come Great Responsibility!

Me: You are a disgusting freak Carver.

Carver: Oh, please! With powers like yours, you could easily conquer Atmos and the entire universe! Hell, you probably wouldn't have to put up with Chan beating you guys up just for attempting to do what you want.

Me: Because we don't use our powers for that you low life son of a bitch.

Nico: I am the chief enforcer because we have anger problems.

Vince: We should just kill you for saying that.

Troy: You'll regret leaving the side of good, Carver!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Alien!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Aquitar Rangers.

Waffle Woman and Professor Calamitous appeared.

Me: Waffle Woman and Professor Calamitous.

Professor Calamitous: Yes it is us.

Waffle Woman: Are you all ready to fight?

Me: Always ready.

Tara: That's right.

A figure came out and it was SAÏX!

---

Saïx, the Luna Diviner, is one of the secondary antagonists in the Kingdom Hearts series; he serves as one of the two secondary antagonists (alongside Xigbar) in Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days and Kingdom Hearts II, a minor antagonist in Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance, and a major antagonist in Kingdom Hearts III. He is the seventh member of the original Organization XIII and a member of the new Organization. He wields a claymore and the power of the Moon, using the latter to enter a berserk rage. He commands the Berserker Nobodies.

Saïx's original self, Isa, was the best friend of Lea, the original self of Axel, being the foil to his friend's zany antics. Prior to their attempt to infiltrate Hollow Bastion, Isa and Lea find Ventus. Watching Lea cheer the boy up, Isa joins his friend in sneaking in before they are thrown out of the castle by Dilan.

Years later, Isa's heart was removed from his body by Terra-Xehanort, creating Saïx.

Kingdom Hearts 352/2 Days

Saïx plays a relatively important role in Organization XIII, assigning missions to all the other Organization members. Saïx is the one who gave Xemnas's orders to Axel to eliminate traitors to their Organization in Castle Oblivion. It is generally accepted by the remaining members that at this point the two planned to not only eliminate traitors, but also anyone who stood in the way of their plans, such as Vexen and Zexion. Saïx is also revealed to be the one who picked which members would be going to Castle Oblivion, namely the members suspected of being traitors, as well as anyone else who was "getting in the way".

After Axel's return from Castle Oblivion and his growing friendship with Roxas and Xion, a rift between Saïx and Axel begins to form. He eventually confronts Axel of this, as their friendship is more concrete because their original selves were best friends. Eventually, Saïx dismisses his previous plans with Axel as "just an idle fantasy", as they both have changed too much for them to be friends anymore.

Working on Organization XIII's plans for Sora with Xemnas, he later challenges Roxas to a battle of will when the Keyblade wielder attempts to leave Organization XIII. Saïx loses the battle, and Roxas escapes. Up until Xion's destruction and absorption at the hands of Roxas, Saïx views the Sora copy as nothing but a mere, hooded puppet. He even insists that the others would say "it" when referring to Xion, rather than "she".

After Xion's end, Xemnas orders Saïx to retrieve Roxas, who is on his way to the Castle that Never Was to defeat Organization XIII and free Kingdom Hearts, because he believes it will resurrect Xion. While not confronting Roxas himself, it is possible that Saïx was the one who sent the Neoshadows after Roxas, who destroys the Heartless easily.

Kingdom Hearts II

Saïx's first appearance is in Hollow Bastion, along with all surviving and loyal Organization members to taunt Sora.

Twilight Town

Saïx first appears in the Sandlot after Sora and company rescue Seifer from lesser Nobodies. Saïx appears before the trio, applauding their battle skills. He informs them of a traitor, Axel, and believes that he might be in Twilight Town somewhere. Sora insults the Organization, remarking on how they're "not a very organized Organization." Saïx is unfazed, and tells Sora to watch his back, for Axel will stop at nothing to turn him into a Heartless. Sora declares he is not worried, prompting Saïx to remark that the Organization would want nothing to happen to Sora. He also cryptically remarks that the Organization knows how to "injure a heart". He then opens a portal of darkness behind him, and Sora thinks of jumping in after him, though Saïx overhears this and advises not to do so, lest he ends up like Riku.

Sora inquires as to what he means, but Saïx immediately leaves to report to Xemnas that he succeeded in placing Sora in a state of confusion and frustration to keep him going toward their goal. Saïx also states that Axel may prove a thorn in their side, which leads to Xemnas giving him orders to deal with the renegade.

The Heartless Invasion

Saïx next appears in Hollow Bastion during the Heartless invasion, interrupting Axel and Sora's conversation, and forcing the traitor Nobody to flee. Saïx ensures that Axel will be rightly punished, but Sora is not mollified, his only goal being to enter the realm of darkness to rescue Kairi. His face unreadable, Saïx asks Sora to prove just how much he cares about Kairi. In response, Sora actually gets onto his knees and begs at the Nobody's feet. Seeing Sora's devotion to the Princess of Heart, Saïx sees this as a further opportunity to enrage and confuse Sora so that he might further the Organization's goal. He refuses Sora's wish, eliciting a hot fury. Bending Sora's anger to suit his own needs, Saïx convinces Sora to destroy more Heartless so that the hearts held within them are released by the Keyblade. Then they may flock to Xemnas' synthetic Kingdom Hearts, which will be all the closer to completion because of it.

At that moment, Maleficent appears, declaring with much aplomb that Kingdom Hearts will belong to her. She summons more Heartless to attack Saïx, despite Sora's protests, but Saïx calmly summons several Nobodies to destroy the attacking Heartless. Maleficent then places herself between Sora and the Nobodies, telling him to devise a way to vanquish the Organization. Swarmed by Nobodies, she is overwhelmed and disappears, allowing Saïx to resume convincing Sora to release more hearts. But before he can finish his ploy, Sora, Donald, and Goofy are rescued by a portal of darkness that swallows them up (which was Maleficent's doing).

The World That Never Was

Saïx is seen again talking to Kairi in her cell in the Castle That Never Was within the world of Nobodies. He tells her, much to her horror, that she is the "fire that feeds Sora's anger." Kairi realizes that Sora is getting lured into a trap all because of her. However, Naminé, her Nobody, unexpectedly appears in her cell and rescues her through a portal of darkness. The two halves then begin fleeing the Castle to try and make good on their escape. Saïx soon appears and attempts to stop Kairi and Naminé, but Riku (still cloaked and in the form of Xehanort's Heartless) attacks him from behind. Saïx does a backflip in the air and lands a few feet away. Riku slams him up against the wall, intending to finish him once and for all. However, Saïx opens up a portal behind him and sinks away into the wall with a smirk.

Saïx again appears in the Castle That Never Was to Sora, who had managed to work his way through the Organization's floating fortress with the help of Donald, Goofy, Riku, and Kairi. He looks lovingly upon his Kingdom Hearts, his source of power. He tells Sora that Kairi no longer needs him and makes a cryptic remark about a "friend from the darkness." Sora is not deterred by Saïx's manipulative comments, but Saïx is not concerned. He tells Sora that the Organization's Kingdom Hearts is nearly done, pointing to the heart-shaped moon in the sky. He then enigmatically asks Sora if he can hear the euphoria of the countless hearts he has harvested. He summons more Heartless for Sora to destroy, but his attention is quickly turned to Maleficent, who has also infiltrated the castle along with Pete. He takes this in stride, wondering in an amused voice if the intrusions will ever end, and soon after vanishes to check on Kingdom Hearts.

Saïx appears to Xemnas, who is watching Kingdom Hearts come closer to completion. He asks the Superior if he can end this "charade", and Xemnas grants him permission. Sora's part in their plan is done with and he can now safely be killed. Saïx smiles savagely and remarks that he's waited so long to hear that.

Saïx awaits Sora, Donald, Goofy, Riku, and Kairi in a room with a direct view of Kingdom Hearts: Addled Impasse. He calls Sora by the name of "Roxas", saying only he could have made it this far, though Donald vehemently states that he is Sora. Saïx seems not to care, simply stating: "Different name, same fate." Then, summoning his claymore, he creates a potent shockwave with sheer strength alone. This power manages to push away Kairi and Riku back towards the entrance of the room. He then quickly erects a force field, separating them from the battle, yet doing no harm. Them taken care of, he confronts Sora, Donald, and Goofy for the final time. He finally lets his outer decorum slip away. Under the influence of the moon, he becomes savage and unrestrained, truly a model for his Berserker Nobodies.

However, despite Saïx's great strength, speed, power, and skill, he is overcome. Defeated and mortally wounded, he limps away from Sora to the ledge overlooking the moon. With the last of his strength, he asks: "Why… Kingdom Hearts… Where is my heart?". All his power gone, he now fades back into darkness.

Kingdom Hearts Re:coded

Isa is revived in Radiant Garden, along with Lea and the rest of Ansem's apprentices save Xehanort. Young Xehanort arrives and, with Braig's assistance, takes Isa to join the new Organization.

Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance

Saïx, revealed to have been infused with a fragment of Xehanort's heart, is made a member of the new Organization. When Lea attempts to save Sora from being turned into the thirteenth member, Saïx is sent to stall Lea, much to Lea's horror.

Kingdom Hearts III

Following the Organization's failure to turn Sora into a vessel, Master Xehanort, Xigbar, and Saïx meet at the Keyblade Graveyard to find a way to complete the Organization. Saïx, having discovered Vexen's notes on the forgotten Xion, suggests using her to replace Sora, and decides to fetch Vexen to refine the replicas. Visiting Radiant Garden, Saïx approaches Even, who is wandering the square, with an offer to rejoin the Organization. At the Keyblade Graveyard, Vexen lies that he chose to return to the Organization to continue research on his Replica Program, with Saïx saying Ansem did not appreciate his abilities while Xehanort did.

Saïx later appears at the Clock Tower in Twilight Town with Lea, but with no intention of fighting him. The two talk as if they were still friends, their conversation revealing their true motives for joining the original Organization XIII; as Somebodies, they had befriended a girl only referred to as Subject X, who was held inside the castle of Radiant Garden. When she disappeared, the two became apprentices of Ansem the Wise before he too disappeared and Isa became a Nobody alongside Lea. Their entire reason for climbing the ranks of Organization XIII was to get information on Subject X and learn what happened to her, knowing full well that Xemnas, as Xehanort's Nobody, has knowledge of her predicament, but they had no luck in finding her. Saïx's anger at Axel's newfound friendship with Roxas and Xion was out of betrayal, feeling Axel had decided to forget about Subject X. Lea rebuffs, trying to persuade Saïx to leave the new Organization, but Saïx retorts by saying Roxas is gone forever too. Saïx and Lea part ways fully expecting to battle one another at the fated place.

Later, Saïx and Xion confront Kairi and Lea at the Keyblade Graveyard, with Saïx subtly trying to jog Xion's memories. Saïx overpowers Lea, who once again tries to persuade his old friend to stop, until Xemnas arrives and berates Lea for his treason. Saïx simply watches as Xemnas mercilessly attacks both Lea and Xion before Roxas arrives to save them. Xemnas kidnaps Kairi, leaving Saïx to deal with their enemies. Sora, Roxas, and Xion fight and defeat Saïx. When Lea approaches Saïx, the latter asks why he looks sad. Lea responds by commenting on what the Organization has reduced Saïx to. Saïx once again reminds Lea of his betrayal, not to the Organization, but to him, as he befriended Roxas and Xion while abandoning their goals after everything Saïx had done to try and find her. Lea assures him he never forgot, which Saïx knew deep down, allowing his jealousy to get the better of him. He fades away in Lea's arms, being called by his real name before being reborn as his original self.

Through a Secret Report, it was revealed he was actually a key part of the Guardians of Lights' victory; having met Even, both expressed a desire to atone for their past actions. Since Saïx was already in the real Organization XIII, he had the ability to bring Even in as a Nobody once again, the latter willing to sacrifice his new life to get access to his Replica Program, which would allow Roxas, Xion, and Naminé to become human and therefore coexist with their original selves.

Me: Saïx!

Saïx: So we meet again J.D.

Me: You are just a cold and ruthless monster that doesn't care about anyone.

Qin: So he is Saïx.

Me: That's him.

Lea: Fancy seeing you here, Isa.

Saïx: Save it, Lea. I guess now that my Somebody's been restored, there's no reason for you to have me around anymore.

Carol: Oh, that's not true. We have you as one of our frenemies now.

Saïx: Not entirely.

?: Let me get some action.

A figure came out and it was SCREAMER from episode 17 of Mystic Force!

---

Screamer was summoned by Imperious, and ordered to attack the city with Necrolai. While Necrolai attacked with the Dark Morpher, Screamed turned people into piles of feathers by firing sonic waves from her beak. The Rangers showed up and fought off the twosome. Nick, Xander and Chip were having a tough time with Necrolai, but luckily Madison and Vida were able to save them. This forced Screamer and Necrolai to retreat. They both later returned to attack more citizens of Briarwood. Nick, Xander, Vida and Chip, the Rangers went to take them on. However, they were out matched and eventually turned into piles of feathers too. It was then that Jenji showed up and took on the bird beast, he had the upper hand until Screamer use her Energy Ball attack on him and land a major beat down on the cat-like Genie. Madison arrived to help in the fight, but Screamer was still too strong. Just as Jenji was about to run out on his two hour time limit, he wished himself more time, and granted the wish. With this last surge of energy, Jenji used his Super Cat Attack on Screamer. He was able to break Screamer's beak, but his time had run out. Luckily, Fire Heart brought the Solaris Knight, and he was able to place Jenji back in the Laser Lamp before it was too late. Madison then used the Laser Lamp's Jenji Shining Attack to take down Screamer. After the bird was down for the count, all the people that had been turned to feathers, were returned to normal; including the Rangers. Necrolai then used the Dark Morpher to bring Screamer back and giant sized. With the combined attacks of the Furnace Blast and Spirits of the Ancient Titans, Screamer was defeated for good.

Madison Rocca: Screamer!

Screamer: Its been a while Rocca.

Me: I remember you! You turned a bunch of people into feathers all over the city!

Screamer: That's right. You watched us fight on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode. But that was a really awesome episode.

Screamer just fired off sonic waves from the bird beak on the top of her head to turn Stork into a feather.

Aerrow: Stork!

Screamer: Oh, don't be too devastated! That one wasn't used to the battlefield anyway.

I snapped my fingers and changed him back.

Me: Nice try Screamer.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer coming.

Greiger then appeared.

Me: Greiger.

Greiger: Hello J.D.

Me: Looks like we have a big battle here.

Zhuqiaomon: Lets get them.

Me: This is gonna be good.

We powered up and went at them.

Battle 2: Professor Calamitous.

---

Lisa was facing Professor Calamitous and she was ready to fight him.

Lisa Loud: This is gonna be a good fight.

Lisa flew into the air and she then saw that Calamitous's CalamiBot can now fly!

Calamitous: Surprised, Lisa? To adjust to the aerial atmosphere of Atmos, my CalamiBot now has aerial capabilities.

Lisa Loud: I'm impressed.

Lisa fired a bunch of energy gears at him and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM

Lisa Loud: But I'm not impressed.

Battle 3: Saïx

---

Carol and Lisa were now facing Saïx.

Carol: I can't believe that you are that cold Saïx. Xion is a living human being and she deserves respect.

Saïx: Xion is a thing that is not worthy of being in the Organization.

Lisa Loud: You are a heartless monster Saïx.

Carol: And a ruthless and heartless monster.

Carol had a ring of solar fire and atomic energy form around her feet.

Carol: I will make you see the power of good and love.

Carol was then enveloped in a vortex of atomic energy and solar plasma and it exploded high into the endless reaches of space and her energy levels were skyrocketing at an astronomical level and so much more! When the vortex faded, Carol was forever changed! She had her hair in a ponytail with a purple hair bow, atom earrings, a shirt with an atom on it and King Ghidorah was over it, a yellow skirt of dragon scales, purple leggings, purple sandals, and a sleeveless trench coat with atoms and King Ghidorah on it and she had the kanji for Carol Pingrey, Atomic Kaiju Queen of Virtue and Justice on the back. キャロル・ピングレイ、美徳と正義の原子怪獣女王 She also had a sword of pure solar plasma on her left hip. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 ATOMIC KAIJU EMISSARY!

Lisa Loud: GADZOOKS! Carol you look magnificent!

Carol: Thanks Lisa. I am now more powerful than ever before.

Saïx: So you got a new form. It won't help you against the power of the moon berserker.

Carol: We shall see about that you freak.

Saïx summoned his Claymore.

Saïx: MOON SHINE DOWN!

Carol: Lets dance.

Carol took off like a flash of light and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach with devastating force and kicked him in the face. Carol kicked him in the back and kicked him in the chest multiple times and she punched him in the face and kicked him in the nose. Saïx then entered his BERSERKER MODE!

Carol: You will pay for everything you've done to Xion.

Carol unsheathed her sword and went at Saïx with incredible speed and he went at her with incredible fury and they collided and clashed in a massive explosion of fire and atomic energy!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Carol and Saïx were really going at each other and more and they were really unleashing the full extent of their fury on each other at an indiscriminate level! Massive explosions of fire and energy were really turning the ship battleground into a massive war zone!

Lisa Loud: WHOA! Sweet mother of all things in Pythagorus! This is getting intense!

Vince: Unbelievable! I've never seen Carol fight this ferociously against a monster like Saïx.

Carol kicked Saïx in the face and kicked him in the stomach with devastating force and kicked his claymore out of his hands and punched him in the face and they clasped hands and growled ferociously. They then flared up their auras. Carol's was purple and overflowing with atomic radiation and Saïx's was black and overflowing with moonlight. They clashed and mixed as their power was rising at an exponential rate and the entire planet was shaking!

Vince: WHOA! Their power is unbelievable!

Lisa Loud: WOW!

Carol then punched Saïx in the face with devastating force and sent him flying.

Carol: Try this one! ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: KYSHTYM RADIATION BURN!

Carol fired a blast of Atomic Energy and it hit Saïx and burned him all over with incredible power and it really hurt.

Carol: This will hurt you. ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: BANEBERRY NUCLEAR BURST!

Carol fired a powerful blast of atomic energy and it slammed into Saïx and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Saïx was knocked down and was burning all over.

Carol: It's over Saïx. You're finished. You've tormented Xion for the last time.

Saïx: (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY) You've just made a new arch nemesis Carol Pingrey! (Faints)

Carol: Good. The Springfield Mafia was getting boring for me.

Battle 4: Screamer

Me, Nico, Lori and the Megaforce and Mystic Force Rangers were facing Screamer.

Nico: Lets dance.

Me: Lets get them!

I activated my Starheart Battlizer mode and Nico did the same with the Mystic Force Rangers!

Me: YEAH! Lets get them guys!

Screamer summoned a massive army of Hideons!

Me: Hideons!

Nico: Nice!

Nick Russell: Just like on TV.

Madison Rocca: This is gonna be good.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them and we were punching, kicking and blasting the Hideons and Screamer all over the place and massive fiery explosions blasted out from all over the place as the fight progressed.

---

We fired energy blasts, elemental blasts and more and blew them all over the place with incredible and indiscriminate fury all over. The Hideons fired energy blasts and magic blasts at us all over and we used our lightsabers and Force Blasts and deflected them all over the place and back at them and turned much of the area on the ship into a war zone!

---

We blew all the Hideons apart and we then fired energy blasts at

Screamer and they hit her all over and exploded. She fell down and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Screamer, you have failed this universe!

Nico: Yeah!

Me: Sorry Nico. You should've said it.

Nico: No it's all right J.D. You can say it too.

Lori: This was literally intense.

Vida Rocca: It sure was.

Xander Bly: (Australian Accent) Awesome job mates.

Lori: Thanks Xander.

Me: Lets get Carver.

Nico: Right!

Battle 5: Greiger

Varie was facing Greiger.

Varie: This is gonna be awesome Greiger.

Greiger: It sure is. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CHACU CHALLHUA!

Greiger summoned the Whale Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua!

Varie: My deck is a fish deck. I summon SUPERANCIENT DEEPSEA KING COELACANTH, CURE MERMAID, SPACE

MAMBO, NIMBLE SUNFISH, METABO SHARK, TERRORKING SALMON, CRANIUM FISH, WHITE AURA DOLPHIN, NIMBLE MANTA, PIRANHA ARMY, ROOT WATER, UNSHAVEN ANGLER and CREEPING DOOM MANTA!

Varie summoned said monsters.

Greiger: Impressive team.

Varie: I have more monsters than just Fish Monsters. More where that came from. But you will see them all later. Lets dance.

Varie and Greiger went at each other and she punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and fired blasts of energy and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

The Fish Monsters fired blasts of energy at Chacu Challhua and they hit him all over and exploded and destroyed him.

Varie kicked Greiger and knocked him down.

Varie: Awesome.

---

Battle 6: CARVER!

---

We regrouped and we were facing Carver!

Me: It's over for you Carver.

Carver: I will kill the Storm Hawks if it's the last thing I ever do!

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach. He unsheathed his energy blade and we clashed ferociously!

Fiona: (to Carver) Hey! Little kids shouldn't be playing with dangerous swords!

Fiona fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and it really hurt him.

Ben then turned into a new predator. It was called GLUSERF! It looked like a worm with antennae.

Ben: GLUSERF!

Me: Whoa! Never saw this one.

Shanan: That's a predator called a Magotleech. They are the natural predators of the Mekfootans, Toepick's species.

Laney: That is a gross one. It looks like a huge maggot.

Riley: It sure does.

Qin: This is a weird one. But it's really cool.

Julie Yamamoto: It sure is.

Gluserf: Watch this.

He fired a blast of ooze and it stuck Carver to the ship like a very strong adhesive superglue.

Me: That is a strong ooze!

Lisa took a sample.

Lisa Loud: Fascinating. It's a very powerful super high carbon super polymer rubber cement.

Laney: Strong stuff.

Edwayl: Lets see how he likes this one! CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: CELTIC FAIRIES, ELVES AND DRYAD ARMY!

Edwayl fired a huge wave of green energy and it formed into a massive army of Fairies, Elves and Dryad's and they slammed into Carver and slashed and blasted him and exploded all over the place.

Laney: This will hurt as much. CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: KNIGHTS OF CAMELOT!

Laney fired a wave of green energy and it formed into the legendary Knights of The Round Table and they slashed and cut Carver all over the place.

Jessie K.: Whoa! That was awesome! Those were the legendary Knights of the Round Table of the Arthurian Legend.

Lola: Some of my favorite stories about them were all amazing.

Lori: They sure were. Try this one! WIND STYLE NINJA ART: GREAT BREAKTHROUGH SCYTHE RASENSHURIKEN!

Lori formed a powerful scythe of pure wind and she swung it and it fired a massive Rasenshuriken and it slammed into Carver and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lana: Whoa! Nice job big sis!

Naruto: Awesome work Lori!

Me: You said it bro. Great job Lori!

Dana: Great job.

Nico: Now guys lets not give her a swollen head.

Me: Sorry.

Dana: This is a good one. ICE STYLE NINJA ART: LONG LIVE THE KING!

Dana rose into the air and a massive blizzard formed behind her and she sang the song Long Live the King by Sabaton!

Dreams are seldom shattered, by a bullet in the dark

Rulers come and rulers go, will our kingdom fall apart?

Who shall we now turn to, when our leaders lost their heart?

Lives are lost but at what cost, will the grand dream fall apart?

Killed by his own or by his foes, turned the tide

Three hundreds years still no one knows, the secret remains

Broken dreams so grand, sing of his final stand, long live Carolus

Brought by soldiers hand, back to the fatherland, long live Carolus Rex

Brought him back to Sweden, where we put him in a chest

Years of war and agony, now the king can finally rest

What will be uncovered, from that cold November night

Fredrikshald, what happened there, will it ever come to light?

Killed by his own or by his foes, turned the tide

Three hundreds years still no one knows, the secret remains

Broken dreams so grand, sing of his final stand, long live Carolus

Brought by soldiers hand, back to the fatherland, long live Carolus Rex

For their honor, for their glory

For the men who fought and bled

A soldier from Sweden remembers the dead

Broken dreams so grand, sing of his final stand, long live Carolus

Brought by soldiers hand, back to the fatherland, long live Carolus

Broken dreams so grand, sing of his final stand, long live Carolus

Brought by soldiers hand, back to the fatherland, long live Carolus Rex

She fired a massive wave of ice and it turned into the army of King Charles XII of Sweden during the Siege of Fredriksten in 1718 and they slashed and blasted Carver all over and froze him in a block of ice.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Jessie K.: That was the army of King Charles XII from the Siege of Fredriksten in 1718. It was the decisive battle that lead to the end of the Great Northern War and the end of the Swedish Empire.

Lincoln: That's amazing!

Lana: I didn't know that even happened.

Lindsey Sweetwater: Me neither.

Me: I didn't know about that either.

Hunter: Ja. It's a really famous battle und the strangest part is that they haven't found out who killed King Charles XII after 302 years.

Me: Whoa! So his death is a huge mystery. One of the biggest ever.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) It sure is. It has been a huge mystery in Sweden's history for a long time.

Dana: That's amazing.

Me: Lets finish this freak for good.

Nico: With pleasure. (To Carver) You know what? We were planning on killing you. But now, we've decided to just throw you in space jail. You're not even as dangerous as Cyclonis anyway.

Me: That's right. Cyclonis and the Cyclonians are the biggest threat to this world. You are just a pawn in their plans.

Elena Validus: Lets get him.

Cybertron Crumplezone: Lets do it!

Elena Validus and Cybertron Crumplezone used the Velocitron Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Elena's powers 100-fold and turned Crumplezone's jet engine boosters into shoulder cannons.

Outback: Lets do it!

Matilda Honey: Lets get him!

Outback and Matilda used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Outback's cannon and Matilda's psychic powers 100-fold.

Elena Validus and Cybertron Crumplezone: NANOCHIP CANNON MEGABLAST!

Elena formed a cannon from her arm and fired and Crumplezone fired a massive laser blast.

Outback and Matilda Honey: PSYCHIC CANNON FIRESTORM!

Outback fired his cannon and Matilda fired a massive blast of psychic energy.

Aeleus fired a blast of earth and Reflector fired a powerful light blast.

Aeleus and Reflector: EARTHQUAKE LIGHTNING BLASTSTORM!

Aerrow fired a powerful blast of energy and I fired a blast of star energy.

Aerrow and me: STAR HAWK MEGABLAST!

Finn fired an energy arrow and Xerneas fired a powerful energy arrow!

Finn (Storm Hawks) and Xerneas: HAWK ENERGY ARROW FIRESTORM!

Junko fired a blast of energy and Talia fired a massive blast of Aurora Energy.

Junko and Talia: AURORA HAWK ENERGY BOMB!

Piper fired a fire blast and Zarya fired a barrage of energy arrows.

Piper (Storm Hawks) and Zarya: WOLF HAWK ARROWSTORM!

Stork fired a blast of energy and Varie fired a massive blast of water.

Stork and Varie: HAWK MAELSTROM BLAST!

Starling fired a massive blast of energy and Rachel fired a powerful blast of sonic energy.

Starling and Rachel S.D.: SONIC HAWK FIRESTORM!

The blasts all combined and they formed into a deadly hawk of energy and it slammed into Carver and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets finish him with our Final Smashes!

Zhuqiaomon: This is gonna be awesome! (Echoing) BLAZING HELIX!

Zhuqiaomon fired a massive helix blast of fire from his wings.

Aerrow: This is for ruining the good Sky Knight name! STORM HAWK WINGBURST!

Aerrow fired a massive blast of energy at Carver.

Lincoln: This will hurt more.

Fiona: Yeah!

Elena: It will shock you!

Lincoln, Fiona and Elena fired a massive blast of lightning.

Lincoln, Fiona and Elena: LIGHTNING MEGABLAST SURPRISE!

The blasts combined into a massive blast of lightning and all three final smash blasts hit Carver and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Carver was knocked down and defeated.

Carver was tied up and placed into our custody.

Me: You're gonna wish that we had killed you Carver.

Lori: (Enraged) THAT'S IT! I WILL KILL CYCLONIS FOR EVERYTHING SHE HAS DONE!

Me: Lori calm down!

Lori: NO! I AM LITERALLY SICK OF EVERYTHING SHE HAS DONE TO THIS WORLD! AND I WILL SET OUT ALONE AND…

SMASH!

Nico hit her on the back of the head with his club.

Lori: (Stupidly) Good night mother. Wind up the cat and put out the clock.

She was knocked out.

Nico: Sorry Lori.

Waffle Woman, Greiger, Calamitous and Saix appeared.

Waffle Woman: If you guys are still pissed off about Morton and Rotwood, don't worry. Vypra has a plan for when you run into them again.

Maria: Which is?

Calamitous: Her hitting them with the Curse of the Cobra and having them go back on the run.

William: I actually like that.

Greiger: I'm glad you do.

Me: If she could, have the Curse of The Cobra last for 6 months instead of 2 years.

Greiger: I'll see if she can do that. And have a good Mother's Day to you all. (he, Calamitous, Waffle Woman, and Saïx teleport out)

Me: Oh that's right! Lets head back to Earth and celebrate Mother's day.

Nico: Right.

We beamed Carver over to the Neptune Prison for Traitors and went back to Earth and we celebrated Mother's Day with our moms. We made them an awesome breakfast.

Manaphy, Horsea, Poromon and Poliwag: HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY EVERYONE!

Rita: Thank you all so much for breakfast guys.

Lori had a huge lump on her head.

Lori: You're welcome mom.

Laney: Happy Mother's Day.

We went to the mall and got our moms a great gift.

Aerrow: (To the viewers) Never be a traitor like Carver or we're gonna be coming for you. But have a great Mother's Day.

Me: Same to all of you guys from me.

---

Another awesome fanfic complete and another enemy of the Storm Hawks defeated.

Carver was a monster and he got what was coming to him for his treachery. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is the 2nd enemy of the Mysticons and we're gonna go after the first member of the Vexicons: Willa. We're gonna make that little imp pay the ultimate price.

See you all tomorrow.

Revenge of The Vexicons - Bat Imp

In the middle of North Dakota we were riding our Rapidash and we arrived at a beautiful city called Big City. It was the same kind of city that Ash and company went to before for celebrating the 1 year that Pikachu was with them.

Me: Here we are guys.

Fuse Man: So this is Big City?

Meowth: Yep this is it.

Ash: It's where we came to have a party for Pikachu ever since we became a team on the first year of our journey together.

Misty: I remember that. That was an amazing and awesome party.

Brock: It sure was and we had an amazing time.

Lincoln: That is so cool!

Laney: It sure is. I think that a bond with human and Pokemon is one of the strongest anyone can ever imagine.

Nico: It sure is Laney.

Meowth: Yep. And whenever we needed a day off, we would come here to relax and have fun.

Danny Phantom: Meowth, I didn't know that you came here whenever you needed a day off from Team Rocket.

Meowth: Yep.

Headstrong: Is there anything fun to do around here?

Ash: Lots of things to do. We'll show you.

Ash and company showed us around Big City and we saw all kinds of awesome things and more. We also saw what looked like a statue of Meowth.

Pipes: Meowth, weren't you trying to build a statue of yourself here?

Meowth: I sure was. It was a kooky story.

Me: We'll hear it later. Lets enjoy the sights and sounds and see what's here.

Nico: Okay.

We walked around some more and it was an amazing city and all that. It had all kinds of amazing buildings, sights, and more.

---

Later back home we were watching board games and playing cards outside. I was meditating by the Willow Tree.

Me: Oooooooommmm…

Nico was watching me.

Nico: Wow. Look at that state of concentration.

Laney: It's amazing.

Qin: It sure is.

Zarya: That's my awesome boyfriend for you. He is strong and so determined.

Talia: (Arabic Accent) He sure is.

Varie: Yep.

Rachel S.D.: Soon we will all be married to him.

Astrid: Just like me being married to Hiccup.

I was finished Meditating.

Me: Awesome.

Nerri: Great session.

Me: Thanks Nerri.

Arkayna then appeared and she had a look of panic on her face.

Arkayna: Guys! We've got big trouble! The Vexicons broke out of prison!

Me: Whoa! Who are the Vexicons?

Emerald: They are the evil versions of the Mysticons.

Arkayna went over their history.

---

The Vexicons are four female warriors of immense strength and abilities who make their official debut in Episode 30. They are called forth from Proxima's more powerful Dark Codex, who refers to them her "children."

They covet an ancient, lost scepter that had belonged to King Lorius the Glorious, which possessed the power of mind control. They race against the Mysticons to retrieve it from a hard-to-reach location somewhere in the farthest parts of the realm.

They also have an animal sidekick, a blue ferret that Mallory wears like a muffler. She is called Deeva.

Mallory

A staff-wielder with ice powers who is the dark counterpart of Princess Arkayna. Her phrase is "Ice Serpent, Strike!" from her deep blue Serpent/Snake Bracer, which she uses more than her three sisters whom she considers her "minions" rather than sisters.

She is the most power-hungry, independent, and ambitious of the sisterhood of evil; the first to attempt to overthrow her "mother" Proxima.

Kasha

An orange cat-girl on roller blades who is the Vexicon counterpart of Zarya. Her battle phrase is "Shadow Panther, Pounce!" from her bright orange Panther Bracer. Her weapon is "Energy Claws" and can hover in the air on skates.

Eartha

A large stone golum, who is the "evil" counterpart of Emerald the Dwarf. Her phrase is "Basilisk Stampede!" from her pink Basilisk Bracer.

Her weapon is stone hammer which emits a blast of pink energy when hit.

Willa

A tiny, purple winged imp who is the dark counterpart of Piper, which implies that imps and elves are natural enemies, as stone golems and dwarfs are.

Her battle phrase is "Fear the Nightmare!" from her purple Bat Bracer to counter Piper's yellow Phoenix Bracer.

Her additional ability is emitting a ray of dark purple smoke from her hands, an attack she calls "Boom Doom" in contrast to Piper's Pixie Blast attack.

She can also teleport her and others, over long and short distances in a flash of deep purple smoke, by calling out "Quicker than a Flicker."

She is the only Vexicon who does not actually wield a magical weapon.

Magical Abilities and Weaponry

Mallory

Possessing very strong cryokinetic and frigiokinetic powers, she can emit strong beams of solid ice from her blue Crystal Ice Staff. She holds the dark power of the Serpent. She can encase her opponents in a solid block of ice, and erect an ice shield that can defect Arkayna's fiery beams with ease. Once donning the half of Necrafa's mask, her Vexicon abilities seemed to have grown tremendously and developed more.

Kasha

Has razor-sharp energy claws that can slice through anything and can move at high speeds via energy skates. She wields the dark power of the Panther. She can also fire a stream of red energy beams from her claws. She naturally possesses superhuman hearing, superhuman smell, enhanced dexterity, enhanced climbing and feline reflexes.

Eartha

Her body of hard rock enables her to turn into a large boulder that can defect energy-based attacks. She holds the dark power of the Basilisk. Her weapon is a hammer, from which she could fire a strong energy burst when she was given a grater boost of strength from the rare maleficent ellipse. She can regenerate her rock solid body if need to.

Willa

She is able to emit a unusually powerful blast of pure dark energy from her hands, and has winged flight via her pixie wings. She holds the dark power of the Bat. She can also teleport herself and her fellow Vexicons over short or long distances in a flash of dark purple smoke by saying "Quicker than a flicker".

Her strongest dark energy blast is what she calls her "Boom Doom" attack. She is the only Vexicon whose special abilities are used more than once, and whose Vexicon weapon is never known.

Spells Cast

Only Mallory has been seen casting various spells of dark magic per Proxima's orders:

Evil magic swirl and eddy

Hex this phone

Do it already

Used to hex Zarya's cellfie to trap her into the highest and most difficult level of her newly addicted video game

Used to locate the rest of Eartha's stone-hard body

Boulders roll

Knights they roam

Lead us to Eartha

So we can go home

Cast to fully call upon and release the Spectral Hand's tentacles of pure evil from within the tower-like ruins from within it was imprisoned for millennia

Ancient ruins beneath this isle

Let's conquer this realm

Let's do it in style

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: So the Vexicons are like the RowdyRuff Boys version of the Mysticons.

Zarya: That's a good way to put it.

Qin: That's bad. They are the evil counterparts of the Mysticons.

Me: So we have a renegade Ice Witch, a Catwoman, a Golem and a Winged Imp running around.

Arkayna: Right. And Mallory is the most dangerous one of them all.

Me: Okay so we'll take down each of them from weakest to strongest. Willa is first.

Maria: At least we know that Eartha's a good guy now.

Zarya: Knowing our luck, we might have to fight her dark side.

Me: That is a strong possibility.

Arkayna: Let's focus on tracking down Willa first.

Me: Okay. The hunt is on.

We went into the city. We kept our eyes peeled for Willa and it was gonna be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Me: Stay alert everyone.

Laney: Okay.

May: She could be anywhere.

Anna: Piper from what I remember, Elves and Imps have been major league enemies for centuries.

Piper (Mysticons): Yes they have. It's not pretty.

Lola: Wow.

Laney: That's awful. I've read that Imps have been known to cause a lot of trouble.

Lincoln: Yeah they are very troublesome.

Shikamaru: That's usually what I would say about them.

Lincoln: Sorry Shikamaru.

Piper (Mysticons): But yes they are a nuisance. They cause a lot of mischief and trouble.

Zarya: Yeah and it's not good.

Me: Not a good sign.

I then sensed something coming and I kicked it and sent it crashing into a mailbox and I saw that it was WILLA!

Piper (Mysticons): Willa!

Willa: Hey, Piper. You're not still mad about all the crap I did, are you?

Piper: (glares at her) What do you think?

Willa: Yep. You're still mad!

Me: Start praying Willa.

Willa: What are you going to do? Kill me?

Nico: Nah. We're going to throw you into one of our prisons without any powers. I wonder if that will end up with you becoming a normal human.

Me: It will.

Ebon and Number 7 appeared.

Me: Ebon and Number 7? I thought you guys already had your turn a couple of days ago.

Ebon: We decided to go again.

Number 7: Everyone else is still looking for Rotwood and Morton. So we went again.

Me: Ah. That makes sense.

Francis: Still no sign of Rotwood and Morton?

Ebon: Nope. For scum like them, they hide really well.

Me: Rotwood is a smart guy and he likes to always be one step ahead.

Nico: Yep.

We heard a sneeze.

Me: Bless you.

Ebon: Oh. That wasn't me. It was our newest recruit.

Out came THE COMMON COLD!

---

The Common Cold is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is an eternally ill villain who wishes to spread his cold to everyone else in the world and uses a machine to fire mucus from his nose at his enemies. He is also the uncle of Anna Worthington.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny who also voiced Knightbrace and Chester in the same series.

History

The Common Cold first appears in Operation: T.O.M.M.Y., in which Numbuh Two's brother, Tommy, aids the Common Cold out of jealousy for the KND, building a machine for him that transforms him into the "Flu Bug". Numbuh Two's mother used chicken soup to counter the machine and defeat the villain.

The Common Cold never got a starring role in an episode again, but made several minor appearances.

---

Numbuh 1: The Common Cold!

Lola: Not this disgusting freak!

Common Cold: That's right! There's no cure for The Common (Gears up to sneeze) I'm the Common Cold. (SNEEZES)

Me: Bless you.

Yuko Tani: I remember burning this eternally sick freak.

Lincoln: I can't help but feel sorry for this guy. He's really sick.

Yuko Tani: I know. He's always sick.

Robin: No kidding.

Qin: So he's the Common Cold.

Numbuh 1: Yep that's him.

Numbuh 4: He's a really sick guy.

Common Cold: You thought Slade as bad? I'm even worse!

Robin: Well, at least you won't end up stressing me out.

Tara: Same with me and Slade was the monster that destroyed my life.

?: Don't forget about me.

We saw a figure come out and it was REPELLATOR from episode 113, 114 and 115 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Lord Zedd, seeing as how the Power Rangers are on Edenoi decides to take advantage of the situation and has Finster create Repellator, despite his doubts it will do any good. Repellator immediately transports to a park near Angel Grove. There, he runs into Kimberly, who was suffering from a cold. Their battle ends in a stalemate, as though he was able to scramble Kimberly's molecules upon touch, he also caught her cold. Feeling under the weather, Repellator returned to the Moon Palace to meet Lord Zedd and Rita's wrath, begging for something to take for his cold. He is sent to Finster. Though Finster advises 7 to 10 nights bed rest, Repellator urges him to just give him something to feel temporarily better. He refuses Finster's inoculation, but accepts his bad-tasting tummy medicine. Repellator returns to Earth, feeling refreshed and somehow with the ability to throw his powers. He finds Bulk and Skull pretending to be Power Rangers to a couple of girls and goes after them. Zedd worsens the situation by enlarging him, with no

Rangers in sight. However, just then he finds that the Rangers have just returned (from Edenoi) and they face him with Thunder Megazord and White Tigerzord. The combined might of these two battle machines led to Repellator's doom, with the Thunder Sabre doing him in.

---

Tommy Oliver: Repellator!

Kimberly Ann Hart: Not this guy again!

Repellator: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to cause mayhem while the rangers were away and you got Kimberly's cold and got sick yourself!

Repellator: That's right. I'm surprised that monsters like myself made by Lord Zedd and Rita can get sick. I didn't think I could get sick.

Me: Me neither and we never missed an episode with all of you guys.

Repellator: I can see that. You all watched us on TV.

Laney: Yep.

Repellator: (to Bulk and Skull) I remember you two. You were the ones who said you were Rangers! But I'm guessing that was a bluff, wasn't it?

Bulk: It sure was!

Tommy Oliver: I'm actually surprised that you caught Kimberly's cold before.

Repellator: Hey, even monsters like me get sick. But now that I'm better, I get to fight all 6 of you!

Gia: Oh, it's gonna be more then that!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Storm rangers!

Me: They aren't the only ones!

The Power Rangers from over the course of 26+ years minus the Ninja Storm Rangers transformed!

Repellator: WHAT!?

Me: Now you're in for a wild ride.

My Signer mark then glowed!

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer incoming.

Out came Roman.

Me: Roman. Nice to see you.

Roman: Same to you

Eddy: (to Roman) No offense, dude. But your brother Rex has major issues!

Roman: Yeah he has really lost his mind. He is that determined to kill J.D. no matter what.

Me: So I have seen. But he puts up one helluva really good fight.

Roman: Indeed he does.

Willa: This is gonna be a good fight.

Me: It sure is.

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren yet again.

Me: Lets dance!

We went at them!

Battle 1: Ebon

Lily was facing Ebon.

Lily: This is gonna be awesome.

Ebon: Indeed it will be.

Lily: OWLA, SPREAD MY WINGS!

Lily turned into Night Owl!

Lily: Yeah! I have new techniques to show you Ebon.

Ebon: Show me what you got.

Lily went at him and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and fired blasts of water at Ebon and they hit him and splashed him all over the place.

Lily: Watch this! OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: JÖRMUNGARDR!

Lily fired a massive blast of water and it formed into the legendary Midgard Serpent, Jörmungardr and it wrapped Ebon in its body and squeezed very hard and crushed him all over.

Jessie K.: WHOA! That was the serpent of Midgard, Jörmungardr. That was really well done Lily.

Lily: Thanks Jessie. Check this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: ÆGIR!

Lily fired a massive wave of water and it formed into Ægir, the personification and god of the sea in Norse Myth and he drenched and covered Ebon all over.

Jessie K.: WHOA! That was awesome! That was Ægir, the god of the Sea in Norse Myth.

Lily: Thanks Jessie. Watch this one. OCEANS STYLE NINJA ART:

RÁN!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into Rán, the goddess of the Sea and she slammed into Ebon and drenched and smashed him all over.

Jessie K.: Wow! That was Rán, the goddess of the Sea.

Lily: Yep. Hunter and J.D. have been teaching me all about Norse myth and it's really interesting.

Jessie K.: I can see that. Well done.

---

Battle 2: Number 7

---

Ed turned into Edzilla and he was facing Number 7.

Edzilla: ED SMASH ROBOT!

Edzilla punched and thrashed Number 7 all over with powerful fury and he knocked her down.

Edzilla: ROADKILL!

---

Battle 3: COMMON COLD!

---

Yuko Tani and Robin were facing the Common Cold!

Yuko Tani: I can't help but feel sorry for you. No one likes being sick and it's one of the most unpleasant feelings ever.

Common Cold: I know. It has been with me ever since and I use it as a weapon.

Robin: Well it still is a bad thing.

Common Cold: Prepare to get really sick!

He charged up his mucus gun and laughed malevolently and fired a snot missile and it went at Yuko and her fire aura flared up and vaporized the germs and snot into nothing!

Yuko Tani: Nice try snot breath!

Yuko then kicked the Common Cold in the face and fired a blast of fire at him and burned him and Robin smashed his face all over with his staff and kicked him all over the place.

Robin: You need to go see a doctor.

---

Battle 4: FATHER!

---

Qin was firing blasts of fire at a bunch of Putty's that appeared and she was vaporizing them all over the place.

Qin: You Putty's have failed this world!

?: Just like you will!

Qin turned and she saw the ruthless leader of the Adult Villains: FATHER!

---

Benedict Uno, also known as Father, is the main antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is one of the most powerful villains in the show, and one of the most malicious, being one of the few to actually attempt to kill members of the KND. He is the adoptive father and the boss of The Delightful Children From Down The Lane. He was later revealed to be Nigel Uno/Numbuh One's uncle.

Father was voiced by Maurice LaMarche and Jeff Bennett as Benedict while in Cartoon Network: Punch Time Explosion he was voice by Nolan North who also did the Penguin in Batman: Arkham Series.

Father was the brother of Monty Uno (Numbuh Zero) and son of Grandfather. Unlike his brother, Ben was too afraid to rise up against his father, and ran away. He later grew resentful of his brother overthrowing their tyrannical parent.

At some unknown point, he gained his powers and became the villain known as Father. He secretly kidnapped Sector Z and turned them into The Delightful Children From Down The Lane, adopting them as his own children, resulting in the Kids Next Door losing all contact with Sector Z, until the events of Operation: Z.E.R.O. when Numbuh One's father Monty (Numbuh Zero) discovered the truth and temporarily recommissioned them.

In a crossover with Villainous, it's revealed that he buys his technology from the Black Hat Organization, however, it's uncertain if this info is canon.

Appearance

Father is a black silhouette of a man with a pipe and pompadour. He is slender, but apparently still well-built, and unlike the other characters in the show, who are made up of round shapes, he is made up of mostly sharp angles. However, this is later revealed to be only a suit, and underneath it he has red, square glasses with yellow lenses, black hair, red overalls, a white dress shirt, and a bow tie.

Personality

Father has a very harsh temper, often bursting into flames whenever he gets angry. He also is shown to be sassy, particularly when confronted with stupid questions from various henchmen. However, he is also charismatic, and a skilled liar, once even convincing the entire KND organization that he truly wanted to help them, despite the fact they all knew of his previous attempts to destroy them.

He seems to despise children who dare to defy adults, tolerating only his own. He frequently refers to children as "snot-nosed brats" and other insults generally directed at kids. He is one of the most malicious villains in the show, often attempting to kill, control, or otherwise torment children. His cruelty is perhaps best shown in his attempt to bake a bunch of children into a giant cake for the DCFDTL, which would have resulted in mass murder and cannibalism of children.

However, he does still have a lighter side, attending villain parties and events, and when in a good mood, behaving like a normal, friendly adult.

Powers and Abilities

Father is incredibly powerful, and his abilities include:

Fire Manipulation (his most widely used ability): Father is able to create flames, construct shapes out of flames, all while remaining unscathed.

Shapeshifting (his second most widely used ability): He can turn into black silhouette animals, or even full-fledged copies of other characters, once turning his head into a perfect copy of Numbuh 86's, and used that to trick the KND into leaving a vault unguarded (except for a few new recruits)

Teleportation: Rarely seen, he sometimes can teleport to another end of the room to prevent his opponents from escaping.

Telekinesis: Only seen once, he was able to lift himself and some giant candles

High intellect: Aside from being cunning with his plans, he is also highly skilled in technology, presumably inventing the Delightfulization Chamber.

Acting/convincing liar: Father is able to easily conceal his evil intentions when necessary, and possesses great charisma, allowing him to manipulate both children and adults, even those who know of his past deeds and untrustworthiness.

Baking: At least two of the unrealistically delicious cakes baked for the Delightful Children From Down The Lane was baked by Father.

Weaknesses

Father is weak to the cold, once being overpowered by ice cream, and reduced to a shuddering mess (oddly, he is seen eating ice cream in Operation Zero, implying that it's only harmful to him if he is actually covered in it and can otherwise eat it with no problems). Water also can neutralize his fire abilities. He also once seemed to experience some form of PTSD upon Numbuh 362 attempting to force feed him broccoli, curling up in a ball and begging his own father not to make him eat it. He also appears to have self esteem issues due to his relationship with his father.

---

Qin: WHOA! Are you Father?

Father: That's right you little brat! I will soon kill you like I should've killed all of the Kids Next Door!

Qin: I could use a much better challenge. Mr. Burns is no fun anymore.

Father: Perhaps and he does have a reputation of pissing people off.

Qin: Like you do. What you were gonna do to all children was wipe them out and result in the extinction of the entire human race and I won't allow that.

Father: Kids are a menace to this world and humans will be a lot better off without them!

Qin: YOU SHUT THE FUCK UP!

Qin flared up her aura and transformed! She was now in her Super Angel 20,000 Komodo Firestorm form!

Father: (Enraged Roar!) (Fire Aura explosively flares up!) NO ONE TALKS THAT WAY TO ME! ESPECIALLY TO YOUR OWN FATHER!

Qin: You are not my father! My father is dead! Both my parents are dead. You give all loving fathers everywhere a really bad name!

In the eastern lands so cursed

Time to make a stand

Tsar has scorched his nation's land

Nothing to be found

Hunger grasp the soliders heart

20 000 men strong

Listen, excuse for a king

Trust me, this fight you can't win

Poltava

Rode to certain death and pain

Poltava

Swedish soldiers met their bane

Poltava

Sacrificed their lives in vain

Poltava

In the shade of morning mist

Advancing on their foe

Bullets break the silent air

Wasted battleplan

Swedish forces stand alone

King has left command

Rule is left to lesser men

Waiting for their chance

Listen, obey my command

Hear me, or die by my hand

Russian armies blocked their way

20 000 lost that day

They bled the ground

Peace they found

There's no sign of victory

King Carolus had to flee

And leave the land

Leave command

Madness, curse your feeble horde

Fear me, you'll die by my sword

Fuse Man: Right!

Headstrong: Lets hit her with all our techniques at once.

Me: Good idea.

Fuse Man and Headstrong used the Animatron and Earth Cyber Planet Keys and it enhanced Fuse Man's lightning abilities and Headstrong's Acid 100-fold.

Pipes used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and Danny Phantom used the Ghost Zone Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Pipes's Corrosive Gas and Danny's Ghost Powers 100-fold.

Fuse Man and Headstrong LIGHTNING ACID WAVE!

Fuse Man fired a blast of lightning and Headstrong fired a blast of acid.

Pipes and Danny Phantom: CORROSIVE ECTO-BLAST!

Pipes fired a blast of corrosive gas and Danny fired a powerful Ecto-Ray.

Maria and Rubberband Man: AQUA MAELSTROM FIST!

Maria fired a blast of water and Rubberband Man grew his fist and sent it at Willa.

Maria and Piper (Mysticons): PHOENIX AQUA MAELSTROM!

Maria fired a blast of water and Piper fired a Phoenix made of fire.

Lincoln and Emerald: LIGHTNING UNICORN STAMPEDE!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and Emerald fired a Unicorn of Pink Energy.

Lily as Night Owl and Zarya: STAR WOLF PACKSTRIKE!

Lily fired a blast of star energy and Zarya fired a blast of energy that turned into a wolf.

Lori and Arkayna: CYCLONE DRAGON STRIKE!

Lori fired a blast of wind and Arkayna fired a powerful blast of energy that turned into a dragon. The blasts all combined and they struck Willa and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Awesome! Lets finish her with Final Smashes!

Arkayna: Right! DRAGON FIRE STORMBLAST!

Arkayna fired a massive blast of green fire from her staff and it turned into a dragon.

Zarya: WOLF MOON FIREBLAST!

Zarya fired a blast of blue fire and it turned into a Wolf.

Emerald: UNICORN SWORD BLADESTAMPEDE!

Emerald fired a barrage of blades of pink energy and they formed into a Unicorn.

Piper (Mysticons): PHOENIX FIRE RINGBLAST!

Piper fired a blast of fire from her rings and they formed into a Phoenix.

The blasts each hit Willa and knocked her out in a powerful explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Willa you have failed this universe.

We tied her up and Lucy Loud stripped Willa of her powers and made them her own.

Lucy Loud: I am now the 5th Mysticon.

Rocky: Awesome job Lucy.

Lucy Loud: Thanks Rocky.

Roman: How were you able to Mega Evolve your Rapidash?

Me: I just discovered that there are minerals for many more kinds of Pokemon. It took a lot of investigative digging. But it works well for all kinds of Pokemon.

Zarya: That's my boyfriend for you. He can do anything.

Ed: Maybe you guys should try and Mega Evolve the rest of your Pokemon again.

Ebon: You know what? We'll try that.

Number 7: Enjoy the rest of your time in Drake City. (she, Ebon, Roman, and Common Cold teleport out)

Me: We will.

We arrested Willa and locked her up in the Comet Lovejoy Prison with Dolores Umbridge.

We went back to Earth.

Piper (Mysticons): (To the viewers) Awesome adventure today! We brought down one of the Vexicons and now we have 2 more to go.

Me: Yep. Next up is Kasha.

Nico: And we'll be ready for her.

We enjoyed the rest of our day.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done and the first of the Vexicons defeated.

The Vexicons are gonna be a tough force to face and we're gonna be ready for them. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is Tron from 2010 and we're gonna go inside an awesome computer world and destroyed the evil computer virus CLU and make him pay for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Into the World of Tron 2010

We were walking through the streets of the city. We were walking to the mansion of Gotham Royal York district attorney Harvey Dent, formerly known to Batman and all of the his enemies as TWO FACE!

---

Harvey Dent, better known as Two-Face is the secondary antagonist of the television series Batman: The Animated Series and its spinoffs. He is the former head of the District Attorney's office and Bruce Wayne's best friend, but after suffering from his multiple personality disorder and an explosion that scared half of his body, Harvey's darker personality took over and turned him into Two-Face. Two-Face continues to be a major threat to Batman and Gotham City.

He was voiced by Richard Moll.

Harvey Dent suffered from deep-seated psychological trauma resulting from years of repressing anger. As a child, another personality was created inside Harvey, who would come to be called Big Bad Harv. Big Bad Harv would sometimes show himself whenever Harvey were to become incredibly angry, causing him to seek therapy.

As Harvey Dent

Prior to his disfigurement, Dent was a childhood friend of Bruce Wayne and even his best friend. It is shown that Harvey is perfectly willing to prosecute during Man-Bat's rampage.

Harvey once dated Pamela Isely, and even wanted to marry her. However, it turned out that Pamela actually desired to kill Harvey after his construction of Stonegate Penitentiary nearly caused a rare species of flower to go extinct. One week into their relationship, Pamela poisoned Harvey using a toxin derived from the same flowers, causing him to be hospitalized. Batman managed to defeat

Isely, who now called herself Poison Ivy, and create an antidote before the poison could take full effect.

Harvey would later start a crusade to the arrest the mob boss Rupert Thorne and to become elected district attorney. He also planned to marry his girlfriend Grace Lamont.

As Big Bad Harv

However, it was during this time that Harvey's severe anger repression started to get the best of him, creating a persona known as Big Bad Harv that would surface and lash out when in stressful situations. This would lead Rupert Thorne to getting a hold of his psychiatric file and creating plans to blackmail him unless he were to do him favors. However, as Thorne was trying to blackmail Harvey, Big Bad Harv broke out after Harvey tells Thorne that he's talking to the wrong Harvey, and he had a fight with Thorne and his men. When the brawl ensued between Dent and Thorne's men, a freak explosion horribly disfigured the left side of Dent's body after one of Thorne's men tried to shoot him down with a gun as Batman realized that he has failed to save Harvey. The trauma was powerful enough to force his alternate personality to dominate, and left Harvey in a state where right and wrong no longer held any meaning.

As Two-Face

After the accident, he became a twisted vigilante known as "Two-Face" and soon began his own crusade to bring Thorne down, something the law deliberately failed to do. He feels as though this is the way he was meant to be, living in a world of chaos, without the order and justice he once upheld and believed in.

world revolves around chance, more specifically the flip of his coin which was clean on one side, and covered by scars on the other. Every decision Two-Face makes falls on the flip of his coin. It is judge, jury, and executioner. When the "Good Heads" turns up, Harvey is in control. When it's "Bad Heads", however, Two-Face shines and becomes more dominant than Harvey can ever be. Yet, there always seems to be a piece of Harvey which is strong enough to linger within the mind of Two-Face when he is committing his ungodly acts. However, Two-Face is the dominant personality. In subsequent episodes of the show, Two-Face became the supervillain he is in the comics.

Two-Face's opposing personalities are constantly at war, but as Batman learns, it is usually the bad side that wins. Two-Face moderates his inner conflict with a special coin that is scratched on one side. He uses this coin as the arbiter of his own brand of demented justice, flipping the coin to determine his decisions. Without the coin, Two-Face is lost in a world in which no clear answer exists, and Batman understood he could always use this weakness to his advantage. And despite Two-Face and Batman's constant fights with each other, Bruce Wayne never gives up on his old friend.

In order to strike back at Thorne, Two-Face robbed his various bookies with the help of twin brothers Min and Max and later stole Thorne's file and escaped from Batman. He then decided to meet with Grace again, however, Rupert Thorne and his gang, having been secretly tracking Grace, arrived and stole the file back, though he is eventually defeated. Just as Two-Face flipped his coin to decide the fate of Thorne, Batman threw a crate of silver dollars, mixing them in midair with Two-Face's coin and causing him to lose it. Unable to decide without it, Two-Face collapses into the floor, throwing a tantrum of rage as Grace comforts him.

Later on, Two-Face, along with Joker and Penguin, were invited to an auction selling a tape containing Batman's secret identity organized by Dr. Hugo Strange. However, the villains turn on him when he unknowingly played a tape forged by Batman. Notably, when Strange tries to tell them Batman's identity to save himself, Two-Face stated "I know Bruce Wayne. If he is Batman, I'm the king of England!"

While on the run from Batman, Two-Face joins Joker, Penguin, Killer Croc and later Poison Ivy (who he still shares resentment towards) in a poker game in which they start to tell stories about the times they came closest to killing Batman. In his story, Two-Face and his gang strapped Batman to a giant penny placed on a catapult; If it landed face down, Batman would be squashed, if it landed face up, Batman's bones would shatter. When Two-Face's coin launched, the Dark Knight cut free from the ropes in midair using Two-Face's own coin. Much to Two-Face's irritation, Batman got to keep the giant penny as a trophy.

Another time, Two-Face used behind-the-scenes manipulation to have Gil Mason infiltrate Gotham's justice system as the Deputy Police Commissioner. Mason's high level of physical abilities earned Commissioner Gordon's trust and brought down Rupert Thorne; Mason's mysterious informant is obviously Two-Face. He has Mason arrest Gordon after framing the Commissioner as being partners with Thorne. While Barbara Gordon and Dick Grayson eventually each respectively figure out Mason's true nature, Two-Face almost executes Matches Malone [Batman]. Next, he engineers a prison break to make Gordon look guilty, as well as to execute the Commissioner so Mason can take over his job permanently and help Two-Face consolidate power over Gotham's criminal acts. After Batgirl saves Gordon, Two-Face is defeated by Batman and Robin, while Batgirl captures Mason.

Two-Face then acted as a prosecutor when Batman's rouges gallery held the Dark Knight prisoner in Arkham in a kangaroo court.

After some time, doctors agreed his therapy had been effective enough to stabilize Two-Face's mind, which then allowed the opportunity for surgery upon Harvey Dent's damaged side. Just when the surgery was about to begin, masked mobsters broke into the operating room. Stating only that their 'boss' wanted to handle Dent personally, two cars split from the scene. One took Two-Face to Stonegate, the Penguin's current whereabouts, while the other vehicle was registered to Rupert Thorne. Both criminals had had histories of conflict with both Two-Face and Dent, but neither claimed involvement with Batman and Robin. In truth, Two-Face kidnapped himself to prevent his original personality from eliminating himself completely. Staging the break in, he arranged for his thugs to break him out of the operation and staged a two-pronged getaway, both to allude suspicion and to leave a trademark hint.

Though Batman discovered the true kidnapper, he was unprepared for the ambush Two-Face had devised. Capturing Batman, Two-Face placed his life in the flip of the coin. During their earlier struggle, Batman switched the real coin with a trick one, designed to always land on its side. However, Two-Face could not handle the indecision, and chased his coin on to a support beam overhanging Gotham. When the coin fell off in a desperate gamble, he managed to grab it, but fell off in the process and was unable to pull himself back up. Batman caught hold of Two-Face at the last second, but needed Two-Face to pull himself up. The coin, however, could not decide for him; the choice was up to Two-Face alone. His original personality resurged for a moment, and he dropped the coin, but Two-Face took control once more and sabotaged the effort. He plummeted, but Batman and Robin managed to save him and themselves in time. Two-Face was once again sent to Arkham for more psychiatric treatment. Still, Dent emerged once more to thank his old friend for not giving up on him.

In the spinoff comic book series The Adventures of Batman & Robin, Two-Face is close to recovery until the Joker, as a twisted prank, convinces him that Grace is cheating on him with Bruce Wayne. Afterwards Two-Face flies into a rage, kidnaps Grace, and tries to kill Bruce Wayne. When Batman foils his plan, he and Grace finally realize that Two-Face will never be cured.

Much later, Two-Face kidnapped Tim Drake and made an attempt to kill him before Tim was rescued by Batman. The young boy found himself inspired by Bruce's desire to stand up to people like Two-Face. In combination with his own rebellious nature, Tim would unwittingly steal the Robin costume from the Batcave while Two-Face reacquired chemicals and held the entire city hostage, threatening to create a toxic gas unless he received twenty-million dollars by 2 AM. However, the city refused to pay and after a two-minute warning, Two-Face activated the chemicals. Batman and Batgirl arrived to stop them, and shortly thereafter, the new Robin. The trio stopped the machine and apprehended Two-Face once more.

As the Judge

In the final episode, Two-Face's personality fragmented a second time, creating a third personality called "The Judge", a violent court-themed vigilante that attempted to eliminate all of Gotham's denizens, even brutally attacking and defeating master criminals such as Penguin, Killer Croc, and The Riddler. Two-Face, looking to eradicate this new threat to him, had no idea that he himself was The Judge. At the end of the episode, he was sent back to Arkham. However, Harvey ended up being psychology disturbed, constantly hearing the Judge's voice inside his head. After this event, he was presumably sentenced to stay in Arkham for the rest of his life.

With us was Bane, Kirk Langstrom, and Firefly.

Qin: So we're heading to the house of Harvey Dent?

Me: Yep. He's a very dear friend of Batman and he used to be the former enemy of him called Two-Face.

Qin: I've heard of him. I heard he had half of his body severely burned in an explosion.

Me: Yep.

Maria: Rupert Thorne was to blame for all of that. But thanks to me and my curing water, I healed Harvey and we got rid of his Big Bad Harv side forever.

William: That's right Maria.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) Last time I saw señor Harvey he was doing really well and has been cured. I have often wondered what happened that caused him to return to normal.

Me: He has been forever indebted to Maria and the Redemption Squad ever since.

Harley Quinn: Yep.

Lincoln: I'm glad we helped him out.

Firefly: Good deed you all did.

We arrived at his mansion.

Me: Here we are guys.

We knocked on the door and Harvey answered.

Harvey Dent: Hello everyone. I see you all have new members now.

Blizzard Man: We have a lot to catch you up on.

Me: Yep. A lot of things have happened ever since our last encounter.

Harvey Dent: Bane? Firefly? What are you two doing here?

Firefly: Relax. We're not here to fight. We came here to chat and reminisce on old times.

Iris: In that case, place your weapons by the entrance.

Iris' Axew: Axew!

Firefly put his heat lasers by the entrance while Bane did the same for his venom device before sitting by us.

Harvey got us some tea and soda and we were talking.

Harvey Dent: I really remember all the times we spent together.

Firefly: No kidding. But there are several of us that aren't here today.

Bane: I'll always remember Riddler, Penguin, Killer Croc, Mad Hatter, Scarecrow, and Killer Moth.

Scrapper: What about Joker?

Firefly: Dude, fuck Joker.

Me: Yeah. Fuck the Joker.

Swerve: As far as I'm concerned, Riddler and Penguin are the only two we haven't taken down yet.

Harvey: Any idea about what the two of them are doing right now?

Maria: Well, Penguin's taking it easy on crime and running the Iceberg Lounge. But Riddler seems to be laying low. Poor guy looked pretty shaken up by the battle with Thanos.

Me: Yeah. The Battle with Thanos was the most devastating battle we've ever been in. Because of him we've suffered two casualties: Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser.

Bowser Jr.: Yeah.

Harvey: Oh my gosh! I've heard about that. Thank God you all are all right.

Me: Thank you Harvey.

Kirk Langstrom: We never have to see Thanos again now.

Bane: Si.

Firefly: Yeah. But It was a terrifying battle and everyone made sure that he never terrorizes the universe again.

Lana: That's for sure.

Poison Ivy: I'm glad. And Harvey, I'm sorry I tried to kill you.

Harvey: It's all right Pamela. You were doing what you thought was right for the environment.

We reminisced on all kinds of fun times with everyone.

---

Back at the estate, we were watching Jack Atlas play the piano and Carly was with us to listen. Misty Tredwell was watching too.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) This song is from my heart to you Carly.

Jack Atlas was playing Can You Feel the Love Tonight by Elton John.

Jack Atlas: (Singing Divinely)

There's a calm surrender

To the rush of day
When the heat of a rolling wave
Can be turned away
An enchanted moment
And it sees me through
It's enough for this restless warrior
Just to be with you
And can you feel the love tonight?
It is where we are
It's enough for this wide-eyed wanderer
That we've got this far
And can you feel the love tonight? (Tonight)
How it's laid to rest?
It's enough to make kings and vagabonds
Believe the very best
There's a time for everyone
If they only learn
That the twisting kaleidoscope
Moves us all in turn
There's a rhyme and reason
To the wild outdoors
When the heart of this star-crossed voyager

Beats in time with yours

And can you feel the love tonight? (Tonight)

It is where we are

It's enough for this wide-eyed wanderer

That we've got this far

And can you feel the love tonight? (Tonight)

How it's laid to rest?

It's enough to make kings and vagabonds

Believe the very best

It's enough to make kings and vagabonds

Believe the very best

The room turned into the beauty of a beautiful ocean at sunset and it was amazing. It also showed Jack Atlas's Red Dragon Archfiend and a hummingbird having fun in the sunset. When the song was done, we cheered wildly. I had tears coming down my face.

Me: (Sniffs) That was beautiful.

Carly Carmine: Oh Jack! That was so beautiful!

Carly then kissed Jack passionately.

Misty Tredwell: That was really well played.

Lola: It sure was. I didn't know Jack could play the piano so beautifully.

Laney: Me neither.

Nico: Awesome performance.

Vince: It sure was.

Carol: Great song.

Lily: Awesome.

Lisa Simpson then came in and she was crying.

Me: Lisa what's wrong?

Lisa Simpson: (Crying) My teacher hates me!

Homer: Oh Lisa why do you say that?

Lisa Simpson: She's a teacher I had in Springfield that hates me!

Me: Wait a second, was she Ms. Cantwell from Season 24 episode 15?

Lisa Simpson: Yes that's her. How did you know that?

Me: Remember, we watched the entirety of the show for a long time and I can't believe that Ms. Cantwell hates you. We're gonna have to have a very stern talk with her later on.

Nico: Good idea.

Me: What did Ms. Cantwell do Lisa?

Lisa Simpson: She gave me "F"s on all my tests.

She showed me her test papers and I saw that she got all the answers right and Ms. Cantwell gave her an F on every test and put a skull and crossbones on it and it had "I HATE YOU LISA" on it.

Me: This is insane! Ms. Cantwell is sabotaging you.

Vince: That's nuts! I can't believe that this Ms. Cantwell hates you so much Lisa.

Me: Is there any particular reason why she despises you Lisa?

Lisa Simpson: She hates me because I'm more prettier than her.

Me: That sounds like a very obvious reason. She's jealous of you because of how pretty you are. Just like on TV.

Edna Krabappel: It sure is. HA! But I hate the woman as well.

Bart: I was brought into her classroom and made her teaching a terrible hell.

Me: I remember seeing that. You really unleashed Hell on her Bart. But then again they don't call Bartholomew J. Simpson the little Hellraiser for nothing.

We laughed.

Nico: (Laughs) You got that right J.D.

Me: Yep.

Laney: I remember that. It was so funny.

We laughed some more.

Me: But it looks like we have another one of the Springfield Scumbags running amuck. This time at school.

Lincoln: Yep.

Martin Prince: I hated Ms. Cantwell. She is a bad teacher.

Lincoln: I hate her too.

Laney: I know. I hate her too.

Me: Looks like Lisa Simpson has an Archenemy.

Lisa Simpson: Wow. I sure do. So this is what it's like having an arch nemesis.

Me: It sure is something huh?

Lisa Simpson: It sure is.

Bart: It's really something Lis. Remember when I had Sideshow Bob as an Arch Nemesis?

Lisa Simpson: How can I forget?

Sideshow Bob: (British Accent) I can't believe I was that impulsive and that intent on killing you Bart.

Bart: It's all water under the bridge.

Lincoln: And that revenge on Bart was all because of Krusty.

Lola: I know.

We laughed some more.

Later we were watching movies and we were watching Tron from 1982.

---

Kevin Flynn (Jeff Bridges) is a software engineer formerly employed by ENCOM, having been fired by Ed Dillinger (David Warner) who stole several video games designed by Flynn to gain a series of promotions. Flynn attempts to obtain evidence of Dillinger's action, but is prevented by the Master Control Program (MCP), an artificial intelligence that controls the ENCOM mainframe and seeks control over other mainframes too. Dillinger attempts to stop the MCP after it reveals its intentions to hack into and gain control of the Pentagon and Kremlin, but he is blackmailed by the MCP, which threatens to reveal to the media of his plagiarism of Flynn's games, which are hugely successful.

Visited by ENCOM employees Alan Bradley (Bruce Boxleitner) and Lora Baines (Cindy Morgan) who warn him that Dillinger knows about his hacking attempts and has tightened security, Flynn persuades them to admit him into ENCOM's buildings. There, he forges a higher security clearance for Bradley's program "Tron", which would monitor communications between the MCP and the outside world; whereupon the MCP uses an experimental laser to transfer Flynn into the ENCOM mainframe.

In the mainframe, computer programs appear in the likeness of the human "users" who created them, and they wield their main weapon called an "identity disc" thrown at their enemies. Here, the MCP and its second-in-command, Sark (Warner), seek control over input/output in the system. Programs resistant to their rule are forced to play in video games in which the losers are destroyed. Imprisoned by Sark, Flynn meets Tron (Boxleitner) and another program named Ram. Together, they escape their prison during a Light Cycle match, outrunning Battle Tanks and Recognizers. During their flight, Ram is mortally wounded and dies, but Flynn gradually discovers that, as a User, he is capable of manipulating the reality of the digital world.

At an input/output junction, Tron communicates with Bradley and receives instructions about how to destroy the MCP. Tron, Flynn, and another program named Yori (Morgan) board a "solar sailer simulation" to reach the MCP's core; but Sark's command ship destroys the sailer, capturing Flynn and Yori. Sark leaves the command ship and orders its destruction, but Flynn keeps it intact while Sark reaches the MCP's core on a shuttle, carrying captured programs. Tron then confronts Sark outside the core while the MCP attempts to consume the captives. Tron critically damages Sark and attacks the MCP; whereupon the MCP raises a shield around its core and re-empowers Sark against Tron, transferring all its powers to him. Flynn kisses Yori and then to circumvent the MCP, Flynn leaps into it, distracting it long enough to reveal a gap in its shield, through which Tron destroys it (and also Sark) with his disc. Input/output junctions are illuminated as programs begin to communicate with their users, and Flynn is reconstructed in the real world. A nearby printer produces the evidence that Dillinger had plagiarized his creations; and Dillinger, entering his office, finds the proof broadcast and the MCP inactive. Flynn takes his place as executive of ENCOM, while Bradley and Baines remain his closest friends.

And then we were watching Tron: Legacy from 2010.

---

In 1989, Kevin Flynn (Jeff Bridges), the software engineer and CEO of ENCOM International, mysteriously disappears four years after the death of his wife Jordan. Twenty years later, his son, Sam

(Garrett Hedlund), now ENCOM's primary shareholder, takes little interest in the company beyond playing an annual practical joke on the board of directors. Sam is visited by his father's friend, ENCOM executive Alan Bradley (Bruce Boxleitner), urging Sam to investigate a message originating from Flynn's abandoned arcade. There, Sam unintentionally teleports himself to the Grid, a virtual reality created by his father.

On the Grid, Sam is sent to compete against a masked program called Rinzler; who, having realized that Sam is a User, takes him to CLU, a duplicate of Kevin Flynn from 1982 who acts as the Grid's ruler. CLU nearly kills Sam in a Light Cycle match; but Sam is rescued by Quorra (Olivia Wilde), an apprentice of his father's, who conveys him to his father, now an old man, outside CLU's territory. There, Flynn reveals to Sam that he had been working to create a "perfect" computer system and had appointed CLU and Tron, a security program created by Alan Bradley, as its co-creators. In the process thereof, Flynn discovered a series of "isomorphic algorithms" (ISOs), which carried the potential to resolve various mysteries in science, religion, and medicine, but CLU, considering these an aberration, betrayed Flynn, captured Tron, and destroyed all of the ISOs, with the sole exception of Quorra. Meanwhile, the "portal" permitting travel between the two worlds has closed, leaving Flynn a captive; whereafter CLU sent the message to Alan, to get Sam.

Against his father's wishes, Sam returns to the Grid to find Zuse, a program promised to provide safe passage to the portal. At the End of Line Club owner Castor (Michael Sheen), reveals himself to be Zuse and betrays him to CLU's guards. In the resulting fight, Flynn rescues his son, Quorra is injured, and Zuse gains possession of Flynn's 'identity disc'. Knowing the disc works as a master key to the Grid, Zuse attempts to bargain with CLU; but CLU simply takes the disc and destroys the club. Flynn and Sam save the injured Quorra and stow away aboard a solar sailer, where Flynn restores Quorra.

Aboard a massive warship, Flynn recognizes Rinzler as Tron, reprogrammed by CLU, while CLU announces his desire to invade the material world. Sam thereafter reclaims Flynn's disc; whereupon CLU, Rinzler, and several guards pursue the protagonists in Light

Jets. During the pursuit, Rinzler remembers his former identity and destroys CLU's Light Jet. CLU uses Tron's Light Jet to escape while Tron falls into the Sea of Simulation, where the colored lights on his armor change from orange to blue.

CLU confronts the protagonists at the portal, where after attempting to reason with CLU, Flynn absorbs him, destroying themselves as well as CLU's army and warship, while Sam and Quorra transfer themselves to the real world.

In Flynn's arcade, Sam backs up the system on his USB flash drive, and having deactivated it offers to take control of ENCOM and name Alan chairman of the board. Quorra meets Sam outside, and the two depart on his motorcycle; Sam showing Quorra a sunrise en route.

---

We finished watching both movies and they were awesome! We cheered wildly for it and it was so awesome!

Me: Tron is so awesome!

Sora: It sure is. We've been to the worlds of both Tron movies.

Nico: Wow. So awesome.

Kairi: Tron from 2010 is amazing.

Lincoln: 1982 is amazing too.

Laney: They both are amazing.

Qin: But that CLU 2 guy was really bad news.

Nico: He sure was.

Me: And he was also the monster that faced us with the Revenge Squad when we helped Mystery Inc. in the Scooby Doo game.

I went over the history of CLU 2.

---

Codified Likeness Utility 2.0, or simply known as CLU 2 or Clu, is the main antagonist of the 2010 Disney sci-fi film TRON: Legacy (which is the sequel to the 1982 film TRON) and the 2012 animated series TRON: Uprising. He also appears as the secondary antagonist of the 2010 videogame TRON: Evolution. He is the cruel and tyrannical ruler of the Grid virtual world and was created by Kevin Flynn, the creator of the Grid itself.

He was portrayed by Jeff Bridges, who also played Flynn in the same film, and Obadiah Stane in Iron Man. Physically, he was portrayed by John Reardon.

In TRON: Uprising and TRON: Evolution, CLU was voiced by Fred Tatasciore, who also voiced Poseidon in God of War, Tony Alpert in Battlefield: Hardline, Mandarin in The Invincible Iron Man and Witch Doctor in LEGO Hero Factory.

CLU 2, named after the original program destroyed by Sark, was originally created by Kevin Flynn from his own being to monitor the growth of the Grid while he was absent with the all powering directive to make the world "perfect."

Unfortunately, Flynn spent a great amount of time away from the Grid. CLU became angry and resentful due to the fact that he needed Flynn's approval for many of his directives and he felt that this task was overwhelmingly difficult. The final straw was the discovery of a new set of programs called the ISOs, programs born from nothing that just materialized.

While Flynn and Tron viewed these programs as miracles, CLU viewed them only as abominations that threatened the supposed perfection of the system. Using the Abraxas Virus to mask his attempts, CLU betrayed his two friends, seized power, and supposedly killed Tron (but in reality repurposed him into his right hand enforcer Rinzler). CLU then initiated an almost total genocide of the ISOs (thanks to the efforts of the program Anon, the final ISO named Quorra was able to escape CLU's wrath and fled into exile under Flynn's care).

21 years passed and the situation grew unstable, as Flynn's resistance only made CLU very stronger, and that the only way to destroy him was for Flynn to reintegrate with him; at the same time CLU made plans to make the Human world "perfect" as well in his own image. To do this, he would need Kevin Flynn's identity disk, as well as for a human to enter from the other side. When some hackers inadvertently released a digital pulse, CLU used the opportunity to send a message to Flynn's old partner Alan Bradley. Though Bradley didn't come through, Flynn's son Sam did, which created an even greater opportunity.

After meeting Sam and forcing him to fight in the Game Grid (a series of gladiatorial battles), Sam was rescued by Quorra, who evaded capture. Sam's efforts to find help inadvertently led CLU to Flynn's hideout, but Flynn and Quorra had already departed to help Sam. During the raid he was overwhelmed with memories and lashed out in rage at the objects on Flynn's desk. He then stole the disk from another ISO, Zuse (who had stolen it from Flynn), before betraying Zuse and blowing up his bar. CLU and his army then prepared to use the disk to cross over. However, the Flynns and Quorra were already en route to the portal and they were able to arrive at the army's staging point. Sam was able to overpower Rinzler, rescue Quorra, and easily reclaim the disk due to the cowardice of CLU's assistant Jarvis.

After executing Jarvis, CLU pursued his foes to the portal, fending off a redeemed Rinzler in the process. At the Portal, CLU confronted his creator for the first time in more than two decades, arguing about how much he had "done everything that you asked" for an impossible task. Flynn accepted the arguments and apologized for giving CLU an impossible task, explaining that he had been wrong to try and pursue perfection, stating that he didn't know that before when he created CLU.

Rather than forgiving Flynn, CLU lost his temper completely and attacked Flynn. Outraged, Sam angrily assaulted CLU for hurting his father, but CLU took advantage of Sam's wrath against him until Flynn told him to stop. CLU then made a desperate effort to attack Sam and Quorra as they fled to the portal after being tricked into taking Quorra's disk from Flynn when Flynn's actual disk was on Quorra. In an effort to save his son and the ISO, Flynn sacrificed himself by reintegrating CLU into himself, causing a massive explosion that not only killed both the elder Flynn and the raging CLU but also destroyed CLU's ship, sending thousands of programs loyal to CLU to their deaths as well.

Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance

Side: Sora

CLU is first seen in the Rectifier, approached by Rinzler. Rinzler hands his Identity Disk to the dictator, who uses its playback function to examine footage of Sora and his Keyblade. CLU, fascinated by the weapon, begins to get an idea.

Later, after Sora is thrown into the Disk Wars and pitted against Rinzler, CLU arrives and confirms Sora's suspicions that he was the one who repurposed Tron. CLU offers Sora a chance to restore Tron in exchange for his Keyblade. When Sora refuses, an unconvinced CLU orders Rinzler to battle Sora to take the Keyblade by force.

Eventually, Sora is able to defeat Rinzler and redeem Tron. An enraged CLU proceeds to throw his Identity Disc to kill Sora, but Tron deflects the disc. The disc manages to strike the floor where Tron is standing, and he falls to his death, with Sora unable to save him. CLU retreats to retrieve Rinzler, vowing to deal with Sora later.

Side: Riku

Upon Riku's arrival to the Grid, he is captured and sent to the Light Cycle arena. There, he meets CLU, who admits that it is a rare pleasure to join the Light Cycle battles before leaving the Keyblade wielder alone.

CLU is not seen again until Riku, the Flynns, and Quorra arrive at the portal. CLU accuses his creator of breaking their promise of creating the "perfect system" together and summons the Commantis Nightmare to demonstrate the capabilities of the system.

After Riku subdues the Nightmare, Kevin apologizes to CLU, but CLU kicks aside his user and, following a scuffle with Riku, Sam, and Quorra, retrieves Kevin's Identity Disc. However, CLU realizes that Kevin and Quorra swapped Identity Discs and tries to get Kevin's disc back, only for Kevin to reintegrate with CLU.

* * *

We gasped in shock!

Carly Carmine: Whoa! I didn't know that CLU was that dangerous!

Akiza: No kidding.

Lincoln: We got to stop him for good.

Me: Lets get him! And this time we're not gonna let Kevin Flynn die.

We went to the simulator and we were gonna get ready to stop CLU for good.

* * *

We got ready in the Simulator and it was gonna be an awesome adventure into the world of Tron from 2010.

The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in the world of Tron from 2010 and it was awesome! We were inside THE GRID!

* * *

The Grid is a vast part of the Tron system, programmed by Kevin Flynn. Often referred to by Flynn as his "digital frontier", the Grid was made to provide an experimental platform where all forms of research could be carried out at unparalleled speeds. Perceived time on the Grid is measured in cycles and run at a pace far greater than time perceived in the real world, thus allowing anyone immersed in the computer environment to perform the same functions in a fraction of the time it would take them otherwise.

Much of the Grid consists of a flat, dark platform with glowing blue, cyan, or white ribbons of light covering it in a vast latticework. Within the Grid itself lie a number of cities, the most populous being Tron City, a metropolis modeled on a real world city which hosts a diverse range of programs. The programs carry out all the day-to-day tasks involved in running the system. On the periphery of the Grid lies the Outlands, an inhospitable region where most programs could not venture without flying or using specially coded ground vehicles.

Inhabitants

The Grid's original population consisted of programs written or installed by Kevin Flynn. Despite their programming, programs were autonomous to a large extent, living daily lives similar to that of a User in the outside world, clubbing, socialising, resting, playing games, and maintaining hobbies outside the primary directives that dictated their day jobs.

After the emergence of the ISOs from the Sea of Simulation, these unique, directive-free programs settled on the Grid as well. While they mingled with User-written programs at first, they eventually withdrew to colonies of their own, remaining there until the Purge. Both the User-written programs - known then as Basics - and the ISOs had factions of political and social thought jockeying for influence on the Grid. After the Purge, sympathetic programs attempted to convey surviving ISOs to safety until there seemed to be none left on the Grid, and factions quarreled for scraps of power in the heavily militarized system.

The Grid also contained other living entities, such as bits, gridbugs, code worms, and viruses.

Known Locations

The Grid consisted many cities inhabited by programs and other terrain lanscape with weather simulation that mimics the real world. The Grid's capital, Tron City, was a centralized community comprising the Grid's administration, including the sysadmin Clu, and Kevin Flynn. Well-known landmarks in Tron City included Flynn's Arcade, a copy of the one in the outside world and the site of Flynn's arrival when he visited the Grid; the Disc Wars and Light Cycle Arenas, where programs competed in games of skill; and the End of Line Club, originally open to both Basics and ISOs, with a direct Solar Sailer line to the Portal. Over the cycles, Tron City was almost completely depopulated as programs were repurposed or flung into deadly games.

In TRON: Betrayal and TRON: Evolution, the Grid's largest ISO population lived in Arjia City, located on the Codestream Nexus. Evolution also introduced a distant settlement, Bostrum Colony, which was the exclusive home of a faction of ISOs and like-minded Basics who preferred solidarity to segregation. Along with all the other ISO colonies, Bostrum and Arjia were destroyed in the Purge.

TRON: Uprising introduced the far-off port of Argon City, its neighbor and original settlement Purgos, and a large metropolitan area called Bismuth of which only the Light Rail station was seen in the show. Concept art for a location used in one episode was labeled with the name "Gallium City," but the city was never named in the episode, though a map in another episode showed the location of a small city called Gallium which was even further out in the Outlands than Argon City. The pit concealing a secret compressed space prison lay near the road from Argon to Gallium. Also near Argon, in the Outlands, was a snowy peak concealing Tron's secret base of operations.

The Grid is surrounded by the apparently endless Sea of Simulation, once the birthplace of the ISOs, now corrupted by an isomorphic virus which, while not harmful to Basics, does not allow new ISOs to develop. Passage over the Sea to the Portal, the only way to leave the Grid for the outside world, is possible only via Solar Sailer or light : The Grid. Wow! It's amazing!

Me: The Grid. Wow! It's amazing.

Lola: It's as beautiful and as amazing as I remember it.

Lincoln: It's amazing.

Laney: It's like we're all inside a huge computer.

Lana: It sure does feel like it.

I then saw that my clothes were completely different. I had clothes that had red lights in them and they made me look like something out of a science-fiction movie.

Me: Wow! Look at my clothes!

Everyone else saw their clothes and they were completely different. Full of lights of different colors. We each all had clothes that had lights of different colors.

Nico: Yeah my clothes look amazing.

Laney: Mine too.

Leni: These clothes are totes trendy!

Lori: And stylish.

Sora: It's the trend here in the Grid.

Goofy: It's really something.

Donald Duck: It sure is.

Me: Lets find Sam, Quorra and Kevin.

William: This time, CLU doesn't have the Revenge Squad backing him up.

Me: No he won't. Thank God we don't have to go through something like that again.

Nico: Yeah.

We went into the Grid and it was an amazing place. It was so cool! My data eyes were gathering data on everything in it and it was all incredible. We saw the Light-Cycle arena and the battle arenas and more. It looked like it was all from the very distant future.

Me: This is incredible!

Carly Carmine: It sure is amazing.

Misty Tredwell: I never even knew that all of this was even possible.

Lucy Loud: It's amazing.

Lily: It sure is.

Lisa Loud: It's all a magnificent world of amazing computer and electronic technology.

Linka: It sure is.

But then a figure appeared and it was RINZLER! He was actually Tron reprogrammed by CLU.

Sora: Rinzler!

Me: That's Tron! He was reprogrammed by CLU.

Flash: Listen, Tron. We don't want to hurt you. (dodges a punch from Rinzler) Ok. The feeling probably isn't mutual.

Me: I know.

I kicked him in the stomach and Sora pulled off his ID Disk and typed in a sequence and reprogrammed him back to what he was before. He had his programming and personality that he had before back.

Tron: What? What happened?

Sora: Tron are you all right?

Tron: Sora? Is that you?

Sora: It sure is.

Me: Tron it's great that you're all right. We have a lot to tell you.

We told him everything that happened.

Tron: I see. Thank you all so much for freeing me.

Sora: Anything for a friend Tron.

Me: We won't let CLU get away with all of this.

?: No we won't.

We turned and we saw Kevin Flynn, his son Sam Flynn and Quorra, the last of the ISO Algorithm Programs.

Lola: Kevin, Sam, Quorra.

She went up to them and hugged them.

Sam Flynn: It's great to see you again Lola.

Kevin Flynn: How have you been?

Lola: Doing really well.

Me: Kevin and Sam Flynn. It's a pleasure to meet you both.

Sam Flynn: Same here J.D. It's an honor to meet the legendary Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Quorra: We were told so many amazing things about you all.

Me: Word gets around about us really fast.

Sora: It's great to see you again Sam.

Sam Flynn: You too Sora.

Quorra: You're looking really well.

Sora: Thanks Quorra.

Tron: We won't let CLU get away with the pain and suffering he is about to cause to all users.

Me: That's right. CLU is a Computer Virus that is out to enslave everyone on Earth.

Quorra: He's going to enslave all of the Users.

Me: That's right. Lets find him and destroy him.

Luan: It's time to Purge him from the Program. (Laughs) Get it?

We laughed at Luan's joke.

Me: (Laughs) Good one!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan!

Sam Flynn: That was funny.

Me: Lets go.

We went into the center of the Grid and in a building in the main hard drive city, so to speak, we met CLU 2!

Me: CLU 2. So we meet again.

Kevin Flynn: This is mine.

Kevin walked up to him.

CLU: Had a feeling you all would come. Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I didn't expect you all to come.

Me: To delete you.

CLU: (Laughs) The cycles haven't been kind have they?

Kevin Flynn: No. You don't look so bad.

Me: It's like we're looking at two Kevin Flynn's.

Sam Flynn: It sure does look like it.

CLU: I did everything. Everything you've ever asked.

Kevin Flynn: I know you did.

CLU: I executed the plan.

Kevin Flynn: As you saw it.

CLU: You… You promised that we would change the world. Together. You broke your promise.

Kevin Flynn: I know. I understand that now.

CLU: I took the system to its maximum potential. I created the perfect system.

Qin: What was CLU programmed to do?

Me: He was created to control the growth of the Grid. He was designed to help build the Grid to its maximum potential.

Kevin Flynn: That's right but the thing about perfection is that it's unknowable.

Me: That's right CLU. There will never be such a thing as true Perfection.

Kevin Flynn: J.D. is right CLU. It's impossible but it's also right in front of us all the time. You wouldn't know that because I didn't when I created you.

Me: Now we intend to show you how wrong it was to create you CLU.

Kevin Flynn: I'm sorry CLU. I'm sorry.

Waffle Woman and Professor Calamitous appeared.

Me: Waffle Woman and Professor Calamitous.

Waffle Woman: Got to admit though. All this is really amazing.

Tara: It sure is.

Calamitous: It's really fascinating learning about the world of The Grid.

Lisa Loud: Indeed.

?: I will enjoy tearing you all up like a scratching post.

A figure came out and it was KATNAPPÉ!

---

Katnappé (real name: Ashley) is a villain in the animated TV series

Xiaolin Showdown. She recurs often throughout the series, sometimes fighting for the Heylin side with Jack Spicer and Wuya, and at other times, acting as her own villain.

She was voiced by Grey DeLisle, who also voiced Kimiko Tohomiko, Dyris, Daphne Blake, Azula, and Catwoman.

Ashley is a girl who met Jack at one of his parents' parties. She first discovered Jack's plans for world domination after wandering downstairs and seeing his basement lair. The whole vibe of the lair felt so dark, she was immediately interested in joining up with him, but Jack at first refused her offer. But later, after Jack was defeated by Kimiko in a Xiaolin Showdown, thus failing to acquire the Golden Tiger Claws, she reappeared, now in costume. This time, despite Jack's misgivings, Wuya accepted her offer to join the Heylin side on Jack's behalf.

She shows her affinity for cats by dressing up in a costume that consists of a form-fitting catsuit with heeled boots, a head cover, and cat ears. She uses makeup to appear more catlike, giving herself whiskers. She uses genetically-altered super-kittens as weapons against the Xiaolin. She peppers her speech with meows, purrs, and other various cat puns. Katnappé has a tendency to act like a cat, as seen in "The Shard of Lightning," in which she swallowed a live goldfish whole. In her first full appearance as Katnappé, she immediately proves her worth to Jack and Wuya when she easily beats Omi in a Xiaolin Showdown and wins the Golden Tiger Claws and the Changing Chopsticks. She then betrays Jack and Wuya by stealing the Golden Tiger Claws and using them to rob shopping malls and vandalize an amusement park called Catatonia Land.

Katnappé also appears in "Royal Rumble" and beats Kimiko in a Xiaolin Showdown for the Lotus Twister, kidnapping her immediately afterwards as a price for losing to her.

Katnappé later frees Wuya from the puzzle box in which Raimundo Pedrosa trapped her. After she leaves Wuya, she becomes the apprentice of Chase Young. He later betrays her and launches her away on a catapult.

Powers and Abilities

Master Thief: Katnappé was a master thief, skilled in stealth, picking locks, escapology, evading alarms, and cracking safes.

Peak Human Condition: She had shown that her bodily functions were at the maximum limit of the human condition; meaning that her natural capabilities were near-superhuman, almost cat-like.

Enhanced Strength: She was stronger than a girl of her size usually would be, capable of destroying several Jack-Bots with one hand.

Peak Human Agility: Her agility, balance and bodily coordination were near-superhuman.

Peak Human Reflexes: Her reactions were superior to those of normal humans and were near-superhuman.

Peak Human Speed: She was faster than a normal human.

Peak Human Flexibility: She was more flexible than average humans.

Skilled Martial Artist: She was a very skilled hand-to-hand combatant, capable of defeating the four monks, one by one, albeit with the help of the Golden Tiger Claws.

Attractive: In several instances, she was able to use her beauty to seduce her male opponents and easily fool them.

---

Spicer: Katnappé!? What the hell are you doing here!?

Katnappé: Can't an old friend stop by and say hello?

Me: So you are one of the Heylin!

Omi: (Tibetan Accent) She is a dangerous enemy J.D.

Katnappe: (to Spicer) I really like your Dark Side more because his Antitrix and blaster. Ever since you joined the good guys, you've become uncool.

Spicer: Oh, c'mon! I'm plenty cool! (to us) Right, guys?

Me: You sure are.

?: Let me get some action in as well.

We saw a figure come out and it was SUCKER from episodes 17 and 18 of Ninja Storm!

---

Shane Clarke: Sucker!

Cam Watanabe: Not this ugly creep.

Me: I remember this freak! He turned Cam into a mosquito and it was a brutal fight.

Sucker: That's right. You watched us on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Sucker: Let's see how you deal with this!

Sucker shrank down and landed on my back.

Me: (sees Nico about to punch your back) Nico, what are you doing?

Nico: J.D., stay still. Sucker's on your back!

With that, Nico starts punching me hard in an attempt to hit Sucker but the monster dodges it each time.

---

Me: OW! Nico, you're hitting me way too hard!

Nico: Sorry!

Waffle Woman: Is it me or is Nico punching really hard?

Calamitous: It appears he is. Which concerns me.

CLU: (to the Loud Kids) Is that really someone you want as a teammate? A person who beats you up whenever you try to do something? If you ask me, someone like Chan should be put down for good.

Me: SHUT UP CLU!

Lori: Yeah!

Nico then grabbed Sucker!

Nico: Got him!

Me: OW!

Waffle Woman: Oh Sucker was on his back and Nico was trying to squish him.

Calamitous: Ouch.

Nico: Sorry man. I got him.

Emma Goodall: It sure was.

Noah: Sorry, CLU. But for you, it really is game over!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Samurai!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Samurai Rangers!

My Signer mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Another Dark Signer coming in.

Me: Bring it on. Lets dance.

We powered up and went at them.

Nico: Whoa! That's a first.

Troy Burrows: Nice one Nico.

Nico: Thanks.

Battle 5: PIGMA DENGAR!

---

Qin and Krystal were facing some of CLU's men.

?: Its been a while Star Fox!

They turned and they saw the honorless slime ball of Star Wolf and the monster who got James McCloud killed: PIGMA DENGAR!

---

Pigma Dengar is a major antagonist in the Star Fox series. Despite being a mere soldier of Andross at first and later a small-time criminal, he played a large part in the past of Star Fox as a traitor. He is also Peppy Hare's former ally and his supposed rival. Pigma also used to be a Star Wolf team, but wore out his welcome and Wolf O'Donnell kicked him out as Pigma focused his time on money.

He was voiced by David Frederick White in all of his appearances.

Star Fox

In the past, he was once part of the original Star Fox, but during a mission to find Andross with James, Fox's father, and Peppy Hare, his greed makes him betray them both and getting James killed. Peppy barely escapes and tells Fox the news. From this point onwards, Pigma became part of Star Wolf.

Star Fox 64

During the events of Star Fox 64, he and Star Wolf take on Star Fox multiple times, Pigma taking on Peppy mostly. After Andross' death, Pigma was kicked out because of his greed and unreliability while Andrew resigned.

Star Fox Assault

In Star Fox Assault, he returns as the secondary antagonist who mostly antagonized Star Fox as a thief and a military type. Eventually, though, he was brainwashed and assimilated into an Aparoid. Though he eventually met his fate and seemingly dies.

Star Fox Command

In Star Fox Command, he is somewhat revived as a metal cube that can barely comprehend normal speech. Here, he shows some slight loyalty to Star Wolf, but ultimately tries to kill them along with Star Fox. In the end, he finally met his fate and died off.

Combat

Star Fox 64 and Star Fox 64 3D

Pigma attacks by trailing behind the player and attacking in Star Fox 64. He does not change his attack pattern much when he gets to low health, but when he and his teammates attack for the final time, they have more HP.

Star Fox: Assault

Pigma undergoes an extreme overhaul in battle patterns in Star Fox: Assault. This is because he was infected by the Aparoids, and the Pigmaparoid is born as a result. It is the boss of the fifth stage, The Aparoid Menace.

During phase 1, the Pigmaparoid attacks by launching asteroids, firing missiles, and trying to punch the player. After it loses all six arms, it will enter phase two, where the boss launches bombs from the slots that circle the centre. The centre must be attacked constantly, but the Pigmaparoid can retaliate by firing a large laser that can be avoided if Fox steers his ship wildly. After enough damage, the Pigmaparoid goes down.

Other Games

Starlink: Battle of Atlas

Pigma makes his final appearance so far in Star Fox x Starlink: Battle of Atlas, where he reappears with Leon Powalski and Andrew Oikonny.

Super Smash Bros.

In Super Smash Bros. Brawl, Pigma appears as a sticker, boosting arm attacks for Fox, Falco, and Wolf. In Super Smash Bros. for Wii U and 3DS, Pigma appears as a trophy that can be obtained in both versions. In Super Smash Bros. Ultimate, Pigma is a support spirit that increases shooting attacks. His Spirit Battle is against Wario and Wolf, where Wario runs away from fighting, as his basis sometimes does, and gets faster as he takes more damage.

---

Krystal: (British Accent) Pigma Dengar!

Pigma: Its been a while Krystal. You will join James McCloud in oblivion!

Qin: So you are the ruthless Pigma Dengar that I've heard about from Fox!

Pigma: That's right! I killed James to get money! And I see that J.D. and his team got more recruits since we fought last on Sauria.

Krystal: We've expanded our forces a lot since then. All you ever think about is your own greed!

Qin: That is absolutely disgusting!

Krystal: You always were the biggest slimeball of Star Wolf.

Pigma: Flattery will get you nowhere!

Qin: That was an insult. And why did Vypra bring you back?

Pigma: Vypra didn't bring me back. It was CLU. He gave me a job to kill you all.

Qin: I didn't think that CLU had that kind of power.

Krystal: Lets see you survive this. AQUAS STYLE NINJA ART: EXPLODING STARFISH BOMB STORM!

Krystal fired a wave of water and it had a bunch of Exploding Starfish and they hit Pigma and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMMM!

Qin: Whoa! That was awesome Krystal.

Krystal: Thanks Qin.

Qin: This will make sure he never returns! STAR FOX STYLE NINJA ART: STAR FOX AERIAL ASSAULT!

Qin fired a blast of energy and 5 Arwing ships appeared out of nowhere and hit Pigma with a massive laser assault and he exploded in a fiery explosion. Killing him instantly.

Qin: YEAH!

Pigma's Evil Spirit then appeared!

Qin: I will never allow you to come back Pigma!

She held her hand to his face!

Qin: HAKAI!

Pigma glowed purple and he screamed in excruciating pain as he was being obliterated. He was erased from existence for all eternity as if he was never born at all.

Qin: Pigma Dengar, you have failed this universe!

Krystal: At least we'll never see Pigma again.

Qin: Yep. Nico told me how much he hates Pigma and Andrew Oikenny because they have no honor and he also told me about how ruthless they were. If Andrew comes back, me and you will face him as well.

Krystal: I know.

---

Battle 6: Devack

---

Me and Luna were facing Devack.

Me: I can't believe you are that determined to kill Luna, Devack. Luna doesn't deserve death.

Devack: I don't care. I will do whatever it takes to kill you and Luna!

Me: You know Rex and Kalin are out to kill me even more.

Luna (5D's): That's right.

Devack: Then I will save them the trouble. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CUSILLU!

He summoned the Monkey Earthbound Immortal Cusillu!

Me: Very well then. I summon PHOENIX REBIRTH DRAGON, SACRED PHOENIX OF NEPHTHYS, FIREBIRD, RED DRAGON NINJA, FIRESTORM PROMINENCE, BLAZEWING BUTTERFLY and FIRE PRINCESS!

I summoned said monsters.

Luna (5D's): I summon ANCIENT FAIRY DRAGON!

Luna summoned her Ancient Fairy Dragon!

Me: Lets dance Devack!

We went at them and our monsters went at Cusillu and I punched Devack in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Luna punched him in the chest and fired an energy blast at him and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Our monsters fired blasts of fire and energy at Cusillu and it hit him and exploded. Destroying him in a huge fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

I punched Devack in the face and knocked him out.

---

Battle 7: CLU

---

We regrouped and we were facing CLU.

Me: It's over CLU. Your reign of terror on the world of the Computers is over!

Sora: That's right!

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and knocked him down. He threw his disk at me and I grabbed it and threw it back at him and it hit the ground by him.

I fired blasts of energy at him and they hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico kicked CLU in the face and kicked him in the stomach all over the place with incredible fury.

Lisa Simpson: This will hurt you all over. ENLIGHTENMENT STYLE NINJA ART: TAU ETHEREALS!

Lisa meditated and fired blasts of light that formed into the Tau Ethereals of Warhammer 40K and they blasted and cut CLU all over.

Lisa Simpson: This will hurt more. ENLIGHTENMENT STYLE NINJA ART: TAU GREATER GOOD!

Lisa fired a blast of light and it formed into the phrase of the Tau, GREATER GOOD and it slammed into CLU and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM

Lisa Simpson: This is gonna hurt. ENLIGHTENMENT STYLE NINJA ART: TAU EMPIRE!

Lisa fired a blast of light and it formed into the symbol of the Tau Empire and it slammed into CLU and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Ben: Time for some Predator Power!

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called BOLTOSARUS! It looked like a Tyrannosaurus but with lightning bolt shaped spines on its back and it had yellow claws.

Ben: BOLTOSARUS!

Me: Whoa! That's a new one.

We left and went to the Portal and CLU was following us.

Me: Here we go.

We flew fast.

We arrived at the Portal and we saw CLU standing there.

Me: It's over CLU. You've lost.

CLU: I will never stop until the world of Users is ours!

Me: Over my dead body!

Sam Flynn (to Kevin Flynn): Dad, no! We'll find another way!

Me: I won't let you die this time Kevin!

I formed a scythe of data energy.

I swung the scythe and slashed CLU in half right down the middle and cleaved him in half and deleted him in an instant!

CLU's data and everything he stood for was completely destroyed forever!

Kevin Flynn: Thank you all!

Nico grabbed Kevin and we all went through the portal and we were back home!

Me: WHOA! Awesome!

Sam Flynn: That was intense!

Tron then appeared in a window.

Tron: Thank you all so much.

Me: It was our pleasure Tron.

Sora: Anything for a friend.

Me: It was awesome helping you and having you help us. Should the need arise, we'll be there to help you out like always.

Tron: Thanks J.D.

The Masters of Evil came.

Tara: FYI, CLU was the one who started the idea of the Revenge Squad in the first place.

Waffle Woman: So we have him to thank for inspiring Vypra's secret project?

Lisa Loud: Precisely.

Calamitous: Well, it's a shame he's dead then.

Katnappe: See you around, Xiaolin Warriors.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

Omi: We have that to look forward to.

Tron: (To the viewers) Computers and users are a powerful force together and together we can do great things in the worlds of cyberspace and in real life. But be careful how you use computers.

Me: That's right.

Later at school we were talking to Ms. Cantwell. Lisa was facing her.

Cantwell: You've always said you're so smart, Lisa! Well, let's see your big brain get yourself out of this mess!

Lisa Simpson: I already have won Cantwell.

Lisa revealed the evidence Bart made to the principal and to the whole staff of the school. Ms. Cantwell knew she was in a lot of hot water. Almost immediately she was fired from her job and she vowed to get revenge on Lisa Simpson no matter what. She joined the Springfield Scumbags in the Masters of Evil, making the Springfield Scumbag 16 now the Springfield Scumbag 17.

War With The Negamoon Clan

In Neo Domino City, we were on our way to the house of Marco, he is a friend of the Signers and Jack Atlas saved him from a ruthless loanshark that has destroyed so many lives because of his own selfish greed.

Tundra Man: So, who's this Marco person?

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) A very close friend of ours. He helped us out a lot on our journeys as the Signers. I first helped him deal with a ruthless Loanshark.

Akiza: I remember that.

Me: Who is this Loanshark?

Jack Atlas: His name is Don Piero.

Me: Whoa! I've heard of him. And he's one of the loansharks that my dad failed to catch during his career as a police officer.

Lincoln: I didn't know that J.D.

Me: My dad has made a tremendous number of enemies in his entire career. Now his enemies are our enemies and we have to either destroy them or bring them all to justice.

Nico: That's amazing.

We arrived at Marco's house and it was really Don Piero's old mansion.

Me: Wow! Marco now lives in Don Piero's old mansion.

Jack Atlas: They do now. After I defeated Don Piero in a duel, I had all of his assets seized and gave them all to the people whose lives he ruined.

Me: Wow! Good job Jack.

We knocked on the door and Marco answered.

Marco (5D's): Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an awesome honor to meet you guys.

Brock: Nice to meet you, Marco.

Brock's Crobat: Crobat!

Marco (5D's): Same to all of you. Jack, guys, it's great to see you all again.

Jack Atlas: Same to you Marco.

Akiza: You've been doing really well from when we last saw you.

Marco (5D's): I sure have. Come on in guys.

We went inside and his mansion was beautiful.

Bonecrusher: You've really got a nice place here.

Marco (5D's): Thanks. It's a great place. Ever since Jack defeated Don Piero, we've been sitting in the lap of luxury.

Me: I can tell.

Crow Hogan: You know that Don Piero might return in the future wanting revenge.

Me: If he does, we'll be ready for him.

Tailgate: That's fine. I hope his Duel Monsters are just as strong as they are in Duels.

Me: Yep. We now can summon our Duel Monsters to fight in our battles. It's really cool.

Marco (5D's): Wow! That is amazing!

Me: Yep. It's really something.

Nico: And one of the most amazing feats of our powers.

I then sensed something.

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: What is it?

Me: We've got company.

Nico: Uh oh.

We went outside and we saw the EVIL GREEN RANGER from episodes 17 thru 21 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Tommy later scared Bulk and Skull away when they were harassing Kimberly, who had become enamored by Tommy at first sight and invited him to hang out with her and her friends. Rita Repulsa had noticed Tommy's fight with Jason and realized that there was potential in the young man. Therefore, she placed Tommy under a spell, and using the secret sixth Power Coin - the Dragon Coin - she transformed him into the evil Green Ranger. Tommy then traveled to the Command Center and put Zordon out of commission and downloaded a virus into Alpha 5's programming. He then fought the Power Rangers and defeated them.

Being under Rita's influence, Tommy became very sullen and was even rude to Kimberly when she questioned where he had been. With the Rangers at their weakest, Rita decided that the time to attack was now.

After Tommy had defeated a squad of Putties without his powers, Rita gave him the Sword of Darkness, which not only enhanced his dark powers, but also acted as a catalyst for keeping him under her evil spell. She then had Tommy transport Jason into the Dark Dimension, where he faced Goldar. Tommy eventually took the honor from the Goldar and faced Jason himself. Jason managed to narrowly escape his grasp when the other Rangers teleported him out.

While the Rangers were defending Angel Grove from Goldar, Tommy entered the Command Center and attempted to sabotage it again. Alpha placed him in a stasis lock, but he was freed by Rita, who then made him grow. He then joined Goldar and Scorpina in fighting the Megazord, as Rita cast a spell to create an eclipse to remove the Megazord's power. The Megazord separated and the Dinozords fell under the earth. When the Rangers retreated into the Command Center, Alpha revealed that the stasis lock the Green Ranger was kept in allowed his true identity to be revealed - that of Tommy Oliver.

Realizing that Rita's spell was the reason for Tommy's strange behavior, Kimberly confronted him in the Youth Center, but he simply informed her that (along with knowing the other Rangers' identities) she and the other Power Rangers would soon be destroyed. Utilizing his Dragon Dagger that he received from Rita, the Green Ranger summoned his own Zord, the Dragonzord, to destroy Angel Grove. In the meantime, Alpha reestablished Zordon's link with the dimension and the Megazord was recovered. Jason and the others managed to take down the Dragonzord and, when facing the Green Ranger, Jason destroyed the Sword of Darkness and freed Tommy from Rita's spell.

When he came to, Tommy realized all the damage he had done and felt terrible, but Jason assured him it was only because of Rita's spell. Tommy accepted the Rangers' offer to join them. With the Dragonzord on their side, the Rangers now had access to Dragonzord in Battle Mode, and eventually the powerful Ultrazord. At the Command Center, Tommy accepted Zordon's rules of being a Ranger, and even received a communicator from Billy. The team of five had turned into six, also making him the first ever Sixth Ranger.

Tommy Oliver: It's me!

Me: The Evil Green Ranger!

Mary Jane: How is this possible? I thought Tom Oliver was reformed!

Evil Green Ranger: He was. But Vypra was so impressed by his performance that she created another Green Ranger clone. And that's me.

Me: I remember you all too well! You were made into what you were when Tommy got his mind corrupted by Rita's Sword of Darkness!

Evil Green Ranger: That's right. You really have been watching all of us on TV.

Me: Like I always say when we face the Ranger's enemies: Never missed an episode. And I will never forget how you easily overpowered the Rangers with ease.

Evil Green Ranger: That was one of my most incredible fights.

Me: One of the most epic I've ever seen ever since I watched all of The Power Rangers series on TV and on Netflix.

Evil Green Ranger: It sure was an epic fight.

Then Superintendent Chalmers came out!

Nico: Superintendent Chalmers.

Chalmers: Sorry if it took me a while. But at least I'm going to fight one of you right now!

Me: Bring it on you fucking chowderhead.

?: Don't forget about me.

A figure came out and it was ARACHNITOR from Power Rangers Samurai!

Arachnitor was a notorious Nighlok with a fierce reputation as one of the most powerful nighloks. Arachnitor was greatly feared by all nighloks, including Octoroo. Arachnitor served Master Xandred at first, but then decided to overthrow his master and become the ruler of nighloks himself and conquer the human world. In the seventeenth episode, Arachnitor decided to overthrow Xandred by sealing him, while Xandred was in anger and was absorbing energy at Sanzu River. Arachnitor arrived at the Junk of Master Xandred and came to Octoroo. In his desire for power Arachnitor demanded Octoroo to help him overthrow Xandred and Octoroo, greatly fearing him, agreed. Arachnitor decided to usurp Xandred's throne by sealing Xandred and for this plan he ordered Octoroo to kidnap Jayden and obtain the sealing symbol of nighloks sealing spell. Arachnitor, Octoroo and Moogers attacked the temple Tengen Gates, when Power Rangers arrived to the guards of the temple, who were their friends, including Daisuke, in the goal to find Black Box to stop Sanzu River. Octoroo poisoned the team's drinks and Jayden took a sip and became sick. His friends morphed and Rangers battled Moogers. Meanwhile, Antonio came to Deker, not knowing about his identity, and competited with him in cooking. But rangers called Antonio and he left Deker. After defeating moogers, rangers fought Arachnitor and were quickly outmatched. Arachnitor used his claws, web, as well as energy blasts in battle using which he easily defeated the Rangers. Meanwhile, Octoroo came to Jayden and asked Red Ranger to give him a symbol of sealing, even offering an antidote in exchange for the spell. Then Antonio arrived and battled Octoroo, but then Deker arrived and kidnapped Jayden, much to Antonio's shock. When Antonio returned to his friends, they were already heavily injured and Arachnitor was laughing, but suddenly Xandred dragged him back to the Netherworld and as punishment for betrayal, he forced into him a massive amount of energy gathered from the Sanzu River, turning him into a mutated, mindless Nighlok.

After his mutation, he went to Earth to destroy the Rangers. The Rangers were overwhelmed by him and his energy discs but he was eventually taken down by the Quintuple Slash with Antonio powering it up. However, giant Moogers (possibly sent by Octoroo or Xandred) arrived; due to being a more immediate threat to the city, the Rangers destroyed them first, but by then, Arachnitor has already escaped back to the Netherworld.

Arachnitor returns in Super Samurai sometime after leaving footprints in a puddle of Sanzu River water, making it known that a Nighlok is staying in our world without drying out by using that puddle. He is first seen terrorizing a suburban area by the Rangers and puts up a good fight until he escapes again from the Rangers by stepping on the air - Jesus-on-water style.

The Rangers follow him to what it seems to be an abandoned worksite with an area covered in puddles of Sanzu River Water with some back-up of Moogers. Although his sidekicks are defeated, he easily trashes the Rangers until Antonio gives Jayden the Black Box and having Jayden go into Super Samurai Mode. Him and the monster battle but he overwhelms Arachnitor and deflects his energy disks and destroyed the monster by performing his ultimate move, the"Super Blazing Strike". He grew with some giant Moogers and Spitfangs assisting him and the Samurai Megazord and Claw Battlezord East which dodge the Spitfangs' fireballs. Antonio told Jayden to unleash the full power of the Black Box and they form the Claw Armour Megazord which overwhelms a crowd of Moogers and destroys the rest with it's Double Katana Strike. Although only Arachnitor and the two Spitfangs were left, the Megazord was severely shaken up by the blasts so they summoned the Tigerzord, Swordfishzord, Beetlezord, and Octozord to form the Samurai Battle Cannon. However, because of the amount of Symbol Power it required to use, they had to withstand two rounds of Spitfire fireballs. Quickly, however, they lock onto the three and fire the cannon, destroying Arachnitor and the Spitfangs once and for all with the Battle Cannon Blast.

---

Jayden Shiba: Arachnitor!

Arachnitor: Its been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were the most powerful of the Nighloks and you overthrew Xandred!

Arachnitor: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode. And your super form was the ugliest I've ever seen.

Leni: It totes was.

Me: The ugliest ever over the course of 19 years back in 2012.

Arachnitor: Boy you really HAVE been watching us on TV. At least I'm not mutated into a mindless monster this time. If anything, I prefer to fight you Rangers while keeping my mind.

Troy Burrows: You're gonna get a really good fight.

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE: DRAGON BLITZ FORCE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers from 1986!

Arachnitor: I've never seen this group of rangers before.

Me: The Megaforce Rangers from 2013 have the power to change into any of the ranger teams from over the course of the entire series history. Japan started the Power Rangers back in 1975 and the group you see them as now is from 1986.

Nico: That's right.

Lincoln: Power Rangers has been on both in Japan and America for 45+ years now.

Me: We haven't met the Beast Morphers yet. But someday we will.

Evil Green Ranger: Very impressive.

Chalmers: That is amazing.

Arachnitor: It sure is.

Bane and Vexen then appeared.

Me: Bane and Vexen.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) You all having a really good fight without us?

Vexen: We're hurt.

My Signer mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Kalin appeared.

Me: Kalin!

Marco (5D's): Kalin Kessler is a Dark Signer now!?

Me: That's right and he won't stop until he kills me.

Kalin: (Insane Laughter) And I will enjoy seeing you suffer!

Me: Guess we could use a little warmup fight before we face the Negamoon Clan.

Vexen: And who are the Negamoon Clan?

Nico: A ruthless family that is also a malevolent cult that's out to kill Sailor Moon and destroy the entire universe.

Bane: How bad are these guys?

Laney: Pure evil. They come from an evil planet called Nemesis. It's located at the very distant edge of the Solar System.

Lana: And they pose a tremendous threat to the entire universe.

Lily: They're going to kill us all if we don't stop them.

Me: Worst of all, they come from the 30th Century.

Evil Green Ranger: The 30th Century? Time Travel is impossible!

Me: Not entirely. We are no strangers to Time Travel and we've been to many times in the future and in the past.

Vexen: J.D. is right. We've seen many places all over the universe as well as in the past and in the future.

Chalmers: It's really fascinating.

Me: Yep. That's why we have to kill them. If we don't, they will destroy the entire universe. Anyway lets get to fighting. It'll be a good warmup for us.

Nico: Lets do it!

We went at them!

Battle 1: Bane

Laney was facing Bane.

Laney: Lets dance Bane.

Bane: With pleasure señora.

Laney powered up and went at Bane and she punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the face again and knocked him down.

Laney: Good warmup.

Battle 2: Vexen

Lana was facing Vexen.

Vexen: So the Negamoon Family is that dangerous huh?

Lana: They are Vexen. Sailor Moon and her friends faced them before and they were that powerful.

Vexen: I see. It's hard to imagine that they are that lethal.

Lana: I know.

Vexen: What is their symbol?

Lana: It's a black upside-down crescent moon. Like the symbol of the Moon Kingdom but evil.

Lana pulled out a piece of paper that had the symbol of the Negamoon Clan on it and she showed it to him.

Vexen: I see. It's hard to imagine that they are that dangerous.

Lana: I know. And we have to stop them at all costs.

Vexen: I understand. Lets have a good fight.

Lana: Right.

Lana powered up and kicked him in the face and stomach and punched him multiple times in the chest and stomach and kicked him in the face and the back of the head and knocked him down.

---

Battle 3: Evil Green Ranger

---

Mary Jane Watson was facing the Evil Green Ranger.

Evil Green Ranger: So you are gonna face me.

Mary Jane: That's right. And I'm more than what you might know.

Mary Jane's eyes turned blood red and she formed her left arm into a red sword and her right arm into a razor sharp axe.

Mary Jane: I was once the Carnage Queen and I am also now…

The Carnage Symbiote enveloped her and she turned into…

Mary Jane: (Echoing) THE ULTIMATE SPIDER-WOMAN!

Mary Jane never showed the Masters of Evil this awesome power before!

She went at Evil Green Ranger and she slashed him in the arm and clashed at him with her sword and sparks were flying. She had enhanced agility, enhanced super strength, speed and amazing abilities.

She kicked the Evil Green Ranger with incredible strength and sent him crashing into a tree.

Ultimate Spider-Woman: Awesome!

---

Battle 4: Arachnitor

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Arachnitor.

Nico: It's party time.

Troy Burrows: Lets do it!

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers went at Arachnitor and blasted him and pulverized him all over with incredible power and more.

Arachnitor was defeated and he was sparking and lightning was coming out of him.

Archanitor: (weakly) Well, at least I had a good run. (to Lucy Loud) But before I die, let me give you my powers. They'll help you against the Negamoon clan.

Mia: Don't talk like that! We can get you healed up.

Arachnitor: (chuckles) Don't kid yourself, Pink Ranger. We all knew I was dead the minute J.D. explained my background history. At least I can die doing something good for a change.

Arachnitor gave Lucy Loud all of his powers and then he fell down and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

---

Battle 5: Kalin Kessler

---

I was facing Kalin on the Duel Runner arena as it was racing along the Giant Nazca Line.

Me: Kalin why do you want to kill me so badly? I haven't done anything to you.

Kalin: Because I hate you! (Laughs insanely)

I went at Kalin and he went at me and I punched him in the face and he punched at me and I dodged his attack and kicked him in the stomach.

Me: Kalin listen to yourself! If you kill me now, then the whole universe will be completely destroyed! You have to put aside your senseless quest to kill me and help us take down the Negamoon Clan for good!

Kalin: I will never stop until you are dead! (INSANE LAUGHTER!)

Vexen: Kalin stop this madness now! What is more important? Killing J.D. or making sure that everyone all over the entire universe doesn't suffer complete and total annihilation? Let your hatred towards him go just this one time and then when it's your turn again you can try and kill J.D. again then.

Kalin: (Growls) Fine.

Kalin calmed down.

Me: Thanks Vexen.

Vexen: Think nothing of it.

---

Battle 6: Superintendent Chalmers

---

Maggie was facing Superintendent Chalmers.

Maggie (Loud House): This is gonna be good.

Chalmers: Indeed.

Maggie punched him in the face and kicked him in the crotch and he screamed like a little girl.

Maggie (Loud House): You've just been Maggie-ized.

After we got that fight out of our systems we regrouped.

Maria: (to Bane's group) Alright. You guys had your fight for the day. Now, can you please help us against the Negamoon Clan?

William: We'll even let you guys blow a hole in their hideout in place of our Phoenix Cry.

Bane: I like it.

Then Carly Carmine and Misty Tredwell appeared.

Vexen (to Misty Tredwell and Carly): I take it Vypra sent you two to back us up?

Carly Carmine: In a way.

Me: Okay first lets head back to the estate. We're going to give the Negamoon a surprise they'll never forget.

We went back to the estate.

* * *

Back at the estate we went to the computer and we got the Superlaser Cannon ready to fire.

Bane: So what are you gonna do?

Me: Blow up Nemesis and it will be as a Declaration of War on the Negamoon Clan.

Lincoln: Last time you tried to do this, Nico smashed you on your head with his club.

Nico: Not this time. Go for it J.D.

Me: Thanks man. Fu, you may fire when ready.

Fu: Right. Commence Primary Ignition.

Fu pressed a couple of buttons and pulled some levers. I opened up a portal that lead to the year 2995 and it showed the planet Nemesis, the Home of the Negamoon Clan. It was located at 35 billion miles away from the sun and it was made entirely out of pure evil black crystal.

On a ship above the planet, Prince Diamond saw the portal in front of the planet.

Prince Diamond: So someone is coming from Earth.

Fu: Fire!

Fu pressed a red button and it fired the Superlaser and it went through the portal and it hit Nemesis and the entire planet was completely obliterated in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Bullseye!

Nico: That did it!

Laney: That's the end of Nemesis.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: Not out of the woods yet. Now we go into war. Activate the hailing frequencies.

Prince Diamond and all of the Negamoon Family were absolutely enraged that their entire planet was completely destroyed in an instant! Then I appeared on a screen.

Me: Greetings Negamoon Clan, I am J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm sure you've heard of me from resources all over in your time. But I didn't destroy your planet just because I simply wanted to. I destroyed your planet because it's an act of war. I am hereby declaring war on all of you and I will not allow you all to kill the Sailor Soldiers and destroy the entire universe all for your own selfish and evil ambitions. Mark my words Negamoon Clan, you will pay for your crimes. Justice will be brought to all of you in the 30th Century and in the 21st Century.

My message clicked off.

Emerald (Sailor Moon): That fucking brat!

Sapphire: He will pay for this!

Prince Diamond: Lets prepare. It's time for an all out war.

Rubeus: Yes your highness.

The Negamoon Ship went into the portal and ended up in our time.

Me: This is it guys. PREPARE FOR BATTLE!

We were ready to go into war against a force so dangerous that it could very well destroy the entire planet.

Me: This is gonna be a dangerous battle guys.

Nico: I know. But we're ready for anything.

Vince: Yep.

Varie: It's gonna be a big battle. But we've been through so many battles like this before.

Lincoln: We sure have.

Laney: It's gonna be a battle unlike anything we've ever had before.

Then I sensed a huge energy signal.

Me: Whoa! Feel that?

A vortex of fire appeared and it faded and it was the Flame Haze, Shana! She had red crimson hair, red eyes and she was dressed in a Japanese School uniform and she had angel wings made entirely of pure fire and she had a deadly red blade katana.

Shana: Glad I got here just in time.

Laney: Who are you?

Lincoln: Whoa! You're the Flame Haze, Shana. I love watching an awesome Anime about you. It's called Shakugan no Shana.

Me: Shana of the Burning Eye. I've watched that show and it is awesome! You're the Flame Haze, the protector of the balance between the worlds of the living and the dead.

Shana: I'm glad I have some fans. Yes I am the Flame Haze. It's a big job. I heard that the Negamoon Clan is coming and I'm here to help you all.

Me: We greatly appreciate it Shana.

Brittney: I've heard a lot about the Crimson Realm. It is a realm that is in between the lands of the living and the dead and its main purpose is to watch over both worlds and make sure that the forces of evil don't upset the balance.

Shana: That's right. You all catch on very fast.

Nico: This is gonna be amazing!

Shana: I will gladly help you all. You all are widely known through the Crimson Realm and have helped all of the world all over.

Vince: Thank you Shana.

Me: Lets head out.

We headed out and went into space and we saw the ship of THE NEGAMOON CLAN!

The Black Moon Clan (in Japanese: ブラックムーン一族, Burakku Mūn Ichizoku, lit. "Black Moon Family"), also known as the Negamoon Family, is an evil organization existing in the 30th century in the Sailor Moon metaseries.

Biography

The Black Moon clan was originally an extremist group who believe that the world order brought about by Neo Queen Serenity is subjugation and that the Legendary Silver Crystal extending the life of every human was against the natural order. The group attracted the attention of Wiseman who guided them to Planet Nemesis where they acquire the Malefic Black Crystal and powers to enact their desire to purge Earth of the White Moon's "poisoned influence". The transition resulted in its members gaining black, upside-down crescent markings on their foreheads (the inverse of the marking of the Silver Millennium), with most wearing earrings made from the Black Crystal.

The group's initial plan was using the time traveling abilities of the Malefic Black Crystal to travel to 20th century Tokyo and alter history to their ideals. But their leader Prince Demand caused the chain of events that led to also hunting down Chibiusa when she escaped into the past with the Silver Crystal of her time. Eventually, the members all die with Demand the last member as he learns that Wiseman used them all for his own agenda. In the 90s Anime, the Specter Sisters survived and reformed.

Members

Prince Diamond

Sapphire

Emerald

Rubeus

Negamoon Sisters: Composed of Prizma, Calaveras, Bertie, and Catzi.

Boule Brothers: Chiral and Achiral

Droids: Artificial lifeforms created by Saphir and brought to life by the Malefic Black Crystal.

PRINCE DIAMOND

As the founding leader of the Black Moon, Prince Demande saw the Crystal Tokyo and the reign of Neo Queen Serenity as an ambition duel to the Legendary Silver Crystal prolonging human life by a millennia. Demande and his followers were lured by Wiseman to Nemesis where they acquired the power of the Malefic Black Crystal.

While the plan was to travel back to kill Neo Queen Serenity when she was Usagi Tsukino, Demande acted in rush to directly attack Crystal Tower by sending a Black Crystal fragment large enough to level the city. It was then that Demande encountered Neo-Queen Serenity while she was looking for her daughter Chibiusa, becoming obsessed with her from both her glare and witnessing the Legendary Silver Crystal's power before hand.

This obsession included Usagi whom Demande abducted when she traveled from her time to 30th century Japan. Demande held her in Black Moon Castle before she managed to escape with her friends as the palace collapsed when the Malefic Black Crystal Reactor underwent a melt down.

Prince Demande then realizes he was simply being used by Wiseman and revolted against him after feigning to have fallen under his control, forced to kill his own brother while unmasking Wiseman as Nemesis itself. The latter act drove Demande insane, stealing the two Silver Crystals from Black Lady and nearly causing the destruction of space-time continuum were it not for Sailor Pluto's intervention. While the manga has Demande die fighting Sailor Moon and Tuxedo Mask, Sailor Moon Crystal depicts him sacrificing his life to shield them from Wiseman's attack.

90s Anime

He was manipulated by Wiseman into attacking Crystal Tokyo and taking over the Earth. Finding Crystal Palace to be invincible, he sent one of his commanders, Rubeus, to the past to take over Tokyo by securing crystal points. However, Rubeus's plans were all foiled by Sailor Moon, and after his death, Diamond sent Emerald into the past to carry out her plan of taking over Tokyo by filling its vulnerable spots with dark energy. After several failed attempts, Diamond called her back.

Diamond is in love with Sailor Moon, and when she and the other Sailor Scouts went with Rini to the future, Diamond tried to hypnotize her into loving him, but Tuxedo Mask stopped him. After Emerald was destroyed, Diamond, Sapphire, Wiseman, and Wicked Lady (Rini brainwashed by Wiseman) traveled to the past and placed a dark crystal in the middle of Tokyo. Diamond's younger brother Sapphire discovered that Wiseman was conspiring against them, and tried to warn him, but was killed by Wiseman. Diamond was angry at Wiseman for this, but didn't believe Sapphire at first.

Sailor Moon came face to face with Diamond inside this crystal, where he unsuccessfully tried to hypnotize her. Soon, he realized that Sapphire was right about Wiseman, and fought him. Wiseman directed a dark spear attack at Sailor Moon, but Diamond jumped in front of her and took the hit. Though he managed to destroy Wiseman's arms (Wiseman came back together), he died from his injuries.

Powers and Abilities

Demand can shoot energy waves and energy balls (not unlike Dragon Ball Z style attacks). He also possesses the ability Evil Sight, opening a third eye on his forehead that allows him to hypnotize or psychically immobilize his opponent.

SAPPHIRE

Loyal to Prince Demand, and one of the founding members of the Black Moon clan, Saphir is in charge of creating the Droids and bringing them to life with the energies of the Malefic Black Crystal generated from the reactor. Out of the Black Moon members, Saphir was the only member not to directly use a fragment of the Black Crystal. When Demand brought Usagi to the moon, Saphir admitted his distain towards Neo Queen Serenity and attempted to kill Usagi with his Droids Veneti and Aquatici while telling her that the Legendary Silver Crystal causes nothing but misery. But Usagi managed to transform with her future self's help as she and her friends escape the collapsing Black Moon castle.

Saphir and Demand were brought to Wiseman by his new agent Black Lady, the brothers learning of Rubeus death before Saphir was under Wise Man's mind control spell and equipped with Black Crystal earrings to aid Black Lady. But Demand, immune to the effects of Wise Man's magic, was forced to kill Saphir.

90s Anime

He is in love with Prizma.

Sapphire gave Emerald crystal objects called Dark Wedges to help her take over Tokyo, but all her plans were foiled.

Sapphire suspected Wiseman of manipulating them, especially after Wiseman brought about the death of Emerald. Soon, his suspicions were confirmed and he stole a chip Wiseman was using to power the dark crystal, and then attempted to warn Diamond, but was attacked and nearly killed by Wiseman. The Negamoon Sisters found him and took him to their house to recover from his injuries. Sapphire tried to tell Diamond about Wiseman's evil plan, with the Sailor Scouts attempting to stop Wicked Lady from hurting him, but Wiseman shot him with two energy blasts, the second succeeding in killing him. When the bandages on his head fell off, the dark crescent moon on his forehead vanished.

Sapphire has never been seen using any attacks in the anime.

EMERALD

Esmeraude is infatuated with Prince Dimande, giving the Sailor Guardians a warm welcome in 30th century Tokyo after her subordinates Chiral and Achiral failed to eliminate them. Esmeraude overpowered Sailor Moon until she was killed by Tuxedo Mask with the aid of his future counterpart.

90s Anime

Emerald did not like Rubeus much, and was there to rub it in his face when all his attempts to take over Tokyo failed. She left him to die as his ship exploded after he was defeated by the Sailor Scouts, and from here, she took over trying to take over Crystal Tokyo. Her plans involved using Dark Wedges provided by Sapphire to fill Tokyo's vulnerable spots with dark energy, but all her plans were foiled by Sailor Moon.

Eventually, Diamond called Emerald back to the future. When the Sailor Scouts, Rini, Tuxedo Mask, Luna, and Artemis entered the Time Warp to go to the future, she sent a droid after them, but they destroyed her. When Diamond tried to hypnotize Sailor Moon, and Tuxedo Mask stopped him to help Sailor Moon escape, Emerald attacked Diamond from the shadows, as she does not want him to be distracted by her.

Emerald asked Wiseman for power to destroy the Sailor Scouts and get Prince Diamond to like her. Wiseman gave her a crown powered by the Black Evil Crystal, saying that with it she could do both. However, the power of the dark crystal was too much for her and transformed her into a hideous dragon. She attacked the Crystal Palace and fought the Sailor Scouts. Sailor Venus attacked her with Venus Love Chain Encircle, scratching her, but she healed the cut. Sailor Jupiter zapped her with Jupiter Thunderclap Zap, but she survived. Sailor Mars attacked her with Mars Celestial Fire Surround, but she seemed unaffected. Sailor Mercury froze her tail with Shine Aqua Illusion, but she shattered the ice. As she was breathing fire at them, Tuxedo Mask hit her in the crown with a rose, and Sailor Moon destroyed her with Moon Scepter Elimination. She briefly reappeared before falling into a void to her death.

Personality

Emerald is very vain, selfish, greedy, jealous, and has a horrible laugh. She is also easily distracted by cakes. She loves hot baths and jewelry which gives her somewhat easy-going but extravagent and selfish personality.

Powers and Abilities

Emerald attacks by throwing dark energy balls or shooting waves of dark energy (though we only ever see her try to do the first, and the second she is offscreen unnoticed by anyone except Sapphire when she does the attack).

Following the capture of Sailors Mars, Mercury, and Jupiter, Rubeus confided his mistrust towards Wiseman with Saphir while Usagi was held captive in Black Moon Castle. 90s Anime

Rubeus is confronted by Emerald and begs her to take him back to their time. But Emerald instead leaves Rubeus to die for his repeated failures, lying to Prince Diamond that Rubeus died in battle.

So Rubeus dies deserted and isolated as he coldly deserted his subordinates in life.

PRIZMA

Petz was tasked by Rubeus to infect humans with a virus that leave them weak enough to be replaced by Droids. Among the infected is Makoto, who transformed to Sailor Jupiter to defeat her Droid double with Petz arriving to avenge her younger sisters' death. She succeeds to capturing Sailor Jupiter before being destroyed from behind by Sailor Moon.

BERTIE

Sent to remove all opposition to the Black Moon Clan, Berthier disguised herself to find the Sailor Guardians and targeted Ami Mizuno as a result as she played chess against Ami in a tournament with Chibiusa the prize. Though Berthier lost, she captured Sailor Mercury before being destroyed by Sailor Moon.

90s Anime

Berthier was the first to try and take over a crystal point in Tokyo, and also the first to send one of the Black Moon's Droids. Eventually she played chess against Ami in a tournament and lost, so she did a "freeze play": where the player's body gradually freezes whenever she lost a piece. Tuxedo Mask broke the spell, Berthier is horrified to learn that she is being abandoned to her death by her older sisters. But Koan convinces Berthier that can start anew together as the latter allowed herself to be purified, helping their older sisters make the same choice as the four of them run a cosmetic shop in 20th Tokyo.

---

Altaïr Ibn-La'Ahad (1165-1257) was born to a Syrian-Muslim father, Umar Ibn-La'Ahad, and his wife, Maud, who died of complications during childbirth. Umar was later executed by the forces of Saladin when he was revealed to have participated in a disastrous mission to assassinate the ruler, which resulted in Umar killing a nobleman who had caught him. He allowed himself to be executed and the last thing he heard was the voice of his son crying for him.

As the years passed, Altaïr grew to be a skilled Assassin, so he had to lose a finger. He once led the retaking of Masyaf after Al Mualim, the Mentor of the Order, was captured, which earned him the respect of his fellow Assassins. He was then sent on a mission to Solomon's Temple to recover a hidden artifact. The mission was a failure, as Altaïr broke the tenets of the Order and left his fellow Assassins to face the Templars alone after he was thrown from the room by Robert de Sablé. Altaïr fled to Masyaf to report his failure but was followed, resulting in Masyaf being attacked by the Templars. The Assassins were able to fend off their enemies, but Altaïr was punished by being stabbed by Al-Mualim.

Altaïr later awoke and discovered that he had been stripped of his rank, but was told by Al-Mualim that he would be able to recover it if he could kill nine Templars in the Holy Land. Altaïr was able to assassinate the first eight, then discovered that his last target was Robert himself. He then made his way back to Jerusalem where he met Robert. However, as he removed the helmet of the Templar, he found out that he had not faced Robert but a woman. He allowed her to live and she told him that Robert had made his way to Arsuf. Altaïr followed and finally killed Robert, who revealed that Al Mualim was actually using Altaïr to obtain the Apple of Eden, a powerful artifact left behind by the First Civilization. Altaïr returned to Masyaf, where Al Mualim confirmed what Robert had said. Altaïr, aided by a number of other Assassins, fought his way to Al Mualim, who had used to the artifact from Solomon's Temple to enslave the people of Masyaf. Altaïr and his mentor battled each other and Altaïr finally killed him, taking his place as Mentor.

After these events, Altaïr eventually began to study the artifact, known as the Apple of Eden, and recorded his findings in a journal known as the Codex. He also married Maria Thorpe, who was the decoy of Robert de Sable, after he convinced her to defect to the Assassins. He had two sons, Darim and Sef Ibn-La'Ahad. During this time, Altaïr used what he had learned from the Apple to create new techniques and innovations for the Assassins to use. He later journeyed in 1222 to Xingqing in Western Xia, China, with Maria, Darim and Qulan Gal to assassinate Genghis Khan. They returned ten years later to discover that Abbas, Altaïr's rival, had usurped control of the Order. Abbas tried to force Altaïr to give him the Apple, revealing that Sef had been executed and told that Altaïr had ordered it. Angered, Altaïr used the Apple but Maria told him to stop, resulting in her being stabbed by one of the Assassins loyal to Abbas. Altaïr and Darim fled Masyaf and Altaïr fell into a deep depression. Years later Altaïr retook the Order with the help of Assassins led by Tazim Al-Sayf, the son of Malik.

He began rebuilding the Order, splitting it up into small "guilds" located around the world and began construction of a large library hidden under Masyaf, sealed by five keys containing his memories. When Venetian explorers, Niccolò and Maffeo Polo arrived in Masyaf after they were invited by Altaïr and Darim, he told them of his experiences and put into action his idea of dividing the Assassins into smaller groups with their help. Later, Masyaf was attacked by Mongols and Altaïr helped the explorers escape by using the Apple to fend off the attackers. He then divided his books by giving some to the Polos and sending some to Alexandria. He also gave the Venetians the memory keys to the library, before sealing himself into the library along with the Apple after saying goodbye to Darim. While in the library, Altaïr recorded one last memory on a key he kept with him and died moments after. His remains were found centuries later by the 16th-century assassin, Ezio Auditore da Firenze.

With that, the Masters of Evil and the Dark Signers teleport out.

Me: Next time Kalin.

We later went back to Earth. The Negamoon Clan had been silenced forever and the 30th Century had been corrected with everything in Neo Crystal Tokyo returning to normal.

Sailor Moon: (To the Viewers) If you see someone getting attacked by someone, do not hesitate to help out. Especially if they come from the distant future.

Me: You got that right Sailor Moon.

We went back home and rested. We learned a lot of awesome techniques from the Assassin's Creed Game Series and it was the coolest ever.

THE END

---

Another Awesome Fanfiction complete.

The Negamoon Clan has been a very fierce and malevolent clan that I remember seeing on Sailor Moon back when I was a kid and they were beyond a shadow of a doubt the most dangerous and most formidable adversaries Sailor Moon and team had ever faced. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the battle with the evil Egyptian Lord of the Dead, Anubis. He's the evil sorcerer from Yu-Gi-Oh! The Movie: Pyramid of Light and we're going to take down that evil Sorcerer and make sure he never destroys the entire planet.

See you all tomorrow.

Evil of the Pyramid of Light

In the north side of the city, we were walking to the house of Rad, Carlos and Alexis. They were the friends of the Transformers that helped Optimus and the Autobots battle Unicron in their universe.

Demolishor: It's been a while since we've last seen Rad and his friends.

Optimus Prime: It sure has been a while.

Laney: So Rad, Carlos and Alexis helped the Autobots and the Decepticons beat Unicron before?

Optimus Prime: They sure did Laney. And they are a tremendous help to all of us.

Jetfire: (Australian Accent) That's right mates.

Hot Shot: They helped us first find the Minicons and then they helped us destroy Unicron.

Lincoln: That's amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Clayface: Where do Rad and his friends live?

Me: They live right on the north side of the city. We should be just about there.

We arrived at the house of Rad White. His house wasn't that big but it was really nice.

Me: He has a nice place.

Linka: He sure does.

Lynn: Nice.

We went up and knocked on his door.

Rad answered and with him were his friends Carlos Lopez and Alexis Thi Dang.

Rad White: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all!

Me: Same to you Rad.

Carlos Lopez: It's awesome meeting you all.

Alexis Thi Dang: Same here.

Nico: It's nice to meet you guys.

Nico's Mienshao: Mienshao!

Optimus Prime: Long time no see guys.

Rad White: Optimus Prime! Hot Shot, Jetfire, everyone! Wow!

Hot Shot: Good to see you guys again.

Alexis Thi Dang: Same to you all.

We went inside and we got to talking about some of our awesome adventures with the Transformers.

Rad: Wow! So you are now the new leader of the Decepticons, Nico?

Nico: Yep. After we destroyed Unicron, I was recognized as the new Leader of the Decepticons.

Demolishor: That's right. And Nico is a very awesome leader.

Cyclonus: He sure is.

Tidal Wave: Tidal Wave agree.

Me: You'll give him a swollen head guys.

Alexis Thi Dang: I just wish Starscream could be here to see you all.

Me: Me too.

Nico: I heard from Optimus Prime that you and Starscream were friends Alexis.

Me: I was strongly against that because of how dangerous he was. But after being told about what had happened during your battle with Unicron, it gave me a new level of respect for the one you know.

Lincoln: But why would you become friends with Starscream?

Alexis Thi Dang: I really thought Starscream was capable of changing his ways.

Broadside: I'm sorry, Alexis. But any kindness Starscream had was overcome by the desire to become leader of the Decepticons.

Me: That would be for the one that we destroyed. The version that Alexis knows is the one that she knows who helped Optimus Prime.

Nico: Yeah.

Rad: When Alexis heard about Starscream's death, she was devastated.

Me: I know. I'm sorry.

Alexis Thi Dang: Thanks J.D.

Lori Jimenez: But he will always be with you no matter what Alexis.

Alexis Thi Dang: Thanks Lori. I appreciate that.

Me: And you all are amazing heroes in the worlds of Transformers. You all played a majorly important part in destroying Unicron once and for all and saved the entire universe from total destruction.

Nico: That's right.

Carlos Lopez: Thanks guys.

Lori: You're welcome.

We got to talking about all kinds of adventures that we have been on with the Transformers and we told them all kinds of amazing events that have happened on our adventures.

---

Later in Neo Domino City, we were there to visit the natural history museum to see a bunch of new ancient artifacts that were recently discovered in Egypt on a dig.

Me: Some of these artifacts are not like anything I've ever seen.

Yugi: No kidding.

We then saw Yugi's Grandfather Solomon Moto at the museum and he was there to check out the artifacts as well.

Yugi: Hey it's my grandfather.

Solomon Moto: Oh well it seems great minds think alike.

Me: What brings you here Professor Moto?

Solomon Moto: I came to check out the new artifacts as well.

We saw a mysterious blue pyramid and it looked a lot like a Millennium Item.

Nico: I've never seen something like this before.

Me: Me neither.

Tea: This says it's called the Pyramid of Light.

Solomon Moto: In all my years of Egyptology, I've never come across this relic before. But it says here that it belonged to an evil sorcerer who tried to bring about the end of the world.

Me: Whoa!

Cody: Lets see.

Cody got a good look at it.

Cody: (Gasp) I know this artifact! It belonged to the evil sorcerer Anubis!

Me: Anubis? You mean the God of the Dead?

Cody: No. Much worse. He is the Egyptian Lord of the Dead. Anubis is a sorcerer of pure evil. He lived 5,000 years ago and he is the Harbinger of Armageddon.

Cody went over his history.

---

Anubis is a powerful immortal and the main antagonist in the 2004 movie Yu-Gi-Oh!: The Pyramid of Light. He is named after the God in Egyptian Mythology.

He was voiced by Scottie Ray, who also voiced the Utrom Shredder, the Tengu Shredder and the Cyber Shredder in the 2003 Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles series.

5,000 years ago, Anubis tried to destroy the world, but was destroyed by Yami Yugi, the Pharaoh, though a prophecy told he would return from the dead.

When Yugi solved the Millennium Puzzle, not only did Yami's spirit awaken, but also Anubis's spirit inside the Pyramid of Light. Anubis's spirit placed the Pyramid of Light card in Maximillion Pegasus's deck, which, along with the Blue Eyes Shining Dragon, was taken by Kaiba when he beat Pegasus in a duel.

Kaiba dueled Yami Yugi, and played the Pyramid of Light card to destroy his Egyptian Gods. Playing this card empowered Anubis to suck Yugi, Joey, and Tristan's souls into the Millennium Puzzle, where they were attacked by mummies. When Yami or Kaiba lost life points in their duel, their life force was sucked out and given to Anubis, who gave Kaiba duel commands, but Kaiba resisted and tried to destroy the Pyramid of Light so he could beat Yami with his own Egyptian Gods, but was unsuccessful.

Anubis then appeared in physical form, restored to life, and knocked Kaiba out. Anubis continued the duel against Yami, but when Yugi blinded Anubis's eye inside the Millennium Puzzle by throwing the Dagger of Fate at it, the Pyramid of Light was weakened, enabling Yami to destroy the card. Anubis summoned an overpowered monster, but Yami revived the Egyptian Gods, who destroyed the monster, defeating Anubis. The actual Pyramid of Light was destroyed, and seemingly, so was Anubis. Yugi, Joey, and Tristan's souls were released.

However, the orb of the Pyramid of Light, containing Anubis's soul, survived, and Anubis transformed into a monster, telling Yugi it was time to die. With Yami at his side, Yugi summoned Blue Eyes Shining Dragon, given to him by Kaiba, which had the power to destroy any monster. Blue Eyes Shining Dragon used Shining Nova Attack to destroy Anubis once and for all, along with the orb of the Pyramid of Light.

Powers

Anubis' powers are connected to the Pyramid of Light. With the item, he is able to have his spirit go wherever needed, transport his mummified body and the pyramid into the Millennium Puzzle, command undead mummies, possess others, and show others the future. When the Pyramid of Light card is in play, Anubis is able to drain life energy from others who have taken damage during the duel in order to restore his body. He is also shown to be able to create cards of his own, creating the Pyramid of Light which he put in Pegasus' Deck, and his Sphinx monsters through a black slime that releases from his hands. Anubis's original form shows him with tan skin, a ragged black cape, and the Pyramid of Light. When in his monster form, Anubis is able to breathe a devastating black flame from his mouth and can easily resist other monsters' attacks. In his presence, Duelists can summon Duel Monster cards that have real powers, including their special effects, as Joey Wheeler was able to summon "Gilford the Lightning" and "Gearfried the Iron Knight" to battle Anubis, Maximillion Pegasus was able to summon "Toon Dark Magician Girl" and "Blue-Eyes Toon Dragon" to stop falling debris, while Yugi and Kaiba were able to summon the "Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon", whose special effect to destroy any monster brought his end once and for all.

---

We gasped in shock and pure horror.

Me: He's PURE EVIL!

Nico: No kidding. Anubis is a monster.

Vince: That is horrible!

Laney: I didn't know that this Anubis was that bad.

Lola: No kidding.

Me: It's good that he didn't succeed in destroying the world back then.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It is lads.

Suwailim: (Egyptian Accent) I've heard about Anubis. If he were ever to come back, he would try to finish what he started in the past.

Solomon Moto: That's right.

Hunter: (German Accent) That's awful.

Me: Big time trouble for the world.

Solomon Moto: That's right. Legends say that a brave Pharaoh destroyed him using the Mystical Dagger of Fate.

Me: Pharaoh Atem.

Yugi: So it was Pharaoh Atem that killed him.

Solomon: Yep.

Solomon showed us Anubis's corpse and it was a mummy.

Laney: So this mummy is Anubis.

Lola: He sure looks creepy.

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Me: He's over 5,000 years old.

Nico: It's hard to imagine that he was overflowing with that much evil.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Me: And I thought Imhotep was radiating with that much evil.

Paige: Same with the Scorpion King.

Akiza: Scary.

Me: Yeah.

Alexis Rhodes: I can't believe Anubis is that dangerous.

Jaden: No kidding.

Tea: He sure is creepy and ugly.

Me: No kidding.

Yugi: What does it say here on his Sarcophagus?

Me: Lets see.

I looked it over and it looked like a prophecy.

Me: It's some kind of prophecy.

Gabe: Can you read it J.D. like you did in that tomb?

Me: I sure can.

I read it.

Me: "The eye that sees what's yet to come, it's vision shall be fulfilled. Unless blinded by events predetermined, thus light and shadows both be killed."

Suddenly Yugi and Solomon got knocked out and we saw an evil force take the mummy and we managed to save the Pyramid of Light!

Me: Whoa! That was a close one!

Nico: What was that?

Me: It's the magic of Anubis.

Yugi and Solomon woke up.

Yugi: What happened?

Me: We've got big problems.

Solomon: No! This is terrible!

Tea: Yeah. Someone took the mummy and tried to take the Pyramid of Light.

Solomon: This is one crime those crooks are gonna regret. According to the legend, Anubis vowed that he would one day return from the dead.

We gasped.

Me: So Anubis vowed to finish what he started.

Cody: I've known about Anubis from my days as a drifter and he is a danger to every living thing on this planet as he was back 5,000 years ago.

Nico: Then we have to stop him!

Yugi: If Anubis wants a duel…

Jaden: Then he's got one!

Me: And we won't let him destroy our home! I have a feeling I know where he's going to show up. Lets head to the KaibaCorp Duel

Dome!

We went out of the museum and flew to the Duel Dome!

Laney: This is bad guys! This is really bad!

Lori: I know.

Me: Anubis poses a threat to everyone here on this entire planet and we have to stop him from returning it and destroying it.

Suwailim: We have to stop Anubis or it will bring about the next apocalypse.

Me: And we will.

We arrived at the Duel Dome and we stood ready.

Me: This is it.

Nico: Stand ready guys.

Laney: This is gonna get really rough.

Pegasus: We're ready for anything.

Then we heard a voice!

?: I will not allow you all to destroy me that easily.

Me: Who said that?

Cody: That voice. It's Anubis.

Anubis: I'm impressed that you know about me Mortal.

Laney: Where is he?

Me: Everywhere it would seem.

Nico: Show yourself!

Then we saw a shadow appear and it looked a lot like Anubis, the God of The Dead. A puddle of Darkness appeared and a figure arose from it and it was THE EGYPTIAN LORD OF THE DEAD, ANUBIS! He chanted a malevolent incantation and he was reformed! His power was overflowing with absolute pure evil and he was now 1,000 times worse than many of our most dangerous enemies all combined!

Pharaoh Atem: So you've come back after all these years to destroy me. We figured you would be here. The Egyptian Lord of the Dead, Anubis!

Anubis: I am pleased that you remembered me after all these years, my Pharaoh. It will make my ultimate vengeance all the sweeter. You will fall and my reign of destruction shall begin!

Me: We won't let that happen!

Anubis: So you are the reincarnation of Pharaoh Seti I.

Me: That's right. 3,000 years ago I was murdered by my High Priest Imhotep, the Keeper of the Dead.

Akiza: J.D. is the reincarnation of Pharaoh Seti I?

Yusei: Unbelievable!

Cody: We all were surprised ourselves.

Anubis: So it is true. I figured he would return through you. But you and all of your mortal friends will fall, along with everyone on this wretched world!

Me: We'll see about that!

Pharaoh Atem: And no matter what happens, we will not let your evil plan come to pass Anubis!

Anubis: All I need to do is fight all of you in a fight to the death and the Prophecy will be fulfilled. You will all be destroyed. The magic of the Shadow Games that you've locked away centuries ago will once again be unleashed into the world! And I shall finally take my rightful place as the Pharaoh of this realm! With the Pyramid of Light at my command, there is nothing you all can do to stop me!

Nico: We shall see!

?: And me and my ninjas of cheese will help him!

A figure came out and it was the CHEESE SHOGUN ROQUEFORT and his CHEESE NINJAS!

---

Cheese Shogun Roquefort is the ruler of the "Cheese Empire" made up of stereotypical Japanese warriors made out of cheese, who appears in "Operation: T.H.E.-S.H.O.G.U.N.".

He was voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson.

Biography

He stole all the cheese from a new cheese-themed restaurant, taking great offense at the idea of cheese being eaten and considering it more valuable than gold. He kidnapped Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 4, who attended the opening of the restaurant, and forced them to work in his Cheese Mines. After escaping, Numbuh 4 freed the workers and led them to an exit while Numbuh 2 battled the Shogun in his throne room. Roquefort was eventually defeated by knocking himself out.

In real-life, he would most certainly be the target of a military operation, due to his use of military-grade weaponry for his soldiers, as well as kidnapping and enslaving innocents.

He was not seen again until "Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S.", where he is among the numerous characters competing for the The Delightful Children From Down The Lane's birthday cake. He and his ninjas give up when they learn that the cake is not a cheesecake.

The Cheese Ninjas are the Shogun's loyal henchmen, and are in charge of capturing prisoners to work in the cheese mines. They have cheese wheels for heads and wear light-yellow outfits. Their main weapons are shurikens made of American cheese slices. The voices of the various cheese ninjas were provided by Brian Tochi, Kevin Michael Richardson and Daran Norris.

Numbuh 2: CHEESE SHOGUN ROQUEFORT!

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: It's been a long time Hoagie P. Gilligan!

Yuko Tani: I don't think I remember facing you.

Lola: We didn't face him when we fought all of the adult villains.

Nico was drooling uncontrollably at the sight of the Cheese Shogun and his Ninjas.

Cheese Shogun: Don't even think about eating me!

Nico: (drooling) Can't I eat just a small part of you?

Raven: I will face him.

Nico: And I will help you Raven. (Slurps lips)

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Out came Rex Goodwin and he had a collar on him and Electro and Firefly were with him.

Me: Rex Goodwin, Electro and Firefly.

Electro: Do you like the collar we put on Rex? This ensures that he and Kalin don't fall out of line.

Me: I see that. Must be part of the new protocols that you put on them.

Electro: Indeed.

Firefly: We did the same thing to Mr. Burns. Knowing all of the terrible things he did to everyone in Springfield before it was destroyed, we figured it would be perfect for him too.

Qin: Good thinking.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) How is Carly doing?

Electro: Doing really great. That song you sang her was really adorable.

?: It sure was cute.

We saw a figure come out and it was SKELEKRON from episode 16 of Lost Galaxy!

---

Skelekron is a skeletal knight monster brought in by Scorpius to deal with the Galaxy Rangers and the future Magna Defender. With the help of his Skelekron Warriors (miniature dolls that are able to absorb energy with the help of an ancient shrine and the power of Skelekron's Mirror-Shield), Skelekron goes after the four Galaxy Rangers, which lures Leo and Mike out into the battle. When the brothers were confronted by Stingwingers, Kai and the others attempted to reach them, but were cut off by Skelekron. He trapped the Rangers in his mirror shield and prepared to do the same with Leo when Mike intervened, allowing both of them to escape.

When Skelekron discovered one of Mike's dogtags on a Stingwinger, he summoned Skeletron Warrior Pink and Skelekron Warrior Yellow to deal with Leo and Mike first. Once they were dispatched, Skelekron Warrior Blue and Skelekron Warrior Green were dealt with easily, leaving Skelekron open to attack. Leo fended him and the Stingwingers off with a fire attack from his Quasar Saber, the attack shattered Skelekron's shield and the Rangers were released freed from imprisonment. Leo transformed and the Rangers sought to take care Skelekron using the Lights of Orion and the Galaxy Megazord, however, Skelekron trapped them inside a mirror with the power of his sword.

He was eventually destroyed by Mike (who was chosen to become Magna Defender's successor), who transformed into the Mega Defender and used the Defender Torozord's lightning spin attack against him. The Galaxy Megazord was released upon Skelekron's destruction.

---

Leo Corbett: Skelekron!

Skelekron: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Scorpius to destroy the Galaxy Rangers and Mike Corbett who became the next Magna Defender. And you created those awesome Skelekron Warriors to help you by using the power of an ancient shrine and your Mirror Shield.

Skelekron: That's right. You sure know all about the history of all of us that appear on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode. You know the funny thing is that there was a Red Skelekron Warrior, but it only appeared in the Japanese version of the Lost Galaxy Rangers and not in the American Version. What a ripoff.

Skelekron: Yeah I know.

Kendrix: Don't even think of using us to make your Skelekron Warriors again!

Skelekron: I won't need to. You see, Vypra was kind of enough to give me my Skelekron Wariors back with her powers. And she was even kind enough to add in a red one as well.

We saw him form 5 Skelekron Warriors! A red one, a green one, a blue one, a yellow one and a pink one!

Me: Nice! This is like living an episode of Lost Galaxy.

Leo Corbett: It sure does feel like it.

Me: And for the record Skelekron, Scorpius and his entire army are all dead. We killed Scorpius and blew his entire ship to smithereens with our Superlaser and we killed Trakeena after a vicious and ferocious fight and sent her into the River of Fire.

Skelekron: Good riddance. To tell you all the truth, I always know that Trakeena could never be trusted.

Me: I've known that the entire time. Lets get them guys!

We powered up!

Emma: Let's get this duel started!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mighty Morphin Rangers!

Leo Corbett: Lets do it guys!

Lost Galaxy Rangers: GO! GALACTIC!

Mike Corbett: MAGNA POWER!

The Lost Galaxy Rangers transformed and the Magna Defender transformed and they were ready!

Me: We'll take down our Archnemesis's in the Masters of Evil and then take down Anubis.

Nico: Okay.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Electro

---

Lincoln was facing Electro!

Lincoln: This is gonna be good!

Electro: It sure is. If you have anymore rants with Icky Vicky, let me know.

Lincoln: We will.

Lincoln powered up and he had a lot of lightning surging through him!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and Electro fired a massive blast of lightning as well and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lincoln jumped away and fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit Electro and electrocuted him all over the place with incredible voltage. The voltage knocked him down.

Lincoln: Shocking Defeat!

THUNDERCLAP!

Firefly: Yes it will Lola.

Lola transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 Inferno Flame Princess form.

Firefly: Lets dance.

Lola fired a massive blast of fire and Firefly fired a blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The fire was making her stronger and stronger and stronger by the second and when it stopped Lola had a massive aura of fire burning ferociously around her.

Lola: My turn!

Lola went at him with incredible speed and punched him in the face and knocked him down.

Lola: It's Burn Time!

---

Battle 3: Cheese Shogun Roquefort

---

Raven and Nico were facing Cheese Shogun Roquefort and Nico had drool pouring out of his mouth like Niagara Falls.

Raven: Uh Nico, you're drooling much more than usual.

Nico: I can't help it. (Slurps) I love cheese!

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: If you want some cheese then…

CHOMP!

Roquefort screamed in pain as Nico took a big bite out of his butt!

Nico: MMM! (With his mouth full) SO DELICIOUS!

Raven: (Laughs) That is pretty funny.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: You will pay for that!

Nico: Feed me!

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: ATTACK!

The Cheese Ninjas went at them.

Nico bit a bunch of Cheese Ninja and they were all made out of different kinds of cheese and he was eating them like there was no tomorrow!

Raven fired blasts of black energy and melted the Cheese Ninjas and put them on two giant slices of bread and on a giant cheeseburger bun and made a giant grilled cheese sandwich and a giant cheeseburger with buffalo meat, tomatoes, lettuce, onions, pickles, ketchup and mustard. Nico ate them and it was delicious!

Nico: (BIG BELCH!) I'm stuffed! But I think I have room for you Shogun.

Raven: Now he's a frenemy Nico.

Nico: Oh right.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: I WILL MAKE YOU WORK IN THE CHEESE MINES!

He went at Nico and Raven kicked the Shogun in the face and knocked him down.

Raven: That will teach you.

Nico: (Sad groan) If he wasn't a frenemy I would eat him.

Raven: I know Nico. But you can eat his ninjas.

Nico: True.

---

Battle 4: Rex Goodwin

---

I was facing Rex Goodwin on the Duel Runner Arena as it was racing on the Condor Nazca Line.

Me: That collar looks really nice on you Rex. It brings out your buff muscles.

Rex Goodwin: You will think twice in saying that when you are…

ZZAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPPPPPP!

He screamed in pain as he was being electrocuted.

Me: Whoa! Those collars really work.

Rex Goodwin: I hate it.

Me: It's for your own good Rex. You're getting out of control. Same with Kalin.

Rex Goodwin: You're right. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL WIRAQOCHA RASCA!

He summoned the Condor Earthbound Immortal Wiraqocha Rasca!

Me: I won't need much to beat you this time Rex. We're going to fight Anubis with our army of monsters. I summon DESTINY HERO - DREADMASTER!

Rex Goodwin: Interesting monster.

Me: Indeed. He's modeled after the famous legendary story The Man In The Iron Mask.

Rex Goodwin: Yes I know that story.

Me: And for good measure, we'll be fighting in his background. I activate CLOCK TOWER PRISON!

I activated the Clock Tower Prison Field Spell and it turned the area into the Big Ben Clock Tower.

Rex Goodwin: It looks like we're in London.

Me: It sure feels like it, doesn't it? That's what Clock Tower Prison is based off of. It's based off of the famous Elizabeth Clock Tower in London, England. It's more commonly known as Big Ben.

Rex Goodwin: I see. Lets dance.

Me: With pleasure.

We went at each other and I punched Rex in the face and kicked him in the chest and Dreadmaster punched and destroyed Wiraqocha Rasca and destroyed him in a huge explosion!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

I punched him and knocked him down.

Me: Nice. Now to help everyone else.

I went down to the fight.

---

Nico: Lets get him!

Me: You got it. And Nico you have cheese all over your face.

Nico: I know. I've had a huge meal.

Me: Cheese Shogun?

Nico: Didn't eat him. Ate a lot of his ninjas.

Me: Geez. Lets get them!

We went at Skelekron and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach. Troy and Leo Corbett blasted the Red Skelekron Warrior all over with fire and energy and blew him apart, Kendrix and Emma blasted the Pink Skelekron Warrior with earth and energy and smashed him to pieces, Jake and Damon faced the Green Skelekron Warrior and blasted him with wind and energy and shredded him all over, Kai and Noah fought the Blue Skelekron Warrior and drenched and blasted him with water and energy, Maya and Gia faced the Yellow Skelekron Warrior and blasted and electrocuted him with lightning and energy, and me, Nico, Mike and Orion punched, slashed and blasted Skelekron all over the place with incredible power! I punched him and Nico blasted him with energy and more. Mike and Orion blasted him and slashed him all over and made sure that he suffers. I fired a massive blast of fire and it hit Skelekron and he exploded all over.

Nico: Skelekron, you have failed this Universe!

Skelekron: (Weakly) You've beaten me fair and square. I will give you my powers to use my Skelekron Warriors as however you see fit.

Me: Thank you Skelekron. Lucy Loud would like those powers because of her love for all things dead.

Skelekron: Let it be done.

He transferred his powers into Lucy Loud and he fell down and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

Lola: Time to burn! FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: DEDUN!

Lola fired a wave of fire and it formed into the Nubian God of Incense, Dedun and he blasted and burned Anubis all over.

Lisa: This is gonna be an archeological disaster for you! EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SPHINX AND THE PYRAMIDS OF GIZA!

Lisa fired a wave of earth and it formed into the legendary Sphinx and he slashed and clawed Anubis and then Lisa entrapped Anubis in the famous Great Pyramids of Giza.

Lily: Try this one! WATER STYLE NINJA ART: ANUKET!

Lily fired a wave of water and it turned into Anuket, the Egyptian Cataract of the Nile and she blasted Anubis all over.

Maria: Try this one! WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TEFNUT!

Maria fired a blast of water and it turned into the Tefnut, the Goddess of Water and she blasted and drenched Anubis all over.

Lyra: This one I learned from Biblical Times. DECAY STYLE NINJA ART: TEN PLAGUES OF EGYPT!

Lyra fired 10 waves of energy and they formed each into one of the deadliest plagues ever to strike Egypt in the Book of Exodus in the Bible: The 10 Plagues. They hit Anubis in Order: Blood, Frogs, Lice, Livestock, Flies, Hail & Fire, Boils and Sores, Locusts, Darkness and Death of the Firstborn!

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator and it was called CONSUMIDAE! It looked so much like a Victreebel and it had a deadly red glow that was overflowing with incredible levels of Gamma Radiation!

Ben: CONSUMIDAE!

Me: Whoa! That one looks lethal!

Shanan: Whoa! Get back guys!

We stood back and we saw that our Plumber Badges were flashing red and it showed that there were radiation levels that were off the scale! My Geiger Counter was going haywire!

Me: My geiger counter is going haywire!

Nico: That predator is extremely radioactive!

Shanan: It sure is. That's a creature called a Insidroseracae. They are extremely radioactive plant creatures from the planet Prypiatos. They are the natural predators of the Prypiatosian-B's, N.R.G.'s species. They produce a lethal red glow that carries enough Gamma Radiation to kill an elephant.

Riley: Whoa! That is extremely lethal!

Julie Yamamoto: No kidding!

Cyborg: I'm picking up gamma radiation levels that are off the scale!

Laney: I haven't seen radioactivity this bad since we fought Derek Powers.

Me: Just what I was thinking.

James (Pokemon): And it looks so much like my Victreebel.

Shanan: They sure do look like Victreebel huh?

Nico: Yep.

Consumidae: Watch this.

He fired thorn barbs and they grew to the size of daggers and they hit Anubis and burned him with intense radiation.

Me: Lets hit him with our monsters!

We had our monsters all attack Anubis and he was completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of all of their power and was defeated in an instant.

Anubis: NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!

Anubis fell down and disintegrated, leaving only a red jewel from the Pyramid of Light he had around his neck behind.

Me: YEAH!

But our victory was short-lived as we heard him laughing malevolently. We saw a red orb glow.

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: We're not out of this yet.

Me: Stand ready!

A massive blast of dark fire exploded out of the orb and black slime erupted out and began to take form!

Anubis: SHADOWS TAKE LIFE! CREATURES BE BORN! NOW LETS SEE HOW WELL YOU PLAY THIS GAME WHEN THE MONSTERS ARE REAL!

Joey Wheeler: Monsters!?

Tristan: For real!?

Tea: Uh oh!

Anubis: It is no longer time to duel. Now IT IS TIME TO DIE!

He formed into a huge Jackal Beast and his power level had increased exponentially! He fired a massive blast of black fire from his mouth at us and we dodged it and it slammed into the wall and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets get him guys! Lets show some teamwork! Lets hit him with our combos all at once!

Nico: Right! Lets do it!

Broadside: I've had it with this monster!

Nico: Me too!

Broadside used the Earth Cyber Planet key and Nico used the Pokemon Cyber Planet key and they enhanced Broadside's Plasma Cannon and Nico's Mienshao's powers 100-fold.

Demolishor and Clayface used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced their weapons and powers 100-fold.

Nico: Mienshao, use Aura Sphere!

Broadside and Nico: PLASMA AURA MEGABLAST!

Broadside fired a plasma blast and Nico and his Mienshao fired a massive Aura Sphere.

Demolishor and Clayface: DEMOLISHING CLAY BOMB!

Clayface fired a massive Clay Ball and Demolishor fired a powerful barrage of lasers.

Volcana and Livewire: VOLCANIC LIGHTNING MEGABLAST!

Volcana fired a massive blast of fire and Livewire fired a massive blast of lightning!

Venom and Karai: VENOMOUS SWORD BLADEBLAST!

Karai fired blasts of energy from her sword and Venom fire blasts of Symbiote Matter and they fused with the blades.

Yugi and Yusei: EGYPT STARDUST MEGA STRIKE!

Jaden fired a blast of elemental Neos Energy and Kaiba fired a blast of White Lightning.

Joey and Crow Hogan: RED-EYES BLACK-WINGED FIRESTORM!

The blasts all combined and they hit Anubis all at once and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Anubis was knocked down.

Anubis: YOU HAVE NO CONCEPT OF MY POWERS. AND NOW THE END BEGINS!

He got back up and went into his final true form! He stood on his hind legs, possessed bladed wings, and an axe-like blade on top of his head, and the Pyramid's jewel in the center of his chest. He was immensely powerful.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: He's ugly and really strong!

Mai Valentine: Unbelievable!

Me: We're gonna have to hit him all at once with our Final Smashes. Aim for that Red Jewel in the center of his chest!

Nico: Right!

Pegasus: Goodbye, Anubis. I hope you enjoy the afterlife!

Me: Oblivion is more appropriate for him!

Pegasus: I'll start us off! DUEL MONSTER ARMY MEGASTORM!

Pegasus summoned a massive army of every single Duel Monster he ever made!

Me and the Signers: SIGNER DRAGON RAINBOW STORM!

Me and the Signers fired blasts of elemental energy.

Yugi and his friends: FRIENDSHIP BOND MEGABLAST!

Yugi and his friends fired a massive blast of energy in the form of the Friendship Circle they made.

Jaden and his friends: DUEL ACADEMY FRIENDSHIP FIRESTORM BLAST!

Jaden and his friends fired blasts of energy in the form of the symbol of Duel Academy.

Heidi: UNITY SOULBLAST KAMEHAMEHA!

Heidi fired a massive blast of energy and it was infused with the power she used to destroy Dartz.

The blasts combined into one massive blast and Anubis fired a massive blast of dark fire at the blasts and our blast destroyed it and it slammed into the red jewel and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Anubis: NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!

Anubis roared in extremely excruciating agony as he was melting and being reduced to black slime and we saw that he was reduced to his mummy form and he melted into the slime and he was gone for good. We saw the red jewel shatter into nothing as it was gone forever. ANUBIS WAS DEAD! This time forever.

We powered down.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Kaiba: That's it for that freak.

Me: You said it Seto. You all did really well.

Nico: Yes you did.

Me: Anubis is gone forever. Our power combined destroyed him for good.

The Masters of Evil appeared.

Electro: That was an incredible battle.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Firefly: FYI, Kalin and Rex's collars are the Deadman Wonderland ones.

William: Really?

Electro: Yep. But now, they use electricity instead of poison.

Kairi: Glad those collars are good for something.

Me: Yep. That was clever recalibrating them to use electricity instead of poison.

Electro: Thanks J.D.

Cheese Shogun: And Nico? Try not to eat any part of me next time!

The Masters of Evil then teleported out.

Me: This was an immense battle.

Nico: Boy it sure was.

Yugi: This was probably the most intense battle we've ever had with you guys.

Tea: It sure was.

Tristan: But we loved it.

Me: Glad you guys loved it. But if anymore of your enemies ever come back, Team Loud Phoenix Storm will be there to stop them.

Yugi: Thanks J.D.

We shook hands.

Kaiba: If you want to know how to Duel, J.D., I can teach you.

Me: Thanks Seto. But I think we'll stick to our own methods.

Joey Wheeler: It was amazing though.

Lana: It sure was Joey.

Yugi: (To the viewers) If you love Duel Monsters, always be careful with who you duel and play for fun and not for evil.

Me: Amen to that Yugi.

Cody (OC): I'm glad we've now seen the last of Anubis.

Laney: Yes indeed Cody.

We went back home and had a long rest.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete!

Yu-Gi-Oh! the Movie was an awesome movie that I remember seeing with my friend Alex Lyons when we went to the movie theater and it was awesome! It was amazing that Yugi and Kaiba both took down an evil monster like Anubis. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is where we help the WWE wrestlers in an awesome race in Scooby Doo! Curse of the Speed Demon.

See you all tomorrow.

WWE RACING MYSTERY MAYHEM!

In the High School in the Teacher's Lounge, the Teachers were on Lunch Break and having a good lunch.

Teacher 1: I would like to think of my kids as people who can know how to lose gracefully. In the 8th Grade, we teach character.

Edna Krabappel: Mike lets be adults here.

Mike: You're right Edna. (Coughing) Fourth can fuck themselves!

Edna Krabappel: (INSULTED AND ENRAGED!) OH THAT'S IT!

She pulled out a bag of popcorn from the microwave and opened it and sprayed the fumes into his face and he screamed in pain. Then a Westworld 1973 Saloon-Style Brawl broke out and the teachers were mercilessly thrashing each other around. Principal Skinner when he's not working with the Masters of Evil has been given his job as principal back and he was playing on a saloon Piano and the teachers were really tearing each other apart. They were punching each others faces, kicking each others crotches, smashing their faces in with all kinds of objects and more. The teachers turned everyday objects into makeshift weapons. Bottles and cups were being smashed on peoples heads, punches and kicks were flying all over and hitting people all over and teeth were flying and Blood was flying and splattering everywhere and tables were being smashed into splinters and lunches were flying all over and bones were being broken all over and not even Superintendent Chalmers was safe from the brawl as he was punched in the face and sent crashing into the wall.

We were walking down the hall.

Me: So I heard that WWE is hosting a huge awesome race later this week.

Nico: I know. It's gonna be awesome! And I heard that Mystery Inc. is gonna be there to support their friends on WWE.

Varie: That's awesome!

POW!

We saw Ms. Hoover fly out of the Teacher's Lounge.

Ms. Hoover: Oof! (Growls) Why I oughta!

Me: What the?

She went back in and we followed and we saw the fight!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: What in the world!?

Me: This looks like an Old West Saloon-Style Bar Fight.

Nico: We haven't had fights like these in over 140 years.

Varie: No kidding.

Me: No kidding. HEY!

Soo Young: Stop this!

Bianca: Yeah!

But they wouldn't listen!

Bowser Jr. fired a fireball and set a teachers butt on fire and he ran around screaming his head off in pain and I punched him and knocked him down. Persephone, Chunk, Margo, Paula, Bianca, and Soo Young helped us and tied him up and Nico and Varie tied everyone up.

Me: Maybe this will help you all calm down.

We left the lounge.

Me: Now I see why we don't go into the teachers lounge.

Nico: Yeah it's like we entered World War III.

Bowser Jr: I'm glad we calmed those teachers down!

Me: Me too B.J.

We went to the cafeteria for our lunch.

Eddy and Luan were talking with Natsu.

Natsu: Luan, you know you and Benny will only be friends at this point, right?

Luan: Yeah I know. But I hope he doesn't hurt me like before.

Punch: We'll make sure he doesn't.

Thunderblast: Lets go talk to him.

We went over and talked to him.

Benny: Hey guys.

Me: Hey Benny. How have you been doing?

Benny: I've been doing terrible. Ever since I hurt Luan, I feel like I tore my life apart.

Me: I'm sorry Benny.

Thunderblast: Hey, Benny. We're gonna need Mr. Coconuts' girlfriend from you.

Benny: Mrs. Appleblossom? Sorry. I can't do that.

Thunderblast: We weren't asking.

Me: Thunderblast no. We just need to have you talk to Luan so we can have you be friends. Just friends Benny. Is that so wrong?

Benny: No it's not. But okay.

Punch: (glares at Benny) You make Luan cry again and I swear to God we'll let Eddy murder you!

Nico: Punch, stand down! Let Benny handle this.

Punch: But he hurt Luan.

Nico: That's an order!

Punch: Okay.

Benny went over to Luan.

Luan: Hey Benny.

Eddy: What do you want!?

Me: Eddy just let him talk. He's not here to hurt Luan. He just wants to talk.

Eddy: Fine.

Benny: Luan, I'm so sorry I hurt you and what I have done to you has made me one of the lowest of the low and I can never forgive myself for everything I've done to you. But I just want you to know that I'm cool with you and Eddy being together.

Luan: Really?

Benny: I sure am. And I couldn't be anymore happier for the both of you.

Eddy: Thanks Benny. That means a lot to us.

Benny: Thanks Eddy. I'm sorry I hurt you both and I want you both to know that I will do my best to help you all out. I want you to know that I will be there to support you.

Luan: Thanks Benny. (As Mr. Coconuts) And Mrs. Appleblossom can support me too right?

Benny: (As Mrs. Appleblossom) (British Accent) If Benjamin supports you then I will support all of you as well.

Eddy: (As Eddo) Me too.

We cheered wildly for them.

Nico: I'm happy for them.

Me: Me too.

George Beard: Awesome deed you guys did.

Harold Hutchins: Yep.

Me: Thanks guys.

We got back to eating lunch.

---

Later over in Los Angeles, California we were there to watch and support our favorite wrestling heroes in The Muscle Moto X Off Road Challenge, an off-road race car race for the WWE superstars, with a big cash prize: $100,000,000,000,000,000,000.00. We had our roadsters ready just in case. We were sitting on the hoods of our cars and we were ready just as a precaution.

Me: This is gonna be awesome!

Laney: It sure is. Just like watching wrestling on TV, it's gonna be so awesome seeing our favorite wrestlers tear apart the road.

Lucy Loud: I hope my favorite wrestler wins.

Lynn: Who's your favorite wrestler Luce?

Lucy Loud: The Undertaker.

Me: He's tough. He's 6' 10" and weighs 309 pounds and he is really tough.

Nico: He's really tough.

Naruto: The look of death is all over his face.

Me: It sure is bro. But that's what makes him a formidable wrestler.

Luna Loud: I'm rooting for Paige dudes.

Paige: Me Luna?

Luna Loud: No this is the Wrestler Paige. She's from England and she has a powerful style dudes.

Me: She's awesome dudette.

Vince: She sure is. I heard she retired now.

Me: I don't blame her.

Shaggy and Scooby then came.

Shaggy: Like, Hi guys!

Me: Hey Shaggy. Hiya Scooby.

Scooby Doo: You here for the wrestling race?

Me: You know it Scooby. Wouldn't miss it for the world.

Laney: It's awesome.

Nico: Yep.

Daphne Blake: You said it guys.

Velma: Yeah. I find this race to be very enjoyable.

Me: It sure is Velma.

But then we got a nasty and wicked surprise when we saw an evil racer called INFERNO!

---

Inferno is the main antagonist of the 2nd Scooby-Doo and WWE crossover film Curse of the Speed Demon. He was a ghostly racer that terrorized the WWE off-road race known as the Muscle Moto X. In reality, he was the disguise of Authority members Triple H and Stephanie McMahon used to sabotage other racers and secure their victory. He's a demonic looking racer with glowing red skin, claws, and red eyes. He wears brown slacks that are torn from the knee down, a collared shirt with one sleeve torn off, red open face ski mask, a dull red helmet, dark red gloves, a long grey scarf, and grey goggles with black lenses.

---

Lynn: (Gasp!) That's the Inferno Racer!

Shaggy: ZOINKS!

Me: Whoa! He looks ugly!

Nico: He sure does.

Laney: Who or what is Inferno?

Lynn: He's a racer that died while turning on Dead Man's Curve on Marauder Mountain back in the 1930's.

Lynn went over the legend.

---

In the 1930's there used to be races held on Marauder's Mountain in homemade hotrods. During one event an unknown racer showed up out of nowhere to challenge them all. He was ruthless. But as he reached the top, he realized too late that Deadman's Curve had washed away. They say you can still see the racer to this day. Cursed to forever haunt any attempts to race on the mountain.

Years would pass by and racers from out of town would try to drive the Marauder's Mountain route. They found the local tales to be just old superstition. However, whether they believe it or not, an accident would always occur. Even the most skeptical racer would return saying that they had seen something out there. Most would not speak any more of their experiences.

There were also other stories that have emerged over the years. Not just from people that have driven on the mountain. A group of hikers were traversing the south side of Marauder's Mountain during one fall season. Late in the evening, they looked to the distance and saw the old road that lead further up to the top. They told locals they saw two lines of fire moving along the road. Then moments later the fire would disappear.

There was also one witness account from a helicopter pilot flying down near the mountain. When he had glanced down at the area where the road washed away, he thought he saw the figure of a man on fire standing at the edge of the drop.

---

We gasped in shock.

Me: That is terrible!

Nico: No kidding.

Maria then smelled something weird and she picked up a handful of dirt and sniffed it. It smelled like rotten eggs.

Maria: (sniffs something in the dirt) Is this brimstone?

William: (Sniffs) Ew! It definitely is brimstone.

Me: It smells like sulfur.

Nico: Yuck.

Me: Something is really fishy here. Lets get after that monster with our roadsters.

We got into our cars and gunned it and we were chasing after Inferno.

My Signer Mark glowed and we then saw that we were all racing on the Hummingbird Nazca Line.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: We're racing on the Hummingbird Nazca Line.

Laney: Awesome!

Carly came up to us and she was driving in her own awesome race car. It looked like a Lotus Evora and it was all black and orange and it had the Hummingbird Nazca Line on the front and it had scary wings on the sides and the bumper had awesome tail feathers. On the side was the number -666 and it said Carly Carmine's Hummingbird Speeding Death.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys!

Me: Wow! Nice wheels Carly.

Carly Carmine: Thanks J.D. Hey Jack. Like my new ride?

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Amazing car Carly.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) Amazing car.

Carly Carmine: Thanks guys.

Shiv came up to us on the Duel Runner arena and King Hiss was with him.

Shiv: Hey guys. Love the rides!

Me: Shiv. Its been a while.

Shiv: It sure has J.D. Before we fight, I just want you guys to know that it really has been a while since you've raced.

Me: It sure has. But we've had a bunch of awesome races.

Shiv: I remember watching them on TV. They were awesome.

?: Let me have some fun too.

We saw another car drive up and in it was the enemy of the Teen Titans, DR. ARTHUR LIGHT!

---

Dr. Arthur Light is a powerful mad scientist who appears in several episodes of Teen Titans, once more a comical foe, but still not one to be taken lightly. His archenemy in this version is Raven, who regularly trounces him with the darkness she contains, and who on occasion can defeat him just by showing up and glaring, so searing are the memories of his beat-downs.

He was voiced by Rodger Bumpass who also voices Major Nixel and Squidward Tentacles.

Doctor Light is a villain who likes to talk big, and he thinks of himself as the most accomplished, clever and mightiest bad guy around. He enjoys teasing his opponents with puns relating to light. However, he usually fails to live up to his boasts because of his overconfidence and a sheer lack of common sense. He is also extremely afraid of Raven since she went temporary crazy along with demonic and dragged him into her cloak in "Nevermore", nearly killing him. Doctor Light might be afraid of bats as seen in "Birthmark" but that's not confirmed.

Light appears to be your stereotypical comical mad scientist. His inventions are brilliant, and his technology is great, but he lacks the tactical intelligence to create an effective master plan, making him easy to outsmart. He's powerful enough to take all of the Teen Titans with relative ease, however, his fear of the dark is the only real thing that leads to his defeat.

History

His biggest scheme involved the young hero Kole, who could become living crystal and who Light wanted to use as an amplifier. He still lost. His final appearance was at the end of "Titans Together", the show's near-finale. Un-involved with the schemes of The Brain, he was seen robbing a bank. With both the regular team and over twenty reserve Titans on hand, Raven predicted that Light would freak out as never before.

* * *

Raven: Dr. Light!

Dr. Light: Its been a while Titans.

Me: Dr. Arthur Light! I've heard a lot about you.

Dr. Light: Yes I am not well known throughout the Teen Titans because they make me into a joke!

Me: This is too coincidental. We have a Dr. Light on the Justice League and a Dr. Light as a Supervillain.

Dr. Light: That is too coincidental.

Dr. Light (Justice League): Very unusual. I am the Dr. Light of the Justice League.

Dr. Light: Very unusual. I am Dr. Arthur Light.

Dr. Light (Justice League): And I am Dr. Kimiyo Hoshi. I go by Dr. Light in the Justice League.

Me: You're also a very prominent scientist right Kimiyo?

Dr. Light (Justice League): That's right J.D. And I have crossed paths with Dr. Arthur Light once before.

Green Arrow: Same with me.

Nico: I remember that. Green Arrow and Dr. Light of the Justice League have had Dr. Arthur Light as one of their huge enemies for a while.

Green Arrow: That's right.

Me: So you are now one of the Masters of Evil?

Dr. Light: That's right. Vypra hired me.

Me: I can see that.

Kairi: I don't know why some people think you're a joke. You look pretty competent to me.

Dr. Light: Glad you think so, my dear. (glares at the Titans) Unlike some heroes.

Me: Boy you guys really treated Dr. Light like Comic Relief huh?

Robin: Yeah Dr. Light is a thief and he is a formidable foe too.

Raven: And a very sad man.

King Hiss: They really DID put you down a lot huh?

Dr. Light: Don't remind me.

?: Let me help you get vengeance.

We saw another figure appear on the arena and it was TERROR TOAD from episode 12 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Finster created the Terror Toad for Rita, citing that they had had great success with him on Sorcery 7. Rita then sent the Terror Toad down to Earth to attack Angel Grove. In response, the Power Rangers were sent by Zordon to deal with the threat.

With Billy and Kimberly indisposed due to Baboo's punk potion, only Jason, Zack, and Trini were left to fight him. The Rangers' attacks proved ineffective against the toad and he was easily able to fend them off. During the battle, he knocked Trini to the ground, after which he fired his energy tongue at her transforming her into a yellow energy sphere. The Terror Toad swallowed her and a picture of the Yellow Ranger's helmet appeared on his belly. Jason and Zack continued to fight the toad, but were overwhelmed and soon Zack was also transformed into an energy sphere and swallowed, leaving Jason to fight him alone.

Once Billy and Kimberly were cured of the punk potion, they were instructed by Zordon to cut off the Terror Toad's horn and attack it's weak spot right below its neck. The two then joined Jason in the battle against the toad. Billy and Kimberly managed to cut off the Terror Toad's horn, making him furious. In retaliation, the Terror Toad grabbed Jason with his tongue, pulled him into his mouth, and swallowed him whole. As the Terror Toad swallowed Jason, Kimberly noticed strange markings on his neck that seemed to indicate his weak spot. Billy then tried to attack him, leaping into the air, but the Terror Toad caught him in mid-air, pulled him into his mouth, and swallowed him as well.

Left alone to fight the toad, Kimberly prepared to fire an arrow from her Power Bow, but was knocked down by Baboo. The Terror Toad joined Baboo and the two began to approach her, but Kimberly immediately fired three arrows into the toad's neck. The Terror Toad fell to the ground and spit up all four of the swallowed Rangers. The Rangers then launched a final assault, each landing a devastating attack against the toad. Kimberly then delivered the final blow by firing an arrow into his mouth and he was destroyed.

Kimberly Ann Hart: Terror Toad!

Terror Toad: Long time no see Pink Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy Angel Grove when Baboo made that Punk Potion and you ate Trini, Zack and Jason and Billy. Leaving Kimberly to fight you!

Terror Toad: That's right. I see you watched us fight on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Kairi: Baboo actually made a punk potion before?

Terror Toad: Yep! Too bad it hasn't been remade yet. If you drank it, it would've brought out that badass side of yours out again.

Me: I remember that stuff. It turned Billy and Kimberly into two really badass S.O.B.'s. Sorry guys.

Billy Cranston: No worries. J.D. But yeah that stuff was nuts.

Kimberly Ann Hart: And it made us into something we weren't.

Kairi: Welcome to my world.

Me: Lets dance guys!

Nico: How are we gonna fight them while we're in our racers?

Me: Luckily I've prepared for this.

I formed my Rainbow Power Crystal.

Me: Rainbow Crystal Unification! 2… 1… Mark!

I inserted the crystal like a key into a slot and my car flew into the air and hooked onto the front of the Duel Runner Arena car and all our cars formed into a special carrier that hooked on to the Duel Arena. It was amazing!

Nico: Wow! That was awesome!

Me: It's our new Phoenix Arena Carrier system. Made specifically for this purpose. Whenever we have a race and a fight is involved, we'll face our opponents on the Duel Runner Arena combined with our racers. I call it the Phoenix Duel Runner Carrier Arena.

Nico: Awesome! Way to come through J.D.

Me: Thanks man.

Carly Carmine: I got to admit, that is really genius.

Shiv: No kidding. Very impressive.

King Hiss: Indeed.

Laney: Clever thinking.

Me: Okay. Lets do this guys.

Nicole: I'll face Carly this time.

Lynn: Lets dance Shiv.

Kairi: This is gonna be good. I'll face Dr. Light.

Raven: I'll help you out Kairi.

Kairi: Okay.

Paige (WWE): (British Accent) We'll help you guys too.

Undertaker: Lets unleash death on them.

Leni: We totes got this.

Paige: Lets do it!

Troy: Here's another Legendary Mode we haven't tried out yet.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Steel!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Steel Rangers!

Troy became the Red Ninja Steel Ranger, Noah became the Blue Ninja Steel Ranger, Emma became the Pink Ninja Steel Ranger, Gia became the Yellow Ninja Steel Ranger, Jake became the White Ninja Steel Ranger, and Orion became the Gold Ninja Steel Ranger.

Me: Awesome! You guys look awesome as the Ninja Steel Rangers.

Troy Burrows: Thanks guys.

Brody: We'll have to teach you guys how to use the full extent of our movies later on.

Troy Burrows: We would like that Brody.

Me: I'll help you guys out first Troy. Lets get them!

We went at them!

I had my sword in and the Megaforce Rangers put their blades in.

Me: ULTIMATE NEXUS BLAST!

A massive energy blast fired from our swords and they hit Terror Toad and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Terror Toad then fell down and exploded in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEAH! In the words of Nico: Terror Toad, you have failed this universe.

Troy Burrow: Mega Rangers, that's a Mega Win!

Me: You said it Troy. Awesome job guys!

Gia Moran: It was awesome!

Emma Goodall: Thanks for teaching us those moves J.D.

Me: Plenty more where those came from. Same with the Dino Charge powers.

Battle 2: Carly Carmine

---

Nicole was facing Carly.

Nicole: This is gonna be awesome.

Carly Carmine: It sure is. I also have a date after we fight today.

Nicole: Jack is really lucky to have a great girl like you Carly.

Carly Carmine: Thanks Nicole. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL ASLLA PISCU, FORTUNE LADY FIRE, WIND, DARK and LIGHT!

Carly summoned said monsters.

Nicole: Awesome. Now here's my deck. My deck is based on very famous figures and objects of science and astronomy. I made it myself because of my love for all things in all forms of science.

Carly Carmine: Lets see it.

Nicole: Okay. I summon NUMBER 9: DYSON SPHERE, D/D SAVANT COPERNICUS, D/D SAVANT GALILEI, D/D SAVANT SCHRÖDINGER, D/D SAVANT DIRAC, D/D SAVANT KEPLAR, D/D SAVANT THOMAS, D/D SAVANT EINSTEIN, D/D SAVANT NIKOLA, SINGULARITY FIEND, GALAXY-EYES PHOTON DRAGON, and NUMBER 95: GALAXY-EYES DARK MATTER

DRAGON!

Nicole summoned said monsters and they were really awesome!

Carly Carmine: Wow! Amazing selection.

Nicole: Thanks. And each of my monsters was chosen for a specific reason. They are based on things I've learned from Science and Astronomy.

Carly Carmine: Wow. What is Dyson Sphere?

Nicole: It's a hypothetical Megastructure where it encompasses a whole star to harness it's energy.

---

A Dyson sphere is a hypothetical megastructure that completely encompasses a star and captures a large percentage of its power output. The concept is a thought experiment that attempts to explain how a spacefaring civilization would meet its energy requirements once those requirements exceed what can be generated from the home planet's resources alone. Only a tiny fraction of a star's energy emissions reach the surface of any orbiting planet. Building structures encircling a star would enable a civilization to harvest far more energy.

The first contemporary description of the structure was by Olaf Stapledon in his science fiction novel Star Maker (1937), in which he described "every solar system… surrounded by a gauze of light traps, which focused the escaping solar energy for intelligent use." The concept was later popularized by Freeman Dyson in his 1960 paper "Search for Artificial Stellar Sources of Infrared Radiation." Dyson speculated that such structures would be the logical consequence of the escalating energy needs of a technological civilization and would be a necessity for its long-term survival. He proposed that searching for such structures could lead to the detection of advanced, intelligent extraterrestrial life. Different types of Dyson spheres and their energy-harvesting ability would correspond to levels of technological advancement on the Kardashev scale.

Since then, other variant designs involving building an artificial structure or series of structures to encompass a star have been proposed in exploratory engineering or described in science fiction under the name "Dyson sphere". These later proposals have not been limited to solar-power stations, with many involving habitation or industrial elements. Most fictional depictions describe a solid shell of matter enclosing a star, which was considered by Dyson himself the least plausible variant of the idea. In May 2013, at the Starship Century Symposium in San Diego, Dyson repeated his comments that he wished the concept had not been named after him.

Carly Carmine: Wow! That's amazing. And Copernicus?

Nicole: D/D Savant Copernicus is named after Renaissance-Era astronomer Nicolaus Copernicus. He discovered that the Earth orbited around the Sun and that the Sun is the Center of our Solar System.

---

Nicolaus Copernicus (/koʊˈpɜːrnɪkəs, kə-/; Polish: Mikołaj Kopernik; German: Nikolaus Kopernikus; Niklas Koppernigk; 19 February 1473 - 24 May 1543) was a Renaissance-era mathematician and astronomer, who formulated a model of the universe that placed the Sun rather than Earth at the center of the universe, in all likelihood independently of Aristarchus of Samos, who had formulated such a model some eighteen centuries earlier.

The publication of Copernicus' model in his book De revolutionibus orbium coelestium (On the Revolutions of the Celestial Spheres), just before his death in 1543, was a major event in the history of science, triggering the Copernican Revolution and making a pioneering contribution to the Scientific Revolution.

Copernicus was born and died in Royal Prussia, a region that had been part of the Kingdom of Poland since 1466. A polyglot and polymath, he obtained a doctorate in canon law and was also a mathematician, astronomer, physician, classics scholar, translator, governor, diplomat, and economist. In 1517 he derived a quantity theory of money-a key concept in economics-and in 1519 he formulated an economic principle that later came to be called Gresham's law.

---

Carly Carmine: Wow! Astronomy was never my strong suit. But this is really amazing.

Nicole: Really amazing. Galilei is named after famous Astronomer Galileo Galilei, the Inventor of the first ever Telescope and the Father of Observational Astronomy.

---

Galileo di Vincenzo Bonaulti de Galilei ([ɡaliˈlɛːo ɡaliˈlɛi]; 15 February 1564 - 8 January 1642) was an Italian astronomer, physicist and engineer, sometimes described as a polymath, from Pisa. Galileo has been called the "father of observational astronomy", the "father of modern physics", the "father of the scientific method", and the "father of modern science".

Galileo studied speed and velocity, gravity and free fall, the principle of relativity, inertia, projectile motion and also worked in applied science and technology, describing the properties of pendulums and "hydrostatic balances", inventing the thermoscope and various military compasses, and using the telescope for scientific observations of celestial objects. His contributions to observational astronomy include the telescopic confirmation of the phases of Venus, the observation of the four largest satellites of Jupiter, the observation of Saturn's rings, and the analysis of sunspots.

Galileo's championing of heliocentrism and Copernicanism was controversial during his lifetime, when most subscribed to geocentric models such as the Tychonic system. He met with opposition from astronomers, who doubted heliocentrism because of the absence of an observed stellar parallax. The matter was investigated by the Roman Inquisition in 1615, which concluded that heliocentrism was "foolish and absurd in philosophy, and formally heretical since it explicitly contradicts in many places the sense of Holy Scripture".

Galileo later defended his views in Dialogue Concerning the Two Chief World Systems (1632), which appeared to attack Pope Urban VIII and thus alienated him and the Jesuits, who had both supported Galileo up until this point. He was tried by the Inquisition, found "vehemently suspect of heresy", and forced to recant. He spent the rest of his life under house arrest. While under house arrest, he wrote Two New Sciences, in which he summarized work he had done some forty years earlier on the two sciences now called kinematics and strength of materials.

Carly Carmine: That's amazing! What about the Schrödinger one?

Nicole: Savant Schrödinger is named after famous Austrian-Irish physicist Erwin Schrödinger. He was a very famous Quantum Theorist.

Erwin Rudolf Josef Alexander Schrödinger (UK: /ˈʃrɜːdɪŋər/, US: /ˈʃroʊ-, ˈʃreɪ-/; German: [ˈɛɐ̯viːn ˈʃʁøːdɪŋɐ]; 12 August 1887 - 4 January 1961), sometimes written as Erwin Schrodinger or Erwin Schroedinger, was a Nobel Prize-winning Austrian-Irish physicist who developed a number of fundamental results in quantum theory: the Schrödinger equation provides a way to calculate the wave function of a system and how it changes dynamically in time.

In addition, he was the author of many works on various aspects of physics: statistical mechanics and thermodynamics, physics of dielectrics, colour theory, electrodynamics, general relativity, and cosmology, and he made several attempts to construct a unified field theory. In his book What Is Life? Schrödinger addressed the problems of genetics, looking at the phenomenon of life from the point of view of physics. He paid great attention to the philosophical aspects of science, ancient and oriental philosophical concepts, ethics, and religion. He also wrote on philosophy and theoretical biology. He is also known for his "Schrödinger's cat" thought-experiment.

Carly Carmine: Wow! Amazing.

Nicole: Yep. Dirac is named after famous physicist Paul Dirac. He was very famous for determining the behavior of particles called Fermions and he predicted the existence of Antimatter.

---

Paul Adrien Maurice Dirac OM FRS (/dɪˈræk/; 8 August 1902 - 20 October 1984) was an English theoretical physicist who is regarded as one of the most significant physicists of the 20th century.

Dirac made fundamental contributions to the early development of both quantum mechanics and quantum electrodynamics. Among other discoveries, he formulated the Dirac equation which describes the behaviour of fermions and predicted the existence of antimatter. Dirac shared the 1933 Nobel Prize in Physics with Erwin Schrödinger "for the discovery of new productive forms of atomic theory". He also made significant contributions to the reconciliation of general relativity with quantum mechanics.

Dirac was regarded by his friends and colleagues as unusual in character. In a 1926 letter to Paul Ehrenfest, Albert Einstein wrote of Dirac, "I have trouble with Dirac. This balancing on the dizzying path between genius and madness is awful." In another letter he wrote, "I don't understand Dirac at all (Compton effect)."

He was the Lucasian Professor of Mathematics at the University of Cambridge, a member of the Center for Theoretical Studies, University of Miami, and spent the last decade of his life at Florida State University.

---

Carly Carmine: That's incredible! Antimatter is very potent stuff.

Nicole: It is. Kepler is named after famous 17th Century Astronomer Johannes Kepler. He was known for discovering that the planets go around the sun in orbits.

---

Johannes Kepler (/ˈkɛplər/; German: [joˈhanəs ˈkɛplɐ, -nɛs -]; 27 December 1571 - 15 November 1630) was a German astronomer, mathematician, and astrologer. He is a key figure in the 17th-century scientific revolution, best known for his laws of planetary motion, and his books Astronomia nova, Harmonices Mundi, and Epitome Astronomiae Copernicanae. These works also provided one of the foundations for Newton's theory of universal gravitation.

Kepler was a mathematics teacher at a seminary school in Graz, where he became an associate of Prince Hans Ulrich von Eggenberg. Later he became an assistant to the astronomer Tycho Brahe in Prague, and eventually the imperial mathematician to Emperor Rudolf II and his two successors Matthias and Ferdinand II. He also taught mathematics in Linz, and was an adviser to General Wallenstein. Additionally, he did fundamental work in the field of optics, invented an improved version of the refracting (or Keplerian) telescope, and was mentioned in the telescopic discoveries of his contemporary Galileo Galilei. He was a corresponding member of the Accademia dei Lincei in Rome.

Kepler lived in an era when there was no clear distinction between astronomy and astrology, but there was a strong division between astronomy (a branch of mathematics within the liberal arts) and physics (a branch of natural philosophy). Kepler also incorporated religious arguments and reasoning into his work, motivated by the religious conviction and belief that God had created the world according to an intelligible plan that is accessible through the natural light of reason. Kepler described his new astronomy as "celestial physics", as "an excursion into Aristotle's Metaphysics", and as "a supplement to Aristotle's On the Heavens", transforming the ancient tradition of physical cosmology by treating astronomy as part of a universal mathematical physics.

---

Carly Carmine: Amazing! I had no idea that astronomy had so many famous figures.

Nicole: It's really amazing. The history of the universe has always fascinated me ever since I was a little girl. Savant Thomas is named after famous inventor Thomas Alva Edison.

Carly Carmine: I know him. He's the inventor of the Light bulb.

Nicole: Yep and it was thanks to Edison that it brought us into the age of the Industrial Revolution.

---

Thomas Alva Edison (February 11, 1847 - October 18, 1931) was an American inventor and businessman who has been described as America's greatest inventor. He developed many devices in fields such as electric power generation, mass communication, sound recording, and motion pictures. These inventions, which include the phonograph, the motion picture camera, and the long-lasting, practical electric light bulb, have had a widespread impact on the modern industrialized world. He was one of the first inventors to apply the principles of organized science and teamwork to the process of invention, working with many researchers and employees. He established the first industrial research laboratory.

Edison was raised in the American Midwest; early in his career he worked as a telegraph operator, which inspired some of his earliest inventions. In 1876, he established his first laboratory facility in Menlo Park, New Jersey, where many of his early inventions were developed. He later established a botanic laboratory in Fort Myers, Florida in collaboration with businessmen Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone, and a laboratory in West Orange, New Jersey that featured the world's first film studio, the Black Maria. He was a prolific inventor, holding 1,093 US patents in his name, as well as patents in other countries. Edison married twice and fathered six children. He died in 1931 of complications of diabetes.

---

Carly Carmine: And without his inventions we would still be using candles.

Nicole: Yep. Savant Nikola is named after Nikola Tesla.

Carly Carmine: The inventor of the electric powered motor.

Nicole: Bingo.

Nikola Tesla (/ˈtɛslə/; Serbian Cyrillic: Никола Тесла; pronounced [nǐkola têsla]; 10 July 1856 - 7 January 1943) was a Serbian-American inventor, electrical engineer, mechanical engineer, and futurist who is best known for his contributions to the design of the modern alternating current (AC) electricity supply system.

Born and raised in the Austrian Empire, Tesla studied engineering and physics in the 1870s without receiving a degree, and gained practical experience in the early 1880s working in telephony and at Continental Edison in the new electric power industry. In 1884 he emigrated to the United States, where he became a naturalized citizen. He worked for a short time at the Edison Machine Works in New York City before he struck out on his own. With the help of partners to finance and market his ideas, Tesla set up laboratories and companies in New York to develop a range of electrical and mechanical devices. His alternating current (AC) induction motor and related polyphase AC patents, licensed by Westinghouse Electric in 1888, earned him a considerable amount of money and became the cornerstone of the polyphase system which that company eventually marketed.

Attempting to develop inventions he could patent and market, Tesla conducted a range of experiments with mechanical oscillators/generators, electrical discharge tubes, and early X-ray imaging. He also built a wireless-controlled boat, one of the first ever exhibited. Tesla became well known as an inventor and demonstrated his achievements to celebrities and wealthy patrons at his lab, and was noted for his showmanship at public lectures. Throughout the 1890s, Tesla pursued his ideas for wireless lighting and worldwide wireless electric power distribution in his high-voltage, high-frequency power experiments in New York and Colorado Springs. In 1893, he made pronouncements on the possibility of wireless communication with his devices. Tesla tried to put these ideas to practical use in his unfinished Wardenclyffe Tower project, an intercontinental wireless communication and power transmitter, but ran out of funding before he could complete it.

After Wardenclyffe, Tesla experimented with a series of inventions in the 1910s and 1920s with varying degrees of success. Having spent most of his money, Tesla lived in a series of New York hotels, leaving behind unpaid bills. He died in New York City in January 1943. Tesla's work fell into relative obscurity following his death, until 1960, when the General Conference on Weights and Measures named the SI unit of magnetic flux density the tesla in his honor. There has been a resurgence in popular interest in Tesla since the 1990s.

Carly Carmine: Amazing! I didn't know that Nikola Tesla and Thomas Alva Edison were in a bitter rivalry with each other like that.

Nicole: It wasn't a brutal fight but it was a famous one. Singularity Fiend is based on a mathematics equation in Black Holes about the cores of Black Holes.

Carly Carmine: That is really complex for me.

Nicole: It's very complex math and science. Galaxy-Eyes Photon Dragon is based on the light particles that are formed in laser beams called photons.

---

The photon is a type of elementary particle. It is the quantum of the electromagnetic field including electromagnetic radiation such as light and radio waves, and the force carrier for the electromagnetic force. Photons are massless, and they always move at the speed of light in vacuum, 299792458 m/s.

Like all elementary particles, photons are currently best explained by quantum mechanics and exhibit wave-particle duality, their behavior featuring properties of both waves and particles. The modern photon concept originated during the first two decades of the 20th century with the work of Albert Einstein, who built upon the research of Max Planck. While trying to explain how matter and electromagnetic radiation could be in thermal equilibrium with one another, Planck proposed that the energy stored within a material object should be regarded as composed of an integer number of discrete, equal-sized parts. Einstein introduced the idea that light itself is made of discrete units of energy. Experiments validated Einstein's approach, and in 1926, Gilbert N. Lewis popularized the term photon for these energy units.

In the Standard Model of particle physics, photons and other elementary particles are described as a necessary consequence of physical laws having a certain symmetry at every point in spacetime. The intrinsic properties of particles, such as charge, mass, and spin, are determined by this gauge symmetry. The photon concept has led to momentous advances in experimental and theoretical physics, including lasers, Bose-Einstein condensation, quantum field theory, and the probabilistic interpretation of quantum mechanics. It has been applied to photochemistry, high-resolution microscopy, and measurements of molecular distances. Recently, photons have been studied as elements of quantum computers, and for applications in optical imaging and optical communication such as quantum cryptography.

Carly Carmine: Very interesting.

Nicole: It is. And Galaxy-Eyes Dark Matter Dragon is based on Dark Matter. Dark Matter is the material that is known for making up 85% of all things in the entire universe.

---

Dark matter is a form of matter thought to account for approximately 85% of the matter in the universe and about a quarter of its total energy density. Its presence is implied in a variety of astrophysical observations, including gravitational effects that cannot be explained by accepted theories of gravity unless more matter is present than can be seen. For this reason, most experts think that dark matter is abundant in the universe and that it has had a strong influence on its structure and evolution. Dark matter is called dark because it does not appear to interact with observable electromagnetic radiation, such as light, and so it is undetectable by existing astronomical instruments.

Primary evidence for dark matter comes from calculations showing that many galaxies would fly apart, or that they would not have formed or would not move as they do, if they did not contain a large amount of unseen matter. Other lines of evidence include observations in gravitational lensing and in the cosmic microwave background, along with astronomical observations of the observable universe's current structure, the formation and evolution of galaxies, mass location during galactic collisions, and the motion of galaxies within galaxy clusters. In the standard Lambda-CDM model of cosmology, the total mass-energy of the universe contains 5% ordinary matter and energy, 27% dark matter and 68% of an unknown form of energy known as dark energy. Thus, dark matter constitutes 85% of total mass, while dark energy plus dark matter constitute 95% of total mass-energy content.

Because dark matter has not yet been observed directly, if it exists, it must barely interact with ordinary baryonic matter and radiation, except through gravity. Most dark matter is thought to be non-baryonic in nature; it may be composed of some as-yet undiscovered subatomic particles. The primary candidate for dark matter is some new kind of elementary particle that has not yet been discovered, in particular, weakly-interacting massive particles (WIMPs). Many experiments to directly detect and study dark matter particles are being actively undertaken, but none have yet succeeded. Dark matter is classified as "cold", "warm", or "hot" according to its velocity (more precisely, its free streaming length). Current models favor a cold dark matter scenario, in which structures emerge by gradual accumulation of particles.

Although the existence of dark matter is generally accepted by the scientific community, some astrophysicists, intrigued by certain observations which do not fit the dark matter theory, argue for various modifications of the standard laws of general relativity, such as modified Newtonian dynamics, tensor-vector-scalar gravity, or entropic gravity. These models attempt to account for all observations without invoking supplemental non-baryonic matter.

Carly Carmine: That's incredible! I didn't know that everything in the universe was like that.

Nicole: I know. It's just amazing at what science can do to unlock the secrets of the universe.

Carly Carmine: It sure is. And it's amazing that we are learning so much about the universe.

Nicole: It sure is. Now that we got all the educational information out of the way, lets dance shall we?

Carly Carmine: Lets shall.

Nicole: I hope Jack doesn't get mad at me for hurting you.

Nicole and Carly clashed in a powerful brawl and it was a massively devastating brawl. Nicole's monsters blasted and destroyed Aslla Piscu and Nicole blasted Carly with a Force Blast and sent her flying and she was knocked down.

Nicole held out her hand and Carly took it.

Nicole: Good fight.

Carly Carmine: Indeed.

Battle 3: Shiv.

---

Lynn was facing Shiv.

Lynn: We haven't fought in a while Shiv. Did you also come here to enjoy the race?

Shiv: I sure did. And did you know that Shaggy and Scooby own a catering truck? They make really awesome food.

Lynn: We'll have to check it out later on.

Lynn formed a sword of lava and Shiv formed his swords of light and they clashed violently and caused fires to explode out all over the arena. Lynn then kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

Battle 4: King Hiss

Leni was facing King Hiss.

Leni: This is like totes amazing.

King Hiss: It sure is. Lets make this a great fight.

Leni: Totes.

Leni punched King His in the face and fired blasts of gravity lightning at him and they hit him and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

The explosions knocked him down.

Battle 5: Dr. Light

Kairi was facing Dr. Arthur Light. It was her first time having an arch nemesis. Raven was showing her how to face him.

Kairi: This is my first time fighting you so I'll try to go easy on you.

Dr. Light: Indeed my dear Kairi. And I heard about you and Sora getting married. Congratulations are in order.

Kairi: Thank you.

Raven: Dr. Light likes to show off his skills in his suit. And he is really quick with his attacks.

Kairi: Noted.

Kairi went at him and Dr. Light fired blasts of white light and Kairi deflected the blasts back at him and they hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Kairi fired light blasts of her own and they hit Dr. Light and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Dr. Light was knocked down.

Kairi: Yeah!

Raven: Nice job Kairi!

Kairi: Thanks Raven.

Battle 6: INFERNO!

---

We regrouped and we were facing Inferno! We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and fired a blast of fire at him and burned him. Nico kicked and punched him in the stomach many times all over and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Lincoln fired a massive wave of light and it turned into the German Army from the 1527 Sack of Rome and they slashed and cut Inferno all over and burned him.

Jessie K.: Wow! That was amazing! That was the 1527 Sack of Rome.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Very interesting event that happened back then.

Andropov: Well done comrade Lincoln.

Lincoln: Thanks guys.

Luna Loud: Watch this one dudes. METAL STYLE NINJA ART: FIELDS OF VERDUN!

Luna floated and waves of metal formed behind her as she sang Fields of Verdun by Sabaton.

As the drum roll started on that day

Heard a hundred miles away

A million shells were fired
And the green fields turned to grey
The bombardment lasted all day long
Yet the forts were standing strong
Heavily defended
Now the trap's been sprung and the battle has begun
Descend into darkness
303 days below the sun
Fields of Verdun, and the battle has begun
Nowhere to run, father and son
Fall one by one under the gun
Thy will be done (thy will be done), and the judgement has begun
Nowhere to run, father and son
Fall one by one, fields of Verdun
Though a million shells have scarred the land
No one has the upper hand
From the ground above to trenches
Where the soldiers make their stand
As the trenches slowly turn to mud
And then quickly start to flood
Death awaits in every corner
As they die in the mud, fill the trenches with blood

Descend into darkness

303 days below the sun

Fields of Verdun, and the battle has begun

Nowhere to run, father and son

Fall one by one under the gun

Thy will be done (thy will be done), and the judgement has begun

Nowhere to run, father and son

Fall one by one, fields of Verdun

Fields of execution turned to wasteland from the grass

Thou shalt go no further it was said, "They shall not pass!"

The spirit of resistance and the madness of the war

So go ahead, face the lead, join the dead

Though you die where you lie, never asking why

Descend into darkness

303 days below the sun

Fields of Verdun, and the battle has begun

Nowhere to run, father and son

Fall one by one under the gun

Thy will be done (thy will be done), and the judgement has begun

Nowhere to run, father and son

Fall one by one, fields of Verdun

Luna fired waves of metal and they formed into the army of the

Jessie K.: That was the Battle of Verdun from 1916. One of the most infamous battles of World War I.

Laney: Really amazing.

Andropov: Watch this one. ICE STYLE NINJA ART: MAMMOTH RIDERS OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE!

Andropov fired a wave of ice and it turned into a bunch of Mammoths and Russians were riding on them and they slashed and rammed Inferno and froze him in a block of ice.

Haiku fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a malevolent demon car and it sped at Inferno and ran him down.

Me: Awesome job Haiku!

Lucy Loud: Great job Haiku.

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator. It looked like a porcupine with longer legs and it had razor sharp white quills. It was called QUILL SLAMMER!

Ben: QUILL SLAMMER!

Me: Whoa! That is a scary porcupine.

Shanan: That's not just a Porcupine dad. That's a Albinerethizon Dorsatum. They are the natural predators of the Geochelone Aerio, Terraspin's species from planet Aldabra.

Riley: Whoa! It sure looks like an ugly porcupine.

Julie Yamamoto: No kidding. I would not want to get one of those quills in my skin.

Lynn: Me neither.

Quill Slammer: Watch.

He fired a bunch of spikes at Inferno and pinned him to the floor.

Me: Now! Lets show some teamwork!

Punch: Right! Lets do it!

Natsu Dragneel: You got it!

Punch used the Planet X Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced his photon cannon 100-fold and Natsu used the Fairy Tail Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced his Fire Dragon Slayer Powers 100-fold.

Punch and Natsu: PHOTON INFERNO STRIKE!

Punch fired a massive photon blast and Natsu fired a massive blast of fire.

Bowser Jr. used the Mushroom Kingdom Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced his fire breath 100-fold and Thunderblast used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it turned her rocket launcher into an even bigger rocket launcher.

Bowser Jr and Thunderblast: FIRESTORM THUNDER ROCKET BLAST!

Bowser Jr. fired a blast of fire and Thunderblast fired a blast of energy.

Astro Man and Plant Man: ASTRO PLANT WAVE!

Astro Man fired a blast of energy and Plant Man fired a wave of plants.

The combos combined and they hit Inferno and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Time for some Final Smash power!

Shana: Lets do it! CRIMSON FIRESTORM SWORD!

Shana had her sword glow with fire and she slashed Inferno all over.

Paige: Lets get him! PHOENIX FIRE MEGABLAST!

Paige fired a massive blast of fire and it hit Inferno and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Lincoln: Feel the lightning! LIGHTNING ELECTROCUTION BLAST!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit Inferno and electrocuted him.

Paige (WWE): You are not welcome in the world of wresting. STORM OF WRESTLING STRIKE!

Paige grabbed Inferno and jumped into the air as Storm Clouds formed and lightning struck Inferno and she slammed him into the ground with incredible force!

SMASH!

We landed on the ground and Undertaker held the Inferno.

Fred Jones: Now lets see who this really is.

Fred took off the mask and to our shock and disbelief it was TRIPLE H!

Everyone: TRIPLE H!?

Me: I don't believe it!

Velma: We suspected it had to be a superstar when the Demon broke out of the Misses wrestling hold.

Daphne: But Triple H wasn't the mastermind behind all this. Was he Stephanie?

We saw that Stephanie McMahon was the ringleader.

Vince McMahon: Oh no.

Stephanie McMahon: You know what dad? I told you to fire them, but you never listen!

Paige (WWE): But we saw them both in the car during the races.

Me: That's what is stumping me.

Velma: You thought you did. But you saw this.

Shaggy pulled out a dummy that looked just like Triple H.

Velma: An inflatable air bag dummy.

Me: That's really clever.

Scooby bit it and it popped and Shaggy got covered in a white powder.

Lori: But who was literally driving?

Fred Jones: Stephanie was. With remote motion controlled gear. That way she could drive while sitting in the passengers seat. Meanwhile Triple H could be Inferno and use the same motion control system to drive the Demon Rig.

Daphne: But it wasn't always Stephanie in the company car. At the lake it was Triple H. That was Stephanie could be the demon in case anyone suspected her husband.

Shiv: Man I did not see all of this coming.

King Hiss: Me neither.

Lincoln: But why would they sabotage their own car?

Velma: Triple H wasn't intending to. What he was doing was changing the airbags from the Triple H dummy to the Stephanie dummy. That's why there was talcum powder on the ground. But Shaggy and Scooby saw him. So he cut the oil line to cover his activity.

Me: That's pure genius!

Nico: So that's how it looked like they could be in two places all at once.

Laney: Very ingenious.

Lisa Loud: Indeed.

Stephanie McMahon: My plan would've worked too if it weren't for you meddling kids and your… your speedster dog!

Scooby Doo: Don't forget Taker and Paige.

Paige (WWE): Thank you Scooby Doo.

Undertaker: Thank you buddy.

Daphne Blake: The only mystery is where did you go when Inferno showed up?

Vince McMahon: Well uh to tell you the truth, I was practicing. I planned to sing the national anthem at the closing ceremony tonight. (To Stephanie) But what I want to know is why Stephanie? Why?

Me: That's what all of us would like to know. What was the motive behind all this?

Stephanie McMahon: To win. And to make Muscle Moto XL a huge success. Dad I wanted to show you that I could do it all.

Vince McMahon: But I've always known that. The only reason I didn't want you in the race is because I didn't want you to get hurt. But I'm afraid this time you're gonna have to pay for your mistakes kiddo.

William: If you can't do the time, don't do the crime.

William handcuffs Triple H. And then he takes off the handcuffs 10 seconds later.

William: Okay. Time's up.

Triple H: But I committed a crime.

Paige: Yeah. For a good cause.

Me: Officers. Let them go.

Fred Jones: Why?

Me: Because what they were doing is completely understandable. Besides, if it were me, I would've done the exact same thing. Also we would never put one of our favorite wrestling heroes in prison just for helping out a company become a success. And we would never do the same thing to his family.

Triple H: Thanks J.D.

Me: Think nothing of it Triple H. You helped us all in the past and we helped you. So we'll call it even.

Stephanie McMahon: Thanks J.D.

Me: Anytime Stephanie.

The Masters of Evil came.

King Hiss: Awesome Mystery.

Shiv: One of the most unexpected outcomes I've ever seen.

Me: We were all surprised ourselves.

King Hiss: Is it ok if Carly stays with you guys a little while longer?

Shana: Why do you ask?

Dr. Light: Because she wants to go on another date with Jack.

Stacy: Well, I don't see why not.

Shiv: Great! Make sure to have her back at our place before midnight.

Me: We will.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

We continued to watch the race and Shaggy, Scooby and Undertaker won the race and the money!

Paige (WWE): (To the viewers) If you like wrestling and racing, never take things way to far either in the ring or on the road and be careful all the time.

Me: Indeed Paige.

We had an awesome time and we went to a movie. We saw the new Disney Movie Onward.

SPOILER ALERT!

---

In a world inhabited by mythical creatures, magic was once commonplace, though difficult to master. After technological advances over the years, magic became obsolete and was largely discarded.

In a time equivalent to the modern day, Ian Lightfoot, an elf high-schooler lacking self-confidence, and his older brother Barley, a history and role-playing game fanatic, live in the city of New Mushroomton. Their father Wilden died shortly before Ian was born, and their mother Laurel has a new boyfriend, centaur police officer Colt Bronco.

On Ian's sixteenth birthday, Laurel gives the brothers a gift from Wilden: a magical staff, a rare gem, and a letter describing a "visitation spell" that can resurrect their father for a single day. Ian accidentally succeeds in casting the spell, but only the lower half of Wilden's body is reformed before the gem disintegrates. The brothers embark on a quest to acquire another gem and complete the spell, taking Barley's beloved van "Guinevere". Finding the boys gone, Laurel leaves to find them.

Ian and Barley visit the Manticore's Tavern, named for a monster possessing a map to the gem. The tavern has become a family restaurant managed by the Manticore, Corey. Arguing with Ian over the map, Corey realizes how boring her life has become and drives the customers away in a fit of rage, accidentally setting fire to the restaurant and the map. The brothers' only clue to the gem is a children's menu suggesting "Raven's Point", a nearby mountain. Laurel later arrives at the scene and befriends Corey, who agrees to help her. Corey warns that the brothers' journey may awaken a curse which can only be defeated by her special sword, which she and Laurel steal from a pawn shop.

Traveling to the mountains, Ian and Barley narrowly escape the police and a motorcycle gang of sprites, relying on Ian's newly awakened spell-casting abilities and Barley's role-playing game instincts. "Raven's Point" leads them on a trail indicated by a series of raven statues, but Colt follows them, calling in reinforcements. Barley sacrifices Guinevere to cause a landslide, blocking their pursuers. Following the statues, the brothers descend through a cave and avoid a series of traps and deadly creatures, surfacing to find themselves in front of Ian's high school. Ian lashes out at Barley for leading them on a wild goose chase and walks away with Wilden.

Rereading his list of things he always wished to do with his father, Ian realizes that Barley has been a father figure throughout his entire life, and returns to make amends. Barley discovers the gem inside a historic fountain and retrieves it, unwittingly triggering the curse which turns the high school into an artificial dragon bent on claiming the gem. Ian faces the artificial dragon, but his staff is knocked into the ocean; he reforms it from a splinter and continues the fight. Corey flies in carrying Laurel, who plunges the magic sword into the artificial dragon's heart, buying Ian time to cast the visitation spell and fully reform Wilden's body. Ian sends Barley ahead to give his goodbye to Wilden, and holds off the artificial dragon long enough for Laurel to destroy it. After Wilden dissipates, Barley tells Ian that their father is proud of him, and the brothers share a hug.

Ian's confidence and spell-casting improve and he surprises Barley by painting his new van, the "Guinevere 2". Corey reopens her tavern in its original spirit, drawing in customers with tales of past adventures, and Ian and Barley continue questing.

In the Neptune Prison for Traitors, we were there to do some serious payback on the most hated person in the entire world: BILLY MCLEAN. After we sent Billy to prison, we forever disgraced him and he went from the world's most beloved celebrity television host to the world's most hated pariah. A total outcast from humanity. Not only was he made one of the most hated people in all of Canada, but he was also branded as a traitor to all of Canada for doing all of those terrible forms of torture and humiliation to many people on Total Drama over the course of 9 years. With us was another one of Hunter's friends Alex Teresopoulos. He was born from April 28, 1997 AD, he has blonde hair, azure crystalline eyes, roman style nose, unibrow, square ears, muscular built, 6 feet tall, wears a red shirt and blue shorts, wears sandals, has red gloves, black belt, und has powers of Fire, Water, Earth, and Firestorm Release.

Blade Man: Remind me again why we're visiting Billy McLean when we have better things to do with our time?

Me: We're gonna pound the living shit out of him for all the torture and humiliation he put all of our friends through on Total Drama.

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Me: It's awesome having you with us Alex.

Alex T.: (Greek Accent) Thank you J.D. It's an honor to be with you all. Hunter told me so much about all of your adventures.

Me: Word gets around huh?

Alex T.: Indeed.

Gwen (Total Drama): I can't wait to dish out some payback on him.

Geoff: Me too.

Bridgette: This is gonna be good.

Owen: Yeah man!

Sammy: If it were my evil former sister I would gladly do it. But Billy is just as good.

Nico: Good Sammy.

Jasmine: (Australian Accent) This will be good mates.

Ella: It sure will.

Sugar: (Southern Accent) He will pay for his crimes.

Me: He already is Sugar.

Ash: Well, we helped bring Billy to justice as well. We should beat him up too.

Ash's Tauros: Tauros!

Me: Okay Ash. We also invited all of the parents of the show contestants to come as well.

We arrived in a huge coliseum-like room and in the middle of it was Billy McLean tied to a pole like with how Peter Griffin and Bad Lois were during the humiliations we dished out on him. We saw all the parents of the contestants on the show.

Me: (Acapella) HELLO…

Nico: (Acapella) HELLO…

Vince: (Acapella) HELLO!

Nico: Whoa! Everyone is here.

Octane: Man, I didn't think ALL the parents would be here!

Me: It wouldn't be justice if some of the families showed up.

We saw all of the parents: my mom and dad, Owen's family, Gwen's family, Courtney's family, and many more.

Alex T.: This is gonna be awesome.

Sandstorm: So, we'll have humiliations with both Icky Vicky and Billy Mclean, right?

Me: Yep.

We also saw Misty, Sky's sister in the crowd on a front row seat.

Me: Hey Misty!

I went up to her

Misty (Total Drama): J.D.!

Me: How are you feeling?

Misty (Total Drama): Much better. The new heart you gave me is working wonders.

Me: I'm glad. I'm so sorry you got hurt after that accident.

Misty (Total Drama): It's all right. But I'm better now. Thanks to you.

Me: Good. I'm glad.

We went to Billy.

Me: Hello Billy McLean. Welcome to the corner of Pay and Back! (Cracks Knuckles)

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Vince: Start praying. (Cracks Knuckles)

Bart Simpson: (Evil laugh)

Me: (Leans in closer to Billy) You are a disgusting freak of nature.

Then I got a shock as he kissed me full on the mouth!

Me: (GAGS!) (Spits) I'm poisoned!

I slapped him across the face and honked his nose and punched his head.

I held out my fist below him.

Me: See that?

He slapped it and I swung it and punched his head.

Homer: WHY YOU LITTLE! (STRANGLES BILLY) I'LL TEACH YOU TO HUMILIATE AND TORTURE MY FRIENDS!

Bart pulled out his slingshot and fired it at a stage light and it hit the light and it broke off. It crashed onto Billy McLean's head.

CRASH!

Nico: OOH! That's gonna leave a mark.

Naruto: No kidding.

Me: Nice shot Bart.

Nico: Watch this one.

Nico pulled out some super spicy curry that he got from Rock Lee's restaurant that he knows. The curry was also covered in the hottest seasoning in the entire universe: Fire Salt. It's was given to him by Steven Universe and the Crystal Gems and it was perfect for this.

Nico: Lee gave me this curry.

Nico gave it to Billy and fed it to him and Billy screamed in excruciating pain as a massive explosion of fire exploded out of Billy's mouth and Lola, Qin, Sam S.L., Yuko and me absorbed all the fire and it made us stronger than ever. The parents and most of us were laughing hysterically.

Me: Wow! That is some powerful spice!

Nico: No kidding. But wow! How long will this go on?

Me: Lets find out.

We waited for a while. For 3 whole hours we saw Billy blast fire all over the place and it made all of us far more powerful than ever before. When the fire faded, Billy's tongue was totally singed off and really reduced to ashes. We all also got the ability to absorb fire!

Nico: Whoa! 3 hours of blasting us with fire and it was intense!

Naruto: No kidding. Bushy-brow's curry laced with fire salt was intense.

Me: You said it bro. We should also get the members of the Masters of Evil involved on this.

Vince: Good idea.

Maria: It'll be very therapeutic for them as well.

Laney: Good thinking Maria.

Lola: Awesome.

Lana: I like it.

We went back to Earth.

Later we were watching TV. Lincoln was reading a book on the times of the infamous Greco-Persian Wars. One of the most notorious times in all of Greek history. It was for a school project he was working on.

* * *

The Greco-Persian Wars (also often called the Persian Wars) were a series of conflicts between the Achaemenid Empire and Greek city-states that started in 499 BC[ and lasted until 449 BC. The collision between the fractious political world of the Greeks and the enormous empire of the Persians began when Cyrus the Great conquered the Greek-inhabited region of Ionia in 547 BC. Struggling to control the independent-minded cities of Ionia, the Persians appointed tyrants to rule each of them. This would prove to be the source of much trouble for the Greeks and Persians alike.

In 499 BC, the tyrant of Miletus, Aristagoras, embarked on an expedition to conquer the island of Naxos, with Persian support; however, the expedition was a debacle and, preempting his dismissal, Aristagoras incited all of Hellenic Asia Minor into rebellion against the Persians. This was the beginning of the Ionian Revolt, which would last until 493 BC, progressively drawing more regions of Asia Minor into the conflict. Aristagoras secured military support from Athens and Eretria, and in 498 BC these forces helped to capture and burn the Persian regional capital of Sardis. The Persian king Darius the Great vowed to have revenge on Athens and Eretria for this act. The revolt continued, with the two sides effectively stalemated throughout 497-495 BC. In 494 BC, the Persians regrouped and attacked the epicenter of the revolt in Miletus. At the Battle of Lade, the Ionians suffered a decisive defeat, and the rebellion collapsed, with the final members being stamped out the following year.

Seeking to secure his empire from further revolts and from the interference of the mainland Greeks, Darius embarked on a scheme to conquer Greece and to punish Athens and Eretria for the burning of Sardis. The first Persian invasion of Greece began in 492 BC, with the Persian general Mardonius successfully re-subjugating Thrace and Macedon before several mishaps forced an early end to the rest of the campaign. In 490 BC a second force was sent to Greece, this time across the Aegean Sea, under the command of Datis and Artaphernes. This expedition subjugated the Cyclades, before besieging, capturing and razing Eretria. However, while en route to attack Athens, the Persian force was decisively defeated by the Athenians at the Battle of Marathon, ending Persian efforts for the time being.

Darius then began to plan to completely conquer Greece but died in 486 BC and responsibility for the conquest passed to his son Xerxes. In 480 BC, Xerxes personally led the second Persian invasion of Greece with one of the largest ancient armies ever assembled. Victory over the allied Greek states at the famous Battle of Thermopylae allowed the Persians to torch an evacuated Athens and overrun most of Greece. However, while seeking to destroy the combined Greek fleet, the Persians suffered a severe defeat at the Battle of Salamis. The following year, the confederated Greeks went on the offensive, decisively defeating the Persian army at the Battle of Plataea, and ending the invasion of Greece by the Achaemenid Empire.

The allied Greeks followed up their success by destroying the rest of the Persian fleet at the Battle of Mycale, before expelling Persian garrisons from Sestos (479 BC) and Byzantium (478 BC). Following the Persian withdrawal from Europe and the Greek victory at Mycale, Macedon and the city-states of Ionia regained their independence. The actions of the general Pausanias at the siege of Byzantium alienated many of the Greek states from the Spartans, and the anti-Persian alliance was therefore reconstituted around Athenian leadership, called the Delian League. The Delian League continued to campaign against Persia for the next three decades, beginning with the expulsion of the remaining Persian garrisons from Europe. At the Battle of the Eurymedon in 466 BC, the League won a double victory that finally secured freedom for the cities of Ionia. However, the League's involvement in the Egyptian revolt by Inaros II against Artaxerxes I (from 460-454 BC) resulted in a disastrous Greek defeat, and further campaigning was suspended. A Greek fleet was sent to Cyprus in 451 BC, but achieved little, and, when it withdrew, the Greco-Persian Wars drew to a quiet end. Some historical sources suggest the end of hostilities was marked by a peace treaty between Athens and Persia, the Peace of Callias.

The wars lasted from 499 B.C. to 449 B.C. and it was endless fighting that lasted for 50 years.

The leader of these wars was the infamous God King, Xerxes I of Persia.

---

Xerxes I of Persia, simply known as Xerxes, is the main antagonist of the 300 duology, serving as the main antagonist of the 2007 film

300, and the secondary antagonist of its 2014 sequel, 300: Rise of an Empire, both based on the graphic novel 300 by Frank Miller.

He is based on the real king Xerxes I of Persia who sent his army to fight against 300 Spartans in the battle of Thermopylae in 480 BC. Xerxes eventually won this battle by having superior numbers in his army and due to the Greek traitor Ephialtes, who aided him by showing him and the Persians the existence of a small pass in the Hot Gates that allowed Xerxes to attack them from behind. Xerxes is depicted as being extremely egocentric, and proclaims himself a "God-king". He demands that all those beneath him bow down to him.

He was portrayed by Rodrigo Santoro.

Xerxes was the son of King Darius, who during an attempt to invade and conquer Greece, was killed by Themistocles of Athens by a well-placed arrow. Xerxes saw the arrow coming and tried save his father, but he was too late. Themistocles' arrow struck Darius down, and near death, decided to let the Persians and the Greeks form a truce. However, as he tried tell his son about his choice, his last words were not heard as Artemisia pulled the arrow from his chest, and he died. Artemisia then manipulated Xerxes, to become a god king. Xerxes wandered out into the desert, while Artemisia assassinated all of Xerxes' advisors. He eventfully found a Hermit's cave, and through the use of dark magic, was stripped of his humanity and was reborn as the god king. He then made his choice to lead a conquest on the world.

Xerxes then launched a diplomatic attempt to subdue Greece, though Athens turned him down, and Sparta responded by killing his envoys. He then lead an army of 300,000 men towards Thermopylae, where a force of 300 Spartans under Leonidas was waiting for him. After hundreds, if not thousands of his men are killed, he approaches Leonidas in person and attempts to convince him to surrender offering power and wealth in exchange for allegiance. Leonidas declines the offer and mocks him for having such a weak army. In response to this challenge, he sends his elite guard, the Immortals, that night to finish the job, and unwittingly has his elite walk into a Spartan trap. Despite being temporarily stunned, the Immortals soon have the Spartans on the ropes, but an attack by the Arcadians evens the odds and the Immortals are repelled, very much to his fury. The following day, he even uses war elephants, but due to the skill of the Spartans and the terrain, it comes to nothing. Xerxes then realizes that although he will beat the Spartans through attrition, logistically he cant wait that long. A miracle occurs when the deformed Ephitaltes arrives and reveals to Xerxes a path around the Spartans. Xerxes then makes an offer to Ephitaltes that in exchange for loyalty and his guide around the path, he will offer him wealth, women, and especially a uniform. Xerxes agrees to the bargain, and Ephitaltes fulfills his part of the deal by bringing the Persians around, and Xerxes fulfills his. The Arcadians have fled by the sunrise, but the Spartans stay. Xerxes decides to force a surrender, but the Spartans kill his general. Having lost so many men and elephants to the Spartans in close combat, Xerxes decides to finish the job from afar. However though, Leonidas throws his spear at the god king and cuts Xerxes' cheek, much to his shock. Despite this injury, Xerxes managed to win, for in a few minutes, every single Spartan was dead.

Following the victory, he angrily ordered Leonidas' head to be cut off to symbolize his triumph and then burns Athens. He speaks with Artemisia who had failed to crush the Greek fleet. He advised her not to enter the Salamis straights, but Artemisia ignored it, and her navy was destroyed by the combined Spartan and Athenian fleets. With his naval support destroyed, Xerxes realized he has lost the war then abandons Artemisia to her fate and fled Greece.

Based on the true history that the Greek repelled the second Persian invasion, it is most likely that Xerxes' ambition of conquering Greek and the world will be burned to ash later on.

Personality

This depiction of Xerxes is portrayed as a power-crazed, authoritative, megalomaniacal and psychopathic person who is incredibly determined to conquer the known Persian world. He is extremely arrogant and presumptuous, believing he is literally a divine being, an overconfidence that has cost him on a number of occasions. He is also extremely manipulative and cruel, easily convincing Ephitaltes to defect by appealing to his desires he could not gain with the Greeks. Nevertheless, he is emotional when his father dies, and in his temperamental state, is easily manipulated by Artemisia. He is also very cunning, egotistical and overconfident, when Leonidas' spear cut his cheek, he reacted with horror and shock upon seeing his own blood. He is also very cantankerous and vengeful, angrily cutting off Leonidas' head in a sign of dominance.

He also had a tendency to learn lessons, as evident when he advised Artemisia not to enter the straits of Salamis having learned from his experience at Thermopylae. When Artemisia was killed and the fleet was destroyed, Xerxes fled, indicating that he has some tactical knowledge.

---

We later got to watching one of mine and Nico's favorite movies from 2006: 300. It was a bloody and gory movie. It was the story on the 300 Spartans in the Battle of Thermopylae in 480 B.C.

---

In 480 B.C., one year after the Battle of Thermopylae, Dilios, a hoplite in the Spartan army, begins his story by depicting the life of Leonidas I from childhood to kingship via Spartan doctrine. Dilios's story continues and a Persian herald arrives at the gates of Sparta demanding "earth and water" as a token of submission to King Xerxes-the Spartans reply by throwing the envoy and his escort into a deep well. Leonidas then visits the Ephors, proposing a strategy to drive back the numerically superior Persians through the Hot Gates. His plan involves building a wall in order to funnel the Persians into a narrow pass between the rocks and the sea: negating the Persian advantage in numbers, and giving the Greeks' heavy infantry the advantage over the vast waves of Persian light infantry. The Ephors consult the Oracle, who decrees that Sparta will not go to war during the Carneia. As Leonidas angrily departs, an agent from Xerxes appears, rewarding the Ephors for their covert support.

Although the Ephors have denied him permission to mobilize Sparta's army, Leonidas gathers three hundred of his best soldiers in the guise of his personal bodyguard. They are joined along the way by a few thousand Arcadians. At Thermopylae, they construct the wall made up of stones and slain Persian scouts as mortar, angering a Persian emissary. Stelios, an elite Spartan soldier, orders the former to go back to the Persian lines and warn Xerxes, after cutting off his whipping arm.

Meanwhile, Leonidas encounters Ephialtes, a deformed Spartan whose parents fled Sparta to spare him certain infanticide. Ephialtes asks to redeem his father's name by joining Leonidas' army, warning him of a secret path the Persians could use to outflank and surround the Spartans. Though sympathetic, Leonidas rejects him since his deformity physically prevents him from holding his shield high enough, potentially compromising the phalanx formation, and Ephialtes is enraged.

The battle begins soon after the Spartans' refusal to lay down their weapons. Using the Hot Gates to their advantage, as well as their superior fighting skills, the Spartans repel wave after wave of the advancing Persian army. During a lull in the battle, Xerxes personally approaches Leonidas to persuade him to surrender, offering him wealth and power in exchange for his allegiance. Leonidas declines and mocks Xerxes for the inferior quality of his fanatical warriors. In response, Xerxes sends in his elite guard, the Immortals, later that night. The Spartans nonetheless manage to defeat the Immortals with few losses, with slight help from the Arcadians.

On the second day, Xerxes sends in new waves of armies from Asia and other Persian subject states, including war elephants, to crush the Spartans once and for all, but to no avail. Meanwhile, Ephialtes defects to Xerxes to whom he reveals the secret path in exchange for wealth, luxury, women, and a Persian uniform. The Arcadians retreat upon learning of Ephialtes' betrayal, but the Spartans stay. Leonidas orders an injured but reluctant Dilios to return to Sparta and tell them of what has happened: a "tale of victory".

In Sparta, Queen Gorgo tries to persuade the Spartan Council to send reinforcements to aid the 300. Theron, a corrupt politician, claims that he "owns" the Council and threatens the Queen, who reluctantly submits to his sexual demands in return for his help. When Theron disgraces her in front of the Council, Gorgo kills him out of rage, revealing within his robe a bag of Xerxes' gold. Marking his betrayal, the Council unanimously agrees to send reinforcements. On the third day, the Persians, led by Ephialtes, traverse the secret path, encircling the Spartans. Xerxes' general again demands their surrender. Leonidas seemingly kneels in submission, allowing Stelios to leap over him and kill the general. A furious Xerxes orders his troops to attack. Leonidas rises and throws his spear at Xerxes; barely missing him, the spear cuts across and wounds his face, proving the God-King's mortality. Leonidas and the remaining Spartans fight to the last man until they finally succumb to an arrow barrage.

Dilios, now back in Sparta, concludes his tale before the Council. Inspired by Leonidas' sacrifice, the Greeks mobilize. One year later, the Persians face an army of 30,000 free Greeks led by a vanguard of 10,000 Spartans. After one final speech commemorating the 300, Dilios, now head of the Spartan Army, leads them to war, against the Persians across the fields of Plataea.

We then watched 2014's 300: Rise of an Empire. This was about the Battle of Artemisium and the Battle of Salamis. The Battle of Salamis was a decisive factor in the wars that lead to the fall of Xerxes years later.

---

Queen Gorgo of Sparta tells her men about the Battle of Marathon, in which King Darius of Persia was killed by General Themistokles of Athens ten years earlier. Darius's son, Xerxes, witnesses his father's death, and is advised to not continue the war, since "only the gods can defeat the Greeks". Darius's naval commander, Artemisia, claims that Darius' last words were in fact a challenge and sends Xerxes on a journey through the desert. Xerxes finally reaches a cave and bathes in an otherworldly liquid, emerging as the 8-foot tall "God-King". He returns to Persia and declares war on Greece to avenge his father.

As Xerxes's forces advance towards Thermopylae, Themistokles meets with the council and convinces them to provide him with a fleet to engage the Persians at the sea. Themistokles then travels to Sparta to ask King Leonidas for help, but is informed by Dilios that Leonidas is consulting the Oracle, and Gorgo is reluctant to side with Athens. Themistokles later reunites with his old friend Scyllias, who infiltrated the Persian troops and learned Artemisia was born Greek, but defected to Persia as her family was raped and murdered by Greek hoplites and she was taken as a sex slave, and subsequently left for dead in the streets. She was rescued and adopted by a Persian emissary. Her lust for vengeance gained the attention of King Darius and he made her a naval commander after she killed many of his enemies. Themistokles also learns that Leonidas has marched to fight the Persians with only 300 men.

Themistokles leads his fleet of fifty warships and several thousand men, which include Scyllias, Scyllias's son Calisto, and Themistokles' right-hand man Aeskylos to the Aegean Sea, starting the Battle of Artemisium. They ram their ships into the Persian ships, charge them, slaughtering several soldiers before retreating from the sinking Persian ships. The following day, the Greeks feign a retreat and lead a group of Persian ships into a crevice, where they become stuck. The Greeks charge the Persian ships from the cliffs above and kill more Persians. Impressed with Themistokles' skills, Artemisia brings him onto her ship where she has sex with him, in an attempt to lure him to the Persian side as her second-in-command. They fight and make love at the same time. He refuses, causing her to shove him in the middle of sex, and swear revenge on him.

The Persians spill tar into the sea and send suicide bombers to swim to and board the Greek ships with their flame bombs. Artemisia and her men fire flaming arrows and torches to ignite the tar, but an Athenian manages to kill one of the Persians, who falls into the tar carrying a torch, causing ships from both sides to explode. Themistokles is thrown into the sea by an explosion and nearly drowns before being rescued by Aeskylos, and stands by Scyllias's side as he succumbs to his injuries. Believing Themistokles to be dead, Artemisia and her forces withdraw. After recovering from his injuries, Themistokles learns that only a few hundred of his warriors and six of his ships survived the disastrous attack executed by Artemisia.

Daxos, an Arcadian general, tells Themistokles that Leonidas and his 300 men were killed after Ephialtes betrayed the Greeks to Xerxes. Themistokles returns to Athens and confronts Ephialtes. The deformed Spartan traitor reveals that Xerxes plans to attack and burn Athens to the ground. Ephialtes acknowledges and regrets his betrayal shamefully, and welcomes death. Themistokles spares him instead, so he can warn Xerxes that the Greek forces are gathering at Salamis. He then visits Gorgo in Sparta while she is mourning Leonidas's death to ask for help, but Gorgo is angry for what the goal of a united Greece has cost her and her people. Before departing, Themistokles returns Leonidas's sword, which had been delivered to him by Ephialtes under Xerxes's orders, and urges Gorgo to avenge Leonidas.

In Athens, Xerxes's army is laying waste when Ephialtes arrives to deliver Themistokles' message. Upon learning he is alive, Artemisia leaves to ready her entire navy for battle. Xerxes suggests it is most likely a trap, but she still leaves after reminding him that she made him king through her efforts while he sat safely at a distance and watched. The remaining Greek ships charge into the Persians ships, and the two armies battle, beginning the decisive Battle of Salamis. Themistokles and Artemisia engage in a duel, which ends in a stalemate with both receiving severe injuries.

At this moment Gorgo, who had been narrating the tale to the Spartans, arrives at the battle along with ships from numerous Greek city states including Delphi, Thebes, Olympia, Arcadia, and Sparta, all of them uniting against the surrounded Persians. Daxos leads the Arcadian army while Themistokles urges Artemisia to surrender. Xerxes, watching the battle from a cliff, turns his back on her, acknowledging his naval defeat and continuing the march of his army. Artemisia tries to kill Themistokles one last time but is killed as he stabs her through the stomach. While Dilios leads the Greek assault, Themistokles and Gorgo take a moment to silently acknowledge one another's alliance as the remaining Persians attempt a counter-attack. The three then charge at the opposing Persians with the whole Greek army.

When the movies were done, Lincoln was amazed.

Lincoln: Wow! That was intense!

Me: It sure was. That was one of the goriest battles ever. It was awful that the Greeks had to endure so much all those years ago.

Nico: No kidding.

Lincoln: Yeah. But that Xerxes was a total jerk.

Me: He sure was. Xerxes would stop at nothing until he burned all of Athens to the ground.

Laney: No kidding.

Me: Yeah. But these movies were based on what happened all those years ago. It was 2,500 years ago.

Lana: He sure was ugly.

Nico: He sure was ugly. But thank goodness he's dead.

Me: We're going to destroy Xerxes and the entirety of the Persian

Empire during the Greco-Persian Wars.

Nico: Yeah! Lets do it!

Me: Xerxes is gonna see what the power of a true god can do.

We went to the simulator.

We powered up and transformed. I was now at Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix, Nico was at Super Saiyan 4 and we were at full power.

Me: (Divine Voice) This is your end Xerxes.

Nico: Ok. I've gotta say this. THIS! IS! SPARTA, BITCHES!

We flew at the Persians and the army of Artemisia.

Xerxes: Nothing will stop the march of my empire.

Descendants of Sparta, Athens and Crete

Look north, ready to fight

Enemies charge from the hills

To arms, facing defeat

There's no surrender, there's no retreat

Time after time, force their enemies back to the line

Call to arms banners fly in the wind

For the glory of Hellas

Coat of arms reading "Freedom or death"

Blood of king Leonidas

Air raid pounding the land

Bombers are flying both day and night

Endure six days of rain

Dropped by invaders, bomb raid in vain

Strike hard, the tables have turned

Drive them back over the hills

At arms, just like before

Soldiers, civilians, Hellas at war

By their own hand forced the enemy out of their land

Call to arms, banners fly in the wind

For the glory of Hellas

Coat of arms reading "Freedom or death"

Blood of king Leonidas

Just like their ancestors ages ago

Fought in the face of defeat

Those three hundred men left a pride to uphold

Freedom of death in effect

Then, now again

Blood of heroes saving their land

Call to arms, banners fly in the wind

For the glory of Hellas

Coat of arms reading "Freedom or death"

Blood of king Leonidas

Call to arms, banners fly in the wind

For the glory of Hellas

Coat of arms reading "Freedom or death"

Blood of king Leonidas

Leni: Thanks.

Lincoln and Danny's ghost senses activated and out came TECHNUS!

Technus: Didn't expect to see me again did you?

Me: Technus. I was wondering when you would show again.

Cyborg: (to Technus) You're gonna get it for trying to steal my car!

Technus: Can you blame me for wanting a ride in it? Besides, that can be replaced. But your life can't!

Cyborg: We'll see about that.

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's the ghost of Nikolai Technus. He's one of Danny Phantom's most dangerous enemies. He's called the ghost of technology.

Technus: That's right young one. I, Technus, master of all things electronic and beeping will destroy you.

Qin: He sounds a lot like famous actor Gilbert Gottfried.

Me: That was our first reaction when we faced him the first time.

?: Lets see how you face me.

A figure came out and we saw that it was DREADWOLF from episode 12 of Super Ninja Steel!

Ed: Hiya guys! (HOWLS)

Rolf then started having memory flashbacks of his past with the wolf bandits!

Ed: [howling] "Hawoooo! How how howwwwoool!"

---

[The howl triggers a memory in Rolf. He is a young boy, carrying a sheep. He is in the Old Country, and it is just after dark. He is scared. Young Rolf carries the sheep to pasture, but the sheep baas. Rolf covers its mouth, but he hears the gnashing of teeth and the crackling of twigs. Rolf takes off running. Behind him, footfalls come, closer with each step. Rolf looks behind him and trips over a tree root. He drops the sheep, and a man wearing a wolf pelt mask grabs it. The sheep rustler holds the sheep up, howling at the moon. Suddenly, Rolf leaps at the much larger man, tearing the wolf pelt off the rustler.]

Young Rolf: "Not again!" [He hits the rustler with his shepherd's rod.] "Mestick! (SMASH!) Shlorvin! (SMASH!)"

FLASHBACK ENDS

Mary Knudson was facing Misty Tredwell.

Misty Tredwell: So Mary I heard you are a very famous chef.

Misty Tredwell: I see. Since you fought all over all of this timeline, I'll give you a break and we'll just talk.

Mary K.: I appreciate that.

Misty Tredwell: How did Carly's date go?

Mary K.: She had a great date and we had it at the estate. I made an awesome 5-course meal for Jack and her. I made tarragon-crusted Atlantic Salmon, Jalapeño Poppers in nacho cheese sauce as an appetizer, Fish Vindaloo Curry with tomato pepper sauce, Salmon with a Tikka-Misala curry glaze and for desert I made a delicious chocolate lava cake with 5 kinds of melted chocolate.

Misty Tredwell: Wow. You are an amazing chef. And you're making me hungry.

Mary K.: I have that kind of way with people when it comes to food.

Misty Tredwell: I can see that.

Mary K.: I've cooked for the most prestigious of people all over the world and made amazing meals for them.

Misty Tredwell: Wow. Now I see where she gets her cooking traits from. Your father.

Mary K.: Yep. Dad taught me how to cook back when I was a little girl. I became known as the Chef of the Team.

Misty Tredwell: Wow. Amazing. You'll have to cook for us next time you invited us over for the next Holiday.

Mary K.: That's for Independence Day. But I'll be more than happy to.

---

Later we regrouped and the Masters of Evil came.

Webstor: That was fun.

Leonard: Quick question. You guys are resistant to mind attacks, right?

William: For the most part, yes.

Technus: Good to know.

Misty Tredwell: You'll need that for a future adventure.

Sora Takenouchi: What future adventure?

Webstor: (smirks) Let's just say that it's going to involve all of you getting Chaotic!

Me: Looking forward to it.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleport out.

Me: This was awesome! Lets head home guys.

We did so.

At the estate we were celebrating Hunter's Birthday!

Manaphy, Poromon, Poliwag and Horsea: (Blow Noise Makers) HAPPY BIRTHDAY HUNTER!

Hunter: Danke everyone.

Me: Bitte buddy. So how does it feel being 21?

Hunter: Wunderbar. It's amazing.

We had an amazing birthday party for Hunter. We had German dancing, German food like Bratwurst, croquets, knishes, sausages from all over Germany and more and we also drank German Beer! Germany is widely known for having Oktoberfest and the beer is amazing. Nico drank a lot of beer and he was drunk as a loon.

Nico: (Slurred Speech) This is everything about a party I've always liked.

May: Oh my god! Nico is drunk!

Nico: Oh look who it is, Ms. I-don't-have-time-for-your-beauty-pageants. Come here you little bitch!

He punched at her and she dodged it.

Me: Okay Nico, I think you've had enough mister.

I went over to him and held his hands.

Laney: He drank 14 mugs of beer.

Nico: (Crying) Why do you close your eyes when we make love!? (Barney Gumble Belch) (Crying)

Me: I think you need a nap mister. Lets get you to bed.

I took Nico to his room and he fell asleep on his bed.

I came back.

Me: Sorry Hunter. But Alles Gute zum Geburtstag mein Freund.

Hunter: (Speaking German) Vielen Dank, dass Sie dies zu meinem besten Geburtstag aller Zeiten gemacht haben! (Thank you all so much for making this my best birthday ever!)

Me: Bitte Freund.

Ed: (To the viewers) Never turn into a wolf in front of Rolf. Or you will regret it. (Laughs)

Another Awesome fanfiction complete.

300 has been one of my favorite movie for a while. It was really cool and Gerard Butler did a great job in the 2006 movie. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys and Happy Birthday to you Hunter. Happy 21st Birthday. Next up is Wallace & Gromit and the Curse of the Were-Rabbit and we're gonna help cure Wallace of being a Were-Rabbit.

See you all tomorrow.

Curse of the Were-Rabbit

It starts with us by the lake. We were outside because Leslie and Donna were gonna see what it's like to be Pokemon. Donna was gonna see what it's like to be the legendary Pokemon Ho-Oh and Leslie was gonna see what it's like to be the legendary Pokemon Lugia. Nico had an ice bag on his head because of the hangover he got from all the beer he drank during Hunter's birthday party.

Nico: I can't believe that I drank all that beer. I am so ashamed.

Me: Welcome to my world Nico.

Poromon: But you'll be all right now Nico.

Poliwag: Yeah it's not your fault.

Luna Loud: Yeah dude. I wanted to try beer to see what it was like and it was awful for me dude.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Lots of people around our age group drink a lot and it's not a good thing for them because of how much we drank.

Nico: That's true.

Barney Gumble: Yeah I know how you feel Nico. I started drinking myself when I was in college with Homer. (Belch)

We laughed.

Me: (Laughs) You always crack us up with those burps Barney.

Laney: Yeah they are funny.

Bart: Funny for over 32 years Barney.

Moe Szyslak: That's true.

Barney Gumble: Thanks guys.

Leslie: This is gonna be interesting.

Leslie had a tattered purple shirt and skirt on and Donna had a yellow tattered shirt and skirt on.

Teresa: I'll make sure to get your usual clothes for after you two change back.

Maria: I have them right here Teresa.

Leslie: Thanks guys.

Falcon: Agony, Scream, you two should seperate from Leslie and Donna before they transform.

Agony: Good idea.

Scream: Yeah.

Agony and Scream separated from them and Laney and Lincoln were holding them.

Me: Just don't bond with Lincoln and Laney while they hold you two.

Agony: We know.

Me: Good. Okay. Leslie, Donna, this is gonna hurt really bad.

Agony: We know. We saw this happen many times and we're ready.

Donna: Yep.

Me: Okay. It'll only last for fifteen minutes.

Leslie: Right.

Me: Here we go.

I snapped my fingers and Leslie and Donna were in excruciating pain. Their arms transformed. Leslie's arms turned into the arms of Lugia and her chest turned white and her nuck grew longer and her head turned into Lugia's. She was now a full-fledge Lugia. Donna's arms turned into the wings of Ho-Oh and her chest turned into Ho-Oh's and she grew Ho-Oh's beautiful tail feathers out of her butt and her head turned into a bird and she was now a full-fledge Ho-Oh!

Me: Wow!

Blitzwing: How do you two feel?

Donna: Incredible!

Leslie: Wow! So this is what it's like to be Pokemon.

Aqua: It was amazing when we tried it.

Kairi: It sure was.

Sky Lynx: You two should test your Pokemon powers out.

Donna: Good idea.

I saw something.

Me: And I see the perfect training dummies. (Points to something) Team Rocket Remnants coming in over there.

Donna: Lets get them.

They went at the remnants of Team Rocket and Donna flew fast and fired a massive blast of fire from her mouth and burned a bunch of the remnants into ash and Leslie fired a powerful Aeroblast and blew the remnants of Team Rocket into a million pieces!

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Vince: That was amazing!

Carol: Way to go girls!

They landed by us.

Donna: It sure was awesome!

Leslie: You said it.

Me: And with 1 minute to spare.

Laney: It was awesome seeing you two as the Legendary Pokemon Lugia and Ho-Oh.

Donna: Yeah it was fun while it lasted.

Me: Cover your eyes boys.

We did so.

Me: 3… 2… 1…

I covered my eyes and Donna and Leslie were in excruciating pain again and they reverted back. Maria and Leni went over and gave them towels and their usual clothes. And Laney gave back Agony to Leslie and Scream to Donna.

Teresa: Glad you all had fun.

Donna: Thanks Teresa.

Leslie: It was awesome being the legendary Pokemon.

Donna and Leslie put on their usual clothes and we uncovered our eyes.

Me: That was awesome.

Aqua: It sure was.

Later we were over in England and we were there to investigate the cause of mysterious garden invasions all over the city. With us were the famous heroes of London: Wallace and his dog friend Gromit. They are widely known all over the world for their awesome pest control service and awesome inventions.

Wallace

Wallace lives at 62 West Wallaby Street, Wigan, along with his dog Gromit. His surname is never given. He usually wears a white shirt, brown wool trousers, a green knitted pullover, and a red tie. He is fond of cheese, especially Wensleydale, and crackers.

Nick Park, his creator, said: "He's a very self-contained figure. A very homely sort who doesn't mind the odd adventure." He is loosely based on Nick Park's father, whom Park described in a radio interview as "an incurable tinkerer". He described one of his father's constructions, a combination beach hut and trailer, as having curtains in the windows, bookshelves on the walls, and full-sized furniture bolted to the floor. The way he dresses and his passion for cheese are based on an eccentric school teacher.

Wallace has been voiced by Peter Sallis (until 2010), and Ben Whitehead (in 2009 and since 2011) in Wallace & Gromit's Grand Adventures and Wallace & Gromit's Musical Marvels commercials and apps.

Wallace is an inveterate inventor, creating elaborate contraptions that often do not work as intended. Their appearance is similar to the illustrations of W. Heath Robinson and Rube Goldberg, and Nick Park has said of Wallace that all his inventions are designed around the principle of using a "sledgehammer to crack a nut." Some of Wallace's contraptions are based on real-life inventions. For example, his method of waking up in the morning utilises a bed that tips over to wake up its owner, an invention that was exhibited at The Great Exhibition of 1851 by Theophilus Carter.

Wallace's official job varies; in A Close Shave he is a window washer. In The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, Wallace runs a humane pest control service, keeping the captured creatures (nearly all of which are rabbits) in the basement of his house. In the most recent short, A Matter of Loaf and Death, he is a baker. While he has shown himself to be skilled to some degree in the businesses he creates, an unexpected flaw in the inventions he uses to assist him in his latest venture or simple bad luck often ends up being his downfall.

In the first photo shown on The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, it was revealed that Wallace once had a full head of hair and a very thick moustache with muttonchops. On the photo that shows Gromit's graduation at Dogwarts, he had lost his beard, but still had a little hair, in the form of side burns just above his ears. In The Wrong Trousers, he still uses a hair-dryer. In A Matter of Loaf and Death, when Wallace is talking to Gromit, a picture is seen behind Gromit of Wallace with a brown beard and brown hair.

Wallace has had three love interests. The first was Wendolene Ramsbottom, which ended quickly when Wendolene told Wallace that cheese gives her a rash. The second was Lady Tottington in The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, whom Wallace fondly calls "Totty". In A Matter of Loaf and Death, Wallace becomes engaged to Piella Bakewell, but this ended when she turned out to be a murderess who hated bakers, and was eaten by crocodiles upon trying to escape justice. In Musical Marvels, after the montage of his three love interests, he refers to them as "the ones that got away".

Gromit

Gromit is a beagle who is Wallace's pet dog and best friend. He is very intelligent, having graduated from "Dogwarts University" ("Dogwarts" being a pun on "Hogwarts," the wizard school from the Harry Potter books) with a double first in Engineering for Dogs. He likes knitting, playing chess, reading the newspaper, tea and cooking. His prized possessions include his alarm clock, dog bone, brush, and a framed photo of himself with Wallace. He is very handy with electronic equipment and an excellent aeroplane pilot. He often threatens the plans of the villains he and Wallace encounter in their adventures. Sometimes, Gromit ignores Wallace's orders, such as in A Close Shave and Shopper 13, where Wallace orders him to get rid of Shaun, but Gromit does not. Gromit's birthday is 12 February. In The Wrong Trousers, he is seen circling the date on a calendar.

Gromit has no visible mouth and expresses himself through facial expressions and body language. Peter Hawkins originally intended to voice Gromit, but Park dropped the idea when he realised how Gromit's thoughts and feelings could be known through movement with some canine noises on rare occasions. Many critics believe that Gromit's silence makes him the perfect straight man, with a pantomime expressiveness that drew favourable comparisons to Buster Keaton. He does at times make dog-like noises, such as yelps and growling. Nick Park says: "We are a nation of dog-lovers and so many people have said: 'My dog looks at me just like Gromit does!'"

Generally speaking Gromit's tastes are more in vogue than those of Wallace; this being one of the many ways they contrast with each other as characters. Gromit seems to have a significant interest in encyclopaedic, classical and philosophical literature, and popular culture, including film and music. Electronics for Dogs has been a firm favourite since A Grand Day Out, and in The Wrong Trousers Gromit's bookshelves feature titles such as Kites, Sticks, Sheep, Penguins, Rockets, Bones, and Stars, while he is seen reading The Republic, by Pluto (a nod to the Disney character of the same name and a pun on Plato) and Crime and Punishment, by Fido Dogstoyevsky (a pun on Fyodor Dostoyevsky). Gromit's various possessions make extensive use of puns: A Matter of Loaf and Death features "Pup Fiction" (Pulp Fiction), "The Dogfather" (The Godfather), "Where Beagles Dare" (Where Eagles Dare), "Bite Club" (Fight Club) and "The Bone Identity" (The Bourne Identity) all as book titles, and "Citizen Canine" (Citizen Kane) as a film poster. His taste in music has been shown to cover Bach, "Poochini" (a play on Puccini), "McFlea" (McFly), "The Beagles" (The Beatles) and "Red Hot Chili Puppies" (Red Hot Chili Peppers).

Gromit gains his own love interest in A Matter of Loaf and Death, when he becomes attached to Fluffles, a poodle. Fluffles reciprocates his affection and joins Wallace and Gromit delivering bread at the end of the film, and the three drive off into the sunset, making a delivery and listening to "Puppy Love" (performed, according to the record cover, by "Doggy Osmond").

NASA named one of its new prototype Mars explorer robots after Gromit in 2005. On 1 April 2007, HMV announced that Gromit would stand in for Nipper for a three-month period, promoting children's DVDs in its UK stores.

Location

Although not overtly setting the series in any particular town, Nick

Park had previously hinted that its milieu was inspired by thoughts of 1950s Wigan, reinforced by an A-Z Wigan being displayed on Wallace's Anti-Pesto van in The Curse of the Were-Rabbit. In The Wrong Trousers, Gromit picks up a letter at the Wallace and Gromit residence addressed to "62 West Wallaby Street, Wigan". The address includes a postcode of WG7 7FU, though this does not match any street in Wigan, whose postcodes begin with the letters WN. This address can be seen in the Cracking Contraptions episode "Shopper 13".

Wallace's accent (voiced by Peter Sallis) comes from the Holme Valley of West Yorkshire. Near the beginning of A Matter of Loaf and Death, Wigan is referenced on the newspaper Wallace is reading, and near the end, while looking for somewhere appropriate to dispose of a bomb, Gromit sees the Yorkshire border from their home (a joke referencing the rivalry between Lancashire and Yorkshire).

In the Cracking Contraptions episode "The Soccamatic", Wallace says to Gromit, "How do you like my Preston North End soccamatic, Gromit?". The episode references famous English footballers of the 1950s and 60s, including Nobby Stiles (who played for Preston later in his career), Geoff Hurst, and Stanley Matthews.

Both Ramsbottom and Tottington are small towns near Bury in Greater Manchester, and are the names of love interests of Wallace.

The nostalgic quality of Wallace and Gromit's world has been compared to 1950s Beanotown.

Me: It's truly an honor to meet the world famous Wallace and Gromit.

Wallace: (British Accent) The pleasure is all mine J.D. You are a very prominent inspiration to a lot of people all over the world for your amazing achievements.

Nico: We don't like to brag.

Vince: But we love all your movies and shows.

Carol: They are so awesome and really funny.

Carla: They sure are mommy.

Evelyn: Yeah!

Me: So what has been happening Wallace?

Wallace: We don't know. Some monster has been stealing vegetables all over the city and causing a lot of problems.

Nico: That's not a good sign.

Me: Can you show us what you were doing when all of this broke out?

Wallace: I would be honored.

Wallace showed us what went down in his house and he showed us his machine that he used when it happened.

Me: Strange indeed. What could've caused this machine to blow like this?

Nico: Looks like an overload.

Wallace: Oh, Gromit. We've created a monster. Hutch is the beast. The lunar panels! They must've ovestimulated his primitive bunny nature. And now when the moon is out, he undergoes a hideous transformation.

Suddenly Hutch starts twitching and growling until… he lets out a loud belch.

Wallace: This is absolutely… fantastic! Sure, we've created a veg-ravaging monster, but we have also captured it, just like we promised Lady Tottington.

Maria: (gets a bad feeling) So why do I still have a bad feeling?

Me: I don't know. Hmm.

Gromit: Laney, we should check out Wallace's room.

Laney: Right.

We went up to Wallace's room. Wallace stayed and wondered what could've happened.

Gromit opens Wallace's room to see lots of vegetables on the bed. Gromit's eyes shake, realizing that Wallace is the Were Rabbit.

William: Hutch isn't the Were Rabbit! It's Wallace!

Ben: Guys, we can't tell Wallace about this yet! He'll freak out!

Me: I agree. The stress would be too overwhelming. But Wallace is a smart guy. He'll figure it out eventually.

We walked around the city and we were at the house of Lady Tottingham.

Lady Tottington: (British Accent) It's a wonderful honor to have you all here J.D.

Me: Pleasure is all ours Lady Tottington.

Carol: We've been to London many times in the past.

Marinette: It's a beautiful place.

We saw Lady Tottington's garden and it had a lot of amazing vegetables.

Me: Wow. Look at all the vegetables.

Wallace: Amazing.

Lady Tottington: Just smell it, Wallace. Feel its silken flesh.

Wallace: Oh, yes.

Lady Tottington: Isn't it the most sumptuous, succulent specimen you've ever seen?

Wallace: Yes!

Vert: Guys, Tottington's gonna find out that Wallace is the Were Rabbit unless we act fast!

Jinx: (sees sprinkler) I've got an idea.

Jinx used her powers and sprayed them.

Wallace: What on earth were you thinkin' of, lad? Ruined a perfectly good piece of fashionable knitwear, that did. To say nothing of a relationship with an important client.

Zick: I don't know. You were doing fine to me.

Me: Sorry Wallace. We uh thought it was full of bugs.

Wallace: Ah quite all right.

?: (British Accent) Well what do we have here?

We turned and we saw a man that Wallace knows all too well. It was LORD VICTOR QUARTERMAINE!

---

Lord Victor Quartermaine, simply known as Victor Quartermaine, is the main antagonist of DreamWorks' 11th full-length animated feature film Wallace & Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, which is Aardman's 2nd feature film. He is a cruel, aristocratic hunter and Philip's owner who is obsessed on killing the Were-Rabbit in order to marry Lady Tottington in exchange.

He was voiced by Ralph Fiennes, who also played Amon Goeth in Schindler's List, Rameses in The Prince of Egypt, Raiden the Moon King in Kubo and the Two Strings, Barry in Dolittle, Francis Dolarhyde in Red Dragon, Hades in Clash of the Titans, Lord Voldemort in the Harry Potter franchise, and Dennis "Spider" Cleg in Spider. In the videogame adaptation, he was voiced by Kayvan Novak, who also played Jake Abbasi in Skins: Fire.

At Tottington Hall

Appearing at the doorstep, Victor Quartermaine presents himself to Lady Tottington by giving her flowers. Tottington accepts the flowers and shows him and his dog Philip to the rabbits roaming in her garden while Wallace and Gromit were capturing the rabbits using the BunVac 6000 (a machine to suck them away). Victor offered to get rid of the rabbits by shooting; however, Lady Tottington reminded him to not kill them without thought. Although Victor seemingly took her words, he prepares to shoot a rabbit before Wallace's contraption sucked it away as the bullet hits the ground. Confused at this occurance, Victor inspects the hole the rabbit went through before his toupee gets sucked in and later also himself. He then gets out and questions Wallace and Gromit's handling of the rabbits, before demanding Wallace to pay for his toupee. Victor takes a black rabbit, thinking that it was his wig prior to leaving Tottington Hall with Philip.

In the Church

During a town meeting taking place after a night where a creature, called the Were-Rabbit, ate most of the town's vegetables, Victor later enters in the midst of it offering to shoot the animal. However, Lady Tottington persuades the townsfolk to let Anti-Pesto capture the Were-Rabbit humanely and also continue their services, much to his irritation.

Confronting Wallace and Witnessing His Transformation

He traveled with his dog Phillip to Tottington Hall with intentions to visit Totty, only to see her in the vegetable garden with Wallace. Enraged, Victor later corners Wallace during the night in the forest, where he threatens him due to the former being jealous of Lady Tottington's growing fondness for him. He then forces Wallace to fight him. However, Wallace was caught in the moonlight and started transforming unwillingly after he threw Victor onto the van with Gromit inside; both Gromit and Victor watched in fear, but the latter grinned afterwards. When Gromit eventually drives away to go after the now transformed Were-Rabbit, Victor makes another evil grin as he plots a plan.

Acquiring the Bullets

Now knowing who the Were-Rabbit actually is and seeing the opportunity to kill two birds with one stone, Victor goes to Reverend Clement Hedges to seek a way to shoot it down. He gains access to "24-carrot" gold bullets, said by the vicar to be the only thing to kill the creature.

Convincing the Town

Victor then comes to the church when the people argue with Totty that the were-rabbit is still eating the vegetables. Then Victor told the town that he will kill him. This left Totty no choice but to allow him.

Attempting to Take Down the Were-Rabbit

Victor comes to Wallace's house in West Wallaby Lane in the night where he tries to kill him. He managed to track down and shoot Wallace under the form of the Were-Rabbit, only to find out the "creature" Victor shot was actually Gromit in a rabbit decoy suit. He then locks him in an Anti-Pesto trap cage and leaves to exterminate the real Were-Rabbit.

Vegetable Contest

Victor later comes to the contest and tells Officer Albert Mackintosh that the beast is not killed, and the Officer mistakenly repeats it over the bullhorn. Then he calms the folks down, assuring them that he will take down the Were-Rabbit while also mentioning that he has one bullet. When Victor runs out of bullets, he asks the vicar for more only to be told that there are no more. Setting his eyes on the golden carrot trophy, Victor argues with Totty as he attempts to use it as a makeshift bullet, which caught Wallace's attention (as he believes Victor is trying to hurt Tottington) and bringing him to kick the hunter. However, Victor managed to take the carrot, loading it up in a blunderbuss he found at an antiques table at the contest and climbs on a pipe which Wallace later smashed, sending Victor to land head first into a cotton candy machine.

Final Confrontation

Then, Victor sees Tottington and Wallace holding hands right after she knew the Were-Rabbit was Wallace. Then Victor accidentally revealed his plans. Then as he makes an attempt to shoot him, he gets sprayed by Totty in the eyes, blinding him. Seeing that Wallace escaped after Tottington told him to run. Victor, to stop Tottington interfering, pinned her by ramming a pitchfork into her hair, not long before saying he actually like her hair pinned back and follows Wallace. During that time, Philip was chasing Gromit and Victor got bumped by Philip by accident. When he comes back on his feet, he saw Wallace on the flag pole and Victor shoots. Unfortunately, Gromit's plane intercepts the gold carrot-bullet meant for Wallace, shielding him in the process. Having lost his last chance, Victor begins to throw a tantrum. However, the bullet caused Gromit's plane and himself to plummet down into a cheese tent, whilst Wallace/the Were-Rabbit managed to catch it.

Defeat

After believing that Wallace is officially dead, Victor started gloating about his triumphant victory that no one can beat him, although Tottington, who managed to be free, eventually smacked his head from behind with a giant carrot, causing Victor to fall into the same tent. While partially unconscious, he is then dressed in the rabbit suit by Gromit as punishment for his crimes and was sent to divert the mob from entering the tent where the real Were-Rabbit is. Philip believes Victor to be the beast, so he bites his master, and the angry mob chases Victor away.

At this point afterwards, his true fate with the mob on the chase remains a mystery; however, in a deleted scene, it is rumored that he was run out of town instead. It is also rumored that he was killed by the angry mob.

Wallace & Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit (videogame)

Victor Quartermaine and his dog Philip, also appeared as villains. In the game, they stole the Mind Manipulation-O-Matic valves, so that Hutch and the Were-Rabbit cannot return to normal. Also, Victor plans to use the valves, so that normal creatures will transform into were-creatures.

---

Me: Lord Victor Quartermaine.

Victor: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard many wonderful things about you all.

Me: Can't say the same for you Quartermaine.

A figure them came out and it was DARK LASER!

And Vanitas and Electro were with him along with Ms. Cantwell.

Lincoln: Electro.

Spiderman: Vanny.

Lisa Simpson: Cantwell.

Me: Dark Laser!

Dark Laser: It's good to see you all again.

Timmy Turner: Same here.

Dark Laser: I just want to thank you guys for convincing me not to feel sorry for myself.

Sabrina Mason: No problem. And now, you get to be one of our frenemies.

Carly Beth: (laughs) It's amazing how things work out, huh?

Victor: Ignoring what you all are discussing right now (to Wallace) I know your little secret, Pesto. I know exactly what's going on.

Wallace: Your Lordship…

Victor: Yes. You think you can pilfer my filly, don't you?

Gromit tries to get out of the van, then Phillip closes the van door, barking.

Victor: You think you can con an innocent woman out of her fortune?

Wallace: Who, me?

Victor: Well, I got here first! [As Victor's talking, Philip begs to come in, but Gromit shakes his head no] I've spent a long time reeling in that fluffy-headed bunny-lover. And I'm not about to let some puddle-headed peasant poach her from me. Comprenez?

Lori: Back away from Wallace right now!

Victor: Get out of the way, you foolish ugly brat! (punches Lori, knocking her to the ground)

Electro: (nervously) Victor, maybe we should listen to the nice heroes with powers before something bad happens!

Ms. Cantwell: Where's Rath'tab when you need him?

Vanitas: He and the other M'arrillian are still at Perim planning their next move on the Tribal Alliance, remember?

Me: Perim, M'arrillians, Tribal Alliance? (Gasp) That's what you all meant by Chaotic. We're gonna be see the world of Chaotic in the future on the planet Perim.

Electro: You hit the nail right on the head J.D. Yes. Chaotic is really cool.

Me: I've heard a lot about it. It's really awesome. But lets focus on the matter at hand.

I punched Victor in the face and sent him crashing into a log.

Victor: Oh so you want to fight do you?

Me: You bet I do you overzealous douchebag!

Victor: All right then. We'll do it Queensberry Rules.

Me: Sorry but I don't play by Queensberry Rules.

I punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and knocked out one of his teeth.

Me: Had enough you fuckass?

Victor: I'm just getting started.

He threw a punch at me and I grabbed his fist and crushed his hand with my powerful strength.

Me: If this is all you're made of it's really pathetic.

Nico: Yeah you scumbag!

But then we saw Wallace shaking and we saw the Full Moon come out from behind the clouds.

Me: Uh oh.

We then saw Wallace grow two big buck teeth.

Victor: What the dickens?

Me: Oh shit.

Nico: It's happening.

Vince: The Full Moon is out.

His hands turned into furry paws, his muscles grew and he grew a bunny puffy tail from out of his butt, his shoes and pants ripped as his feet turned into paws and grew fur. His clothes ripped as fur grew all over and his ears turned into those of rabbit ears and his underwear ripped off. He was now a WERE-RABBIT!

Me: Wallace IS a WERE-RABBIT!

Dark Laser: My word!

Electro: What the fuck!?

Vanitas: This is weird!

Ms. Cantwell: No kidding!

Wallace picked up the log with incredible strength and moved it away and then he howled like a wolf and we heard all the rabbits in the forest howl as well.

?: That is weird.

We saw a figure come out and it was FLAME STAG!

Torch Man: Haven't see one of you guys in a while. Who're you supposed to be?

Flame Stag: Call me… Flame Stag!

Flame Stag releases two small fireballs at the Were Rabbit knocking it down. The Were Rabbit got up and ran off in fright.

Cornelia: Wallace, wait!

Victor: You're all lucky we have to be somewhere else right now. But get in our way again and it'll be the last time you do so.

Me: That will be the day!

With that, the bad guys leave.

We went after Wallace.

In the middle of town, Victor and the masters were heading to a church.

Victor: Vicar! Vicar! Oh, where the devil is he?

Dark Laser: You sure this is the place?

Reverend Hedges: [opening a window] Do you all want to confess?

Victor: I want you to talk about the beast. [thunder strikes]

Electro: Mind if we come in? I don't do well in rain.

Reverend Hedges: Sure.

Later the following morning we were talking to Wallace. Wallace reverted back at sunrise and he was naked and we got him back to his house. After he came down for breakfast, we got to talking with him.

Me: Wallace, I'm afraid we have something to tell you.

Wallace: What is it?

Me: It's not very easy for us to say this. But you are the Were-Rabbit.

Gromit showed Wallace a newspaper of Wallace as the Were-Rabbit.

Wallace: Silly old pooch. Thinking I'm the beast. [Gromit puts the newspaper down] Next thing you'll be saying is that Hutch is turning into me. [he looks at a newspaper]

Optimus Prime: Actually, that might not be wrong.

Me: It's all true Wallace. We saw you transform under the light of the Full Moon. You turned into the were-rabbit and we saw you eat all those vegetables.

Wallace: Oh my goodness! (In shock!) It is true! I AM THE WERE-RABBIT!

Me: We can help you Wallace. We have that kind of power. First lets see if we can fix the machine that did this to you.

We went down to Wallace's lab and we saw the machine and it was a mess. We got to fixing it.

Wallace: Oh, it's hopeless. [throws the part to Gromit] I'll never fix this flippin' machine. Me mind's just a rabbit-y mush. [sobbing] Oh, Gromit. I don't wanna be a giant rabbit! [blowing his nose with his ears]

Stewie: I can help you fix the machine, Wallace.

Wallace: You can Stewie?

Stewie: I sure can chap.

Lisa Loud: Allow me to be of some assistance as well.

Wallace: Oh thank you all.

Me: We have to now do something about Victor. He's gonna be coming for us now that he knows that Wallace is the Were-Rabbit.

Laney: He's gonna try to kill Wallace with bullets made of solid gold.

Lana: Gold? Gold Bullets? I thought the only way to kill a werewolf is to use Silver Bullets.

Me: That's just a myth. Kai Greene told me of a Navajo way she was told of from her grandfather and that is to dip a silver pendant in the juice of the Árbol de Matrimonio Cactus and place it against its heart.

Lisa Loud: Except for one small problem. There are no specimens of Pereskia lychnidiflora anywhere here in London or any part of England.

Me: I know. The only place to find a cactus like that is in the Canyon de Chelly in Arizona. And with us being over 5,260 miles away from Arizona, that's gonna be one helluva problem.

Kai Greene: That's right. It's my first time over in London and it's really cool learning about all this.

Me: It sure is. But I have another way we can help Wallace. When the Full Moon comes out later tonight, Victor is gonna face us and he's gonna kill Wallace. We have to be ready for him.

Laney: And we are gonna face Electro, Vanitas, Flame Stag and one of the Dark Signers as well.

Akiza: I have a feeling I know which one is coming.

Me: Me too.

Homer: Yeah.

Me: Lets get ready guys. When the full moon comes out I'm going to separate the Were-Rabbit from Wallace and make them two separate beings.

Wallace: Wow.

Ginger: (British Accent) Can you do that J.D.?

Me: I sure can Ginger.

Babs: After this we'll need to go on holiday.

Bunty: No we're gonna go home.

Fowler: Yes.

Me: All right now here's the plan.

I revealed the plan to everyone. In the middle of the Town Square, we're gonna have Wallace talk to Lady Tottington and when Gromit gives us the signal when the full moon comes out, we'll step in and I'll separate the Were-Rabbit from Wallace. We put the plan into action.

---

Later that night we saw Lady Tottington talking to Wallace and Gromit was hiding on top of the center well. We were hiding in the stands of the festival. We saw the full moon come out from behind the clouds.

Gromit gave us the signal.

Me: Now!

We jumped out and I fired a beam of light and it hit Wallace and it split him into two forms. One was Wallace and the other was the Were-Rabbit!

Laney: It worked!

Lisa Loud: Yes indeed.

Victor then appeared!

Victor: Well you all came!

Me: You are a monster Victor! We should just kill you where you stand!

Nico: Yeah!

Victor: Do you all know what my passion is!?

Me: That you have a voice that would make a rhino stick it's fucking horn up its butt?

We laughed at him!

Bart: (Laughs) That's a good one!

Victor: Are you calling me a Rhino!?

Me: And you're an ugly hippo from the wrong era that eats rabbits.

Bart: (Laughs)

Homer: (Laughs) That's a good one!

Lisa Simpson: That is funny!

Jenny: That is so funny!

Nico: Yep.

Victor: I will kill you all for saying that!

Me: Not if we kill you first.

Victor: A thought just occurred to me. Now that the beast is out of you, (points gun directly at Wallace's chest) I can kill you with regular bullets now!

Wallace: Oh my!

Victor: Don't bother trying to stop me, Knudson! Even you can't stop my gun when it's at this position.

I used superspeed and grabbed the gun barrel and lifted it up just as he pulled the trigger.

BANG!

Me: Nice try asshole.

Troy: Gromit, keep Philip occupied. We'll handle these guys!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Hyperjet Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jetman Rangers.

Electro: (I'm about to snap my fingers) J.D., how about you don't teleport us to another planet this time?

Vanitas: Let's let the Were Rabbit have his fun in this battle.

Me: All right.

My Signer mark glowed.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer coming.

In a flash of dark blue light came Kalin!

Me: Kalin. Why am I not surprised.

Kalin: Now I will kill you.

ZZZZZZAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPPP!

Me: Ouch. Nice to know that those collars work.

Kalin: Yeah but I hate it! But I will still kill you!

ZZZZZZAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPPP!

Me: You need to control yourself Kalin.

Morpheus: I'll face him J.D.

Me: Are you sure Morpheus?

Morpheus: I'm positive. It was decided earlier that some members of the Goths of Darkness should face the Dark Signers.

Me: All right. Go for it. Who is gonna be facing who with the Dark Signers?

Bertrand: I decided to face Roman.

Haiku: I'm facing Carly.

Dante: I got Devack.

Persephone: I'm facing Misty.

Morpheus: I'm facing Kalin.

Boris: I'm facing Greiger.

Brittney: And I'm facing Rex.

Me: Wow. So the entirety of the Morticians Club has the Dark Signers.

Brittney: Yep and I'm gonna face Rex.

Me: Awesome.

Lincoln: Lets do it. I'll face Electro.

Spiderman: I'll face Vanitas.

Lisa Simpson: I'll face Ms. Cantwell.

Sabrina Mason: I'll face Dark Laser.

Nico: Me and the Megaforce Rangers will face Flame Stag.

Nico: Lets get them.

Me: Lets.

We went at them.

Lincoln and Electro fired a massive blast of lightning and Electro did the same and the blasts collided a exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Lincoln fired a massive blast of powerful lightning and electrocuted him all over. Electro was in a lot of pain.

Electro: But how!? I'm immune to electricity.

Lincoln: I guess my lightning is far too strong for you to handle. We saw lightning on other planets that is far more powerful than anything on Earth. It's amazing that lightning is as powerful as it is on other planets.

Electro: Wow. I never knew about that.

Electro was knocked out.

Battle 2: Vanitas

Spiderman was facing Vanitas.

Spiderman: Your friendly neighborhood Spiderman is gonna show you how strong I am.

Morpheus: You will never hurt J.D. again Kalin!

Kalin: Will see about that! I will not rest until he is dead and burning in HELL!

ZAAAAAAAAAAAPPPPPPPPPPPP!

Morpheus: Good thing that collar works and you're the one that will be burning in Hell. I summon CYBER END DRAGON, CYBER LASER DRAGON, CYBER BARRIER DRAGON, CHIMERATECH OVERDRAGON, CYBER DRAGON, CYBER ELTANIN, CYBER DRAGON ZWEI, CHIMERATECH FORTRESS DRAGON and CYBER PHOENIX!

Kalin: I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCAPAC APU, ONE HUNDRED-EYE DRAGON, INFERNITY ARCHFIEND and INFERNITY DESTROYER!

They summoned said monsters.

Morpheus: It's over for you Kalin!

Kalin: We shall see about that!

They went at each other and viciously pounded and pulverized each other with incredible ferociousness. Morpheus punched Kalin in the face and stomach with incredible force and kicked him in the back of the head and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and chest and sent him crashing into a stand.

Kalin got up and fired blasts of dark energy and Morpheus fired blasts of dark energy and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Morpheus kicked Kalin in the face and knocked him down.

Kalin: You may be strong, but you're STILL JUST A STUPID FUCKING BRAT!

Kalin flared up his blue dark aura and went at him and Kalin punched at him and Morpheus dodged it and kicked him away.

Kalin: You are a worthless little brat!

Morpheus: I would rather be worthless little brat than a heartless monster like you Kalin!

Kalin: YOU FUCKING BRAT!

He flared up a massive dark blue aura and went at Morpheus with incredible speed while he was screaming at the top of his lungs and Kalin punched at Morpheus and he ducked under his punch and Morpheus punched Kalin in the stomach with extremely devastating force!

KRABLAAAAAAAAMMMMMMMM!

Kalin belched up a huge amount of blood and he was in a tremendous amount of pain! He fell to the ground clutching his stomach and Morpheus kicked him in the face and then punched him in the side of the head and sent him crashing into a building!

Kalin got up!

Morpheus: You're a coward Kalin! You kill people all for your own sick amusement!

Kalin: (GROWLS!) Just for that one, I'm going to blow you to pieces! Just like J.D. when I kill him!

Morpheus: I will never let you touch J.D.! It'll be a cold day in Hell before I allow you to touch him! (FLARES UP A MASSIVE DARK BLUE AURA!) NOW DIIIIIIIEEEEEEE!

Morpheus's powerful aura was so incredibly strong and powerful that it made Kalin's power look like a joke! Lightning struck all over the place as storm clouds built up all over the place.

Morpheus and Kalin went at each other with extreme ferociousness and they punched and kicked each other with extreme fury and they fired massive energy blasts at each other and were really tearing each other apart and really smashing each other all over the place with extreme power! We all got Flame Stag's weapons as a result.

---

Battle 7: Victor

---

We regrouped and we were facing Victor.

Me: It's over Victor. You're finished.

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the crotch and kicked him in the back of the head and Nico punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and kicked him in the back and Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Nico: Victor Quartermaine, you have failed this city!

Me: He sure has!

Ben: Watch this one.

Ben turned into a new predator and it was ROOT SHARK! Root Sharks resemble a snake/worm with a nearly shark like face. Their face has a rocky exoskeleton.

Ben: ROOT SHARK!

Me: Whoa! That's a scary one.

Shanan: That is a scary one. That's a Charlumberodon Megalus. It's more commonly known as a Root Shark. They are one of the deadliest predators in the galaxy and they are from the planet

Aranhaschimmia and they are the natural predators of the Arachnichimps, Spidermonkey's species.

Laney: Whoa! It sure is a scary creature.

Riley: No kidding.

Nico: Really scary. I didn't know they were that deadly.

Julie Yamamoto: Me neither.

Gwen T.: I remember seeing one of these when we went to Aranhaschimmia. It's really cool and scary.

Kevin Levin: No kidding.

Root Shark: Watch this.

He grabbed Victor with his tail and slammed him into the ground many times all over and smashed him into pulp.

Me: Nice! Lets hit him with all our techniques, combos and Final Smashes all at once.

Luna Loud: Right dude! BRITAIN STYLE NINJA ART: THE BRITISH EMPIRE!

Luna fired a wave of red, blue and white energy and it formed into the armies of The British Empire from over the course of the 16th century to the early 20 century.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) This will hurt a lot. RUSSIA STYLE NINJA ART: THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE!

Andropov fired waves of red, blue and white energy and it formed into the armies of the Russian Empire.

Salar: (Arabic Accent) And this one will hurt as much. FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: ACHAEMENID EMPIRE!

Salar fired a wave of fire and it turned into the armies of the Achaemenid Empire from 550 to 330 B.C.

Blitzwing and Teresa used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced their Gyro-Blaster Rifle and Sonic blasts 100-fold.

Falcon and Sky Lynx used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced their laser feathers and fire blasts 100-fold.

Babs: Yeah!

Wallace & Gromit, Ginger, Rocky, Babs, Bunty, and the chickens of Chicken Run: IN MEMORY OF PETER SALLIS!

They fired massive blasts of energy and they combined and formed into the voice actor of Wallace: Peter Sallis.

The blasts all combined and they slammed into Victor and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Victor was down and defeated and we went up to him.

Vince: Lets kill this freak.

Me: Nah. He's not worth it. Jail is more appropriate for him.

Hawkeye: Before we send you to prison, (smirks) the Were-Rabbit would like to have a word with you.

The Were-Rabbit then came and mercilessly thrashed and pulverized Victor all over the place with incredible fury and smashed him all over the place with incredible force and then he sat on him.

Me: You're under arrest Victor.

The Masters of Evil came.

Electro: Before we go back to base, is it okay if we have fun with you guys at this fair?

Maria: Why's that?

Vanitas: Well, after a day like today, we could use some fun.

Dark Laser: And you can tell me on what I missed while I was depressed.

Me: I don't see why not.

I snapped my fingers and fixed the fair up.

We got to having fun and we talked to Dark Laser about everything that went down ever since the Battle with Thanos. It was a huge amount of adventures and more. We also bought all kinds of really good vegetables that Jared and Lisa loved and they were really good. Nico also bought a lot of really good fruit and so did May. Dark Laser was amazed that all of the things that happened had happened. The Masters of Evil went back to base and I told them to keep Kalin under control or else he will pay for his crimes with his life.

Wallace: Thank you all so much for helping me chaps.

Me: It was our pleasure Wallace. I'm just so sorry about everything that Victor was gonna do to you.

Wallace: Thank you J.D. And Lori I hope you'll be all right after Victor punched you in the eye like that.

Lori: I will be just fine Wallace. Thank you.

Lori had a nasty black eye from the punch she received from Victor.

Me: But if you ever need us again Wallace, you know who to call.

Wallace: Thanks chap.

We shook hands and went back home.

Wallace: (to the viewers) Never mess with the laws of nature to help people and be careful who you are dealing with. Especially with people like Victor Quartermaine.

Gromit agreed.

Victor Quartermaine was found guilty of his crimes and was given a Whole Life Order on him. This is England's version of Life In Prison without Parole and he will never be released from prison ever.

Mewtwo Strikes Back

In the estate, some of us were watching a movie created for the funny cartoon Bart created. It was called Angry Dad: The Movie. It was really funny and it was really making us laugh.

Azula: (laughs) I thought the Angry Dad cartoon was funny. But the Angry Dad movie is hilarious!

Ant Man: (Laughs) It's so funny!

Shiv: It's really funny!

Snake Jailbird: It sure is dude!

Misty Tredwell: It sure is funny. I remember the cartoon and if Homer saw us watching this he would kill us.

Onslaught: Yeah.

They saw Angry Dad get a refill on his soda.

Squeaky voice teen: Hey! No free refills!

Angry Dad growled and grew to gigantic size and smashed out of the building and then he went to the Hoover Dam and punched a hole in it and sucked all the water out of the lake.

Angry Dad: Ahh. Damn that's good!

We laughed hysterically!

Homer just walked in to see us watching Angry Dad the movie.

Ant Man: (nervously) Oh. Hey, Homer!

UH OH!

Homer: I can't believe you're all laughing at me in this movie!

Onslaught: Ok. Let's all calm down now.

Homer: I'M ABOUT TO GO BERSERK!

Shiv: Wait, we can work this out!

Punching sounds are heard and Shiv is thrown into a wall.

SMASH!

Homer: WHY YOU LITTLE!

Homer strangled Shiv and he was really Pissed Off.

Elita One grabbed Homer and held him.

Elita One: Are you calm now, Homer?

Homer: Yeah. I'm fine.

Me: But Homer, you don't have to worry. Remember you and Bart won an Oscar for the Angry Dad movie from Season 22 Episode 14.

Homer: Hey yeah! We did.

Misty Tredwell: I remember that.

Nico: Yep. It's really funny.

Shiv: It sure is.

Me: So in a way, you both should be happy.

Bart: Yeah you're right.

Rolf: Rolf remembers going berserk like that. It was when Square-peg-and-round-hole Ed Boy took my chickens again and I smashed you all around as they were filming a movie.

Luan: Wow. I didn't know that Eddy.

Eddy: Yeah I wanted to make a movie for my brother about how cool I was. After my brother sent a crate full of baby stuff to me, I wanted to make a movie about myself to him.

Nico: That's really cool Eddy. Too bad your brother was such a jerk.

Eddy: I know.

Snake: Boy that is harsh dude.

Nico: No kidding. But you know something Snake, Out of all the characters on The Simpsons, you are one of the coolest ever with that rad surfer voice.

Snake: Thanks dude. That means a lot to me.

Nico: You're welcome.

We laughed and had an awesome time.

---

Later we were having a snack and Lincoln was having a drink of water. He tasted his water and spit it out as it tasted really weird.

Lincoln: This water tastes terrible.

Me: What's wrong with it?

Lincoln: I don't know it tastes funny.

I smelled it.

Me: (Sniffs) Hmm. That's weird.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Suddenly an explosion blasted the door to the kitchen off and we went in and saw the water on fire! Lola was in there and we saw that she was covered in soot.

Me: Lola, are you all right?

Lola: Yeah. All I did was went to get some water and then this explosion happened.

Me: I think this is the cause.

I looked at the water that was on fire.

Me: The water is on fire. That's not good. That's a telltale sign that there's natural gas in the water lines.

Lincoln: Natural Gas? You mean like from Fracking?

Me: Right. When you light it on fire it turns your faucet or garden hose into a flamethrower.

Lisa Simpson: Someone is getting natural gas in from out of the city somewhere.

I then got a call on my cellphone.

Me: (Answers) Hello?

Vypra: J.D. it's Vypra. Do you have flaming tap water now?

Me: We sure do Vypra. Someone is fracking for Natural Gas somewhere and poisoning our water supply.

Vypra: You aren't the only one. Xaldin went to get a drink and the water faucet suddenly bursted into flames.

Me: Weird. We got to find out who is causing this and shut it down.

Vypra: I'll gladly help you out J.D.

Me: Thanks Vypra.

Vypra teleported to the estate and we got to work on looking for the source of where the Fracking is going on.

Me: Lets see. The infrared and X-Ray satellites will pick up where the source of the natural gas is.

On the infrared satellites we saw the lines of water poisoned with Natural Gas and we saw the lines over in Gotham Royal York coming from Monroe, Michigan on the southeast side of the state.

Me: It's coming from the farmlands near Monroe, Michigan.

Laney: That's unusual.

Me: Lets find them an stop them. The EPA is gonna thank us for this because Fracking is now illegal. Lets roll!

We went to the farmlands near Monroe and we saw a fracking building. It was in operation from Tetherby Industries. We landed and we met LORD TETHERBY!

---

He first appears in "Out on a Limo", where he serves as the main antagonist of the episode where he influences Lincoln about how the good life is better without being with his sisters, but at the end of the episode, Lincoln accepts that he was wrong and rude with his sisters and Kirby, so he ends his friendship with Tetherby.

Pre-series History

Tetherby was the heir to the tetherball fortune, so he's now a very rich man with his own mansion, and a private club just for the high-class. He also has his own limo and butlers.

---

Lincoln: Lord Tetherby!

Lord Tetherby: Lincoln Loud. It's good to see you again and I didn't expect to see you here J.D. Knudson.

Me: I've heard a lot about you Lord Tetherby. You're one of the richest and most influential people in all of Michigan. You have a huge empire that is widely known as one of the richest in all of the state.

Lord Tetherby: Indeed.

Me: But how do you know Lincoln?

Lincoln: Oh that's right, you haven't been told us about this. It was about 1 month before you moved here J.D. I won a contest where me and my sisters would get to ride in a limousine for a day. I had to eat my entire weight in mustard jars to win and I found the winning jar.

Me: Wow! That's a lot of mustard!

Laney: I was shocked myself.

Vypra: That is amazing.

Lincoln: But I got to see what it was like to be in the lap of luxury. I met Lord Tetherby as a result and I was wrong and rude. But in the end I made it up to my sisters and Kirby.

Me: Wow. That's good you did.

Lord Tetherby: Indeed. I also was told that you put my grandson in the cheese mines.

Me: Well he had it coming. Wait a second. Chandler is your grandson?

Laney: Wow! I didn't know that Chandler was your grandson.

Lord Tetherby: Yes he got his love of money and power from me.

Me: Wow. I didn't know he was related to someone of such high power. But now he's working in the Limburger Cheese Mines in Switzerland.

Lord Tetherby: Yes but he brought all that on himself. But I'm sure you're wondering why I am fracking.

Me: Yeah we found our tap water on fire and found natural gas in the water. Our water lit on fire and smelled weird when we got a drink.

Lord Tetherby: I see. Well there's a reason for it. Mr. Burns put me up to it.

Vypra: Mr. Burns!?

Me: He's still ruining the environment even though Springfield was destroyed. And he shouldn't be even doing anything because we took all of his assets.

Lord Tetherby: But he blackmailed me. He gave me an ultimatum.

Me: Like what?

Lord Tetherby: He told me to work for him or he will kill me and take my money.

We gasped.

Me: That spineless and heartless old crone!

Vypra: I knew he can't be trusted!

Me: He never was that trustworthy. Before we blew up Springfield, he was widely hated throughout the entire town for doing all kinds of horrific crimes against nature and the country. He was the most hated man in all of Springfield and in all of the country next to Joe Quimby.

Vypra: That's what I have heard. And I heard that he has cheated death more times than anyone else can even count.

Me: Yeah. He was on the Grim Reaper's most hated list.

Vypra: Wow.

Laney: Yeah and he should've stayed dead.

Me: Yeah.

Lord Tetherby: You guys have to help me. I don't like Mr. Burns.

Me: All right. Wait here.

I went to a farm and saw a garden hose and turned on the water.

Me: I saw this on TV.

I pulled out a cigarette lighter.

Me: Watch this.

I sprayed the water and lit it on fire and it turned the water from the garden hose into a powerful flamethrower! I used it to melt the fracking drill into nothing and it exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: That did it!

Laney: That was clever!

Vypra: That was cool!

Lord Tetherby: Oh thank you all J.D.! Thank you.

Me: You're welcome Lord Tetherby. Vypra, you're gonna have to keep a sharp eye out on Mr. Burns. Something tells me that we're soon gonna lose another one of the Springfield Scumbags.

Vypra: We'll keep a watch on him.

Me: I want this to be a message to Burns saying that if he steps out of line again, he will pay the Ultimate Price and be sent back to Hell.

Laney: Yep.

Lincoln: By the way, J.D. how did you know that Lord Tetherby was telling the truth?

Me: I saw it in his eyes and they say that the Eyes are the Window into the Soul.

Vypra: That's a good saying. And I can tell when someone is lying.

Me: Yeah.

We got Lord Tetherby back to Gotham Royal York and got his money back from Mr. Burns. Vypra and the Masters of Evil now had Mr. Burns under their watchful eyes. Including Qin's eyes.

---

Later we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Hmm. Hey Ash, how did you and your friends meet Mewtwo?

Serena: That's what I was wondering myself.

Ash: It's a really strange story.

Ash went over what happened during when he, Misty and Brock met Mewtwo. It was an adventure that he will never forget. One that was gonna destroy the entire planet.

Scientist Dr. Fuji is hired by Giovanni, leader of Team Rocket, to utilize his expertise in cloning in order to create a living weapon based on an eyelash from legendary Pokémon Mew. Fuji is revealed to be allying with Giovanni as a means to fund his side project: the resurrection of his deceased daughter Amber. In a laboratory, the weapon eventually gains sentience and is named Mewtwo. Mewtwo befriends the salvaged consciousness of Amber, named Ambertwo, as well as the clones of other Pokémon in the laboratory. However, Mewtwo is left deeply traumatized after Ambertwo and the rest of the clones decompose and die. In order to stabilize him, Fuji tranquilizes Mewtwo, causing him to forget the time he spent with his friends.

After Mewtwo fully matures and awakens from a long slumber in a laboratory on New Island, he learns of his origin as Mew's clone from Dr. Fuji. Infuriated that Fuji and his colleagues see him as nothing more than an experiment, he unleashes his incredibly strong psychic abilities and telekinetically destroys the laboratory, killing Fuji and the rest of the scientists. Giovanni, witnessing the carnage afar, approaches and convinces Mewtwo to work with him to further develop and perfect his mental abilities. However, after Mewtwo learns of his purpose to be a weapon for Giovanni's benefit, he escapes back to New Island where he plots revenge against humanity and pokemon alike.

After Mewtwo rebuilds the laboratory and establishes base there, he invites several trainers with hologram messages to battle the world's greatest Pokémon trainer at New Island. Ash, Misty, and Brock receive a message and accept the invitation, but when they arrive at the port city, Old Shore Wharf, Mewtwo creates a storm, causing the boats on the wharf to be closed off for safety. As a result, Ash's group are picked up by Team Rocket disguised as Vikings on a boat. After the storm sinks their vessel in the middle of the ocean, Ash and his friends use their Pokémon instead to reach New Island.

Escorted into the island's palace by the woman who appeared on the hologram, Ash and the other trainers who were able to reach the island encounter Mewtwo. The woman is revealed to be a brainwashed Nurse Joy after she is released from Mewtwo's mind control. Mewtwo challenges the trainers using cloned Pokémon coincidentally modeled after the deceased friends from his childhood. Meanwhile, Team Rocket also reach New Island and explore its inner sanctum with a Mew innocuously following them. After Mewtwo's clones effortlessly defeat the challengers' Pokémon, he confiscates them and expands his clone army. Ash chases after his captured Pikachu down the cloning lab, where Team Rocket's Meowth is also cloned. Ash destroys the cloning machine, frees the captured Pokémon, and leads them to confront Mewtwo and his clones. Mew then reveals itself and Mewtwo challenges it in order to prove his superiority.

All of the Pokémon originals battle their clones save for a defiant Pikachu and Meowth, who makes peace with his own clone after realizing the senselessness of their fighting. Horrified at the pain and anguish felt on both sides of the battle, Ash puts himself in between a psychic blast caused by Mewtwo and Mew's fighting, leading to Ash to become petrified. Pikachu tries to revive Ash with its electricity but fails. However, the tears of the Pokémon are able to heal and revive Ash. Moved by Ash's sacrifice, Mewtwo realizes that he should not have to be judged by his origins but rather his choices in life. Departing with Mew and the clones, Mewtwo turns back time to just before the trainers leave Old Shore Wharf, and erases everyone's memories of the event.

Back in Old Shore Wharf, the now-restored Nurse Joy has returned to reopen the Pokémon Center to shelter the trainers. The storm outside clears up, Ash spotting Mew flying through the clouds and tells his friends of how he saw another legendary Pokémon the day he left Pallet Town. Meanwhile, Team Rocket find themselves stranded on New Island but enjoy their time there.

We gasped in total shock!

Me: Ash made the ultimate sacrifice to stop you all from fighting!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Vince: That is a true hero. Ash saved you all.

Delia: My baby!

Delia went and hugged Ash after she heard what he told us.

Delia: (Crying) Ash, my brave boy.

Mewtwo: Your son is a true hero and a brave man.

Me: He sure is. He saved the Pokemon world more times than anyone else can even count. Even before he joined us.

Tara: I know how he feels. I made the ultimate sacrifice to atone for my dark deeds and save the city from total destruction.

Lana: Amazing.

Vegeta: And I made the ultimate sacrifice to stop Majin Buu. But I blew myself up all for nothing.

Chiaotzu: I remember that. I made the ultimate sacrifice to stop Nappa. But I did that all for nothing as well.

Laney: Wow. Some of us are true heroes.

Talia: (Arabic Accent) I know. My father saved me and died for it.

Me: Bowser saved me from taking Thanos with me.

Nico: Yeah. Most of us are true heroes.

Naruto: I remember.

Me: Lets see what it says about Mewtwo and what happened.

I pulled up Mewtwo's profile.

---

Mewtwo (in Japanese: ミュウツー, Mewtwo), also known as the Genetic Pokémon, is a central antagonist of the Pokémon franchise. He is a psychic genetic Pokémon cloned from Mew, the Legendary Pokémon ancestor of all Pokémon. Interestingly, Nintendo (for a time) considered Mewtwo the secondary antagonist of the franchise, behind Giovanni and Meowth. Mewtwo can be considered evil, but more misunderstood because of the way that it was created. Mewtwo later redeemed and helps the main cast.

In the anime, he was voiced by Philip Bartlett, and later Jay Synder (also known by his alias Dan Green). In the Super Smash Bros. franchise, he was voiced by Masachika Ichimura in Melee and the late Keiji Fujiwara in Wii U/3DS and Ultimate. In Detective Pikachu, he was voiced by Chris Smith.

According to "The Origin of Mewtwo", a piece of bonus footage included with the Mewtwo Returns DVD which expands his backstory, he interacted with several clones of a Charmander, Squirtle, Bulbasaur, as well as a clone of Amber, the daughter of Dr. Fuji. He was eventually distraught over his friends, especially Amber's premature death, which also resulted in the scientists injecting him with a serum that removed his memory of her, which is strongly implied to have impacted his behavior in the film.

However, Mewtwo was angered by the team as he heard that he was to be controlled by them, and that he may not be part of God's creation, and in his fury, destroyed the lab where he was created, and killed all the scientists with his intense psychic powers. He then allied himself with Giovanni under the promise of learning to control his powers, although he later rebelled from Giovanni after learning that Giovanni's claim of partnership had been a lie, and he had already been sickened by Team Rocket's actions towards Pokémon. Believing humans as oppressors of Pokémon, he vowed to exterminate humans and all Pokémon that sided with them, believing it to be his "purpose". He also wishes to exterminate his predecessor Mew, as he believed he was vastly superior to his genetic counterpart. He eventually saw the errors of his ways shortly after Ash Ketchum sacrificed himself to stop their fighting and all the touched Pokémon use their tears to revive Ash. Departing with Mew and the other Pokémon clones, Mewtwo removed their memories to avoid being tracked down.

Mewtwo serves as an anti-hero in Mewtwo Returns. He was hiding in Kena Mountain with the other clones. He saved a bus with passengers, but he claimed to feel no compassion for the humans. When Giovanni managed to find both Mewtwo and the other clones, he decides to help all of the Pokémon. He was proven to be a great ally for Ash and his friends. Later, when Ash told him he will tell Professor Oak about him and the source, Mewtwo wanted to erase their memories again. But Meowth managed to convince Mewtwo that they should keep their memories. Mewtwo agreed to let them remember him and the others but he only erased the memory of the people who wanted to destroy them. After erasing the memory of Giovanni, who winds up leading his army out of the falls, Mewtwo takes leave of the gang, this time for good, on the condition that his spirit crosses time and space to theirs.

Powers and Abilities

Mewtwo is a psychic-type Pokémon created by humans to be the strongest in the world, endowed with immense mental powers. It can use telekinesis to achieve flight, manipulate several objects and people at once, reflect attacks, and destroy structures through will alone. Its telepathic abilities let Mewtwo communicate with humans, put the minds of others under his control, and wipe the memories of several beings at once.

Mewtwo can also shoot shadow balls at opponents, protect itself with a force field, project energy rays powerful enough to stand up to Mew, and can telekinetically create a massive hurricane. In the English dub, it has claimed that the latter ability was powerful enough to wipe out all humanity on the planet.

As well as Mewtwo being able to block a Pokémon's "special abilities", Mewtwo was also capable of instant regeneration, allowing it to survive what would normally be fatal blows. This was especially evident when a computer, deducing Mewtwo as a threat shortly after bursting out of its containment field, shot Mewtwo with a laser that was potent enough to temporarily kill Mewtwo, only to regenerate from its wound and revive itself, as well as it regenerating from a Flamethrower blast. According to the dub of Mewtwo Returns, its psychic abilities were ineffective against automated machines.

It is also highly intelligent, having rebuilt the laboratory where he was born to establish as his base, sends hologram message devices to trainers, uses cameras to observe others, black Pokeballs to steal other Pokemon, and has cloning machines that it used to make duplicates of said captured Pokemon.

---

We gasped in total shock.

Me: Whoa! These scientists of Team Rocket were really playing with fire.

Nico: No kidding. Cloning is really dangerous stuff.

Mewtwo: I know. I was created from the DNA of the legendary Pokemon, Mew.

Me: Mew is a really enigmatic Pokemon.

Ash: It sure is.

Me: But Mewtwo, I am so sorry about you losing Amber. That must've been really hard on you because of how close you were to her.

Mewtwo: It was. But she will always be with me in my heart.

Brock: Who is Amber?

Me: She is Dr. Fuji's young daughter. She was killed in a fatal car crash when she was young.

Nico: Oh man.

Me: Giovanni had no idea of the horror that he would unleash onto the world as you were out to destroy everything.

Mewtwo: I know. I was a monster back then. But it was Ash's heroic sacrifice that made me realize what a fool I was and that I was doing evil for the wrong purpose.

Nico: It's good we saved you Mewtwo.

Me: So in a way, it was not only Ash that saved you from the clutches of Team Rocket, but us as well when we killed all of them.

Mewtwo: That's right.

Me: But what you did a while back in the past is completely incomprehensible.

Mewtwo: Perhaps I can convince the clone Pokemon to abandon the ways of my evil counterpart.

Me: That's a good idea. We can destroy your evil self and save the clones from your evil self.

Nico: But it says here that he can completely regenerate himself.

Me: Then we'll use Total Obliteration. Lets head to the simulator.

We went to the Simulator.

---

In the Simulator we got ready for one of the biggest and most incredible battles ever. The simulator activated and we found ourselves in the middle of the eye of a massive hurricane that was covering the entire planet.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: We're inside a hurricane!

Laney: It's massive!

Luna Loud: So this is what it's like to be in the center of a hurricane's eye.

Luan: It sure is calm in here.

Lynn: No kidding.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. It's incredible that a hurricane has a calm area like this.

Me: And I should know because I was in a hurricane at one time.

Nico: I remember that.

Lori: It's literally amazing.

Iris: This is incredible.

Lily: It sure is.

I then sensed a massive and powerful energy signal!

Me: Whoa! Do you guys feel that energy?

Nico: It's power is unreal.

Vegeta: That's Evil Mewtwo's energy.

Lincoln: Incredible.

Me: Lets go.

We followed the energy signal and we sensed that it was coming from an island. It was the island that Mewtwo was stationed in as he was destroying the entire planet.

Me: It's New Island.

Ash: I remember this place.

Me: Keep your energy signals and powers suppressed. We don't want the evil Mewtwo to know we're here.

Nico: Right.

We hid our signals and went to the island.

Me: Lets see if we can find the lab that was used to make the clones.

We got on the island and we walked around and explored. We saw that it was a really strange and amazing place.

Me: It's right in the middle of the eye of the storm.

Brock: Does it say where New Island is Located?

I looked it up on my scanners. It showed that New Island was located right in between Cinnabar Island and the Orange Archipelago.

Me: It's right in between Cinnabar Island and the edge of the Orange Islands.

Misty: I remember that.

Laney: Really unusual.

I pulled up New Island's info.

---

New Island (Japanese: ニューアイランド New Island) is the location of a secret Team Rocket laboratory in the anime. It is identified as the location of Mewtwo's creation, and later, the location of his fortress.

The island was given to Dr. Fuji as part of a research grant from Team Rocket's boss, Giovanni, who intended for Fuji to use his previous research into cloning and genetic manipulation to create an enhanced clone of Mew. As Fuji had recently lost his daughter, Amber, he had been intending to clone her to bring her back to life.

Though Amber's clone died, as did clones of the Kanto starter Pokémon, the clone of Mew, Mewtwo, still young, survived. To calm him after the loss of its friends, he was injected with a substance that would make him forget. Eventually, Mewtwo was mature and fully-grown. He sensed the scientists outside of his tube, and shattered it to take his first breath. The scientists were thrilled at Mewtwo's existence; however, they did not see Mewtwo as a living being worth respect, but only as the end result of their experiment. Because he had lost its compassion, he destroyed them for their ignorance, and was discovered among the burning wreck of the lab by Giovanni, who took him back to Viridian City to use.

Eventually, after discovering that Giovanni, too, saw him only as a tool, Mewtwo escaped, destroying Team Rocket's facility near Pallet Town and the metal suit that restricted his powers. Returning to New Island, he rebuilt the laboratory, and called on the best Trainers in the land to join him for a challenge, intending to clone their Pokémon and prove that the originals were no match. After seeing Ash's sacrifice to stop the fighting, though, Mewtwo changed his mind and sent the Trainers home, abandoning New Island once more. When it was last seen, only the Team Rocket trio that follows Ash around remained on the island, which is now completely covered in vegetation.

---

Me: Whoa. So this island was once used as the laboratory that made Mewtwo.

Nico: Hard to imagine that Mewtwo would use this Island as his base of operations.

Brock: It's amazing. I can't believe that we were on an island that used to be home to a laboratory from Team Rocket.

Me: Lets see here.

We walked into the castle and we saw that it was a beautiful castle.

Me: Wow.

Mewtwo: It's just like old times. Follow me, I'll show you all where the lab is.

Me: All right.

We followed Mewtwo and he took us down into the basement of his castle and we saw that it had a huge cloning machine.

Me: Whoa! What a cloning machine!

Mewtwo: Yes. It's where I made Superclones. They are 10 times more powerful than any living pokemon.

We gasped.

Laney: So Superclones were intended to be weapons of Team Rocket.

Mewtwo: Yes.

Me: Lets see if there's a record of what happened.

I punched in a code and it played a recording. I recognized the voice as that of Dr. Fuji.

Dr. Fuji: (Recording) I haven't got much time! (Explosions and screaming was heard) I pray that this record of our experiment survives. A year ago, we discovered a fossil that proved to be the remains of the ancient Pokemon, Mew.

We saw a stone tablet carving that showed a picture of Mew.

Dr. Fuji: (Recording) There was sufficient genetic material to replicate Mew. But Giovanni who funded our project, insisted that we try to design superclones, more powerful than any living Pokemon. Many attempts failed, but finally our experiments proved successful. We produced a living pokemon. We called it Mewtwo. But for some reason the creatures anger is out of control. With its psychic powers it is destroying our laboratory. We dreamed of creating the worlds strongest Pokemon. And we succeeded.

The recording then cut off.

Me: These guys were REALLY playing with fire.

Nico: No kidding. And in the end it blew them all into oblivion.

Me: But we have to stop the evil Mewtwo at all costs.

But then we heard a noise.

Me: Something is coming. Hide!

We hid in the walls and we saw a bunch of Pokeballs coming.

Mewtwo: It's my dark Pokeballs.

We saw the Pokemon that were in each ball. They were Pikachu, Venusaurtwo, Charizardtwo, Blastoisetwo, Meowthtwo, Psyduck, Vulpix, Gyarados, Seadra, Nidoqueen, Golduck, Tentacruel, Vaporeon, Pidgeot, Scyther, Hitmonlee, Sandslash, Dewgong, Rhyhorn, Wigglytuff, Vileplume, Ninetails and Rapidash.

Me: Wow! So many Pokemon.

Ash: I know all these Pokemon.

Me: We're gonna have quite an army.

We saw the Clones come out of the machine and they went out the room.

Me: Lets go.

We got the Pokemon out of the Pokeballs.

Me: Now it's personal. Lets power up and take the fight to Evil Mewtwo!

We transformed and powered up to full power!

I was now in my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix power.

Me: (Divine Voice) Now we'll see who is the most powerful.

Nico: Lets get him.

We went to the field where Mewtwo was at when he challenged the trainers.

Evil Mewtwo: Humans, you have served my purpose. I am sparing your lives for the moment.

He used his psychic powers and opened the doors of the arena. It lead out into the storm. He was going to kill them with the very storm he is using to destroy the world.

Evil Mewtwo: But you cannot escape your fate. The hour of my vengeance draws near.

An explosion came and out came Evil Mewtwo's Superclones.

Evil Mewtwo: Behold. With Pokemon and Humans eliminated, the clones shall inherit the world.

A massive energy blast flew out of the dust and it hit Evil Mewtwo in the chest and sent him crashing into the stands and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: I will not allow you to live any longer you Pokemon Abomination!

I came out with my rainbow aura flared up and I was at full power!

Evil Mewtwo came out fully regenerated.

Me: You have tormented this planet long enough.

We came all came out of the dust and we had our power ready and we were gonna make sure that evil Mewtwo pays the ultimate price for his crimes.

It was gonna be a huge war with a monstrosity of Genetic Research.

Evil Mewtwo: Who are all of you?

Me: Your worst nightmare.

Evil Mewtwo: It is useless to challenge me.

Me: We won't let you annihilate all life on this entire planet Mewtwo. Your reign of evil will be silenced forever.

I fired an energy blast and it hit Evil Mewtwo in the arm and blew it off in a powerful explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

He regenerated it.

Me: Your clones are Pokemon as well. But they have feelings too.

Mewtwo: (To the cloned Pokemon) Do you all really want to continue on the path of destruction? Or follow someone who wants peace?

The Superclones looked at each other and agreed with one another and went to us.

Evil Mewtwo: Where are you all going!?

Me: Your clones have sided with us now. You are through evil Mewtwo.

Bane, Xaldin and Dark Spicer came out!

Me: Bane, Dark Spicer and Xaldin.

Sailor Moon: Hey, Bane. You're looking pretty well for someone who killed the Negamoon Clan's leader.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) Thank you for the compliment señora. Though that was the first time in a while that I broke someone's back.

Me: It has been a while since you did that.

Dark Spicer: (to Good Mewtwo) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Not if he kicks your ass first.

Xaldin: You will pay for everything that you've done to me Lori.

Lori: I literally hate your fucking guts Xaldin!

Me: You turned my friend Dilan into a ruthless monster Xaldin and I will always hate you.

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was BUBBLE CRAB!

Bubble Man: And you are?

Bubble Crab: Call Me… Bubble Crab!

Bubble Crab fires a ring of bubbles at Bubble Man.

Lily fired blasts of water at the bubbles and destroyed them.

Dark Spicer: I have two new aliens to show you.

He turned into a new mutant alien. It looked like Terraspin except he had spikes all over his shell and on his head and hands and he also was colored orange with swirls on his shell.

Tortonado: Meet Tortonado!

Shanan: A mutant Geochelone Aerios.

Gwen Tennyson: You know that alien is immune to Mana, right?

Tortonado: True. But there have been some Geochelone Aerios that use Mana. Just ask Adwaita.

Tortonado retracts his head into his shell, opens a hatch to see, his fins become triangular, and his legs combine into a similar shape. He then creates a devastating wind blast that flies at Air Man.

Lori fired the wind blast back at him.

Me: Nice one.

Tortonado: Watch this one.

He turned into another new one. It looked like NRG except his containment suit looked more like a knight suit of armor and it had spines on the hands and feet and the face had a pentagon window on them.

Chernoboil: (Russian Accent) Say hello to Chernoboil!

Shanan: A mutant Prypiatosian-B.

Torch Man: You realize that alien has a true form, right?

Chernoboil: I know. That's coming up shortly. But first. (fires a highly radioactive energy beam through the vents in his containment suit at Torch Man)

Torch Man fired a massive blast of fire and blocked the blast and it was deflected and it went at Mewtwo and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Mewtwo regenerated from that.

Chernoboil: Bane. Mind getting me out of this suit?

Bane: With pleasure!

Bane opened up Chernoboil's containment suit and out came Chernoboil's true form. The appearance was more of a humanoid phantom made of blue and aqua blue glowing radioactive energy.

Our Plumber Badges were flashing red and clicking like mad and my Geiger Counter was clicking like mad!

Me: Whoa! That is intense radiation!

Lisa Loud: Gadzooks! My radiation analysis shows that it's emitting as much radiation as 150 nuclear reactors all combined together.

Gwen Tennyson: That is extremely intense radiation! And I thought P'Andor had intense radiation.

Me: Yeah.

My Signer Mark glowed and out came GREIGER!

Me: Greiger.

Greiger: Hello J.D.

Me: I take it you have heard about the Goths of Darkness facing the Dark Signers as their Arch enemies now.

Greiger: I sure did J.D. The Goths of Darkness are perfect for this.

Me: Good.

Troy: This time, we'll use our Basic Megaforce powers.

Megaforce Rangers: Go Go Megaforce!

The Megaforce Rangers were ready!

Me: Lets dance! I'll face evil Mewtwo and when you all take down your archenemies, we'll face him together.

Nico: Okay.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Me VS Evil Mewtwo

---

I flew into the air and Evil Mewtwo was flying up to me.

Me: It's over for you!

Evil Mewtwo: We shall see.

He formed a dark energy ball and threw it at me and I deflected it and fired a massive energy blast at him. Both blasts hit Evil Mewtwo and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I went at him and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face again and fired a powerful blast of energy and Evil Mewtwo fired a barrage of energy balls and the balls collided with my blast and exploded with incredible power!

Another Awesome Chapter done.

I watched Pokemon The First Movie back when I was a kid. In 1998 I first saw the movie with my dad at the movie theaters and it was an epic movie! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the awesome movie that I know from 2003: HOLES. We're going to dive into the mystery of a nasty Prison Camp named Camp Greenlake and it's gonna be a mystery dating back to the 19th century.

See you all tomorrow.

HOLES, HOLES AND MORE HOLES!

At the estate, We were watching TV and having fun. With us was Dark Spicer and Carly Carmine.

Carly Carmine: Jack you are amazing.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) I know Carly. You have supported me throughout my whole adventure and you and I were meant to be together.

Carly Carmine: Yeah.

Dark Spicer: I am happy for the both of you.

Me: We all are.

Then the doorbell rang.

Lori Jimenez: I'll get that.

Lori went to get the door and to her surprise and shock it was a friend she hadn't seen since the wars with Unicron broke out.

Lori Jimenez: Sarah?

Sarah Gunnerson: Lori?

The two girls squeal and hug each other.

Sarah Gunnerson: Lori, I'm so happy to see you!

Lori Jimenez: I am too Sarah. We haven't seen each other since the wars with Unicron broke out.

Sarah Gunnerson: Feels like forever ago.

Lori Jimenez: I know. Come on in.

Sarah came in and she was amazed at the sheer beauty of my home.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow! Lori it's amazing that you live here now.

Lori Jimenez: I know. Being a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm is amazing.

Sarah Gunnerson: I can see that.

We saw Sarah.

Me: Oh hello there. Are you a friend of Lori's?

Sarah Gunnerson: I sure am. J.D. it's an honor to meet you. I'm Sarah Gunnerson.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Sarah.

Sarah Gunnerson: Same to you. I love all of your adventures and they are so amazing.

Me: We get that all the time and we don't like to brag.

Lori Jimenez: Sarah is my best friend. She and I have known each other since we were in kindergarten.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's right.

Me: Wow.

Lori Jimenez: We've haven't seen each other for 3 years ever since the Unicron Wars broke out.

Nico: That's amazing.

Sarah Gunnerson: (sees Dark Spicer and Carly) What are they doing here?!

Carly Carmine: Can't we hang out with our frenemies and my boyfriend?

Dark Spicer: (to Sarah Gunnerson) You can relax. Today's actually our day off. So, we're not doing anything bad at the moment.

Sarah Gunnerson: Well that's a relief.

Me: The Masters of Evil are our frenemies, Half friends and half enemies. It's really cool. They hang out with us from time to time.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's cool.

Dark Spicer: We'll leave you guys alone to have some time to catch up.

Me: Okay.

Carly Carmine: See you around Jack.

Jack Atlas: Will do.

Dark Spicer and Carly Carmine teleported out.

Maria: Sarah, how exactly did you and Lori meet?

Sarah Gunnerson: That is a really amazing story. We met when Lori first started school in Wisconsin.

Lori Jimenez: It was awesome.

---

Young Lori Jimenez was walking through her school in Wisconsin. She was really nervous to start her first day.

Lori Jimenez: (Narrating) It was 8 years ago and I was really nervous to start my first day and it was really tough. I didn't know what was waiting for me when I started school. That's when I saw Sarah.

Bully 1: Lookie here. We have a new kid.

3 bullies were laughing and taunting a young Sarah Gunnerson.

Young Sarah Gunnerson: Leave me alone!

Bully 2: Why don't you make us twerp!

Lori Jimenez: Those bullies were in 3rd Grade and I couldn't stand by and let Sarah be harassed by those beasts.

Young Lori Jimenez: HEY!

The bullies saw young Lori.

Young Lori Jimenez: Leave her alone you jerks!

Bully 3: Oh yeah? And what are you gonna do about it princess?

The bullies laughed and young Lori's eyes were burning with justice fire.

Young Lori then kicked the 2nd bully in the crotch and he screamed like a little girl.

Bully 1: Why you little brat!

He punched at Young Lori and she dodged it and punched him in the face and sent him crashing into the lockers.

Bully 3 was scared out of his mind and he peed his pants.

Bully 3: Here take all our money!

He threw all of the money they stole from other kids at Young Lori and Sarah. The other 2 bullies did the same.

All three bullies ran away in fear.

Young Lori Jimenez: Bunch of jerks. Are you all right?

Young Sarah Gunnerson: I sure am. Thanks to you. That was awesome.

Young Lori Jimenez: Thanks. It's my first day here. I'm Lori.

Young Sarah Gunnerson: I'm Sarah. It's a pleasure to meet you. Thank you so much for saving me.

Young Lori Jimenez: You're welcome.

They shook hands and it was the beginning of a beautiful friendship.

Lori Jimenez: Me and Sarah became really close that day. We did it all over the course of 8 years. We played games, helped each other in our classes and so much more. We were more than just partners from then on. We became like sisters. But Sarah was fascinated in one of her favorite things on Earth and she got me into it. It was the world of Chaotic. She showed me all of her cards and her awesome scanner. It was really cool and it was like we were looking into another world. It was the coolest thing I've ever seen. I saw all kinds of amazing places and all kinds of awesome monsters and it was the most amazing thing I've ever seen. But then the Unicron Wars broke out and me and my two other best friends Coby and his little brother Bud Hansen went into battle. We met all of the Autobots after Landmine landed on Earth and we were called in to help the Autobots defeat the Decepticons and stop a massive black hole from destroying the entire universe.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Lori Jimenez: We haven't seen each other for three years ever since then.

Me: Wow! That's incredible.

Nico: It sure is. You guys have done a lot before we met each other.

Lori Jimenez: We sure have.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's amazing. I'm glad that Unicron was destroyed.

Me: Yep. It was before we destroyed him again. Optimus Prime and all of the Transformers told us all about Unicron and that was considered one of most powerful battles in all of history.

Vince: That's right.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it was amazing that we all destroyed Unicron.

Me: You weren't with us at the time Hunter.

Hunter: I know. But it was an amazing battle from what I was told.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That's right lads.

Nico: Come to think of it, I don't think we've ever met Coby and Bud.

Me: If we do, we'll gladly have them come along.

Vince: That's right.

Lori Jimenez: It'll be great to see them again.

Nick F.: I can't wait to meet them.

Sarah Gunnerson: Is it ok if I tag along with you guys on your adventures?

William: Sure. But about your friends in Chaotic?

Sarah Gunnerson: Don't worry. Right now, my Chaotic self is meeting Tom, Kaz, and Peyton right now.

Me: Wow. You can be in two places at once with that Chaotic Scanner.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's right. It's really cool.

Sarah showed me a lot of really cool monsters and locations on her scanner and it was amazing to see them all. We saw all kinds of amazing places and monsters and many kinds of unique abilities and weapons. It was really cool.

Me: Wow. This is amazing. Nico told me so much about Chaotic and he told me all about the world of Perim.

Sarah Gunnerson: I'm glad he did.

Me: It's amazing that you all have seen so much in the world of Perim. I looked it up on the space scans and it showed that Perim is actually a real place. It's located in the Andromeda Galaxy and it's very close to the Galactic Center of our Sister Galaxy.

Nico: Wow. That's really close.

Vince: It sure is.

Sarah Gunnerson: I didn't know it was all real.

Me: Me neither.

Laney: It's really something. We've been to so many planets, did so many adventures and so much all over the universe.

Lana: We sure have.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow. What is your biggest mission that you guys have now?

Me: That's an easy one. Our biggest mission is to find the remnants of the most evil keyblader that ever terrorized the entire universe: Master Xehanort.

Sora: That's right.

Me: Master Xehanort was a really dangerous foe and he was a danger to every living thing in the entire universe.

Sarah Gunnerson: What was his true goal?

Me: He was gonna balance all of light and darkness and unite all worlds. But in doing so he was gonna destroy the entire universe.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: After we destroyed him, we inadvertently scattered all of his evil essence all over the entirety of the Virgo Supercluster of the universe. We have countless Dark Orbs as we call them to clean up. These dark orbs are the very essence of his malevolence and evil and it'll take us thousands of years to clean all of them up and erase them all from existence forever.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow. You guys are really busy.

Me: It's a never-ending battle. But we have to do it in order to maintain peace in the universe. As long as evil exists in the universe, no one will ever be safe.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's a major responsibility.

Lincoln: It is Sarah. We were given our powers for a reason and that is to protect all of those that we love.

Me: That's right. With great power, comes great responsibility.

Spiderman: I was actually the one that invented that line, but it goes great with J.D. and his cause.

Elena Validus: That's right.

Qin: It's a big job but we have to do it to protect everyone all over Earth and the entire universe.

Me: Yep.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow.

Me: Lets give you your initiation so to speak Sarah. We're gonna give you a shot in helping us by helping us solve a case that I was working on for years.

Sarah Gunnerson: And what case is that?

Me: The mystery of Green Lake, Texas.

Nico: Green Lake, Texas? You mean like Camp Green Lake Juvenile Correctional Facility?

Me: That's right. It was an old town about 140 years ago. But some things went down over there.

Lincoln: Like what?

Me: I don't know. But whatever it is it's not good. It has some connection with the family of Stanley Yelnats IV and his past.

Vince: Fascinating.

Nico: Maybe we should go check it out.

Me: Good idea. Lets start by going to Dallas. We can get more information there.

Sarah Gunnerson: I've never been to Dallas, Texas.

Me: It'll be your first time Sarah.

Sarah Gunnerson: I heard it was destroyed when a huge asteroid slammed into it.

Me: It was. That was terrible.

I went over what went down in the events of The Sky Fell and Sarah was shocked.

Sarah Gunnerson: That IS terrible! I can't believe that happened.

Tara: We were shocked ourselves. It was awful that all that happened.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Anyway, lets head out.

We went to the city of Dallas.

---

DALLAS, TEXAS

---

We arrived at Dallas, Texas. The city was doing much better now that it was fixed after what had happened.

Nico: Wow. Dallas is doing better than it was before.

Naruto: It sure is.

Sarah Gunnerson: It's amazing. I have always wanted to come here because of the Texas State Fair.

Me: That's one of my favorite things to do here in Texas.

Nico: Nice.

Vypra: (Offscreen) Hey guys.

We saw Vypra, Leonard, Vexen, and Snake Jailbird.

Me: Hey guys.

Vypra: Hope you don't mind me, Leonard, Vexen, and Snake helping you all with Stanley.

Me: Not at all Vypra.

Leonard: While we're looking for clues, we should probably discuss on what to do with Mr. Burns.

Nico: I think it's safe to say that you guys can't trust him after how he tried to poison the water supply. You guys use that water too.

Vypra: I've actually considered a replacement for Burns. What do you think of Captain Cold replacing Burns as Qin's archenemy?

Qin: Captain Cold. I remember him. But I think he's shaken up after the battle with Thanos.

Vypra: But we're more than willing to give him a shot with you Qin.

Qin: I think that's perfect.

Sarah Gunnerson: Vypra can I ask you a question?

Vypra: What is it?

Sarah Gunnerson: If all the Power Rangers monsters work for you, then why don't you recruit Evox and his gang?

Vypra: I did try that. But he said that him dealing with the Beast Morphers Rangers is enough for him.

Me: I see. Anyway lets head to the Dallas Library.

Nico: Why there?

Me: Dallas is home to the most detailed records of history in the state of Texas. It'll give us everything we need to know about what went down in Green Lake before it was converted into a Prison Camp.

Laney: Good idea.

Me: Texas is a very conservative state and it keeps records of everything from Family Histories, to records of the past.

Lisa Simpson: Wow.

We went to the Dallas Library of History and we were looking for books on anything that had to deal with the history of Green Lake, Texas.

Me: Lets see. (Sees a book.) Here's something. "Kissing Kate Barlow and the Curse of Green Lake." This sounds interesting.

I brought the book over and we looked at it. It gave the complete detailed history of the town of Green Lake, Texas and a ruthless outlaw named Katherine Barlow.

---

Katherine "Kissin' Kate" Barlow is a posthumous antagonist in the novel and film Holes.

Kate Barlow was a former schoolteacher who fell in love with an African-American onion farmer named Sam. When Charles "Trout" Walker (who has a crush on her) sees the two kissing in the Green Lake schoolhouse, he leads a lynch mob to destroy the schoolhouse as well as to kill Sam and is successful in the latter.

Emotionally wrecked, she resolves to become an outlaw who kissed every man she killed, some of which were the men who were responsible for Sam's death.

She was portrayed by Patricia Arquette in the film.

Katherine Barlow was Green Lake's school teacher, who was famous for her beauty as well as her spiced peach jam. When the schoolhouse's roof leaks, Sam offers to fix the roof in exchange for three jars of spiced peaches, and Katherine agrees to the deal.

Every time he fixed one thing, Miss Katherine would always find another thing for him to fix because she liked his company. One evening, while teaching a class, Katherine is accosted by Trout Walker who proposed that she should be his girlfriend.

Katherine kindly rejects him out of her love for Sam but when Trout forcefully demands her to date him, claiming that no woman ever says "no" to a Walker, Katherine rejects him again and asks him to leave.

Trout walks away angry while Katherine looks longingly at Sam, who attended her class. After the schoolhouse is fully repaired, Sam bids farewell and gives Katherine a feather from his hat, exchanging mutual affection. She then goes into the schoolhouse but watches Sam as he leaves on his boat.

Later that night, she is found to be crying because she misses Sam while reading the same book that contained the same lines Sam recited to her while he was fixing the schoolhouse. Sam arrives unexpectedly and Katherine tells him that "my heart is breaking". Sam replies "I can fix that" and they kiss. Unbeknownst to them, Trout was riding his horse on a visit to the schoolhouse to see Katherine and he catches them kissing.

While Sam and Kate share an embrace, affirming their love for one another, Trout is angered by this and alerts the town about his discovery. Eventually, an angry mob arrives at the schoolhouse lead by an intoxicated and jealous Trout Walker and proceed to burn the schoolhouse to the ground. Katherine tries to stop the angry mob but it was too late and the schoolhouse was already in flames.

Katherine then ran to the Sheriff's office in an attempt to stop the angry mob from destroying the schoolhouse. The sheriff was intoxicated and instead of helping her, asked for a kiss instead. Katherine pushed him away, reminding him that he was drunk. The sheriff revealed he always got drunk before a hanging and Sam was going to be hanged for his crime.

Katherine tried to reason with the sheriff but he did nothing to appease her situation and asked for a kiss in exchange for her boyfriend's life, which she still refused because she loved Sam. The sheriff then attempted to force himself on her but Katherine got away and ran in an attempt to save Sam's life. Sam was coming back from the onion field when Trout followed after him on his speedboat. Katherine arrived too late and watched helplessly on the shore as Trout shot and killed Sam with his shotgun in the lake.

Mourning the death of her beloved, Katherine arrived at the sheriff's office the next day dressed in red clothes and wearing her famous red lipstick. She asked the sheriff if he still wanted that kiss he asked for, then pulled out her gun and shot him dead in retaliation for him not helping Sam. She then gave him a kiss, leaving a lipstick print on his forehead and left Green Lake in her beginning as outlaw Kissin' Kate Barlow. She became one of the most prolific outlaws during that time, robbing most, if not all major banks. However, she felt little joy in what she did.

Years later, Trout and his younger wife Linda tracked her down in the ruins of the old schoolhouse and demanded to know the location of her buried loot. They took her into the desert and forced her to wander for hours, although she refused to tell them the location. Hours later, Katherine was sitting against the Mary Lou (Sam's boat) on the verge of dying from exhaustion and dehydration, wishing to be with Sam again.

Miraculously, Sam appeared in the form of a ghost and told her "I can fix that" much to Katherine's happiness. However, their reunion was short-lived when Trout and his wife, a former student of hers, Linda Miller, appeared with guns loaded demanding to know the location of the buried loot. Katherine was shocked and their interruption caused Sam's ghost to disappear, this reminded Katherine of losing Sam again and she aimed her rifle at Trout, intended on killing him.

However, she decides not to kill him and throws her rifle down. Trout and Linda demand the location of her loot but Katherine refuses, telling them that the lake goes on for miles. She also puts a curse on them; she tells Trout that him, his children and grandchildren will dig for the next 100 years and will never find the buried loot. Barlow committed suicide by allowing a yellow-spotted lizard to bite her on the wrist and died while laughing-in the original novel, the lizard bit her by accident.

We also found out that she was in love with a very well liked onion farmer named Sam. But Sam was hated because of the jealousy of local sheriff of Green Lake, Charles "Trout" Walker. Sheriff Walker had a crush on Kate Barlow and he killed Sam in a jealous rage.

---

Charles "Trout" Walker is a key character and posthumous antagonist from the book Holes.

In the film adaptation, he was portrayed by the late Scott Plank, whose memory the film was dedicated to.

Trout Walker, whose father owned the town's lake, tried to win the love of Katherine Barlow, the beautiful school matron, but she fell in love with Sam, a black townsman. Trout led the charge behind an angry town mob and killed both Sam and his beloved donkey, Mary Lou. The unjust murder of her lover turned Katherine into Kissin' Kate Barlow, a notorious outlaw. After he murdered Sam and Mary Lou, the town's lake dried up and the Walker family lost all their money.

Years later, Trout and his wife Linda tracked down Kissin' Kate Barlow and demanded to know where she buried her treasure at gunpoint. Rather than tell Trout, Kate instead commits suicide by letting a yellow-spotted lizard bite her so that Trout and his family could waste their years searching.

Angered by this, Trout and his family (even his grandchildren) have spent their lives digging for the treasure, and he passed on his obsession to his granddaughter Warden Walker. After his death, she built Camp Green Lake for delinquent boys, to speed up the process. However, Stanley Yelnats IV found the treasure, causing Trout to die in vain. Kate Barlow got the last laugh, and the Walkers were finally brought to justice (as if by divine providence, it began to rain at Camp Green Lake almost immediately after the warden was arrested).

---

We were shocked and horrified.

Me: Whoa.

Vypra: That is a really dark story.

Nico: No kidding. And all that happened 140 years ago?

Me: It sure did.

Laney: But why is Green Lake dried up?

Me: It's because of the Curse of Kate Barlow. And it won't lift until the entire Walker Family has been brought to justice. The lake has been dried up for 140 years and Kate buried her entire treasure there.

Nicole: This is turning into an awesome treasure hunt.

Me: It sure is.

Lana: Who is the current Walker that we're trying to take down?

Me: That's an easy one. It's the granddaughter of Sheriff Walker.

I went over to the computer and pulled up the info of Warden Louise Walker.

Me: Warden Louise Walker.

---

Warden Louise Walker is the main antagonist in Louis Sacher's 1998 novel Holes, as well as its 2003 film adaptation of the same name.

She was portrayed by Sigourney Weaver, who later played Alexandra Reid in The Defenders.

Louise Walker originated in Green Lake, Texas. She spent a majority of her childhood digging holes (even on Christmas) in the barren wasteland that was once the serine Green Lake on the orders of her parents (in the novel) and her cruel and greedy grandfather Charles "Trout" Walker (in the film) to find the buried treasure of famed outlaw Kissin' Kate Barlow in order for her family to be extremely wealthy again. As seen in the film, as a child she hated digging for the treasure, but her angry grandfather forces her to continue as she grew older.

In the film, as the years pass by, Walker became just as obsessed as Trout for finding the treasure (probably even more so) and in both the film and book, she established a camp for juvenile delinquents and ordered them to dig holes, 5 feet deep every single day under the scorching sun across the lake under the guise of the work helping them "build character". In truth, she did not care at all for the boys learning a lesson for their crimes or becoming rehabilitated and simply used them as a slave labor force to help her find the treasure.

Eventually, Stanley Yelnats, a wrongfully convicted teen sent to Green Lake was able to find the location of the treasure. However, it remained hidden as he was forced to give up a lipstick tube found at the site to his group leader X-Ray, thus making the Warden believe the treasure was buried in the vicinity of X-Ray's hole (where he claimed he found the tube), though after making the boys dig a massive hole, nothing was found after 4 days, angering her. The treasure potentially may never have been found had the events of the book and film played out differently.

In both the film and book, Mr. Sir brings Stanley to the Warden to be punished after his sunflower seeds were stolen from his truck (Magnet was the real thief though Stanley took the fall for it) and the Warden strikes Mr. Sir in the face with her fingernails coated with rattlesnake venom as punishment for bothering her. While Stanley is not punished, the Warden's actions lead to Mr. Sir depriving him of water for a time out of revenge for "stealing" his seeds and getting his face mutilated, but he eventually stops.

After a fight between Stanley and Zigzag, the Warden was present when Zero struck her henchman Mr. Pendanski in the face with a shovel after he insulted him and the Warden just let Zero run into the desert to die. She later ordered all records of Zero's presence at the camp to be destroyed in order to prevent the authorites from investigating her camp (although Pendanski is sure that no one will search for him due to his homelessness). Eventually, Stanley also escaped the camp after crashing Mr. Sir's truck into a hole while attempting to go save Zero and she claimed they would wait 2 weeks until he was long dead and gone to notify the authorities of his escape (In the film).

Stanley and Zero, after surviving in the desert for time, returned to the camp and finally discovered the treasure of Kissin Kate Barlow, though the Warden and her henchman discovered them. However, she was still unable to get her hands on it due to yellow spotted lizards.

By morning and with the arrival of Stanley's attorney and authorities, the boys eventually overcame the lizards. The Warden attempted to take the treasure from Zero by claiming it belongs to her and that Stanley had stolen it from her cabin, but she was horrified to discover the name "STANLEY YELNATS" engraved on it. With this evidence, the authorities allow Stanley to take the treasure home with him since it rightfully belongs to his family, much to the Warden's protests.

After Stanley convinces his lawyer to go through Zero's file, the authorities soon learn that Zero's file has been erased from the camp records, so the Attorney General takes control of the camp and places the Warden and her cohorts under arrest, resulting in rain falling for the first time at Green Lake in 100 years.

The Warden meets her well deserved comeuppance in the film when in a final attempt to see the treasure, she begs Stanley before his departure to open the treasure trunk so she could see what is inside, though in revenge for her actions, Stanley coldly refuses and simply says "Excuse me?" before leaving with Zero. She is arrested and sent to prison along with her men for their crimes, much to their discomfort and her camp is closed, all the boys are released for time served and sent to real counselors and her camp eventually becomes a Girl Scout Camp.

In the book, the warden receives a less severe comeuppance and simply became bankrupt and sold her property but still was never able to get the treasure she wasted her entire life looking for.

---

Laney: Wow. It says here that she is the warden of a prison for Delinquent Boys.

Me: That's right. She turned Green Lake, Texas into Camp Green Lake. It's a prison camp for Juvenile Offenders.

Nico: So she wants the treasure of Kissing Kate Barlow all for herself.

Me: Yes.

Leonard: Bad news.

Me: No kidding. She turned all of Green Lake into a concentration camp to find it.

Laney: That is completely illegal on a grand scale.

Dana Tan: No kidding. It's like that concentration camp that we busted in Gotham Royal York.

Qin: Wow.

Me: We got to stop it. But first.

I looked up the records of the Juvenile offenders there and it showed that they were there for minor crimes. But one person that was there was wrongfully convicted. It was Stanley Yelnats IV. He was the Great-Great-Grandson of Stanley Yelnats. The treasure rightfully belongs to him.

Me: So the treasure that Kate stole belongs to Stanley.

Vypra: Good detective work.

Me: Thanks. Now we have everything we need.

I printed the info and had the book go with me and we went to Camp Green Lake.

---

We flew over Camp Green Lake and we saw hundreds and hundreds of holes dug all over the lakebed. It was amazing.

Me: Wow! Look at all these holes!

Nico: There's hundreds of them!

Me: This is slave labor on a grand scale.

Lincoln: It's hard to imagine that Warden Walker is having the kids dig all these holes like this all for some treasure.

Laney: No kidding.

Lily: I've contacted the Attorney General and he's on his way with the Texas Rangers.

Me: Good work Lily.

Sarah Gunnerson: (to the Megaforce Rangers) Isn't this the part where you guys use a Legendary Mode?

Troy: Not this time, Sarah. In some situations, things like combos, Final Smashes, and Legendary Modes aren't needed.

Sarah sees something.

Sarah Gunnerson: (Points to something) Look!

We saw Stanley and his best friend Hector Zeroni in a hole and they were covered in Yellow-Spotted Lizards and we saw Warden Walker, Mr. Sir and Pendansky with them.

Me: Oh shit!

Nico: Those are Yellow-Spotted Lizards!

Me: Oh man. One bite from those is instant death. I got this.

I used the Force and lifted up Stanley and Hector and the Treasure they found.

Me: Are you guys all right?

Stanley: Yeah. Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Hector: It's such an honor to meet you guys.

Me: Same to you.

Nico: We came to free you and lift the curse on this town.

Vince: And (Points to Warden Walker and her cronies) put those monsters into prison where they belong.

Warden Walker: What are you talking about!?

Me: You'll find out soon enough. Also that treasure rightfully belongs to Stanley. It is the treasure of his Great-Great-Grandfather.

Hector: It's true. It says Stan-ley Yelnats.

Pendanski: But he can't read!

Me: Looks like Stanley has been teaching him.

I looked at Mr. Sir and glared at him. I recognized him from somewhere but I was having a hard time recollecting.

We went back to the tents and Stanley's lawyer and the Texas State Attorney General and the Texas Rangers were with us.

Me: Thank you all for coming. I'm sorry we had to bring you all out here.

Texas Attorney General: That's all right. But we can't thank you all for helping us when that asteroid hit us.

Me: It was our pleasure.

Warden Walker: I remember hearing about that.

The other kids came out and they were glad that Stanley and Hector were all right.

Zigzag: Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an awesome honor to meet you all.

Armpit: We love all your adventures. They are so awesome.

Me: We get that all the time.

Vypra: Same here.

Me: Just so you know, Vypra and the Masters are having a Day Off so no evil from them today.

Laney: Yep.

Zigzag: Cool.

Me: Lets tell you all the reason why we're here. We have proof that Warden Walker and her family are the definitive cause behind the Curse of Green Lake.

Nico: She wanted to keep the entirety of the treasure of outlaw Kissing Kate Barlow all for herself.

Laney: Because her grandfather Sheriff Charles "Trout" Walker killed Kate's lover, an Onion farmer named Sam in cold blood. And it was because of him that this whole town lost all of its water and went into ruin and Warden Louise Walker here wanted all of that treasure all for herself.

Stanley: And she erased all of Hector Zeroni's records after he escaped.

Me: That's right.

Stanley's attorney: Is that so?

Texas Attorney General: What kind of a camp are you running here?

Warden Walker: A nice one. If the state would give us some money maybe we would have some decent filing.

Me: Bullshit.

Texas Attorney General: I am ordering an investigation of this facility.

The Texas Ranger then recognized Mr. Sir.

Armpit: Hey J.D. you got a pen and a piece a paper?

Me: Sure.

I pulled out a notepad and a pen and handed it to him.

Armpit: Call my mom and tell her I said I'm sorry. Tell her that Theodore says he is sorry.

Me: I'll be sure to relay the message.

Texas Ranger: Marion Sevillo.

Mr. Sir: Oh crap.

Texas Ranger: Been a long time since El Paso, Marion.

He put him against the wall.

Texas Ranger: You're in violation of your parole carrying this weapon.

Me: Now I remember where I've seen you before. You are the infamous bank robber Marion Sevillo.

---

Mr. Sir (real name: Marion Sevillo in the film) is the secondary antagonist from Louis Sacher's 1998 novel Holes, as well as its 2003 Disney film adaptation of the same name.

He was portrayed by Jon Voight in the film, who also portrayed Paul Serone in Anaconda, Jim Phelps in Mission: Impossible, and Thomas Reynolds in Enemy of the State.

Overview

He is the chief officer at the boys prison camp, Camp Green Lake which puts him in a very high position of power with the only person above him being the warden. He always has an angry attitude due to his withdrawal of alcohol and tobacco, and may be totally mentally unstable. He doesn't get along with anybody, not even Mr. Pendanski, the camp members, or the Warden however he does seem to have a sense of humour. He carries a pistol, which he uses to defend himself (and on one known occasion, Stanley Yelnats, the story's main protagonist) against the deadly yellow-spotted lizards. His fate differs in the book and movie: in the book, he simply gives Stanley his backpack after the latter is cleared of all charges, while in the movie, he is revealed to be a criminal who violated his parole by carrying a pistol (the policeman who originally arrested him happened to conveniently be at the camp and recognized him) and is arrested. In the latter ending, the officer reveals that Mr. Sir's real name is Marion Sevillo, much to the amusement of the campers.

He has a habit of saying "this ain't a girl scout camp." Ironically, Camp Green Lake becomes a girl scout camp after the Warden loses ownership of the property. He also took to eating sunflower seeds to compensate for his lack of cigarettes, though he started smoking again near the end of the book and movie because sunflower seeds "didn't work for him."

---

Marion Sevillo: That's right.

Me: I should know. Because I'm the one the busted you and sent you to prison.

Sarah Gunnerson: Really?

Me: Yep. It was ten years ago. He was responsible for a massive string of bank robberies all over Dallas, Houston, Austin and El Paso. Mostly in El Paso. I busted him and he got 179 years in prison for his crimes. He stole over $81,000,000.00. The money was all recovered. He was released on Parole 4 years ago.

Texas Ranger: That's right J.D. And we owe you big time for helping us bring him in.

Me: Anytime.

Warden Walker: I had no knowledge of that.

Texas Ranger: Sit down Marion you're under arrest again.

Me: And going back to prison to serve the rest of your sentence.

Nico: Marion Sevillo, you have failed this state.

Me: Yes he has.

Kid: Marion? Hey I didn't know that was a mans name.

We laughed.

Me: And Pendanski is no doctor.

Zigzag: What!?

Me: He's just a homeless bum.

Texas Attorney General: Okay this facility is now under our jurisdiction. Boys, put these three bozos over there and let them see the other side of the Criminal Justice System.

Warden Walker: Excuse me!?

Me: Warden Walker, Marion Sevillo, Pendanski, you three are under arrest for Parole Violations, slave labor, doctor fraud, abuse, assault & battery, and perverting the course of justice.

Nico: You three have failed this state.

Me: And you're looking at spending the rest of your fucking lives rotting in prison.

Suddenly lightning flashed and thunder crashed and it was raining in Camp Green Lake for the first time in 140 years!

Me: The curse is broken!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Looks like Kate Barlow got the last laugh.

Vypra: She sure did.

We went to Dallas and Stanley and Hector and the kids were all given clean slates and released for time served. Stanley and Hector became next door neighbors and given a new home in Gotham Royal York. I relayed the message to Theodore's mom and he was forgiven. Warden Walker, Marion Sevillo and Pendanski were sentenced to Life In Prison without the possibility of Parole in Federal Prison. They were also ordered to pay the State of Texas and the families of the kids that were sent to Camp Green Lake $912,388,927,827,875,876.00 in restitution. The Walker Family had been officially brought to justice and the curse of Green Lake was lifted. Camp Green Lake was shut down and turned into a girl scout camp and the girls will be just fine as long as they eat lots of onions.

Later in our briefing room we were there to have a special induction into the team for Sarah.

Me: Sarah Gunnerson, you did really well and we have something for you.

I pulled out a black sleeveless trench coat with red fire on it and it had the Kanji for Sarah Gunnerson, Chaotic Master of Earth on the back. 地球の混沌とし たマスター、サラ・ガナーソン.

Me: You are now an honorary member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome to the team.

We cheered wildly for her.

Sarah Gunnerson: Thank you so much J.D. I won't let you all down!

Nico: We know you won't Sarah.

Qin: It's awesome having you with us Sarah.

Lori Jimenez: I'm so happy for you Sarah.

Sarah Gunnerson: Thank you so much. It's gonna be awesome working for you all.

Lola: You will love it Sarah.

Me: And you'll have awesome powers like us.

Sarah Gunnerson: Awesome! Tara, I also noticed that you and me look like twins.

Tara: (Laughs) We sure do don't we?

Sarah Gunnerson: Yeah we do. Kairi, you, Aqua, Namine, and Xion temporarily became Street Sharks, right?

Kairi: Of course. Why?

Sarah Gunnerson: (nervously) Well, in the future, I would like to temporarily become a Tiger Shark like you did before.

Yumi: Count me in as well. I'd like to become a Hammerhead.

Gwen Tennyson: I'd like to be a Great White Shark.

May: Dibs on the Whale Shark!

Me: I think that can be arranged.

We showed Sarah around the estate and it was awesome. We're gonna have all of Sarah's friends join us down the road.

Me: (To the viewers) It's gonna be awesome having the crew of Chaotic with us. We have a huge road ahead for when we meet them.

THE END

Another Awesome Fanfiction complete.

Holes from 2003 has been one of my favorite movies ever since I was in high school. Shia LeBeouf, Sigourney Weaver, Jon Voight, and a lot of big stars were in that movie and it was awesome! But in the end, Justice prevailed like always to bad guys. Awesome movie! This took a lot of detective work and a lot of proof to bring down the Walker Family. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Next up is one of my favorite movies from my youth: Oliver and Company and we're going to take down that ruthless loan shark, Sykes and make him pay for his crimes and make sure that he suffers big time for them.

See you all tomorrow.

Loanshark Mayhem

In the middle of the city we were having a nice talk with Mr. Burns and the Masters of Evil with us. Mr. Burns was in a lot of deep shit trouble with us for contaminating the water supply with an illegal fracking operation. But his troubles were getting much worse.

Mr. Burns: Well, since we recruited Snart, we can go back to HQ, right?

Kevin: (chuckles) Oh, that's not the only reason you guys are out here.

Dark Spicer: Kevin's right. (to Burns) We're also out here because we want to have a little talk with you about polluting the watter supply behind our backs!

Hydro Man: I was lucky enough not to come into contact with that polluted water!

Me: You are in a lot of deep trouble Burns. No one in Springfield liked you for a lot of reasons.

Mr. Burns: Oh that's impossible.

Me: Tell it to the judge Burns.

TD Sadie: (to Captain Cold) Sorry, Cold. You'll have to wait a little longer to kill Burns.

Captain Cold: I understand.

To avoid a lawsuit, Burns offers to pay $100 to Homer, but Homer refuses as it barely covers Bart's medical bills and that he wants to sue Burns (with the help from the quacky lawyer Lionel Hutz) to get a $1 million settlement. To that end, Homer and Hutz get Bart to exaggerate his minor injuries on trial in order to win the jury's favor, much to Burns' dismay. Summoning Homer and Marge to his residence, Burns attempts to rectify his actions by offering a sum of $500,000. However, he soon withdraws it after overhearing Homer's refusal and Marge's 'shifty lawyers and phony doctors' statement, realizing their true plan to win the jury's favor by lying in court. To that end, Burns gets his lawyer to put Marge on the stand and make her confess of the perjury that Homer and Hutz committed, resulting Burns to win the trial and leave the Simpsons with nothing.

Burns relishes on the fact that Bart is going to be tried as an adult and convicted, though Skinner turns out to be alive and clears both Bart and the Mafia's names by confessing that he was actually trapped in a huge pile of newspaper over a week.

In "Dog of Death", Burns adopted the Simpsons family dog Santa's Little Helper (who ran away after being unappreciated by the Simpsons due to the losses over a hospital operation they had to pay to fix his twisted stomach). Burns puts Santa's Little Helper through torture to become a bloodthirsty killer dog to attack any intruders on Burns' property. However, Bart comes by to rescue Santa's Little Helper by reminding the latter of the good times they had, prompting Santa's Little Helper to snap out of his trance and return back to the Simpsons in peace.

Season 4

In "Marge Gets A Job", Marge gets a job at the nuclear plant, and Burns attempts to woo her for himself until he learns that she is married to Homer, and fires her on the spot.

In "Marge vs. the Monorail", Burns was caught dumping nuclear waste into the park by the EPA and was forced to pay a fine of $3 million, much to his dismay. He later attempts to trick the town into giving the money back to him under the guise of "Mr. Snrub", but fails and escapes with Smithers.

In Last Exit to Springfield, he opposes the union and takes away their dental plan, resulting in Lisa having horrific braces. When the union goes on strike, he shut off the power to the entire city.

In So It's Come to This: A Simpsons Clip Show, Homer is in a coma (due to a April Fools joke engineered by Bart), and Burns attempts to pull the plug on Homer's life support system to avoid paying for Homer's health insurance (to no avail).

In "Lady Bouvier's Lover", Burns falls in love with Marge's mother Jacqueline and wants to marry her, much to Marge's disapproval. However, Jackie decides to forget about it due to Burns' boorish behavior.

Season 6

In "Sideshow Bob Roberts", Burns and the Springfield Republican Party took in Sideshow Bob (Bart's archenemy) as their new candidate for the mayoral election, to which Bob managed to win. However, unknown to Burns and the rest of the party, Bob secretly rigged the election by putting in deceased people as active voters. Eventually, Smithers found out about the electoral fraud and secretly informed Bart and Lisa, who then tricked Bob into confessing his crime at court, resulting Bob's arrest.

In " Two Dozen and One Greyhounds", he takes the 25 greyhound puppies and plots to kill them for their fur except one who can stand on its hind legs, though he decides to change his mind after seeing how lovely they are, and instead decides to raise them as racing dogs.

In "Who Shot Mr. Burns Part One", he commits many villainous acts that causes trouble for his fellow Springfield citizens. He steals an oil well buried beneath Springfield Elementary, which caused so many budget layoffs, shuts down Moe's tavern, makes a sinkhole that destroys the local retirement home, and injures the Simpson family dog. He also creates a sun-blocking device to raise prices for the electricity he's supply for the town, much to everyone's horror. When Smithers protests against him, Burns angrily fires him. Eventually, in the end of the episode, Burns gets shot in the chest by an unknown assailant.

Season 7

In "Who Shot Mr. Burns Part Two", Burns is in a coma as the authorities attempt to find out who shot him while the citizens manage to destroy his sun-blocking device for good. Much of the evidence points out to Homer (due to his anger towards Burns for his inability to remember his name, and Homer's fingerprints found on the gun that fired the shot), but Burns wakes up from his coma and reveals that Homer's youngest daughter Maggie was the one who shot him. As it turns out, Burns spotted Maggie inside the Simpsons' car holding a lollipop and attempts to steal it, but his gun accidentally fell into Maggie's hands after he snatched the lollipop, causing the gun to misfire. Both the gun and the lollipop fell into the bottom seat, where Homer would unknowingly leave his fingerprints. Burns demands that Maggie be arrested, but Chief Wiggum states that it's unlawful to arrest a baby for a crime. Marge also adds that it was an accident as Maggie doesn't know how to handle a gun at her age (though it may be told otherwise due to Maggie's shifting eyes and sucking noises sounding like gunshots).

In "Mother Simpson", it was revealed that he was responsible for turning Homer's mother Mona into a wanted criminal, due to her involvement of shutting down his germ warfare factory by releasing antibiotics. To that rate, he gets the FBI to track down Mona while riding a tank, though she escapes (thanks to Homer and Chief Wiggum).

In "Raging Abe Simpson and His Grumbling Grandson in Curse of the Flying Hellfish", he crosses the Moral Event Horizon as he attempts to murder Grampa Simpson to get a collection of stolen German paintings, even attempting to drown Bart. However, Grampa saves Bart and defeats Burns while the stolen paintings are returned to the German government, leaving Burns empty-handed.

Season 8

In "The Old Man and the Lisa", Burns temporarily loses his fortune due to bad investments and turns to Lisa for help. She taught him how to recycle, which allowed Burns to open up a recycling plant to get his fortune back, but is revealed he's using his new plant to catch tons of sea creatures to make a new multi-purpose edible compound, much to Lisa's horror. When he sells the plant, he even offers to pay Lisa 10% of the profits as thanks, but Lisa declines it.

Season 9

In "The Trouble With Trillions", Burns stole a trillion dollar bill from the U.S. Government during World War 2, and kept it under his possession until he was ratted out to the FBI. Burns, Smithers and Homer were forced to evacuate to Cuba, where they lost the bill to Fidel Castro, who then banishes them back to the States, much to their dismay.

Season 10

In "Monty Can't Buy Me Love", Burns attempts to capture the Loch Ness Monster in order to win the heart of Springfield's population. Though he manages to capture the monster (who turns out to be friendly), the veiling of the monster turns out to be a disaster due to a fire caused by camera flashes, leaving Burns unloved. However, Homer cheers him up by saying that being loved means you have to be nice to people everyday but being hated means you do not have to do anything.

Season 11

In "Grift of the Magi", Springfield Elementary School was closed down after suffering a series of budget cuts. Much of the townspeople put out their pleas to Burns to provide a donation to reopen the school, but he flatly refuses and evicts them via trap door (and they suddenly fall from the ceiling). Eventually, a toy company called Kid First Industries bought the school, as they intend to use it take down the competition of other toy companies. However, Burns has a change of heart after having an epiphany and donated enough money to restore Springfield Elementary to normal before having Christmas dinner with the Simpsons and Gary Coleman.

Season 12

In Homer vs. Dignity, the Simpson family is facing money woes, so Homer asks Burns for a raise. Taking advantage of this, Burns hires Homer as his prank monkey to perform embarrassing tasks in exchange for money. One of which, ends with Homer being raped by a panda. However, Lisa learns of this and convinces Homer to stop, saying that dignity is more important than money. Mr Burns then takes Homer's place as Santa Claus in a Christmas parade and starts throwing fish guts at the crowds before they get attacked by seagulls.

In "The Computer Wore Menace Shoes", Homer learns that Mr. Burns is providing uranium rods to terrorists for profit. Out of disgust, Homer (taking on the name Mr. X) uses his website to expose the uranium scandal to the public, and Mr. Burns ends up being taken by the FBI to answer for his crimes, much to his dismay.

Season 13

In "She of Little Faith", Homer accidentally damaged the local church with his flying rocket, and Burns offers to pay for the damages by turning the church into commercial business, complete with advertising signs, a Lard Lad statue, and a Jumbotron. This motivated a disgusted Lisa to leave the church and find a new path in Buddhism.

Season 14

In "C.E. D'oh", Homer formulates several solutions to improve safety in the nuclear plant, but Mr. Burns rejects them all without even reading them. This angers Homer in plotting to overthrow Burns, and finds an opportunity that Burns owns a canary that acts as the legal owner of the plant because this protects Mr. Burns from responsibility for any wrongdoing by the power plant. To that end, Homer releases the canary and tricks Burns into handing over the ownership under the ruse of an incoming inspection, resulting a victorious Homer to fire Burns on the spot. As such, Burns plans to kill Homer by burying him alive, but fails as he is too weak and old to finish the wall before Homer wakes up. He decides to forget about it when Homer gives the plant back, as he finds himself more miserable being the nuclear plant's owner.

Season 15

In "My Mother the Carjacker", Burns learns that Mona has been arrested and plans to have her convicted on court for her crimes. However, due to Mona's record of community service acts and Homer's heartfelt testimony, Mona became rightfully acquitted, much to Burns' anger. Not wanting to give up, Burns transforms his germ lab into a museum, which is nothing more than a ruse to successfully trick Mona into confessing her crime of signing false names while visiting state and national parks. With this evidence, Burns gets the FBI to arrest Mona and have her locked up in prison, but she escapes again (thanks to Homer's help), much to Burns' dismay.

In "Simple Simpson", Homer served as Springfield's local hero known as the "Pie Man" who is giving wrong-doers their 'just desserts' by throwing pies in their faces as punishment for their crimes. He eventually threw a pie at Mr. Burns for bullying him and his co-workers, but Burns soon learns about his identity and makes him his 'personal hitman', threatening to expose his identity to the public if otherwise. As Burns give Homer his next mission to throw a pie at the visiting Dalai Lama, Homer decides that he has had enough and reveals himself to the public, though none of the citizens believe that Homer could be the Pie Man. This left Burns upset, realizing that Homer is no longer under his control anymore.

In "Fraudcast News", after surviving a rock slide, Burns learns that everyone in Springfield hates him, so he decides to buy every media outlet in Springfield to improve his image. As Lisa produces her own newspaper to combat against Burns' media ownership, Burns manages to learn about Milhouse's crush on Lisa and exposes this to the public, prompting a depressed Lisa to concede defeat. However, Lisa gets cheered up when Homer creates his own newspaper, inspiring other citizens to create their own newspapers to combat against Burns' media. Realizing now that he can't control the entire media for himself, Burns decides to put that behind by going on a shopping spree with Smithers for relief.

Season 16

In "Midnight Rx", Burns cancels the plant's prescription drug program out of pure greed, prompting other drug companies to follow his lead. This caused an outraged Homer and Grampa to smuggle drugs from Canada, and Burns eventually realized his mistake after learning that Smithers is suffering from a goiter. To that end, Burns helps Homer and Grampa smuggle a large case of a drugs to Springfield in order to save Smithers. During which, he leaves Homer and his dad to die, but they survive. After saving Smithers, Burns reinstates the prescription program, much to everyone's delight. However, he makes it so only full time employees get prescription drugs and he makes Homer and other employees part-timers to save money.

In "The Seven-Beer Snitch", Burns bought an abandoned concert hall built by Frank Gehry (due to the town's hatred of classical music) and turns it into a maximum-security prison to lock up more convicts based on old laws. After Homer was sent there after committing an 'illegal transportation of litter' by kicking a can five times down the street, Burns made him the local prison snitch after Homer unwittingly foiled Snake Jailbird's escape attempt. As reward for his snitching, Homer receives special treatment from the guards (led by Officer Krackney), but the other inmates soon catch on to Homer's intents and planned to kill him during a prison riot. Having realized his mistake in ruining the inmates' lives in the prison, Homer decides to take action by confessing to the Governor Bailey about the prison's deplorable conditions, resulting Governor Bailey to close down the prison and send the inmates into a garbage barge to fight, much to the inmates' delight.

Season 17

In "The Last of the Red Hat Mamas", Burns promised to donate $1 million to the Cheery Red Tomatoes for a children's hospital, but it turns out to be a joke for his own pleasure before releasing the hounds on them. As such, the Red Tomatoes plan to steal Burns' Faberge Eggs as revenge, and Marge (who became a member herself) manages to do the job herself, much to their delight.

Season 19

In "Mona Leaves-a", following Mona's death, Homer was told to bring her ashes to the highest point at Springfield Monument Park and scatter them at exactly 3:00. However, Homer gets caught over Burns' next plot to send a nuclear missile (filled with the city's nuclear waste) into the Amazon rain-forest, and Burns contains Mona's ashes in a vacuum bag to taunt Homer. As Burns and his men are about to initiate the launch, the rest of the Simpson family came to rescue Homer, who managed to stop the launch by inadvertently setting the launch base to self-destruct before escaping with his family and dispersing his mother's ashes for good, leaving a dismayed Burns in utter defeat.

Season 24

In "To Cur, With Love", the Simpson family confronted Homer for neglecting Santa's Little Helper by locking him in the pantry. Grampa revealed that Homer once had a dog named Bongo, whom he wad very close to during his childhood. As Mr. Burns was hosting a kid's fundraiser in the flashback, he insulted Homer, resulting an angry Bongo to attack Burns in retaliation. Unfortunately, this incited an angry Burns to have Bongo euthanized by all means necessary. Knowing that this would break Homer's heart if he let this happen, Grampa gave Bongo away to an old neighbor named Ms. Viola for safety before doing extra work for Mr. Burns to make amends for the incident. Unfortunately, this only strains Grampa's relationship with Homer as a result, as he feels that Bongo will never remember him, which may explain his neglectful behavior towards Santa's Little Helper. Eventually, Grampa gave Homer an old photo of Bongo sleeping on an old sweatshirt that he once wore, realizing that Bongo still remembered him and that Grampa did a favor to protect him from Burns. After reconciling with each other, Homer and Grampa shared a nap together with Santa's Little Helper.

The Simpsons Movie

Burns serves as a minor character in The Simpsons Movie. He is first seen getting his toothbrush filled with toothpaste from help by Smithers during the movie intro. The paste apparently added more weight that the already fragile Burns could not handle, as he falls down with his toothbrush.

Burns was later seen with the angry mob along with Smithers, as they want to kill Homer for polluting the Springfield Lake and forcing Russ Cargill and the Environmental Protection Agency to imprison the city in a strong unbreakable dome.

His most notable appearance in the movie was when Apu, Police Chief Wiggum, and Dr. Hibbert asked him for electricity and Burns asked for reasons why he should share it with them, warning that behind his desk, he has two buttons. One that will give the town electricity and the other that will release the hounds. Dr. Hibbert said he needed the electricity to perform an operation. Wiggum said he needed it to power up the electric chair so they could execute a convict; Burns seemed he was about to cooperate with that one. However, Apu ticked him off by trying to appeal to Burns' conscience and Burns pushed the button that released the hounds and they chased the visitors out the door, with Burns telling them to take the "first door on the right".

Mr. Burns was last seen relieved that the explosive bomb left the dome area of the city. During the credits following Cargill's defeat, it is shown that his mansion has been ransacked, and sits on the staircase with Smithers and says, "Smithers, I don't believe in suicide, but if you try it, it might cheer me up to watch."

And so on and so on.

---

Mr. Burns had done it all: Pollution, Bribery, Theft, Murder, Blackmail, Abuse, Animal cruelty, Shutting off city power, Corruption, Privacy violation, Attempted Murder, Dognapping, etc., etc. He has done every kind of crime you can think of. He came into the court strapped to a two-wheeled cart tied up in a straitjacket with a mask of Hannibal Lector on his face.

Bailiff: Calling Courtroom to order in the case of people of the United States VS Mr. Burns. Honorable Judge Katherine A. Rockell presiding.

Judge Katie came in and sat down.

Judge Katie Rockell: (Clears Throat) You may be seated.

We got the trial underway. It was being broadcasted around the entire planet. The prosecution called in many witnesses and most of them were from Springfield and us and we showed that Mr. Burns is the most evil man that ever walked the face of the Earth. We showed pictures of all of his crimes to everyone in the entire country, to nature and to many people all over Springfield and all over the country. It was the most damning evidence ever presented. His crimes were those against humanity, nature and the cities of the country in general. All leading up to our battles and when Springfield was completely destroyed and reduced to a radioactive crater. Everybody called Mr. Burns the worst name ever imaginable: ANTIGOD INCARNATE! They also called him a monster, a devil, a fiend, a cantankerous demon, the Antichrist, the Anti-god and one evil worthless piece of fucking shit. Mr. Burns hated being called all that. After hours of testimony from so many witnesses, the case went to the jury. It didn't take them long to come back with a verdict.

Judge Katie Rockell: Has the jury reached a verdict?

Jury Foreman: We have your honor. In case number 555824666K - we the 12 members of the Jury hereby find the defendant Charles Montgomery Plantagenet Schicklgruber Burns GUILTY of all charges.

We cheered.

Judge Katie Rockell: Yes! For over 32 years I've been wanting to say this to him. Mr. Burns, you are by far the worst monster that has ever terrorized our country next to Joe Quimby and several other figures in history. As punishment for your heinous crimes, I hereby sentence you to DEATH, by firing squad and you are hereby ordered to pay $100 centillion in restitution. May God have mercy on your worthless soul again.

Judge Rockell banged her gavel!

Mr. Burns: NOOOOOO!

Me: You deserve this Burns.

Vypra: No one goes behind my back and lives to tell the tale.

Mr. Burns: This can't be happening! I am above the law!

Me: No one is above the law!

Cybertron Ransack: (to Captain Cold) Ok. Now you can kill Burns!

Captain Cold: Finally! (points cold gun at Burns) Your honor, I hope you don't mind a little frostbite in this court room.

Judge Katie Rockell: Not at all Leonard.

Homer: Before you fire Captain Cold, me and Bart have something to say to him.

Captain Cold: All right.

Bart and Homer got in front of Mr. Burns and pulled down their pants and mooned him with their bare-naked butts in front of his face!

We all laughed hysterically!

Me: (Laughs Hysterically) OH THAT IS SO FUNNY!

Varie: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Eddy: (Laughs) That is all that it is Cracked Up to be! (Laughs)

Luan: (Laughs) No Butts about it! (Laughs)

Homer: (Taunting) Look at me I'm Mr. Burns and I like to mock and torture people to an incredible degree.

Bart: (Taunting) Mr. Burns is an old man and he's a big dumb idiot that can't remember Homer's name.

We laughed hysterically some more.

Captain Cold: That was really amusing.

Homer and Bart farted in his face and it smelled horrible and we laughed more.

Homer and Bart put their pants back on and got back to us.

Nico: This time, Burns, stay dead!

Me: Yeah!

Captain Cold had his freeze ray pointed at Burns.

Captain Cold: See you in Hell, Burns.

He fired his ray and froze Mr. Burns in a big block of ice and it froze him solid.

I then shattered him into a million pieces and killed him instantly.

Grim Reaper: (Jamaican Accent) (Laughs Evilly) Now he's mine again mon.

Me: He sure is Grim.

Chromia: (to Captain Cold) I take it you'll be facing Qin on our next mission?

Captain Cold: You kidding? I just joined the Masters of Evil today. No, I'll be busy getting my room set up and updating my cold gun and clothes. I'll fight Qin on the mission after the next one.

Qin: All right. Got to give you some time to adjust.

Captain Cold: Thanks Qin.

Me: Are you still shaken up about what happened during the battle of Thanos?

Captain Cold: I'm recovered from it. But Nygma and the other former members of the Legion Of Doom are still in bad shape.

Me: Oh man. I hope they get better soon so we can fight again.

Captain Cold: Me too.

Me: Yeah.

We later went back home. Mr. Burns was buried in Gotham Royal York Cemetery and the people of Springfield were dancing on his grave and even shitting and peeing on it to show how much they hate Mr. Burns. Everyone was really sick of Mr. Burns and he deserved to die. After 140 years and numerous ways of cheating death for far too long, Mr. Burns - the most hated man in all of Springfield, Oregon and one of the most hated people in all of the United States of America has been silenced forever.

BURN IN HELL MR. BURNS. FOREVER.

---

Later we were getting ready for movie night. With us was another one of Hunter's friends, Shamrina, she is a Assyrian American from the Assyrian People, her faith is Syriac Christianity or Protestant Christianity. She's born in July 15, 1998 AD in Lansing, Michigan, has square ears, roman nose, Structured Brows, emerald green eyes, heart shaped face, has dark raven hair, wears a red tank top, white jeans, smooth leather boots, and has powers of Wind, Magnet, Fire, and Wood Release.

Me: This movie is gonna be awesome.

Nico: It sure will be awesome.

Vince: I can't wait.

Me: It's great to have you with us Shamrina.

Shamrina: (Arabic Accent) It is an honor to be here J.D. Hunter has told me so much about you all.

Vince: I'm sure he did. He knows a lot of people and we've met a lot of them.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) It's true.

Laney: So what are the Tribes of Perim like Sarah?

Sarah Gunnerson: Well there are a lot of tribes on Perim.

Sarah told us all about the Tribes of Perim.

---

The OverWorld Tribe is a creature tribe, consisting of various species. Although many are anthropomorphically mammalian and bird-like in appearance, there are also creatures that resemble other animals, such as Slurhk who looks like a scorpion, and even mythical creatures like Staluk who look like a centaur and there are humanoids too, such as Maxxor and Najarin.

Most of the creatures gain an increase in Disciplines when they have members of the tribe nearby, or have an increase in power in elemental attacks. They mainly use the Earth and Water elements, but they have significant fire and even air elementalists like Maxxor and Dractyl. Chaotic shows all sides to the tribe war, so the OverWorlders may sometimes be antagonists, or "Anti-villians", when UnderWorlders, Mipedians or Danians are shown in a good light. Although most OverWorlders have shown more righteous traits and morals than, for example, the UnderWorlders.

The tribe is led by the warrior, Maxxor, and his aide and close companion, Intress, a feline water elementalist. There is also the Muge, Najarin, whose Mugical ability is respected even by members of the other tribes. And there are those who protect their tribes as guardians Heptadd, Lomma, Akkrean, Maglax and others.

History

Long ago, the Cothica was shared among the Tribes, and they lived in harmony. One Tribe grew greedy however, leading sparking a war among the Tribes that led to the disappearance of the Cothica. So much time has passed however that the true culprits have been forgotten, be it either the OverWorlders or the UnderWorlders.

In ancient Perim, the OverWorld Tribe was led by the likes of Kiru, who was a wise and just leader. As the UnderWorld Tribe maintained strict rule over much of Perim under the leader of the tyrannical Kaal, Kiru would often barter with him to ensure the safety of those who called Kiru Village home. The OverWorlders also maintained an uneasy relationship with the UnderWorlder Voorx, in which they would provide Voorx offerings in exchange for protection. However, emergence of MajorTom, KidChaor, ChaotiKween, and PeytonicMaster within Voorx's Domain prompted Abohan's intervention. Upon learning that the humans had come from the future, Abohan brought them to Kiru Village to speak with Kiru.

Soon after the humans' arrival, UnderWorld raiders attacked Kiru Village and kidnapped many OverWorlders, forcing Kiru, Abohan, and Korg to travel into UnderWorld territory in an attempt to reason with Kaal. Meanwhile, MajorTom returned to Kiru Village and was asked to speak with Najarin, a Muge with whom he exchanged information about Dranakis Threshold for the whereabouts of a well-known OverWorld thief who cared only for himself, named Vlar. Just as Kiru and the others were about to come to terms, Kaal learned that Vlar had stolen from his mines, prompting Kaal to demand Vlar in exchange for the enslaved OverWorlders. Unwilling to make such a trade, Kiru managed to convince Kaal to ask something else of the OverWorlders, and thus Kaal demanded the Oraklon from Gigantempopolis. Given the heightened risk of the traps set by the Giants, Kiru and a taskforce of OverWorlders captured Vlar, who had visited Gigantempopolis many times before, and threatened to hand him over to Kaal if he did not safely guide them to the Oraklon. In the process, Kiru and the OverWorlders were captured by the Giants, allowing Vlar to capture the Oraklon with a container built by Najarin alone, though he begins to have doubts over his actions in response to the kindness and trust Kiru had shown him throughout their journey. After MajorTom and KidChaor free Kiru and the others, Vlar gave up the Oraklon and led the Giants away, allowing Kiru to meet with Kaal as planned. Kaal, however, doublecrossed Kiru, taking the Oraklon for himself and refusing to release the enslaved OverWorlders working in his mines.

Wanting to prove himself to his father and master, Afjak intended on solving the mystery of Dranakis Threshold alone, leaving behind a note for Najarin to find. After studying Dranakis Threshold extensively, Afjak succeeded in activating the time-travelling capabilities of the location, just as Najarin managed to catch up to him, however he was seized by Dranakis Threshold's power and transported through time before the two could speak. As a result, Najarin held a grudge against the humans he felt were responsible for his son's disappearance. Not long after, humans came to Perim in droves, only to disappear suddenly and without explanation.

In the time that followed, through an unknown sequence of events, Kiru took control of the UnderWorld for himself, his actions reflected upon with remorse by Najarin.

Oronir, the High Muge hailing from the OverWorld Tribe, discovered Kaizeph and the Vortices of the Elements, crafting the Crystal Table and imbuing it with Power to strengthen the Energy from the Vortices. As time went on, the Tribes settled into their respective dwellings and began tending to themselves, one Tribe protested that the High Muge could not possibly know of the issues which ailed their Tribe, leading to the institution of four High Muges rather than just one.

More than 2000 solons ago, a plague called the Wasting Sickness struck the Mipedian Tribe, which Maranac, High Muge of the Desert at the time, was forced to bring to the attention of the other High Muges. Together, the Tribes acted in a rare instance of unity for their mutual benefit to erase the Wasting Sickness from Perim, as it would have affected the other Tribes had it reached beyond the Mipedian Tribe.

Zartac, an OverWorld Warrior and patrol leader, attempted to declare Cordac Falls territory belonging to the OverWorld, in spite of its known neutrality, in the presence of UnderWorld Commander, Raritage - who had led UnderWorlders to The Falls to collect water. Zartac taunted Raritage into battle, with both sides being heavily wounded and forced to retreat.

Underworlders.

This article is about the UnderWorld tribe. For the southern Perimian hemisphere, see UnderWorld.

The UnderWorld Tribe is one of the six Tribes of Perim, occupying much of the UnderWorld - which they share with the Danian Tribe - for which the Tribe earns its namesake. Creatures hailing from the UnderWorld live in a more traditionally militarized society, with a class of Conquerers making up the top bracket, followed by Commanders, Warriors, Taskmasters and Scouts, while the more Mugically inclined are often either Muges or Elementalists. Additionally, there is a class of Creatures that more or less defy the regular definition, being the Ethereals, which are made up of assortments of spirits and other unnatural Creatures.

In the past, the UnderWorld relied heavily on the enslavement of OverWorld Creatures in order to obtain what came to be known as Vlaric Shards within Kaal's mines. Kaal was a power hungry tyrant who ruled Perim with an iron fist, but he had met his match in Kiru. Kiru was just and often had dealings with Kaal in hopes of coming to a peaceful solution to their disagreements. That is, until Kaal took refused to free the OverWorlders working in his mines after Kiru had brought him the Oraklon. Kiru stormed the UnderWorld with an army of Fire wiedling Creatures, managing to overthrow Kaal. It is unknown how, but Kiru eventually left the OverWorld and took Kaal's place as leader of the UnderWorld.

In present Perim, for the longest time, the UnderWorld was split among its citizens: with the majority being loyal to the ruler of the UnderWorld, Chaor, while the minority was loyal to Chaor's second-in-command, Lord Van Bloot. This has recently changed however, as many of Van Bloot's former allies have since turned on him after he'd willingly allied with the M'arrillians in order to be placed in a position of power, temporarily ruling the UnderWorld during the M'arrillian invasion. With the victory of the Tribal Alliance, Lord Van Bloot has since been toppled from his position and run out of the UnderWorld by Chaor and his forces.

Many Chaotic players love to stack their decks with UnderWorlders, such as KidChaor, Klayotic, Krystella, MattMeister, Noisemaker, Ulmanator, and Simon

Mipedian Tribe

The Mipedian Tribe is a tribe of lizard-like creatures who live in deserts of Perim. They range from small gecko-like creatures to dragon-like warriors. Although they are a solitary tribe, they are known to help the OverWorlders. They themselves live in the OverWorld, in dry, arid places. To hydrate themselves, they set up watering stones (as seen in "Shifting Sands") which collect moisture from the atmosphere. They have a long-standing rivalry with the Danians, as the OverWorlders have with the UnderWorlders. An example of this would be Kolmo, who tried to capture (and possibly assassinate) the Danian Queen Illexia.

The Mipedians are also known for being passionate about controlling the Cothica and their ability to disappear (like chameleons), which they claim to have because of the alledged effect of the Mipedian Cactus, which they consume.

The Mipedians are very good users of the Earth and Air Element types, and Fire and Water too, like Biondu and Otinee.

Mipedians are popular with players because of their Invisibility ability and their slight resemblance to dragons.

The Mipedians also have Warbeasts created by Mipedian Conjurors, using the raw Mugical Energy that flows throughout Perim[1]. It was stated that long ago, Mipedian Conjurors had invented a way to conjure Warbeasts to aid the Mipedians, but they were too dangerous to control causing the Mipedians to dispose of those Conjurors. Some years later, the UnderWorlders attacked the Mipedians. A Mipedian named Adomo managed to learn the art of conjuring Warbeasts and found a way to control them, driving the UnderWorlders away. Even with the ability to control Warbeasts, Conjurors were not tolerated by the rest of the Mipedian society and were forced into hiding.

The Mipedians' usual concerns are gathering and maintaining what little resources they can find in the barren desert. They keep a tight hold on any and all resources that they find. One rare find is the Mipedian Oasis, which the Mipedians guard as though it was a palace. Its security is top notch as they take every precaution, even to the point that they don't let a starving person in unless they have completely checked them out. The Mipedians are ruled over by their Royals, the top of which is King Theb-saar.

Danian Tribe

Following a matriarchal archetype, the Danians have always been led by a single Queen, who chooses a single male consort from among the Danian Nobles, through whom all Danians among the Hive may trace their parentage. As a result, the female offspring of the Queen are nurtured to one day overtake their mother's position as Queen, whilst the male drones serve the Queen in a hierarchical military structure. The Queen bears dominion over the entirety of the Danian hive-mind, and thus, during the first M'arrillian invasion more than 2000 solons ago, the M'arrillians managed to procure a position of power by brainwashing Queen Ibicara, thus effectively rendering the entirety of the Danian Tribe under M'arrillian control.

Most Danians operate within a defined class system, with the Mandiblors making up the vast majority and therefore operating within the lowest class - often time acting as guards, workers, and foot soldiers. The Mandiblors are overseen by their respective Squadleaders, who were once Mandiblors themselves and who must remain vigilant in order to ensure that they are not usurped by another Mandiblor. Above the Squadleaders, acting as unit leaders, are the Danian Battlemasters.

Danians operating outside of this system typically bear some level of Mugical Talent, falling into the category of either Muge, Elementalist - who specialize in the study of Elemental Power, most commonly Earth - Controller - who specialize in Infection, which is a method of assimilating new Creatures into the Danian Hive via the use of Parasites - or Spirit Caller - who specialize in a form of necromancy. Lore oversees the teaching of the Mugical arts as the acting High Muge of the Hive.

While the Danians do vy for the Cothica against all other Tribes, they bear a particularly malicious relationship with the Mipedians. This is because, when the Danians were first building Mount Pillar, they drew water from the Jungle of Life, which fell within Mipedian territory at the time, for the Mount Pillar Reservoir. This ultimately led to the Jungle of Life being largely reduced to a barren desert by the Danians, with what remained of the now Forest of Life being overtaken by the OverWorlders. As well, the legendary High Muge of the Desert, Khilai, once assumed that the shared food source between the two Tribes is the source of the hatred between the two Tribes.

We got to watching one of my favorite movies from my past from 1988: Oliver and Company.

---

Oliver, an orange tabby kitten, is lost in the streets. He was the only kitten of his fellow kittens not to be adopted. Left alone in the rain in a cardboard box, he escapes and lives in the streets. He steals some hot dogs from a hot dog vendor with the help of a dog named Dodger. Together they are successful, but Dodger runs off, attempting to leave Oliver behind.

Dodger eventually arrives at the barge of his owner, a petty criminal named Fagin, along with his meal, to share with his friends: Tito the Chihuahua, Einstein the Great Dane, Rita the Saluki, and Francis the Bulldog. Oliver sneaks into their home, located below the city's docks, and is discovered by the dogs. At first, they, except Dodger, think that he is a spy, but when he explains his involvement in Dodger's hot dog theft from earlier that day, they begin to develop respect for him. Later, Fagin comes in and explains that he is running out of time to repay the money he borrowed from Bill Sykes, a shipyard agent and ruthless loan shark. He and his Dobermans, Roscoe and DeSoto, arrive. Fagin tries to appease Sykes with leftover items located from the streets, but it does not work.

While DeSoto is sniffing around the barge, Roscoe flirts with Rita. When Tito tries to attack him; after Roscoe threatens Francis after he insulted him, he is held back by Einstein, who tells Roscoe to pick on somebody his own size, but Roscoe is not intimidated by him. He is asked by Dodger about whether he lost his sense of humor or not and in reply, Roscoe smashes their television. It is then that DeSoto finds Oliver. He scratches his nose after DeSoto attempts to eat him and Roscoe and DeSoto both intend to tear him apart when the dog gang gets between them. Before further violence can ensue, Sykes calls his dogs back to his car, and they leave while making threats towards the gang and Oliver.

After this, a soaking wet Fagin returns to the barge, lamenting that he has only three days to find the money he owes Sykes. He discovers Oliver and, considering that they all need help, accepts him into the gang.

Next day, Fagin sets out into the city with his canine menagerie and Oliver. While he tries to sell his wares at a pawn shop, the animals come face-to-face with a limousine driven by a man named Winston. He is the butler of the exceedingly wealthy Foxworth family and is taking care of their daughter, Jenny, while they're out of the country on business in Europe. The dogs stage an elaborate ruse in order to get Winston out of the car. Einstein hits it to make it look like Winston had hit someone and Francis (being the only member of the gang with a passion and love for the art of acting and the theater) comes in his place to play the role of the hit dog. While Winston tends to Francis, Tito and Oliver slip in and attempt to steal its radio so as to give it to Fagin in order to sell it and earn some money in return for partial payment to Sykes. In doing so, Tito gets shocked by the electrical system, due to Oliver's mishap with the car keys and the ignition, and Jenny finds Oliver tangled up in the wires near it. Oliver finds a good home and a caring owner in Jenny, to the chagrin of Winston and the Foxworths' spoiled poodle, Georgette.

The next day, Fagin's dogs go to Jenny's house to "rescue" Oliver; thinking he is in danger and being tortured. After some initial disputes, Georgette is very happy that they are here to collect him and helps them take him back, convincing them that he's been traumatized by the whole experience and wants to go back to them. When he is taken back, he is sad because he was happy living with Jenny. Dodger is upset, nevertheless, he allows him to leave. The gang is sad to see him leave and he, full of sadness and sorrow, is sad to leave them as well. Before having the chance, Fagin comes in, takes him back in, and sits in his chair, full of sadness, because of his lack of hope and luck of earning some money to pay off Sykes after the last couple of days. Later, he sees Oliver's new golden tag and the wealthy district he got it from and sends Jenny a map and a letter requesting "lots and lots of money" as a ransom. He then goes to convince Sykes that his plan will work. While he intends only to ransom Oliver, Sykes believes that he is "thinking big" in an attempt to kidnap and ransom the cat owner, and gives him 12 more hours.

Jenny receives the letter and takes Georgette with her to go and retrieve Oliver, but Fagin's poorly drawn map leaves them both totally lost, although they do unknowingly arrive at their destination. Being distraught that his "wealthy cat owner" is only a little girl with her piggy bank, Fagin decides that he might as well return Oliver to her, and pretends to find him in a dumpster. However, Sykes, who was unknowingly watching the whole thing, kidnaps Jenny, intending to hold her for ransom to her wealthy parents, and tells Fagin to keep his mouth shut and to consider their account closed.

Fagin, who was not expecting Sykes to use him to perform a for-real kidnapping, takes his dogs and Georgette to Sykes' warehouse to rescue Jenny, which the dogs, with Oliver's help, manage to do. However, an enraged Sykes and his Dobermans pursue them down the city streets and into the subway in his car intending to snatch Jenny back. Roscoe and DeSoto both fall onto the tracks in their fight with Dodger and Oliver and get electrocuted. Jenny is thrown onto the hood of Sykes' car and Fagin tries to snatch her back while the dogs (mostly Tito) drive. Fagin manages to save Jenny while Oliver and Dodger fight off Sykes. They emerge onto the Brooklyn Bridge, where Sykes' car collides with a train and he is killed. Tito manages to steer Fagin's scooter onto one of the bridge's cables and they emerge unscathed. After the incident, Dodger, who along with Oliver was thrown away by Sykes before his untimely death, hands Jenny a "thought to be dead" Oliver. Everyone else thinks he's dead until Jenny hears a soft meow, meaning that he is alive. Everyone is rejoiced and accepted as Jenny's new best friends, except Georgette who is still in great shock from the chase.

The next morning, Fagin and the entire group celebrate Jenny's birthday at her home. That same day, Winston receives a phone call from her parents in Rome saying that they will be back in Manhattan tomorrow while making a bet with Fagin on wrestlers on TV, apparently earlier than expected; probably as an unexpected beautiful surprise for Jenny. Fagin and his dogs finally drive into the streets to make a new start while leaving Oliver at his new home with Jenny but they promise to visit from time to time.

We watched the movie and it was awesome epic. When the movie was done we cheered wildly!

Me: That is so awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

Mick: I remember that movie plain as day.

Brittney: I do too. It was awesome. It's how you saved Jenny from Bill Sykes.

Nico: But that Bill Sykes is one ruthless asshole.

Me: Big time.

I pulled up Sykes's info.

---

William "Bill" Sykes, also simply known by his surname Sykes, is the main antagonist of Disney's 27th full-length animated feature film Oliver and Company, which is a modern take on Charles Dickens' classic story Oliver Twist. Sykes is therefore based upon the character of Bill Sikes and he is also Fagin's former boss.

He was voiced by the late Robert Loggia, who was famous for portraying gangsters, such as Frank Lopez in Scarface.

Sykes has lent a large amount of money to a petty yet kindhearted criminal named Fagin for some unknown reason, sending his two Dobermans named Roscoe and DeSoto to tell Fagin to go up and meet with him. Fagin, unfortunately, finds himself unable to pay the money back and begs for more time. Sykes tells him that he has three days to find the money, or else who knows what will happen to Fagin, his home, or his dogs. Then, he honks his horn to call his dogs back, which frightens Fagin, causing him to fall off the dock and into the Hudson River.

During the night of the third day, Fagin arrives to Sykes' office, where he reveals of his plan of ransoming a pet kitten named Oliver (the protagonist of the film) to have his rich family called the Foxworths to come by to the docks tonight to pay the money in return for their pet's safety. Realizing this and noticing Oliver's gold pet collar, Sykes is very impressed by this and allows Fagin an additional 12 hours, warning him that this will be his last chance.

However, Fagin notices when a young girl named Jenny (the youngest member of the Foxworth family) arrives to the docks, where she has brought the ransom money inside her piggy bank, with Sykes and his dogs unknowingly watching from afar in his Cadillac. When Sykes sees Fagin abandoning the plan by freely handing Oliver back to Jenny without asking for the ransom money, he seizes his chance by driving up, pulling Jenny into his car, and taking her to his warehouse after throwing Oliver out the window, much to Fagin's objection. Before driving off, Sykes orders Fagin to keep his mouth shut, telling him that his debt is now fully paid since he finally got the ransom money to himself.

At his warehouse, Sykes ties Jenny to a chair in the center of his office, boasting her about his dogs by cruelly joking that he will have his dogs eat her, as he plans to use Jenny as a ransom against her rich parents (who are on a business conference meeting in Rome). Sykes then calls Jenny's butler Mr. Winston to inform about the situation, demanding that he get Jenny's parents on the phone to discuss business otherwise Jenny would be hurt.

He hears a strange sound and sends Roscoe and DeSoto to check it out. While watching Jenny, Sykes calls the Foxworth family's butler, Winston, and tells him to call Jenny's father. Oliver, Dodger, and the gang follow them to the warehouse, where they discover that Jenny is being held for ransom.

While Tito, Einstein, and Francis manage to stall Sykes by dressing up as a pizza delivery guy, Sykes is shown loading a handgun, acknowledging that he did not order any pizza. When he leaves to look for his dogs, Oliver, Dodger, and the other dogs manage to enter his office. Finally, he finds his dogs trapped under a net and frees them. When he and his dogs return and find the door locked, he thinks it was Jenny's doing and warns her to open it. Oliver and the gang manage to pull her up into a higher part of the room, with the help of a crane and Tito's electric specialties, before Sykes and his dogs burst through the door.

Sykes grabs an emergency fire axe and destroys the crane's controls, thus, causing Oliver and the gang to fall and slide safely down to the loading bay from a deactivated conveyor belt. At its end, Sykes and his dogs confront them as he prepares to signal his dogs to attack. Before he can, however, Fagin bursts through a window on his scooter and the gang, along with Jenny, hop on and drive away as fast as they can. Unfortunately, Sykes and his dobermans give chase in his car. Fagin swerves into the underground subway tunnels, hoping that Sykes can't follow them there, but the mad loan shark does so anyway.

Now driving like a complete maniac (and not thinking rationally, as he does not even seem to consider the danger and damages), Sykes pulls on the gearshift so hard that it breaks off and then presses hard on the gas. He goes at full speed, making his car's tires wear away on the subway tracks and turning his car into a makeshift hi-rail vehicle. He rams into Fagin's scooter, causing Jenny to fall onto his hood. He then punches his hand through the window and grabs her arm. Oliver sees this, jumps onto Sykes' hand, and bites it. Unfazed, Sykes tosses him into the back seat with Roscoe and DeSoto. Dodger leaps onto Sykes' car and fights off Roscoe, while Oliver fights off DeSoto, causing both dobermans to fall onto the tracks and get electrocuted. Sykes takes no notice of his dobermans' demises and continues to chase the gang. He goes up through his sun roof and grabs Jenny by the leg, trying to pull her back in. However, Oliver and Dodger jump onto him and fight him off, making him release Jenny. Even as Sykes manages to throw both the cat and dog off his car, the crime boss then turns around to see a subway train heading straight for him. Realizing this too late, Sykes screams in horror as his car collides into the incoming train, killing him in a fiery blaze and sending what remains of him and his car into the East River.

We gasped in complete shock.

Laney: That Sykes is a monster!

Nico: No kidding.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. He's an absolute jerk.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) No kidding lads.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. He's a monster.

Me: Looks like we have a nasty Loan Shark to destroy.

Pam: Yeah!

Sarah Gunnerson: This is gonna be awesome!

Brittney: And Mick, Rhino and Shocker have faced him before and Mick rescued Jenny from Sykes during my Babysitting adventure.

Lynn: I remember that. That was awesome.

Mick: Yep.

Shocker: Me, Rhino, and some of the others have lived through the events of Oliver and Company. When we get there, follow our lead.

Rhino: That means no confronting Sykes until the time is right.

Me: Got it. Lets head to the Simulator for this.

We cheered.

---

We were in the Simulator and we were getting ready to face one of the most ruthless Loansharks in all of New York City's Criminal Underworld. It was gonna be a battle with one tough man. The Simulator Activated and we found ourselves in New York City.

Me: Here we are guys. New York City.

Sarah Gunnerson: Tom, Kaz, and Peyton are gonna be so jealous when I tell them about this.

Nico: I bet they will be.

Shocker: (sees Dodger and his gang) There's Dodger and his gang. Just like last time.

We saw them. They were a group of dogs.

Me: That's them.

We went over to them.

Shocker: Hey guys.

Dodger: Shocker. Good to see you again.

Shocker: Same here.

Nico: Sora, have you been to the world of Oliver and Company?

Sora: No I haven't. This is my first time actually.

Kairi: Same here.

Me: Okay since Shocker and Rhino are in charge of this one, we'll let them lead the way.

Mick: And I'll help them out.

Me: All right. Lets go.

We went to the docks and we saw Jenny get kidnapped by Sykes!

Me: Oh no!

Mick: That fiend!

Me: Lets go!

We followed Sykes's limo to a warehouse on the wharf.

Me: This must be it.

Rhino: Yep. Leave this to me. You guys make your entrance when I give the signal.

Me: Right.

Rhino then charged in through the wall of the warehouse and Sykes and his dobermans Roscoe and DeSoto saw him.

Roscoe: Hey, Rhino guy! You're not supposed to be in here!

Rhino: Just came by to stop you all.

Rhino flexed his muscles and that was the signal.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the roof of the warehouse and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed by Rhino.

Me: Now that is how you make an entrance!

Shocker: Jenny, hang on! We're getting you out!

Sykes: (to us) Take one more step and the girl gets it.

Me: Let her go you worthless son of a fucking bitch!

Sykes: What did you call me!?

Me: You heard me! Or are you so fucking dumb that your brain needs to be removed!?

The Fox Quints then kicked Sykes in the face and sent him crashing into the crates of the warehouse.

Mick then cut Jenny free and then he sprouted wings made of pure lightning and grabbed her and flew to us.

Shiv and King Hiss came out.

Me: Shiv and King Hiss.

King Hiss: Yes.

Shiv: (to Sarah Gunnerson) I take it you're the new girl? Neth'uar, Rol'doi, and Emna'ool really have a grudge against your Danian friends.

Sarah Gunnerson: That's right. I am the new girl. And yes they do.

Nico: You guys must be really glad that Mr. Burns is dead.

Shiv: We sure are Nico. You guys weren't kidding when you said he was a monster. He deserved to die.

Laney: I agree with you.

?: I agree too.

A figure came out and it was NOJOKE from episode 12 of Megaforce!

---

Nojoke is summoned by Bigs and Bluefur when Vrak comes up with the idea of toppling humanity through laughter, which he considers both a waste of time and an involuntary weakness that can very well be exploited, an idea which both amuses and intrigues Admiral Malkor.

Nojoke can trap anyone who laughs or giggles in a special gourd and whoever stays there for too long dissolves and is then drunk by the Mutant.

He ensnares Gia, Emma, Jake and Troy, forcing Noah and Robo Knight to work together and come up with a conjoined joke to oblige Nojoke to laugh and destroy the gourd himself.

Once free, the Megaforce Rangers ascends to Ultra Mode and makes short work of Nojoke.

His failure prompts Malkor to scold Vrak for the failure while commending the merits of his plan and tells him to have Nojoke to redeem himself. Vrak agrees and responds by sending the Zombats to enlarge Nojoke.

In the ensuing battle, Nojoke blows powerful winds against the Gosei Great and Gosei Grand Megazords .

The Sea Gosei Great Megazord is then formed to soak Nojoke's wings and render them useless, incapacitating him. Gosei Grand then attacks with the Grand Strike and finishes off Nojoke.

---

Troy Burrows: Nojoke!

Nojoke: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You used laughter to make yourself more powerful. You trap anyone who laughs or giggles in those gourds.

Nojokes: That's right. You watched us fight on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Nojoke: We sure have a lot of Tubes! (Rimshot)

Luan laughed.

UH OH

Nojoke just trapped Luan inside his Laughing Gourd.

Nojoke: One Loud Kid down, 11 to go. Now, let's see how many I capture after this!

Nojoke then did something no one expected. He farted!

FAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRTTTTTT!

Me: You are disgusting.

Eddy fired his blaster and blew the gourds he had apart.

My Signer Mark then glowed.

Me: Uh oh.

Devack came out.

Me: Devack.

5D's Luna: Not gonna attempt to murder me, Devack?

Devack: After seeing those collars on Rex and Kalin, I'd rather not push my luck. But I can still get some good hits on you!

5D's Luna: Good.

Then in a flash of lightning came Larxene!

Lincoln: Larxene.

Larxene: That's right you white-haired brat.

Volcana: You just will never learn.

Noah: We beat you once, Nojoke. We can do it again!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Royal Flush Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the J.A.K.Q. Rangers!

Sarah Gunnerson: (gasps) So that's your Legendary Mode!

Troy Burrows: It sure is.

Sarah Gunnerson: That is so cool!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Lets get them!

Lana: Before we fight, Roscoe and DeSoto, are you gonna listen to a monster like Sykes?

Jessie K.: Wow! That was the armies of Kievan Rus'!

Lana: What is that?

Jessie K.: It was an old loose federation that is now Belarus, Russia and Ukraine.

Jessie went over their history.

---

Kievan Rus' (Old East Slavic: Рѹсь (Rus' ), Рѹсьскаѧ землѧ (Rus'skaya zemlya); Latin: Rus(s)ia, Ruscia, Ruzzia, Rut(h)enia) was a loose federation of East Slavic and Finnic peoples in Europe from the late 9th to the mid-13th century, under the reign of the Varangian Rurik dynasty. The modern nations of Belarus, Russia, and Ukraine all claim Kievan Rus' as their cultural ancestors, with Belarus and Russia deriving their names from it. However, during the existance of Kievan Rus' state, the name Rus' was used only for Kyiv, Pereiaslav and Chernihiv principalities.

At its greatest extent, in the mid-11th century, it stretched from the White Sea in the north to the Black Sea in the south and from the headwaters of the Vistula in the west to the Taman Peninsula in the east, uniting the majority of East Slavic tribes.

According to Rus' Primary Chronicle, the first ruler to start uniting East Slavic lands into what has become known as Kievan Rus' was Prince Oleg (879-912). He extended his control from Novgorod south along the Dnieper river valley to protect trade from Khazar incursions from the east, and he moved his capital to the more strategic Kiev. Sviatoslav I (died 972) achieved the first major expansion of Kievan Rus' territorial control, fighting a war of conquest against the Khazars. Vladimir the Great (980-1015) introduced Christianity with his own baptism and, by decree, extended it to all inhabitants of Kiev and beyond. Kievan Rus' reached its greatest extent under Yaroslav the Wise (1019-1054); his sons assembled and issued its first written legal code, the Rus' Justice, shortly after his death.

The state declined beginning in the late 11th century and during the 12th century, disintegrating into various rival regional powers. It was further weakened by economic factors, such as the collapse of Rus' commercial ties to the Byzantine Empire due to the decline of Constantinople and the accompanying diminution of trade routes through its territory. The state finally fell to the Mongol invasion of the 1240s.

Mick: Jenny, hop on.

Jenny (Oliver and Company): Okay.

Jenny got on Mick's Rapidash.

Me: Lets ride!

I whistled and called my Rapidash.

I got on and we rode out of there fast. Sykes got into his limo and he was driving like a crazy lunatic driver and he drove through the city on our tails and we were going onto the subway tracks.

Jenny (Oliver and Company): What are we gonna do?

Mick: J.D.'s plan is to send Syke's into the path of an oncoming train full of Nitroglycerin. It's loaded with over 750 tons of Nitroglycerin.

Me: NOW!

We got out of the way and Sykes saw the train and then he screamed and his car collided with the train and his car and the train both exploded in a massive fireball of incredible power and heat.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We saw the explosion completely destroy Sykes and his limo as the whole train exploded with the massive force of the Halifax Explosion from 1917. The shockwave from the blast shook parts of New York all over and destroyed the Brooklyn Bridge and sent it into the Hudson River. We saw the explosion from a distance. Luckily the city was protected in a powerful force field. We were amazed at how powerful the explosion was.

Me: Wow! What power.

Nico: Unbelievable. It's hard to imagine that Nitroglycerin has that much explosive power.

Lisa Loud: Nitroglycerin is a highly unstable explosive compound.

Me: It sure is. But we've seen the last of Sykes.

Jenny (Oliver and Company): Thank you so much for saving me!

Mick: No problem Jen.

We went back to the city and the Masters of Evil arrived.

King Hiss: Before we go back to our hideout, can you tell us what happened at Burns' trial?

Maria: Long story short, Vypra and the others recruited Captain Cold and he killed Burns.

Shiv: Good! The old treacherous asshole deserves it.

Mick: Of course he does.

Me: You got that right. We have the whole trial of Burns on tape if you want to see it.

Shiv: Thanks J.D.

I gave him a copy of the Trial.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

We went back home.

Me: That was intense.

Mick: It sure was. (To the viewers) This was an intense battle. But if you ever come across a loneshark like Sykes, give him a piece of your mind.

Me: You got that right Mick.

Lynn: Great job though Mick. You all did a great job.

Pam: Thanks Coach Lynn.

We had a good rest.

THE END

Another awesome Disney Movie Fanfic done.

Oliver and Company was a really great movie from my youth and a really awesome movie! Billy Joel and Bette Midler did a great job with the songs and a lot of big stars were in that movie. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the first chapter for the funny cartoon My Gym Partner's A Monkey and we're gonna go after the delinquent raccoon Larry Raccoon and send him to prison for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

A School All for Animals

At the estate I was looking through some photos of the Loud Kids from the past.

Me: Aww that is so cute.

I saw a picture of Lincoln teaching young Laney at 4 years old about how to work with Ceramics.

Me: So adorable.

I saw a picture of Lincoln eating his first spaghetti dinner.

Me: (Giggles) So cute! Just like me when I had my first spaghetti dinner.

I looked at another picture and I saw Lynn and Lincoln playing in the bathtub. It was so cute.

I turned a page and I saw the family together.

Me: Aww so cute.

I saw the Loud Kids from Lori to Lincoln all together. But I saw something out of the ordinary.

Me: Huh?

I saw another girl with Lynn. She looked a lot like Lynn except she had a small scar on her face that she got somehow.

Me: This is unusual.

I took the photo out and went to the parents and I knocked on the bedroom door.

Rita: Come in.

I went in.

Me: Ms. Rita, I'm sorry to interrupt anything.

Rita: You didn't J.D.

Me: I was wondering if you can tell me about this girl that looks a lot like Lynn that is in this picture right here.

I pointed to the girl with Lynn.

Rita: (Sighs) I was afraid this day might come J.D. Sit with me.

I sat by Rita on the bed.

Rita: That girl with Junior is her twin sister Leena.

Me: Leena. That's interesting. How come she wasn't mentioned when I moved here?

Rita: Well there was a reason why she was never mentioned J.D. Leena was sent to a maximum security insane asylum.

Me: Why? What's wrong with her?

Rita: It was back when Lincoln was 5 years old. Leena had a lot of problems. She hated Lincoln and there was an attack on Lincoln. She has problems up here (Taps her head) and we took her to some doctors and they diagnosed her with Schizophrenia.

Me: Oh no. I know that disorder all too well.

Rita: Yes. She began to hear these voices and see things that aren't there and they would tell her these things that aren't true. These voices told Leena to kill Lincoln. She slashed him with a knife in the arm. We had no choice but to commit Leena to a maximum security mental institution for the rest of her life.

Me: Oh man. That's terrible. She can't control herself.

Rita: Yes.

Lynn came in.

Lynn: Wow.

Rita: Hey Junior.

Lynn: I didn't know that's what happened to Leena. I can't believe she's that dangerous.

Me: She probably wasn't under the right medication at the time.

Rita: Yeah.

Lynn: I wish we could go there to see her.

Rita: I do too sweetie. But she is far too dangerous to have visitors.

Me: Oh man. Poor Leena. She's completely out of control.

Rita: Yes. But you all can go together and visit her.

Me: Good idea. We'll do it later on.

Rita: Okay.

* * *

Later at the lake, we were ready to have Sarah, Gwen, Tara, May, Jen and Yumi see what it's like to be Gene-Slammers for the first time. With us was another one of Hunter's friends, Tshibangu, a Central African of Congolese origin who speaks the Tshihuba language. He's born from August 30st, 1997. He has round face, Redknapp Nose, hazel eyes, square ears, and a small goatee on his chin. Wears a blue shirt, green glasses, tan shorts, plain khaki hat, and brown boots. His powers are Water, Wood, Wind, and Lightning Release.

Me: It's great to have you with us Tshibangu.

Tshibangu: (Congo Accent) It's an honor to be here J.D. Hunter told me so much about all of you and your amazing adventures.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. It's awesome.

Francis: Sarah, are you excited to turn into a Street Shark temporarily?

Sarah Gunnerson: You bet I am Francis!

Me: This is gonna be really painful for all of you girls.

John Bolton: It's not pretty. It was excruciatingly painful when we were slammed by Dr. Luther Paradigm.

Stacy Bolton: It's true. It hurt like a son of a bitch.

Clint Bolton: Yeah.

Gwen Tennyson: But we want to see what it's like.

Tara: Yeah.

Me: Okay. Ready girls?

Jen: We're ready.

Me: Here we go. But it will only last for 15 minutes.

As soon as I snapped my fingers, all 6 girls' stomachs gurgled loudly.

Gaara: You girls ok?

Gwen Tennyson: (starts to sweat) Either we're getting hungry. Or our transformations are about to start.

John Bolton: This is how it started when we transformed.

Me: It started with incredible hunger.

But then the girls were in excruciating pain!

Sarah: (groaning in pain) It really hurts!

Yumi: My eyes are moving further apart!

Gwen: It hurts!

May: So much pain!

Jen: And I thought turning into

She-Hulk hurts!

She-Hulk: (In Jen's Head) (Offended) HEY!

Tara: Ow!

Me: It'll be over in a few seconds.

Sarah Gunnerson: WHAT'S HAPPENING!?

Tara: It hurts!

Yumi: OW!

Gwen Tennyson: MAKE IT STOP!

May: PLEASE!

Nico: It'll go away shortly May.

Jen: Why does it hurt!?

It was an excruciatingly painful transformation and they got an excruciatingly painful headache.

Tara's hands and skin turned black with white patches and she was in a lot of pain as she was transforming.

Tara: DEAR GOD! WHAT'S HAPPENING TO ME?!

Me: It's part of the changing process.

Sarah's skin turned sky blue and purple and the Girls were in an incredible amount of pain and they were changing.

Sarah Gunnerson: My hands!

Yumi's eyes were popping out of her head.

Yumi: (Groans) What the fuck is happening to me!?

Gwen's skin turned dark blue and her hair was falling out and her blue shirt shredded apart and she grew razor sharp teeth. She was now half Great White Shark. Yumi's black shirt ripped apart and her skin turned brown and her hair fell out and her eyes pushed out and were on stalks and she turned into half hammerhead. Something was shifting inside May and it was excruciatingly painful and it felt like a parasite.

Yumi: WHAT'S HAPPENING!?

May: It hurts!

Gwen: OW!

Sarah Gunnerson: MAKE IT STOP!

Tara: PLEASE!

Then May's skin turned light orange and her hair fell out and her red shirt was torn apart and she grew bigger and stronger and she turned into half whale shark and Sarah's black shirt was torn to shreds as her skin turned light blue with purple stripes on her and her hair fell out and she had sharp teeth. Tara had her yellow shirt rip as she had a black fin grow out of her back and her tongue grew longer and she was now half killer whale. Jen's skin turned dark grey and she had her purple and white shirt rip as she arms grew powerful gliding wings and her teeth turned sharp and she was now Half manta ray! They still had their pants on. Gwen had blue pants and shoes, Sarah had red shorts, and shoes, Yumi had black pants, May had red shorts on, Tara had brown shorts and Jen had her purple leotard on.

Vortex: How do you girls feel?

Gwen Tennyson: Incredible.

Tara: It's amazing!

Me: If this were permanent what would your gene-slammer names be?

Tara: For me how about Moby Earth?

Gwen: Chaos Jaws.

Yumi: Chaos Jab.

Sarah Gunnerson: Chaos Streek.

May: Lady Chaos Slam.

Jen: Hulk-Manta!

Bolton Siblings: JAWSOME!

Me: Those are gnarly names dudes!

Jaime: Righteous!

Luna Loud: Good names dudes.

Me: Lets see what your forms can do. (Senses something) And I have the perfect targets for you.

I pointed to something to the right and it was remnants of Team Rocket.

Me: Team Rocket Remnants at 3:00.

May: Lets get them!

Girls: SHARK ATTACK!

They roared ferociously and went at the remnants of Team Rocket.

They ripped them apart with extreme ferociousness and splattered blood and guts and severed limbs all over the place with extreme fury and predatory nature.

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: This is too ferocious even for May!

May: (FEROCIOUSLY) YOU ARE GOOD DINNER!

Yumi: (FEROCIOUSLY) SO TASTY!

Gwen Tennyson: (FEROCIOUSLY) HUMAN FLESH! SO DELICIOUS!

Tara: (FEROCIOUSLY) EAT! EAT!

Sarah Gunnerson: (FEROCIOUSLY) MUST EAT!

Jen: (FEROCIOUSLY) MUST EAT FLESH!

Me: Their beast sides have taken over!

Nico: (To the transformers) You have to calm them down!

G1 Firestar: Right!

Cybertron Crumplezone: Right boss!

The Transformers went over and calmed them down.

G1 Firestar was trying to calm a rampaging May down.

Firestar: May, get a hold of yourself! Think about Nico and Manaphy!

May returned to her senses.

May: Wow! That was intense.

Sarah Gunnerson: What happened?

Elite One: You guys let your shark forms take over.

Me: She's right. Thankfully none of us got hurt. But look at the remnants of Team Rocket.

They saw that the Remnants of Team Rocket were all totally butchered and dismembered.

Tshibangu: Wow. You guys did a number on them.

Nico: No shit.

Me: Well we got 1 minute to spare.

Sarah Gunnerson: This was so awesome!

Tara: It was really fun while it lasted.

Me: 15 seconds. Boys cover your eyes.

Everyone did so.

Me: 3… 2… 1… 0.

I covered my eyes and the girls groaned in excruciating pain and they were reverting back and they regained their human forms very fast. But they were half-naked and Maria, Leni and Teresa gave them their clothes.

Sarah Gunnerson: Thanks Maria.

The girls then released a massive belch.

Girls: BBBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRRRRRR

Sam (Total Drama): Nice one!

Geoff: That was a good one!

Me: Gnarly.

Lana: Awesome!

John Bolton: So how did it feel for you girls?

Sarah Gunnerson: It was awesome!

Tara: It was amazing being a gene-slammer!

Nico: Glad you all had fun. Sorry it ruined your clothes.

May: That's all right Nico. Those were all tattered clothes thankfully.

Me: Thank goodness. Who wants to know what it's like to be a gene-slammer next?

Nico: I'll do it.

Lori: I'll go for it.

The Loud Kids gladly volunteered.

Me: All right. And what kind of fish or creature do you want to be?

I pulled out my notepad.

Nico: I want to be a lion.

Lori: Osprey. It's literally my favorite bird.

Leni: Cheetah.

Luna Loud: Wild Boar.

Luan: I'll be a Kangaroo.

Lynn: Texas Longhorn Bull.

Lincoln: Andean Condor.

Linka: Bengal Tiger.

Liberty: Alien Creature for me. I want to be a full-fledge Scarcharosuchus.

Lyra: Pyronite.

Lee: Ocelot.

Lucy: Raven.

Laney: A bear.

Lana: I want to be a wolf!

Lola: A horse for me.

Lisa: I want to be a Ophiophagus hannah ; Street name: King Cobra.

Lily: I'll be a Blue Whale.

Me: All really good choices. We'll do those next time.

Lori: All right.

---

Later we were walking on the north side of the city. We got word that there was a really cool school that is for animals by animals.

Nico: So what is this school?

Me: It's supposed to be really interesting. It's called Charles Darwin Middle School and it supposed to be a school for all kinds of zoo animals.

Lana: That is so cool!

Syd Chang: Oh wow! This is gonna be amazing!

Ronnie Anne: Syd is gonna be in heaven.

Laney: This is gonna be really awesome.

Me: We're here guys.

We arrived at Charles Darwin Middle School and it was a really cool school loaded with all kinds of jungle features.

Lincoln: Wow! It's a school and a jungle all in one.

Me: Lets go in.

We walked up to the doors and opened them and went in. What we saw was amazing! It was a full fledge jungle inside a school and the students and faculty were all animals. And there was a tube for fish that looked like it went on for miles.

Me: Wow! This is amazing!

Nico: Incredible! The students and faculty are all animals.

Laney: Amazing!

Me: Lets walk around.

We walked around and we saw the students all getting ready.

Me: Wow. Look at this place. Amazing.

Syd Chang: I have gone to animal heaven.

We laughed.

Then we saw a boy with a Spider Monkey, a Gorilla, a Giraffe, a Toucan and a Python. That boy was Adam Lyon and he was the only human at Charles Darwin Middle School and with him were Jake Spider Monkey, Windsor Gorilla, Lupe Toucan, Ingrid Giraffe and Slips Python.

Adam Lyon: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Hello there.

Lynn: Adam!? Is that you?

Adam Lyon: Lynn it's great to see you again!

Lynn and Adam hugged.

Lynn: It's great to see you to Adam.

Me: I didn't know you two know each other.

Adam Lyon: We were old classmates in Royal Woods Middle School before I got transferred here. I'm Adam Lyon. It's an honor to meet you all.

Jake Spider Monkey: I'm Jake Spider Monkey. It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Windsor: It's an honor to make your acquaintance. I'm Windsor Gorilla.

Lupe: (Spanish Accent) I'm Lupe Toucan.

Slips: Sup dudes? I'm Slips Python.

Ingrid Giraffe: And I'm Ingrid Giraffe. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Luna Loud: We haven't seen you in a while Adam dude.

Adam Lyon: It feels like forever Luna.

Luna Loud: And I can't help but notice that we sound so much alike.

Olga Pataki: Same with me.

Pandora (GAOBAM): Yeah same here.

Pandora (Kid Icarus): Yeah.

Me: That is amazing how you all have the same voice.

Adam Lyon: Luna, you and I might sound alike. But you've done all sorts of great things over the past few years. Name one thing that I've ever done that could be considered great.

Luna: Lynn told me that you helped win the State Championship. So that counts.

Adam Lyon: That's right.

Lynn: Awesome job little dude.

Lana: And I noticed Lupe that you and me sound so much alike too.

Lupe: Too true Lana.

Lola: And Ingrid you sound a lot like Daphne Blake.

Ingrid Giraffe: I sure do.

Lily: And Jake you sound just like SpongeBob.

Jake Spider Monkey: (Hoots) I sure do sound like him huh?

Me: Really cool.

Adam Lyon: So what brings you all to Charles Darwin Middle School?

Me: We got reports of a delinquent running around.

I pulled out a wanted poster and showed it to Adam.

Adam Lyon: Larry Raccoon, the only student ever to be expelled from CDMS.

Me: Wow. What did he do?

Windsor: He was a total juvenile delinquent and only wanted to cause nothing but trouble.

Me: Geez! We've dealt with people like them before.

Nico: Yep.

Me: If Larry Raccoon comes back, we'll gladly deal with him.

We heard a crash and we saw a big shark beating up an armadillo.

Me: Whoa. Who is that jerk?

Adam Lyon: That's Bull Sharkowski. He's the meanest bully in school.

Me: We can't have that. If there's one thing we despise above all others, it's bullies.

William: Yep.

Bull then grabbed Adam Lyon and slammed him into the lockers.

Bull Sharkowski: You have a major problem with me, (Breathes) don't you Lyon?

We went over to Bull.

William: Well, look who we have here.

Bull Sharkowski: (nervously) Team Loud Phoenix Storm?! This isn't what it looks like. (Breathes)

Maria: Save it! We saw you push Adam to the ground.

Nico: Hang on, guys. I think we can use Bull's recent bullying act into an opportunity to help his fellow students.

Me: Good idea Nico.

I then sensed a presence of evil.

Me: Uh oh. I sense something. Larry Raccoon is here in the school.

Adam Lyon: What!? That jerk is back?

Me: Yeah. He's here somewhere.

Nico: Bull how would you like to help us stomp Larry?

Bull Sharkowski: So, let me get this straight. If I help you guys find Larry, I get to stay in Charles Darwin.

Nico: But you'll be under supervision at all times.

Bull Sharkowski: I think I can work with that. But I still need something to punch everyday.

Sarah Gunnerson: Would a punching bag help?

Bull Sharkowski: Deal.

Me: All right. Lets get searching.

We went to the cafeteria and we saw that it had really good food.

Lana: Boy this food is delicious!

Lana was having Mud Squares and Wormy Joe sandwiches.

Lana: Mmm! Delicious!

Adam Lyon: You actually like all this food Lana?

Lana: I sure do. It's really good food. I eat worms all the time.

Adam Lyon: Maybe you should've come to this school instead of me.

We laughed.

Jake Spider Monkey: Nice to see we aren't the only ones who like the food here.

We laughed.

Luan: You sure Wormed your way into some good food. (Laughs) Get it?

We all laughed.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Luan.

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

We then saw a fox look around and he went to three penguins and swiped their Krill Muffins and ate them!

Me: Whoa! That kid is quick.

Lana: He sure is.

Nina Kangaroo: HEY!

The fox kid was digging through her pouch. He ate a bag of chips in her pouch.

Nina Kangaroo: You took my secret stash!

Nina then got ready to kick the fox and a penguin got in front of her and she kicked him and sent him flying and we ducked as he landed in a fish pond table.

Fish 1: Hey kid. Did we say you could sit at OUR table.

I went over.

Me: It wasn't his fault. He was kicked into your table by accident.

Fish 1: Oh sorry.

Me: Blame that fox over there. I got a funny feeling about that guy.

Ingrid Giraffe: You should. That fox used me as a bridge.

Lupe: He got into my face!

Me: Whoa! Lets get him.

We went and got him.

Me: Gotcha!

Coach Gills came.

Coach Gills: Cool your fins, paws, hooves and whatever else you use to get around.

Varie: You sound a lot like the Flying Dutchman.

Coach Gills: I sure do don't I? Save the roughhousing only for gym. It's Dodgeball Day!

Me: Ooh! I love Dodgeball!

Kids: YEAH! Dodgeball! We'll slaughter him!

We went to gym and we were ready to clobber the fox.

Coach Gills: Okay class. We all know the rules of Dodgeball right?

Kids: SLAM THE FOX!

Me: Lets get him!

We threw a lot of dodgeballs at the fox and smashed him all over the place with a massive shower of dodgeballs.

Varie: Watch this one.

Varie formed a ball of water and threw it at the fox and drenched him. Paint washed off him and to our surprise he wasn't really a panda, he was really LARRY RACCOON!

---

Larry Raccoon is a one-time villain from the classic Cartoon Network series, My Gym Partner's a Monkey, only appearing in "Bad News Bear". He is a juvenile delinquent and is the first and only student to be expelled from Charles Darwin Middle School.

He is voiced by Phil Lamarr.

In "Bad News Bear", Principal Pixiefrog informed Adam and Jake about an expelled student by the name, Larry Raccoon. He warned the duo that if they kept up their current antics, they'd end up like him. Little did he know, Larry tried sneaking his way back into the school, disguised as a panda bear student named "Ding Band" He gave them both punishments as well. Adam's punishment was introducing the new foreign exchange student, "Ding Bang" to the school, while Jake filed for Mrs. Warthog.

Ding Bang caused lots of trouble, vandalizing school property and stealing things from other kids and Adam had to pick up after him. Ding Bang was also left unharmed since his species was labeled as endangered. This meant that every time Ding Bang messed with someone, they'd project all their anger onto Adam, resulting in him getting beaten up. The students eventually found a loophole in the "leaving Ding Bang unharmed" rule, and found out that he'd be in gym class, when they play dodgeball. A class where they were supposed to beat him with balls.

In gym, before the students could even start balling him, Jake came in through the fish tube and water splashed all over Ding Bang. It came to light that Ding Bang was actually Larry Raccoon, painted like a panda bear in disguise, and his plan of trying to get himself back into the school came out. Larry begged for a second chance at a decent education, but Principal Pixiefrog denied it. When they kids found out he was responsible for all the trouble he caused, everyone (including Adam), pelted him with dodgeballs, running him out of the school.

Principal Pixiefrog saw this.

Principal Pixiefrog: Larry Raccoon. I should've known you would sneak back in here as a fox. First a Panda and now this.

Me: He did this before?

Principal Pixiefrog: He sure did J.D.

Larry Raccoon: I JUST WANTED A QUALITY EDUCATION!

POW!

I threw a dodgeball and it smashed into his face.

Principal Pixiefrog: Nice shot J.D. (To Larry) You had your chance Larry. But you wanted to be a delinquent instead.

Me: And you know what we do to delinquents like you? (Cracks Knuckles) We smash their faces into pulp.

Orion: Time to put this raccoon under arrest!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: SPD!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the S.P.D. Rangers!

Sarah Gunnerson: That is so cool!

Me: It sure is.

Webstor, Leonard and Captain Cold appeared.

Me: Webstor, Leonard and Captain Cold.

Leonard: This is a really cool school.

Webstor: It's amazing how there are a lot of animal students here.

Leonard: (to Adam) Quick question: Are there any spider or pig students?

Adam Lyon: Yes there are. A lot of them.

Leonard: Awesome! We'll have to enroll some of the pigs and spiders here.

Warren: And me and my sisters will come here too.

Lori: Good ideas.

My Signer Mark glowed.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer incoming.

Out of a red flash of light with the Red Spider Nazca Line came Roman Goodwin.

Me: Roman. Nice to see you.

Roman Goodwin: Same to you J.D. This school is really amazing.

?: It will soon be destroyed!

Out came a man with an evil look on his face and he had dark teal hair and a black cloak.

Me: Whoa!

Tea Gardner: Not this guy again!

Nico: You know him Tea?

Tea Gardner: I wish I hadn't. He's one of the Rare Hunters that got me brainwashed!

We gasped!

Me: I thought I killed all of the Rare Hunters. I killed Marik.

Rare Hunter: Yes and you will pay for that. Master Marik was our savior.

Me: How deluded are you!?

A figure came out.

Principal Pixiefrog: Excuse me. Are you another student?

Morph Moth: Nope. My name is Morph Moth!

Morph Moth rears back a bit and flies across the area, dropping sparkling dust on Bright Man.

Luan fired a blast of light and it blew the dust back.

Me: Nice one. Lets get them guys!

Bertrand: I'll face Roman.

Me: I'll help you out Bertrand.

Qin: I'll face Captain Cold.

Lori: I'll face Leonard.

Lucy Loud: I'll face Webstor.

Nico: Me and the Megaforce Rangers will face Morph Moth.

Tea Gardner: I'll face the Rare Hunter. I've got a score to settle with him for getting me captured by Marik.

Me: And the rest of us will face Larry Raccoon. Lets go!

We went at them! To make sure that Larry didn't escape, I put a force field around all the exits.

Battle 1: Roman Goodwin

Me and Bertrand were facing Roman Goodwin.

Roman Goodwin: So Tea has a really bad history with that Rare Hunter doesn't she?

Me: You have no idea Roman. He captured Tea and Marik brainwashed her. Controlled her and Joey like puppets. I killed Marik for his crimes.

Roman Goodwin: I see. It's hard to imagine that he was that evil.

Bertrand: Indeed.

Roman Goodwin: Lets get started shall we? I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

Roman summoned the Spider Earthbound Immortal Uru!

Me: Time for some lightning power. I summon GUARDIAN TRYCE, THUNDER NYAN NYAN, LIGHTNING PUNISHER, ELECTRIC SNAKE, SANGA OF THE THUNDER, WATTDRAGONFLY, LIGHTNING CONGER, THUNDER DRAGON, THE IMMORTAL OF THUNDER, QUEEN'S KNIGHT, KING'S KNIGHT AND JACK'S KNIGHT!

I summoned said monsters!

Bertrand: Magnificent selection.

Me: Indeed.

Bertrand: How about some insect power? I summon METAL ARMORED BUG, SWARM OF LOCUSTS, FIEND SCORPION, SWARM OF SCARABS, JIRAI GUMO, BLADEFLY, INSECT QUEEN, GREAT MOTH, PERFECTLY ULTIMATE GREAT MOTH, DOOM DOZER, SCARY MOTH, and CROSS-SWORD BEETLE!

Roman Goodwin: Good choices.

Me: Thanks. And to make the playing field more appropriate, I activate the field spell VENOM SWAMP!

I activated said spell and the area turned into a poisonous and lethal swamp.

Bertrand: My goodness. Very interesting landscape.

Me: It sure is. Lets dance.

We went at Roman and I punched him and Bertrand kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and our monsters blasted Uru all over the place and blew him apart and me and Bertrand punched Roman and knocked him down. Our battle ended. The area reverted back.

I held my hand to him.

Me: Good fight.

Roman took my hand.

Roman Goodwin: Indeed. Lets go see how Tea fairs out.

Me: Right.

Battle 2: Tea VS Rare Hunter.

Tea was facing the Rare Hunter that almost killed her.

Tea Gardner: I will never forgive you for trying to kill me.

Rare Hunter: Shall we duel?

Tea Gardner: No duel this time. This time we fight.

Me, Roman and Bertrand were watching.

She pulled out a card.

Tea Gardner: And here's my arena. I activate THE SEAL OF ORICHALCOS!

We gasped in sheer shock when Tea said that name and we saw her activate it and a Circle of glowing green energy with Enochian symbols appeared and it landed on the ground around Tea and the Rare Hunter and formed a Unicursal Hexagram in the middle and we were blown back by a powerful force. I was standing still.

Me: Whoa! What power! Tea you have no idea what you are doing!

I saw Tea enveloped in an aura of darkness and I looked at her and saw that she had the Orichalcos symbol glowing in the middle of her forehead and her eyes were glowing red with pure evil and they were overflowing with ultimate hatred and rage!

Me: Holy shit!

Rare Hunter: I don't care what kind of power you use girl, it won't be enough for you when I kill you!

Tea Gardner: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP! I will kill you and send your soul into the darkness of hell where you belong! I will never forgive you for everything you've done!

Roman Goodwin: What in the world has happened to her!?

Me: The Orichalcos unlocked the very darkness inside of her heart. The Orichalcos is the very Negative Energy that exists inside all of us. When Tea activated the Seal of Orichalcos she unleashed the very evil inside of her. She now is overflowing with incredible hatred and rage.

Roman Goodwin: That's terrible!

Bertrand: No kidding.

Me: Dartz used the power of the Orichalcos to try and destroy the entire planet and kill everyone to create a utopia. And we stopped him from doing so.

Roman Goodwin: I've heard all about that.

Tea went at the Rare Hunter and punched him in the face with incredibly merciless fury and she kicked him in the stomach with devastating force and she punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth! She then kicked him in the crotch and bit his nose and kneed him in the face and broke his jaw and kicked him in the face and knocked out his eye and he fell to the ground and Tea smashed his hand with a deadly jump and broke his entire hand!

Roman Goodwin: WHOA!

Me: Tea has become a merciless monster! The Orichalcos turned her into a ruthless monster!

Bertrand: I've never seen her fight so ruthlessly!

Me: Me neither.

Tea kicked him in the chest and knocked him down.

Tea Gardner: Seal of Orichalcos, take his soul!

The seal grew smaller and entrapped him in a huge pillar of light and we shielded our eyes as the Seal took his soul into the very darkness of Hell for all eternity! It vanished and the Rare Hunter fell to the ground. He was dead. A lifeless vegetable. Tea fell to the ground exhausted.

I went over to him and checked for a pulse. There was none.

Me: He's dead. I was right. The Orichalcos killed him!

I went over to Tea and she was exhausted. I saw a card by her and looked at it and I saw that it was The Seal of Orichalcos with the Rare Hunter's Spirit inside it.

Me: Whoa. Tea killed him by trapping his soul inside the card.

Roman Goodwin: Man that was rough.

Me: I would never use the Seal of Orichalcos unless it was the biggest last resort ever.

Bertrand: Good thinking.

I opened the portal into Hell and threw the card into it.

Me: Good riddance.

Tea woke up.

Tea Gardner: J.D.?

Me: Tea it's all right. You beat him.

Tea then hugged me and cried hard into my chest.

Me: It's all right Tea. It's all right.

Tea Gardner: (CRYING HARD) J.D. I'M SO SORRY!

Me: It's not your fault Tea. You got justice for yourself and for Joey as well.

Tea Gardner: (CRYING) BUT I KILLED HIM!

Me: You did but it was justified. You saved Joey and yourself from having history repeat itself.

Yugi: That's right Tea. You saved yourself and Joey again from that monster.

Pharaoh Atem: That's right Tea. We're proud of you.

Me: It was reckless but I knew that there was no other way. But at least we got to see what the power of the Seal of Orichalcos is capable of.

Yugi: That's true.

Tea Gardner: (Sniffles) Thank you J.D.

Me: By the way Tea, did the Seal of Orichalcos send that Rare Hunter to Hell?

Tea Gardner: It did.

Heidi: It's true grandpa. When I sealed Dartz into the very dark recesses of my mind for all eternity, I had the Seal of Orichalcos send the souls of those who are evil and honorless straight to hell where they belong.

Me: Wow! That's incredible. Our battle with Dartz gave us a powerful tool. But it can only be used as a last resort. The Seal of Orichalcos is pure evil and we have to use it only when absolutely necessary. Unless there's no other choice. It will only be used on those that are unrepentant and without honor.

Tea Gardner: Good idea.

Yugi: Right!

Me: Lets go help everyone else.

Tea Gardner: Right!

I kept the Rare Hunter's cards as a trophy.

Battle 3: Webstor

Lucy Loud was facing Webstor and his Spinarak and Ariados.

Lucy Loud: That was some battle Tea did.

Webstor: It sure was. I can't believe that the power of the Orichalcos is that dangerous.

Lucy Loud: I know. Lets dance shall we?

Webstor: Lets.

Lucy Loud went at Webstor and kicked him in the face and his Spinarak and Ariados fired web at Lucy and she cut it with her sword and fired blasts of black lightning and electrocuted all three of them.

Lucy Loud: Darkness loves spiders.

Battle 4: Leonard

Lori was facing Leonard.

Lori: Every time I face you Leonard, you literally provide more pork to feed for the homeless.

Leonard: (Laughs and snorts) I sure do Lori. It's good that you're using our fights to feed the poor.

Lori: Thank you. Lets dance.

Leonard: With pleasure.

Leonard sent many pigs at her and Lori went Super Angel 20,000 Hurricane Eagle and she slashed and cut a bunch of pigs all over and turned them into pork cuts and ham and more and she made over 892,000 pounds of meat for the homeless.

Lori: Sorry I have to keep killing your people like this.

Leonard: Ah it's all right. With the power of this Dark Orb I have here it'll give me unlimited pigs. Have all the pork you want.

Lori: Thanks. It's for the homeless though.

Leonard: Good and very charitable.

Battle 5: Captain Cold

Qin was facing Captain Cold.

Qin: This is my first time fighting you but it's a great honor to have one of the legendary members of the Legion of Doom be my archenemy.

Captain Cold: Why thank you. You know, Qin. Your parents might be gone but at least they loved you. My dad pretty much hated my guts.

Qin: Oh, I'm so sorry!

Captain Cold: (shrugs) It's fine. I've moved past that, to be honest.

Phineas Porpoise: Hey, get on with the fight already!

Captain Cold: (glares at Phineas Porpoise) Do you want me to freeze you to death?

Qin: He's not worth our time. Lets dance.

Qin fired a blast of fire and Captain Cold fired a blast of ice and the blasts collided and it erupted into a massive cloud of steam. Qin was sweating hard.

Qin: Whoo! That steam feels good. It's like a sauna in here.

Captain Cold: It sure does feel like it.

Qin fired a bunch of fireballs.

Captain Cold just used his Cold Gun to freeze a fireball Qin sent his way.

Captain Cold: That wasn't so hard. It's actually almost like target practice!

Qin: Glad you're amused. How about this?

Qin teleported and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into the wall.

Qin: Not too shabby.

Battle 6: Morph Moth

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Morph Moth.

Nico flew and punched Morph Moth and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over and blew him apart.

Nico: Morph Moth you have failed this world.

Troy Burrows: Yes he has.

We got Morph Moth's weapons.

---

Battle 7: Larry Raccoon

---

We regrouped and we were facing Larry Raccoon.

Me: You are a disgrace to raccoons everywhere Larry!

Laney: Yeah!

Me: Normally this would be animal cruelty, but we'll make an exception.

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the mouth and Laney bit him in the tail and he screamed in pain and Lana scratched him all over and bit his hands and the Fox Quints fired blasts of fire, earth, water, wind and lightning at him and blew him all over and burned him all over as well.

Tshibangu: Lets see how you like this! WATER STYLE NINJA ART: CONGO RIVER!

Tshibangu fired a blast of water and it had the speed of the Congo River and carried Larry Raccoon all over.

Tshibangu: And this! WOOD STYLE NINJA ART: CONGO TROPICAL RAINFORESTS!

Tshibangu touched the ground and hundreds of tropical trees popped up all over and entrapped Larry Raccoon all over.

Tshibangu: And this one. LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: LIGHTNING BLADE CUTTER EVISCERATION!

Tshibangu fired a powerful blast of lightning and it cut Larry Raccoon all over the place and electrocuted him all over.

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator called TERRORQUARTZ! It looked like a pterodactyl with two tentacles on its sides.

Ben: TERRORQUARTZ!

Me: Whoa! That's a wicked predator.

Shanan: That's a Crystaludimorphodon. It's the natural predator of the Crystalsapiens, Chromastone's species.

Nico: Wow! That is a cool one!

Nicole: It sure is. It looks like a Pterodactyl and it's amazing.

Riley: Amazing.

Julie Yamamoto: It sure is.

Terrorquart: Watch this.

He flew into the air and fired a massive sonic scream blast. It hit Larry and really hurt him. The sonic scream was so powerful that it shattered all the windows in the gym.

Me: Whoa! That is loud!

Lori: Literally loud!

Me: Time for some teamwork!

G1 Firestar: Lets do it!

Gaara: With you guys all the way.

Francis: Right!

Vortex: Yeah!

G1 Firestar used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and Gaara used the Hidden Sand Cyber Planet Key and they enhanced Firestar's Flame Pistol and Gaara's sand powers 100-fold.

Francis and Vortex used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Francis's Fire powers and Vortex's glue gun 100-fold.

G1 Firestar and Gaara: FLAMING GLASS SHRAPNEL STORM!

Firestar fired a massive blast of fire and Gaara fired a massive blast of sand.

Francis and Vortex: FLAMING ADHESIVE MEGABLAST!

Francis fired a massive blast of fire and Vortex fired a powerful wave of glue.

Elena and Galaxy Man: LIGHTNING STAR STORM BARRAGE!

Elena fired a massive blast of lightning and Galaxy Man fired a blast of lasers and black hole energy.

Adam Lyon and Luna Loud: WATER ANIMAL KINGDOM BARRAGE!

Adam Lyon and Luna Loud fired blasts of water and they formed into every animal of the animal kingdom.

Lana and Lupe: TROPICAL ICE STORM BLAST!

Lana and Lupe fired blasts of ice and they formed into a flock of Toucans.

Lola and Ingrid: FIRE GIRAFFE STAMPEDE!

Lola fire Ingrid fired a massive blast of fire and it formed into a massive stampede of giraffes.

Laney and Windsor: LEAF GORILLA FAMILY SMASH!

Laney and Windsor fired a massive wave of leaves and they formed into a huge family of gorillas.

Lynn and Slips: VOLCANIC PYTHON SLITHER!

Lynn and Slips fired a wave of lava and it formed into a group of pythons.

Luan and Jake Spider Monkey: LAUGHING LIGHT SPIDER MONKEY FAMILY!

Luan and Jake fired blasts of light and they formed into a family of Spider Monkeys.

The animals and blasts all hit Larry Raccoon all at once and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Time for some final smash power!

Adam Lyon: Right! LIONSTORM WATERSTRIKE!

Adam fired a massive blast of water and it turned into a pride of lions.

Luna Loud: Watch this dudes. WHALE WATERPOD!

Luna fired a massive blast of water and it turned into a huge pod of whales.

Olga Pataki: Lets do it! FIRE CROW MURDER!

Olga fired a massive blast of fire and it turned into a huge murder of Crows.

Pandora (GAOBAM): Watch this. DARKNESS BUTTERFLY KALEIDOSCOPE!

Pandora (GAOBAM) fired a wave of darkness and it turned into a wave of black butterflies.

Pandora (Kid Icarus): This is gonna be good. BLUE FIRE HUMMINGBIRD KALEIDOSCOPE!

Pandora (Kid Icarus) fired a massive blast of blue fire and it turned into a Kaleidoscope of Hummingbirds and the animals hit Larry Raccoon and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Larry Raccoon was knocked down and we grabbed him.

Larry: What are you going to do? Eat me?

Grim Adventures Pandora: (to Larry) Well, all that fighting did make me hungry.

Me: EW! Guys no, we're not eating Larry. I would never eat raccoons even if you dared me or paid me. No offense Sly.

Sly Cooper: None taken.

We had Larry Raccoon beamed to our newest prison: The Venus Prison for Rotten Animals. It's located below the Supermax section of the Venus Prison.

Webstor and the Masters of Evil appeared.

Webstor: Well, I guess we'll see you all at Perim along with the rest of our pals.

Maria: I guess we will.

Sarah Gunnerson: You know when we fight you guys, we're going to kill most of the M'arrillians, including Aa'une, right?

Leonard: Of course we know. I actually do hope you kill Erak'tabb since he's been snacking on our food supply when he visits us.

Eddy: (laughs) I can imagine that.

Captain Cold: There's nothing else for us to say right now. Except, I hope you guys are ready to get Chaotic when you get to Perim!

Nico: Oh, we will!

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

Adam Lyon: Thank you all for helping us get rid of Larry for good.

Me: No problem Adam. Anything for friends of Lynn.

Lynn: You got it J.D.

Nico: Well, Bull. I guess you're free to go. But you better not go back to beating people up!

Me: Or else!

I made the "I'm Watching You" and throat slash gestures.

Jake Spider Monkey: (To the viewers) It was awesome meeting Team Loud Phoenix Storm. But Bull had better be good or else shark guts will spill.

Adam Lyon: You said it Jake. (To the viewers) And never mess with the rights and love of all animals or there will be trouble.

Perim in Ultimate Peril

In the Gym we were playing Dodgeball! But the coach was nailing us really hard!

[Girl Jordan screamed and got nailed in the face by a dodgeball, and collapsed. Penelope runs by Lincoln and Clyde and gets nailed too, followed by Zach, then Andrew, then Liam.]

I was dodging all the balls.

Me: Come on my grandmother hits better than you!

I dodged the balls coming at me!

Lincoln: [To Clyde] "Man, I hate gym class." [Gets nailed]

Clyde: "And the worst part is, class hasn't even started yet."

[Gets nailed into his underwear, and winds up lying on the floor with his fellow classmates.]

Zach: "Coach, any chance we can play with the parachute today?" [Coach nails him with another dodge ball for that statement.]

Rusty: "I don't think he heard you, Zach. [Slyly] Ask him again." [Gets nailed as well]

The coach throwing the balls was none other than former Springfield Elementary Gym Teacher, Coach Krupt.

---

He is obsessed with the game Bombardment, even yelling "BOMBARDMENT" at the end of most of his sentences. Bombardment consists of Krupt hitting students with dodgeballs thrown at full force. Krupt is relentless in playing the game, even ignoring medical orders that would excuse his students from participating (and prevent him from assaulting them). Bart sneaked a peek at Krupt's calendar and saw that Krupt had Bombardment scheduled for every day, with "Double Bombardment" on Christmas Day. Krupt also plays Bombardment with bread rolls in restaurants. Krupt even brings Bombardment into academics: when the entire school got involved in preparing for the Vice President's Assessment Test, Krupt drilled his students with test questions while he drilled them with dodgeballs.

Even when he is not playing Bombardment, Krupt still conforms to the "sadistic gym teacher" stereotype and finds other things to obsess over. One day in gym class, the scheduled activity was rope climbing and it was Milhouse's turn to climb, but the rope had disappeared. Krupt told Milhouse to climb anyway, forcing him to pantomime climbing a rope.

Coach Krupt is athletic and in good physical shape, as one might expect of a gym teacher. When Bart tried to give Krupt his comeuppance by throwing an iceball at him, Krupt nimbly ducked out of the way and the iceball ended up flying out the gym window and then destroying Groundskeeper Willie's shack.

Krupt came to Springfield Elementary as a substitute for gym teacher Ms. Pommelhorst, who was taking a leave of absence to undergo sex reassignment surgery. He has a wife and two children, a boy and a girl.

Krupt also can be seen in the massive teacher brawl fighting Ms. Pummelhorst when Mike starts a fight by talking badly about Edna's fourth graders.

---

Me: Come on Coach Craphole! My grandmother throws better than you do!

Coach Krupt: Oh I can throw much better than your grandmother ever will! (Throws numerous balls) BOMBARDMENT!

I dodged a lot of them and dodged them all over doing numerous gymnastics and acrobatic moves and dodged them all over the place with incredible speed and agility.

Nico and everyone else were cheering me on.

Nico: WHOO! Way to go J.D.!

Maria: J.D. is really acrobatic.

Sarah Gunnerson: I've never seen J.D. move with such incredible grace and speed.

Lori Jimenez: J.D. is known as the great dodgeball champion. He practically owns and dominates the whole sport.

I was dodging numerous balls and I threw them back and they hit Coach Krupt with incredible speed and strength. He threw more dodgeballs at me and I dodged them and grabbed them and threw them and they smashed into Coach Krupt and hit him all over.

Maria: YEAH! Way to go J.D.!

Coach Krupt: BOMBARDMENT!

SMASH!

Coach Krupt threw a ball and it hit Maria right in the face.

Maria: OW!

Maria growled with incredible ferociousness and she wrapped the ball in barbed wire.

Maria: Bombardment this!

She threw the ball and it slammed into Coach Krupt's crotch!

WHAM! SICKENING CRUNCH!

Me: (WINCES) OOOHHH!

He screamed like a little girl and we winced.

Nico: That's gonna leave a mark!

William: Never make Maria mad.

Me: Yep.

Later we went back home.

---

At the estate, we were getting ready for an amazing battle against the M'arrillians in Perim. It was gonna be a wicked and awesome fight. We packed our weapons and we had our gear.

Sarah Gunnerson: Well, guys. Ready to go to Perim and get Chaotic?

Riku: What do you think?

Me: This is gonna be so awesome Sarah.

Nico: It sure is.

Girl Jordan: It's gonna be awesome!

Stella (Loud House): This is gonna be amazing!

Me: We're ready.

Sarah Gunnerson: Lets go.

We stood with Sarah and she activated her scanner and we all were beamed to the planet Perim and we were right in front of Kiru City. We saw the world of Perim and it was an amazing place. It was a world full of amazing things and really awesome creatures.

Me: Wow! So this is Perim.

Nico: It's amazing!

Lori Jimenez: It's just as amazing as I remember it.

Sarah Gunnerson: Just like old times.

Laney: This is so cool!

Rusty Spokes: It sure is. I didn't know all this was here.

Naruto: This is amazing!

Fu: Lady Hokage is never gonna believe all this.

Gray Fullbuster: So, this is Kiru City?

Sarah Gunnerson: It sure is. This is the capital of the Overworld. It's the home of Maxxor and he's Tom Major's signature creature.

Vince: That is amazing.

Lori Jimenez: I met Tom, Kaz and Peyton here before I went into the Unicron Wars with Optimus Prime and the Autobots.

Optimus Prime: I remember that. That's really something.

?: Sarah!

We saw Tom Majors, Kaz Kalinkas, and Peyton Touhey.

Sarah Gunnerson: Hey guys!

Sarah went over and hugged them.

Tom Majors: It's great to see you again.

Peyton: We thought we would never see you again.

Kaz: Yeah.

Lori Jimenez: Hey guys! Long time no see.

Tom Majors: Lori! It's great to see you again.

Lori Jimenez: Same to you Tom. Kaz, Peyton, you're all looking great.

Peyton: Thanks Lori.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet all three of you.

Tom Majors: Wow! J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Kaz: Wow! No Way!

Peyton: This is awesome!

Tom Majors: It's an awesome honor to meet you guys.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you all as well.

Vince: Same here.

Me: Sarah told us so much about you all and we learned about this place from our frenemies, The Masters of Evil and we heard that this whole world is in trouble because of the resurfacing of the M'arrillians.

Tom Majors: Yeah and we have to stop them for good.

Me: Your enemies have now become our enemies as well. And we will fight them and bring justice to them.

Tom Majors: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Scavenger: Hey, Tom. You think your Scanner can scan me and the others?

Sarah Gunnerson: It doesn't work that way Scavenger. It only works on creatures and locations here.

Scavenger: I get ya.

Me: Hey Peyton, you look so much like our friend Jimmy Osgood.

Peyton: I sure do huh?

Gear: Good comparison.

Kaz: Maybe we should take care of some other things as well. Like Van Bloot and his followers as well as Klay and Krystella.

Moonracer: There are bigger things happening then the Perim version of Starscream and Chaotic's resident cheaters. But when the smoke clears, we'll be dealing with those problems.

Me: That's right. We'll deal with all of them down the road. Right now our biggest priority is to destroy the M'arrillians. But we don't know anything about them. Tom, can you tell us all you can about them?

Tom Majors: I sure can.

Tom went over what he learned about the M'arrillians.

---

The M'arrilians locked the doors from inside in a well-planned retreat because they tried to conquer Perim and were defeated. Using their mind manipulation and control powers, the M'arillians erased all memory of their existance from the minds of every being on Perim and retreated to behind the Doors of the Deepmines. They closed the doors behind them and each tribe set up guards because no one tribe could trust the other. None from any tribe remembered the M'arillians but they vaguely remembered the terror and destruction they had caused and associated this with whatever was behind the Doors of the Deepmines. Members of each tribe would rotate in guard duty insuring that no one creature would have to stand the presence of each different tribe. From then on the tribes almost forgot about the doors and the mysterious threat behind them completely. All except a rare few who lived through that time and survived into these days, like Ikkatosh, a survivor from the time of Kiru.

Unfortunately for the other tribes the M'arrillians were only gathering their forces again. But stuck in the filthy water their greatest advantage had become their greatest enemy. Luckily the M'arrillians leader Aa'une the Oligarch had foreseen this problem and had frozen a fludimorpher named Phelphor in ice before the retreat. He would lay frozen until freed by an unsuspecting creature. Then Phelphor would trick that creature into opening the doors so that the M'arillians could conquer Perim again.

Years later the fluidmorpher was freed by Khybon and taken to Chaor. He tried to trick Chaor into believing that the Cothica was behind the Doors of the Deep Mines. Chaor didn't fall for it and Phelphor was instead forced to use Lord Von Bloot to open the doors. The M'arrilians were freed and they began again their revised plan to flood Perim. They found that their old bases were now dried out, changed and reoccupied. In retaliation they began brainwashing all the creatures they could find and commanded them to flood their old habitats.

The M'arrilians did this for months until they could finish building a massive laser that would be used to melt Glacier Plains and flood Perim. They nearly succeded until the other tribes formed an alliance and defeated their leader Aa'une. By using a powerful mugic the laser cannons power was neutralized and the M'arrilians went into hiding where they currently remain. all those who were once brainwashed by the M'arrilians where freed.

M'arrilians have many abilities, mind control and mind manipulation are the two most prominent. Nearly all M'arrillians also have the element of water in their control. A few also posses the Fire element. The only flaw they have is that they are unable to use mugic though this has been retconned out with newer card sets.

M'arrillians have their own unique Mugic and attacks. Every one has different brainwashing tactics and abilities. When at full power every M'arrillian's abilities increases hence why Sarah's recently scanned Phelphor easily coded Tom's creature.

After Aa'une was defeated, the M'arrillians ran off. In Secret of the Lost City, the M'arrilians reappear after season 2 but only breifly.

Hierarchy

Their leader is Aa'une the Oligarch.

Each of M'arrillians are ranked differently accordingly to tradition and are ranked as:

Chieftains: Leader class warriors that control an area.

Kha'rall: Crustacean-like class warriors that use crystal shards as a power source. It is currently unknown what the full connection is between them and these shards. Though some are smiths that form the shards like Battlegear experts.

Fluidmorphers: The Mugicians of the M'arrillians. They can change their shape.

The M'arrillians also have Coral Fighters as their foot soldiers.

Strategy

M'arrillians can be quite adaptable due to their large array of minions and their ablities. But M'arrillians also have a central set of strategies of their own. Chieftains have one disipline that is quite high while the others are quite balanced. They often use stat-checks to deal extra damage. Fluidmorphers, as the mugical experts of the tribe, gain mugicians every time a creature uses a water attack. They then use those extra mugicans to activate speical abilities. Kha'rall have several element proof abilities and intimidate, but they do tend to be slow. They when equipped with Kha'rall shard battlegear, they gain elemental boosts, large energy boosts and defender. M'arrilians focus on control and destroying opponents with lower disiplines, usually when a disipline reaches 0. They also compensate for their lack of casting mugic by sacrificing mugics to activate abilities.

We gasped!

Me: So the M'arrillians pose a huge threat to every living creature in all of Perim because of their incredible psychic powers and dark agenda.

Tom Majors: That's right.

Mewtwo: They have incredible psychic powers like me.

Me: It would appear so.

Nico: This is bad.

Me: But luckily our powers make us immune to Psychic control. Because we have the powers of the Gods protecting us.

Peyton: That's amazing.

Me: Yep. Now we have to make sure that the M'arrillians never threaten this world again.

Tom Majors: Our priority is to take out their leader Aa'une the Oligarch. He's the supreme leader of the M'arrillians.

Tom went over his history.

---

Aa'une the Oligarch was the leader of the M'arillians he was the most powerful creature known to Perim.

Later the great Aa'une was defeated when Maxxor, Iparu and Chaor negate the mind control the M'arrillians placed on the other creatures. Right now, many in his tribe are looking for the top spot sparking a civil war in the M'arrillians. Even though Aa'une is defeated, his minions (Milla'iin, Xis'torq, Erak'tabb, Lam'inkal, Phelphor, Ihun'Kalin, Rath'Tab, Ritzu'dag, etc.) are still out there somewhere in Perim.

He appeared in episode 23 when he telepathically asked Phelphor about the operation and if Chaor left Underworld city to begin their surprise attack on the Underworlders. In episode 25, Maxxor teleports him to Lake Blakeer (where the M'arrillians' mind-control abilities are negated). In episode 26, Maxxor and Chaor did leave him on Lake Blakeer and discover that Aa'une becames indestructible in the lake. In episode 27, Maxxor, Chaor and Iparu are defeating Aa'une when he assumes his true form: a multi-headed, monstrous sea creature version of himself. Iparu copies his form and Maxxor, Chaor and Iparu (in the form of Aa'une) attack with positive attacks pushing him into Lake Blakeer (which is charged of negative energy doing a explosion which defeats Aa'une). In this episode was revealed that all the M'arrillans powers are from Aa'une. When he was defeated, they stay without power and the other tribes are ready to defeat them.

Some people don't realize but Aa'une in the show is different from the card with regards to the face; in the show, he has a more humanoid face. In the card (you can see the difference on the card Crown of Aa'une), he has a demonic face and claws.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: He's that powerful!?

Sarah Gunnerson: Yeah and he wants to destroy all the tribes in Perim.

Me: He's pure evil! We're not gonna let him.

Nico: No we won't.

Vince: That's right.

Tom Majors: We'll take you all to Maxxor so we can get ready for the attack.

Me: Okay.

We went to the castle of Maxxor and we stood before the mighty hero of Perim: Maxxor.

Maxxor: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to have you all here.

Me: It's an honor to meet you Maxxor.

Maxxor: Same to you. Have you all come to face the M'arrillians?

Me: Yes we have and we're gonna make them pay by blowing them all to smithereens.

Maxxor: Thank you all. The Tribal Alliance is gonna help you and support you all every step of the way.

Me: We appreciate that. And I have a token of our alliance for you.

I snapped my fingers and in a flash of light came the fallen hero of Perim, Tangath Toborn!

Tangath Toborn: I'm back? But how?

Tom Majors: Tangath!

Tangath Toborn: Young Tom Majors. It's good to see you again.

Me: I am the one that brought you back Tangath.

Tangath Toborn: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you. We heard about how you sacrificed yourself and saved Perim.

Tangath Toborn: Yes. I am glad that you brought me back.

Me: And for a good reason too. The M'arrillians have returned and we have come to help you all destroy them once and for all.

Tangath Toborn: I see.

Maxxor: Tangath, it's good to have you back my friend.

Tangath Toborn: Same here Maxxor. It's good to be home.

We got all the tribes together and formed the Tribal Alliance.

Maxxor (to the Tribal Alliance): I know that it's been a while since we formed this alliance. But the time for fighting is over. Our true enemy, the M'arrillians, are back. And they won't be stopped unless we unite as one. No matter what Tribe you're from, all of you are welcome here. As long as you don't abuse this hospitality. For the rest of the day, we prepare for the battle ahead. Tomorrow morning, we go to the City of M'arr to defeat Aa'une and most of the M'arrillians, if not all of them.

Me: Maxxor, you have the support of me and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we will make every single one of the M'arrillium's pay with their lives for terrorizing all of Perim.

Maxxor: We appreciate that J.D.

We shook hands.

Me: Lets take this time to rest. For tomorrow at dawn, we go to war!

We cheered and got ready for tomorrow.

Nico and May were looking out at the stars and it was romantic.

May just handed Nico a paopu fruit to him while having another in her hand.

May: I believe this is how paopu fruits are supposed to be shared.

Nico: Why are you handing me this?

May: Tomorrow's fight will be our toughest yet. I want to be a part of your life no matter what. That's all.

Nico: May, I'll keep you safe.

May: No. Let me keep you safe.

So adorable.

They bit one and it was romantic.

We were ready for anything. I meditated and made my powers stronger through thought and might.

---

Later at dawn the following morning, we were riding on to the City of M'arr for war!

Me: This is it guys. Once we enter the city of M'arr, there's no turning back.

Nico: Yep.

Tom Majors: This is gonna be rough.

Vince: Big time.

Maxxor: We're ready for him.

Chaor: This is gonna be awesome!

Laney: The M'arrillians will pay for their crimes.

Lana: You bet their will.

We have arrived at the CITY OF M'ARR!

Me: Target sighted.

Nico: It's overflowing with psychic energy.

Private began to feel strange and then he was being controlled by the M'arrillion's! The mind-controlled Private tried to lunge at Kowalski but Rico knocked him back by upchucking a baseball from his gut at him.

Skipper: Private, I don't know what's gotten into you, Soldier. But if you don't stand down, the next thing coming out of Rico's gut won't be a baseball!

Me: It's the M'arrillians. They have incredible psychic energy.

Nico put anti-mind-control headbands on the penguins.

Nico: There.

Me: Lets get them! Fire!

Dark Spicer: That's right. Also I have new aliens to show you.

Dark Spicer turned into a mutant version of Fasttrack. He was green and he had spikes coming out of his head and he had blades in his arm.

Darkspeed: Meet Darkspeed!

Shanan: A mutant Citrakayah. Interesting.

Sarah Gunnerson: That is amazing!

Darkspeed: Thank you.

Demona: Another speed alien?

Darkspeed: Got that right!

Darkspeed runs at Demona and raises his foot for a kick. He punches Demona into the air before taking a runner's stance. Darkspeed begins moving so fast that everything around him slows to a crawl. Darkspeed then runs around Perim at near-light speeds to generate momentum before returning to the battlefield, about to punch Demona. Flash zoomed in front of Demona, stopped the punch, and kicked down Darkspeed.

Me: Nice try though Dark Spicer. But not even a mutant Citrakayah is no match for the fastest man alive.

Dark Spicer: I'm not done yet.

He turned into a version of ChamAlien and he was red and he had a 10 color eye plate, 4 legs and he had spines on his tail.

Nosight: I call this alien form… Nosight!

Shanan: A mutant Merlinisapien.

Randy: Looks kinda like me.

Nosight: Watch this. Now you see me… (turns invisible) Now you don't!

While invisible, Nosight headbutts Cheetah in the face, knocking her down. He then puts a Kick Me sign on my back before kicking me there.

Me: Ow! Very funny!

I turned on my infrared vision and I saw him and kicked him in the face.

Me: Good move getting the drop on me though.

Dark Spicer: (Groans) Thanks.

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was SLATE from episodes 24 and 25 of S.P.D.!

---

Slate is a copycat Shapeshifting criminal that can mimic any monsters form with DNA aquired from Broodwing. Slate mimics Rhinix, Bugglesworth, Hydrax, Tomars, Sinuku, and Devastation. He also has his own giant robot, which is destroyed by the Delta Squad Megazord and he is found guilty of identity theft along with other crimes thanks to the judgment scanner. Morgana uses her power to clone Slate into the six past monsters he was mimicking. With the help of Morgana, the monster squad takes down the Rangers. That is until the Red Ranger calls upon the S.P.D. Battlizer and contains Slate by destroying all of his clones.

---

Z Delgado: Slate!

Slate: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were a deadly shapeshifter that took on the forms of Rhinix, Bugglesworth, Hydrax, Tomars, Sinuko and Devastation and you became a giant robot and destroyed the entire Delta Squad Megazord.

Slate: That's right. You watched us on TV didn't you?

Me: Like I told a lot of the rangers enemies, never missed an episode. But that was beyond a shadow of a doubt, the fiercest of all the episodes in S.P.D.

Slate: It was. But it was a cool one.

Z Delgado: (to Slate) This is the part where you turn into a monster our team has faced, right?

Slate: Nope! This time, I'm turning into stronger monsters! Good thing I still have that upgrade Morgana gave me!

Slate then turned into clones of QUEEN BANSHEERA - the Mortal Enemy of the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers, RANSIK - the Mortal Enemy of the Time Force Rangers, MASTER ORG - the Mortal Enemy of the Wild Force Rangers, LOTHOR - the Mortal Enemy of the Ninja Storm Rangers, MESOGOG - the Mortal Enemy of the Dino Thunder Rangers, and EMPEROR GRUUMM - The Mortal Enemy of the S.P.D. Rangers!

Queen Bansheera

Queen Bansheera (simply known as Bansheera) is the Queen of Demons and the main antagonist of Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue and the archenemy of Carter Grayson, the Red Lightspeed Rescue Ranger.

She was voiced by Diane Salinger.

Queen Bansheera is the evil matriarch of the Demons and mother of Impus/Prince Olympius. She was in parts unknown when Diabolico and his band were freed, and later returned and gave orders in a spiritual form at the beginning of the series. Bansheera eventually returned in a mangled bodily form after an attempt by Spellbinder to bring her into the human world due to the Lightspeed Rangers tampering. She eventually gained a ghastly final form by absorbing Vypra's life energy.

Bansheera set out to conquer the world, and proved far more ruthless than Diabolico or Olympius. Bansheera also had no regard for her minions (even her own son) and used them for her own gain. She absorbed Vypra to regain her original form, forced Diabolico to destroy Loki, left her own son in the Shadow World, and nearly destroyed the Rangers. Despite Diabolico telling the Red Lightspeed to strike where her heart should be, she continued to menace the Rangers. She eventually turned Diabolico and Olympius into Super Demons, but they were defeated.

She attempted to open the gateway to the Shadow World to unleash all of its fallen monsters. Taking over the Aquabase and the Omega Megazord, she was close to succeeding. However, Bansheera ended up suspended above the Demon World portal by Carter Grayson. The spirit of a vengeful Diabolico appeared, pulling her inside, where she was attacked by the undead monsters, much to Diabolico's satisfaction as he witnesses the downfall of his former queen.

Ransik

Ransik is the main antagonist of Power Rangers Time Force and a supporting character of Power Rangers Wild Force. He is the (former) archenemy of Jen Scotts the Pink Time Force Ranger.

He was portrayed by Vernon Wells, who also played Bennett in Commando, Wez in Mad Max 2, and Mr. Igoe in Innerspace.

Ransik was created by the very people he seeks to destroy. In the future, children are born in labs, with traits designated by their parents. Ransik is a product of this tampering, born from an accident in a lab: During one of the required genetic enhancement sessions, one of the vials containing embryonic biomass unexpectedly fell and shattered, spilling the contents into a drain where the staff believed that the biomass would die out due to exposure to the outside world.

However, instead of dissolving, the sewer environment around the said spilled biomass unexpectedly caused it to mutate, and from the amalgamation of toxic waste and mutated biomass, a full-grown adult man was born. Possibly due to inherited memories of his parents' DNA donor, the creature, whom named himself Ransik, developed intelligence equivalent with that of full-grown man, but was forced to raise himself in the underground, rejected from society. As the first mutant, he organized factions of other mutants to take the world away from those who fear and hate his kind. He was also presumably married to a female mutant where from their union, Nadira was born. Who Ransik's wife and Nadira's mother was is never revealed in the series.

While roaming the dark parts of the city, he found three statues which were actually imprisoned Orgs. Since they had the same goal as him, to destroy humanity, Ransik set them free. The Org spirits copied his DNA and created bodies for themselves, making them Mut-Orgs. In exchange for freeing them, the Mutorgs gave Ransik the power to pull weapons from his body.

At one point before he organized factions of evil mutants, Ransik was bitten by the poisonous mutant known as Venomark. Alone and dying, Ransik was taken in by Dr. Fericks, who developed a serum which Ransik would need to take for life. Ransik turned on Dr. Fericks, stealing the serum and his Cyclobot technology, and laying waste to the lab. Dr. Fericks actually survived the explosion, and became Frax. It should be noted that it's not just Ferricks who felt pity on the mutant, as Jen stated many people tried to help him in spite of the mere sight of his hideous look which would terrify anyone who saw him, but Ransik was too consumed by hatred that reaching him was extremely difficult causing him to deny any help from humans.

From there on he carried out his plan to conquer the world and wipe out humanity. But due to Time Force stopping his evil plans, he resorts to traveling back in time with his army to conquer the world in the past, only for the Rangers to follow him.

In 2001, In what would be his last battle against the Power Rangers, Ransik injured Nadira, mistaking her for the Pink Ranger. Upon discovering this, Ransik was horrified at what he did and he realized that his hatred of humans had to end, because it only causes more suffering. He then turned himself over to Time Force.

Wild Force

A year after incarceration, Ransik was called on by Time Force to aid them against a new threat - the Mut-Orgs due to the history between himself and them. He agreed to help the Rangers, and travelled to the year 2002, where the Mut-Orgs went to ally themselves with Master Org. Before they started to hunt the Mut-Orgs, Ransik tells all the Rangers his story about how he unleashed them in the future, and revealed that the Mut-Orgs bestowed him powers to turn any part of his body into a weapon. He also reveals that he's already seen the error of his ways, especially the Mut-Orgs' existence. Just as the Mut-Orgs powered up their Spirit Bomb attack, Ransik, who was determined to fix his mistake, threw himself on them, causing an explosion which destroyed their mutant halves, allowing the Rangers to defeat them. The explosion nearly killed Ransik, but it also destroyed his mutant half, making him wholly human.

Master Org

The Master Org is a title that belonged to the most powerful Org and the said Org serves as the main antagonist in Power Rangers: Wild Force. The most major of Master Org in the series is Viktor Adler, Master Org's doppelganger who later merged with Ancient Master Org who was reincarnated from his body, merging into a single entity.

He was portrayed by Ilia Volok.

The original Supreme Org. Master Org successfully led his Orgs in the battle against the ancient kingdom of Animaria 3000 years ago. Although managing to destroy the kingdom and defeated the great Animus. The Master Org was then destroyed by Merrick Baliton, the guardian of Princess Shayla, with usage of the Predazord and a cursed wolf mask at the cost of him being imprisoned due to becoming the host of Zen-Aku, wolf-themed Duke Org that was sealed within the said mask. The Predazord extracted vengeance on the Master, destroying him. The Master Org's remains would wind up in the Amazon rain forest until being discovered by Dr. Viktor Adler in 1982, turning him into the modern-day Master Org.

Second Master Org

After the Ancient Master Org's demise, no surviving Orgs gained that title until several thousand years later, where that title unofficially taken by Dr. Viktor Adler. At that time, Dr. Adler and his allies Richard and Elizabeth Evans discovered the Ancient Master Org's surviving essences in the form of seeds while on an expedition to prove the existence of the Animarium to the public. Driven toward jealousy by Richard Evans, Adler ate the seeds and became the new Master Org. He chased Richard and Elizabeth and killed them. He never did find their baby, Cole. Elizabeth had hidden him in the jungle, where he was found by a tribe. Viktor Adler later assumed the identity of Master Org, and continued his mission of wiping out humanity and taking over Earth by recruiting newly arisen Org spirits to battle the Rangers. For the majority of the series, he wore a helmet that harnessed a fake horn to hide his true identity. He was aided by Duke Orgs Toxica and Jindrax that previously worked for the Ancient Master Org as well, until he was exposed as a fraud and killed by Mandilok.

Unofficial Third Master Org

Mandilok is the Org General who later claimed the title of Master Org. She was freed by Jindrax and Toxica to replace Viktor Adler after they found out he was just a human with Org powers. She got rid of Master Org and took command, but proved to be the worst Master Org who treated the two Duke Orgs terribly. Her rule eventually ended through the reincarnated Master Org's machinations with aid of the Ninja Duke Org Onikage as punishment.

Lothor

Kiya Watanabe, better known as Lothor, is a major antagonist in the Power Rangers franchise and the main antagonist of Power Rangers: Ninja Storm. He also serves as a minor antagonist in Power Rangers Dino Thunder. He is the former brother and uncle and archenemy of both Sensei Kanoi and Cameron "Cam" Watanabe the Green Samurai Ranger.

He was portrayed by the late Grant McFarland.

Lothor is an exiled evil ninja master. At the beginning of Ninja Storm, he arrives on Earth with an army of evil space ninjas (space aliens trained in the dark ninja arts) that he has gathered in space and led them to conquer other planets, intending to conquer the planet and destroy all the protecting ninja academies with their ninja masters, allowing him to become the ultimate evil ninja master and ruler of the universe.

His minions at this point include Zurgane, Choobo, and his nieces, Marah and Kapri. Later, he would be joined by Vexacus, Motodrone and Shimazu. His foot soldiers were creatures called Kalzaks.

Lothor was particularly vexing because of the natures he varied between; while always evil, he could go in one episode from seeming like as big a goofball as any group of Power Rangers ever faced, right over to shades of the most sinister and violent ones. He could go from being a dignified and dangerous dark warrior to a vulgar wise-cracker, even breaking the Fourth Wall on more than a few occasions. He treated his hench-crew shabbily, whether they won or lost, yet seemed to have their every loyalty. He was extremely powerful in hand to hand combat, yet could often be turned back by simple methods applied forcefully at the right time.

Returning to Earth after a long exile in space, Lothor attacked the Wind and Thunder ninja academies and placed all their students in containment orbs. Three Wind Ninja cadets were made late by aiding someone in need, and found their school in ruins. Their sensei, Kanoi Watanabe, had survived the attack but been stuck in the form of a furry rodent. Despite the doubts of his son, Cameron Watanabe, Sensei made the three into Power Rangers, charged with protecting the world from Lothor and defeating him. While not the three best cadets, the Rangers rose to the challenge, despite many schemes and tricks from Lothor and his crew. They met their first great challenge when Lothor managed to deceive two Power Rangers from the Thunder Academy into believing Sensei had destroyed their school, and before that, their parents. Overwhelming the Wind Rangers at first, the two brothers were ultimately shown that they were very much on the wrong side. It would take another battle and deception by Lothor before they joined the Rangers on a regular basis.

Lothor's schemes, like his personality, ran the gamut from goofy to horrific, doing things as silly as having his own hypnotic TV sitcom to insects that delivered disfiguring (though able to be undone) sores through stinging. Possibly this variance contributed to the Rangers falling for a scheme which sealed away their powers, requiring a greater power to unseal them, which seemed unavailable. Seeking to aid them, not to mention frustrated by his role as 'Water-Boy' for the Rangers' technology needs, Cam Watanabe began a quest that sent him back in time to when his father and late mother were students at the Wind Ninja Academy. He was greatly surprised to see that his always-serene father was once a hothead, but he was shocked to learn that his father had a twin brother, Kiya - a man Cam had never heard about or even recalled being mentioned. Despite Kanoi's initial suspicions and Kiya's scheming, Cam befriended his mother, the first female cadet in Wind Academy history, and holder of a powerful amulet. For his efforts to steal this amulet and blame another - Cam - for the theft, Kiya was banished to outer space, despite Cam's pleas that he be destroyed. For now Cam realized - the uncle he had never known was in fact Lothor himself.

In his banishment sequence, Kiya seemed to morph into Lothor briefly, and mentioned an ancient evil warrior also named Lothor, whose mantle he would now seek. This 'elder Lothor' was never mentioned again, and no other information about him exists. Starting in this episode, Lothor would openly refer to the Watanabes as his relatives. No in-story reason existed as to why he didn't do this before. Back in the present, Cam, now the Green Samurai Ranger, was informed by his father that, once Kiya betrayed and disgraced his clan, part of his exile meant that Kanoi in effect had no brother, so Cam had no Uncle. The Rangers' powers were unsealed, and for a time, the team had less and less trouble destroying Lothor's monsters and stopping his schemes.

A series of schemes and counter-schemes by Lothor's hench-crew among and against each other amped things up, though. While such a mutiny and civil war among the villains would seem to benefit the Rangers, in fact it made the whole situation more dangerous and unpredictable, with even the stooge-like Marah and Kapri now among the best back-stabbers. Finally, all the monsters, even to Lothor himself, were destroyed by the Rangers.

Sadly, this tied right into Lothor's master plan. Blue Bay Harbor, the location for the series, was home to the Abyss Of Evil, an afterlife of sorts for villains, and as each monster and general was destroyed, it was sent there, until the bursting-full abyss was overloaded by Lothor's defeat. Facing an army of hundreds, the Rangers attempted to rescue both Cam, captured by the villains, and the Wind Academy Ninjas trapped at series' start. While this was successful, one by one, the Rangers had their powers stripped from them by Cam's amulet, taken by Lothor. Worse still, with the Abyss opened, every monster defeated came right back. Though badly outmatched, the three original Wind Rangers positioned Lothor in front of the Abyss, and unleashed their remaining Ninja skills against him all at once, knocking him back into the Abyss, which caused a reverse overload and sealed it. With their fellow cadets restored and Sensei back in human form, Cam and the Wind Rangers became instructors at the Wind Academy, where their students included the reformed Marah and Kapri, who had proven so good at being evil, Lothor abandoned them-causing them to suddenly rethink their position. With the abyss sealed, the generals and monsters, when defeated, stayed defeated. However, the cost had been the Rangers' powers, taken down with Lothor contained in Cam's stolen gem.

Lothor's name was mentioned by Mesogog when that villain first invaded the neighboring town of Reefside, and not in a positive light. Almost one year after Lothor's defeat, excavation in the area plus Lothor's own efforts led to his escape from the Abyss ; he immediately captured his brother and, disguised as him, duped and corrupted the former Wind Rangers, sending them on a rampage. While the Dino Thunder Rangers attempted to stop them and Cam and the former Thunder Rangers entered the Abyss to regain their powers from the lost amulet, Mesogog's servant Elsa approached Lothor, proposing an alliance. Fraught with treachery from the start, the alliance dissolved entirely when the brainwashed Rangers were cured, and Sensei Watanabe freed by Marah and Kapri, who lied to their uncle and said they had only pretended to be good. The villains' combined forces were no match for the two teams of eleven rangers, and at Mesogog's lair, the two villains went to war with each other. Gaining the advantage, Mesogog reduced Lothor in size and placed him in a stasis container, now looking very much like an action figure to be added to his collection. Since no one else knew of Lothor's fate, it is widely presumed that he was destroyed along with the rest of Mesogog's lab only a few weeks later. Sensei Watanabe never mentioned sensing his lost brother's fate.

In an alternate reality, the blue Ninja Ranger Tori Hanson met an alternate and gentle Lothor who is the Mayor of Blue Bay Harbor. At first, Mayor Lothor did not wish to help Tori fight the 5 Evil Ninja Rangers of this universe who are nothing like her 5 benevolent best friends from her universe. When Tori was getting beaten by them, Mayor Lothor arrived with his group as well as some Kelzaks where they managed to defeat the evil Ninja Rangers at last.

Mesogog

Mesogog (real name: Anton Mercer) is a dinosaur-human hybrid and the main antagonist of Power Rangers: Dino Thunder.

He was voiced by Latham Gaines.

Mesogog was created from a groundbreaking experiment Dr. Anton Mercer had been performing with dinosaur DNA. However, this accidentally transformed him into the monstrous megalomaniac, Mesogog, who sought to send Earth back into the age of dinosaurs with all humans transformed into reptilian hybrids like himself. They continued from then on to shift between Mercer and Mesogog in a Jekyll and Hyde relationship with each aware of the other, but having two distinct personalities.

The dinosaur hybrid recruited Elsa and a cyborg warrior named Zeltrax, whom he created from the remains of Terrence "Smitty" Smith, a former associate of Tommy Oliver's, to aid him in his attempts to conquer the world. Mesogog also utilized an army of creatures called Tyrannodrones, dinosaur based humanoids that Mercer and Tommy had created. He then set up his lab/base, which was full of genetic samples that he could use to create monsters, and was ready to put his plans in action. But Mesogog plans were interrupted when Tommy managed to steal the three Dino Gems and use them to create the Dino Thunder Power Rangers.

Mesogog began sending his monsters against them, only to be bested again and again. However things began to sway in the dinosaur hybrid's favor when Mercer's son, Trent, found his lab and the White Dino Gem that Mesogog had in his possession. It transformed him into the White Dino Ranger, who fought against the rangers but was disloyal to Mesogog until Trent found out that he was also Mercer. The White Ranger joined his side, but Zeltrax convinced the dinosaur hybrid that Trent was a traitor, so Mesogog hooked him up to a machine that would drain his life energy. However Mercer regained control of their body and freed Trent before it could take all his life energy and told him to fight alongside the other Power Rangers.

Later, Mesogog joined forces with the returned Lothor, who had turned the Wind Ninja Power Rangers evil. But he regarded Lothor as an idiot and did not trust him completely, planning to get rid of him as soon as the other rangers were destroyed. However, the Dino Thunder Rangers, the Thunder Ninja Rangers, and the Green Samurai Ranger turned the Wind Ninja Rangers good again and defeated Lothor and Mesogog's forces. Mesogog and Lothor fought with the dinosaur hybrid emerging the victor, shrinking the evil ninja lord and putting him in one of the jars where he kept genetic samples for monsters. Some time after this, the dinosaur hybrid succeeded in using a formula that separated him from Mercer, increasing his mental instability and determination to see his plans succeed.

Mesogog rid himself of Elsa, needing her energy to power a cannon he was using in his plans, but the rangers used a bit of trickery with the Dino Gems to destroy the cannon and Mesogog's base. However the dinosaur hybrid was able to survive and reappeared after the rangers' defeated Zeltrax, using energy he has absorbed from the gems to mutate into the Mesomonster. He took on the Rangers, proving nearly invincible and even split into four copies of himself, but the Rangers used all the energy in the Dino Gems to destroy the Mesomonster.

Emperor Gruumm

Emperor Gruumm is the figurehead leader of the Troobian Empire and the main antagonist of Power Rangers SPD. He is the sworn enemy of The SPD Shadow Ranger, Commander Anibus "Doggie" Cruger.

In the series, he was portrayed by Rene Naufahu.

Gruumm led the Troobian Empire in many of its conquests, overwhelming each planet with large-scale assaults and then draining it of its resources.

However, his most notable conquest was the planet, Sirius, where he faced off against the first incarnation of S.P.D. Gruumm personally battled Anubis Cruger, who cut off one of his horns, causing him to develop a grudge against Cruger.

In the year 2025, he began his attempts to take over Earth and succeeded in turning the S.P.D. A-Squad Rangers to his side.

Gruumm first sent a Blue-Head Krybot to obtain a Proton Accelerator, but this failed due to interference by S.P.D. He continued to launch assaults on the Earth, aided by Mora, a young girl who could create monsters from drawings, and Broodwing, an alien weapons dealer, who provided him with Krybots, weapons, and giant robots. Gruumm later transformed Mora back into her true self, Morgana, when she had failed him too many times. He eventually decided to go to Earth himself and challenged Anubis to battle in order to settle the rivalry they started on Sirius.

The B-Squad battled Gruumm, only to be unable to match his combat skills and motorbike and later Supreme Commander Birdie Fowler faced him after he had discharged Cruger. The emperor easily beat him as well until Cruger arrived, morphed into the Shadow Ranger and managed to drive him off. Later, Gruumm became tired of paying Broodwing for weapons and robots that kept failing anyways and forced him to provide his services for free. However this made Broodwing set out to conquer the Earth first as a form of payback. Some time after this, Gruumm used a wormhole to go to the past to take over the Earth before S.P.D. ever existed and recruited Zeltrax in helping him take over. But, even their combined forces were unable to match the combined forces of the S.P.D. Rangers and the Dino Thunder Rangers and though Gruumm planned to stay in the past, he headed back to 2025, when Mora reminded him that he would have to re-conquer all of the planets that he had taken control of in the future. As time went by, it became clear that Gruumm had been working on a long-term plan since he had not been employing his usual strategy. He hadn't been working to leech from and destroy Earth and had instead stealing natural resources from the planet such as diamonds, gold, Iridium and Hemotech Synthetic Plasma. Gruumm planned to use these items to construct a body for the being, Omni, who was the true leader of the Troobian Empire. Later, when Omni launched his final assault on Earth, Cruger, who had been captured, escaped his cell on Gruumm's ship and the two engaged each other. However, after Omni's defeat, the ship was destroyed as well, though both Cruger and the Emperor survived. Gruumm challenged his nemesis in one final battle, only to lose and have his other horn cut off before being imprisoned.

Another Awesome fanfic complete and the first Chaotic Chapter done!

Chaotic was an awesome show that I've known in the final days of my school days. It's awesome! It aired on TV from October 7, 2006 - March 13, 2010 and it's an absolute shame that no more episodes aren't coming on. What a rip! NicoChan11 got me back into it and I use the artworks on the cards for some of my submissions. It's amazing. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an Original Chapter me and Nico are doing where we go after Hans Rotwood and Morton for locking up the Masters of Evil. Rotwood and Morton are gonna use the Transformers Crossbones and Lockdown to hunt down the Masters of Evil and hunt them down. Get ready for a huge rescue mission for our Frenemies.

See you all tomorrow.

Conspiracy of Rotwood and Morton

As we were walking down the street, we were enjoying the sights and sounds of the city. We were enjoying the splendor of the city. With us was another one of Hunter's friends, Kanaloa Ikaia, a Native Hawaiian girl born in Honolulu in April 5th, 1999 AD, she has long brunette hair tied in a ponytail, heart shape face, emerald green eyes, roman nose, square ear, straight eyebrows, and smooth tan skin. Wears a green shirt with a Hawaiian Archipelago symbol on the back of her shirt, blue shorts with a red belt, red sandals, and a beautiful pink and red flower on her left ear. Her powers are Wood, Forest, Earth, Volcano, Water, Ocean, and Wind Release.

Me: It's so awesome to have you with us Kanaloa.

Kanaloa: (Hawaiian Accent) It's an honor to be here. Hunter has told me so much about you all.

Varie: We get that a lot.

Nico: We sure do.

Kanaloa: It's really amazing at what you all do.

But then we saw a car fly by!

Me: I got this.

I ran around the corner to see a shadow of a vehicle turning into a humanoid shape. I followed it only to see Firefly.

Firefly: Sup, J.D. Fancy seeing you here.

Me: (the rest of us catch up to me) Guys, get ready!

But then we heard laughter and see a laughing Brad Morton and Hans Rotwood coming out from behind Firefly.

Hans Rotwood: (laughing) The looks on your faces! Priceless!

We then see that Firefly was handcuffed as Morton removed his helmet.

Skywarp: (amazed) Rotwood. Morton. You captured Firefly.

Thundercracker: (also amazed) And all by yourselves.

Flash Man: I can't believe what I'm seeing right now.

Jake Long: Nice work. How did you two do it?

Firefly: I'm actually impressed myself. You should've seen how they-

Brad Morton: (tapes Firefly's mouth shut) Zip it, dirtbag!

Dive Man: That's odd. I didn't think you'd cut someone off when they're prasing you two.

Me: Yeah.

We then went inside the Gotham Royal York Police Station to drop Firefly in a holding cell and saw that Bane and Dark Spicer's Houndoom were in cells as well.

Jake Long: You captured Bane and Dark Spicer's Houndoom as well?

Argent: You've gotta be kidding me.

Nico: (In his head) Something is funny here.

Hans Rotwood: It's no joke, we assure you. But the Houndoom was easy to catch. All we had to do was put a muzzle on it.

Brad Morton: (gestures to Bane) Bane, on the other hand, proved a little more difficult to take down.

Me: I can tell.

Razorclaw: You two want to tell us exactly how you managed to take Firefly down? Because we didn't exactly hear a fight.

Jake Long: And how about you take off those gags? They look a little uncomfortable wearing them.

Hans Rotwood: I don't believe how we took these scoundrels down concerns any of you. You have your ways of doing things. And me and Mr. Morton have ours.

Brad Morton: And FYI, Long, you guys treating these assholes like human beings was probably how they excaped your space prisons in the first place. So don't tell us how to do our jobs! (he and Rotwood storm off)

Me: I guess that was his way of saying "Mind your Own Fucking Business."

Nico: Yep.

Me: They're not telling us everything.

Skywarp: That's the understatement of the century.

Grimlock: Me Grimlock agree. Him Rotwood and him Morton suspicious.

Me: There's something else. Earlier, I saw a vehicle turn into another Cybertronian.

Nico: Really? Do you know which one?

Me: No I couldn't tell which one it was.

Skywarp: Something is very fishy. Thundercracker we had better go check it out.

Thundercracker: Don't have to tell me twice.

Skywarp: I think Megatron is back.

Thundercracker: I don't think so. But tell me what's up.

Skywarp whispered to him.

Skywarp was talking to Thundercracker about what you told him.

Thundercracker: Are you saying that a Dark Orb brought Megatron back from the grave? And now, he's capturing members of the Masters of Evil and letting Rotwood and Morton take all the credit?

Skywarp: I know it sounds crazy.

Thundercracker: Even Morton and Rotwood aren't that low?

Morton: How low?

Skywarp and Thundercracker saw Morton and Rotwood walk in the room.

Rotwood: Care to explain what you two are talking about?

Skywarp: Last night, when you guys captured Firefly, did you see Megatron?

Rotwood: (laughs) Megatron? Isn't he in the River of Fire?

Morton: Anyway, the two of us are going out. Don't wait up. (he and Rotwood leave)

Nico: Better go follow him just in case.

Thundercracker: Got it boss.

Rotwood was driving his car with Morton in the passenger's seat. Skywarp and Thundercracker were in their jet modes following them. But when they followed Rotwood and Morton around a corner, they disappeared.

Thundercracker: Ok, stealth isn't exactly Rotwood and Morton's strong suit.

Skywarp: So, what now?

Thundercracker: No point wandering here all night. Let's go back to the others.

They went back to us. Back at the estate, we were in the living room talking.

Me: Guys something is very fishy here. Morton and Rotwood couldn't have possibly captured Bane and Firefly that easily. They have to be up to something.

Lincoln: I agree.

The doorbell rang.

Skywarp: I got it.

Thundercracker: Same.

Skywarp and Thundercracker went to the door.

Police Officer: Skywarp. Thundercracker. Rotwood wants you two to meet him and Morton near the holding cells.

Thundercracker: Since when do we report to those two?

Police Officer: I don't know. But please come down.

Skywarp: Okay.

Me: We'll go with them.

When we got there we got an unexpected shock!

All of us were shocked to see that Rotwood and Morton had captured Carly, who looked beaten up and was handcuffed with a gag on her mouth.

Yusei: Carly?!

Jack Atlas: (snarls at Rotwood and Morton) Hold me back, Yusei!

Yusei grabbed Jack.

Jake Long: You two couldn't have waited until morning to gloat?

Rotwood: (smirks) Why, Mr. Long. Don't tell me you're getting jealous.

Jake Long: Why the Hell would I be jealous of you two?

Morton: (laughs) Well, maybe because we've captured members of the Masters of Evil in just a few days, which is something you and your friends haven't come close to doing. I'm surprised that Rose even sees you as her boyfriend and that the rest of your buddies are even seen as heroes at all.

Rose: SHUT UP OR I'LL SLASH YOUR THROAT!

Skywarp was getting suspicious.

Skywarp: I'm finding it unlikely that you two have been taking down bad guys by yourselves when it's taken all of us to defeat just one of them.

Morton: What are you suggesting?

Skywarp: That you two had help.

Rotwood: Pardon?

Skywarp: (gestures to Firefly) Firefly's missing his heat lasers. (gestures to Bane) Bane's missing his Venom device. (to us) You guys don't know this but there's one individual I know who takes his victim's weapons as trophies.

Maria: Who would tht be?

Skywarp: Well, his name is-

Rotwood: (glares at Skywarp) You have the audacity to call us liars?!

Skywarp: (gestures to Carly) Carly's Duel Disk and Deck are missing. If you've captured her, where are they?

To our confusion, Morton opens up a drawer to reveal said Duel Deck and Disk.

Morton: Well, it would be pretty careless of us not to remove weapons from a dangerous criminal, now wouldn't it? (to Skywarp) So, any other false accusation you want to make or should the two of us just pummel you right now?!

Skywarp: But… I could've sworn. (groans and walks away)

Jake Long: Is there anything you two want to tell us?

Rotwood: Oh, you all love being the heroes, don't you? But as soon as someone else wants a turn, you all can't take the heat!

Morton: (pokes his finger at Jake's chest) How about you and your pals back off, Long?! And tell that stupid flyboy of yours to learn his place or else he's gonna be very sorry!

Jake Long: Fuck you.

Later, Skywarp was eavesdropping on Rotwood and Morton while Rotwood was on his cell phone.

Rotwood: Hans Rotwood here. (hears what other person is saying) Already? Where? (other person continues to talk) We'll be right there! (hangs up) Come, Mr. Morton. Our next captured villain awaits.

Morton: No need to tell me twice!

Skywarp was about to follow the two jerks.

Randy: (turns visible) Going somewhere, Skywarp?

Skywarp: How long were you there, Randy?

Randy: Long enough to know that you were right. Rotwood and Morton have been playing us for chumps. Mind if I tag along with you so we can follow them?

Skywarp: Sure. Come on.

Randy was inside Skywarp's vehicle mode as they followed Rotwood and Morton from above into the junkyard. They saw the two of them walking to a figure who just caught Brock Rumlow A.K.A. Crossbones.

Rotwood: We're here.

Morton: We got the Atomic city destroyer bazooka you wanted, buddy.

?: I told you not to call me that! You will address me as Lockdown,

The figure stepped out to reveal that he was a Cybertronian. And definitely not Megatron. It was the Decepticon Mercenary and Bounty Hunter that's widely known and feared all over Cybertron. LOCKDOWN!

---

Lockdown is the secondary antagonist of the 2014 film Transformers: Age of Extinction and the main antagonist of the video game Transformers: Rise of the Dark Spark.

He was a ruthless mercenary who had affiliated himself with the Creators as a Cybertronian bounty hunter, which led to his earthly presence when Lockdown was sent by his higher-ups to capture Optimus Prime.

He was voiced by Mark Ryan.

Upon arriving on Earth to proceed in completing his mission, Lockdown had, at some point, interacted with Harold Attinger and learned of his purpose of eliminating all Transformers from Earth. The two would form a partnership and a mutual respect, forming a deal that Lockdown would assist Attinger's CIA unit into hunting down Autobots being provided unlimited access to Earth's resources, in exchange for locating Optimus Prime. He finds Ratchet, and asks him where is Optimus, and when Ratchet did not tell, Lockdown simply kills him by ripping out his spark.

Later on, Attinger meets up with Lockdown to discuss their partnership. Lockdown, however, is unimpressed with Attinger and confronts him over the lack of his and his unit's attempts to capture Optimus before questioning their partnership, with Attinger attempting to ensure Lockdown about their joint-quest for achieving their purposes. Afterwards, Attinger suspiciously questions Lockdown over his motives for capturing Optimus and goes on to ask his true intentions, only for Lockdown to respond by warning

Attinger about how they're supposed to settle their partnership, blaming Attinger and his mercenaries for causing Optimus to escape across the world.

When Optimus Prime's location is discovered, Attinger sends his personal henchman James Savoy alongside his mercenaries to confront Optimus before warning Lockdown about this. Lockdown gets himself into position where he shoots down the farm of Cade Yeager after witnessing Optimus and his newly human allies, including Cade, fleeing. Lockdown gives chase and catches up with Optimus, but is unable to apprehend him when Optimus fights back. Lockdown then uses one of his grenades to target Optimus' human allies, but is only successful in killing Cade's best friend Lucas, while the others flee with Optimus.

After reuniting with the other Autobots, Optimus gradually begins to learn of Lockdown's presence and his friendship with Attinger, whom Optimus vows to personally kill for his cause against the Transformers. As the story goes on, Lockdown unknowingly gets word of Optimus fighting Galvatron in a rendezvous location and proceeds to intervene their confrontation by heading there and shooting down Optimus. As Galvatron flees, Lockdown approaches Optimus and reveals his true purposes towards him, revealing his affiliation with the Creators in the process. After capturing Optimus aboard his ship, Lockdown heads down to meet with Savoy and his henchmen to honor his deal with Attinger by giving them the Seed, a bomb that will turn the city into Transformium, the mineral that all Transformers are made of. He then leaves them to depart before preparing to launch out into space, but he discovers that the Autobots, alongside Cade, have come to rescue Optimus and sends his hunting party to dispose of them, which is unsuccessful, allowing the Autobots to rescue Optimus and for all of them to quickly escape Lockdown's ship just as it takes off.

Having discovered this, and also finding out that Optimus had freed his Dinobots' captives as well, Lockdown furiously returns to Earth with the intention of hunting down Optimus and reclaiming his Dinobots by any means necessary. He gets word from Attinger about Optimus' current position in Hong Kong, and proceeds to active his magnetic weapon under his ship to recapture Optimus and the Dinobots. He almost succeeds after leveling Hong Kong and nearly killing the Autobots (having outmaneuvered Galvatron's Decepticon army and the remainder of Cemetery Wind's forces, including Savoy), but Optimus manages to destroy the weapon and heads off to confront Lockdown, who disengages from his ship and engages Optimus in a one-on-one brawl. During the battle, Optimus gains the upper hand until he notices that Cade is held up at gunpoint by Attinger. Optimus is forced to save Cade by killing Attinger before resuming his fight with Lockdown, who uses this distraction to overpower Optimus and impale him against the wall with his sword. After disgracing Optimus for betraying his kind over humanity, Lockdown is attacked by Cade before getting fought by Bumblebee. He easily defeats Bumblebee before battling Cade and his family, going on to dispose what remains of his sanity when he declares his intention to kill everyone. While Cade's daughter Tessa and her boyfriend Shane free Optimus, Lockdown corners Cade and prepares to finish him off. Before he can kill Cade, however, Optimus reclaims his sword and surprises Lockdown by impaling his spark before slicing him in half, killing the villainous bounty hunter, and avenging all the Autobots (including Ratchet and Leadfoot) he had killed.

Shorty afterwards, Optimus escapes with Cade and his family after using Lockdown's final grenade to destroy Galvatron's remaining henchmen, which ultimately eradicates Lockdown's deceased body into ashes alongside Attinger's.

---

Skywarp: That's Lockdown! But what's he doing here?

Randy: Is he a friend of yours?

Skywarp: No. He's a freelance mercenary and bounty hunter.

Randy: So Rotwood was working for him!

Skywarp: Looks like it.

They went down and landed.

Skywarp: Lockdown! I knew you were behind all this. (to Rotwood and Morton) Even when you two showed me Carly's Duel Disk and Deck!

Lockdown: I thought that would throw you off. But I really do need that bazooka.

Skywarp: (glares at Morton and Rotwood) Which you two stole from your own fellow humans.

Randy: (angrily) Just when I thought you two couldn't sink any lower.

Rotwood: Ok. So you were right. Big deal.

Morton: You guys make such a fuss about fighting villains. But we're the ones capturing them!

Crossbones: (smirks) And here I am. Completely disarmed and helpless.

Skywarp: (realizes something) Wait. His gauntlets aren't even disarmed. Rotwood! Morton! It's a trap!

Crossbones broke out of his handcuffs and punches Rotwood and Morton, sending them to the ground.

Morton: The Hell is this?!

Rotwood: We had a deal!

Lockdown: We did. But Crossbones offered me a better one. More upgrades and more Energon.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion formed in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and we all landed in front of them and the Masters of Evil were with us.

Me: Nice entrance.

I saw Crossbones!

---

Brock Rumlow, also known as Crossbones, is a recurring antagonist in the Marvel Cinematic Universe, appearing as a major antagonist in both Captain America: The Winter Soldier and Captain America: Civil War, and a minor antagonist in Avengers: Endgame.

He is an agent of HYDRA who initially posed as the leader of S.H.I.E.L.D.'s counter terrorism team known as STRIKE, and an enemy of Captain America and the Avengers.

He was portrayed by Frank Grillo.

Agent of S.H.I.E.L.D.

Brock first appears as an agent of S.H.I.E.L.D. who was tasked as the commander of STRIKE and would often work alongside Captain America and Black Widow along with his subordinates. During his career, however, he became a HYDRA agent and sought to create a fascist new world order under HYDRA's rule.

Zodiac

During one of his missions, Brock and his STRIKE team had to deal with a known terrorist leader by the name of Baker who had stolen a weapon called Zodiac. Brock and his team dealt with Baker's men while Rogers and Romanoff went to deal with Baker himself. At the end of the operation, the zodiac was recovered and Baker got away after his men took the fall.

Retaking the Lemurian Star

One night, a mobile S.H.I.E.L.D. launch platform known as the Lemurian Star was hijacked and taken over by a terrorist named Georges Batroc and a group of 25 other mercenaries backing him up. Brock and his team were quickly deployed to deal with the situation and retake the ship. After a mission debrief, the team parachutes onto the ship and slowly retakes the facility room by room until the entire place is under S.H.I.E.L.D. control once more.

Death of Nick Fury

Brock had accompanied his team to the hospital after Director Nick

Fury was shot and apparently killed by an unknown assassin. He appeared to apologize to Steve Rogers for the loss of his known commander, but then leaves after he is called back to the Triskelion for a debrief with Alexander Pierce. Rumlow was delayed by Rogers and Natasha but said it was urgent and left in a hurry with his team.

HYDRA Uprising

Chasing Captain America

When being called back, Pierce had declared Captain America an enemy of SHIELD as he had key information about Fury that could jeopardize HYDRA's secrets and had to be dealt with immediately. Inside an elevator, Brock and his team entered into the same elevator with Rogers and attempted to capture him to maintain HYDRA and their plans. At first, the conversation between everyone was calm but it quickly spiraled into a fight and Brock was soon the only one left standing against Captain America who threw him against the elevator wall and fled.

Afterwards, Brock gathered his STRIKE team members and they all organized a manhunt for Captain America and Black Widow in an attempt to prevent Project Insight from being compromised. They were able to track the two of them into a mall in Washington D.C. but they couldn't find them after a long search.

Calling the Winter Soldier

Later on, Steve Rogers and Natasha Romanoff were discovered at Camp Lehigh where Arnim Zola was there on his computerized brain distracting the two, Alexander Pierce ordered a missile strike and had the camp destroyed. Soon afterwards, Brock and his STRIKE team were deployed to confirm if the two of them were killed at the ruins of the camp. He eventually discovered their footprints and confirmed that they were alive and so he had to call in the Winter Soldier, the most elite assassin and agent of HYDRA. Brock would remain inactive until the end of a battle between the Winter Soldier with his HYDRA team and Captain America with Black Widow and Falcon.

After the battle, Brock ran into the event with his STRIKE team and successfully captured all three of them. After the three of them had surrendered, he had noticed his subordinate, Jack Rollins, attempting to execute Captain America, but called it off to prevent media attention and told him to wait until they were cleared of media interference. Eventually, when the coast was clear, he ordered three graves dug, but the three of them had escaped and he eventually went back to a secret HYDRA base where the Winter Soldier was seen being managed. He then watched as Bucky mentioned that he knew Rogers and Pierce ordered his memories wiped so he could defeat Captain America.

Battle at the Triskelion

Meanwhile back at the Triskelion, Rumlow appeared and held Cameron Klein at gunpoint which caused agent Sharon Carter to do the same to Brock. He supposedly surrendered but really pulled out a knife and stabbed her hand and soon a gunfight between S.H.I.E.L.D. and HYDRA agents broke out while Rumlow accessed the computers to launch Project Insight Helicarriers. He succeeded and soon the Helicarriers were bought into the air and he escaped while HYDRA sleeper agents launch an attack on S.H.I.E.L.D. and brought down the agency. On his way through the Triskelion, Rumlow ran into several S.H.I.E.L.D. agents and killed them by both stabbing and gunning them down with their weapons when he got a call.

He received a call where he was informed that Alexander Pierce was captured by Captain America, Black Widow, and Falcon and that he had to rescue him to prevent HYDRA's plans from being compromised. As he went to save Pierce, he was attacked by Falcon and engaged in a fight with him. Rumlow was superior to Falcon and bragged about how he's gonna hurt as HYDRA doesn't take prisoners and they continued fighting until a crashing Helicarrier came through the building and rubble and debris fell on Rumlow crushing him. He survived, but had received heavy amounts of scars and his whole body was burnt and was eventually carried away to another facility.

Becoming Crossbones

Deserting HYDRA

Months later, he had watched the news and saw the news reports of S.H.I.E.L.D.'s downfall and was furious of seeing HYDRA's defeat as they had all the resources needed to win. In an attempt to get HYDRA's attention, he assaulted the nurses and hospital staff and eventually a team of HYDRA agents stormed in. Before their commander finished his sentence and the Hail HYDRA motto, Rumlow shot him and killed everyone in the room sending a message to HYDRA that he no longer works for them and defected afterwards. He then sought to get revenge against all those who scarred him and wanted to make them suffer the same pain he did and became a mercenary under the name of Crossbones.

Lagos Catastrophe

Wanting to lure out Captain America and the Avengers, Crossbones had organized a team of mercenaries (known as Hero Mercs) and they all planned to attack the Institute for Infectious Diseases laboratory in Lagos, Nigeria and acquire a biological weapon. Crossbones and his men broke through the facility in trucks and stormed out and into the facility. Poisonous gas was then released into the facility but Captain America and the Avengers soon arrived to deal with Crossbones and his men quickly after the attack began.

Crossbones eventually ran into Black Widow once more and attacked her out of revenge. She attempted to stun him, but he stated that he didn't feel pain anymore and punched her and threw her into an armored truck with two other mercenaries and throwing in a grenade before closing the truck's top. Natasha barely escaped the truck while using one of the mercenaries as a human shield and Crossbones got the weapon he needed and then escaped with the remaining members of his mercenary team. They eventually ran into a local market where his men split up to keep the weapon and Crossbones fought Captain America in order to get revenge for brutally scarring him from back during the HYDRA Uprising. The two of them fought but Steve Rogers had won in the end and cornered Rumlow.

Death and Legacy

After their fight, Captain America demanded Crossbones reveal who he was working for. He claimed that the Winter Soldier was pulling all of the strings before detonating his bomb vest in a last-ditch attempt to kill Captain America, but Scarlet Witch contained the blast and threw him up into the air where he blew up in front of a building, causing the deaths of 26 aid workers from Wakanda. In the aftermath of the attack, the United Nations gathered and formed the Sokovia Accords to regulate the Avengers and other superheros in hopes of preventing another Lagos-like attack. The accords would go on to tear the Avengers apart and leave them disbanded with Captain America now a criminal.

Encounter With Future Captain America

Five years after the death of half the living beings in the universe, the remaining Avengers and Guardians concoct a plan to go back to the past and collect the Infinity Stones from different points in time and use them to reverse Thanos' actions; Captain America, Iron Man, Ant-Man and Hulk going back in time to the Battle of New York to retrieve the Space Stone, Mind Stone, and Time Stone. While the 2012 Avengers apprehend Loki, future Captain America, Iron Man and Ant-Man witness Rumlow, Jasper Sitwell and the rest of STRIKE arriving to collect the Loki's scepter (which contains the Mind Stone); the former two noting to Ant-Man that all of them are really affiliated with HYDRA, though they weren't aware of that at the time.

Rumlow and the others quickly take the scepter from the Avengers and prepare to take in back into S.H.I.E.L.D. custody, actually planning to delivir the scepter to Doctor List so he can study it. However, just as they are about to exit Avengers Tower, Captain America joins them in the elevator, claiming that there has been a change of plans and that he is now going to take the scepter back to S.H.I.E.L.D.. Sitwell and the rest of STRIKE are immediately unnerved of Captain America's claims and presence, Rumlow notably reaching for his gun in response, though the former dissuades their suspicion by whispering "Hail Hydra" to them, allowing him to take the scepter and Mind Stone without question. Given that Pierce didn't order Captain America to retrieve the scepter and that Captain America wasn't affiliated to HYDRA after all, it's possible that Rumlow and his whole STRIKE unit were severely punished for falling into Rogers' deception.

Me: Brock Rumlow, A.K.A. Crossbones! One of Captain America's most dangerous enemies.

Crossbones: That's right. I'm impressed that you know me J.D.

Me: You're also the man that forced the Avengers into war against each other in 2016's Captain America: Civil War.

Crossbones: That's right.

We were about to go at him.

Crossbones: (uses Rotwood and Morton as human shields) Ah ah ah. Careful. You guys make one wrong move and you'll end up hitting Morton and Rotwood!

Me: You didn't even recruit him Vypra.

Vypra: Well, we were going to but now we decided not to.

Me: I see.

Dark Spicer: (To Crossbones and Lockdown) Here's your warning:

Both of your fucking asses are going to be kicked!

Me: No one humiliates the Masters of Evil and lives to tell about it.

Vypra: Well said J.D.

I fired a blast of energy and it hit Lockdown and separated his evil side from him.

Skywarp: Let me finish off the Evil Lockdown, guys. I always wanted to know how the Hakai technique would affect my blasters.

Me: It's the Neptune Prison for you Crossbones.

Next we faced Evil Lockdown.

Nico blasted him all over with energy blasts and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over with blue energy blasts and blowing him apart. We regrouped and we were facing the Evil Lockdown. It was the Age Of Extinction Version of Evil Lockdown.

Me: Lets hit him with our Final Smashes!

Jake Long: Right! DRAGONFIRE MEGABLAST!

Jake Long fired a massive blast of Dragon Fire from his mouth.

Me: CELESTIAL PHOENIX MEGABLAST!

I fired a massive blast of stars from my hands and they formed into a phoenix of stars.

Nico: NUOVA DEATH RAY!

The 4-Star Dragonball on his bracelet glowed and he fired a massive blast of focused sunlight through a huge concave lens that he formed.

Vypra: TWILIGHT DRAGON STRIKE!

Vypra fired a blast of light and darkness and they formed into a dragon.

Dark Spicer: DARKBLAST MEGABURST!

Dark Spicer fired a massive blast of energy from his blaster.

Skywarp: LASER MEGA TELEPORT BURST!

Skywarp formed portals and fired a blast of energy through a portal he made and it formed another portal and fired the blast at Evil Lockdown from behind.

The blasts hit Evil Lockdown dead center and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Skywarp: Now to test those Hakai Cannons.

He did so and charged them and fired massive blasts of purple energy and they obliterated Evil Lockdown completely and forever erased him from existence as if he was never born.

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: That was intense! Well done Skywarp.

Skywarp: Thanks Nico.

We went over to the good Lockdown.

Lockdown: I'm surprised you decided to spare me.

Nico: Well, no more Cybertronians have to die. And now you are a member of my group. I am now the official leader of the Decepticons.

Lockdown: I heard that the Decepticons got a new leader after Megatron and Unicron were destroyed. My allegiance is now with you Nico Chan.

Me: Lets get Carly to the infirmary and deal with Rotwood and Morton after that.

Vypra: Okay.

Me: And Bell Org, since you helped us out, we're not gonna kill you when we fight next time. We'll contain you in an S.P.D. Containment Card as a way to show thanks.

Bell Org: Well it beats getting destroyed. All right then.

We went back to the estate and we had Carly put on a bed to get looked at. Later at the edge of the city, we had Morton and Rotwood looking at us.

Dark Spicer: Framing J.D. wasn't enough. Now you two had to capture our buddies and humilate us!

Vypra: (glares at Rotwood and Morton) Before I give you two the Curse of The Cobra and have you two go back on the run, I want to know why you would do all this!

Rotwood: Well, it was all part of a plan to get rid of you and your Masters of Evil!

Morton: (glares at us) And we wanted to become better heroes then you dorks!

Me: To kill two birds with one stone. You 2 are a major menace to society and you are no heroes!

Vypra fired a blast of fire and it hit them and set their shirts on fire and they saw that they had Cobra Tattoos on their backs.

Morton: Tattoos?

Me: These are no ordinary tattoos. They are the marks of your death.

Vypra: You tried to humiliate us and now you must pay the price. From now on over the course of 2 years, the cobra will crawl up your backs, closer and closer until it reaches your necks and kills you.

Me: You have 730 days to live. Starting now.

Rotwood: YOU ALL WILL PAY FOR THIS!

Rotwood and Morton went on the run again.

Maria: I am very sorry that you guys got humiliated like this.

William: Is there anything we can do to make it up to you guys?

Vypra: Well…

Me: I have an idea.

We went to Lynn's Table for lunch.

Nico: Skywarp, I'm very proud of you for your great detective work in exposing Rotwood's plans.

Skywarp: Thanks Nico.

Dinobot: Indeed. He did really well.

Laney: He sure did.

Skywarp: (To the viewers) Never mess with our friends or frenemies or there will be terrible consequences from both sides.

Nico: You said it Skywarp.

We had a great lunch.

Forest of the Jersey Devil

HAPPY MEMORIAL DAY 2020 EVERYONE!

---

At the estate, we were watching TV and having snacks.

Me: Sure is a good day.

Nico: You said it.

Then we saw Sheila come in.

Sheila: Hey guys. I'm home.

Me: Hey Sheila.

Lola: Welcome back Sheila.

Me: How was your trip?

Sheila: It was amazing! My trip to Hawaii was the best I've ever had and it was a vacation that I'll forever remember.

Me: Glad you had so much fun.

Sheila: And I met the most amazing boyfriend ever.

Me: Wow!

Nico: All right Sheila.

Me: Who's the lucky guy?

Sheila: His name is Sergeant Eric Loud.

Landon: Hey that's our big brother!

Han: He's a big hero over in the Navy Seals. He's the man that helped kill Osama Bin Laden in Operation Neptune Spear.

We were surprised.

Lori: I literally remember reading about that!

Luna Loud: Rockin dude!

Me: Wow! I thought that name sounded familiar.

I looked it up.

Me: Here it is. "Navy Seal Sergeant Eric Loud forever remembered as the hero who shot and killed Osama Bin Laden in Operation Neptune Spear."

Nico: Wow! That's incredible!

Lincoln: Cousin Eric is a hero to America.

Laney: He sure is. I haven't even met Cousin Eric.

Lana: Me neither.

Lucy Loud: Last time we saw him was back when I was only a year old. I don't remember it unfortunately.

Me: But it's amazing that you guys have a hero of the War on Terror in your family.

Lincoln: It sure is. I'm so proud of Cousin Eric.

Lily: Me too.

Liberty: It's amazing that cousin Eric is a hero in the Navy.

Me: It sure is.

Sheila: So what happened while I was away?

Me: A lot of things. But the worst thing happened to both us and the Masters of Evil.

We went over what happened during what happened when Rotwood and Morton tried to demoralize us and capture the Masters of Evil and Sheila was shocked.

Sheila: I go on vacation and this Happens?!

Me: Yeah. They wanted to kill two birds with one stone.

Sheila: (ENRAGED) Guys, would you step outside for a second?

Me: Uh oh.

We ran fast outside.

Sheila got up and took a huge breath and she yelled the loudest swear she could ever muster!

Sheila: FFFFFFFFFFFFUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUU

It was so loud that a Church Organ Played, doves flew out of trees and everyone around the neighborhood heard it.

Ned Flanders: Dear Lord! That's the loudest profanity I've ever heard! (Season 6 episode 25)

Me: Boy you're telling me Ned. Sheila is really infuriated because of what happened to us with Rotwood and Morton.

Ned Flanders: I see.

Homer: I haven't released a swear like that since the time Maggie shot Mr. Burns.

Me: I remember seeing that Homer.

Bart: Wow.

---

Later Nico and everyone else but me went to the city of Chicago. They were there to recruit Kicker. Kicker is one of the helpers that helped the Transformers destroy Unicron for good and he is one of the heroes of Cybertron.

Elena: So this is where Kicker lives?

Ironhide: Yep. He's a really nice kid. When he started working with us he was a hothead.

Nico: Wow.

They got to the house and knocked on the door and answering it was wife Misha.

Misha: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Same to you as well.

Ironhide: Misha, its been a long time.

Misha: Ironhide. It sure has. Hey Kicker!

Kicker came.

Kicker: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you guys. Ironhide, you're looking amazing.

Ironhide: It has been a long time Kicker.

Tommy Oliver: It's nice to meet you, Kicker.

Kicker: Same to you Tommy.

He saw Demolishor and Cyclonus with them.

Nico: Don't worry Kicker. Demolishor and Cyclonis are no longer the ones you fought. They are now part of the Decepticons that I lead.

Demolishor: That's right.

Cyclonus: Its been a long time kid.

Kicker: It sure has been a while guys.

They went to the backyard for a nice talk.

Kicker: I'm glad you're back to you and Cyclonus are back to your original selves, Demolishor.

Demolishor: Me too. I think me and Cyclonus got put into those new forms because Megatron wanted us to be dumb loyal soldiers.

Cyclonus: And let's not forget that purple G1 version of me that served Unicron.

Scourge: Hey, there was a G1 version of me that served Unicron as well.

Nico: I remember that. Even though I wasn't there, it feels like it actually happened.

Kicker: Yeah.

Alexis Thi Damn: Last time we saw each other Kicker, you were battling Megatron and Unicron.

Kicker: It sure has been a while.

Nico: I know. But congratulations on marrying Misha.

Ironhide: We're really happy for you dude.

Kicker: Thanks Ironhide. It's amazing that you're in your G1 version.

Ironhide: We now have the power to change into our versions known all over the Transformers Universe.

Misha: That's amazing.

Nico: Yep. Also Kicker, I'm now the new leader of the Decepticons. Ever since we destroyed Megatron and Starscream here, I became their new leader to lead the Decepticons on the path to redemption.

Kicker: Wow! That's great.

Tidal Wave: Tidal Wave agree.

Misha: I also heard that something went down between both you guys and the Masters of Evil just recently.

Nico: Yeah. It was Brad Morton and Hans Rotwood trying to kill both of us with one stone.

Nico went over everything.

Kicker: You're kidding me?! Rotwood and Morton gave dangerous weapons to Lockdown's evil side all because they wanted to outshine you guys as heroes?!

Swoop: Him Rotwood and Him Morton sellouts.

Maria: But fortunately, it was Skywarp who helped discover the truth.

Skywarp: Yep. It was a bad thing they did.

Nico: It sure was.

Kicker: I'm glad you guys now have Lockdown on your side now.

Lockdown: Thanks Kicker.

Kicker: You're welcome.

?: Mommy? Daddy?

They saw a little girl with black hair and a blue dress. She was around 5 years old.

Misha: Hey sweetie.

Kicker: Tasha it's good you're here.

Nico: Who's she?

Kicker: This is our little daughter Tasha Jones.

Tasha: Wow! You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Nico: That's right.

Vince: Kicker she's adorable.

Carol: She sure is.

Laney: Yeah.

Tasha: You guys are my heroes. I love how you all beat the bad guys.

Nico: We sure do bring them in huh?

Carol: Yep.

They got to talking and Kicker decided to move to Gotham Royal York with us so they can help us when needed.

---

Later I was at the mall doing a little shopping and I went to a beautiful store for jewelry.

Me: Hmm.

I looked at all the jewelry and it was amazing.

Me: Beautiful jewelry.

A man then walked up to me and he was really mad.

Man: AHA!

Me: Huh?

Man: I've been out of business for years now and it's all your fault!

Me: What the hell did I do!?

Man: Your toys ruined me and made me an outcast in the world of toy making!

Me: Wait a second, aren't you the owner of the out of business toy shop Legume Toys?

Jerry Legume: That's right. Jerry Legume.

Me: Why are you blaming me for my toys for Team Loud Phoenix Storm ruining you? It's not my fault that our toys would be such a success. Everyone loves us.

Jerry Legume: Because you get all the fame and fortune and I get nothing! You are a menace to the world of toys!

Me: My job is not a competition. I do what I have to in order to keep everyone safe. With Great Power comes Great Responsibility. Also we plan on making toys for The Masters of Evil.

Jerry Legume: I HATE YOU SO MUCH J.D. KNUDSON!

My aura flared up but it was the weakest I've ever felt.

Me: Your hate is pathetic.

He then threw a punch at me and I ducked and he hit the pillar of the mall and broke his fist.

Me: Ouch. But you Jerry are just a sad and pathetic toy maker who was dealt a bad hand and ruined because of karma.

I left. Jerry Legume was disgraced and he swore to get even with me no matter what.

* * *

Later we were with the Secret Saturdays and we were off in search of another awesome legendary cryptozoological creature.

Maria: Which Cryptid are we looking for this time?

Me: We're off to search for the legendary Specter of the Pine Barrens Forest of New Jersey, The Jersey Devil.

Drew Saturday: It's a legendary Cryptid said to live there.

Nico: I know all about the Jersey Devil. I used to go hunting for it when I first lived in New Jersey before I moved to the Philippines.

Me: Wow.

Nico told us all about the creature.

---

In Southern New Jersey and Philadelphia folklore, the Jersey Devil (also known as the Leeds Devil) is a legendary creature said to inhabit the Pine Barrens of South Jersey. The creature is often described as a flying biped with hooves, but there are many variations. The common description is that of a kangaroo-like or wyvern-like creature with a goat-like or horse-like head, leathery bat-like wings, horns, small arms with clawed hands, legs with cloven hooves, and a forked tail. It has been reported to move quickly and is often described as emitting a high-pitched "blood-curdling scream".

---

Varie: Wow! The Jersey Devil must be really elusive.

Laney: It sure is elusive Varie. It says here that the Jersey Devil moves really fast and is known for emitting a really high-pitched bloodcurdling scream.

Laney was reading a book on the Jersey Devil.

Me: Yep and there are said to have been many sightings of it since 1820. It's said to have killed a lot of livestock over the years.

Nico: That's right. The most recent sightings of the creature were back in 2007 to 2008.

Lana: That's right.

Lola: Why is the Jersey Devil so elusive?

Laney: It lives in the Pine Barrens Forest of Southern New Jersey and it moves through the forest virtually completely undetected.

Doc Saturday: That's right. We haven't seen the creature ourselves, but it's supposed to be really interesting.

Me: Looks like we're all gonna get our chance.

We then saw Sarah Gunnerson in deep thought.

Tom Majors: Sarah is something wrong?

Sarah Gunnerson: (Sighs) Tom I have something to tell you.

Tom Majors: What is it?

Sarah Gunnerson: Tom, I have been hiding something from you. Ever since we started our adventures all in the world of Perim, you and I have been getting closer and closer in terms of friendship and something more. Tom, I love you.

Tom was shocked when he heard that. He didn't know she had such strong feelings for him. But Tom also had the same feelings as well.

Tom Majors: I love you too Sarah.

They then kissed.

Everyone: Awwwww.

Me: So adorable.

Lori Jimenez: Sarah, I'm so happy for you and Tom. I always knew there was feelings between you two.

Sarah Gunnerson: I can tell.

Lori Jimenez: I pick up on these things. It has been with me ever since you got me into Chaotic.

Me: Wow. Good eyes Lori.

Lori Loud: Yeah.

Zak Saturday: I'm happy for them guys.

Nico: We are too.

Doyle Blackwell: We all are.

Me: Yep.

Doc Saturday: We're here guys.

We have arrived at the Pine Barrens Forest of Southern New Jersey. We landed on the edge of the forest near Buena, New Jersey. We got out and we saw how thick and dense the forest was. It was amazing.

Me: Wow. The Pine Barrens.

Laney: It's a really thick forest.

Nico: It sure is. It's just as beautiful as I remember it.

Lana: It's amazing.

Lisa Loud: It's a really dense and beautiful forest loaded with pine trees.

Me: Yep.

We then heard a terrifying High-Pitched Bloodcurdling Screech. It was terrifying.

Nico: That's it. The Jersey Devil.

Lucy Loud: Gasp.

Lynn: That is really scary!

Luan: No kidding!

Eddy: Yeah.

Me: Lets find him.

Kanaloa: Okay.

We went into the forest and the Search for The Jersey Devil was on. We looked high and low. We searched in the trees and on the ground and it was creepy. The forest was so thick and tightly close together that it was gonna be like looking for a needle in a haystack. We heard the screech again.

Me: There it is.

Nico: We're getting close.

We went on and in a nearby clearing we saw it! It was THE JERSEY DEVIL!

Me: (Gasp) There it is!

Nico: Wow! The Jersey Devil!

Laney got a perfectly clear photo of it.

Drew Saturday: Wow! So that is the legendary Jersey Devil.

Laney: Incredible.

Lana: Wow! That is an amazing creature.

Luan: I can't believe it's really real.

Nico: I've been trying to find this creature ever since I was a little boy and it's amazing that it's real.

Me: For 200 years there have been sightings of it. Now we have proof of its existence.

Lincoln: This is so cool.

Doc Saturday: It sure is.

Zak Saturday: Yeah.

Fisk, Zon and Komodo agreed.

Lucy Loud: It's one of the most amazing creatures I've ever seen.

Brittney: It sure is amazing. I can't believe that it is that elusive. It's hard to imagine that it exists.

Me: The Jersey Devil - The Demon of the Pine Barrens Forest.

Lily: He sure is really cool.

Zak Saturday: Hey what's Laney doing?

We saw Laney walking up to the creature.

Me: I think she's going to tame the creature.

Laney walked up to it and the Jersey Devil growled.

Laney: I mean you no harm. I am a friend.

Laney held out her hand and the Jersey Devil knelt down and she touched its head and she had tamed the legendary creature.

Me: Wow.

Nico: Amazing.

Vince: Laney is one amazing girl.

Then Laney sensed something and she saw a grappling hook rope shoot at her and she grabbed it and pulled it. Out from the trees came a weird man that was half man, half robot Scorpion! It was BARON FINSTER!

---

Baron Finster is a known enemy to Doyle Blackwell. His first appearance was in Twelve Hundred Degrees Fahrenheit.

Biography

Baron Finster is a half man/half robotic scorpion that's a big player in the criminal underground that Doyle once claimed to have fought. Doyle rescued a Ngani-Vatu from him. However, this may have just been a story Doyle made up to entertain Zak and his family.

In the episode Van Rook's Apprentice, Doyle hacks into Van Rook's client list and Baron Finster can be seen on the list. This proves that the villain does really exist but it is unknown if Doyle's story about his encounter with him is true. This was so until the episode Cryptid vs. Cryptid where he makes an appearance trying to kill Doyle. He states he could not win on their first encounter and says fate has giving him a second chance. This lends credence to Doyle's story but their first meeting may have been before or after the timeframe of the story.

It is revealed in War of the Cryptids, that Argost designed the robotic scorpion abdomen that'd allow him to walk again. Baron had asked him for his price and it was from him that Argost got money for Weird World from. Baron stated that Argost's compensation for a television show was rather poor since most came to him to rule humanity but Argost explained he had ambition for his show. Finster stated that Argost's first idea was something organic but Finster decided it was too gruesome.

Near the end of the series, he was kidnapped by Munya when Doyle and Van Rook attempt to question him on Argost's past. He was later murdered off screen by Argost.

---

We jumped out and we faced him.

Doyle Blackwell: Baron Finster!

Baron Finster: Blackwell, its been a while. And the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: How in the world did this happen to you!? You have a robotic scorpion for legs.

Baron Finster: It's a terrible accident that happened to me. I was in a rather dangerous accident during the Gulf War. I lost my legs in a rather unpleasant oil explosion. I had my lower half of my body replaced with this robotic scorpion body.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: This is the coolest kind of technology I've ever seen.

Me: You look so much like the Scorpion King when we fought him in the Oasis of Ahm Shere.

Lincoln: That fight was an epic one.

Baron Finster: Indeed it was for you. How do you know The Scorpion King?

Me: He's my ancestor. Methayus the Scorpion King was a very powerful warrior from Assyrian History.

Shamrina: (Assyrian Accent) I didn't know you and the Scorpion King were related J.D.

Me: We found out about it when Lisa did a DNA scan. I am the direct descendent of Methayus the Scorpion King. In 3067 B.C., Methayus lead a huge campaign to conquer the known world and was defeated in 3060 B.C. 7 years later. As a result, he was exiled into the Desert of Ahm Shere and once he was at Death's Door, he made a pact with Anubis and he lead his army to destroy Thebes in Egypt. When his task was done, Anubis forced the Scorpion King to serve him for all eternity.

Cody (OC): That's right.

Shamrina: It's amazing that you know the Scorpion King. He was the fiercest warrior ever known in Assyrian Lore.

Qin: That's incredible! I didn't know that happened.

Nico: It was one of our most amazing battles.

Me: That's right. But Doyle how do you know Baron Finster here?

Doyle Blackwell: He's one of my most dangerous enemies. He's the big player of the worlds Criminal Underworld and he captures and sells Cryptids on the worlds black market for enormous profits.

Me: Geez! Looks like he has come for the Jersey Devil.

Finster: I sure have.

William: We just got a good idea.

Finster: You're going to stand still and let me kill you?

Nico: No. We're going to tear off your scorpion abdomen and let you bleed to death!

Me: I like how you think Nico.

Doyle Blackwell: But question. How did you survive? Argost killed you.

Baron Finster: I escaped from his lair before he could kill me.

Me: Clever. But now we're going to finish what Argost failed to do: Kill you.

Nico: Yeah!

Bane and King Hiss came out.

Me: Bane and King Hiss.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) Glad you're all doing well amigos.

Rhino: Hey, Bane. How are you feeling?

Bane: Good. Considering that I was locked up in jail by those fools Morton and Rotwood!

Zoom: How'd they even get you captured in the first place?

Bane: He shot me with tranquilizer darts.

Me: I didn't think that Tranquilizer Darts would work on you because of the Venom Drug.

Bane: I didn't think so either.

King Hiss: Learn something new every day.

Snake Jailbird came out.

Snake Jailbird: Hey guys.

Me: Snake. How have things been?

Snake Jailbird: Good and I have something to show you.

Snake then pressed a button on his watch and we saw a robot suit cover him and he now looked like an awesome version of Robocop but without the fancy vision visor and he had awesome machine gun hands. (Season 23 Episode 9)

Me: WHOA! This is amazing!

Snake Jailbird: Thanks J.D. I had this suit made for me out of a robotic suit that Mr. Burns had.

Me: Wow!

I looked at the suit with my data eyes and I saw that it was equipped with just as many weapons as Number 7 and it had infinite firepower and amazing features.

Me: Wow! This is an extremely advanced weapon suit for you. Really amazing piece of weaponized engineering.

Lisa Loud: Just what I was gonna say second elder brother.

Nico: Really awesome upgrade for you Snake.

Fiona: Maybe now I'll have a challenge.

Me: Yep.

Suddenly yellow blurs moving at an incredible speed were seen and out came the Cheese Ninjas and Cheese Shogun Roquefort.

Nico: (Drooling) Cheese Ninjas and Cheese Shogun Roquefort.

May: Nico you really need to control yourself when it comes to cheese.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: I agree.

A figure came out of the forest and we saw that it looked like a robotic alligator.

Intress: And you are?

Wheel Gator: Allow me to introduce myself, Kitty Cat. I'm Wheel Gator! (sends some saw blade-like wheels at Ring Man)

Nico sent the blade wheels back to him.

Me: Whoa! Sigma made so many robots. Just as many as Dr. Wily.

Laney: He sure did.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Out of a flash of purple light appeared Rex Goodwin.

Me: Rex Goodwin.

Rex Goodwin: Indeed. Lets dance shall we?

Brittney: I'll face him this time dad.

Me: Okay.

Emma: Time's up for you, Finster!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Time Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Time Force Rangers.

Me: Lets dance!

We went at them.

Leni: Totes fun.

---

Battle 3: Cheese Shogun Roquefort

---

Raven and Nico were facing Cheese Shogun Roquefort and his army of Cheese Ninjas.

Raven: Shall we dance?

Nico: (Drooling) And eat some delicious cheese?

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: Lets and don't eat me this time. My butt still hurts from having that bite taken out of me.

Nico: Sorry. (Drooling) It's just that you take so good.

They went at him and Nico punched the Cheese Shogun in the face and Raven fired blasts of energy and they hit him all over and exploded and Nico used his psychic powers to get all the Cheese Shoguns together and turned them into a giant 17 cheese grilled cheese sandwich. Nico ate them all and released a huge belch.

Nico:
BBBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUU
Ahh. Pardon me. But you're gonna run out of Cheese Ninjas soon if you keep this up.

Cheese Shogun Roquefort: I have powers that make an unlimited army.

Raven: So I see.

Raven kicked him in the face and knocked him out.

---

Battle 4: Wheel Gator

---

The Megaforce Rangers were facing Wheel Gator and they blasted him all over with their weapons and blew him apart all over the place with incredible fury.

Troy Burrows: This is gonna be good.

They blasted him all over the place and blew him to pieces.

Noah Carver: Good riddance.

We got Wheel Gator's weapons as a result.

---

Battle 5: Rex Goodwin.

---

On the Duel Runner arena as it was racing along the Condor Nazca Line, Brittney was facing Rex Goodwin.

Brittney: Lets dance Condor of Darkness.

Rex Goodwin: I like that. I summon WIRAQOCHA RASCA!

He summoned the Condor Earthbound Immortal Wiraqocha Rasca!

Brittney: I summon BLACK TYRANNO, BLACK STEGO, BLACK VELOCI, MAMMOTH GRAVEYARD, URABY, GILASAURUS, BLACK PTERA, SAUROPOD BRACHION, ULTIMATE TYRANNO, FROSTOSAURUS, and SABERSAURUS!

Brittney summoned said monsters.

Rex Goodwin: I thought you only like Fiend and Zombie Monsters.

Brittney: Fiends and Zombies aren't the only ones I use. I have to keep my enemies guessing at all times.

Rex Goodwin: I see.

Brittney: Lets dance.

They went at each other and Brittney punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face.

Brittney fired a blast of black lightning and Rex fired a blast of dark energy and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Brittney popped out of the explosion and kicked him in the face and she fired a blast of black fire and Rex Goodwin fired a blast of purple energy and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Brittney kicked him in the face and kneed him in the face and knocked him down and Brittney's Dinosaurs blasted Wiraqocha Rasca and destroyed him in a powerful explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Brittney had won.

---

Battle 6: Snake Jailbird

---

Fiona was facing Snake Jailbird.

Fiona: Lets dance Snake. It's time to put this new robot suit of yours to the test.

Snake Jailbird: All right.

Snake fired bullets at her and she ran fast and dodged them all with incredible speed and she fired blasts of lightning and they hit the ground by Snake and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Snake Jailbird: This is so much fun! Lets see what else it can do.

KRABBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Fiona fired lightning blasts and electrocuted Snake all over the place and knocked him down.

---

Battle 7: Baron Finster

We regrouped and we were facing Baron Finster.

I punched him in the face and he snapped his claws and tail at me and I dodged them and kicked him in the face and stomach and kicked him in the chest and face.

Me: You make me sick Finster!

I fired blasts of energy and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Suwailim: (Egyptian Accent) Take this fiend. MAGNET STYLE NINJA ART: SWARM OF FLESH EATING SCARABS!

Suwailim fired a blast of iron sang and it formed into a huge swarm of flesh-eating scarabs and they went at Finster and crawled onto him and ate some of him. But he broke out of them.

Ben: Time for some predator power!

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called CLAWSER! It looked like a saber-toothed jackal with hind legs that had velociraptor claws.

Ben: CLAWSER!

Nico: Whoa! That's a wicked predator!

Shanan: That's an Aureisplexis. They are the natural predators of the Appoplexians, Rath's species.

Nico: Whoa!

Riley: I didn't know that Appoplexians had predators. I always thought that they were considered the predator-less creatures of Appoplexia.

Julie Yamamoto: I was thinking the exact same thing.

Ben: Watch this.

He fired a powerful blast of solar energy from his eyes and it hit Finster and burned him all over.

Nico: Powerful!

I dodged more lashes from Finster's scorpion tail and claws.

Me: Watch the teamwork!

Elena: With pleasure.

Scourge: Yeah!

Elena used the Earth Cyber Planer Key and Scourge used the Animatron Cyber Planet Key. They enhanced Elena's lightning powers and Scourge had his two extra heads pop out and they roared!

Swoop used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and Tommy Oliver used the Dragon Ranger Cyber Planet Key. Swoop's launchers and Tommy Oliver's Green Ranger powers were enhanced 100-fold.

Elena and Scourge: LIGHTNING DRAGON FIRESTORM!

Elena fired a massive blast of lightning and Scourge fired a massive blast of fire.

Swoop and Tommy Oliver: FLYING FIRE DRAGONSTORM!

Swoop fired a blast of fire and Tommy fired a blast of green energy from his hands.

Cheetah and Soundwave: SUPERSONIC SPEED SOUNDBURST!

Cheetah ran at supersonic speed and Soundwave fired a powerful sonic blast.

Drew Saturday and Lori Jimenez: FIRESTORM CRYPTID MEGABLAST!

Drew fired a blast of fire from her sword and Lori fired a blast of fire as well.

Doc Saturday and Sophie Casterwill: SMASHING BOLTFLARE BURST!

Doc fired a blast of energy and Sophie fired a blast of lightning.

Zak Saturday and Me as Wolf Moon with Zhuqiaomon: FLAMING WOLF HELIXFLARE!

I fired a blast of Wolf Fire and Zhuqiaomon fired a blast of fire from his wings and Zak fired a massive blast of energy.

Nico with Infernal Flame Vixen and Intress: NUOVA PRIMAL FIRESTORM!

Nico and Infernal Flame Vixen fired blasts of fire and Intress fired a powerful blast of fire.

The blasts all combined and they hit Finster and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets do some Final Smash power! RISE! LEGENDARY TITAN OF REBIRTH - PHOENIX!

In a massive wall of fire I summoned the mighty firebird Phoenix!

Drew Saturday: TIBETAN FIRESTORM BURST!

Drew fired a massive blast of fire from her sword.

Doyle fired a massive barrage of missiles of darkness.

Me with Phoenix: FIRESTORM PHOENIX BLAST!

I fired a blast of fire and Phoenix fired a massive blast of fire.

All the blasts hit Finster and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Finster was weakened.

Me: Now you die. KIENZAN DISK!

I formed a red energy disk and threw it at Finster and he jumped out of the way and I commanded the disk to follow him with my hands and Finster jumped and he got careless and then the energy disk slashed him in half and separated his human body from his robotic scorpion body and he was bleeding to death as he fell to the ground.

Doyle Saturday: Alright, guys. This battle is just about over. Finster's gonna bleed out now that his scorpion abdomen's gone.

Me: Yep.

He poured out all of his blood and was dead in an instant.

Nicole banished his evil spirit into the Book of Vile Darkness.

The Masters of Evil appeared.

Jack Atlas: How's Carly doing?

King Hiss: She's doing fine. Sure, Rotwood and Morton roughed her up a bit but she's almost made a full recovery.

Me: That's a relief.

Zak: That's good. But I still can't shake the feeling that Rotwood and Morton aren't done yet.

Bane: Don't worry. What other schemes could they possibly cook up?

Nico: At least I didn't eat you this time Roquefort.

Roquefort: (Laughs) That's true. Anyway, we'll see you around.

Me: Tell Carly we wish her the best.

Bane: Will do.

The Masters of Evil then teleported out.

Me: Well this was awesome.

Nico: It sure was.

Laney: Yeah.

Doyle Blackwell: (To the viewers) Our friends are never gonna be safe as long as we have anything to say about it.

Me: Yep.

We later went back home and showed the proof of the Legendary Jersey Devil. It was incredible.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

The Jersey Devil is one of the most elusive legendary creatures in all of Cryptozoology. Nico lives in New Jersey and he knows all about it. It was awesome that we got to learn all about the legendary Jersey Devil and destroy another one of the Secret Saturday's enemies. Next for their adventures is where we prove the existence of the legendary extraterrestrial creatures of Cryptozoology: the Atmospheric Beasts, alien creatures of ghostly origin that are said to be from another planet. We're also going to destroy the evil anti-matter counterparts of the Secret Saturdays: The Mondays and we're going to make them pay for their crimes. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is where we face the evil and ruthless Emperor Han of The Mummy 3: Tomb of The Dragon Emperor and we're going to stop his evil 2,000+ year quest to rule the entire world with an iron fist. It'll be the ultimate battle of immortality and we're going to find out an incredible revelation about Qin and Emperor Han.

See you all tomorrow

Wrath of the Dragon Emperor

In the Capital City of Des Moines, Iowa, we were there to visit Lori Jimenez's friends that she helped during the Unicron Wars: Coby and his little brother Bud Hansen. They helped her all throughout the quest to stop Unicron by destroying the black hole that threatened to destroy the entire universe.

Roxas: So this is where Bud and Coby live?

Lori Jimenez: Yep. This is where they live. It's also where I was from when we first met.

Sarah Gunnerson: I remember that.

Me: This is gonna be awesome. It's like we're bringing back all the veteran fighters of the Great Unicron Wars.

Kicker: It sure does feel that way.

Misha: Yeah.

Optimus Prime: It'll be good to see Coby and Bud again.

Nico: I know. I heard that Bud was very good friends with Vector Prime.

Optimus Prime: Yes he was. And Vector Prime was a most cherished member of the team.

Nico: Wow.

We arrived at the house of Coby and Bud.

Lori Jimenez: This is it.

Me: Wow. Nice place.

We went up to the door and I knocked on it. Coby answered it.

Coby: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Bud: No way! It's awesome to see you all!

Psylocke: It's nice to meet you two.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you two.

Lori Jimenez: Long time no see Coby. You too Bud.

Coby: Lori!

Bud: Wow!

They hugged her.

Lori Jimenez: We're all back together.

Optimus Prime: Its been a long time Coby. Same to you Bud.

Coby: Optimus Prime! Wow you're looking awesome!

Optimus: Thanks Coby.

Coby: But why are all the Decepticons with you all?

Nico: It's all right Coby. They are all under my leadership. After we destroyed Unicron, the Decepticons recognized me as their new leader. We also destroyed Megatron.

Lily: We sure did.

Rippersnapper: Did we mention that Megatron turned into Galvatron and nearly killed Edzilla?

Coby: Say what?!

Ed: (sobs) Galvatron hit me with an umbrella, guys!

Maria: Actually, Ed, he hit you with his fists.

Nico: I remember that. But it's hard to imagine that we have been through so much because of the Unicron Wars.

Coby: It's amazing.

William: I think you two might also remember Sarah.

Sludge: Her Sarah miss you two.

Sarah Gunnerson: Hey guys. Long time no see.

Coby: Sarah! Wow its been a long time.

Sarah Gunnerson: I know. You guys are looking awesome.

Bud: It sure has been a while Sarah.

Sarah Gunnerson: It sure has.

Me: You all are amazing heroes in the worlds of Transformers and on the planets as well. Earth, Velocitron, Animatron and Gigantion are all part of you as you all are part of them.

Lori Jimenez: Yep.

Coby: We saved the universe from Unicron and Galvatron.

Me: We all did. That makes you all powerful members of the great Cybertronian Alliance as well as members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Bud: Yeah.

We got to talking and it was awesome.

Later that night, Qin was having an amazing and interesting dream.

In her dream she saw that she was in Ancient China, over 2,000 years ago during the mighty Qin Dynasty. She saw that she was looking at her ancestor long before the mighty hero Mulan. She saw her ancestor, the ruthless Immortality-Seeking Tyrant: EMPEROR HAN QIN - THE DRAGON EMPEROR!

* * *

The Dragon Emperor (real name: Qin Han), also known as Emperor Qin Shi Huang and Emperor Han is the main antagonist of the 2008 movie The Mummy: Tomb of the Dragon Emperor. He is a tyrannical and brutal king who first founded the country of China.

He was portrayed by Jet Li, who also portrayed Wah Sing Ku in Lethal Weapon 4 and Gabriel Yulaw in The One.

In ancient China, Qin Han, a brutal and tyrannical warlord, unites the country's kingdoms into an empire and becomes the Dragon Emperor. He had intended to conquer lands in his name, and succeeded in claiming many territories for himself with no opposition; none in China could best him in strategy or strength, as many times during his campaigns, several assassins were sent to kill him in his sleep, but the men were all defeated before they could come close to harming the Emperor. Han went on to vanquish all opponents, destroy many settlements, and slaughter countless innocents, but in time, Han managed to defeat his enemies, as well as to order the construction of a massive wall that served to protect his newly-acquired empire from invaders. He also commanded his enemies and even his servants to be buried within the great wall upon their deaths. The Emperor's mystics taught him supernatural mastery over the classical elements fire, water, earth, wood and metal, making his power seem limitless and ensure his kingdom would continue to prosper under his rule.

After some time in years later, Han's interests turned to preserving his youth as an immortal when he began to grow fearful that all he has accomplished will be lost upon his death, and so sought a witch named Zi Yuan, who was said to know the secrets behind immortality.

Han had sent his general and the sorceress to Turfan to find the formula to become immortal, though Ming Guo and Zi Yuan had, while in Turfan, fallen in love, to the Emperor's displeasure and defied his command that no man touch her. Zi Yuan had returned from Turfan with the Oracle Bones, a packet of ancient spells and enchantments that contained the secrets of immortality, and cast the spell to grant the Emperor his desire in Sanskrit, a language that the Emperor did not know: as punishment, Han ordered Ming Guo to be drawn and quartered by four horses. Han told Zi Yuan that if she agreed to become his queen, Ming would be spared, but Zi Yuan knew that the Emperor would never keep his word: the Emperor indifferently responded that she was right, and had Ming killed regardless. Enraged, Zi Yuan attacked Han who obtained her dagger and stabbed her. As Zi Yuan painfully staggered away, she cursed him for his betrayal of the sorceress. Han was preserved as a terracotta statue along with all his troops and their horses that too transformed into terracotta statues as she escaped, for centuries.

In his demise, the Emperor was entombed in an elaborate terracotta tomb, shaped to resemble a carriage with horses, but the Emperor's body was interred in one of the terracotta figures rather than the area for his body, in which was stored the corpse of a eunuch; the resulting coffin was interred in a chamber in which resided the Emperor's prized possessions and was even adorned with the Emperor's favored concubines, all mummified with him.

Upon being resurrected, Han attempted to once again conquer, reaching immortality at one point, but was finally destroyed by Rick O'Connell and his family along with the help of Zi Yuan and her daughter Lin who both aided in resurrecting the corpses of all the Emperor's enemies and victims including Lin's birth father, General Ming Guo.

As a warlord in his ancient empire, Han initially had formidable fighting skills, and was able to sense attacks even in his sleep.

Powers

Wu Xing Manipulation: Han's natural fighting capabilities are coupled with mastery of five elements of Wu Xing: Wood (木 mù), Fire (火 huǒ), Earth (土 tǔ), Metal (金 jīn), and Water (水 shuǐ). This was shown through his demonstration in conjuring icy spikes, stopping an

Emperor han spitting fire

avalanche with immense effort; generate and manipulate fire (even from his mouth); and heating his terracota-infused limbs to the point of hot enough to both burn and sever things on ease.

Elemental Sealing: Han can also conjure five spheres each formed out of and representing elements of Wu Xing as the catalysts to seal restless soul of his fallen enemies and slaves who are buried beneath the Great Wall. The orbs' destruction would neutralize their sealing power.

Telekinetic Powers: In addition, he appeared to have a form of telekinesis, as he did a throwing motion with his arms and caused Lin to fly in the direction his arms moved, all while she was leaping towards him.

Superhuman Strength, Resilience, and Agility: He was also highly agile and strong despite the casing, allowing him to deflect a firework shot at him with an aerial kick. It also made his hits harder, as he easily knocked down Alex by head butting him, while he was not hurt by it. His resilience was also made him extreme durable to the point of near indestructibility, as he was not fazed by an avalanche hitting him, along with being shot repeatedly, even without his statue casings intact. However, his resilience reduced to that of peak human level when he restored his body to normal and become an immortal, as he now flesh and bones once more and can be stunned and easily overpowered due to reduced resilience.

Abilities

Martial Arts and Swordsmanship: He was a master of martial arts and swordsmanship, but was eventually overpowered by Rick and Alex O'Connell when they challenge him in unarmed combat to outsmart him with divide and conquer tactic by Alex's suggestion.

Regeneration: When resurrected by General Yang, Han was revived in form of a desiccated corpse encased in a terracotta statue. Whenever he regenerates, molten substances would form on his body and reformed his lost terracotta casing and bodily tissues before cools off. This gave him advantages as terracota undead given that when he heats up his rocky limbs to the red-hot point, his said limbs would also more vulnerable had this also not compensated with his elemental powers. The catch as terracota undead however, Han would continually shed away his terracotta casings, usually by either he or someone attacking him breaking the casing as they would harden over time and slight movement could shatter it. In spite of his, he can use the falling pieces of his terracotta casing as improvised thrown weapon as seek in the fight at the streets of Shanghai. Once restore into an immortal human, he would lose the casing and retain his regenerating ability, with the only thing that can destroyed him was his now cursed dragon dagger.

Immortality and Shapeshifting: After gained immortality, Han was able to shapeshift into any creature that he saw fit, notably a three-headed dragon or giant Fu-dog. He is also incapable of being killed thanks to his immortality. The only thing that can destroyed him however, stabbed at the heart with his now cursed dragon dagger.

Narrator: Long ago, a mythic battle between good and evil played out in ancient China. The country was torn by civil war, with many kingdoms struggling for land and power. But one king had a ruthless ambition to make himself emperor by the sword.

That king was Emperor Han - the Dragon Emperor!

Emperor Han: (Speaking Chinese) Leave me. Prepare for war!

Narrator: The other rulers hired assassins to kill the King before he could conquer them all.

As night falls, assassins stealthily went into Emperor Han's hut to try and kill him. But his senses were so powerful and so acute that he would know they were coming and kill them before they could even get to him.

Man: (Speaking Chinese) Stop! I am not armed.

He killed him anyway.

Emperor Han: We attack tonight!

Narrator: Kingdom by kingdom, his army swept away everything in its path, and anyone who resisted met a terrible fate. The country was his. He was now Emperor of All Under Heaven. He enslaved his conquered enemies and forced them to build his Great Wall. When they were dead or useless, he had them buried beneath it. The Emperor's mystics taught him mastery over the five elements, fire, water, earth, wood and metal. His power seemed without limit. He was master of millions, but like the lowliest peasant, he could not stop growing old.

Emperor Han: I have too much to do for one lifetime.

Narrator: He needed to defeat his last enemy, death itself. One day, news came of a powerful witch who was rumoured to know the secret to eternal life. He ordered General Ming, his oldest friend and trusted ally, to find her. The witch was named Zi Yuan, and she was nothing like the General expected.

Zi Yuan: (Speaking Chinese) Your Majesty…

Emperor Han: Rise up.

Zi Yuan: I do not possess the secret of immortality, my Lord… but I know where to find it.

Emperor Han: General… No man is to touch her. She is mine.

Narrator: On the western border stood the Monastery of Turfan. There was housed the greatest library in the ancient world, and Zi Yuan was sure the secret to eternal life was here.

They went to said library and it was incredible. There they found an ancient book said to house the key to Immortality.

Emperor Han: This is a key.

A mysterious book appeared from a compartment as Zi Yuan opened it.

Narrator: It was the long lost oracle bones, a collection of all the mystical secrets of the ancient world. The Emperor's answer was here along with other magic beyond imagining.

Emperor Han: You have served me well. I will grant you anything you desire.

Zi Yuan: I want to spend my life with General Ming.

Emperor Han: Of course. Read.

Narrator: She cast the spell in Sanskrit, an ancient language that the Emperor did not understand.

Emperor Han: I feel your spell working. I am now immortal. Come, I want to show you something.

They saw that they had General Ming held as his prisoner. He had double-crossed his friend.

Emperor Han: Become my queen and I will let him live.

General Ming: Do what he says! Save yourself!

Zi Yuan: You will never keep your word.

Emperor Han: You are right.

The horses tore him limb from limb.

Zi Yuan fought back against him and he stabbed her with a knife.

Emperor Han: Now, join General Ming in hell.

But she was immortal as well. But to his surprise he saw that his body was turning into clay.

Emperor Han: What did you do to me?

Zi Yuan: I cursed you and your army.

Emperor Han was covered in clay. Fire hit him and it was hardening him.

Man: Surround the Palace! The Emperor is in trouble!

The same thing was happening to all of his men and followers and turned them all into clay soldiers.

Narrator: The curse must never be lifted, or the Emperor will rise again to enslave all of mankind. On that dark day, there will be nothing and no one to save us.

Qin gasped in shock and then in a flash of light, Qin woke up panting and she was covered in cold sweet.

Qin: That was a strange dream.

Natilee came in.

Natilee: Qin are you all right?

Qin: Yeah. I had a weird dream. It had something to do with Emperor Han - the Dragon Emperor.

Natilee: You can tell us at breakfast.

Qin: Okay.

We had breakfast and Qin told us all about her dream. With us were Hunter's Friends, the twins of China, Lang Yan und Mao Yan. Lang Yan has brunette man bun hairstyle, while Mao Yan has brunette ponytail. Both Lang Yan und Mao Yan has a heart shape face, Lang Yan has Emerald Green Eyes, while Mao Yan has Azure Crystalline Eyes. Both have square ears, roman style noses, and straight eyebrows. Lang Yan has a red and white Cheongsam dress, while Mao Yan has Red and Yellow Red Phoenix and Fish Tail Cheongsam Dress. Both wear red sandals, and both wear blue shorts. Each has flowers on their left ears, while Lang Yan has a Peony on her left ear, and Mao Yan has a Azaleas on her left ear. Their powers are Wind, Water, Earth, Fire, and Lightning Release. While Lang Yan has Yin Release, and Mao Yan has Yang Release.

Jessie K.: Emperor Han the Dragon Emperor? He was the most feared emperor in all of ancient China from over 2,000 years ago.

Qin: Yes. And he was the most ruthless tyrant that ever lived.

Mao Yan: (Chinese Accent) He was widely feared throughout all of ancient China. He was widely known for seeking eternal life.

Lang Yan: (Chinese Accent) That's right. Emperor Han was the most ruthless emperor in all of China's history.

Me: Was your dream just like mine when I was told about Imhotep and the Scorpion King?

Qin: I think so. I think it was a message warning me about him returning.

Nico: If he returns then we are gonna be dealing with an immortal undead tyrant out to finish what he started in the past.

Qin: Yeah.

Me: Are you somehow connected to Emperor Han like me and Scorpion King, Qin?

Qin: I don't really know. I'm having a hard time figuring it out.

Lisa Loud then pulled a hard from Qin's head.

Qin: Ow!

Lisa Loud: Apologies Qin. But I think I might be able to help you figure out the answer to that question with my DNA scanner.

Qin: Oh. Thanks Lisa.

Lisa pulled out her DNA Scanner and it revealed her family tree. What we saw was shocking. We saw that she was really a direct descendent of Emperor Han from 259 to 210 B.C. and he was the First Emperor of the Qin Dynasty.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: I don't believe it! Qin is really the descendent of Emperor Han!

Qin: I don't believe it. How can I be related to him?

Mulan: Ancestry works in mysterious ways.

Lincoln: It's true.

Laney: Yeah.

Lang Yan: It's true. China has had a lot of ancestral heritages over the course of its entire history.

Mao Yan: Indeed.

Me: Wow. So we're going up against an immortal ruler that should've died over 2,000 years ago.

Nico: This is gonna be one helluva challenge.

Nicole was reading the international newspapers.

Nicole: Yeah. And look at this. There's a new exhibit being unveiled today at the Shanghai Museum and it has the Dragon Emperor there.

We gasped.

Me: That museum has no idea what's gonna happen. We got to get over there and fast!

Nico: Right.

Sarah Gunnerson: This is gonna get really rough.

Qin: But I'm ready for anything.

Lang Yan: Me too.

Mao Yan: Same here.

Me: Lets go!

We were off to Shanghai, China.

SHANGHAI, CHINA

We arrived in Shanghai, China - 3rd Largest city in the world in terms of population.

Me: Here we are guys.

Qin: Home again.

Nico: It's just as big and beautiful as I remember.

Lincoln: It sure is something.

Me: Lets find the museum.

We walked around the city and we found the museum and went in and we saw the exhibit.

Me: Wow. The artifacts of the Tomb of The Dragon Emperor.

Nico: For over 2,000 years it laid hidden.

We saw Rick O'Connell and Evie there.

Rick O'Connell: Didn't expect to see you guys here.

Me: Great minds thing alike Rick.

Evie: (British Accent) They sure do.

Me: So you're all here to see the tomb of the Dragon Emperor as well huh?

Rick O'Connell: We sure are.

?: How coincidental.

We turned and we saw General Yang! He was the commander of a rogue Chinese Military Faction that believes that Emperor Han will bring China back to its former glory after everything that happened in World War II over 75 years ago.

Me: General Yang!

I kicked him in the face and knocked down Colonel Choi!

Nico: You know these guys J.D.?

Me: I sure do. General Yang is the leader of a rogue Chinese Military Faction that believes that Emperor Han will bring China back to greatness after World War II ended 75 years ago.

Nico: Geez! So we have a rogue military cult to deal with as well.

Colonel Choi got up and Alex O'Connell and Lin appeared and kicked her in the face and knocked them down.

Me: Good timing Alex.

Alex O'Connell: Thanks J.D.

Qin: I don't think I've ever met you before.

Lin Yuan: I'm Lin Yuan, protector of the Tomb of the Dragon Emperor. These people have no idea what they have just done.

Qin: Pleasure to meet you.

We then saw Dark Spicer, Lord Drakkon and Dr. Light appear.

Me: This isn't a good time guys.

Lord Drakkon: Why?

Me: The Dragon Emperor - Emperor Han is gonna return and we have to stop him at all costs and destroy him for good.

Dark Spicer: Yeah right. (to Alex O Connel) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Not if he kicks yours first.

Dark Spicer: I have two new aliens to show you.

Dark Spicer became a new alien. It looked like Jury Rigg except he was blue and he had ugly spines all over him and he had 6 eyes.

Gremlin Plague: Let me introduce… Gremlin Plague!

Shanan: A mutant Planchaküle. Very interesting.

Gremlin Plague went into an airplane that was used by the Rogue Military faction of Emperor Han.

Gremlin Plague: (takes airplane apart) Break! Break! Break! Break! (builds something out of it) Fix! Fix! Fix! Fix!

About a minute later, he made from the airplane a powerful death ray.

Gremlin Plague: I know you'll find a way to destroy this. But I just want to know if this works! (fires death ray at Fuzzy)

Fuzzy ducks and the ray blows a hole in the wall.

Me: You made a powerful neutronic death ray out of their airplane.

Gremlin Plague: Yep.

He fired it at General Yang and obliterated him in a massive explosion of blood and guts.

Me: EEEWWWWW!

Nico: Nice shot!

Laney: Good shot.

Gremlin Plague: (tosses neutronic death ray to Fuzzy) Alright. Go ahead and destroy this, Fuzzy. I'm gonna show you guys my second new alien for today.

Fuzzy Lumpkins: All right.

Dark Spicer then turned into another new alien mutant. It looked a lot like Eatle except he had many horns, spines and a deadly tail with a mace club on it.

Rock Eat: I call this form… Rock Eat!

Shanan: A mutant Oryctini.

Blade Man: I bet there are a lot of things right now that you can eat.

Rock Eat: You bet there are!

Rock Eat ate some of the ground and concrete. He then converted its matter into energy to shoot a laser beam out of the slot on his horn at Blade Man.

Nico fired the blast back and it hit Rock Eat.

Nico: Nice.

My Signer Mark started glowing.

Me: Uh oh.

Carly Carmine appeared.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Carly. Glad you're all better.

Carly Carmine: I sure am Jack. I'm back and better than ever.

Me: Glad to hear that Carly.

?: Me too.

A figure came out and it was TENTACLAW from episode 6 of Time Force!

---

Tentaclaw like all other mutants was created in the result of accident. He once kidnapped the Mayor of Millennium City, but was captured by Time Force and imprisoned in the Cryo-prison. He was released in the sixth episode to help Nadira get money. Tentaclaw kidnapped the entire bus full of children and held them for ransom. Despite Wes payed Nadira 10 million dollars, Nadira ordered Tentaclaw to kill children. Soon Rangers returned the money and rescued the children, but they had to fight the villain. Tentaclaw separated his head from his body and started to fight the rangers. The rangers defeated head of Tentaclaw with the Vortex Blaster, but his body enlarged and attacked the city. Tentaclaw's body was eventually defeated and frozen by Time Force Megazord Mode Blue.

Jen Scotts: Tentaclaw!

Tentaclaw: Its been a while Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You kidnapped the Mayor of Millennium City in the year 3000 and then you kidnapped a bus full of kids and held them for a $10,000,000 ransom.

Wes Collins: And Nadira ordered him to kill the children anyway.

Me: I remember that.

Tentaclaw: That's right. You watched us on TV didn't you?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Tentaclaw just detached his head from his body, shocking us.

Maria: Whoa!

Tentaclaw: (laughs) I bet you can't fight my head and my body at the same time!

Me: We would like to fight you but now is not a good time.

Tentaclaw: Aww why not?

Tentaclaw's head then landed on Ed and he screamed.

Ed: (SCREAMS!) GET HIM OFF! He's attacking my head!

Tentaclaw: (laughs) I don't really know what's going on but I might as well cause trouble for you guys while I'm here.

Eddy then saw Tentaclaw's body move on its own.

Eddy: Dude, that's creepy!

Double D: (grabs Tentaclaw's head) I would appreciate it if you had kept your head on your own body!

Tentaclaw: Okay okay! Geez.

My Dark Orb detector went off and it showed a Dark Orb flying around and it went into the statue of the Dragon Emperor and we saw him awake. He exploded out of his metal prison and we saw EMPEROR HAN!

Me and Rick: HERE WE FUCKING GO AGAIN!

I pointed to Emperor Han and I fired an energy blast at him and blew his face open. He fired a blast of fire at me and Lola and Yuko absorbed it and the blast of fire hit Tentaclaw and blew him apart in a massive explosion of fire.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Notacon grabbed Tentaclaw and froze him and put him in a capsule.

Dark Spicer: Whoa!

Lord Drakkon: Who is he?

Me: That's Emperor Han, the Dragon Emperor. He was the most feared emperor that ever lived in all of China's history back over 2,000 years ago. He has now returned to enslave the world like he was going to back then.

Dark Spicer: Whoa!

Dr. Light: That's terrible!

Me: No kidding.

Dr. Light: My god.

Qin: Let me talk to him first. He's my ancestor. I want to talk to him.

Me: Okay.

Carly Carmine: Whoa! I didn't know Qin was related to the Dragon Emperor.

Me: We were shocked ourselves.

Qin went up to him.

Qin: (Speaking in Chinese) 汉高祖，我是秦辰，是您将近两年半的后代。你是我秦始祖。(Emperor Han, I am Qin Chen, your descendent after almost two and a half millennium. You are my ancestor from the Qin Dynasty.)

Emperor Han saw her.

Emperor Han: (Speaking in Chinese) 原来如此你和你母亲一样美丽，也和我母亲一样美丽。你有中国美丽公主的气质。(So you are. You are as beautiful as your mother and as beautiful as my mother. You have the makings of a beautiful princess of China.)

Qin: 我可能是秦朝的一部分，但我不想成为中国的皇后。但是我仍然爱你，作为我家庭的一部分。(I may be part of the line of the Qin Dynasty, but I do not want to become empress of China. But I still love you as part of my family.)

Emperor Han: 我明白。然后，我将不得不摧毁你。(I understand. Then I will have to destroy you.)

Qin flew back as Emperor Han fired a massive blast of fire at her and Qin fired a blast of water at Emperor Han and extinguished the fire and he and his horses escaped. Colonel Choi went with him.

Me: We are in deep shit trouble.

Nico: Yes we are.

Qin: We have to stop him.

Dark Spicer: Will someone please tell me what the fuck is going on around here!?

Me: It's a very dark history that goes back over 2,000 years ago.

We revealed everything.

Lord Drakkon: Whoa!

Alex O'Connell: This is really bad guys.

Lin Yuan: No kidding.

Me: We have to stop Emperor Han at all costs. Now he has returned to finish what he started in the past.

Cody (OC): Fighting Anubis wasn't enough, now we have an immortal Emperor from the past to destroy.

Rick: I've put down more mummies in my time.

Alex: You put down one mummy, dad.

Rick: Yeah. Same mummy, twice!

Maria: And we were there when that happened.

Me: Yes we were.

Nico: Yeah. But lets focus on the matter at hand.

Me: Nico is right. We have to destroy Emperor Han at all costs or he will rule over all of the world for all eternity.

Dark Spicer: This is really bad. I'll have the other Masters of Evil help us out.

Me: Okay.

?: Looks like we have the same problem.

We saw a woman come out and it was Zi Yuan - the Immortal Witch.

Qin: (Gasp) I saw you in my dream!

Zi Yuan: It's a pleasure to meet you Qin Chen.

Qin: How do you know my name?

Zi Yuan: I am the one that sent that dream to you. I am Zi Yuan.

Qin: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Lin Yuan: She is my mother.

Qin: But I saw you get stabbed by Emperor Han. How are you still alive?

Zi Yuan: I'm immortal and so is my daughter.

Me: Wow! How long have you lived?

Zi Yuan: I've lived for over 5,000 years.

Everyone: WOW!

Carly Carmine: That's amazing!

Lincoln: Incredible!

Me: That's amazing!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Zi Yuan: It's an honor to meet the world famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I have heard so many incredible things about you all.

Me: We don't like to brag.

Laney: How did you get immortality if I may ask?

Zi Yuan: It's all here in this tome.

Qin saw the Oracle of Bone.

Qin: That's the book I saw in my dream.

Zi Yuan: Yes. I am glad I found you all. I know the secret to defeat the Dragon Emperor.

Qin: What is it?

Zi Yuan: There is an ancient prophecy that is told in Chinese Lore. It shows that only the Warrior of the Dragon can destroy the Dragon Emperor.

Me: And who is this warrior?

Zi Yuan: The warrior is with you all. She was chosen by the gods themselves and they have marked her with a birthmark in the shape of a dragon.

Qin: Birthmark?

Qin lifted up her shirt and she saw a Dragon-Shaped Birthmark on the right side of her stomach.

Qin: So that's what this birthmark is?

Zi Yuan: That's right Qin. You were chosen by the Gods of China to destroy the Dragon Emperor.

Qin: He may be my ancestor but I will never allow him to rule the world with an Iron Fist.

Zi Yuan: I know.

Rick O'Connell: That is hard to believe.

Carol: We have to stop Emperor Han at all costs.

Me: Right. We have to be ready for him.

Zi Yuan: We can't let him and his army go beyond the Great Wall of China or they will be invincible.

Me: That's gonna be big.

Lin Yuan: His entire army is the Terra-Cotta Army.

Me: This is gonna be a big problem.

Vypra and all of the other Masters all arrived.

Vypra: We got here as fast as we could.

Me: We're glad you did Vypra. We got a major problem.

Vypra: Dark Spicer told us everything.

Me: Good. We are going into war.

We got ready for a battle that will decide the very fate of the Earth.

---

Over at the Great Wall of China we were standing behind it and we had our weapons ready.

Me: Here we go.

Zi Yuan: When the Emperor built the Great Wall, he buried his enemies underneath it and cursed their souls so they would hold it up for all eternity. Most of them were conquered soldiers. I will call on them to battle once again.

Qin: I can do that. We need all the help we can get.

Lin Yuan: This is gonna be big.

Nico: And it's gonna get even bigger. Look!

We saw Emperor Han fly over us as a huge 3-Headed Dragon and the rogue Chinese faction was getting together.

We saw the Emperor land on a statue of himself and change back to what he was back over 2,000 years ago!

Emperor Han: 苏醒！(AWAKE!)

6 holes opened up and the Terra-cotta Army came marching out and they were ready for a fight.

Me: Here they come.

The Rogue Faction saluted him.

We listened in to his speech.

Emperor Han: 今天，您在混乱和腐败的氛围中醒来。我将恢复秩序，我将重新获得属于我的东西。我会粉碎任何关于自由的想法。我将毫不留情地宰杀。我将毫无同情心地征服。我现在将带领您经过长城。一旦穿越，您将坚不可摧。我之所以提出您，是出于以下目的：在全世界执行我的意志！(Today you awake to a world in the grip of chaos and corruption. I will restore order, I will retake what is mine. I will crush any idea of freedom. I will slaughter without mercy. I will conquer without compassion. I will now lead you past the Great Wall. Once you cross, you will be indestructible. I raised you for one purpose: To enforce my will on the entire world!)

Cult: 皇帝万岁！皇帝万岁！(LONG LIVE THE EMPEROR! LONG LIVE THE EMPEROR!)

Me: Here we go guys.

Qin snapped her fingers and brought back the armies of everyone that Emperor Han killed 2,000 years ago.

Emperor Han: 死给明将军！(Death to General Ming!)

Qin: This is gonna be awesome!

Troy: Let's knock this emperor off his throne!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Wild Force Rangers.

Me: Lets do it! (Speaking Arabic) هجوم! (ATTACK!)

Qin: 收費！(CHARGE!)

We powered up to full power and transformed and it was gonna be intense. We went at them roaring at the top of our lungs.

Me: (Divine Voice) WELCOME TO THE 21ST CENTURY!

(FORSAKEN BY WITHIN TEMPTATION PLAYS)

We fired energy blasts, elemental blasts, machine gun blasts, laser blasts, missiles, bazookas and more at the entirety of the Terra-cotta army and they hit them all over and exploded with incredible power!

May: Try this one! FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: FORSAKEN!

May floated into the air and a massive wall of fire formed behind her as she sang Forsaken by Within Temptation.

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time

We lived our lives in our paradise

As gods we shaped the world around

No borderlines we'd stay behind

Though balance is something fragile

While we thought we were gaining

We'd turn back the tide, it still slips away

Our time has run out, our future has died

There's no more escape

Now the day has come, we are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Life will pass us by, we are forsaken

We're the last of our kind

The sacrifice was much too high

Our greed just made us all go blind

We tried to hide what we feared inside

Today is the end of tomorrow

As the sea started rising

The land that we conquered just washed away

Although we all have tried to turn back the tide

It was all in vain

Now the day has come, we are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Life will pass us by, we are forsaken

Only ruins stay behind

(We're the kind, forsaken)

(Our greed, make us)

(Our greed, go blind)

(No time)

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time

Now the day has come, we are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Now the day has come

The day has come

The day has come

Nico: We'll be ready for them if they try anything else.

Carly Carmine: Well, I'm glad to hear that.

Me: If he ever does come back we'll be ready for him.

With that, the Masters of Evil teleported out.

Me: As long as we're here in China we might as well head over to Shanghai and enjoy the sights and sounds before we head home.

Evie: Good idea.

We went to Shanghai and explored around the city.

Alex O'Connell: (To the viewers) Learning all about China is amazing. But you have to be careful about who you believe in and what to expect.

Me: That's right.

We enjoyed all of Shanghai.

Another Awesome fanfiction done.

The Mummy 3: Tomb of The Dragon Emperor from 2008 is one of my all time favorite movies and it was so awesome! Brendon Fraser, Jet Li, Michelle Yeoh, Maria Bello, Luke Ford, John Hannah, Isabella Leong and a bunch of big stars all did a great job in that movie. It was so awesome! Jet Li is an amazing star and a deadly Martial Artist. If I faced him in real life he would really kick my butt into next week. But he was awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is one of my dad's and my favorite movies: DARK CITY! It was from 1998 and it starred Rufus Sewell, Kiefer Sutherland, William Hurt, Jennifer Connelly and a bunch of people. We're going to destroy all of the aliens that took control over an isolated city floating in the endless voice of space and it's gonna be a really interesting chapter. Also tomorrow is NicoChan11's birthday so we're going to give Nico an awesome birthday adventure and an awesome battle.

See you all tomorrow.

The Dark Isolation of Dark City

HAPPY 23RD BIRTHDAY TO NICOCHAN11!

---

In the middle of the night at the 1st Nautical Bank in Bikini Bottom, a figure was sneaking through the city in the darkness and he went into the bank. He stole all of the money in the bank: $900,000,000.00 in cash in gold. At Mr. Krabs's house as he was sound asleep, the figure snuck in and placed the gold and cash in his room and left.

The next morning at the Krusty Krab, Maria was kicking the living shit out of Mr. Krabs.

Maria: (throws Mr. Krabs to the ground) We should've known you'd go back to your old ways! (punches him) Everything you said about you feeling remorse for your crimes was all a bunch of bullshit!

Shadow the Hedgehog: Well, you're not getting another chance, Krabs! We're taking you down once and for all!

Carol: Maria, guys, stop!

Nico: We don't even have any proof that Mr. Krabs committed this robbery.

Mr. Krabs: That's right. I didn't steal all this money. I may love money, but the one thing that I would never do is steal money from a bank.

Lana: He's telling the truth.

Lily: I believe him. I've known Mr. Krabs for a long time.

SpongeBob: Same here.

Luna Loud: Dude, if you didn't steal all this money, who did?

Vypra and the Masters came in.

Vypra: I know who did it.

Shiv: Same here.

Nico: Who did it?

Vypra: It was Squidward. He stole all that money in order to frame Mr. Krabs.

Vypra showed them a picture of Squidward wearing a black sweater and cap and he was stealing all of the money and gold from the bank.

Squidward came in.

Squidward: That's ludicrous!

Lily: I should've known you would do this Stupid Squidward!

Nico: I heard that you have hated working for Mr. Krabs for a long time but this is a whole new low for you!

G1 Rampage: There are at least six different ways we can stop you right now.

Squidward: (smirks) But they all involve deadly force, don't they? And you won't do that. [to Lily] No. You need me. You wouldn't be much of a hero without a villain, and you do love being a hero, don't you, Lily? The cheering children, the swooning boys - you love it so much, it's made you and my friends my most reliable accomplices!

Lily: Accomplices?! What're you-

Squidward: You and those other idiots could have crushed me any time you wanted. And it wasn't the law or the will of the people that stopped you - it was your ego. Being a hero was too important to you and your friends. You all are as much responsible for Mr. Krabs getting framed as I am! So go ahead. Fix it somehow, put me on trial, lock me up - but I'll beat it. And then we'll start the whole thing all over again.

Nico: That's getting old Stupid Squidward.

The officers then grabbed him.

Officer: Squidward Q. Tentacles you're under arrest for bank robbery, burglary and false statements.

Vypra: And for good measure.

Vypra fired a blast of energy and it hit Squidward's back and a Cobra Mark appeared on his back.

Vypra: This is what you get for messing around with our friends. Now will pay the price. From this point on in two years, the cobra will crawl up your back moving closer and closer until it reaches your neck and kills you.

Nico: You have 730 days to live.

Lana: Get him outta here.

Officer: With pleasure.

G1 Slug: Him Squidward go bye bye.

Sandy: (to Vypra) I like that Squidward's gonna die in two years. But don't you think that letting 4 people with the Curse of the Cobra go on the run might let to some consequences.

Vypra: Relax, Sandy. What's the worst that can happen? Squidward, Frown, Rotwood, and Morton forming a group against all of us?

Nico: That's a strong possibility. But it'll be a completely incompetent group.

Maria: Sorry I roughed you up like that Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: No worries lass.

They got to having a nice lunch.

Squidward regardless of his incompetency to stand trial because of his insanity was found guilty of his crimes and sentenced to spend the rest of his miserable life in prison without the possibility of parole on the toughest prison in all of the 7 seas: INFERNO ISLAND! Because of the severity of his crimes, he was put in a straitjacket and placed in Solitary Confinement for life.

Back at the estate, we were having a party.

Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea: (Blows Noisemakers) HAPPY BIRTHDAY NICO!

Me: Happy 17th birthday man.

Nico: Thanks J.D. Thanks guys.

Lincoln: No problem buddy.

We had an awesome birthday barbecue for him and had his favorite: Chicken wings and all kinds of awesome food for him. We had an awesome birthday cake for him as well. It was a delicious White Chocolate Lava Cake with white chocolate cake and white chocolate mint chip sauce made by Mary Knudson.

We had awesome food and games and we gave Nico awesome gifts and presents. I got him 5 indestructible and awesome punching bags in the shapes of Evil Sasuke, Rotwood, Morton, Squidward and Master Frown. The best part of the Punching Bags is they talk and act just like the real things. Except they don't move or attack. Luan got him a chocolate pie that she splatted in his face and he ate it by licking it off of his face. Eddy got him an awesome blaster like his. We got him all kinds of awesome presents.

The alarm then sounded.

Me: Uh oh. Looks like you're gonna have an awesome Birthday Mission buddy.

Nico: Awesome.

We went to the computer and we saw that a bunch of humans have been abducted by aliens and taken to an isolated city space station floating in the endless void of space light-years away from Earth. The station was 76,212 light-years away from home.

Me: Whoa! We better go check this out.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

We got into the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and we were off to the mysterious city in space.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the endless void of space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2836.2: We are en route to a mysterious city floating in the endless void of space. Aliens have kidnapped a bunch of humans for an unknown purpose and we have to find out what it is and bring them back home. Our Mission is to learn about this mysterious city and destroy these aliens.

Laney: What do you think this space city is like?

Nico: I don't know.

Me: We'll find out when we get there. This city sounds like it's really creepy. It sounds very familiar though.

Lisa Loud: We have appeared to have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

The Viewscreen turned on and it showed that we were at a huge city-size space station that looked like a true city floating in the endless void of space. It was huge and amazing. There was no Sun and no oceans. It was called DARK CITY!

---

Dark City

The unnamed dark city is the primary setting of the film, and home to the Strangers and their experiments. The city itself is a controlled environment, an enclosed maze suspended in space, supported by great machines, meant to study the (independent) variable of memories and how they affect the (dependent) variable of human nature, particularly behavior, relationships and the phenomenon of the human soul.

The Strangers believe the answer to prolonging their life lies in these unique characteristic of humans, indicative of their desire to be more like their subjects.

The city is also devoid of sunlight and large water bodies, as the Strangers are photophobic and have a strong aversion towards water.

Below the city

The Strangers live below the city, which houses the great machines that control the environment as well as the base of operations where Dr. Schreber synthesizes memories, used as independent variables, to be injected into the humans subjects. Below the city is also where the Strangers communally meet to discuss their plans of experimentation. It is implied that there are hundreds of Strangers in the city, each with their own tasks with regards to the experiment, (i.e. manufacturing parts, rearranging people, etc.)

The Experiment

The main experiment is for the Strangers to observe if people act a certain way according to their memory or are truly capable of acting out of volition. This, according to the Strangers, is the key to unlocking the secrets of the Human Soul, defined by the Strangers as the human's capacity for individuality.

Somewhere below the city, there is a giant clock and a giant globe-like machine both used by the Strangers as proponents in controlling time and the city landscape, respectively. The clock, when shut down, causes temporary comatose in all the subjects, (which could possibly indicate an initial chemical injection in the subjects that induces sleep at command). This gives the Strangers and Dr. Schreber time to rearrange peoples' position and implant them with fabricated memories, creating new long-term memories, as part of the experiment.

The unnamed globular structure is used to change the cityscape. The Strangers have an ability to Tune (see Biology, Abilities for more details). Collectively, they can Tune and focus all at once at the globular structure, whose changes reflect a change in the city, be it the erection of a new building or even the improvement in the layout of the room. They make physical changes in the city to be consistent with the changes in memory.

Making all these major changes is known is as Tuning, which the Strangers actually do on a roughly 12 hour basis (due to the city residing in a permanent night, the Tuning ritual is preformed at 00:00/12:00 a.m. - which as mentioned, rather than 24 hours elapsing from the previous ritual, it takes merely 12).

---

Nico: Wow! Look at that.

Naruto: Strange city.

Me: Wow!

I scanned the whole city and it showed blueprints of it and they showed that it was a massive space station that is being used as a giant city for human experimentation.

Laney: Wow! It's amazing that these aliens created a huge city like this.

Lincoln: It sure is. What do you think they are using this city for?

Me: We'll find out soon. Lets head down.

We went down to the city and we landed and we saw that it was a strange place.

Me: Wow. Look at this city.

Nico: It's amazing. It's just like a normal city that we all know.

Vince: It sure is.

Kanaloa: (Hawaiian Accent) It sure is strange.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it also gives me the creeps.

Me: Yeah.

We walked around and saw everyone leading really normal lives and doing every day things.

Me: This is too creepy. Everyone is doing productive lives.

Nico: Yeah it's like they aren't kidnapped at all.

Then we heard a clock bell toll and we saw everyone fall asleep.

Me: Whoa! That's unusual.

Then we saw strange people wearing all black clothes with black hats walking around.

Man: Well if it isn't the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Who are all of you? You aren't like the very people of this city.

Stranger: We are the Strangers.

Lincoln: That's an unusual and simple name for a group of people.

Nico: Are you all the ones in charge of this city?

Stranger: Yes you could say that. We are the operators of Dark City. You see, we kidnapped them to understand how humans work so we can save our race.

I then slashed his head open with my sword and saw the men with him in excruciating pain.

Nico: What did you do that for J.D.!?

Lily: Look!

We saw a blue gelatinous creature ooze out of the mans head and it was a gross creature!

Me: What the fuck!?

Nico: What is that!?

Luna got it wet and it bursted into flames and it squealed in excruciating pain as it was incinerated in an instant.

Me: Geez!

Shanan: (Gasp) I know those creatures! They are called the Noirnites.

Nico: The Noirnites?

Shanan: They are commonly known here as the Strangers. This whole city is their space station. It's called Dark City.

Shanan told us all about them.

---

The Strangers are the main antagonists of the 1998 film Dark City. They are an alien species, of which possess incredible powers and unimaginably advanced technology. Although, they are nonetheless a dying race, with their hive-minded society unable to adapt or withstand their oncoming extinction.

However, having observed the individuality of human beings, they believe that the solution to their plight lies somewhere in the human psyche; they have arranged a grand experiment to delve into the forces behind human personality and memory, experimenting at length on the humans they have been able to abduct in an attempt to find some insight that will be able to save their race. As such, they spend much of the film orchestrating events from behind the scene, only revealing themselves when they have no choice but to intervene directly.

Outwardly, the Strangers are uniformly pale, bald individuals dressed in form-concealing black coats and wide-brimmed hats - unusual and often demonstrating a variety of eccentric mannerisms, but otherwise human to all appearances. However, these are only the vessels that they use to interact with humanity and protect their true selves: in reality, the Strangers are transparent jellyfish-like entities that use human corpses as hosts and disguises, and have permanently adopted their current host bodies for use in aping human individuality.

Though they are possessed of immense psychic powers and their host bodies grant them additional resilience, the Strangers also possess a number of serious weaknesses: the true parasitic form of the Stranger resides in its vessel's skull, ensuring death if the head is penetrated or cleaved open. Strangers cannot tolerate water: moist, humid environments repel them, and direct exposure to water kills them instantly - a severe handicap, considering that their test subjects cannot afford to be without the substance. Similarly, the Strangers cannot withstand sunlight, and have gone so far as to turn their city away from the sun it orbits, trapping the human population in perpetual midnight - a fact they only fail to notice thanks to the Strangers' ability to alter memories.

A hive-minded species, the Strangers congregate in vast numbers in their laboratory beneath the city, discussing current events in senate-like gatherings. Though they have adopted a number of individual traits into their society in their attempts to mimic their human test subjects, such as the concept of dissenting voices and personal names, they still tend to operate in groups: though all of them possess the ability to Tune to some degree, their powers are best utilized when gathered in large numbers, where they can focus their telekinetic energies to alter the structure of local reality on a massive scale; similarly, when in the field, Strangers tend to work in groups of three to four. As such, the sight of a lone Stranger in the field is a rare sight.

Personalities among the Strangers tend to be rudimentary and experimental at best: all of them have adopted names, but they primarily seem based on random objects - Mr. Book, Mr. Hand, Mr.

Wall and so on. Likewise, while they have adopted certain roles and certain personality traits, there is rarely any depth to them: Mr. Book is the leader; Mr. Hand is the commander in the field; Mr. Wall is the brute and the occasional contrary, and so on. Mr. Sleep is one of the few exceptions to this, as he demonstrates a pronounced sadistic bent throughout the story: witnessed eagerly clicking his teeth at the prospect of fighting, he also mutilates the corpses of prostitutes, attempts to get John to fall from a ledge by biting his hand, and when the Strangers finally capture John, Sleep is the first of them to demand the captive's execution. The other known exception to this rule is Mr. Hand, demonstrating curiosity and fascination with John Murdoch as time goes on, eventually risking death by accepting John's original memory imprint in order to learn more about him - also developing a particularly violent streak along the way.

Apart from these crude attempts at demonstrating personality, the Strangers are otherwise uniform in their overall behavior. Most of them tend to speak in unnerving monotones, and have a habit of ending their questions with the word "yes?" Occasionally, they chatter their front teeth as if signalling to one another, an activity they perform on mass while Tuning - often causing the entire laboratory to resound with the echoes of chattering teeth.

History

Little is known of the Strangers' past history, their home planet, or even their true species name. All that is known is that they discovered that their species was on the verge of extinction, their hive-mind unable to withstand the disaster whittling away at their numbers. Leaving their world en mass, the survivors traveled the stars in search of a cure, and eventually discovered humanity: recognizing the individuality of human beings, they came to believe that there was something in them that might be able to save their people - something commonly known as the human soul.

To that end, they formed an immense space station, modifying it to resemble a human city from around 1920-50: disguising their true forms with human corpses, they abducted several thousand humans from Earth and made them residents of the city, erasing their memories and regularly imprinting them with new ones in order to investigate the origins of human personality. However, they needed an expert on the human mind to properly synthesize and mix the memories, and also abducted the psychologist Dr Daniel P Schreber; though they allowed him to retain his skills and personality, they erased his memories of the past, ensuring that he could never find a way back to Earth even if he escaped their control.

While human society continued unabated throughout the city, the Strangers remained at work in the laboratories below, their factories churning out countless personal items and documents used to enforce the illusion of a past on their captives. Because light was deadly to their kind, the Strangers kept their station angled away from the sun it orbited, leaving the city in a state of perpetual darkness; however, thanks to the altered memories and social conditioning of their jailers, none of the human inhabitants of the city ever noticed the absence of daylight. Likewise, though all of them remembered an idyllic seaside paradise known as Shell Beach, none of them remembered how to get there, and none of them questioned the curious lack of city limits or external train routes.

Every so often, the Strangers would shut down operations aboveground for a mass Tuning, rendering their captives unconscious while they went about adjusting the city's layabout and replacing the memories of its inhabitants. Over the course of a single Tuning session, entire buildings would melt, merge or simply vanish to make way for new structures, while downtrodden members of the working poor could find themselves unexpectedly transplanted into the financial upper crust of the city, and given memories indicating they had always been as rich and powerful as their situation indicated.

Occasionally, one of their test subjects would wake up in the middle of the Tuning process, having developed an immunity to the Strangers' sleep-inducing signals after years of constant exposure. Most of them spent their days wandering the city "like lost children," struggling to process what they'd seen over the course of the Tuning: almost all of them were believed insane by their fellow citizens, an impression only worsened when they attempted to draw attention to the changes made to people by the Strangers. Most of these situations ended with the sufferer being recaptured by the Strangers or committing suicide.

After many years of experimentation, the Strangers eventually decided to study the nature of memory and free will: creating records and evidence of a serial killer (complete with the bodies of murdered prostitutes), they arranged to imprint protagonist John Murdoch with the memories of the killer, intending to see whether John would continue on the path established by these memories or diverge from it entirely. During the tuning process, John's memories were erased as planned; however, before Dr Schreber could inject the unsuspecting test subject with the memories of his life as a serial killer, John briefly regained consciousness, accidentally knocking the syringe out of his hands and forcing Schreber to flee in a panic.

Thus, the film begins with John awakening with no memories at all.

Events Of The Film

The Strangers swiftly arrive to investigate the scene, though John has already left his hotel with some over-the-phone prompting from Schreber; after knocking out the investigating desk clerk, they follow John as he attempts to discover his past, eventually cornering him underneath a billboard for Shell Beach. However, John proves immune to their attempts to induce unconsciousness, and unexpectedly demonstrates an ability to Tune as well; through instinctive use of this power, he succeeds in killing Mr. Quick, before hastily making his escape.

Below, the assembled Strangers discuss the situation, eventually resorting to interrogating Schreber in their attempts to uncover the truth - first in his private sanctuary at a local spa, then at his laboratory at the Strangers' base. In the end, he can only conclude that John has adapted to the situation in much the same way that other test subjects developed an immunity to the sleep-inducement, developing the ability to Tune after years of exposure to the telepathic energies of the Strangers.

Realizing that John may be the solution to their problem, Mr. Book declares him a top-priority capture - particularly after he discovers that the latest Tuning of the city went wrong due to John's subconscious influence on the city's machinery. Eventually, Mr.

Hand volunteers to be imprinted with John's memories, hopefully offering them a means of following the human's attempts to uncover his past; though all such attempts at imprinting a Stranger with human memories have gone horribly wrong, Mr. Book permits this desperate step. As a result, Mr. Hand begins to demonstrate human emotions and begins stalking John's wife - driven by a growing fascination with human existence; however, he also acquires his target's memories as a serial killer, and deliberately murders and mutilates a prostitute just for the sake of roleplaying as John.

Though the memories eventually lead the Strangers right to John, he is nonetheless able to evade them with the help of Anna Murdoch and Inspector Bumstead; by the time they arrive at the police station to capture John, Bumstead has already left with him in an attempt to discover the city's secrets. While the two rogue test subjects capture Schreber and get him to explain everything, the Strangers capture Anna: after catching up with John - and killing Bumstead in the ensuing fight - Mr. Hand is able to force him to surrender by threatening Anna's life.

By now, Mr. Book has conclusively declared that John holds the key to the Strangers' survival, and must be made into one of them in order to share the information through their hive mind, commissioning an imprint of Stranger memories from Schreber to that end. However, Schreber instead gives John an imprint of memories teaching him how to use his powers, allowing John to break free and assault the Strangers with his newly mastered abilities: after destroying the underground base and killing Mr. Book in an aerial battle to the death, John finally turns the city towards the nearby star, ensuring that any Strangers that survived the destruction of their laboratory complex will die in the first sunrise.

Powers and Abilities

The Strangers' most prominent trait is their telekinesis, which is powerful enough to warp physical materials on a molecular level; in their culture, it is referred to as "Tuning," and every Stranger possesses some capacity for it. Individually, most use it only to form doorways to infiltrate human dwellings, occasionally levitating in order to bypass obstacles and travel swiftly about the city; Mr. Book is the most powerful of all of them, demonstrating strength enough to levitate and move physical objects, warp the city's technology on his own, and telekinetically fling human beings around like ragdolls. However, the Strangers perform their best work as a whole, interfacing with the internal mechanisms of the city in order to reshape the city, conjuring new buildings and new structures for their captives to inhabit.

However, they also possess a mild telepathic ability, most commonly used for influencing the minds of others: though they cannot control human beings or read their thoughts, they can force their captives to lose consciousness by placing a hand over their faces and commanding them to sleep. As with much of their powers, this can also be utilized en mass at a moment's notice before the Tuning commences, the city's mechanisms allowing them to send every single human resident to sleep: however, some test subjects can develop an immunity to this sleep-inducing signal, not only remaining awake during the Tuning but also resisting direct attempts to induce unconsciousness by individual Strangers.

As has already been mentioned, the Strangers possess highly-advanced technology: not only are they capable of warping the layout of the city and rendering its human inhabitants unconscious, but they have also mastered a unique technological art for deleting memories and creating new ones, physically condensing memory into a physical substance that can be injected into the human brain by a needle; through this process, they can re-arrange the identities of their captives at will, allowing them to test the role memory plays in human individuality. However, as they do not understand the complexities of the human brain, they have delegated the role of mixing these arranged memories to Dr Schreber, the only "artist" capable of mixing the memories as specified.

Finally, though Strangers rarely have cause for physical violence, the host bodies are capable of significant feats of strength and resilience: Strangers like Mr. Hand and Mr. Wall are strong enough to casually manhandle human beings with ease, and the lack of vital organs below the neck makes Strangers as a whole effectively immune to bullets.

We gasped in shock!

Nico: Whoa!

Laney: That's terrible!

Maria: So this is Dark City?

Shanan: Yes. The Noirnites use this as their base of operations to understand how humans think to save themselves. They are a dying race from the planet Noirna. Their home planet was destroyed when their star went nova. They are a parasitic race that use the bodies of dead humans to sustain themselves.

Luna Loud: That's nuts dudes.

Nico: No kidding.

Laney: What galaxy do they come from?

Shanan: They come from the Black Eye Galaxy. These aliens are the last of their kind.

Nico: So they need dead people to live?

Shanan: Exactly. And they are extremely phobic of light and water. One drop of water or one blast of light is lethal to them and very fatal.

Luna Loud: That explains why my water incinerated that creature.

Shanan: That's right. They are also impervious to gunfire.

Me: So we have to use the very things they fear most to destroy them.

Shanan: Right.

Me: We have to get everyone out of here and back home.

Lily: Let me see if I can free them from this place. HOLY STYLE NINJA ART: DIVINE ANTIDOTE!

Lily fired a massive wave of white light and it swept across the whole city and freed everyone that was captured by the Strangers. They had their memories back and were freed from their experiment.

Me: That did it. Great job Lily. Nathaniel, get everyone in the city beamed to the ship so we can have them taken back home.

Nathaniel: Right.

Nathaniel did so.

A man came up to us. It was John Murdoch.

John Murdoch: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Me: That's right.

John Murdoch: Wow. It's an honor to meet you all. I'm John Murdoch. It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Me: Same to you John.

John Murdoch: I have my memories back. I also want to help you all destroy the leader of the Strangers, Mr. Book.

Me: He must be the supreme leader of the Noirnites.

John Murdoch: What are they called?

Shanan: They are called the Noirnites. That's the name of the Strangers real species. They come from the destroyed planet Noirna in the Black Eye Galaxy.

Shanan told him what they were.

John Murdoch: Wow. I didn't know they were that dangerous.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Our spaceship is over the city right now and we're gonna get you all back home.

We saw many flashes of light happening all over the city.

John Murdoch: What's happening?

Me: It's our transporters. They are beaming everyone in the city but you and us onto our ship. After we destroy all the Noirnites we're going to blow up this whole city.

John Murdoch: Good. It'll be a relief to get back home again.

Me: Yeah. We have to stop the Noirnites once and for all.

John Murdoch: And we will.

Me: After we do that we're going to blow up this entire space station with our superlaser.

John Murdoch: Good.

Me: Okay.

?: If you can live long enough to do so.

We turned and we saw MR. BOOK and the entirety of THE STRANGERS!

Me: Mr. Book, I presume?

Mr. Book: That's right. The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm and John Murdoch. What have you done to our experiment?

Lily: Freed your prisoners and we're taking them back to Earth. I gave them their lives back to what they were before you all made them into something they are not!

Me: You all have tormented these people for far too long. And we won't let you live anymore.

Vanitas, Hydro Man and the Common Cold arrived.

Me: Vanitas, Hydro Man and the Common Cold.

Hydro Man: Yep.

Common Cold: (Sneezes) Now you all will get to be really sick!

Robin: You are disgusting!

Vanitas: Hey, Nico. Hope you're having a good birthday.

Nico: I sure am.

Hydro Man: After this battle's done, we have a special gift for you.

Nico: Can't wait.

?: This is gonna be fun.

A figure came out and it was BOWLING ORG from episode 19 of Wild Force!

---

Bowling Org was hired by Jindrax and Toxica to destroy the Power Rangers. He had many bowling balls and was a powerful enemy. He attacked the Turtle Cove and encountered the rangers. In their first battle Bowling Org easily defeated the rangers with his bowling balls. In the second battle Merrick tried to battle the monster, but his moon weapon was made for billiards, not for bowling. So Merrick lost the battle, like the other rangers. Max went back to his old mentor, a former pro bowler and remembered about his old battle technique "The Spin Tornado" and returned to the battle. Bowling Org was already ready to kill Merrick, but Max learns the Spin Tornado and uses it against the Bowling Org. Bowling Org was defeated by the technique Max learned and the rangers used their jungle sword to finally destroy the monster. Toxica resurrected the Org. In his giant form, Bowling Org was even more powerful and he defeated their Zords with his balls. The rangers finally destroyed Bowling Org with the "Tornado Armadillo Spin" in the Wild Force Megazord Predator Mode.

---

Max Cooper: Bowling Org!

Bowling Org: Didn't expect to see me again didn't you?

Me: I remember you! You challenged Max to a battle and he beat you with a technique he learned from his Bowling Mentor.

Bowling Org: That's right. You watched us on TV from what I have heard.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Bowling Org: Good. (to Max) You remember that little battle where you and I threw our bowling balls at each other?

Max: Of couse I do. Why?

Bowling Org: (to Lynn) I challenge you to that same thing!

Lynn: Really?

Bowling Org: Yeah! I know how good you are at sports. So, you're the perfect opponent for me! If you win, you get to take my bowling ball off of my corpse. If I win, I get to take your powers off of your corpse. What do you say?

Lynn: It's a deal.

Me: This is gonna be awesome. Just like on TV.

John Murdoch: I can tell.

Me: Here Lynn. You'll need these. He throws just as many bowling balls as he used to defeat the rangers like on TV.

I snapped my fingers and a huge pile of bowling balls appeared by Lynn.

Lynn: Thanks J.D.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer coming.

In a flash of Green Light and Orange Light came Misty Tredwell and Carly Carmine.

Brittney: Misty.

Misty Tredwell: Nice to see you Brittney.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Hello Carly.

Carly Carmine: Hey Jack. I'm going to help you guys today. It's not my turn and I just like helping all of you.

Jack Atlas: That's fine with us.

Me: Yep.

John Murdock: This city's been in the dark for too long!

Emma: Time to get this city out of the darkness.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkrieg!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers.

Me: Lets dance.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Vanitas

---

Spiderman was facing Vanitas.

Spiderman: This city is scary huh?

Vanitas: It sure is. But we've seen scarier things than this.

Spiderman: True. Lets do it.

Spiderman went at him and kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach and tied him up with his spiderwebbing.

Spiderman: Good fight.

---

Battle 2: Hydro Man

Luna Loud was facing Hydro Man.

Luna Loud: The Strangers die if our water touches them. You know that right?

Hydro Man: I sure do. Really freaky.

Luna fired a wave of water and it hit Hydro Man and Luna fired another wave of water and it slammed into the strangers and the Noirnites came out of them and Hydro Man saw how ugly they were and they squealed in excruciating pain as they were being incinerated in an instant.

Hydro Man: Whoa! You weren't kidding Luna. I didn't know this is what happens when they get wet.

Luna Loud: They are also phobic of light. It burns them. I think sunlight burns them.

Hydro Man: Wow! The only way for these aliens to thrive would be if they lived underground.

Luna Loud: That's right. Shanan said that these aliens lost their home planet when their sun went supernova.

Hydro Man: Wow. That's really rough.

Luna Loud: Yeah.

Hydro Man: But this is gonna be rough for you guys.

Luna Loud: We're not gonna kill these people. They are dead people that the Niornites are inhabiting. They are parasitic aliens.

Hydro Man: That's really weird. But really freaky.

Luna Loud: No kidding dude.

Battle 3: Common Cold

Robin was facing the Common Cold.

Robin: You are really disgusting.

Common Cold: You are no cure for The Common (Gears up to sneeze) (SNEEZE)

Robin: Lets do this!

Robin pulled out his staff and bashed him all over the place with it and it really hurt him all over. Common Cold charged up his phlegm blaster with powerful snot blasts and he fired them all at Robin and he dodged them all over the place and it was disgusting!

Robin: What you need is some echinacea.

He threw grenades and they hit the Common Cold and burned him all over as it was starting to work.

Robin: Echinacea is good for a cold.

Common Cold: It burns! IT BURNS!

Robin: Then how about some Orange Juice to go with it?

He fired a bomb full of Orange Juice and it hit him and burned him all over as it splattered him with pulp.

Robin: Let the antioxidants do their job ya big baby.

Common Cold was knocked down and out cold.

Battle 4: Bowling Org

Lynn was facing the Bowling Org.

Bowling Org: This is gonna be awesome!

Lynn: You know I always love a challenge.

Bowling Org: Awesome!

Lynn and Bowling Org threw a lot of bowling balls at each other and it was a hard shower of balls raining all over Bowling Org and Lynn was dodging his balls all over the place like no problem.

Bowling Org: Wow! You're really good!

Lynn: It's like I'm playing Extreme Dodgeball.

Lynn threw a bunch of balls at Bowling Org and they hit him all over the place and knocked him down.

Bowling Org: You win.

He lost his bowling ball and he feel down and exploded in a massive explosion of fire.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lynn: Lynn-sanity Jr. number 1! WHOO!

Lynn picked up the ball.

---

Battle 5: Misty Tredwell

---

Persephone was facing Misty.

Misty Tredwell: This is gonna be interesting.

Persephone: It sure is.

Misty Tredwell: Lets get it on. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCARAYHUA!

She summoned the Lizard Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua.

Persephone: My monsters are the Elemental Reptiles. I summon RADIANT SPIRIT, UMBRAL SOUL, FIRESTORM PROMINENCE, SILENT ABYSS, DESTRUCTION CYCLONE and RAGING EARTH!

Persephone summoned said monsters and they were reptiles of each of the six elemental attributes.

Misty Tredwell: Interesting selection.

Persephone: Reptiles have always fascinated me since I was younger. Shall we dance?

Misty Tredwell: Lets dance.

They went at each other and Persephone ducked under a punch from Misty and she jumped over a leg sweep and jumped behind Misty and fired a wave of wind at her and blew Misty into a building. Misty fired a wave of green energy and Persephone fired a blast of green fire and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Elemental Reptiles fired blasts of their elements at Ccarayhua and blew him apart in a huge and powerful explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked Misty down.

Persephone: Good fight.

---

Battle 6: THE STRANGERS

---

We all regrouped and we were facing the Strangers.

Me: You aliens are not welcome in our galaxy.

I flew over and punched a Stranger in the face and kicked another in the face and we fired massive energy blasts and blew some of them into oblivion. Nico fired massive blasts of fire and blew them apart and Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted them all over. Laney fired blasts of fire and poison and blew them apart all over the place. Luan fired blasts of light and incinerated them all over the place and Lucy fired waves of black lightning and electrocuted them all over the place and Lana and Lola fired blasts of ice and fire and burned and froze them all over and Lily fired blasts of water all over and most of the Strangers were incinerated into dust. Another fanfiction complete.

Dark City from 1998 has been one of my dad's and my favorite movies for a while. Rufus Sewell, Kiefer Sutherland, Jennifer Connelly and William Hurt all did a magnificent job in the movie. It was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. No ideas from ArchangelOfJustice12 this time. But thanks guys. Happy 23rd Birthday to NicoChan11 and I'm glad I was able to make this awesome chapter for you as a great present. Next up is where we journey to Middle Earth and take down the ruthless Dark Lord Sauron and make sure that the One Ring is gone forever along with all of the evil of Mordor and the armies of Sauron.

See you all tomorrow

EVIL OF THE ONE RING

In the estate we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: A lot of good movies on today.

Nico: Yep.

Sarah Gunnerson: We're off on our Girls Night Out.

Lori Jimenez, Sarah Gunnerson, Gwen Tennyson, Tara, May, Jen and Yumi were off on an awesome Girls Night Out.

Me: Okay. Have fun girls.

James: Where are you girls going for your Girls' Night Out?

James' Cacnea: Cacnea!

May: We're going to the mall to have fun.

Taranee: You guys be careful out there.

Lori Jimenez: We will.

They were off to the mall.

Hun Gurr: You think the girls are okay?

Nico: C'mon, Hun Gurr. I'm sure they're fine.

At the mall, the girls were having a really awesome time. They went to awesome clothing stores, jewelry shops and many more stores. In the clothing stores they tried on all kinds of awesome clothes and looked like glamorous supermodels trying all kinds of new clothes and more. It was awesome. Later they went to a good restaurant and they were having a great lunch.

Sarah Gunnerson: So what were you guys doing before you all joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

May: I'll start that one. I was a Pokemon Contest contestant.

May went over her background history.

---

When May debuted in the anime, she did not like Pokémon at all and was only interested in becoming a Pokémon Trainer so she could travel. Everyone expected her to follow in her father Norman's footsteps. However, after seeing a Pokémon Contest in All Things Bright and Beautifly!, she decided to become a Pokémon Coordinator instead. Since May initially knew almost nothing about Pokémon or attacks, Ash assumed the role of her mentor. She gradually gained experience through her journey and practice with Ash.

As a Coordinator, May was able to learn more about Pokémon and form stronger bonds with them. In Come What May!, after winning the Fallarbor Contest, May told her Beautifly that she loved it. This is an example of her growth - from someone who initially disliked Pokémon to someone who cared deeply for them.

With her Pokémon, May was able to come up with different attack combinations to use during her Contest Battles. For instance, she would use her Combusken's Fire Spin and her Squirtle's Bubble to create a combination of fire and water, dubbed "Fire and Water Whirlwind" by Lilian, after witnessing Tucker use it against Ash with a combination of Water Pulse and Fire Blast. This even made a rival of hers angry, thinking she thought he was not worthy of the move as May did not use it against him.

She also developed a love for making her own Pokéblocks with recipes that she thought up, including ones called "May's Purple Surprise" and "May's Pink Surprise" (Japanese: Haruka's Delicious and Haruka's Delicious 2). Unfortunately, the only ones who liked her "Purple Surprise" were her Munchlax and Jessie. Her "Pink Surprise" came from the recipe Professor Oak uses to make Ash's Snorlax's food. Thus, after May first fed it to her Munchlax, it was automatically made full. This Pokéblock was regularly used to feed Munchlax in order to prevent it from eating the food of others.

During her journey, she found a rival in Drew, a skilled and sometimes arrogant Coordinator. Drew became one of her main inspirations to try harder to sharpen her skills as a Coordinator. At first, Drew had claimed that May had "no style" as a Coordinator, but by the end of May's second Contest campaign, when she defeated him in the Kanto Grand Festival, he recognized her growth and skill. Another rival of hers, Harley, is a flamboyant man who goes to extremes to beat May and has no qualms about cheating or using unfair tactics. An example of Harley's depravity was seen in A Cacturne for the Worse, when he recorded Max telling him a story from May's childhood. May had been wearing a blue swimming cap in the ocean, and her mother had mistaken her for a Tentacool from afar and attempted to catch May with one of her Poké Balls. Harley played the recording of this story during the Izabe Island Pokémon Contest to embarrass May into losing. May was able to beat Harley in the end, but she claimed that she had never been more humiliated. Another example is when Harley joined forces with Team Rocket in an attempt to sabotage May's performance with Combusken, which ended up contributing to a more dazzling appeal.

At the Kanto Grand Festival, May also competed against Solidad, an experienced Coordinator to whom she lost in the semifinals. At the end of the Advanced Generation series, she left to compete with Drew, Harley, and Solidad in the Johto region, aiming to find her own battling style. The decision to stop traveling with Ash was an important one for May's character. Because Ash played the role of a mentor to her through most of the series, she was largely influenced by his offensive battle style. By the end of their journey through Kanto, May had realized that an offensive style was not necessarily the best for her and for Contests. Her constant use of dazzling attacks ultimately proved to be her downfall at the Kanto Grand Festival, when Solidad was able to recognize and counter these moves by leading May to attack and then successfully dodging. Her goal to find her own style was therefore also a goal to improve her Contest Battle skills and ultimately become a Top Coordinator.

May has Contest Passes to compete in Hoenn, Kanto and Johto. She also has a personal theme song, I Won't Lose! ~Haruka's Theme~, performed by KAORI.. It was first used as background music in Curbing the Crimson Tide and was used multiple times after that during May's Contest performances and battles. The song became the ending theme of the show between Pokémon Ranger - Deoxys' Crisis! (Part 2) and Home is Where the Start Is!.

May reappeared from Our Cup Runneth Over! to Strategy With a Smile! to participate in the Wallace Cup. During this period, she wore her game counterpart's outfit from Pokémon Emerald. She shared that many of her Pokémon had evolved and that she had already won three Johto Ribbons. Dawn recognized May upon meeting her and said that some people in the Sinnoh region called her the "Princess of Hoenn", causing May to blush. During the Wallace Cup, May showed the new style that she had come up after leaving Ash, battling against Dawn's rival Zoey and winning using her Beautifly. She made it all the way to the finals but narrowly lost to Dawn in the end.

Sarah Gunnerson: Wow! That's amazing that you know a lot of Pokemon.

Gwen Tennyson: And you didn't like pokemon before and now you love them.

Sarah Gunnerson: It sure is cool.

May: Thanks guys.

Tara: My story is a dark one. My real name is Tara Markoverra. But everyone called me Terra. Spanish for Earth. I am the princess of the extinct nation of Markovia.

---

Tara Markoverra, mainly known as Terra, is a recurring anti-villain in the 2003 TV Series, Teen Titans. She served as the secondary antagonist and anti-heroine of the second season.

Though this iteration of Terra is loosely based on DC Comic character of the same name, she is so far, most sympathetic and heroic as she was reasoned to find the way to control her unstable Earth-based powers that led Slade recruit her to his side and abused her as an expendable pawn and weapon. Other reasons of this character far more heroic than the rest is her better redeeming qualities.

She was voiced by Ashley Johnson, who also played the character's Teen Titans Go! incarnation in the 2013 series.

According to her brother Geo-Force, Terra was princess whom, along with him, are members of the house of Markov, and their father was the king of Markovia. Scientists experimented on Terra and Geo-Force, giving them their powers, then attempted to exploit them. General Immortus was seen monitoring the experiment, which suggests that he was involved with the human experiment. Geo-Force fought them off, while Terra, unable to control her powers, ran away from home in fear of hurting her loved ones and travels a lot since then. Slade also pointed out that Terra did try to help others over the course of her journey, but on each occasion, something even worse happened as a result of using her geo-kinetic abilities and her own inexperience with her said powers. These troubles, that caused by her by accident ultimately frustated her, in which the said frustation later released on Robin where she stated that she did not want to be rescued and that she was "not some sad little girl".

Upon meeting Terra, the Titans quickly welcomed her into their ranks. At first, it seemed like the hip, funny, young hero might make a great addition to the team, but Terra had a secret: she was unable to control her incredible powers and abilities over the earth and had accidentally caused natural disasters on several occasions. She felt betrayed when it appeared that Beast Boy shared her secret with the team (even though Robin actually realized it on his own). Feeling betrayed and alone, Terra turned to Slade, who trained her to fully control her abilities.

Terra returned to the Titans and joined the team - but was secretly working with Slade to destroy the Titans from within. Despite her mission, Terra began to doubt her loyalties; Just as romance with Beast Boy blossomed, Terra was exposed as a traitor. Hardened and isolated, friendless and emotionally hurt, Terra turned to the only one who would accept her, Slade, and shortly the two united to launch their plans in full motion. Caught off guard and still holding some affection for their former friend and teammate, the Titans were nearly defeated in the first round, with Terra brutally showing far less mercy and restraint, and in the second, due to reinforcements sent by Slade under her control, Robin was forced to make a retreat back to Titans Tower, knowing this battle could not be won.

Soon, Slade assails three different points of Jump City with Overload, Plasmus, and Cinderblock, seeking to lure the Titans out of hiding and eliminate their divided forces using Terra. Raven managed to defeat Overload with the aid of nearby water, but was quickly engaged in further fierce combat by Terra, each clearly seeking to kill the other to the best of their abilities. Despite this, analysis of Raven made during Terra's time on the team had enabled Slade to realize her dark powers and abilities were controlled by emotion, and should the emotions run loose, so too would her focus on her own immense abilities. Terra's taunting of Raven eventually causes her to lash out in sheer fury against her, her sheer anger and rage manifesting in Trigon's form, if but partially, and Terra seized this chance to finish off Raven. A boulder projectile intended for Robin was instead the bane of Starfire, which knocked her out and sent her plummeting into the ocean. A sudden yet deadly fissure through the ground (combined with the element of surprise) was sufficient to overwhelm both Cyborg and Beast Boy, who told Terra she could not kill them, but a smiling Terra merely replied, "Watch me," and four Titans were no more. Terra next tried to face off Robin, who, driven with a desire to avenge his friends, yet also honor Beast Boy's wishes to give her a last chance, brutally assaulted her.

While the battle was fierce and neither could gain the upper hand initially, eventually Robin knocks her to the ground and has his staff at her neck. However, he tells her it does not have to be this way instead of finishing her, which allows her to get up and finish him with a boulder. Terra presents Robin's badge to Slade, who begins to launch his plans to seize the city. However, the Titans had each survived Terra's assault and were bent on taking her down, no longer concerned with second chances.

Despite her victory, Terra still felt lost and alone. As the hardened Terra is reminded of her past experiences with the Titans, she appears to be subtly swayed, but claims she has "no regrets" for the horrible things she has done. The Titans furiously and brutally attack her, each showing no mercy, just as she believed they were truly all gone, and with their combined and united forces Terra is quickly defeated by the fivesome, despite her best efforts to strike back at the team. Terra then attempted to retreat, but Slade angrily demanded her staying to continue to fight, and Terra tried her best to do so, but after many near-calls with death at the hands of the now-merciless Titans, runs back to Slade, who begins to physically abuse her in fury and disgust at her defeat. By the time she decided to leave Slade, from both the buried remnants of her conscience and his cruel treatment of her, it was too late as the new suit he had given her had become part of her skin and he could now control her via the suit. Never truly losing faith in Terra, Beast Boy stepped in between her and Slade and finally made her realize the error of her ways. Events were eventually set in motion leaving the city in danger from an erupting volcano. In a final act of friendship, she ultimately sacrificed herself to save the city. Now merged with the Earth she controlled and manipulated, the Titans searched for a way to restore her. When Trigon was destroyed at the hands of Raven, everyone in the world that was turned into stone was changed back. It is possible that Trigon's death also managed to free Terra from her stony prison but it is still unclear what could have seemingly erased her mind.

Upon returning from a globe-trotting adventure, Beast Boy was shocked to discover a school girl who looked exactly like Terra. Finding Terra's petrified tomb empty, Beast Boy was convinced that Terra had indeed returned - and he pleaded with her to return to the team. None of the other Titans actually met this girl in person, yet each offers separate opinions and theories concerning her, as well as acknowledging neither Cyborg's chemical analysis or Raven's magical mystical spells were effective in reversing the process. (It was never mentioned, but it is possible that after Trigon took over the Earth and turned everybody except the Titans to stone, when Raven defeated her father and everybody reverted from stone to human flesh that Terra reverted back to normal as well.) But the girl insisted that "things change" and she was not the girl he knew, and respecting her wishes, Beast Boy was able to let go of the past and look toward his own future, with the girl to walk down her own path, her back to a past that would be forever lost to her.

---

They gasped.

Lori Jimenez: Wow.

Sarah Gunnerson: That explains why Slade haunted you in the past.

Gwen Tennyson: No kidding. It's awful that he did all that to you.

Tara: Yeah.

Gwen Tennyson: My story is different.

---

Gwendolyn "Gwen" Tennyson is an Anodite Plumber, the paternal cousin of Ben Tennyson, and was a main member of his team during the first 3 shows.

In the original series, Gwen went on a road trip with Grandpa Max and her cousin Ben. She and Ben constantly argued (like about Ben misusing the watch or about Gwen's powers) however they were shown to deeply care for each other. Gwen also shows deep affection for her Grandpa.

Gwen also uses newspapers and her laptop to research any strange people and creatures they might come across. She is a capable gymnast and has had some training in martial arts.

In Ben 10,000, her future self says she got her black belt years ago and it's come in handy many times. She has also shown an almost innate skill in using various complicated devices or objects, such as in the "What If?" episode Gwen 10, when Gwen gained the Omnitrix instead of Ben and proved to be far more adept in its use than he initially was, even being able to write her name with fire while Ben took a month to be able to do it (although she may be able to use it better because of her powers).

She is depicted as snobbish due to her young girl attitude. Overall, her most notable skill is her innate, if latent, ability at magic. Having within her what Charmcaster calls a "magical aura", Gwen is capable of using various magical artifacts, charms, talismans, and spells. When using the magical, luck-giving Charm of Bezel, she was able to activate it instinctively, whereas Hex did or could not. Later on, when she takes and uses his staff, she was able to make it fire a yellow-colored energy blast (according to Charmcaster), only someone of Hex's skill should have had that ability.

Gwen starts tapping into magical powers when she procures a small book of spells from Charmcaster in the episode A Change of Face. On two occasions, Gwen uses the Charms of Bezel's incredible and unique powers and abilities to become a superhero by the name of "Lucky Girl". At first, her ability drew from the luck-granting, Charms of Bezel, which innately gave her perfect luck and the abilities and powers of probability manipulation. While wearing the charm, any action she took would result in a Rube Goldberg-style chain reaction benefiting her original intent, but usually injuring Ben in the process. She later brought back her superhero identity after obtaining the legendary Keystone of Bezel, which greatly strengthened and increased her natural abilities to superhuman levels rather than just affecting her luck. Both times, Gwen was forced to retire when the Charms of Bezel were destroyed. Gwen has also appeared to have two swimsuits; one which appeared in Divided We Stand and the other appeared in A Small Problem.

In Perfect Day, a superhero form was given to her by Ben as a form of petty torment while they were inside Ben's dream battling his imaginary bullies. In this form, she only exhibited the power of enhanced biting. Ben called her Ultra Rat.

Gwen forms a rivalry with Charmcaster during the series.

Five years prior to Omniverse

In Ben Again, Gwen is intrigued by the sudden increase in maturity of the 11-year-old Ben whose mind has been switched with 16-year-old Ben. Eventually, she helps to defeat Eon and her memory is erased about the events of the episode except for a thing that 16-year-old Ben in 11-year-old Ben's body told her in a vague memory.

Gwen is now a black belt in karate, but tends to favor using her powers. She is capable of creating energy constructs for nearly any purpose, usually creating platforms to levitate herself (and others), beams to grab enemies, circular blasts to knock enemies back, projecting beams from her eyes that seem to simulate heat vision, and opening up interdimensional portals.

In the episode Everybody Talks About the Weather, Kevin said she gets her powers and abilities from her alien bloodline, but she refused to believe him. Little did she know that she would find out he was right in What Are Little Girls Made Of?.

Her powers and abilities are revealed to be of alien descent; her paternal grandmother, Verdona, is an energy being known as an Anodite; from the distant planet Anodyne, and surprisingly she seems to be the only human descendant who inherited Verdona's powers. Verdona tells Gwen that what she and others originally thought of as "magic" was actually the control of mana, a substance of magic-making Anodites; a magic-wielding race. Verdona offers to take Gwen to her home planet and train her in the immense mystical and magical ways of the Anodites, but Gwen prefers to remain on Earth with Ben and Kevin. She dislikes being called an "energy being", referring to her Anodite heritage.

In Unearthed, an alien creature was able to see her as an Anodite, in which she looked exactly like her paternal grandmother's true form, but slightly shorter. In the two-part second season finale War of the Worlds: Part 1 and Part 2 when Kevin was threatened by a Highbreed Commander, she released her dormant innermost Anodite self for the first time, and easily defeated the commander with an exceedingly strong powerful burst of pure magenta-pink glowing energy. She was almost overwhelmed by her own power and wanted to defeat the Highbreed all on her own before Kevin snapped her out of it by saying "I can't lose you". They go out for a date after the second season finale.

During the course of the series she has developed a romantic relationship with Kevin. She stood out for Kevin when Ben questioned Kevin's loyalty. They have also been shown to have arguments, usually starting with Gwen always trying to force Kevin to "ask her out" and him always answering "Don't push me" (which she once did). They even almost kiss in the episode Darkstar Rising.

In the episode Save the Last Dance, Gwen has a dance in her prep school and expects Kevin to ask her out. The episode ended with Gwen and Kevin dancing together in the moonlight. In the same episode, it was revealed that she liked yellow roses.

In the episode Fool's Gold, Kevin appeared to be avoiding her because he was ashamed of his recent mutation due to accidentally absorbing a massive feedback pulse as a result of trying to hack the Omnitrix. She was unaffected by the blast because she put an energy shield around herself. Kevin gave her a locket of the two of them when he was in his human form, asking her to remember him as he was. Gwen said she didn't care what he looks like, and he replied "Maybe not. But I do."

In the two-part third season premiere, Vengeance of Vilgax, Ben and Gwen seemed to have revived their infamous rivalry from the original series, in part due to Ben's cockiness and inflated ego. In the same episode, Gwen poured a smoothie over Ben's head, and he nearly returned the favor. Despite their rivalry, they both still have a strong bond, visible in the episode In Charm's Way, when Ben defended Gwen and informed Kevin that she had been spending all of her spare time trying to find a cure for Kevin's condition.

Gwen suffers from both arachnophobia and claustrophobia.

In The Final Battle: Part 2, Kevin returns to normal after the Omnitrix self-destructs. Gwen then kisses Kevin on the lips thereby reviving their relationship.

Gwen is now sixteen years old. Her wardrobe has altered once again, wearing a combination of her outfits from Alien Force. She wears her old outfit from the first two seasons of Alien Force, but instead of a plain dark blue shirt it is now dark red and she also keeps her high ponytail from the third season.

In Hit 'Em Where They Live, Zombozo and other villains teamed up to take revenge on the Tennysons and company, and kidnapped Ben's mom Sandra. Enraged, Gwen released her dormant, inner Anodite for the second time since War of the Worlds: Part 2. Whilst Zombozo trembled with fear, Gwen began to grow to a huge height, promising that if one of his teammates (and other notable villains) even bumps into their families on the street, she would come for them. Petrified, Zombozo screamed off-screen and Gwen saved Sandra. When Kevin asked what happened to Zombozo she simply replied "We came to an understanding" whilst smiling.

In Video Games, she tries out for her driver's license, earning it in the end.

In the episode Hero Time, it is shown that Gwen gets very jealous when Jennifer Nocturne starts flirting with Kevin after he saved her life. Kevin also protected Jennifer a lot, over the course of the episode.

During her attempt to recover the first part of the Map of Infinity, she discovers it was hit by a poison dart and ends up fainting, causing Aggregor to catch the first fragment, but Kevin and Ben save her from near death.

In Reflected Glory, Gwen is comprehensive with J.T. and Cash. In the final part of the episode, Gwen is seen with her shirt torn and her hair disheveled, after she and Kevin face the RED's again. Gwen had the idea to use a mirror against RED's, and her powers apparently did not greatly affect the RED's.

In Deep, the group goes to the planet Piscciss to help Magister Pyke stop Aggregor. Gwen is caught by a squid-like creature, but Kevin revealed that he installed neuro-shock pulsers which can shoot lightning, allowing Gwen to get free. When they reach the nucleus of the planet Piscciss, an earthquake occurs. Gwen put an energy shield around them, but failed to protect Magister Pyke, so she stays with him while Kevin and Ben go after the second part of the Map of Infinity. However, Aggregor arrived first and fled with the second part of the Map of Infinity after defeating Ben and Kevin. When the planet begins to crumble, Ben as Goop saves the planet, re-constructing the lost water particles using Goop's artificial gravity immobilizer. When Ben apparently dies, Gwen is devastated, but when she sees that he survived, she feels immediate relief. At the end of the episode, Gwen consoles Kevin for having to leave the Blowfish in Piscciss.

In Where the Magic Happens, Gwen relies on Charmcaster to help her, Ben and Kevin survive traveling through Ledgerdomain to find the next piece of the Map of Infinity, the Alpha Rune. Along the way, she learns of Charmcaster's sad background and comes to sympathize with her nemesis.

In The Forge of Creation, Gwen travels with Ben and Kevin to stop Aggregor from absorbing a newborn Celestialsapien's powers. Young Ben comes along as Ben accidentally falls in the time barrier. Gwen, Kevin, and even Ben became annoyed with young Ben. However everyone eventually understands why Young Ben is so arrogant and cocky, when dealing with the pressure and the danger that could kill somebody, Gwen's first-cousin tends to joke around so he can be prepared to face anything. Unfortunately, everyone was easily defeated by Aggregor, who seems to have won, but Kevin absorbed the immense energy of the Ultimatrix as a last resort, defeating him but becomes insane in the process.

In… Nor Iron Bars a Cage, Gwen and Ben travel to Incarcecon to warn the warden about Kevin. The warden would have been killed if it were not for Gwen, (who saved him from crash landing using a much stronger version of the "Tur-bo" spell.) Ben implies Kevin needs to be "put down", which shocks Gwen.

In The Enemy of My Enemy, Ben and Gwen are shown to be having difficulties. The two argue about Kevin while trying to locate a ship. On the way, they stumble upon Argit, who needed a place to hide from Kevin. They travel to the Plumber's Academy in the Rust Bucket 3, only to be attacked by Kevin. They barely succeeded in defeating him, and Gwen said she turned the air lock on to send Kevin falling because she understood he would kill them if he had the chance. After Argit preformed his orders, Kevin attacks the Plumber's Academy. Ben uses Ultimate Echo Echo to deal with the nuclear bomb, while Kevin relentlessly attacked Argit. Gwen tells him to stop and to give himself up, but he knocks her down. Gwen remains there crying as Kevin spares her from his fatal blow, stating that she was only spared because of what she used to mean to him. Ben returns and the two have a conversation, Gwen says that they could still help Kevin, Ben replies that they cannot.

In Absolute Power, Gwen is more determined than ever to save Kevin. Ben disagrees with Gwen, opting to kill him now rather than a last resort. Gwen goes to Max, hoping he will disagree about killing Kevin, but her grandfather confirms that killing Kevin is the right decision. He also told Gwen that if she disagrees, she should leave Ben to do it and not get in the way. Gwen leaves, disappointed and angry, ready to take desperate measures as she goes to Michael Morningstar for help. Meanwhile, Ben goes off looking for Kevin, who's relentlessly going after anyone he thinks has betrayed him. Just as Kevin beats up Vulkanus, and begins to go after Ben, Gwen stops him, accompanied by Michael. Ben is infuriated by Gwen's alliance, but she makes a deal with Ben, and if her plan does not work, she would not bother him anymore in his decision. Gwen also admits that she promised Michael enough mana in return for his help that will keep him at full strength and power for one year, furthering Ben's anger toward her.

Michael explains he saved a part of the Dominus Librium, which can be used to turn Kevin back to normal. However, the machines and energy required to power it is only available at Los Soledad. In order to lead Kevin there, they need bait. Gwen suggests herself. Gwen goes to an abandoned arcade and confronts Kevin. He admits that he has been avoiding her so he will not absorb her energy, which he is desperately hungry for. They fight intensely, and Gwen tries talking some sense into Kevin. Unfortunately, this doesn't work and Kevin grabs a hold of Gwen and absorbs both her magical and Anodite powers, making her scream in pain. Gwen retaliates with a mega blast and escapes.

Michael and Ben travel with Gwen in the Rust Bucket 3 to Los Soledad, where Michael trapped Cooper to create a machine that could operate the Dominus Librium. Kevin goes to Gwen's house in search of more mana but finds Max. Another fight occurs, and just as Kevin is about to kill Max, Harvey, Kevin's step father, stops him. Ben appears after Kevin and Harvey's altercation and fights Kevin, yet again. They destroy the Rust Bucket at which point Gwen comes out. Kevin manages to disable Ben long enough so he can chase after Gwen. After a long chase, Ben returns and fights with Kevin once again.

Kevin defeats Ben, but little does he know that was all part of the plan. Gwen calls Cooper to tell him that Kevin will be there soon.

Cooper tries to stall Kevin by using the weapons available at the military base, but Kevin dodges the missiles and approaches. Kevin and Ben fight, with Ben no longer holding back. In anger he almost kills Kevin but Gwen stops him, as they could still bring him back. They finally set Kevin to the machine, and Kevin is healed from his third mutation.

In It's Not Easy Being Gwen, it's revealed that Gwen takes her education very seriously. She is shown to come home late at all hours of the night and wakes up at 5:30am. She is involved in many activities, such as jogging, French, and after school karate classes.

After the events of Ben 10: Ultimate Alien, a sixteen-year old Gwen is seen with Ben and Kevin chasing Zombozo through Bellwood. Shortly after fighting and capturing Zombozo, Gwen says her goodbyes to Ben because she is heading to college since she took honor classes. She then tells Ben to stay out of trouble and gets into the car with Kevin (who also reveals that he will be staying with Gwen, but near campus), then the two drive off, leaving Ben to deal with Zombozo.

Sometime later, she makes the decision to take up the mantle of Lucky Girl again. Kevin is with her when it happens.

In Many Happy Returns, Gwen returns with Kevin to visit for the week. She returns with an all-new look, similar to when she was a kid. They mark their return by saving Ben as Rath from a burning building when he was trying to save a toy. The next day, they go for Smoothies, only to be attacked by Princess Looma Red Wind and Kevin revealing that he was forced to marry her in order to get the engine block he needed for his ship, and later his car. After battling Looma again, Gwen shows her new Anodite form to try to finish it, but Looma's father intruded by re-forcing Kevin to marry her. Ben defeats Looma, but he later finds out it just made him Looma's fiancée. Kevin awkwardly leaves, not telling Ben he just came to Bellwood to "pawn" Looma on him. Gwen assures Ben that she will make frowning faces on the ride back and the two ride off.

In Gwen's new Anodite form, her clothes stay intact but with a different design reminiscent of her Lucky Girl outfit with the addition of a skirt with a belt. She now possesses blue gloves and in place of her glasses is a blue mask. Her shirt is a darker blue with a light stripe (the colors of her regular shirt become inverted), the cat face turns black with pink eyes and the shirt cuts off to reveal her stomach and navel. As for her physical appearance; her skin becomes a bright plum color and her eyes and hair glow a bright pinkish color, with her hair retaining her human half's length.

Gwen returns in Showdown: Part 2 where it is revealed that Grandpa Max used her to track Ben's location through his mana. She also goes along with Azmuth and Rook to the remains of Galvan B to find clues to solve the problem involving reviving the Galvanic Mechamorphs and defeating Malware. Gwen is seen again after Malware is defeated and is surprised that Kevin knows that Khyber's former dog is a girl. Gwen then flies back home along with Ben, Rook, Kevin, and Max.

Gwen is seen again in The Frogs of War: Part 2 where she, along with Rook, Kevin, and Argit are gathering supplies and weapons to fight against the invading Incurseans. However, they nearly get blasted by some Incurseans and escape outside avoiding the Way Bads. They eventually reach Ignacius Baumann's shop and Gwen and the others enter to the back. Gwen breaks up an argument between Rook and Kevin and suggests breaking Grandpa Max out of the Plumber base. As she and the other prepare to do so, they are stopped by Attea and a bunch of Incurseans. However, an alien by the name of Bullfrag fights away the Incurseans and leads them to a ship. Bullfrag gets knocked out by Kevin and gets tied up demanding answer. Gwen then looks into Bullfrag's eyes and tells Blukic to let him go. The group eventually reaches the Plumber base and they free Driba and Grandpa Max and Bullfrag goes up to him saying "Grandpa" revealing to be actually Ben but Attea soon appears behind them. Kevin is surprised and Gwen tells him that who else comes up with a name like "Bullfrag." Gwen then blasts Attea becoming annoyed with the flirting. Gwen then hears the story on how Ben survived in space and unlocked Bullfrag. Gwen is seen again after the capture of Milleous but soon knows that Attea was playing them the entire time. Gwen and the others are forced to watch Attea leaving with the entire Incursean army as if anything hasn't happened. As Ben says that he wants a smoothy if a Way Bad hasn't destroyed all of them, Gwen remarks "Ben Tennyson is back."

Gwen returns from college in Mud Is Thicker Than Water. She visits Ben at the Plumber Headquarters while Rook and Kevin head off to an auto-show, only to find out that her cousin, Lucy Mann, has become a plumber. They realize that their plumber technology has been stolen by a spy. She and Ben then saved the power core from exploding, which was used as a distraction so that the spy can steal their plumber tanks. She suspected that Lucy was the spy as she arrived since the threat started. After which, they decided to move all the plumber tech off the planet, starting from the Anihilaarg, which Blukic and Driba had fixed. Psyphon's Gang then attacks the plumber ship and took the Anihilaarg. Gorvan, was then revealed to be the spy among the plumbers. Suddenly, the plumbers arrive to take on Psyphon and his gang. Psyphon was shocked and he blames Gorvan for telling the plumbers their location, but Lucy, disguised as Liam, revealed herself and she was the one who told them their location, making Psyphon even more angry. Gorvan tries to escape with the Anihilaarg, only to be stopped by Gwen using her judo techniques learned for nine years. Psyphon and his gang is stopped by Ben as Crashhopper. Suddenly, Vilgax arrives, scaring Psyphon, only to be Lucy as Vilgax in disguise. Psyphon was then defeated by Lucy in her Lenopan form and Crashhopper. Gwen throws the Anihilaarg at Ben, only to be revealed it was a fake one to use as bait to stop the threat. Back at the Plumbers Headquarters, Gwen apologizes to Lucy for suspecting her but Lucy did not mind at all, and the two of them started talking in the end.

Gwen, Kevin and Zed are seen in the Rust Bucket 3 in For a Few Brains More. They helped Ben, Rook and Grandpa Max but Gwen failed to save the Proto-TRUK, which ended up being damaged with Grandpa Max and Rook passing out. Khyber attacks Kevin and Zed takes his Panuncian. Gwen helps Rook and Grandpa Max up, with Azmuth removing her spectacles. Albedo as Ultimate Gravattack takes Azmuth's brain from Ben as Gwen traps Khyber using a few planks. Ben transforms into Pesky Dust to get information from Khyber about Albedo's location in his dream. Gwen's shield broke from Khyber's Panuncian and Rook shoots at it. Gwen traps it as Kevin removes the Nemetrix with the help of Ben as Water Hazard. The team head of to Billions Tower to confront Albedo. Gwen shoots mana at Albedo but her attacks got reflected and she was knocked out. The team was then trapped by Albedo's power, Azmuth transforms Ben into Bloxx and frees the team. Albedo transforms into Ultimate Humungousaur and hits Ben. Azmuth transforms Ben into a new alien, Atomix, who easily takes out Ultimate Humungousaur. He hits Gwen and the rest of the team up to high altitudes as he finishes Albedo, who transforms into Ultimate Spidermonkey, with a blast. Azmuth receives his brain back as Albedo turns into his eleven-year old Ben look, altered by Azmuth, the team just watches him.

Gwen makes an appearance in Mystery, Incorporeal, in which Ben and Rook start at Friedkin University. She, Kevin and Zed eventually help Ben to fight a Stone Creature, and to investigate who was behind the attacks of the creatures. Once the team finds that it was Darkstar's doings, Ben, Rook, Kevin, and Zed fight many obstacles, including a fully-powered Morningstar who has absorbed Gwen's powers. The team eventually stops him and saves Gwen with the help of Ben as Ghostfreak. Soon Ben saves the day and Gwen attains her first mystical Charm of Bezel, also providing the ability to telekinetically fly at high speeds. For saving the day, Ben is given an honorary degree and he and Rook leave for Bellwood.

In Charmed, I'm Sure, although Gwen did not make an on-screen appearance, Rook was texting her throughout the episode. Rook mentioned that they talk a lot, and she told him all about Charmcaster. She helped Rook on Ben's poor skin condition, as well as to carry magical supplies such as her spellbook to try and cure Ben's skin and defeat Charmcaster. Ben thinks that Gwen was trying to do something bad, but Rook does not agree to it. However, most of the spells Gwen asked Rook to try did not work as Rook was not in close proximity to the Alpha Rune until the end where Charmcaster held possession of it. In the end, Gwen told him that it was due to Swampfire's growth phase into its new form that caused Ben's poor skin condition.

Gwen makes an appearance in the two-part episode Weapon XI: Part 1 and Weapon XI: Part 2 where she receives a coded message from Kevin. She, along with Rook and Ben then set off to find the Amalgam Kids. Then, together with Argit and Zed, the team sets off to find Kevin and take on the Rooters in the Null Void. Servantis then turns the Amalgam kids and Kevin against Ben, forcing Gwen, Rook, Ben and Zed to take them on. Gwen and Rook then take on Swift and Leander who are defending the Null Void Projector after escaping from the Mutant To'kustars while Ben goes into the Rooter's Headquarters to take on Kevin, who absorbs his Omnitrix and mutates for the fifth time. Gwen was knocked out by Swift and was hurt. Fortunately, Rook immediately saves her from the exploding generator of the Null Void Projector which Swift and Leander attacked at. Gwen then wonders how they would get out while Ben, as Swampfire is still struggling with Kevin's attacks, eventually passing out. Kevin then surprises Servantis and shocks the Amalgam kids by knocking out his loyalty neuro-matrix and is locked out of their heads for good. Gwen, Rook and Zed arrives and were glad Kevin did not turn insane, thanks to the first brain spark from Servantis. The Plumbers then arrive with the Magistrata, having the Rooter's plumber status revoked and the Plumber tech confiscated, leaving them stranded in the Null Void with the Mutant To'kustars. Gwen is then seen talking to Kevin about the letter containing his coded message as Ben is eager to eat, wishing The Rooters luck when facing the Way Bads.

Gwen makes an appearance in Charm School, where she was attending class conducted by her favorite teacher Hex. They have got over their conflicts as Hex has put his past behind him and is a professor in her school. She was surprised to notice Charmcaster in her school, so she decided to talk to her. Later, she called Ben and Rook over to her school on the case. Ben attacked Hex but Gwen later explained to him that Hex is a good guy now, proven by using her magic spell that confirms that all the students did not get any influence or brainwashed by Hex, that he was completely normal. She then faces Charmcaster, who has turned Hex into a Stone totem and obtained his staff. As Lucky Girl, Gwen gave everything she got in the face off with Charmcaster, but none of her spells and attacks work on her. She then casted a spell which she can form clones of herself, as a distraction so that she could grab Hex's stone totem. Together with Ben, as Ghostfreak, Kevin, Rook and Zed, they led Charmcaster into Hex's library in the school as Gwen had a plan in mind. When Charmcaster reached the library, Gwen blasted her and Charmcaster assumes she was about to give up. But because Gwen was holding onto Hex's stone totem, it gives her access to his library and all the magical powers, making her even more powerful. This time, Charmcaster's attacks do not work on her as Gwen grabs Hex's staff. As Charmcaster was about to make another attack, she quickly opened a portal to Ledgerdomain and sent both Charmcaster and Hex into that dimension. Gwen now holds possession of her favorite teacher's library of magical artifacts and his staff, leaving her with a huge responsibility to take care off, as well as having a lair for her Lucky Girl in campus. The episode ends with Kevin and Rook going off to the auto-show with an excuse, and Ben left in school, who is trying to figure out on how to get back to Bellwood.

In Third Time's a Charm, Gwen is lured to Ledgerdomain when trying to get Kevin's car back. Charmcaster appears and transforms Gwen into a stone totem, which she puts into her bag. There, Gwen encounters Hex, Darkstar and Addwaitya, who are too busy bickering with one another to help her escape. Gwen comes up with her own plan, drawing a magic circle on the inner bottom of the bag and tricking Charmcaster into reaching in and touching it. When she does, Charmcaster is transformed into a totem and all her victims restored to normal. The episode with Gwen keeping Charmcaster, who is sealed in her own bag, in her headquarters, remarking that she believes she and Charmcaster can become friends now that Charmcaster has been rendered harmless.

Gwen briefly appeared in The Most Dangerous Game Show where she is among the contestants to compete for Ben's hand in marriage. However, she was quickly eliminated before the competition started after Ben told Zenith that they were cousins, along with other family members who are already related to him.

At the end of A New Dawn, after watching the universe created, Ben called Gwen to get Kevin as he proposes that Ben, Gwen, Rook and Kevin go on a road trip together to explore the universe that they watched being created.

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa! That is amazing!

Lori Jimenez: It sure was. I think it's so cool that you saw a lot of planets and places before joining the team Gwen.

Gwen Tennyson: Thanks Lori.

Yumi: My history is not much different.

Yumi went over her history.

---

Yumi was born in Kyoto, Japan, although her family immigrated to France when she was just an infant. Having been raised among traditional Japanese values, she shows complete respect for her parents, sometimes even to excess. She attributes a lot of importance to her origins, being more than proud of her Japanese heritage which can be seen when she firmly asserts her ethnic background as Japanese. She has even planned later to return to her roots.

---

Lori Jimenez: Whoa! X.A.N.A. must've been really tough.

Yumi: It was.

Jen: Here's my story.

She went over her history.

---

Jennifer Walters was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. She was the daughter of Sheriff Morris Walters and Elaine Banner-Walters. Growing up she was meek and mousy and had little confidence. Jen later attended UCLA (University of California, Los Angeles) where she gained her law degree. She began working as a lawyer in Los Angeles.

Jen was the also the cousin of Bruce Banner, whose house Jen used to visit during the summers of her childhood. To help him escape from his father's abuse, Jennifer and Bruce would spend hours in a public library, reading books to each other, and sometimes hiding at closing time to spend the night.

Blood Transfusion

Agents of Nicholas Trask, a crime boss who had crossed paths with Jen's father, shot and seriously wounded her on a day when her cousin Bruce was in town. She had been defending a gangster who had been double-crossed by Trask and offered to turn state's evidence, which would be sufficient to ruin Trask if the case went to trial. Bruce fended off the attackers and then broke into a doctor's office to treat her. Realizing Jennifer was going to die, Bruce gave her a transfusion of his own blood as there were no other supplies in such an emergency.

After she stabilized, he had her admitted to a local hospital. However, this came to the attention of the police, who considered Bruce a suspect in Jennifer's attack and Bruce changed into the Hulk to flee. Meanwhile, Trask's thugs attempted a second hit on Jennifer, causing the danger to activate gamma radiation particles in the transfused blood, turning her skin green and increasing her size to well over six feet. The goons were taken aback at what happened, and commented "it's some kinda she-hulk". Jennifer's voice boomed out "You called me a She-Hulk, so that's what I'll be," and trapped the thugs for the police to find. With the emergency over, she reverted to her normal size and strength.

She-Hulk

Although Jennifer was at first savage while in her She-Hulk form, she eventually gained the same intelligence that she had as the normal Jennifer Walters. She quickly came to appreciate the confidence and assertiveness that came with being the She-Hulk. For a long time, she felt more comfortable in her She-Hulk form than her human one. Trask paid off a local trucker to keep quiet about a shipment coming in from Stark Industries containing advanced technology. He had the trucker killed as well as the men turning state's evidence, laying the blame on the She-Hulk. He tried to kill Jen again but ended up killing Jill Ridge. The contents of the crates were revealed to be robotic parts to which he built a "She-Hulk Robot," but she was able to destroy it. Trask abducted Sheriff

Walters, giving him more advanced weaponry from Stark Industries to kill the She-Hulk, keeping him ignorant that she was his daughter. Trask even rigged it so it would explode killing them both.

She-Hulk spotted the flaw and save herself and her father. Trask next constructed a massive earth-boring device called the "Silver Serpent" using the Stark tech. He planned to drain Roxxon Oil dry, allowing him to buy out the company. She-Hulk investigated and discovered the machine, but during the fight the drill continued to bore deep and deep in the Earth burying Trask alive.

Avengers

After a brief solo career (during which she met Hellcat), Jen joined the Avengers. This led to her being transported to Battleworld by the Beyonder and her participation in the first Secret Wars, most notable to her for sparking along-standing rivalry with the newly empowered Titania.

Fantastic Four

She temporarily replaced the Thing in the Fantastic Four after the war on Battleworld. She-Hulk was granted detached membership status with the Avengers upon joining the FF.

During her tenure with the Fantastic Four, the She-Hulk had to prevent a radiation leak in a downed S.H.I.E.L.D. Helicarrier. This radiation exposure apparently mutated Jennifer to the point that she could not transform back into her original form. But this was an agreeable turn of events for her since she preferred her She-Hulk form anyway. Shortly after that, she appeared before the Supreme Court, where she battled Titania.

Rejoining the Avengers

After the Fantastic Four, She-Hulk rejoined the Avengers following the Masters of Evil's attack on the mansion. During this tenure with the team, She-Hulk and the other members were influenced by Doctor Druid and his lover, Nebula, to appoint him chairman of the team. After Druid and Nebula were lost in space-time, She-Hulk and the two remaining members disbanded the team for a time. Jen eventually returned to the group after Captain America restarted the Avengers.

She-Hulk joined the staff of District Attorney Blake Tower, where she met Louise "Weezi" Mason, formerly the Golden Age superheroine called the Blonde Phantom; during this period, she discovered that Mason had manipulated Towers into hiring She-Hulk so that Mason could again star in a comic book and thus avoid dying of old age. Mason's husband, also a former comic book character, had passed away three years ago, but other, more popular characters from the era, such as Captain America and Namor the Sub-Mariner, were still around.

---

Sarah Gunnerson: Whoa! That is amazing!

Jen: Yep. I became the heroine She-Hulk as a result.

Lori Jimenez: I think that is so cool.

Gwen Tennyson: What about your story Sarah?

Sarah Gunnerson: My story is something I don't like to talk about but here goes. You know how me and Lori met when we were in kindergarten.

---

Sarah is the smart, sassy female of the group who loves to speak her mind. A fearless and shrewd Chaotic player, she is the most likely to get into a fight with the boys and/or the other players. Sarah is not afraid to take on a Creature who makes her angry, so the boys sometimes have to drag her out of danger in Perim. Like most of the main female protagonists in any animated series, she's very protective of the boys and would do anything to help them. Sarah seems to have a close relationship with Tom throughout the series, and she has revealed that she might have a crush on him. Since Sarah has a life-long interest in insects, she's naturally drawn to the ant-like Danians. She normally goes on Scanquests alone in order to get powerful scans if for no other reason than to gloat. She usually finds herself saving Tom, Kaz, or Peyton at least once when she brings them with her. She probably (like Kaz and Peyton) has a mixed deck but it mostly consists of Danians. She has so far been shown playing in a battledrome once (aside from the codemaster battle scene in Battle Lessons) in the episode A Flux Too Far, in which she battles and defeats Tom in the Hotekk Drome. She has no favorite Creature in particular, but she seems to like Wamma and Valani Levaan. (She also has a tendency to show the Danian Queen much respect). Her username is ChaotiKween.

---

Lori Jimenez: Sarah doesn't like talking much about her story very well. But when we got into Chaotic it was interesting.

Gwen Tennyson: What is your username for Chaotic, Lori?

Lori Jimenez: My username is FirefLori. It's life Firefly but without the L and Y and my name is at the end.

Tara: Wow!

Lori Jimenez: It sure is. Also do you guys still have the ability to transform into sharks?

Tara: I thought J.D. said that was only temporary.

Lori Jimenez: Sometimes it can still linger. Try it on your hands.

The girls did so and concentrated and then they saw their skin change color and their fingers turned into claws and Jen's hand grew the wings of a ray of out her arm.

Tara: We still have that power!

Jen: But how?

Gwen Tennyson: It must be only in case we need to use it.

Lori Jimenez: That could be the case.

They went back to shopping after a great lunch and had a great time and they later came back with a lot of bags full of stuff.

Me: Hey girls.

G1 Snarl: How was Girls' Night Out?

Tara: It was awesome!

Sarah Gunnerson: We had a wonderful time at the mall.

Laney: Glad you all had fun.

They went up to Sarah's room.

---

Later we see Vanzilla 2 driving down the highway. Rita, Me, Nico and the Loud Kids were heading to the North Michigan Insane Asylum to visit Leena Loud, Lynn's twin sister that hurt Lincoln because of Schizophrenic Delusions.

Lana: I've never met Leena before.

Me: Me neither Lana. But it's just awful that she would hurt Lincoln like that.

Nico: I know. I can't believe she would do such a thing and it's not her fault.

Lily: Yeah. I've never even known her.

Lola: Same here.

Lisa Loud: Negative for me.

Lucy Loud: It has been a while since I saw her. I was only 2 when she was with us.

Laney: I don't even remember her because I was only a baby at the time.

Lincoln: It was a strange time for us Laney.

Me: I feel really sorry for her though. She doesn't know the difference between what's right and what's wrong.

Nico: Me too. She probably can't control herself.

Lynn: Yeah.

Rita: Well I visit her once a year and I miss not having her in the house.

Me: Was she an athlete like Lynn?

Rita: She sure was J.D. She had amazing gifts in sports like Jr.

Lynn: I would've had an awesome sports partner.

Nico: You sure would.

Leni: It would be cool to have her with us though.

Lyra: It sure would.

Liberty: Yeah.

Me: Here we are guys.

We arrived at the North Michigan Insane Asylum.

Me: North Michigan Insane Asylum.

We went into the insane asylum and we were escorted by Dr. David Lebowski to Leena's cell.

Lori: Doctor, is Leena really that crazy?

Dr. Lebowski: Leena is not that crazy Lori. She is not nearly as bad as Lila Rossi or Margaret White. We got her under control with medicine and therapy.

Me: That's a relief.

We arrived at her cell and he opened the door and we went in. We saw Leena. She was a girl at Lynn's age and she had a scar on her cheek and her brown hair is in a ponytail and she had asylum patient clothes on.

Rita: Leena?

Leena: Yes?

Rita: Its been a while sweetie.

Leena: Mom! I am so happy to see you.

They hugged.

Lori: Its literally been a while sis.

Leena: Lori? Wow! You've gotten so tall and big.

Lori and Leena hugged her.

They hugged her and it was a joyous reunion.

Me: Leena it's a pleasure to meet you.

Leena: Wow! J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you.

Me: Same to you. I'm sorry you were locked up in here.

Leena: I know but it was for the best. I'm too sick to even be let out of here.

Nico: That's understandable.

Rita: Oh Leena. These are your sisters Laney, Lana, Lola, Lisa and Lily.

Laney: Its been a long time sis.

Lana: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Lola: Same here.

Lisa Loud: Greetings fellow eldest sibling.

Lily: Its a pleasure to meet you.

Leena: Wow. It really has been a while hasn't it? I've missed out on so much.

Lily: I know.

We got to talking and we had a nice chat with her. We talked about some of our adventures and had a nice talk with her.

Leena: Wow! You all have been through so much together.

Me: We sure have Leena. I'm sorry you can't come home because of your condition.

Leena: I know. But maybe I can come home to see you guys on the major holidays.

Me: That sounds like a good plan. We'll have you over on July 4th, Independence Day.

Leena: Awesome idea.

Nico: Good thinking.

Me: Cool.

We talked it over with the doctors and arranged for Leena to come over to the mansion on the major holidays: New Years, Valentines, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, Independence Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

It was perfect for her.

* * *

Later we were watching our favorite movie series: THE LORD OF THE RINGS! We were first watching Lord of The Rings: The Fellowship of The Ring.

* * *

Galadriel: I amar prestar aen. The world is changed. Han matho ne nen. I feel it in the water. Han mathon ned cae. I feel it in the earth. A han noston ned gwilith. I smell it in the air. Much that once was is lost, for none now live who remember it. It began with the forging of the Great Rings. Three were given to the Elves, immortal, wisest and fairest of all beings. Seven to the Dwarf-Lords, great miners and craftsmen of the mountain halls. And nine, nine rings were gifted to the race of Men, who above all else desire power. For within these rings was bound the strength and the will to govern each race. But they were all of them deceived, for another ring was made. Deep in the land of Mordor, in the Fires of Mount Doom, the Dark Lord Sauron forged in secret a master ring to control all others, and into this ring he poured his cruelty, his malice and his will to dominate all life. One ring to rule them all. One by one, the free lands of Middle-Earth fell to the power of the Ring, but there were some who resisted. A last alliance of men and elves marched against the armies of Mordor, and on the very slopes of Mount Doom, they fought for the freedom of Middle-Earth. Victory was near, but the power of the ring could not be undone. It was in this moment, when all hope had faded, that Isildur, son of the king, took up his father's sword. Sauron, enemy of the free peoples of Middle-Earth, was defeated. The Ring passed to Isildur, who had this one chance to destroy evil forever, but the hearts of men are easily corrupted. And the ring of power has a will of its own. It betrayed Isildur, to his death. And some things that should not have been forgotten were lost. History became legend. Legend became myth. And for two and a half thousand years, the ring passed out of all knowledge. Until, when chance came, it ensnared another bearer. The Ring came to the creature Gollum, who took it deep into the tunnels of the Misty Mountains. And there it consumed him. The ring gave to Gollum unnatural long life. For five hundred years it poisoned his mind, and in the gloom of Gollum's cave, it waited. Darkness crept back into the forests of the world. Rumor grew of a shadow in the East, whispers of a nameless fear, and the Ring of Power perceived its time had come. It abandoned Gollum, but then something happened that the Ring did not intend. It was picked up by the most unlikely creature imaginable: a hobbit, Bilbo Baggins, of the Shire. For the time will soon come when hobbits will shape the fortunes of all.

Following his 111th birthday party, Bilbo Baggins gives the Ring to his nephew, Frodo. After some time, the wizard Gandalf the Grey begins to suspect Bilbo's magic ring may be The One Ring, lost for over three-thousand years, and rides to Minas Tirith for discernment and confirmation of this suspicion - he is taken to a small room filled with many books and historical documents. After poring over old documents for months, he finds the account of the finding of the One Ring. Gandalf learns that the Ring has several lines of Black Speech written on it that are only visible if the Ring is heated with fire. He returns to Bag End only to learn that the ring Frodo has been holding onto is, in fact, Sauron's One Ring. Gandalf tells Frodo to leave the Shire immediately with the Ring. Gandalf catches Samwise Gamgee eavesdropping by a window and decides to send him along with Frodo. Gandalf rides to Isengard to meet with Saruman the White who reveals to Gandalf that the Nazgûl, or Ringwraiths, have left Minas Morgul to capture the Ring and kill whoever carries it. Gandalf attempts to flee to warn Frodo, but Saruman, having already been corrupted to Sauron's cause, imprisons Gandalf atop his tower Orthanc. Gandalf is then forced to watch as Saruman, following Sauron's orders, commands the Orcs of Isengard to construct weapons of war and produce a new breed of Orc fighters called the Uruk-Hai.

While traveling to the town of Bree, Frodo and Sam are soon joined by fellow hobbits, Merry and Pippin. After encountering a Ringwraith on the road, they manage to reach Bree only to discover that Gandalf hasn't arrived yet. Instead, Frodo meets a man called "Strider", who agrees to lead them to Rivendell. They continue traveling and spend the night on the hill of Weathertop, where they are attacked by the Nazgûl. Strider fights off the Ringwraiths, but Frodo is grievously wounded by one of the wraiths that stabbed him with a Morgul blade, which will cause him to turn into a wraith if not attended to with the proper care. While chased by the Nazgûl, Frodo is taken by the Elf Arwen to the Elven haven of Rivendell, and healed by her father, Elrond (the leader of the Elves at the battle of Mount Doom three-thousand years before). Arwen also uses her magic to cut off the pursuing Ringwraiths at the Ford of Bruinen, summoning a surge of water that sweeps the Ringwraiths away.

In Rivendell, Frodo finds Gandalf, who explains why he didn't meet them at Bree and that he had escaped Orthanc and Saruman's clutches with the help of an eagle. Later, Elrond calls a council to decide what should be done with the Ring. Elrond warns against keeping the Ring in Rivendell for long, knowing that the Elven realm could come under attack from both Mordor and Isengard. The Ring can only be destroyed by throwing it into the fires of Mount Doom, where it was forged. Frodo volunteers to take the Ring to Mount Doom and is accompanied by his hobbit friends and Gandalf, as well as Strider, who is revealed to be Aragorn, the rightful heir to the throne of Gondor. Also travelling with them are the Elf Legolas, the Dwarf Gimli, and Boromir, the son of the Steward of Gondor. Together they comprise and become the Fellowship of the Ring.

The Fellowship sets out and tries to pass over the Misty Mountains by the mountain pass of Caradhras. Saruman creates an enormous storm, triggering avalanches and heavy snowfall, which nearly wipes out the Fellowship. At Gimli's insistence, they decide to seek safety and travel under the mountain through The Mines of Moria. Frodo agrees, but while travelling they are attacked by the Watcher in the Water, forcing them to travel through the mines. Inside, they encounter Goblins and a cave troll in the Chamber of Mazarbul, and encounter a Balrog, an ancient demon of fire and shadow, at the Bridge of Khazad-dûm. Gandalf faces the Balrog on the bridge and manages to send it plunging into the abyss below, but the monster drags him down with it. The group escapes the underground realm and flees into the Elven realm of Lothlórien, where they are sheltered by its rulers, Galadriel and her husband Celeborn. That night, Frodo meets Galadriel, who tells him that it is his destiny to handle the Ring and ultimately destroy it. Before they leave, Galadriel gives Frodo the Phial of Galadriel, and the other members also receive gifts from them. Taking the straight path to Mordor, they travel on the River Anduin towards Parth Galen.

After landing at Parth Galen, Boromir tries to take the Ring from Frodo, believing it to be the only way to save his realm, but Frodo escapes him. Aragorn encounters Frodo, but unlike Boromir, Aragorn manages to resist the Ring's temptation and chooses not to take it. Knowing that the Ring's temptation will be too strong for him or anyone else that is in the fellowship, Frodo decides to leave them and go to Mordor alone. Meanwhile, the rest of the Fellowship are attacked by Uruk-hai, who Saruman had ordered to hunt down the Fellowship and take the Ring. Aragorn and the fellowship distract the Uruk-hai so that Frodo can escape; Merry and Pippin, also realizing that Frodo is leaving, distract the orcs, allowing Frodo to escape. As Boromir rushes to the aid of the two hobbits, he is mortally wounded by the Uruk commander Lurtz. Before Lurtz can finish off Boromir, Aragorn arrives and attacks Lurtz, decapitating him after a short but brutal fight. As he lies dying, Boromir regrets having attempted to steal the Ring and is forgiven by Aragorn. Merry and Pippin are then captured, prompting Aragorn, Gimli, and Legolas to begin their pursuit of the orcs with the intent of rescuing the hobbits - leaving Frodo to continue his quest. Frodo returns to the banks of the river and begins rowing across when Sam appears and swims out after him, insisting he has promised Gandalf he would look after Frodo. Frodo accepts Sam's presence and together they continue their journey through the hills of Emyn Muil.

Next we watched The Two Towers.

---

In the Mines of Moria, the wizard Gandalf the Grey battles the Balrog of Moria on the Bridge of Khazad-dum in an attempt to allow the Fellowship of the Ring to escape. Gandalf casts the Balrog into the chasm below, but the demon pulls him down with it; the Fellowship believes he is dead, but he continues to fight the creature as they fall down into a huge subterranean lake in the depths of the Earth.

Days later, the Hobbit Frodo Baggins continues his journey with his loyal friend, Sam, through the hills of Emyn Muil. One night, the creature Gollum, wishing to retrieve "his precious" (the One Ring), attacks them. The Hobbits capture him, but Frodo understands the burden of the Ring and takes pity on the creature. Realizing they are in need of a guide, Frodo persuades Gollum to lead them to the Black Gate of Mordor.

In Rohan, Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli are in pursuit of the Uruk-hai, who are journeying back to Isengard with the hobbits Merry and Pippin as their captives. Meanwhile, King Théoden, the king of Rohan, is being held under a trance by Gríma Wormtongue, who is secretly in the service of Saruman the White. Saruman is working towards the demise of Rohan. Orcs and the Dunlendings, incited by Saruman, are freely roaming the land, burning villages, massacring the Rohirrim people and destroying crops. In an attack on one of the villages, a mother sends her two children on horseback to Edoras to warn the King of the attacks. Recently, the King's only son Théodred fell victim to them, left mortally wounded in an ambush. Théoden's nephew Éomer interrogates Gríma, labelling him a spy. Gríma, however, convinces the King to banish Éomer "on pain of death" for undermining his authority. Éomer sets forth to gather the remaining loyal men of the Rohirrim and leave Rohan. That night, Éomer's army ambush and kill the party of Uruk-hai, allowing Merry and Pippin to flee into the forests of Fangorn. There, they meet Treebeard, the oldest of the Ents of Middle-earth.

Frodo, Sam and Gollum traverse the Dead Marshes, evading a Nazgûl riding on a winged beast. When they finally reach the Black Gate, they find it shut and heavily guarded by Orcs. However, as they watch, an Easterling contingent arrives and the gate opens for them to enter. Sensing a chance, Frodo and Sam get ready to move. However, Gollum, who confirms their fears of capture and insists that any attempt to get in via the Black Gate will only end with the One Ring returning to Sauron, holds them back. He then reveals that there is another way into Mordor, hidden and unguarded. Sam is immediately suspicious, but Frodo gives him the benefit of the doubt, pointing out that he has remained loyal thus far.

Éomer later encounters Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli in Rohan. He tells the group that there were no survivors of the battle with the Uruk-hai the previous night, indicating that Merry and Pippin were accidentally slain. Upon arriving at the battle site, Aragorn picks up the tracks of the hobbits and the trio follows them into Fangorn. There they are approached and temporarily subdued by a wizard masked with shining white light. Initially fearing it is Saruman, the group are amazed when he reveals himself to be Gandalf reborn (after defeating the Balrog in a battle that cost him his life). Gandalf reveals that he is now known as Gandalf the White. The quartet proceed to Edoras, where they exorcise Saruman's hold on Théoden and banish Wormtongue. The now awakened Théoden has to come to terms with both his son's death and the threat of Saruman. Rather than risk open war and further harm to his people (especially after seeing the two exhausted children who finally arrived from the village), Théoden decides to flee to Helm's Deep, a large stronghold in the Mountains. Gandalf realises that Helm's Deep's defences will not survive the Uruk-Hai onslaught that is surely to come. He leaves to find Éomer, promising to return within five days with the 2,000 banished riders. As they lead the people of Edoras to Helm's Deep, Aragorn and Éowyn (Éomer's sister) form a close relationship. Aragorn tells Éowyn that Arwen, whom he loves, is leaving Middle-Earth to be with her people in the Undying Lands. In the meantime, Wormtongue has fled to Orthanc and informs Saruman of a weakness in the outer wall of Helm's Deep, which Saruman and his army of 10,000 Uruk-hai plans to exploit. Saruman dispatches his army to Helm's Deep, ordering them to spare no one.

Having led the Hobbits south from the Black Gate to the land of Ithilien, Gollum is in turmoil, torn between his loyalty to Frodo and his all-consuming need for the Ring. The three travellers then play witness to an ambush of Southrons by Rangers of Ithilien, who take Frodo and Sam prisoner. Meanwhile, on the journey to Helm's Deep, the Rohirrim are attacked by Saruman's Warg riders. During the battle, Aragorn is thrown off a cliff into a fast-flowing river below: Theoden, Legolas, Gimli and the others believe him dead and journey on to Helm's Deep. Elrond comes to his daughter Arwen and implores her to leave on the ships departing Middle-Earth, escaping the troubles of these lands. When she refuses, Elrond, in a devastating speech, uses his powers of foresight and reveals the darkness of Arwen's future if she chooses to remain in Middle-Earth with Aragorn. As he is mortal, Aragorn will eventually die even if he becomes King of Gondor, leaving Arwen to fade away with her grief when he is gone. Once again, Elrond pleads with her and she yields to him. As she leaves Rivendell, the words of Galadriel, concerning the plight of Men to defy Sauron, come to Elrond in that moment. She questions whether the Elves should wash their hands of Middle-Earth and points out that the Ring has maneuvered itself into the company of Men, which it can easily corrupt. Galadriel asks if they should abandon Men to their fate, even if it condemns Middle-earth to fall under Sauron's rule for all time.

Meanwhile, Frodo and Sam have been taken to Henneth Annûn, a stronghold for the Men of Ithilien, and brought before Faramir, Boromir's younger brother. Gollum had evaded capture and, in order to save him from death at the hands of Faramir's hunters, Frodo accepts that he and Gollum are bound to each other. Faramir investigates further and learns of the One Ring that Frodo carries. Seeking to prove his worth to his father, Denethor, he decides the Ring shall go to Gondor. In Rohan, Aragorn washes up on the riverbank and is nudged awake by the horse Brego, which formerly belonged to Théodred, and which Aragorn had set free before leaving Edoras. On the verge of collapse, he wills his horse to take him to Helm's Deep, passing Saruman's army of Uruk-hai on the way. His arrival at Helm's Deep is met with relief, but is short lived as the news of the approaching Uruk-hai horde casts doubt upon the survival of the defenders. As night falls, a battalion of Elves led by Haldir arrives from Lórien, bearing word of alliance and aid from Elrond. In Fangorn forest, Merry, Pippin, Treebeard and other Ents hold a council to decide on the role of the Ents in the war with Saruman.

The battle of Helm's Deep begins with a flurry of arrows from the defending archers, cutting down dozens of Uruk-hai. Scaling ladders are thrown up against the Deeping Wall and the Uruks swarm up to engage the defenders. At first the onslaught is stayed by the valour of the Rohirrim and of Aragorn and his companions. Suddenly, two crude explosive devices that Saruman created, allowing the Uruks entry into the outer defences, blow up the gutter in the Deeping Wall. Despite Aragorn and Gimli's best efforts, the Uruks manage to penetrate the main gate and soon the stronghold is overrun. In the midst of battle, Haldir is slain and the few remaining Elves fall back. In the Hornburg, the Uruks have scaled the walls and have breached the gate, forcing the defenders to retreat into the Keep. In Fangorn, Treebeard and the other Ents have decided to not have any involvement in the war, deciding rather to "weather such things as [they] have always done". Despite this, Pippin manages to cleverly take Treebeard to the section of Fangorn that Saruman has recently decimated near Isengard. Treebeard is filled with rage at Saruman's betrayal and commands all the other Ents to seek vengeance. The Ents gather and embark upon 'the Last March of the Ents', straight into Isengard itself.

Meanwhile, as Théoden despairs in the besieged Keep, Aragorn refuses to give in and, remembering Gandalf's words before he left Edoras, takes Théoden, Legolas and the remaining Rohirrim on one last gallant ride to attack the Uruk-hai army in a desperate bid to allow the Rohirrim's women and children to escape into the mountains. The riders storm out of the Keep and cut their way through to the fortress gate. As the riders emerge into the mass of Uruks, the first rays of dawn fall down into the valley and upon the eastern hill, Gandalf appears, accompanied by Éomer and his men.

They rush down into the body of the stunned Uruks and rout them: the terrified Uruk-hai flee into Fangorn, where the Ents and their Huorn allies swiftly exact retribution. Meanwhile, the Ents are take control of Isengard. They destroy the remaining Uruk-hai population and release the dam placed upon the river Isen, which gushes forth into the plains around Orthanc, drowning the surviving Orc defenders, quenching the fires of its industry and flooding Isengard, and stranding Saruman in his tower.

Away in the East, Faramir has had Frodo, Sam and Gollum taken to Osgiliath, a ruined city on the banks of the river Anduin between Mordor and Gondor; where there is a Ringwraith, again on a winged beast. With the help of Sam and Faramir, Frodo narrowly escapes the Ringwraith's efforts to capture him and the Ring (it nearly cost Sam his life because the Ring tried to make Frodo kill him). In an inspired monologue as he watches the Ringwraith fly off (and as victory scenes from the two battles are seen) Sam reflects on the state he and Frodo are in, on how their story may yet come to have a happy ending. Frodo is doubtful of this (especially because he nearly killed Sam) but Sam insists that they must still hold on to what they are fighting for: each other, and the fulfilment of their quest. Approaching them from the throes of battle, Faramir overhears them and realises these unassuming hobbits have a high doom before them which he can no longer hope to interrupt. He sets them free and helps them on their way. After the battle of Helm's Deep, Gandalf and the others ride up on horseback and gaze towards Mordor, and now know inevitable things have been set in motion. As Gandalf puts it, "The battle for Helm's Deep is over. The battle for Middle-earth is about to begin." He remarks that hope now rests with Frodo and Sam, who have resumed their journey to Mordor with Gollum. Feeling betrayed by Frodo when he delivered him into the hands of Faramir's men, Gollum's darker self re-emerges and he decides to reclaim the ring by secretly leading Frodo and Sam to a creature he refers to only as "her", which Gollum's lighter self reluctantly agrees to and leads the hobbits on through the woods as Mordor is seen in the distance.

And lastly we were watching The Return of The King.

---

The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King picks up the story from the end of The Two Towers. The film begins with a flashback sequence where we discover how the character Gollum (Sméagol) first came across the One Ring. Before becoming Gollum he was a hobbit-like creature known as Sméagol. He is shown fishing with his cousin Déagol who, after being pulled in to the water by a large fish, discovers the One Ring in the river Anduin. Sméagol demands that Déagol give him the Ring for his birthday, but Déagol refuses. This leads to Sméagol violently strangling him to death and stealing the One Ring. After killing his cousin, Sméagol escapes to the Misty Mountains and slowly mutates into the creature known as Gollum. As this sequence ends, we see Frodo, Sam and Gollum approaching the mountains of Mordor with Mount Doom in view. Gollum is still leading them and Sam continues to have bad feelings on where Gollum will lead them to. Frodo, however, has full trust in the creature.

Gandalf, Aragorn, Legolas, Gimli, King Théoden, Gamling and Eomer arrive at a ruined Isengard, which has been flooded out by the nearby Isen river. There, they meet with the Hobbits Merry and Pippin, who are enjoying food and "sitting on a field of victory". On entering Isengard, they are informed by the Ent Treebeard that it has been taken over by the Ents and that Saruman is imprisoned inside Orthanc.

Then, they confront the traitorous Wizard, Saruman, standing atop of his tower. Saruman says to King Théoden that they could be allies once more, but Théoden explains that they shall both have peace when Rohan avenges all the people killed at the Westfold and Helm's Deep by executing Saruman on a gibbet. Saruman mentions to Gandalf that Frodo is heading towards immediate doom and that Aragorn will never be crowned King of Gondor. He reveals to the others the Palantír which he kept in secret, and knows all the ways of the enemy. Then, they are informed by Saruman that Sauron is readying his forces for a final strike. Gandalf makes an offer with Saruman to come down from his tower and be spared, but Saruman attacks him with a cloud of fire instead. Luckily, the Wizard survives and he shatters Saruman's staff, thus casting him out of the order of Wizards. Before Saruman can give them more information, Gríma Wormtongue arrives. Théoden says that Gríma is freed of Saruman, and that he can surrender and be a Man of Rohan as he once was. Gríma happily bows to Théoden; however, Saruman insults the Men of Rohan and claims that Gríma will never be free and slaps him to the floor. In his anger, Wormtongue attacks Saruman, fatally stabbing him in the back. Legolas quickly fires an arrow into Gríma, killing him, but he is too late to save Saruman, who plummets from Orthanc's top and is impaled on a watermill.

Treebeard informs the group that the Ents will return to fill up Isengard as they once did. As the watermill spins and Saruman is submerged below the water, he drops the Palantír from his sleeve. Pippin sights the Palantír in the water and jumps down from Aragorn's horse to get it. Upon finding the Palantír beneath the water, Pippin is told to give it to Gandalf, and he does so, but Gandalf is unsure in the Hobbit, and knows that he may be up to something.

The group then ride for Edoras, where they will celebrate their victory at Helm's Deep. That night, there is a post-battle party in the Golden hall at Edoras, where King Théoden is given the Cup of Kings by his niece, Éowyn, and addresses the people of Rohan, including Aragorn, of the men who died defending the gates of Helm's Deep and saving their country. Then, there is a huge feast where Éomer volunteers Gimli and Legolas into a drinking competition - eventually, Legolas wins after Gimli passes out. Éowyn gives Aragorn the Cup of Kings and Théoden joins her. He says that he is happy for her and that Aragorn is an honorable man. Théoden then says that it was not him who led their people to victory, but soon gets off the subject with Éowyn. Merry and Pippin are drunk and dancing, singing songs of the Green Dragon Inn in front of a large crowd of Rohan Men, who are enjoying the show. Pippin pauses for a moment to find Gandalf watching him but is quickly pulled back into the dance by Merry, and the pair continue to enjoy themselves. Aragorn then discusses with Gandalf the progress of Frodo and Sam on the quest to destroy the One Ring of power. Gandalf says he has received no news of Frodo and Aragorn says that every day Frodo moves closer to Mordor. Gandalf responds that his heart confirms Frodo is alive.

Elsewhere, near the Mountain of Shadow, Frodo and Sam are asleep whilst Gollum secretly sneaks away and confronts himself at a pool. Gollum/Sméagol argue with themselves over whether they will kill the Hobbits and take the Ring, but Gollum says that they shall lead Frodo and Sam up a stairway, where "she" will kill them. Then, from the Hobbits' remains, Gollum/Sméagol shall take the Ring. However, Sam suddenly attacks Gollum, having heard his plans, but is dragged away from him by Frodo, who does not believe that Gollum is a villain. Frodo leads Gollum away, who looks back at Sam, giving an evil grin. At Edoras, everyone is sleeping. Aragorn goes into the main hall where Éowyn lies sleeping. As Aragorn approaches to pull the quilt upon to her, Éowyn awakens briefly to tell Aragorn of a "Great Wave" flooding a great city, destruction and darkness. Aragorn listens and then watches as she falls back asleep.

Walking outside, Aragorn goes to Legolas, who is viewing the land, knowing that the Eye of Sauron is moving to his next target. Inside the hall, Pippin, fascinated by the seeing stone, takes it from Gandalf while he sleeps, and, ignoring Merry's urging to leave it alone, moves to touch the Palantír. Whilst gazing into the crystal ball, Pippin is suddenly spied by the Eye of Sauron who attempts to interrogate the Hobbit via psychic link. Barely able to resist the Eye's power, Pippin is nearly broken into submission, but Gandalf and Aragorn wrestle it from his tortured fingers. Pippin is left deeply shaken, but lives. Gandalf quickly rushes to Pippin in a panic and asks whether he revealed anything about Frodo and the Ring. Pippin confirms that he revealed nothing of Frodo and the Ring, but that he saw a dead, white tree in a courtyard of stone, with the city around it in flames.

The next morning, Gandalf, Aragorn, Théoden, Legolas, Gimli and the Hobbits Merry and Pippin meet in the great hall to decide on what is to be done with the information Pippin has provided. Gandalf is now certain that Sauron will come after Pippin, thinking he has the Ring. Pippin's vision, however, has revealed that Sauron's plan is to attack Minas Tirith, the capital city of Gondor. Having been defeated at Helm's Deep, Sauron has realized that Men might pose a threat to him. Sauron is not willing to let the force of Middle-earth unite against him. Gandalf says to Théoden that if the beacons of Gondor are lit, then Rohan must be ready for war, but Théoden says that because Gondor never went to aid them during the Battle of Hornburg, Rohan owes Gondor nothing. When Aragorn says that he shall go, Gandalf instead enigmatically urges Aragorn to travel south and use the "Black Ships" to come to the aid of Minas Tirith. He then mentions that things have been set in motion that cannot be undone - he rides for Minas Tirith, and that he won't be going alone… Pippin will be travelling with him. Leaving the Golden Hall, Gandalf says that of all inquisitive Hobbits, Pippin is the worst. Merry is furious with Pippin, saying that it is always him who causes trouble and this time, the enemy believes Pippin has the Ring, and because they will be looking for him, they must get Pippin out of Rohan. When Pippin asks if Merry is coming with him, Merry says nothing. In the stables, Pippin asks Gandalf on how far Minas Tirith, and Gandalf says that it would be three days 'as the Nazgûl flies'. Merry gives Pippin the remaining Longbottom leaves. Gandalf then makes a speedy depart for Gondor with Pippin on Shadowfax, leaving a heartbroken Merry behind.

Merry then goes on to view Gandalf and Pippin going away from Edoras, and Merry says to Aragorn that he has always been there for Pippin, and now he's gone, just like Frodo and Sam. Aragorn then says to Merry that there is one thing he learnt from Hobbits - they are very stout folk.

Meanwhile, Arwen is travelling with a company of Elves (including Figwit) toward the Grey Havens. On the journey, she has a vision of Eldarion, her future son by Aragorn, which convinces her to turn back to Rivendell. There, she urges her father Elrond to reforge

Narsil, the sword of Elendil, so that it may be given to Aragorn. Elrond is resistant, until he realizes that Arwen is becoming mortal. He is told by Arwen that this is her choice, and that there is no ship that can take her away now.

Later, Elrond sadly watches as Narsil is reforged by Elf smiths.

Gandalf and Pippin, meanwhile, ride into the Kingdom of Gondor where they ride up a hill bank to view the huge and mighty White City of Minas Tirith - City of Kings. They ride up on Shadowfax up every level of the city, from the First up to the Seventh, until they reach the citadel of the city thousands of feet above the ground, right at the tip of a huge rock prow. On entering the Throne Room hall, Pippin notices the White Tree (From his vision) guarded by the Fountain Guards and Gandalf explains that the Gondorians believe that one day the White Tree will flower again, once a King returns to the throne of men. Also, Gandalf warns Pippin not to say anything to the current Steward of Gondor, Denethor, about the apparent death of his son, Boromir, and the fact of Aragorn returning to the throne of men, or to say anything at all.

Gandalf and Pippin go to confront Lord Denethor, seated on the Steward's throne, at the end of the great hall, where they discover that Denethor has nearly been driven mad by grief and is unwilling to ask for help in the defence of Gondor from Théoden and the Riders of Rohan, believing that Gandalf merely intends to use his forces to defeat the armies of Mordor, then replace him with Aragorn. Pippin, nonetheless, pledges his service to Denethor in gratitude for Boromir's heroic efforts to save Merry and him. Lord Denethor says he will raze the White City to the ground before there is a King to return to the throne of Men. Gandalf is furious that Denethor won't call or send for Rohan's aid but will just grieve whilst Mordor prepares their armies to crush Minas Tirith.

He leaves with Pippin following him, furious with the Steward's actions and walks across the citadel, telling Pippin about the line of Kings failing in Gondor, and about the White Tree withering because of this. The rule of Gondor was given over to lesser men. He also says that Sauron's forces will use a large block of fumes to cover Gondor's sky and allow the Orcs to pass onto the fields and conquer the city. Meanwhile, Frodo, Sam and Gollum continue their journey through woods near Gondor. Sam notices that the sky is growing darker every day, foreshadowing the foreboding events about to occur.

Then, Frodo notices a statue of a Gondorian King, but his head has been toppled, and another head, carved by Orcs, has been put in its place, mocking it. Then, a bright light from the Sun reveals the King's original head, with a crown of flowers around its top. Sam then says to Frodo "Look, the King's got a crown again!" But then the light goes behind the trees, and the original head of the statue goes dark once more. Frodo and Sam, with Gollum leading them, continue their journey.

The Lighting of the Beacons

That night, at Minas Tirith, Pippin prepares his Gondorian armor whilst Gandalf overlooks Mordor in the distance from a balcony. Gandalf explains the intensity of the time that has come; Sauron has gathered all that he can for his final war, a juggernaut army of not just orcs, but also Haradrim soldiers, great beasts and monsters from the south - and even mercenaries (men) from the sea. One way or another the end of Gondor as they know it has come. If the orcs take the city of Osgiliath, it would eliminate the defenses between Minas Tirith and the armies of Mordor. Pippin optimistically asserts the presence of the White Wizard on their side. But, Gandalf is less hopeful.

Gandalf also explains that Sauron has sent his most deadly and greatest servant to lead the forces of Mordor into war, who is assumed to be immortal against any living man - the Witch-king of Angmar - who was also the Nazgûl who struck Frodo down on Weathertop. He is the leader of the Ringwraiths and the most powerful of the nine, and Minas Morgul is his lair.

Meanwhile, as Gandalf says this, Frodo, Sam and Gollum move toward the evil city of Minas Morgul on their journey. Gollum then leads them to some stairs spanning up a huge cliff face in the Mountains of Shadow. Suddenly, the power of Minas Morgul draws the Ring close to it and Frodo goes with it. Gollum and Sam quickly move to pull him away, but as they do, a pillar of green fire rises from Minas Morgul and shoots up into the night sky.

At Minas Tirith, Gandalf, Pippin and the Gondorians witness the signal in the distance. At Minas Morgul, Frodo collapses and the city goes silent. Suddenly, the Witch-king swoops out of Minas Morgul on his fell beast, and lets out a terrible screech. This stuns Frodo, causing him to feel the wraith's blade. Then, the Witch-king's fell beast makes the call, and the huge army of Sauron marches out of Minas Morgul toward Gondor, led by the Witch-king, who swoops out in front of them.

Frodo, Sam and Gollum begin to climb toward the high pass of Cirith Ungol. As they do this, Sam suddenly grabs Gollum, warning him not to do anything to Frodo, and if he does, Gollum will be gone. Sam then continues to climb with Frodo, and Gollum looks up at him with an evil grin. At Minas Tirith, Gandalf realizes that the Mordor army is on the move. He quickly has Pippin climb up to the signal beacon located high above Minas Tirith and light it.

The Battle of Osgiliath

At the ruined city of Osgiliath, the Rangers here, led by the young captain of Gondor, Faramir, prepare their weaponry. Faramir is told that the Orcs are lying low across the river, scouts were sent to Cair Andros to give early warning in case the Orcs were to attack from the north. Secretly, on the river, the Orcs are making their move on large rafts. Among them, one hideously deformed Orc, Gothmog, is in immediate command. Gothmog orders his Orc troops to be quiet whilst they approach Osgiliath, in a surprise attack on the rangers.

As the Orcs draw closer towards the city, one soldier notices them approaching, and Gothmog quickly orders his demise. Then, an Orc archer kills the soldier and Faramir is called to the scene, where he instantly realizes that they are about to be attacked and Orcs are not attacking from the north. Then, Faramir quickly leads a heroic defence of the city, having all his men guard each side of the river bank, but the Orcs draw closer and Gothmog orders his troops to draw their swords and prepare to invade the city.

Faramir waits for the attack, his sword drawn, as the Orc rafts hit the shore and the Orcs inside them run into Osgiliath. Faramir then nods to his men that the time is right, and he charges into the invading Orcs, his Rangers following. The Orcs start attacking the rangers, and, as more rafts hit the bank, a huge battle ensues. Soon, the Orcs lower a ramp on the bridge and swarm into the city. The Rangers experience a very early success, but are soon overwhelmed and overrun by the Orcs.

Meanwhile, Pippin climbs up to the Minas Tirith signal beacon high above the city and quietly sets it alight and sneaks away, as the Gondorian soldiers there stand up in confusion as the beacon lights in a large ball of flames. On one of the city walls, Gandalf goes to view the other beacons lighting up along the White Mountains. However, Denethor looks unhappily at the events through the throne room window. Gandalf knows that hope has come to Gondor.

The signal passes along Gondor's chain of beacons in the White Mountains, swiftly reaching Edoras. There, Aragorn quickly runs to tell Théoden that "Gondor calls for aid!" After a brief moment of thought, Théoden declares that Rohan will answer and orders the Rohirrim to muster at Dunharrow - they will ride for Gondor and to war. Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli prepare themselves and Aragorn notices that Éowyn will be riding with them. She says that the men have found Aragorn as their captain; they will follow him to battle and even to death. He has given them hope.

Gimli says to Legolas that horsemen are not as good in battle than an army of dwarves - fully armed and filthy. Legolas, however, says that his kinsmen have no need to ride to war, for he fears war is already marching upon their own lands. Merry, meanwhile, pledges himself to Théoden, and the King of Rohan proudly accepts, saying that Merry shall be - Meriadoc, esquire of Rohan. Now in the King's service, Merry happily puts on Rohan armour and prepares to ride with the Rohirrim to Dunharrow.

As the Rohhirim gather, Théoden takes one last look up at the banner of Rohan, knowing that this will be the last battle he shall ride to. Gathering up, Éomer bids the men of Rohan to fulfill the oaths they had taken and ride for Lord and land. It is then that, Aragorn, Legolas, Gimli, Théoden, Éowyn, Éomer and even Merry leave Edoras for Dunharrow.

At Osgiliath, the Orcs overrun the city and slaughter everything in their path; defeating the Rangers in the city. As his Rangers die around him, Faramir barely escapes an attack by Orc soldiers after a group of fellow Rangers fire a small volley of arrows at the pocket of Orcs pursuing him, he soon realizes that all hope of holding the city is lost; the Orcs have won.

He calls for a retreat - they ride for Minas Tirith. The men quickly flee onto their horses and race out of the city. During the attack, Faramir's lieutenant, Madril, was attacked by an Orc and left wounded. He is quickly finished off by Gothmog, who cruelly kills him with a spear. Gothmog then states to his troops that the Age of Men is over and that the time of the Orc has come.

As Faramir and his men retreat to Minas Tirith, they are attacked by Nazgûl on winged fell beasts and many die across the field. As the retreating Rangers are attacked, Gandalf and Pippin ride out of Minas Tirith towards them on Shadowfax. The men of Minas Tirith watch as the Rangers are all saved by Gandalf, who drives the Nazgûl back with a beam of white light from his staff. Inside the city, Faramir tells Gandalf of the Orcs overtaking the city and now crossing the river.

Faramir then comes into sight of Pippin, and his reaction to seeing Pippin reveals that he has recently seen two other Hobbits: Frodo and Sam. Gandalf is alarmed to hear that they are heading toward Cirith Ungol, but is worried and asks Faramir to tell him all he knows. However, Denethor hears this too, and confronts his younger son in the throne room. He is ashamed of Faramir's loss of Osgiliath and the fact that he gave the One Ring to a Hobbit and let him carry it to Mordor. Denethor says that the Ring should have been brought back to the Citadel, to be kept safe, hidden and secret in the dark vaults, not to be used until the time was right.

He then says that Boromir would have brought him the Ring but Faramir says that Boromir would not have done this; he would have taken the Ring and fallen. As Denethor rises from his throne in anger, Faramir says that Boromir would have kept the Ring for his own, and when he returned, Denethor would never again know him as a son. Denethor then leaps up in anger, saying that Boromir was loyal to him, and not a "Wizard's Pupil" like Faramir. Denethor then collapses in grief and it is revealed that he misses Boromir so much, that he no longer sees Faramir as a trustworthy son.

In his grief, he asks Faramir to leave his sight, which he sadly does. At the steps leading up to the Pass of Cirith Ungol, Frodo, Sam and Gollum continue to climb. On climbing, Gollum is the first to climb upon a ledge and urges Frodo to continue climbing, but as he does so, he notices the Ring dangling from the chain on his neck. Gollum reaches for it and Sam draws his sword, but Gollum then seemingly goes to grab Frodo's hand and pull him up. Then, as Sam climbs up after them, Gollum starts to pour false accusations into Frodo's ear about Sam, saying that soon, Sam will ask him for the Ring and take it for his own.

At Osgiliath, as the forces of Mordor prepare their army, the Witch-king orders Gothmog to send forth all legions and not halt the attack until Minas Tirith is taken, commanding the Orcs to slay everyone in the city. Gothmog asks of Gandalf's fate, and the Witch-king says that he shall break him. At Minas Tirith, the soldiers are worried and they ask Gandalf if Rohan will come to aid them. Gandalf says that courage is their best defense. In the Great hall, Pippin now wears Faramir's armour he wore as a child, and is told by Faramir himself that he never used to do his studying when he was younger; instead he used to waste time slaying Dragons.

He also says that Denethor made the armour for him, who has always seen Boromir as the stronger child. However, Pippin reminds him that Faramir has strength, but of a different kind, and one day, Denethor shall see that in him too and actually come to value Faramir. Afterwards, Pippin enters Lord Denethor's service and puts his service and loyalty to him. However, Pippin is soon after shocked when he hears that Denethor wishes for Faramir to retake Osgiliath. On hearing this, Faramir realizes that his own father wants him to die for Boromir, who died in his place. Obeying this order, Faramir says that he shall do this command in Boromir's stead, but when he returns, he wants Denethor to think better of him. Denethor, however depends that on the matter of his return. Faramir sadly leaves to go and try to retake Osgiliath, knowing that this act will claim his own life.

Meanwhile, at the pass of Cirith Ungol, the Hobbits sleep on a ledge suspended hundreds of feet above Minas Morgul. In secret, Gollum gets up to his tricks and drops the Hobbit's Elven bread down the cliff. Awakening, Sam discovers what has happened and instantly blames Gollum. Once Frodo awakens, Gollum goes to try and stir the events. He continues to play with Frodo's mind until it is too late, and when Sam suddenly asks Frodo if he can carry the Ring, only wanting to help, Frodo's mind goes against him.

He suddenly pushes Sam away in anger and Gollum grins, his plan is working. After trying to convince Frodo that it is Gollum's fault, Sam is horrified when Frodo falls for the ploy and tells Sam to leave. Sam does so, saddened and reluctant. Frodo continues to climb with Gollum behind him. Meanwhile, Faramir's cavalry marches proudly out of Minas Tirith as Gandalf tries to convince Faramir that his father is quite mad, but still loves him. Faramir sadly explains that he would do anything to defend Minas Tirith but knows that he will die at his father's will.

Faramir's detachment charges out onto the open plains, heading towards Osgiliath as the thousand of Orcs which have overtaken the city watch, preparing their black bows. In Minas Tirith, Denethor has Pippin sing as his son and all his men ride to a doomed fate, not realizing that it is actually happening.

Pippin sings:

"Home is behind, the world ahead and there are many paths to tread, through shadow to the edge of night, until the stars are all alight…"

Approaching Osgiliath, Faramir holds his sword out to the enemy, but the Orcs there draw their bows and prepare to fire. In Minas Tirith, as Denethor eats, Pippin continues to sing:

"… Mist and shadow cloud and shade, all shall fade, all shall fade."

At Osgilliath, the Orcs are commanded by Gothmog to fire a huge volley of arrows upon the advancing Horsemen. Letting their bows lose, the Orcs rein arrows upon Faramir's cavalry, massacring them. A despondent Gandalf sits in silent lament, while Pippin weeps at Denethor's indifference to the fact he has sent his son to his death while pigging out.

At Dunharrow, the Rohirrim gather outside a huge cliff face, preparing their men and weaponry for war. King Théoden asks his men on the reinforcements, but is told that several alliances have not yet come. Soon after, now on top of a large camp site on the side of a huge cliff, King Théoden and Aragorn go to view the army, and Théoden says that there are six thousand men ready, but Aragorn says that is not enough to break the lines of Mordor. Théoden says that more men will come, but Aragorn explains to him that every hour lost hastens Gondor's defeat - they have until dawn before they must ride.

Also, the men here, along with the horses, are terrified of a road that leads to the mountains behind Dunharrow. Legolas and Gimli are looking around, viewing the road, when Éomer explains that the horses grow nervous at the shadow of the mountain. He tells them that anyone who ever journeyed that road never returned and that the mountain is evil. Aragorn then goes to view the road and is especially frightened when he sees what appears to be a spectral figure staring back at him. Gimli distracts him and when Aragorn looks back, the figure is gone.

That night, Éowyn prepares Merry for battle, and he notes that his sword isn't even sharp. Éowyn says to the Hobbit that he won't kill many Orcs with a blunt blade and then goes to take him to the smithy, but, as Merry goes, Éowyn is told by Éomer that Merry is not ready for war. Éowyn asks why Merry cannot fight for those he loves but Éomer tells her that both she and merry know little about war and that war is the province of Men, and that Merry will fall to the fear of battle and that he will flee when he comes face-to-face with the enemy.

Meanwhile, in his tent, Aragorn has a nightmare about Arwen dying at Sauron's power and the Evenstar shattering. Upon awakening in sudden anger, Aragorn is called to Théoden's tent, where he meets Elrond, who says of Arwen dying - as Sauron's power grows, her lifespan degenerates. Elrond explains to Aragorn about Minas Tirith being lost, because to the river, a fleet of Corsair ships sail from the south. They are outnumbered, as Elrond explains, and he tells Aragorn that they need more men if they are to win this fight.

Aragorn says that there are none, but Elrond then explains that there are those men that dwell in the mountain. However, Aragorn only states that those in the mountain are murderers and traitors. They don't believe in anything, and answer to no one. However, Elrond then says that they will answer to the King of Gondor; Elrond then presents Aragorn with Andúril, the reforged shards of Narsil.

With this blade, Aragorn can summon up an army that even Sauron cannot withstand. Elrond states to Aragorn that it is time to put aside the Ranger, and that it is time to become who he was born to be. Aragorn finally accepts his destiny to be the King of Men. Upon preparing to leave Dunharrow, Aragorn is confronted by Éowyn, who begs Aragorn not to go and that the men need him. She confirms her love to Aragorn, but, Aragorn, instead, tells Éowyn that he does not love her but still wishes her happiness.

Accompanied by Legolas and Gimli, he takes the Path of the Dead in the mountains behind Dunharrow. The soldiers of Rohan watch as Aragorn departs and one of the soldiers, Gamling, says that he leaves because there is no hope. However, Théoden tells his men that Aragorn leaves because he must, and even though their numbers are too few against the Armies of Mordor, they shall still meet them in battle. Later that evening, Éowyn sadly views the mountains ahead, and she is accompanied by Théoden, who says that he has left the request for Éowyn to lead the people of Rohan if anything happens to him. Éowyn asks if he wants to give her another order, but Théoden says that he doesn't, but he says that he would have his niece smiling in the future times.

The Paths of the Dead

Meanwhile, the three companions, Legolas, Aragorn, and Gimli move slowly down the silent road that leads to the Paths of the dead. Legolas tells them of the curse Isildur laid upon them for not arriving at the battle of the Last Alliance - never to rest until they have fulfilled their pledge to allegiance to Gondor. After a brief ride through the passes, Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli approach the way into the dead mountain where a burst of evil scares the companion's horses away.

Aragorn, however, says that he does not fear death and he enters the Dead Mountain, Legolas behind him and Gimli soon to follow. At Dunharrow, the Rohirrim climb up onto their horses and prepare to ride for Minas Tirith. King Théoden and Éomer prepare the army and Théoden says that it is a long road ahead and both man and beast must reach the end with the strength to fight.

Meanwhile, Merry is preparing a horse to ride to Gondor but is told by Théoden that his journey here has come to an end, and that it is a three day ride to Minas Tirith, and none of his riders can have the Hobbit as a burden. Despite Merry's urging to ride to war, Théoden dismisses him. Then, as all hope of riding with the Rohirrim seems lost, Merry is suddenly lifted up by an unknown rider and scooped away by him. But this is no man rider - but Eowyn - who says that Merry will ride with her. Merry gladly accepts this.

Éomer and Théoden muster the men and the Rohan army of six thousand horsemen all gallop out of Dunharrow and away to war with Mordor. Meanwhile, the even-more massive army of Mordor marches upon Minas Tirith, trolls and Orcs alike. Inside the Dead Mountain, Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli move through the tunnels and caverns of the dead, where Legolas tells them of him seeing many images of dead men and of horses.

Avoiding the ghostly mists that lurk the paths, Aragorn and his companions find themselves walking upon the skulls and bones of many dead souls.

Finally, the companions enter the lair of the King of the Dead and find the legendary ghost army that dwells in the immense caves. Aragorn, unafraid, confronts them directly, saying that he can fulfill their oath, but the King of the Dead says none but the King of Gondor may command him. Aragorn the shows him Andúril, and as the King of the Dead attacks, Aragorn parries his strike. The King of the Dead snarls "That line was broken!"; in response, Aragorn seizes him, holds Anduril to the King's throat and replied that the blade (and the royal bloodline it represents) has been remade, and then pushes him back. Now with the ghost army's attention, Aragorn orders them as their master, to join him on the battlefield at Minas Tirith and there, once they have destroyed the enemy, he will fulfill them of their oath.

He asks them for their say, but Gimli warns him that he is wasting his time, they had no honor in life and none now in death. Aragorn says that he is Isildur's heir and that he will fulfill their oath. However, the ghosts refuse and slowly disappear. Aragorn calls out to them one last time but they go, and Gimli furiously says that they are all traitors. Then, the walls begin to shake, and moments later, the entire cave collapses, and thousands of skulls avalanche upon them.

Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli are driven from the caves by the cascade of skulls and barely escape. As they exit the caves, they arrive at the Anduin River and see an armada of Black Ships, piloted by the Corsair army. As they watch the ships leave a burning village, Aragorn falls to his knees, believing all hope for Gondor to be lost and that they have failed. Then, the King of the Dead suddenly appears from inside the mountain and agrees to join Aragorn in battle.

The Siege of Minas Tirith

At Gondor, the siege of Minas Tirith begins when the massive Orc army of two hundred thousand troops launches its assault using troll-driven siege towers and huge catapults. The Orcs have Faramir's lifeless form dragged back-first into Minas Tirith by his horse. The guards of the city quickly take hold of Faramir's body and take it up to the Citadel. Down on the fields, the Orcs prepare their catapults, while Gothmog observes the army by riding through their lines on a Warg. Inside Minas Tirith, upon bringing Faramir to his father, Denethor is heart-broken to find his only surviving son seemingly killed, while a soldier tells him that they were outnumbered: none survived.

Outside the city, Gothmog, who is in full-command of the Mordor army, feels the fear raging in the city, and sarcastically "eases their pain" by having his underlings "release the prisoners" which they do, firing severed heads of dead soldiers from catapults at the walls, causing panic, disgust and terror upon the city.

The Pyre of Denethor

Up in the Citadel, Denethor proclaims that his lineage had ended after having the lives of his two sons spent. Pippin quickly goes to check Faramir's wound - he is still alive, he tries to tell Denethor. Ignoring Pippin's pleas, Denethor says that the Stewardship of the city has ended. Denethor then goes to view the huge army of Mordor outside the city, as they commence the assault upon his walls. Down on the field, Gothmog evilly laughs as troops unleash numerous boulders upon Minas Tirith, shattering many of its building whilst the Gondorian soldiers just stand and watch.

Now in a panic, Denethor talks to himself of all hope being lost, feeling that Rohan has deserted him and betrayed by King Théoden. As more boulders hit his walls, Denethor instructs the soldiers to flee from the mounting onslaught in an act of cowardice. Denethor is then suddenly rendered unconscious by Gandalf, who, disgusted with Denethor, hits him several times with his staff. Gandalf then takes command, and tells the city to prepare for battle.

The Wizard then quickly gets up onto his horse and rides out into the city, calling for the retreating soldiers to return to their posts. Then, the army of Gondor quickly stands upon the city walls as Gandalf goes to view the Orc army. He calls for the Gondorians to send these foul creatures to the abyss.

At Gandalf's orders, the Gondorians respond by launching their own catapult attack with trebuchets, using debris and rubble from damaged walls and demolished city structures as ammunition, killing many orcs and destroying mobile siege towers and catapults. The rocks fall down between the Orcs, who look at them in fear, but Gothmog orders them to stay where they are. A catapult duel ensues between the Gondorian armies and the Orcs, crushing troops on both sides.

Then, one catapult, fired by the Gondorians, sends a boulder hurling towards Gothmog, but he quickly steps away from it. He spits at the boulder in disgust. Suddenly, high above the siege, the Witch-king and the Nazgûl attack the city upon their fell beasts, killing many men and inflicting heavy damage by destroying the Gondrian catapults, rendering them defenseless. Their screeches send the Gondorians into maddened panic and Pippin is one of many caught in the fear. As the Nazgûl swoop overhead, Gandalf orders the men not to give into fear, and has then stand to their posts nevertheless the danger.

The Nazgûl's fell beasts smash many buildings, and as Pippin runs through the city, he is knocked down by many terrified people trying to run away from the chaos. During these events, the trolls start bringing forth the huge siege towers, filled with many war-hungry Orcs. Gandalf orders the men on the walls to aim for the trolls and not the towers themselves, and the soldiers do, shooting their arrows down upon the trolls. Soon, one siege tower hits the wall and Orcs pile out, attacking the Gondorians, and after that, many more towers land, unleashing more Orcs.

Meanwhile more Orcs, determined to break through the gates of the city, charge a battering ram at the gates. As this happens, Pippin runs onto the walls, where Gandalf is busy fighting off the invading Orcs. Gandalf shouts for Pippin to return to the citadel, but Pippin says that he was called out to fight. However, as more Orcs attack, two intent on killing Pippin, Gandalf intervenes to save the Hobbit's life, abruptly telling him that the battlefield is no place for a Hobbit. As more siege towers hit the walls and Orcs are let loose, one of them charges towards Gandalf, but Pippin quickly stabs the creature with his sword, killing it instantly.

Gandalf turns to Pippin, saying that the Hobbit is Guard of the Citadel indeed, but then quickly hurries him back up the stairs to the top of the city where he can be safe. At the gates, the Orcs continue to slam their battering ram at the gates, but the Gondorian archers from up above fire arrows down upon the Orcs, killing many and slowing down the ram.

The gate is completely impregnable. Gothmog angrily tells his troops to return to the battering ram and smash the gate down, but he is told by one of his Orc captains that the gate is too strong and nothing can breach it. Seeing his troops die one by one, Gothmog orders the Orcs to use advance on the gates with Grond, a giant, wolf-shaped battering ram. Soon after, Grond, driven by huge beasts, advances upon the gates.

Gandalf looks out over the walls to see Grond approaching, and as it draws closer, the Orcs all chant its name as it prepares to breach the gates. It is chaos, and elsewhere, Aragorn, Gimli and Legolas confront the Black Ships and the Corsairs of Umbar. Aragorn warns the Corsairs not to enter Gondor, but the Corsair captain says that he cannot deny that passage.

Aragorn has Legolas fire a warning shot past one of the Corsair's ears, but as he does so, Gimli deliberately knocks his bow, causing the arrow to hit another Corsair in the chest, killing him. Gimli says that the Corsairs should surrender immediately, but when the pirates refuse, Aragorn has the Army of the Dead obliterate them.

Shelob's Lair

Meanwhile, Gollum leads Frodo towards Shelob's lair in the catacombs near Cirith Ungol. Gollum says that Frodo must enter the tunnel and that there is no other way, either he goes in or goes back. Frodo says that he can't go back. Then, Frodo cautiously enters the caves, which are filled with sticky webs and the remains of dead Orcs and other creatures. In the darkness, Frodo is abandoned by Gollum and left stranded in the dark, gloomy caves. Meanwhile, Sam is climbing back down the passes, saddened, and suddenly slips, falling to a ledge near the bottom of the steps.

There, he finds the Elven bread which Gollum cast down into the ravine. Now angered by the way Gollum fooled Frodo into thinking that he wants to steal the Ring, Sam realizes that he must go and rescue Frodo. In the caves, Frodo is in a panic. After running nervously through the caves, Frodo suddenly encounters the great spider - Shelob. Frodo luckily manages to keep Shelob at bay with the vial of Earendil given to him by Galadriel. He flees from her down the tunnels.

Suddenly, Frodo is caught in one of her webs and realizes that since Gollum won't save him, it is a deliberate trap. In his anger, Frodo cuts himself lose of the web as Shelob draws closer to him and he flees the cave. Frodo is then attacked by Gollum, but he angrily pushes Gollum away and prepares to strangle him, when Gollum says that the Ring is the reason why he tried to kill him. Frodo says that he must destroy it for both their sakes.

Walking away from Gollum, Frodo doesn't realize Gollum is about to attack him, and as he does, Frodo pushes Gollum down a cliff. Now alone, Frodo continues to move through the passes. At one point Frodo faints and gives up saying sorry to Sam, but Galadriel appears and encourages him to go on and continue the quest, Frodo gets up and resumes the road. Near Gondor, the Rohirrim have made camp where Éomer arrives to tell Théoden of the Mordor army attacking the walls of Minas Tirith, the first level already in flames. Among the soldiers, Merry says that he could be a knight of Rohan, capable of great deeds, but he is not - he's just a Hobbit. He tells Éowyn that he just wants to save his friends, Frodo, Sam and Pippin.

Now ready, the Rohirrim sound the war horns and prepare to ride for Minas Tirith. Éowyn and Merry place their Rohan helmets on. It is night, and at Minas Tirith, the Orcs are assaulting the walls with molten boulders, their entire army marching up towards the gates.

Inside the city, Gandalf charges the men of Gondor down to the first level of the city as Grond thunders onto the main gates. As this happens, high above the events, Denethor, in his most extreme moment of madness, retreats to the Tomb of the Stewards, intending to burn himself to death along with the still-living body of Faramir. They move out the Tower of Ecthelion and past the White Tree of Gondor, where one flower seemingly blooms. Pippin, suspecting something disastrous going to happen, secretly follows the funeral parlor to the Tomb in the hallows of the city where Denethor requests for his men to build a pyre.

Down at the gates, Grond prepares to break them open as fireballs fall upon the city's buildings. Gandalf, in front of the frightened men of Gondor, says that no matter what comes through those gates, they must stand their ground.

It is then, that Grond breaks the gates apart and trolls suddenly enter the city first, and then followed by hundreds of Orcs and the Easterlings of Rhun, who charge into the city, viciously attacking Gandalf and the soldiers. The forces of Mordor pour into the city, burning the first level, as Gandalf continues to lead the Gondor forces against them.

The Choices of Master Samwise

At that moment, Sam arrives, holding the Light of Earendil at Shelob, telling her to back away from Frodo. He retrieves Frodo's sword, Sting, and fights Shelob with great courage as the huge spider attacks him with her claws and fangs. Eventually, after a brief fight, Sam severely wounds Shelob, leaving her partially blind and bleeding. She crawls away from Sam and back into her cave.

Sam quickly rushes to Frodo's side, only to find him still and lifeless, believing his friend to be dead. Sam cries, thinking that the Quest is now over, and he holds Frodo's seemingly lifeless body in his arms. While Sam mourns over Frodo's apparent death, Sting glows blue, which means a small company of Orcs are approaching.

Hiding nearby, Sam overhears one of them, Gorbag, who says that Frodo is still alive. Sam overhears the Orcs saying that Shelob only stings her victims to knock them out, as she prefers live prey, and Sam realizes that he has made a big mistake. The Orcs take Frodo to the Tower of Cirith Ungol, imprisoning him in the highest room. Sam must rescue him. At Minas Tirith, in the hallows of the city, Pippin quietly approaches the Tomb of the Stewards where he realizes what is about to happen. He tries to intervene, but Denethor throws him out and releases him from his service, and bars the tomb's doors

He quickly runs through the burning city to tell Gandalf, but there is too much carnage as injured Gondorians pour past him. Fiery boulders are hitting the city, and the people run for their lives, screaming, as thousands of Orcs run through it. Gandalf orders the soldiers to pull back to the second level and get as many women and children to safety as possible, while out on the field, the Orc forces receive orders from Gothmog to enter the city and kill all in their path. Inside the first level, Gandalf fights long and hard to keep the Orcs, wargs and trolls back but the people of the city are being slaughtered as the Soldiers fight off many more invading enemies. Gandalf exhorts them to fight to the last man.

Amidst the fighting, Pippin finds Gandalf and tells him of Denethor's madness. Gandalf quickly pulls Pippin up onto his horse and quickly races towards the tomb to stop the obscene funeral pyre.

Along the way, Gandalf confronts the Witch-king. Gandalf warns the Witch-king to return to the abyss that awaits him and his master, but the evil wraith snarls at the wizard and uses his dark powers to shatter Gandalf's staff, blowing the wizard from Shadowfax.

Pippin lunges at the Witch-king, but is frozen in fear by the screech of his fell beast. Gandalf is half beaten and is about to be killed by the Witch-king, who says that the Wizard has failed and the world of men will fall, when war horns sound outside the city, drawing their attention. Furious, the Witch King lets out a shriek as he directs his fell beast away from the fallen Gandalf to confront this new threat.

The Battle of Pelennor Fields

On the field, Gothmog prepares his Orcs for a second assault when he notices an army arriving in the distance. It is the Rohirrim, led by King Théoden, arriving at the Pelennor Fields. The Rohirrim look onwards at the huge Orc army massing outside the city. Éowyn and Merry look at the enemy, and she tells the Hobbit that courage is needed if they are to save their friends. In the Orc lines, Gothmog realizes the risks to his army and has the pikemen go to the Front lines, with archers behind them.

As this happens, King Théoden doesn't take the Orcs as a threat and rides past his huge army of Men of Rohan, giving his final commands. He says that spears shall be shaken, shields splintered, for this is a sword day and a red day - "Ere the Sun Rises!". As both armies prepare for the conflict, Théoden rides past the front lines of his men, tapping their spears with his sword. He says gloriously that they ride now - to ruin and the world's ending! The men all yell their war cry "Death!" and Théoden leads the charge.

The six thousand Rohirrim all charge down the field towards their opponents. Then, the Orcs, at Gothmog's command, fire their black arrows upon the horsemen, but it is no use. The Orcs all panic as the Rohirrim draw closer and Gothmog realizes that it is too late. The Rohirrim crash into the Orcs and charge through their lines. The Orcs cannot fight back, as they are all crushed beneath the trampling hooves. In the Tomb of the Stewards, Denethor prepares to burn himself and Faramir alive; however, it is quickly stopped as Gandalf speeds into the room, urging him to stop this madness.

However, Denethor refuses, asserting that "against the power that has risen in the East, there is no victory", and he sets the pyre alight. As Gandalf fights off Denethor's guards, Pippin jumps onto the pyre and manages to push Faramir out of the flames where he regains consciousness. Denethor realizes at that moment that his son is still alive, but by then he is too late to stop himself from burning. He runs out from the tomb, consumed in flames, and Gandalf says that "So passes Denethor, son of Ecthelion". Denethor runs across the Citadel and falls from the prow of the city, plummeting down Minas Tirith to his death.

Down on the field, the Rohirrim inflict heavy damage on the Orcs. After vicious fighting, the Orcs turn to flee and Éomer commands the Rohhirim to drive the Orcs towards the river. As victory comes and the Orcs flee, Théoden states in glee that the city is safe, but, he is wrong, as to the east, a much greater threat has arrived. The Rohirrim are horrified when they see a large row of Oliphaunts - Mûmakil - marching towards them.

Undeterred, King Théoden rally's up his army again and charges them gloriously at the Oliphaunts. It is a huge charge, but many Rohirrim are quickly trampled by the Oliphaunts. Above them, thousands of Haradrim archers fire down on the horses. Rohirrim charge in huge groups at the Mûmakil, but many are killed in the chaos. As the Rohirrim fire arrows up into the Oliphaunt's stomach's, including Gamling, Éomer rides out in front of one of the Mûmakil and manages to kill its captain with a spear, which causes his body to fall and dangle down the Oliphaunt's ear.

This causes the Oliphaunt to go un-controlled and crash into another Oliphaunt and both fall to the ground on top of each other. Meanwhile, Éowyn and Merry ride through the battle. Éowyn and Merry manage to bring one of the massive elephant-like beasts down by cutting at its legs. The Rohhirim, meanwhile, focus on one of the large Oliphaunts, distressing the beast by shooting at its head, and King Théoden orders several of his archers to take it down quickly.

Éowyn quickly goes to aid them and sends one spear into the creature's legs, bringing it down, but both Merry and Éowyn are thrown from their horse as the dead Mûmakil collapses. The two are left stranded amidst the huge battle. As King Théoden fights off numerous Orcs, Éowyn joins the fray, cutting down several Orcs with her blade. She also engages Gothmog in combat and ends up punching his face and wounding him. Elsewhere, Merry emerges from beneath one of the fallen Mûmakil and fends himself off from several Orcs and Haradrim warriors.

High up in Minas Tirith, the Orcs have overrun all the levels of the city up to half of the fourth level, where Gandalf, Pippin and the remaining Gondorian army prepare for another attack as fearsome Mountain Trolls hammer at the gates, the Witch King goading them on as the Ringwraith flies past. Gandalf says to Pippin that this is not yet the end, that death is just one path that they must all one day take. He tells Pippin of the old grey curtain of this world sliding back and a bright sunlight and white shores filling the land. Pippin happily listens and decides that dying is not so bad, and Gandalf agrees. The troll continues to hammer at the gate and all that Gandalf and Pippin can do is wait for the assault.

Down of the field, more Rohirrim are being torn apart by the huge Mûmakil beasts. Théoden goes to rally up his men, but is suddenly thrown violently from his horse and severely injured by the Witch-king of Angmar's fell beast. Théoden's slain horse falls upon the King, pinning him down to the ground.

Éowyn suddenly comes face-to-face with the Witch-king, who is poised to finish off Théoden. He turns his attention to her and she stands her ground, slaying his fell beast by beheading the creature, but then confronts the wraith himself. The Witch-king attacks her with a huge, deadly Morgul flail, and, after a brief duel, Éowyn's shield takes a direct hit from the Witch-king's flail, shattering it immediately, throwing Éowyn to the ground, injured.

In the South of Minas Tirith, the Black Fleet arrives up the river. The Orcs gather outside the ships, expecting reinforcements. However, instead, Aragorn leaps off the ships, followed by Legolas and Gimli. Gimli says that there is plenty for the both of them and let the best Dwarf win. Then, the huge Army of the Dead charges out onto the battlefield, slaying the Orcs, Aragorn leading the charge with Legolas and Gimli behind him.

Elsewhere on the battlefield, as the Witch-king moves in to kill Éowyn, arrogantly telling her that his power prevents any man from killing him, Merry suddenly stabs the wraith in the leg with his sword from Rohan, wounding himself in the process. As the Witch-king shrinks from the blow, Éowyn approaches with her sword drawn. Removing her helmet, Éowyn defiantly counters that she is no man and stabs him through his face. The Witch-king implodes and is destroyed.

Meanwhile, Aragorn charges through the Orcs, killing many. Also, Gimli and Legolas continue their competition in battle and engage the Orcs, cutting them down one by one. During the battle, Gothmog gets up, furious for revenge and limps towards Eowyn with an axe for support. Eowyn sees him and tries to crawl away and also tries to lift the sword of the unconscious Merry but it slips from her grip. Gothmog picks up a mace and prepares to finish off Eowyn. Aragorn, Legolas and Gimli were running through the crowd and see Gothmog. Aragorn didn't know that he is saving some one's life and chops the right arm of Gothmog off while Gimli slices his stomach with his axe and Aragorn stabs him in the back which kills him. As the remaining Orcs are slaughtered by the ghosts, Legolas tries to show Gimli that he can gain a higher score with the killing and he skillfully manages to kill one of the crazed Mûmakil and its riders. As the beast collapses, Gimli says, angry and jealous towards the elf, that it still counts as one. Aragorn and his companions then take out the remaining Orcs as the Dead Army begins to swarm Minas Tirith, destroying all the enemies inside. The battle ends when the remnants of the Orc and Haradrim army is completely annihilated by the Ghost army, those not overwhelmed fleeing.

Wounded, Éowyn crawls over to her dying uncle and Théoden quietly tells her how proud he is of her effort. He says that there is nothing else she can do, for his body is broken, but Éowyn says that she will save him. After several moments, Théoden dies in Éowyn's arms. The battlefield falls silent. As the sun rises over the aftermath, the survivors of the battle survey the carnage. Gathering outside Minas Tirith, the Army of the Dead confronts Aragorn and his companions, urging for him to release them. After several seconds of thought, Aragorn releases the Dead Army from their bondage, despite urgings from Gimli to keep them.

Gandalf bows to Aragorn and Aragorn smiles with their success.

Pippin goes to search for Merry as Éomer discovers Éowyn, screaming in horror, believing her to be dead. Aragorn and Éomer take her to Minas Tirith. In Minas Tirith, the injured are tended to in the Houses of Healing. Among them, Éowyn is treated to her Morgul wound by Aragorn, with Éomer nervously watching.

Later, Éowyn awakens in a bed, where she sights Faramir, who is too healing. Out on the battle field, among the thousands of dead bodies, Pippin searches the battlefield frantically for Merry. Luckily, Pippin finds his cousin near the corpse of a dead Oliphaunt. Merry is wounded, but says that he knew Pippin would find him and asks if Pippin is going to leave him.

However, Pippin says that he won't leave him; instead, he will look after him. The two are joyfully reunited. In Minas Tirith, the forces of Gondor and the remnants of the Rohirrim gather in the throne room to decide how to finish the war against Mordor. Meanwhile, at the tower of Cirith Ungol, Frodo is still in the hands of the Orcs, who are searching through his belongings.

Two of the Orcs, an Uruk called Shagrat and the Orc Gorbag, begin fighting over his Mithril vest. After a brief brawl, Shagrat forces Gorbag down through a trapdoor, and into a large group of Uruk-hai.

Shagrat commands them to kill Gorbag, and a huge fight ensues between the Orcs and the Uruks. In the fight, most of the Orcs in the tower and Uruks are killed in the huge orc-to-orc fight. Outside the tower, Sam arrives and finds the whole place filled with dead bodies of the slain Orcs and Uruk-hai. Sam then goes to search for Frodo, and kills the surviving Orcs in a moment of intense courage. However, unknown to Sam, Shagrat makes his escape with the Mithril vest. At the top of the tower, Frodo tries to pull himself free from his bonds, but is suddenly confronted by Gorbag, who says that he is going to kill Frodo. However, before he does, Sam arrives and stabs Gorbag through his torso.

Letting the dead Orc fall to the floor, Sam then greets Frodo, who apologizes for sending Sam away, but is distressed because he has lost the Ring. Sam than says that he hasn't, and produces it from his pocket, saying that he'd taken it from Frodo's unconscious body so the Orcs wouldn't find it. Sam begins to hand it back to Frodo and momentarily pauses, having been mesmerized by the Ring's power. Frodo brings him back from the Ring's spell and explains that the power of the Ring would destroy Sam's soul. Sam returns it to Frodo, saying that they must leave and finish the Quest.

It is time to enter Mordor. Inside Minas Tirith, Aragorn and his allies decide that the time has come. If Frodo is to succeed with his Quest, he must cross the Plains of Gorgoroth, however, Ten thousand Orcs are on those plains. Gandalf believes that he has sent Frodo to his death, but Aragorn says that there is still hope for him - they could draw Sauron's armies out of Mordor through the Black Gate of Morannon. This will empty the plains of Gorgoroth of Sauron's army and allow Sam and Frodo the chance to reach Mount Doom. Gandalf says that Sauron will suspect a trap; he will not take the bait. Aragorn, however, says that he will.

At night, Aragorn uses the Palantír to tempt Sauron, saying that long has the Dark Lord haunted him, and long has he eluded him, but no more. Aragorn then goes to reveal to Sauron the blade of Elendil - Anduril. However, Sauron shows Aragorn a vision of Arwen dead and Aragorn, in his grief, drops the seeing stone, smashing the Evenstar. However, luckily, the ploy works and the fields of Mordor empty.

Aragorn, Gandalf, Legolas, Gimli, Éomer and the Hobbits Merry and Pippin, make their way towards Mordor, accompanied by the remaining armies of Gondor and Rohan, and they head to confront Sauron's army. In Minas Tirith, Éowyn believes that all hope is lost, but she is comforted by Faramir, who says that it is just the damp of the first spring rain. He tells her that no darkness will endure. The two happily embrace.

Meanwhile, Sam and Frodo, disguised as Orcs, make their way into the land of shadow: Mordor. Finally, the hobbits have made it. Moving into the land, they are found by a large detachment of Orcs, and are forced by their captain to march with the Orcs as towards the Black Gate. Then, an inspection of the Mordor army is called and a large, bulgy Orc with no nose inspects the Orcs. Realizing that they might be found, Sam starts a fight with Frodo and, in the ensuing chaos, they escape onto the Plains of Gorgoroth as the Orcs continue their march to the Black Gate.

They continue their grueling trek to Mount Doom. Losing their Orc armour, the hobbits climb up the ashen slopes, the Eye of Sauron looming behind them. They go to rest behind a rock where Sam notices a light in the ashen skies. He goes to remind Frodo, but the Hobbit falls asleep beside him. Meanwhile, Aragorn's army marches to Morannon.

Once at the Black Gates, Aragorn, Gandalf, Legolas, Gimli, Éomer, Merry and Pippin all ride forward in front of their army and up to the Black Gate. There, a corrupted and Dark Numenorean known as the Mouth of Sauron rides to them and says that his master bids them welcome. Gandalf tells him that the time of Sauron has come. It angers him but he smiles again and throws Frodo's mithril vest at Gandalf and says how Frodo suffered before dying. It lets a tear out of Gandalf's eye and the Dark Numenorean smiles but Aragorn rides towards him. He says that it takes more than a broken Elvish blade to be a king. Aragorn suddenly draws Anduril and beheads him to everyone's disgust. Gimli says that it concludes negotiations. Aragorn says that he will never believe that Frodo is dead. In Mordor, Frodo and Sam walk across the hot, ashen slopes near Mount Doom. Eventually, as they draw closer to their goal, the Eye of Sauron continues to search the plains, until he is within sight of the two Hobbits. Sam quickly ducks down; avoiding Sauron's gaze, but Frodo is caught and collapses the power of the One Ring beating on his chest.

In Mordor, the Eye of Sauron turns away from the Hobbits and towards the Black Gates. Frodo and Sam continue their journey to Mount Doom. At the Morannon, the gates re-open and the final battle between Gondor's army and Mordor begins. The gates open all the way and the massive Orc army of ten thousand troops marches out, the Eye of Sauron watching in the background.

Aragorn rides forward in front of the forces of Rohan and Gondor and tell them to stand their ground. He says that he sees the fear in their eyes, the same fear that would take the heart of him. But not this day, as today, the age of men won't fall, as today - they fight! He bids the Men of the West stand in the final battle which they will not win, but it will give Frodo time to save Middle-Earth. Aragorn turns to face the hordes of Mordor.

The Battle at the Black Gate and The Path up Orodruin

While climbing up the slopes of the Mountain of Fire, Frodo collapses and Sam comforts him, reminding him of The Shire and the strawberries that will be growing there in the spring and the birds that nest in the trees. Frodo, however, says that he can't taste food or see the light - he is naked in the dark, no light or comfort between him and darkness. Sam, however, says that they shall be rid of it - once and for all Then, Sam declares that he can't carry the ring for Frodo, but he can carry him. with a final burst of strength, he lifts Frodo upon his back and moves him painfully up to Mount Doom.

On Mount Doom, the hobbits approach the door to the Crack of Doom and Gollum suddenly attacks, lusting for the Ring. He grabs Frodo by the throat and begins to strangle him. Luckily, before Frodo can be strangled, Sam throws a rock at Gollum's head, knocking him off. As the battle rages on at the gates, Gimli fights hard against the forces of Sauron and Legolas too fights off many attackers.

High above, the Winged Nazgûl descend upon the battle. At Mount Doom, while Sam struggles with Gollum, Frodo slips away and runs inside the Chamber of Fire to the Cracks of Doom. Sam throws Gollum down the mountainside and slices his torso with his sword. He then quickly follows Frodo. At the Morranon, Gandalf watches as the Nazgûl prepare to attack, but then sights the small Moth from when he was imprisoned on Orthanc, and knows it will bring hope.

Then, the Nazgûl are suddenly engaged in midair by the Eagles of the Misty Mountains. Pippin looks up and cheers as the Eagles attack the fell beasts. Inside the Cracks of Doom, Frodo is standing on the edge of the bridge overlooking a huge pool of lava below. Sam pleads with him to drop the Ring in the fire and destroy it; however, Frodo pauses for several seconds at the power of the Ring taunts at his heart. Turning to face Sam, Frodo declares that the Ring is his and he pulls it of its chain, taking it towards his finger. Eventually, as Sam looks on, Frodo places it upon his finger, disappearing.

Sam screams in horror as the Eye of Sauron turns its attention towards Mount Doom and the Ringwraiths swoop back toward Mordor. At the gates, Aragorn encounters Rogash and duels the beast, only to be wounded and sent falling to the ground, Legolas tries to reach him, but he is stopped by the battle raging on around them. In the Cracks of Doom, Gollum attacks again, knocking Sam unconscious with a rock, and sees that Frodo has disappeared. However, this won't stop him, as Gollum quickly determines Frodo's location and leaps upon him, trying to get the Ring back with all his strength.

Sam tries to reach Frodo, but is still barely conscious, and Gollum angrily bites off Frodo's finger, causing the Hobbit to both re-appear and drop to the ground in pain as Gollum takes the Ring. Gollum is joyful that the One Ring is his at last. As he leaps about joyfully at being reunited with his prized possession, Frodo, enraged at this, fights Gollum, resulting in, after a brief, vicious brawl, Frodo and Gollum pushing each over the edge. Gollum falls into the lava with the Ring and sinks, but the Ring stays suspended.

Frodo is left hanging by one hand onto the cliff. Sam quickly rushes to him and convinces Frodo not to let go and pulls him up over the edge. The One Ring sinks into the boiling lava and melts, destroying it forever. Aragorn, who is about to be killed by Rogash, is saved when the army of Mordor is distracted by the destruction of the Ring.

As chaos erupts on the forces of Mordor, Sauron's tower of Barad-Dûr, built with the power of the Ring, collapses, and the Eye of Sauron starts to die out. Then, after several moments of amazement to the men at the Black Gates, the Eye of Sauron explodes and disperses, taking the tower with it. Sauron is finally defeated, his spirit of malice fleeing. At the Black Gates, Merry, Gimli, Aragorn, Gandalf, Pippin and all the other companions all cheer in happiness. Then, the towers and gate of Morannon all collapse, and with them, the earth opens to swallow up much of Mordor's fleeing army.

Frodo's friends react with joy to his success, but their happiness turns to grief as they see Mount Doom erupting into a huge ball of fire and realize that Frodo and Sam must be doomed… The surviving Nazgûl fly toward Mount Doom, but are destroyed by fireballs from the volcano. In the exploding chamber of the Cracks of Doom, Sam carries his wounded master out of Mount Doom and onto the mountainside, where the two of them are surrounded by lava. Frodo, now freed from the power of the Ring, expresses his joy that the Ring is gone along with the Quest being done.

He imagines the light of the world and all is goodness whilst Sam says that Rosie Cotton would have been his wife. Frodo comforts Sam, here at the end of all things…

But, sometime later, the unconscious Frodo and Sam are rescued by three Eagles, Gwaihir, Landroval and Meneldor, Gandalf riding on Gwaihir. They swoop away and Frodo just awakens to see the sight of him being taken by the large eagle. Next morning, Frodo awakens in the Houses of Healing and is overjoyed to see Gandalf, whom he had thought dead. They laugh in delight.

One by one, the other six surviving members of the Fellowship enter the room to greet and thank Frodo, Sam last. That day, the streets of Minas Tirith are filled and high up outside the Throne Hall; Aragorn is crowned as King of Gondor by Gandalf in front of his cheering subjects. Gandalf declares "Now come the days of the King!". During the ceremony, Aragorn greets Lady Éowyn and Lord Faramir, King Éomer of Rohan and a delegation of Elves, greeting Legolas with them, including Elrond and Arwen, who emerges from behind a banner.

Aragorn moves the banner slowly and kisses her passionately. The crowds all applause in happiness as Aragorn - King Elessar - is finally reunited with his one true love. Then, Aragorn and his people pay homage to Frodo, Sam, Merry and Pippin. They all bow to the hobbits and the Third Age comes to an end. The four Hobbits return to the Shire, where they realize that no one else will ever understand what they have done.

That night, in the Green Dragon Inn, the hobbits, now all together after their great quests, all settle to a drink when Sam, however, goes to marry Rosie Cotton. It works and both Sam and Rosie have their marriage ceremony and all the hobbits applause.

Over time, Frodo begins to feel that he will be unable to continue his old life. Frodo continues Bilbo's memoir, calling his section of it The Lord of the Rings, but tears off writing a few pages from the end of the Red Book. Sam arrives and Frodo says that it has been four years to the day when they were on Weathertop, and his wound has never fully healed.

That evening, Frodo, Sam, Merry, Pippin and Gandalf accompany the now-frail Bilbo Baggins to the Grey Havens, where the last Elven ship is waiting to depart Middle-earth. There, they find Elrond, Galadriel and Celeborn also waiting to board the ship. The Hobbits are surprised to learn that Gandalf will sail with Bilbo and the others, and even more shocked that Frodo is also sailing.

Frodo gives the Red Book to Sam and bids a sad farewell to his three friends-Sam last, and kisses his forehead. Then he boards the ship to sail into the Undying Lands west of the Sea, turning back to give his friends one last smile.

He boards the ship and sails away into the sun. Later, Sam returns home to Bagshot Row, his wife, and his first two children. He says to himself, "Well, I'm back" - as at the end of the book - closing the trilogy.

Sauron, once a noble Maia known as Mairon, is the main antagonist of the Middle-earth legendarium of J.R.R. Tolkien (with Morgoth as the overarching antagonist). He is the titular main antagonist of J.R.R. Tolkien's classic high fantasy epic novel, The Lord of the Rings. He also serves as the secondary antagonist of mythopoeic novel, The Silmarillion, a major antagonist in The Children of Húrin, the overarching antagonist of The Hobbit and the secondary antagonist of The History of Middle-earth.

He is the main antagonist of the Middle-earth film saga, first appearing as the titular main antagonist of Peter Jackson's The Lord of the Rings film trilogy. He is also the overarching antagonist of Peter Jackson's The Hobbit film trilogy since he was the one behind Azog's crimes and enboldening Smaug, serving as a flashback antagonist in An Unexpected Journey, the secondary antagonist of The Desolation of Smaug and the overarching antagonist in The Battle of the Five Armies.

He is also the main antagonist of the animated movie series, serving as the main antagonist in The Lord of the Rings (which is also the name of the original novel) and in Return of the King (also the name of Part III of the novel The Lord of the Rings). He does not appear in The Hobbit film in 1977 at all.

Once the greatest smith of Aulë, he joined with the 1st Dark Lord Morgoth in the First Age, becoming his principal lieutenant. During the Second Age, Sauron became the 2nd Dark Lord of Middle-earth who resided in Mordor and created the One Ring, which he lost upon his defeat. His goal was to reclaim the One Ring and rule Middle-earth in darkness, but the Ring's destruction would ultimately be his downfall. He was also the archenemy of Aragorn, the King of Gondor; Frodo, the Ring Bearer; and Gandalf, the Grey (later White) Wizard.

In the live-action adaptations by Sir Peter Jackson, he was portrayed by Sala Baker, who also played an adult Firefist in Deadpool 2 and voiced by the late Alan Howard in The Lord of the Rings trilogy. In The Hobbit trilogy, he was portrayed by Benedict Cumberbatch, who also portrayed Smaug in the same trilogy, Dormammu in Doctor Strange, Shere Khan in Mowgli: Legend of the Jungle, The Grinch in the 2018 film of the same name, William Ford in 12 Years a Slave, and Khan Noonien Singh in Star Trek: Into Darkness.

Beginning and Corruption

Sauron was once originally a powerful Maia (equivalent to a normal angel), an angelic being made by the Universe's creator, Eru (equivlent to God), to serve the Valar (equivalent to archangels), a higher order of Ainur (equivalent to angels).

Sauron's original name was Mairon (meaning "the admirable"), and he was a Maia of the Vala known as Aüle the Smith. He had learned so much from Aüle, such as crafting and forging, that he became a great craftsman. He was created as one of the most powerful Maiar, even more than Olorin (Gandalf) and Curumo (Saruman). At the time he took part in the Music of the Ainur, he was incorrupt and good. However, he was also obsessed with perfection and order, which would cause his corruption into evil. Mairon became enamoured of Arda when it was formed, and he was corrupted by the evil Vala Melkor (later Morgoth, equivalent to Satan), who promised to share dominion over the world with him. After this, he corrupted many other Maiar, who became Balrogs. Mairon then worshiped Morgoth and followed him into Arda.

Despite this, Mairon managed to pretend to stay faithful to the Valar, when in reality, he was feeding information to Morgoth about their dealings. Mairon didn't reveal his true nature nor leave the Blessed Realms until Melkor established his fortresses. For this treachery, Mairon was permanently established a foe of both the Valar and the Free Peoples of Middle-earth. He was called Gothaur (meaning "dread abomination") by the Sindar in Beleriand, and named Sauron (meaning "the abhorred" or "the abominable") by the Ñoldor. The name "Sauron" was a mockery to his original name.

Under Morgoth's Service

During the First Age of Middle-earth, Sauron served as Morgoth's chief lieutenant, working to corrupt Men and Elves (the Children of Ilúvatar) to his master's service. Sauron became the High General of Angband along with the Balrog lord Gothmog. Many other Maiar joined Morgoth, and they possessed the bodies of Wolves and became Werewolves. Sauron was possibly given the task of corrupting Elves into Orcs. Eventually the Valar came into Middle-earth and defeated Morgoth, "but Sauron they could not find", and Sauron came back to Angband when Morgoth was returned from Valinor.

Sauron played a large part in the War of the Jewels because he could cast illusions and make his enemies think things were going differently. He cast a spell which made Turin think that his dead wife was still alive and then he took him to Angband. His most famous conquest was when he captured the island of Tol Sirion and renamed it Tol in Gorhauth, the Isle of Werewolves, and bought many Werewolves there. He would feed prisoners to Werewolves and he was left to his own devices there. Morgoth saw it as a big victory because Tol Sirion was an Elvish fortress and this made Elves unable to pass through that place.

Eventually a human named Beren appeared, with the Elf Prince Fingon and ten other Elves, disguised as Orcs. However, Sauron saw them, and was suspicious as all Orcs had to report to him. He had them brought before him and defeated Fingon in a contest of magic, stripping the disguises. Sauron threw all 12 into his deepest dungeon till they would tell him their purpose. Ten were consumed by werewolves, with Sauron wanting Fingon left alive. But when a werewolf came for Beren, Fingon broke free, and he and the werewolf ended up killing each other. Sauron saw that the Elf Princess Luthien had come to rescue Beren, so he sent werewolves to capture her. However, each of them were slain by Huan, the Hound of Valinor. Finally, Sauron sent Draugluin, sire and lord of werewolves, but they were killed by Huan, though they survived long enough to tell Sauron Huan was there.

Sauron knew the prophecy that Huan would not die till he encountered the biggest wolf to ever walk the world. So Sauron took the form of the biggest werewolf yet and fought Huan. Luthien drew her magic veil over Sauron's eyes and as he stumbled Huan fought him. Sauron turned into a snake, and from monster to his own form. But Huan held him by the throat, and Luthien told him to hand the Isle to her or go back in shame to Morgoth. Sauron gave her control of the Isle, and when released, he turned into a Vampire and flew, dripping blood over the trees.

Later on, when Morgoth was defeated for good, Sauron actually repented and went to the Valar asking forgiveness, but was told he would have to face Manwe. Sauron was far too proud to humble himself, however, so he returned to Mordor.

Forging the One Ring

" One Ring to rule them all, One ring to find them; One ring to bring them all and in the darkness bind them. „

~ The One Ring's legendary inscription.

In the Second Age, Sauron established himself in Mordor, and took up the mantle and title of Dark Lord, while manipulating the Elves into creating the Rings of Power as part of a plan to make them his servants; he went to the Elves of Eregion in the guise of Annatar and taught them how to create the Rings of Power. The twenty Rings of power were so created around the 16th century: the Elves made the Seven Rings and the Nine Rings with his influence, but also created the Three without his knowledge or influence.

Sauron himself created the One Ring in the fires of Mount Doom in Mordor to control all the other rings; into this Ring he put part of his own malignant life force and power to rule the other Rings and enslave the free peoples of Middle-earth.

Sauron revealed himself and went to war against the Elves, capturing the Seven and the Nine, which he gave to 7 Dwarven and 9 human leaders respectively. While the Dwarves could not be controlled, he gained power over the human ring-bearers. He was able to corrupt the nine kings of Men because they took the rings without question. One by one, they fell to darkness. Sauron turned them into the undead Nazgûl, his most fearsome servants.

Sauron and the Numenoreans

At some point, the last King of Numenor, Ar-Pharazôn, challenged Sauron for Lordship of Middle-Earth. Mordor's armies fled in fear of Numenor's great armies and Sauron came down from Barad-dur, made himself into an attractive form, (one that Numenor would admire) and was brought to Numenor. There he quickly grew from prisoner to adviser, using the Numenorians contempt for the Elves and Valar to convince them to worship Morgoth, hoping to restore his master.

As Ar-Pharazôn began to grow old, Sauron tricked him to attack the Undying Lands, saying that whoever ruled the Undying Lands would live forever. Most Numenorians were in favor of it, as they feared death, despite warnings from the Elves and Valar, Numenor sent a massive armada and army to seize the undying lands. In response, Eru sunk Ar-Pharazôn's fleet and imprisoned the king and hios troops inside a cave, and destroyed Numenor. Sauron survived and returned to Mordor. As punishment for his role in the destruction of Numenor, Sauron could no longer assume an attractive form, for that is what he had used to seduce the Numenoreans.

Battle with the Last Alliance

Towards the end of the Second Age, a Last Alliance of Elves and Men marched upon Sauron's base in Mordor to defeat him and his armies.

After a years-long siege of his fortress Barad-dur, Sauron himself went out. He killed the Alliance's leaders, King Elendil of Gondor and the High Elf King Gil-galad, but his physical body was in turn destroyed. Elendil's son Isildur cut off the Ring from Sauron's hand with the remains of his father's sword, Narsil. Isildur kept the Ring, against the counsel of the Elves Elrond and Círdan, who begged him to destroy it. Because the Ring survived, Sauron's malignant spirit lived on, albeit unable to take physical form. Isildur, meanwhile, was attacked and killed by Orcs a few years later; as he fell, he dropped the Ring into the river Anduin, where it remained for the next 2,500 years.

Going into Hiding

By the middle of the Third Age, Sauron began to take shape again. His spirit went into hiding for an age first in Dol Guldur (where he was eventually banished). By this time, the Ring had been found by a Hobbit named Sméagol, whom it corrupted and turned into the vile creature Gollum. Gollum took the Ring into a cave in the Misty Mountains, where for the next 500 years it waited for its master to re-emerge.

Sauron took control of the abandoned fortress Dol Guldur disguised as a Necromancer in order to regain his former strength. He was vanquished by the White Council, however, and he fled to Mordor in the East. The Ring, meanwhile, was found in Gollum's cave by the Hobbit Bilbo Baggins, who took it with him to his home in the Shire.

The Search for the RingEdit

Over the next 60 years, Sauron reclaimed his power over Mordor. He began building an army to conquer all of Middle-Earth. By this point, Saruman betrayed the White Council and became Sauron's servant, hoping to claim the Ring for himself and overthrow the Dark Lord. Sauron also began waging war on his former allies, Men and Elves.

He still needed the Ring to regain his former power, however, so he sent spies all over Middle-earth to find it. Eventually, he found and captured Gollum, who had spent years looking for the Ring after losing it to Bilbo, and tortured the creature until he revealed that "Baggins" had it. After Sauron discovered this, he sent the Nazgûl to the Shire to find Bilbo's nephew and heir Frodo Baggins, who now had the Ring, kill him, and take the Ring back. However, Frodo had already left for Mordor to destroy the Ring, sent by the wizard Gandalf. Sauron also commanded Saruman to build him an army for Mordor.

However, the first time Sauron actually appeared is when he was in the form of his own symbol, the Eye of Sauron, in the Mirror of Galadriel. Frodo looked into the Mirror of Galadiral, which showed things in the past, present, and future. He eventually saw Sauron in the form of the Eye, with Galadriel herself warning him not to touch the water in the Mirror.

Meanwhile, Saruman cross-bred Orcs with men to make an army of Uruk-hai, but most of them were killed in the Battle of the Hornburg that took place in the land of Rohan.

After his defeat at the Hornburg, Sauron declared open war on Middle-earth, conquering several kingdoms of Elves and Men. He decided to attack Gondor, and sent an army of Orcs, Southrons and Easterlings over to Minas Tirith to destroy it. The soldiers of Gondor fought against the army, which also had several trolls and Oliphaunts in it; they were later helped to gain victory by the Riders of Rohan, led by King Théoden, and by an army of soldiers brought by Isildur's descendant Aragorn, heir to the throne of Gondor.

The Ring Destroyed

Meanwhile, Frodo and Sam (with Frodo carrying the One Ring) entered Mordor through the secret passage of Cirith Ungol; Sauron appeared once again in the form of the Eye and searched for the two Hobbits. He nearly discovered them, but his attention was diverted away from them when the Army of the West (led by Aragorn, Gandalf, Eomer and Prince Imrahil) came to draw out his forces to give Frodo and Sam a chance to get to Mount Doom. Eventually they reached Mount Doom, but Frodo decided to take the ring for himself at the last second.

Just as it seemed Sauron was about to conquer Middle-earth, however, Gollum attacked and bit Frodo's finger off, taking the One Ring back. He danced with joy at his conquest, but lost his balance and fell in the lava pit of Mount Doom along with his "precious", destroying the Ring and himself.

With the Ring's destruction, Sauron was defeated once and for all, and he was stripped of his power and reduced to a "huge shape of shadow, impenetrable, lightning-crowned,… terrible but impotent"; a crippled, harmless shadow of his former self, unable to take shape again. He was then blown away by a great wind into the Void, like his master, Morgoth (where, unlike Morgoth, Sauron would eventually die as he cannot survive without the Ring). The very foundations of Barad-dûr and the Black Gate were destroyed along with him. Mordor's armies were all exorcised from Sauron's control, and were easily defeated.

Before the film trilogies

As foretold in the opening prologue, Sauron, the Dark Lord of Mordor, forged the One Ring of Power to Rule Them All in the fires of Mount Doom within the land of Mordor. He conquered many lands in Middle Earth, until the Last Alliance of Men and Elves fought against him on the slopes of Mount Doom. They defeated his army of orcs easily, but Sauron proved to be a bigger challenge. He slaughtered many of the men and Elves and killed the Gondor King, Elendil, with a huge mace.

Elendil's son Isildur grabbed his father's sword, but Sauron stepped on it, breaking it. Isildur cut off Sauron's fingers, including the one with the One Ring on it, destroying Sauron's body, but he survived as a spirit, unable to die unless the One Ring was destroyed, which could only be done if it was thrown into the fires of Mount Doom where it was forged.

Eventually, Sauron would disguise himself as a sorcerer, known as the Necromancer. The prologue does not include this information, and it is only revealed in The Hobbit trilogy.

While he was only mentioned in the novel, Sauron appears in the prequel trilogy of The Hobbit as the Necromancer. Although Sauron appears little throughout the story, his presence, like in Lord of the Rings before it, is constantly felt, and he is an active threat in the story through his servant Azog. He is portrayed and voiced by Benedict Cumberbatch who also voices and portrays Smaug.

The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey

Thousands of years later, Gandalf accompanied the dwarf Thorin Oakenshield and his band of kinsmen (as well as reluctannt "burgler" Bilbo Baggins) on a quest to reclaim the kingdom of Erebor from the dragon Smaug. Unbeknownst to Thorin and company, Gandalf had an ulterior motive; he had come to suspect that Sauron had returned, and wanted to destroy Smaug to prevent Sauron from using him as a weapon. Meanwhile, Radagast the Brown discovered Dol Guldur, and the Witch-King of Angmar, Lord of the Nazgul and Sauron's chief servant, attacked him and vanished. Radagast then saw Sauron in shadow, and fled. He told Gandalf about the encounter, and Gandalf eventually told the White Council; the other members reacted with skepticism, except for Lady Galadriel, who sent Gandalf on a quest to confirm that this Necromancer was indeed Sauron returned.

The Hobbit: The Desolation of Smaug

After Gandalf, Bilbo and the Dwarf company escaped a pack of Orcs led by Azog the Defiler, Gandalf parted ways with them and travelled with Radagast to Dol Guldur to discover the truth. Gandalf sent Radagast back to send a message to Galadriel, while he went in alone. After unsuccessfully trying to convince the evil inside to reveal itself, he was ambushed by Azog and several Orcs. After defeating and escaping them, Gandalf fleed deeper into the ruined fortress, where he encountered the Necromancer and confirmed his worst fear: that this mysterious sorceror was indeed the Dark Lord returned.

Sauron revealed to Gandalf that he was gathering all his forces and regaining his strength, enough to prepare for war. He planned to first take over Erebor, and then reclaim the kingdom of Angmar, and on and on until he once again controled all of Middle-earth.

Gandalf tried to fight off the Dark Lord, and although he accomplished repelling him a few times, he eventually proved to be no match for Sauron. After defeating Gandalf, destroying his staff and imprisoning him, Sauron sent his minions to Erebor to find Thorin and his company inside the mountain, where they were currently facing a conflict with Smaug the Dragon, who was on his way to destroy the nearby town of Esgaroth.

The Hobbit: The Battle of the Five Armies

Galadriel, Saruman and Elrond entered Dol-Guldur to save Gandalf. Elrond and Saruman battled the spirits of the Nazgul, while Gandalf escaped with the help of Radagast the Brown.

Sauron once again took the form of the Eye and appeared before the group and foretold the fall of the East and the rise of the ancient Kingdom of Angmar. He declared that "the time of the Elves is over, the Age of the Orc has begun." He attempted to corrupt Galadriel, who nonetheless resisted and used all of her power to banish Sauron's spirit out of Dol Guldur. Moments later, Saruman said that he would deal with Sauron personally, foreshadowing their alliance.

Sauron's armies eventually met with defeat at the hands of the armies of elves, men, dwarves and the Eagles during the Battle of the Five Armies, which ended with the deaths of Azog and Bolg.

The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring

Sauron appears as the main villain. After the One Ring was found by Gollum, and later taken by Bilbo Baggins, Sauron himself became obsessed with finding the ring. Over the 15 years after Bilbo gave the ring to Frodo, Sauron regained much of his former strength, though unable to take physical form, he existed as an eye, called the Eye of Sauron, shown as a real manifestation on top of Barad-dûr. Saruman also went over to his side and he sent the Ringwraiths after Frodo to kill him and take the One Ring back. They failed.

The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers

Sauron reappears as the main antagonist. His servant, Saruman, sent an army of 10,000 Uruk-hai to invade Rohan, but eventually they were defeated when Gandalf, the Rohirrim and the Ents of Fangorn Forest arrived. Saruman himself was killed by Gríma Wormtongue at Isengard and Wormtongue was killed by Legolas. Sauron's defeat at Helm's Deep showed him that the men were still able to resist him.

The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King

Sauron reappears as the main antagonist. After the defeat at Helm's Deep, he decided to attack Gondor with another powerful army of orcs, led by the hideous orc Gothmog and the Witch-king of Angmar. The men of Gondor and Rohan fought against them, but it wasn't until Aragorn, Legolas, and Gimli showed up with the Army of the Dead that Sauron's army was defeated. In the battle, the Witch-King was killed by Éowyn, and Gothmog was killed by Aragorn and Gimli.

In the meantime, Frodo and Sam were making their way into Mordor with the One Ring to destroy it. Gandalf, Aragorn, Legolas, Gimli, Éomer, Merry, Pippin, and what remained of the men of Gondor and Rohan went to the Black Gates to draw Sauron's army out and his attention away from the two hobbits after a meeting with the Mouth of Sauron. Gollum attacked Frodo and Sam as they made their way up Mount Doom. In the end, Frodo decided to keep the ring for himself, and put it on, thus attracting the attention of Sauron and the eight remaining Nazgûl.

Before anything else could happen, however, Gollum bit Frodo's finger off and took the ring back. Frodo fought Gollum, resulting in them both falling over the cliff. Frodo held onto the edge and survived and he and Sam escaped, but Gollum fell into the lava with the One Ring. With the ring destroyed, Sauron could no longer survive. Barad-dûr collapsed, and Sauron was destroyed in a shock wave of energy that collapsed the foundations of Mordor and in the process, the majority of the Orcs were all destroyed whereas the surviving Orcs run away, never able to form such great armies again, while the eight remaining Nazgul were all destroyed by the fires of Mt. Doom therefore, freeing Middle-Earth from slavery and destroying the ancient threat to Elves and Men.

We saw how evil he was and he was pure evil 100-fold and more.

We gasped in sheer horror.

Me: It's hard to imagine that he is that evil. He makes Voldemort, the Devil and the most evil figures of history feel like a joke.

Nico: No kidding. What about Gollum? I've always hated him because he's really creepy.

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up Gollum's info.

---

Gollum, originally known as Sméagol or Trahald, is a creature of Hobbit origin and a major antagonist in J.R.R. Tolkien's Middle-Earth legendarium. Gollum is one of the two secondary antagonists in the novel The Lord of the Rings (alongside Saruman), and a supporting antagonist in the novel, The Hobbit.

He is the secondary antagonist in The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey, a minor antagonist in The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring, before enlarging his role as an anti-hero in The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers, and as the secondary antagonist of The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King.

He is a former Hobbit who is corrupted and transformed into a slimy, monstrous creature by the One Ring, which he calls "my precious". After losing the Ring to Bilbo Baggins, he hunts after it for decades, eventually becoming part of the quest to destroy it when he is tamed by Bilbo's nephew Frodo. His all-consuming need for the Ring eventually lead him to betray Frodo and unintentionally destroy the Ring and himself.

In Sir Peter Jackson's adaptations of The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit, he was portrayed by Andy Serkis, who also played Capricorn in Inkheart, Supreme Leader Snoke in the Star Wars sequel trilogy, Spike in Flushed Away, and Ulysses Klaue in the Marvel Cinematic Universe franchise. In the 1977 animated film, he was voiced by the late Brother Theodore. In the 1978 animated version of The Lord of the Rings, he was voiced by the late Peter Woodthorpe. In the 2003 Sierra Entertainment videogame, he was voiced by Daran Norris.

Early life and and acquiring the Ring

Originally a Stoor Hobbit, Sméagol spends the early years of his life with his extended family under a Matriarch, his grandmother. He was born circa the year 2430 of the Third Age.

In the year TA 2463, on his 33rd birthday, Sméagol becomes the fourth Bearer of the One Ring, after Sauron, Isildur, and Déagol. The latter is his cousin, and on Sméagol's birthday, they go fishing in the Gladden Fields north of the mountains. After being pulled into the water by a large fish, Déagol finds the Ring underwater, and emerges from the river with his prize. Sméagol is immediately ensnared by the Ring and demands it as his "birthday present", but Déagol refuses. Sméagol strangles Déagol and claims the Ring as his own, his "precious".

Sméagol uses the Ring for thieving and antagonizing his relatives. The Ring corrupts his body and mind, forcing him to make a disgusting swallowing noise in his throat, for which his relatives nickname him "Gollum". Finally, his grandmother disowns him and throws him out of her home. He wanders for a few years, degenerating further as the Ring's hold on him grows, until he makes a new home in a cave in the Misty Mountains. The Ring's malignant influence twists his Hobbit body and mind and prolongs his life far beyond its natural limits; he lives in his cave for 500 years while the Ring bides its time, waiting for Sauron to return. Gollum calls the Ring his "Precious" or his "Birthday Present", the latter as a justification for killing Déagol.

Living in the Misty Mountains

Gollum lives under the Misty Mountains for nearly 500 years, eating raw blind fish (which he catches in his small row boat) and Goblins when he can get them. In later years, he finds Hobbit and Elven food repulsive.

During his centuries under the Ring's influence, he develops a sort of dissociative identity disorder: Sméagol, his "good" personality, still vaguely remembers things like friendship and love, while Gollum, his "bad" personality, is a slave to the Ring willing to kill anyone who tries to take it. Years later, Samwise Gamgee names the good personality "Slinker" (for his fawning, eager-to-please demeanor), and the bad personality "Stinker". The two personalities often quarrel when he talks to himself (as Tolkien put it, "through not having anyone else to speak to") and have a love/hate relationship, mirroring Gollum's love and hatred for the Ring and for himself.

In July, TA 2941, during the Quest of Erebor, the Hobbit Bilbo Baggins stumbles upon the subterranean lake in which he lives and finds the Ring, which Gollum had lost while hunting an imp goblin in the network of caves leading to the lake. (However, it is more proper to say that the Ring abandoned Gollum, for it was known to have a will of its own. As Gandalf says later, it looks after itself, trying to get back to Sauron.) After the infamous Riddle Game, during which Gollum is unaware of his loss, Gollum refuses to show Bilbo the promised way out and plots to murder him.

When he goes to get his "birthday present", however, he finds that it is gone. He suddenly realizes the answer to Bilbo's last riddle - "What have I got in my pocket?"- and flies into a rage. Bilbo inadvertently discovers the Ring's power of invisibility as he runs, allowing him to follow Gollum to the back entrance of the cave. There, Bilbo at first prepares to kill Gollum, but is overcome with pity, so he jumps over him to escape. As Bilbo runs, Gollum cries out, "Thief! Thief, Baggins! We hates it forever!"; he does not immediately follow Bilbo out of fear of being caught by the Goblins.

Search for the Ring

Gollum eventually leaves the Misty Mountains and pursues Bilbo a few years later, but the trail is cold. He makes his way south into Mordor, discovering the secret stair located near Minas Morgul and surviving an encounter with Shelob. He is captured on his return and taken to Sauron's stronghold, where he is tortured by the Dark Lord himself until he reveals what he knows about the Ring; he reveals that "Baggins" of the Shire had taken it, alerting Sauron to the existence of Hobbits and the Baggins family. Sauron lets him go, but he is captured soon afterward by Aragorn, then interrogated by Gandalf, who places him in the care of the Silvan Elves living in Thranduil's kingdom in Mirkwood. Assisted by Orcs, he escapes them, and sets off looking for the Shire. He passes through Moria, but cannot make it out of the East gate. He sees the Fellowship of the Ring there and begins following them.

The War of the Ring

On January 15, 3019 the Fellowship is divided when Gandalf disappears while fighting a Balrog (though he later returns). Gollum continues trailing the remaining members. Gollum follows their boats down Anduin (floating on a log) to Rauros and pursued Frodo Baggins - nephew and heir of the hated Bilbo, and the new Ringbearer - and his friend Samwise Gamgee across the Emyn Muil when they struck out on their own towards Mordor. Gollum follows them, but after a confrontation (in which he bites and nearly strangles Sam) Frodo subdues him. Frodo ties an Elven Rope around Gollum's ankle for a leash, but the mere touch of the rope pains him.

Taking pity on the wretched creature, Frodo makes Gollum swear to help them. Agreeing to the oath, Gollum swears by the "Precious" itself and Frodo releases him. The unlikely company, guided by Gollum, makes its way to the Black Gate, the entrance to Mordor.

Frodo's kindness brought out the "Sméagol" personality, and he makes at least some effort to keep his promise. The two have a strange sort of bond from both having been Ringbearers; in Gollum, Frodo sees his possible future, and so wants to save him so he can save himself.

When they reach the Black Gate and find it well guarded, Gollum convinces them not to go that way, saying that they would be caught and Sauron would regain the Ring. Gollum says he will lead them south, where he knows of another entrance into Mordor.

Frodo and Sam are caught by Faramir, and Gollum follows them. When Frodo allows Faramir to briefly take Gollum prisoner, however, he feels betrayed, allowing the "Gollum" personality to take total control. Faramir finds out that the place Gollum is taking them is called Cirith Ungol. He then warns Frodo and Sam of the evil of that place, and of Gollum's treachery.

Frodo, Sam, and Gollum leave Faramir and begin crossing the pass of Cirith Ungol in the border-mountains of the Ephel Dúath (Mountains of Shadow). Gollum visits the great spider Shelob, child of Ungoliant, because he is planning to betray the Hobbits to her and then get the Ring for himself. When he returns, he finds the Hobbits sleeping, and the sight of Frodo asleep nearly moves Gollum to repent. However, Sam wakes up and speaks harshly to Gollum, and all hope of redemption is lost. Gollum follows through with his plan and leads Frodo and Sam into Shelob's Lair.

Frodo and Sam escape from her lair and come against all odds to the fiery volcano Mount Doom, the only place where the Ring can be destroyed. Gollum follows them all the way, seeking a chance to surprise them and take the Ring. When Frodo and Sam have almost reached their destination, he attacks them, but Frodo casts him down and threatens to throw him in the fire if he ever touches him again. Sam, who had hated Gollum on sight, tries to bring himself to kill him, but relents out of sheer pity and disgust, turning his back on the beaten (but still wily) creature.

Death

Moments later, Frodo is standing on the edge of the Crack of Doom, but, unwilling to destroy the Ring, claims it for himself and puts it on, becoming invisible. Then Gollum attacks the hobbits again. Gollum knocks Sam out and jumps on Frodo. The two fight until, finally, Gollum bites off Frodo's finger and seizing the Ring. Gollum then teeters on the edge of the great pit, loses his balance and falls in, taking the Ring with him along with a final, joyous cry of "Precious!" He perishes in the lava, and the Ring is destroyed with him. Had Gollum not lived to play this final part, there was a good chance that Sauron would have regained his Ring, as he knew where Frodo was as soon as he put it on.

According to J. R. R. Tolkien's notes, Eru Ilúvatar, the Middle-earth legendarium's version of God, intervened to destroy the Ring by causing Gollum to fall into the Crack of Doom.

---

Me: Geez!

Lana: What a freak of nature.

Me: No kidding.

Grugun: Aye.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) He was a heartless monster lads.

Nico: He sure was.

Me: Lets head to Middle Earth and destroy the Ring, Gollum and Sauron. They will never terrorize Middle Earth as long as we have anything to say about it.

Nico: Yeah!

Lucy cut open a portal to Middle Earth and we were in the world of The Lord of the Rings: MIDDLE EARTH! It was a beautiful world and we were in the Realm of Gondor.

Jewel Man: So this is Middle Earth?

Me: Yep. We're in the Realm of Gondor.

Nico: It sure is beautiful.

We saw creepy shadowy storm clouds heading over the land of Gondor.

Laney: Those clouds give me the creeps.

Me: Those clouds aren't any ordinary clouds. Those clouds are the Shadow of Mordor.

We heard Orc chants and we got onto a hill and we saw thousands of Orcs attacking the city of Minas Tirith and it was an immensely massive fight that was happening now. we were in the Siege of Minas Tirith.

Me: It's the Siege of Minas Tirith.

Nico: Whoa! What a battle.

Varie: How many Orcs are there?

Me: 150,000.

Laney: Whoa! Not very good odds.

Me: Lets power up and help take down the Orcs.

Electro and Leonard appeared.

Me: Electro and Leonard.

Saïx: And me.

Luan: Oh great. Saïx.

Electro: Let us help you guys. We love the Lord of The Rings movies just as much as anyone else and they are the one series where we have a strong fear of Sauron and his entire forces.

Me: This is unusual. Usually you all appear and help people like Sauron and his forces.

Leonard: Not this time.

Saïx: Even we in Organization XIII have a strong fear of Sauron. He was terrifying.

Me: Wow. Lets power up and take them down.

?: Wait!

We saw a Tiger Robot appear.

Flash Man: Who are you?

Neon Tiger: Allow me to introduce myself! I'm Neon Tiger! (shoots several energy beams from his tail at Flash Man)

Nico used the Force and fired the blasts into the air.

Electro: Neon Tiger, we have to take down all those Orcs right there. We are facing the forces of the Dark Lord Sauron and he poses a threat to all of Middle Earth.

Neon Tiger: Oh.

My Signer Mark Glowed and Kalin appeared.

Kalin: Now I can kill you J.D.

Electro: Kalin, drop your ego! We have bigger problems to deal with now. Sauron's forces are attacking and we have to destroy him and all of their forces now.

Kalin: (Growls) Fine.

Me: Lets do it!

We went at them. The Orcs were savagely attacking the city.

Then massive fiery explosions were blasting the entirety of the Orc Army apart as thousands of Orcs were perishing at a rapid pace.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I fired massive energy blasts and obliterated a bunch of Orcs and Nico fired massive blasts of fire and Lincoln blasted them all over with lightning. Electro fired blasts of lightning all over and blew them apart.

Leonard: This time, my pigs are wearing helmets!

The Pig Minions took all of the Orcs all over the place and smashed and destroyed them all over the place with dynamite and weapons and blew them, apart all over the place and Saïx smashed many orcs all over with his claymore and smashed them to pieces and blew them apart all over the place with incredible fury. Lori blew many Orcs away with incredible blasts of wind.

Troy: Maybe magic will help in this battle.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mystic Force Rangers and they blasted many Orcs all over with magic blasts and more and blew them apart all over the place.

Ben turned into a new predator. It looked like a Starfish with a jewel in the middle and it had spines all over. It was a Cascanastroderian and they are the natural predators of the Cascan's from the planet Cascareau. They got after Overflow's species. Ben crushed many orcs all over and turned them into drinkable paste. Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and Electro did the same and blew the orcs apart into piles of blood and guts and Lana fired blasts of ice and froze them and Lola fired blasts of fire and incinerated them all over the place and Ralarie chanted a powerful spell incantation and a massive stampede of Fire Horses appeared out of nowhere and incinerated many orcs in their path. Then we heard a horn blow and we saw the Riders of Theodan appear on the Pelennor Fields.

Me: The Riders of Theoden.

Nico: The Riders of the Rohirrim have arrived.

They got ready and saw us fighting the Orcs as we blew them apart all over the place with relentless fury and were tearing them apart all over the place. Massive explosions were blowing the Orcs to smithereens.

We blasted the Orcs all over the place.

Then we heard the horns blow and we saw the Rohirrim charge to the Orcs and a massive bloodbath began.

Nico: I'm going to stop Denethor.

Me: Okay. I've always hated that guy.

Nico flew to the citadel of Minas Tirith. We were blowing many Orcs apart all over the place with incredibly indiscriminate fury.

Nico busted into the citadel and he saw Denethor about to kill himself by burning himself alive on a pyre with Faromir.

Nico: What the fuck are you doing Denethor!?

Denethor took a torch.

Denethor: You may triumph in the field of battle for a day. But against the power that has risen in the east, there is no victory.

Nico: That is bullshit!

He dropped the torch and lit the wood on fire and Nico teleported and kicked Denethor away and he grabbed Faromir and he revived him with his energy.

Denethor got up and he was insane and crazy!

Nico punched him in the face and kicked him into the wall and knocked him out.

Nico: You have been dethroned.

The battle was heating up a the Legions of Haradrim arrived and Carol fired blasts of atomic energy and blew them all apart and killed all of them all over the place with incredible firepower. Maria fired blasts of water and drenched the Orcs all over and drowned them and then Aragorn, Gimli and Legolas appeared and they had a massive army of the dead with them and they were slashing and hacking the rest of the orcs all over the place and we were blowing them all apart. We then faced the Witch King of Angmar and slashed him apart and killed him in an instant and the power of a God was no match for him. We killed the remaining forces all with ease. It was a brutal battle and one of incredible brutality.

Me: Wow.

Aragorn came up to us.

Aragorn: Did you all do this to these Orcs?

Me: Yes we did Aragorn. Sorry, we are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We came from the planet Earth to help you all destroy the ring and Sauron.

Gimli: (Scottish Accent) Wow! It's an honor to have you all here lads.

Me: Thanks Gimli.

Legolas: We've heard so many amazing things about you all.

Varie: We get that a lot.

We went into the citadel of the city and formulated a plan to help Frodo. We were told that he went into the heart of Mordor. Now 10,000 Orcs stand between Frodo and Mount Doom. We devised a plan of action. Our plan was to keep Sauron's eye fixated on us while Frodo and Sam go into Mount Doom to destroy the Ring.

Me: That's a clever plan Aragorn. It just might work. Me, Nico and Electro will head into Mordor and help Frodo and Sam destroy the Ring.

Nico: Good idea.

Gimli: Perfect lads.

Laney: Yeah.

Gimli: So… you're from another world? And your mountains are made of metal? Mine too!

Luan: Yep, we deal in heavy metals! (Laughs) Get It?

Aragorn: Well, it's good. But Legolas did it better.

Luan and Gimli: Hmph, killjoy.

Me: Guys now is not the time for jokes. Lets get moving.

We were off to the Black Gates of Mordor.

We arrived later on and we saw the Black Gates of Mordor.

Me: This is it guys.

Aragorn, Legolas, Gimli, Gandalf and the Hobbits went up to the gate. The Gates opened and we saw the entire army of Mordor came and we saw the EYE OF SAURON!

Lincoln: There he is.

Me: The Eye of Sauron. My dad calls him The Devil because he's just as evil.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Electro, Nico, Lets go.

We went to Mount Doom.

Me, Nico and Electro arrived at Mount Doom and we saw Samwise Gamshie and Frodo climbing up to a doorway.

Sam (LOTR): Look Mr. Frodo. A doorway. We're almost there.

But then GOLLUM appeared on a rock!

Gollum: Clever Hobbits to climb so high!

Me: Oh no you don't!

I went at him and kicked him in the face and knocked him into a rock.

Gollum: Precious! We must have the Precious!

Electro: I've got your Precious right here! (fires lightning blast at Gollum)

It electrocuted him all over the place.

I punched Gollum in the face and knocked out some of his teeth.

Me: You are FUCKING CRAZY!

Nico: And you creep me out you fucking murderer!

Gollum then went insane!

I kicked him in the face.

In the battle with the Orcs, the battle was getting intense as everyone else was blasting and slashing numerous Orcs all over the place and blowing them apart and killing them. Ringwraiths appeared and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning at them and electrocuted them all over and killed them all over and Laney fired barbs of poison and they killed numerous Orcs all over the place. Kalin blasted the orcs all over with blasts of blue energy and blew many orcs apart and Neon Tiger blasted many Orcs all over the place.

They then used some teamwork.

G1 Snarl used the Animatron Cyber Planet Key and Taranee used the Candrakar Cyber Planet Key. Snarl's tail strength was enhanced 100-fold and Taranee's fire powers were enhanced 100-fold.

Hun-Gurr used the Animatron Cyber Planet Key and James used the Pokemon Cyber Planet Key. They enhanced Hun-Gurr's Stun Blaster and enhanced his Cacnea's abilities 100-fold.

G1 Snarl and Taranee: FIRESTORM TAIL STRIKE!

Taranee fired a blast of fire and it merged with Snarl's tail.

Hun-Gurr and James: LIGHTNING NEEDLE MISSILESTORM!

Hun-Gurr fired a blast of lightning and James had his Cacnea fired his Pin Missile.

Amorpho and Demona: DARKGHOST ECTOBURST!

Amorpho and Demona fired blasts of ecto-energy and darkness.

Laney and Kamengareth: FIRESTORM CENTIPEDE BLAST!

Laney and Kamengareth fired blasts of fire and they formed into a huge centipede of pure fire.

Lola and Maxxor: FIRESTORM PERIM BLAST!

Lola and Maxxor fired massive blasts of fire.

Carol and Aragorn: ATOMIC SWORD BLADESTORM!

Carol fired blasts of atomic energy and Aragorn fired blades of energy.

Lincoln and Gimli: LIGHTNING AXE HACKSTORM!

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and Gimli fired blasts of energy from his axe.

Edwayl and Gandalf: CELTIC MAGIC FIRESTORM!

Edwayl and Gandalf fired blasts of energy and magic.

Zarya and Legolas: WOLF RIDER STORM!

Zarya fired blasts of blue fire and Legolas fired numerous arrows and the blasts turned into an army of wolf riders.

Lynn and Blugon: SMASHING EARTH FIRESTORM!

Lynn and Blugon punched the ground and sent numerous Orcs flying in massive explosions of fire.

Aragorn: And feel this final smash. GONDOR SLASHSTORM BLADEDANCE!

Aragorn fired blasts of energy from his sword and slashed numerous orcs apart.

Back at Mount Doom we were with Frodo in and we were standing on a cliff in the heart of the volcano.

Frodo: Time to destroy this ring for good!

Me: Come on Frodo.

He held out the ring and it was a 24 karat gold ring and it had writing on it.

Me: Don't give in to it Frodo. Throw it in.

Gollum: NOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!

Frodo: You want your precious?

He took the ring off the chain and dropped it into the volcano and Gollum jumped after it.

Me: I've had it with this fucking freak!

Frodo: Me too. SHIRE LEAFSTORM SMASH!

Frodo fired a wave of leaves and they formed into a hammer and smashed into Gollum and sent him and the ring into the lava and Gollum died with the ring in his hands.

Me: Lets get outta here!

We flew back and had Sam and Frodo with us.

The Ring melted in the lava and Sauron released an ear-shattering scream as he was dying and the tower of Baradhur collapsed and he exploded.

Merry: FRODO! FRODO!

The war was over!

We regrouped and the orcs fell into a huge crack in the earth and they died in an instant and we saw Mount Doom explode.

Me: Whoa! That was a close one.

Nico: No kidding. Sauron has failed this world and this universe.

Nicole: Yes he has.

Kalin: This was intense!

Nico: It sure was.

Electro: You know there was another guy named Sauron, right?

Maria: Of course. But we already took care of him before today.

Leonard: Just wanted to know. Well, we'll see you guys around.

The Masters of Evil then teleported out.

Me: That was intense.

We had Sauron and Gollum forever sealed into the Book of Vile Darkness. We went back to Minas Tirith after Frodo was healed and we were the guests of Aragorn's coronation. He was coronated as King of Gondor and he was the first King of Gondor in over 3,000 years. The White Tree bloomed again for the first time in a long time. We were honored to be there. We saw Aragorn reunited with Arwen. It was good.

Aragorn: Thank you all so much for saving all of Middle Earth from the evils of Sauron.

Me: It was our pleasure your majesty. We're glad we could help you out.

Nico: Yeah. We do what we have to do to save the entire universe from evil.

Vince: Yep.

Laney: Evil will never rest.

Lana: Yep.

Gandalf: J.D. I want you to have this as a token of our thanks.

Gandalf took off his ring. He had the ring of power Narya, the Ring of Fire and he gave it to me as his way of saying thank you.

We later went back home to Earth.

Aragorn: (To the viewers) Never follow the ways of Sauron. Or Team Loud Phoenix Storm will stop you.

This city is the capital of the OverWorld and the home of the leader of the OverWorld Maxxor.

All the key decisions concerning the fate of the OverWorld Tribe are made within its thick walls, resting in the heart of the OverWorld. There has never been a successful attack on this magnificent metropolis. The tower of Maxxor's palace is visible from miles away. The Museum of Perim is famed for its many priceless treasures. Kiru City Armory is also worth a stop. Access is restricted, but Bodal will gladly give you a tour. There are many hidden passages and tunnels in Kiru City.

There's a secret room in Maxxor's castle that contains an Overworld mugician that's always available for use should the need arise.

---

We saw much of the city and it was awesome. We saw shops, places to hang around and so much more. We also saw the Kiru City Armory and Weapons Storage.

TD Mike: So this is where the Overworlders keep their Battlegear?

Tom Majors: Yep. They keep their weapons here for battle when the need arises.

They had all kinds of spears, swords, blasters, staffs and so much more.

Nico: Boy these weapons are amazing.

Sarah Gunnerson: They sure are.

Lincoln: I wouldn't mind using them on our adventures should the need arise.

Laney: Me neither.

Me: Yeah.

Tom Major: Not all weapons are good. There was this time where some rogue Chaotic players were using some sonic charges to blow up locations

We gasped.

Lori Jimenez: I remember hearing about that.

Thundercracker: Who were the names of these rogue Chaotic players?

Tom Major: Their names were Simon and his friends Bianca, Dimitri, and Bruno.

Me: Hmm.

I pulled up their history.

---

Simon is a rouge player who destroys ultra rare locations with sonic charges so he and his partners in crime Bianca, Dimitri, and Bruno are the only ones who have them and sell them to the highest bidder. In the episode "A Rare Hazard," they demanded Tom to do an inside job in Bodal's arsenal shop and obtain more sonic charges for them where Tom was against this. Simon finds a way to frame him by showing Tom a doctored picture of him destroying a location and unless he helps, he will be known as an OverWorld traitor when the picture is shown to Maxxor.

This led to the final confrontation at Akarak Cavern (an area under Crystal Cave which has anti-gravity properties to it) when Simon and his group are setting up explosive charges. Tom, Sarah, and Peyton ended up going around deactivating the charges. When it came to the final one that is about to blow in 30 seconds, Simon and his followers tried to leave only for Kaz to arrive with Codemasters Imthor and Crellan with Codemaster Imthor stating that they deactivated their scanners until the plight is solved. Tom managed to deactivate the final explosive charge. It is unknown what happened to Simon and his followers afterwards.

Bianca

Bianca is one of Simon's followers.

Dimitri

Dimitri is one of Simon's followers.

Bruno

Bruno is one of Simon's followers who is the largest of the group.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: Simon is a monster!

Nico: He sure is.

Naruto: Simon is a completely honorless monster.

Me: No kidding. If he ever comes back we have ourselves a new target and without a doubt, he'll be coming to get revenge on you Tom.

Tom Majors: Yeah.

G1 Silverbolt: I have a feeling that when we run into Simon and his goons, we're gonna fight the rest of the M'arrillians that we didn't kill, including that Rath'tab guy that Vanitas and Cantwell mentioned.

Me: And we'll be ready for them when we kick their butts into oblivion.

Sarah Gunnerson: I can't wait to have another crack at him.

Peyton: Me too.

Back at the estate we were having a good time watching TV and playing card games. We then saw Tara in deep thought.

Lana: Tara are you all right?

Tara: I'm fine. Just thinking that's all.

Nico: You look like you're in deep thought about something.

Tara: I'm thinking about my home Markovia.

Tara had tears coming down her face.

Beast Boy: Tara you can tell us what happened there.

Sarah Gunnerson: Yeah.

Tara: Okay.

Tara went over what happened to her before Markovia was completely destroyed. 40 years ago before Tara became the superheroine Terra, she was the princess of a small country in Western Europe called Markovia. She was born to her beautiful mother, Queen Selena the Virtuous. Tara and her little brother Brion Markov A.K.A. Geo-Force were inseparable and loved each other more than anyone. Same with her big sister Gloria. They loved each other so much. But the queen and all three kids were not happy with their father. He was a ruthless tyrant that ruled over all of Markovia with an iron fist with extreme oppression and tyranny. His name was

King Devon Markov the Ruthless. He was called that because he hated everything and anyone that entered Markovia would be killed on sight and the worst of all is that he hated Tara with a ruthless vengeance. He would physically abuse her and any friends she had made with any of the villagers, he would arrest and have them beheaded. He abused his power to an incredible degree and the United Nations would never support his regime. In 1973, when Markovia went broke he declared war on the entire planet and threatened to plunge the entire planet into total chaos and wipe out all of humanity so that he can have Markovia rule over the entire world alone. But the United States and the United Nations would not stand for these acts of oppression and injustice. The World Leaders of the United Nations decided to have Markovia completely destroyed forever to make sure that World War III doesn't break out. They fired a massive 75 megaton Nuclear Missile at Markovia. To save her children, Queen Selena grabbed her children and had them sent far away. She made the ultimate sacrifice to save her kids. The missile hit Markovia and completely obliterated it in an instant. The massive mushroom cloud could be seen for miles. Gloria got away from the blast just in time. But the car containing Tara and Brion wasn't so lucky. It got caught in the radiation fallout of the explosion and got Tara and Brion exposed to incredible levels of Gamma Radiation and it changed them forever. The shockwave from the explosion buried them in piles of rock and they laid dormant for decades in a state of suspended animation. 40 years later, Tara and Brion were reborn and they became the Earth Manipulating superheroes: Terra and Geo-Force. But before King Markov died, he vowed to one day return from the dead and finish what he started.

We gasped in absolute horror and Tara broke down crying.

Me: Tara that's horrible.

Cyborg: (to Tara) I don't know who to hate more. Slade or your so called dad!

Me: I would hate both.

Lincoln: Me too.

Laney: Same here.

Varie: I can't believe your father is that evil. He's like Ivan the Terrible reincarnated.

Jessie K.: Just what I was thinking.

The doorbell rang.

Me: I'll get that.

I went to the door and answered it. It was Brion Markov, A.K.A. Geo-Force!

Me: Brion Markov, A.K.A. Geo-Force.

Geo-Force: That's right. It's an honor to finally meet you J.D. I've heard so many wonderful things about you.

Me: I know. Your sister Tara told us a lot about you. Come on in.

Geo-Force came in and Tara saw him for the first time in a while.

Tara: Brion!

Geo-Force: Sis!

They hugged and it was a great reunion.

Geo-Force: Tara I'm so glad you're all right.

Tara: I've missed you so much bro.

Geo-Force: Me too sis.

Gloria Markov: Little bro!

Geo-Force: Gloria!

They all hugged. It was a Markov Sibling reunion.

Lori Loud: It's literally a Markov Sibling reunion.

Laney: It sure is.

But then we got an unexpected broadcast on TV and we saw that it was KING MARKOV THE RUTHLESS back from the dead!

Tara: (Gasp) Father!?

Geo-Force: He's alive!?

King Markov: (On TV) Greetings citizens of the world, I am your new ordained ruler King Devon Markov and from now on, you will address me as supreme overlord of everything on Earth. I am now going to make you all my slaves and my servants and I will make sure that no free will comes to you all ever. Anyone that does will be killed on sight and I will make you all build a new world where I will be your true king. I will be the Supreme Ruler of everything and I will crush anyone who opposes me. My rule will now be supreme.

Me: Oh Hell no it won't!

Vince: We won't let him return and rule over us!

Me: No one is gonna tell us what to do!

Nico: Especially a ruthless tyrant that deserved to die!

Vypra and all of the Masters of Evil and the Dark Signers appeared.

Vypra: Did you guys see all that?

Me: We sure did. Tara's father is back from the dead with a vengeance. Now we have to make sure that he pays.

Waffle Woman: Tara, as your nemesis, I speak for all of us when I say that the Masters of Evil will help you against your father!

Tara: Thanks Vicky.

?: I'll gladly help you all too.

We saw that Vypra had SERPICON from episode 36 of Time Force with her!

Just like all other mutants, Serpicon was created in the result of science accident. Before the events of the series he was captured by the Time Force organization and frozen in the Cryo Prison. In the thirty sixth episode Ransik released Serpicon and ordered him to attack the Cosmic Centre of Silver Hills and activate the mechanism of self-liquidation. Serpicon attacked the Cosmic Centre with the Cyclobots and tied up all the scientists and employees. However Trip and Circuit went to the cabine of manual control and hacked its coding, stripping the mechanism of self-liquidation. Then Eric arrived and battled Serpicon. Serpicon fought the Quantum Ranger and despite the mutant being an excellent marksman, he was defeated and then he enlarged himself. In the giant size he managed to overpower Quantasaurus Rex. The Rangers tried to attack the mutant with their Vector Weapons, but he was invulnerable to their attacks and was about to attack heroes, but Circuit distracted him, getting his blast on himself. Wes summoned the Time Jet and the heroes together attacked the villain by using it. Serpicon was finally defeated and frozen by Quantasaurus Rex Max Blizzard Attack.

---

Eric Myers: Serpicon!

Serpicon: I'm not here to cause trouble this time Quantum Ranger. I want to help you destroy King Markov.

Me: I remember you! You attacked the Cosmic Centre of Silver Hills for a Self-Liquidation mechanism.

Serpicon: That's right. You really have watched all of us on TV haven't you?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Serpicon: So I have heard from Mistress Vypra. It's nice that we have a lot of fans.

Me: It sure is.

Serpicon: I could remove my DNA patch, grow giant, and crush your father and his forces.

Vypra: That won't be needed Serpicon.

Me: All right lets head for Markovia. It's time for us to Crown a King!

Everyone: YEAH!

We were off to Markovia!

MARKOVIA, WESTERN EUROPE

King Markov and his soldiers were ready for a big battle. It was gonna be a big battle unlike any other.

King Markov: Soon this world and everyone in it will be mine.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard.

King Markov: What!?

We landed.

Me: King Markov the Ruthless. So we meet at last.

King Markov: And who are all of you?

Me: Your worst fucking nightmare!

Dark Spicer: (to King Markovia) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Tara: Its been a while "Father".

King Markov: Dear daughter. It has been a while. How long has it been?

Tara: 40 years.

Me: It's now the year 2020.

Nico: King Markov, you have failed this world and this universe!

Sarah, Gwen, Jen, May, Yumi and Tara stripped off their clothes and they showed that they had Leotards on. Gwen's was blue, Tara's was yellow and black, May's was red, Yumi's was black, Jen's was purple and white, and Sarah's was white and red.

Maria: Why are you girls wearing leotards under your clothes?

Gwen: (smirks) Trust me. You're about to find out!

Gwen, Sarah, May, Yumi, Tara, and Jen groaned as their stomachs growled loudly, they started to sweat, and they doubled over in pain.

Yumi: It hurts!

Tara: After this I'm never turning into this again!

May: Me too!

Gwen T.: Yeah!

Sarah: Yeah!

Jen: Same here!

It was an excruciatingly painful transformation and they got an excruciatingly painful headache.

Tara's hands and skin turned black with white patches and she was in a lot of pain as she was transforming.

Tara: DEAR GOD! I HATE THIS!

Sarah's skin turned sky blue and purple and the Girls were in an incredible amount of pain and they were changing.

Sarah Gunnerson: My hands!

Yumi's eyes were popping out of her head.

Yumi: (Groans) I FUCKING HATE THIS PART!

Gwen's skin turned dark blue and her hair was falling out and she grew razor sharp teeth. She was now half Great White Shark. Yumi's skin turned brown and her hair fell out and her eyes pushed out and were on stalks and she turned into half hammerhead. Then May's skin turned light orange and her hair fell out and she grew bigger and stronger and she turned into half whale shark and Sarah's her skin turned light blue with purple stripes on her and her hair fell out and she had sharp teeth. Tara: Yeah.

King Markovia: (sees Tara's Killer Whale form) I always knew you were a monstrosity, daughter. Now, you certainly look the part!

Me: Shut your fucking trap! The only question is how did you come back?

Rotwood, Morton, Master Frown and Squidward appeared.

Morton: We are the ones that brought him back.

Rotwood: We used a Dark Orb to bring him back and bring the world to its knees by having King Markov kill you all.

William: I knew you guys hated us but this is a new low, even for you!

Rotwood: You and your friends were the ones who chose to act like Gods.

Morton: Our lives would've been better off if all of you hadn't existed in the first place!

Moe Szyzlak: Do us all a favor and shut your fucking goddamn yap! (Cocks rifle)

BANG!

He fired and blew Morton's entire head clear off his shoulders!

Me: Bout time someone shut him the fuck up.

But then we saw Morton's head grow back.

Me: Oh that is disgusting.

Morton: What!? I'm still alive!?

Then they felt excruciating pain in their backs and we saw the Cobra Marks move.

On my device we saw that the cobra moved to a crawling motion and 1 month was taken off the time.

Me: Wow! Every time they fight each battle, the Curse of the Cobra hastens.

Vypra: Like that J.D.?

Me: Love it Vypra. So we have 24 battles and it'll cover 730 days over that length of time. Now we have 23 battles left.

Vypra: Good math work.

Me: Thanks. The Cobra is the only thing that will kill them.

Vypra: Yep.

Jake: Time to dethrone this bad king!

And the dreams that you dream of

Once in a lullaby

Somewhere over the rainbow

Bluebirds fly

And the dreams that you dream of

Dreams really do come true

Someday, I wish upon a star

Wake up where the clouds are far behind me

Where trouble melts like lemon drops

High above the chimney top

That's where you'll find me

Somewhere over the rainbow

Bluebirds fly

And the dreams that you dare to

Oh why, oh why can't I?

Well, I see trees of green and red roses too

I'll watch them bloom for me and you

And I think to myself

What a wonderful world

Well, I see skies of blue and I see clouds of white

And the brightness of day

I like the dark

And I think to myself what a wonderful world

The colors of the rainbow so pretty in the sky

And also on the faces of people passing by

I see friends shaking hands saying

How do you do?

They're really saying I, I love you

I hear babies cry and I watch them grow

They'll learn much more then we'll know

And I think to myself what a wonderful world

World

Someday I wish upon a star

Wake up where the clouds are far behind me

Where trouble melts like lemon drops

High above the chimney top

That's where you'll find me

Oh, somewhere over the rainbow

Way up high

And the dreams that you dare to

Why oh, why can't I?

I fired a ball of energy and it went at him and he caught it and was being pushed back into the walls and he slammed into the mountain. He skidded and threw the ball into space. I fired energy lasers and they hit the ground and the ground was shaking. Suddenly a massive eruption of lava exploded out from in front of King Markov and he saw this and he knew that he was in trouble.

I fired energy lasers from my hands and eyes and made him dance around like a sissy girl. I fired an energy blast into the lava and it exploded all out with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I had the lava form into a massive towering wall with my psychic powers and I had it fall onto King Markov and it burned him all over as he screamed in excruciating pain.

Goku: Whoa! That's exactly like how Frieza was facing me on Namek.

Nico: He sure has learned well from your fights Kakarot.

Goku: No kidding.

Me: Lets get some teamwork down.

Drill Man: With pleasure!

Thundercracker: Yeah!

Drill Man and Thundercracker used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and it enhanced Drill Man's Drill Missile 100-fold and turned Thundercracker's Thunder Blaster into a deadly Thunder Cannon.

The techniques all combined and they slammed into King Markov and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

King Markov was knocked down and the shark girls reverted back.

Tara: We'll need our clothes.

Maria: I got them right here.

The girls put their clothes back on.

Tara: I've had it with this monster!

Me: Me too.

King Markov: What are you all!?

Me: Your worst nightmare. You can ruin lives and you may have power, but you have no power over what I am.

King Markov: What!? What are you!?

Me: I am the hope of the universe, I am the answer to all things that cry out for peace, I am protector of the innocent, I am the light in the darkness, I am truth, ALLIED TO GOOD! NIGHTMARE TO YOU! I AM J.D. KNUDSON - GOD AMONG MAN AND LEADER OF TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!

Darkspeed: (grabs King Markovia) How should we kill him? Should Serpicon kill him with his blasters? Or should I vibrate my hand and phase it through his chest?

Geo-Force: We'll use our final Smashes first and then Tara can deliver the fatal blow.

Darkspeed: Okay. That works.

Misty Tredwell: Lets do it! GREEN LIZARD MEGABLAST!

Misty fired a massive blast of green energy and it hit King Markov and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Carly Carmine: And how about this one? ORANGE HUMMINGBIRD MEGASTRIKE!

Carly fired a powerful blast of orange energy and it hit King Markov and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Geo-Force: This is for our mother! EARTH MEGAPUNCH FIST!

Geo-Force had his fist encased in lava and crystal and he punched King Markov in the face with incredible and devastating force.

Tara: You are not our father! You should've stayed dead almost 50 years ago! Our mother was the only one we ever loved and because of you, you took her away from us! Now you die!

King Markov: You may have enough power to destroy me, but you are still threat to me little girl! I am your creator, your master, you existed only to serve me! You lived because of your wretched mother! WHAT HOPE COULD A MERE CHILD HAVE OF KILLING HER ALL POWERFUL FATHER!?

Tara's eyes glowed yellow!

Tara: You may have created me, but you were NEVER my father!

Tara fired a massive energy blast and it hit King Markov and exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

The explosion knocked him back.

Tara: FATHERS ARE KIND!

She fired another energy blast and it hit him and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Tara: FATHERS PROTECT YOU!

She fired another energy blast and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Tara: FATHERS LOVE YOU!

She fired a blast of fire and it hit him and burned him and engulfed him in flames.

Tara: FATHERS RAISE YOU!

She fired a blast of energy and it hit him and he was screaming in pain as the fire was burning him.

She lifted her hands into the air.

Me: The Spirit Bomb!

Tara formed a powerful yellow Spirit Bomb as big and powerful as the one Goku used against Vegeta.

Tara: King Markov, I was protected by Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Raised by my Friends, I have a wonderful family and that is something that you never gave me! You will pay for your crimes! They are my family, THIS IS MY HOME AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WELCOME HERE! EARTHFORCE SPIRIT BOMB!

She threw the Spirit Bomb and it slammed into King Markov and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

King Markov: DAMN YOU ALL TO HELL!

The explosion completely obliterated King Markov in an instant and there was nothing left of him. The Dark Orb was completely destroy in an instant and we got a massive power boost from it.

Me: Enjoy the darkness of hell where you belong King Markov.

We landed and set our sights on Rotwood, Morton, Squidward and Master Frown.

Geo Force: Now, for you 4.

Me: You have tormented us for the last time.

Frown: I don't think so!

Frown pushed a button and a bomb came out of the floor.

Me: A bomb!

Frown: This is a 200 megaton nuclear bomb! It's set for 20 seconds.

Squidward: You morons can go after us. Or you can defuse the bomb. Your choice!

Me: We'll worry about them another time! Lets get out of here!

I used Instant Transmission to beam us all back home to the estate and we got out of there just in time as I teleported the the bomb into space and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We were back in Michigan and we powered down.

Me: That was a close one.

Vypra: It looks like we have a new group that want to get rid of both of us.

Nico: We'll still fight each other in our usual battles. But whenever Rotwood and his group, we team up to fight them.

Dark Spicer: I'm okay with that.

Me: But it'll be for 23 times. Every time they fight us it'll hasten the curse.

Carly Carmine: It sure will.

The Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: At least we'll never see Tara's father again.

Beast Boy: Good riddance.

But then King Markov's evil spirit appeared.

Me: You are not welcome here Markov!

I held up my hand to his face.

Me: HAKAI!

He glowed purple and he screamed in agony as he was being completely obliterated in an instant! He was erased from existence for all eternity as if he was never born at all.

Nico: King Markov, you have failed this universe.

Tara: He sure has. Goodbye forever "Father."

We later got the leaders of the United Nations together and we told everyone that King Markov is dead and has been Hakaied and destroyed forever. We disbanded the monarchy of Markovia and made it a regular country with a prime minister. It was now free of corruption and was now on the path to redemption. With no more kings.

Tara: (To the viewers) Never follow an evil king like our evil former father was. Tyranny is never gonna be welcome in the world.

Me: Yep.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfic done.

WHOO-HOO! This was an awesome Original Chapter that I did. It was a wicked and epic battle against a ruthless tyrant. But we made sure that King Markov paid the ultimate price for his crimes. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a land version of the SpongeBob SquarePants episode The Camping Episode and we're going to have Lori get mauled by that bear like it did to Squidward.

See you all tomorrow.

Camping Episode Loud House Style

We were in the world of Perim and we were going on a tour of Underworld City.

---

Chaor rules from his castle-fortress that dominates the city. Life isn't easy in UnderWorld City; In addition to tremors and cave-ins, city dwellers have to worry about fire geysers. Whole neighborhoods have been engulfed by the flame-spewing jets, which erupt without warning. Chaor goes to extreme measures to protect his capital, believing it's better to lose part of the UnderWorld City than risk losing all.

If two UnderWorlders get into a fight, they fight in the coliseum. This decision was made due to the endless fighting in UnderWorld City.

The M'arillians temporarily conquered the UnderWorlders in Episode 23 when Lord Van Bloot and Phelphor's armies surprise Chaor's armies.

---

Kaz: Welcome to Underworld City, guys!

Me: Wow! It's amazing!

Nico: It sure is.

Kaz: Lets show you around.

We followed Kaz and we got to see the city. We saw the coliseum and we got to se the fire geysers and so much more. We also saw the big statue of Chaor and it was amazing.

Maria: (to Chaor) That's a really nice statue of you.

Chaor: Thanks guys. It is a piece of my power.

Kaz: Not only do we have to deal with the M'arrillians, Simon and his goons but we also have to take down those cheaters Klay and Krystella.

Kairi: Are they that dangerous?

Tom Majors: We don't have any proof that they are cheaters. But they helped Van Bloot before.

William: So, Klay and Krystella have helped Van Bloot before?

Eddy: Well, once we expose them for the cheaters they are, they might come running back to him. And that's fine. It'll be all the more sweeter to teach them a lesson.

Me: Yes it will.

Ben: And you haven't taken down Van Bloot yet because…

Chaor: Because according to you guys, Simon and those other rogue Chaotic players are major threats. Van Bloot and his goons can wait until after Simon and his followers get what they deserve.

Me: Okay. So Perim has its share of problems as well in the form of players that have no honor.

Nico: And we will stop them.

Lincoln: Count on it.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for an awesome camping day.

It was the weekend and we all were preparing for their camp out. It was gonna be awesome.

Lincoln: "Sleeping bags?"

Clyde: "Check."

Clyde was folding the sleeping bags.

Me: Flashlight?

Laney: Check.

Laney had her flashlight.

Lincoln: "Marshmallows?"

Clyde: "Check."

Me: Emergency first-aid kit?

Nico: Check.

Nico held up his first aid kit.

Lincoln looked at his list.

Lincoln: "What about the tent?"

Clyde: "It's outside."

Lincoln: "Good." (To the viewers) "We are going camping. We wanted to spend some quality sibling time. Maybe this will be a better camp out then the one we had with Clyde's dads."

Me: But we did become heroes for rescuing Jessie from quicksand that day.

Laney: That's true.

Lily: This is gonna be so awesome.

Lincoln: "Okay guys, let's go camping."

Me: Yeah!

Lori and Leni were in their room relaxing.

Lori: "Ah, the weekend is here. And this isn't just any weekend. Some of us are going camping today."

Leni: "But what if they got lost in the woods and never came back?"

Leni imagines us lost in the woods.

Lincoln: "Clyde, I'm scared."

Leni comes back to reality.

Leni: "That would be horrible!"

Lori: Relax Leni, I'm sure they'll be fine. Besides, we girls got the whole house to ourselves since Dad and Mom are working all weekend. And we won't have to see Lincoln reading comics in his undies for two whole days.

Leni thought for a moment.

Leni: "Hey, it's been a while since we've been camping. Maybe we should join them."

Lori: "No thanks. I'm more comfortable inside."

Leni: "Okay, then I'll join them."

Leni got her camping hat and went downstairs to join us. The twins saw this.

Lana: "Hey big sis. Where are you going?"

Leni: I'm going camping with J.D., Lincoln and Clyde and the others."

Lana: Cool. Can we join?

Lola: Yeah, we've got nothing exciting to do right now."

Leni: Sure.

Luna, Luan, Lynn, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lily, and Lisa and everyone else showed up.

Lynn: We wanna join too.

Everyone: Yay!

Outside, the everyone else told us that they wanted to join them in the campout too.

Lincoln: Well, this was going to be for just us. But what the heck. Let's make it a campout for all of us!

Clyde: Team Loud Phoenix Storm Campout campout. And were gonna need a bigger tent.

Lynn: We can use that inflatable tent we just bought recently.

Lincoln: Great.

Me: Don't worry guys. I got plenty of tents for all of us.

Lincoln: Also, we have some important stuff to discuss before we start camping."

Lori was now in the living room watching tv.

Lori: Well, looks like I have the whole house all to myself."

Just then, Lori heard guitar playing coming from outside.

Lori: Huh?

Luna was performing some Mic Swagger song on her guitar. Lori poked her head into the tent.

Lori: Hey, I thought you guys were supposed to go camping."

Lincoln: We are camping.

Lori: Lincoln, it's not camping if you're ten feet away from our house.

Me: Our backyard is as big as a national park Lori.

Lori: Oh right. I literally forgot how big it was.

Lincoln: Besides, It doesn't matter where you camp as long as you're outdoors."

Laney: That's right and it's beautiful out here.

Lynn: Yeah. While all those soft city folks are inside watching tv, we're out here pitting ourselves against the formidable forces of nature.

Clyde: Wanna join us?

Syd Chang: We have plenty of room.

Lori: No thanks Syd.

Lincoln: Okay. Have fun inside.

Lori leaves. Luna prepares to perform again but Lori quickly comes back.

Lori: What do ya mean "have fun inside?"

Lincoln: Just have fun inside. See you tomorrow.

Me: Yeah.

Lori: Oh. Bye.

Luna is about to perform again but Lori comes back again.

Lori: You little sneak. I see what you're doing.

Lincoln: What?

Lincoln: Don't think I can't see what you're doing."

Laney: What?"

Lori: You're saying I can't take it.

Lincoln: But all I said was-"

Lori interrupted.

Lori: Ah, you're saying I'm soft. You think your little have fun inside challenge is gonna make me come camping with you. But that is never gonna happen. There's no way I'm gonna stay here all night with you twerps. So get used to it."

Lori leaves.

Lori: Ok? Have fun inside."

Lori came back.

Lori: "THAT'S IT! I'M IN!"

Lori ran back inside the house to get her camping equipment.

Lori: "I'll show you camping."

Clyde: "Lori's gonna come camping with us!"

Laney: Cool!

Lori came back with her camping gear on her back. We all came out of our tents.

Lori: Now I'll show you how a real camper does it."

She fell over since her camping gear was heavy. She got back up and pulled out something.

Lori: Here we go. My remote controlled self assembling tent.

Me: Really spiffy.

Lori: Watch and learn.

Lincoln got out binoculars and Clyde out a notepad and pencil. Lori threw the tent in the air and pulled out a remote. She pressed a button but the power fizzles and fell to the floor, unassembled.

Me: Uh oh.

Leni: That was great Lori, how do you get inside? It's all crushy looking.

Lori: It isn't put up yet, idiot.

Nico: Lori!

Lori grabbed the tent and tried to set it up. She accidentally ripped it.

Me: Whoops.

Lincoln: Customization!

Clyde: Genius!

Lori was now hitting the tent with a stick.

Lincoln: She's tendering the ground!

Clyde: Of course.

Lori was getting tangled up in her tent.

Lincoln: Right that down! Right that down!

It was revealed that Clyde was just drawing Syd on his notepad.

Lori finally put up the tent by kicking it.

Lori: Yes!

She cheered. But her tent fell apart. She rolled it away sheepishly.

Luna Loud: Lori, you can chill in our tent. There's more room in there.

Lori: Yeah, sure. Well, I worked up an appetite as big as all outdoors. Time for a little grub. I suppose Lana is gonna stew up some twigs and rocks.

Lana: Ew, no! Even I wouldn't eat those. We've got something better. [She pulls out the bag of marshmallows.] "Marshmallows." (She ate one.)

Lisa Loud: Oh boy. Just like the astronauts eat.

Suddenly, Lincoln was wearing a fake astronaut helmet.

Lincoln: (Static Noise) Lincoln to Lisa. Lincoln to Lisa. Do you read me? Over.

Lisa Loud: [Lisa also has on a fake astronaut helmet.] (Static Noise) Lisa to Lincoln. I read you. Over.

Me: (Static Noise) Houston to Lisa. You love marshmallows don't you? Over.

Lisa Loud: (Static) Lisa to Houston. Affirmative. Over.

Lincoln: (Static) Lincoln to Lisa. I like going (static) Over.

Lisa Loud: (Static) Lisa to Lincoln. (Static) Me too."

Lincoln and Lisa repeatedly make static noises, annoying Lori. Lana joins in.

Lana: (Static) Lana to Lincoln. Help yourself. Over."

Lana handed Lincoln the bag of marshmallows.

Lincoln: Yummy!

Lincoln took off his helmet and ate a marshmallow.

Lincoln: Lincoln to Houston. The deliciousness has landed.

Me: That is funny.

Lori: Well, you astronauts can eat marshmallows all you want. I'm gonna have some Swedish meatballs.

Lori had a can of Swedish Meatballs in her hand.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) One of my favorite meals Lori.

Dana: Same here Axel.

Lori: Just as soon as I get a can opener.

Lori was about to head inside the house but Clyde stopped her.

Lincoln: But Lori, didn't you take the can opener when you hiked out here?

Lori: Why bother? We're ten feet from the house.

Clyde: But this is the wilderness. It just doesn't fit the camping spirit.

Lynn: Pretty weeny.

Me: No need, I brought my can opener. We can also make s'mores over the fire.

Lori: Good idea.

I pulled out a can opener and handed it to Lori. Then Rolf, Maria and the Urban Rangers came.

Rolf: Greetings to you all!

Carmen: Hey guys.

Jonny 2x4: We haven't gone camping in a while.

Maria: No we sure haven't.

Jimmy: Can we join you all?

Me: Sure. The more the merrier.

Lincoln: We have plenty of room.

Rolf and the Urban Rangers set up their tent.

Then Dark Spicer, Carly Carmine, Shiv, Electro, Firefly and Snake came.

Dark Spicer: Hey guys. Room for a few more?

Nico: Sure is.

Dark Spicer: After what happened with Tara's dad and Rotwood's group, it's nice for us to have a relaxing camping trip.

Me: You said it.

Carly Carmine: It's nice to go camping with you all.

Me: It sure is.

The Urban Rangers and the Masters of Evil set up their tents and sat around the fire.

We all sat down around a campfire, heating our marshmallows.

Me: Nothing like having s'mores for camping.

Nico: You said it.

Laney: I love s'mores.

Carly Carmine: Me too Laney.

Brittney: I love roasting blood sausages.

Brittney and the Goths of Darkness had blood sausages on their skewers and were roasting them on the fire.

Leni heated her marshmallow too close to the fire and it burned. She blew it too hard and the gooey treat splattered onto Lori's face. Lori whipped it off. Leni heated up another marshmallow too close to the fire. She blew on it once again and it splattered onto Lori's face once again. The annoyed blonde whipped it off. Leni did the same thing with another marshmallow but this time Lori ducked when Leni blew it in her direction. Lori smiled smugly until the marshmallow came back and splattered on the back of her head.

SPLAT!

Maria: How are you enjoying those s'mores, Horsea?

Horsea: Delicious and chocolatey and marshmallowy

Me: You all right Lori?

Lori: Yeah. Ok, besides blowing molten food at me, what else do you guys do for fun?

Carmen: I like going fishing when we go camping.

Carmen came back with a huge delicious salmon.

Maria: Awesome catch sis!

Snake Jailbird: Nice catch little dudette.

We made awesome fish chowder.

Lori: This literally looks so delicious.

Carmen: Thanks Lori. When I went camping with mom, I learned how to make fish soup.

Dark Spicer: Oh boy.

We were having really good soup and s'mores.

Luna Loud: Well, after a long day of camping, it's great to unwind to a nice relaxing campfire song. [Takes out her guitar] I call this one the campfire song song."

Luna began to play her guitar and sing.

Luna Loud: (Singing) Let's gather round the campfire and sing our campfire song. Our C-A-M-P-F-I-R-E S-O-N-G song. And if you don't think that we can sing it faster than you're wrong, but it'll help if you just sing along!"

Leni: Bum bum bum!

Luna sang faster. Her siblings tried to sing too but couldn't quite sing it right.

Luna Loud: C-A-M-P-F-I-R-E S-O-N-G song! C-A-M-P-F-I-R-E S-O-N-G song! And if you don't think that we can sing it faster than you're wrong, but it'll help if you just sing along!"

Luna Loud: C-A-M-P-F-I-R-E S-O-N-G song! Everybody sing!"

The siblings sang except Lori.

Luna Loud: You too Lori."

Lori still remained silent.

Luna Loud: Good. It'll help! (Resume's singing) It'll help if you just sing along!

Luan assisted Luna with her song by playing the drums. Luna leaped and played a guitar riff. Luan ran up to her and smashed the drums on Luna. Luna popped through the drums.

Luna Loud: OH YEAH!

We cheered!

Me: Great job girls!

Laney: Yeah!

Lincoln: Great song.

Varie: That was fun.

Luna Loud: Now wasn't that relaxing?

Lori: It was. But [Takes out a clarinet] This is relaxing.

Lori began to play. Lincoln and Clyde panicked.

Lincoln: Oh no! Don't worry Lori, I'll save you!

Lincoln grabbed a marshmallow and used a slingshot to aim it at Lori. The marshmallow went straight through the clarinet and into Lori's mouth. She fell on her back with the clarinet still in her mouth. The other siblings gasped. Lincoln rushed to his sister.

Lincoln: Lori, are you ok? Just chew and swallow.

Lori chewed and swallowed the marshmallow.

Lincoln: There. Better?

Lori: Better?! I was literally just fine until you threw that ballistic junk food into my windpipe!

Lincoln: But I had to. It's too dangerous to be playing the clarinet badly out in the wilderness. It might attract.."

Lincoln leaned closer to Lori and whispered in her ear.

Lincoln: A bear.

UH OH.

Lori: A bear? Really? Where did you hear that from?

Clyde: [Pulls out a tabloid magazine] It says so in The Gotham Royal York Inquirer.

Lori: "Killer mama bears attack awful clarinet players."

Me: Boy that is nuts.

Carmen: Why am I getting a weird sense of deja vu?

Lisa Loud: Yeah, And fake science monthly. [Pulled out said tabloid magazine] Me and Lucy saw this.

Lori: "Bears and unicorns: Beware!"

Lincoln: "Yeah, we discussed about this earlier today. So now we know how to protect ourselves."

Me: Didn't this also happen to you Maria?

Maria: Yeah it sure did. Except I was attacked by a mutant bear.

Lori: Okay, unicorns don't exist and bears live in the forest. They're not gonna hear my clarinet playing from here.

Lincoln: Trust me, Lori. Bears have strong hearing when it comes to playing music badly.

Syd Chang: Lincoln's right. Bears have really acute hearing. They can hear anything from miles away.

Lincoln: Their hearing is just that good.

Clyde: They're right. I knew this guy who knew this guy who this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy who knew this guy's cousin-

Me: We get the idea Clyde.

Lori: Yeah you're right. I should be more careful. So why don't you tell me what I shouldn't do if I wanna keep the bears away?

Lincoln: Ok. That's easy. First off, don't play your clarinet.

Lori: Ok, then what?

Lincoln: Never wave your flashlight back and forth really fast.

Lana: Flashlights are their natural prey.

Lori: You're kidding.

Lincoln: Don't stomp around. They take that as a challenge.

Lola: Yeah.

Lori: Go on. [Takes out a notepad and takes notes.]

Laney: Never eat cheese.

Lori: Sliced or cubed?

Lincoln and Clyde whisper to each other.

Lincoln: Cubed. Sliced is fine.

Lori: Yeah, Yeah, and-

Lincoln: Never wear a sombrero-

Leni: In a goofy fashion.

Luan: Or clown shoes.

Lola: Or a hoop skirt.

Lincoln: And never…

Clyde: Ever…

Lincoln: Ever…

Clyde: Ever…

Lincoln and Clyde: SCREECH LIKE A CHIMPANZEE!

Lori: Wow. It's amazing how many things can set a bear off.

Dark Spicer: No kidding.

Lincoln and Clyde: They're horrible.

Lori: And suddenly, I fear that we're all in danger.

Siblings: Why?

Carly Carmine: Why do you say that?

Lori: I don't know.

Then she ran and came back with a sombrero, a flashlight, a plate with cubed cheese, a hooped skirt, and clown shoes.

Lori: (Mischievously) Just a feeling!"

Me: You wouldn't dare!

Lincoln: No.

Lori: Yes.

Clyde: No!

Lori started screeching like a chimpanzee.

Siblings: Lori, please don't!

Nico: SHE'S OUT OF HER MIND!

Lori began screeching and stomping. She waved her flashlight too.

Lana: Lincoln, what do we do? A bear is sure to come and eat us!"

Maria: It's deja vu all over again!

Firefly: Seriously? You guys are afraid of a regular bear? Didn't you fight Mor'du before?

Lincoln: Don't worry guys! I'll draw us an anti bear circle in the dirt.

Lincoln grabbed a stick and started drew a circle around Clyde and the sisters.

Clyde: Good thinking! [He pulled out a magazine] All the experts say it's the only defense against a bear attack.

Firefly: Seriously? You guys are afraid of a regular bear? Didn't you fight Mor'du before?

Me: We did. But a mutant bear mauled Maria.

Rolf: It's true.

Jonny 2x4: We saw it.

Tara: Yeah.

The siblings and Clyde all sat down and cuddled each other.

Lori: You guys are so gullible! If this stuff is for real, why didn't one show up?

Lucy Loud: Maybe it's because you're not wearing your sombrero in a goody fashion.

Me: That could be.

Lori: Oh. You mean like this?

Lori tilted her sombrero and started laughing.

Suddenly, someone's arm reached up and put Lori's sombrero upside down. It was a bear.

Lucy Loud: No. Like that.

We saw a bear with us.

Me: Uh oh.

Lori then saw the bear. The bear growled. Lori saw it and screamed in fright as it roared. Lori screamed and ran away. The bear chased after her and beat her up. It left when it was done.

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Leni: OMG! Lori! Are you ok?

Lori: "No."

Lori groaned as she was all bruised up. She was really mangled up.

Lincoln: Quick! Jump in our anti-bear circle before he comes back!

We all carried the dirt circle with us

Clyde: Yeah, bears often attack more than once.

Me: He's right.

Lori: Are you crazy? A dirt circle won't stop that monster! I'm running for my life!

Everyone: NO!

It was too late. The bear came back and attacked Lori again, then left.

Lincoln: Don't run! They hate that!

Lori: Thanks for the tip. I guess I'll just limp home then.

Everyone: NO!

The bear came back again and attacked and mauled Lori again, then left.

Lincoln: They hate limping more than running!

Lori was about to head inside again.

Lori: Well, I guess I'll just-

The bear came back and mauled Lori, then left.

Lincoln: I should have warned you about crawling.

Carly Carmine: For God's sake, Lori, stop moving! It'll save your life!

Then the bear came back and beat up Lori, then left.

Lori: What did I do that time?

Lincoln: I don't know. I guess he just doesn't like you.

Clyde: Pretend to be someone else!

Me: Clyde that never works.

Lincoln: Here! Draw a circle in the dirt!

The bear came back and attacked again and left.

Lincoln: That was an oval! It has to be a circle!"

Lori: Move over!

She jumped into our circle.

The bear came back.

Dark Spicer turned into Tesladoom!

Tesladoom: I've had enough of this. (Kills bear with electricity)

Me: Looks like we're having bear for dinner.

Lori: Yeah.

Then Lori fell down really hurt.

Nico: Fuck. What do we tell Bobby?

Varie: I'll heal her up.

Varie got Lori's injuries tended to.

We continued our campout and we later went back to the estate and put Lori in the infirmary to rest. Lori woke up.

Maria: Lori? You ok?

Lori: I think so. Ow. I'm really sore.

Me: You were viciously mauled by a bear 6 times.

Lori: Ouch. Now I know how you feel Maria.

Maria: Yeah but the bear is now really good meat.

Me: Yep.

Bobby: Babe are you okay?

Lori: I'll be fine Boo-boo-bear.

Me: Bobby and your kids are gonna look out for you while you rest. You've had a nasty beating.

Lori: Okay.

Me: Get some rest Lori.

We left.

Me: (To the viewers) Campouts are fun, but always be careful when you're outside in the forests and the land. You never know what could be out there.

Another Awesome fanfiction complete.

The Camping Episode of SpongeBob is one of my favorite episodes. It aired on April 3rd, 2004 and it was really funny! Squidward had to learn the hard way about sea bear attacks and all that. NicoChan gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is the Scooby Doo movie Shaggy's Showdown! Get ready for a rodeo mystery like no other partners.

See you all tomorrow.

Old West Mystery Showdown

We were over in Perim and we were over at Mount Pillar.

---

The gates of Mount Pillar are heavily guarded. Outsiders are unwelcome. The Location is divided by Tribal caste, with the lowly Mandiblors living at the bottom and Nobles closer to the top. The Danian queen dwells in the center of Mount Pillar, where she can rule securely. The Danians tend to be paranoid about enemy intruders-especially towards the middle of Mount Pillar where the queen's chambers are located.

The M'arrillians polluted the Mount Pillar water reservoir. The water supply has be cleansed by the Danians, led by Odu-Bathax. Mount Pillar was under siege by the M'arrillians during the end of the M'arrillian War, but Queen Illexia's royal guards were able to hold them off long enough for Aa'une to be destroyed. It has several gates which are guarded by some Danian battlemasters. It is now under the rulership of Queen Aszil and has been totally devoted to the study of the elements.

---

William: So, this is Mount Pillar?

Peyton: Yep. This is it.

Vida Rocca: You think we'll get to meet Queen Illexia?

Peyton: We sure will.

We went into the castle and we stood before Queen Illexia of the Danians.

Queen Illexia: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Slipstream: (bows) It's an honor to meet you, Queen Illexia.

Queen Illexia: It's a pleasure to have you all here. You are the great heroes of the universe and you are forever welcome here.

Me: Thank you your majesty.

Air Raid: (to Illexia) I can imagine that you don't get much visitors.

Queen Illexia: You are right. We don't get very many visitors because of our strict rules here. It's very boring here because of that and we tend to be very paranoid because of it.

Me: I can tell.

Nico: We plan to help Perim deal with its enemies and kill the last of the M'arrillians when the time comes.

Me: Yep. We also have a bunch of rogue players to deal with. We have Simon and his cronies, Klay and Krystella to deal with.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: And we will make sure they pay the price.

Laney: That's right.

Later at the estate I was watching a strange movie on the computer. It was called From Homemaker to Homeless. It was about a woman who had lost her husband and went from riches, to rags, to death.

Brenda, a rich housewife, enjoys her luxurious lifestyle, made possible by her husband Roger's income. Tragically, Roger has a heart attack on their tennis court and dies. Because Roger had no life insurance, Brenda is left with all of Roger's debts, but no way to pay them.

After only a month, Brenda and her two children have lost their home and their money, and were forced into living on the streets. Brenda lost everything including her sanity. At the end of the movie, the voice-over narrator says that the real Brenda ended up at Harvard Medical School - as a cadaver.

Me: Poor Brenda.

Lincoln: I can't believe she would lose everything like that.

Me: Yeah. But I smell something fishy here.

Lincoln: Me too. How did Brenda die?

Me: Lets see here.

I looked it up and it showed that they found Brenda's corpse in a box behind Harvard Medical School.

Me: Oh man. An autopsy showed that she died of septic shock caused from starvation and her children are now in an orphanage.

Lincoln: Man. How much money did Roger owe in debts?

Me: Lets see.

I looked it up and it showed that Roger's debts were substantial.

Me: He owed over $50,000,000.00 and he was worth over $62,000,000,000.00.

Lincoln: Geez! He should've paid that off no problem.

Me: Yeah. But the heart attack prevented that from happening. Her husband had no life insurance and the companies he owed money to all foreclosed on them and took away everything they owned.

Lincoln: That's terrible.

Me: But lets see here.

I looked up the records and it showed that Roger actually DID have life insurance. But also Roger had numerous enemies that hated his guts and they illegally cancelled all of his insurance policies and ensured that if he died, his family would be left with nothing. Not even a penny. They falsely and fraudulently murdered a nice and wonderful rich family and took away their lives in cold blood.

We gasped.

Lincoln: Those companies murdered them! That whole family!

Me: No kidding. The FBI is gonna want to know about this.

I sent the information about Roger and his enemies to the FBI and within a matter of hours, they arrested them on Federal charges ranging from fraud, murder, manslaughter and abuse. The enemies of Roger were found guilty and were sentenced to 150 years in federal prison and ordered to pay $827,898,836,862.00 in restitution to Brenda and Roger's children living in the orphanage.

Me: Consider that payback for your crimes against a loving family you fucking bastards.

Lincoln: Justice is served.

Me: Yep.

---

Later we were heading to an awesome dude ranch in New Mexico. We were going there to visit Shaggy's long lost cousin Tawny Rogers. We arrived in Crazy Q Dude Ranch near Fort Sumner, New Mexico.

Maria: Well, here we are in the Wild West.

Me: Yep. Welcome to Fort Sumner, New Mexico.

Shaggy: Like it'll be awesome to meet Tawny.

Me: Yep.

We arrived at the ranch and Tawny saw us.

Tawny: (Cowboy Accent) Shaggy!

Shaggy: Like howdy Tawny!

They hugged for the first time.

Tawny: I'm so happy to see you. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet y'all.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Tawny.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you Tawny. It's also really cool that we're here in New Mexico.

Me: This is also the place where outlaw Billy the Kid is buried. Fort Sumner, New Mexico is where he died after being shot and killed by Sheriff Pat Garrett.

Tawny: That's right. You sure know all about your Old West figures.

Natilee: That's my dad for you.

Tawny: Yeah. I'm glad y'all came. We've got problems.

Kim Possible: So what's the sitch?

Tawny explains that years ago, the ranch was once haunted by a ruthless western outlaw named Dapper Jack and she pointed out that Shaggy looks just like him, due to the fact that he is Jack's descendant. Tawny said Dapper Jack's ghost has been terrorizing the ranch and if he continues, she will be forced to sell it.

We gasped!

Me: That's terrible!

Nico: Looks like we got here just in time.

Laney: Wow Shaggy, I didn't know that Dapper Jack is your ancestor.

Shaggy: Like, I didn't know either.

Scooby Doo: Me neither.

Crystal: Me neither man.

Amber: Hardcore.

Me: Like you said Fred.

Me and Fred: It looks like we have another mystery on our hands.

Tawny: I heard y'all are really good at solving mysteries.

Me: We sure are. Lets start looking around.

We got to looking around and we went to looking in Dapper Jack's Grave. After investigating Jack's grave, and a few close encounters with his ghost, we solved the mystery and decide to trap the ghost. That night at a rodeo with a grand prize of $10,000, Scooby-Doo helps a young boy get over his fear of horses while Shaggy rides a horse very successfully, much to the surprise of all of us. Later, Shaggy gives the prize money to Tawny to help her with the ranch. At that same moment, Velma Dinkley reveals that the ghost is actually a ranch hand named Kyle who was trying to steal the money. We busted him and got him sent to prison for 20 to 40 years. After this, we all learned that Dapper Jack was not really an outlaw but a kind soul. The town sheriff Rufus Carmichael killed him and framed him for all those crimes and Kyle used the false legend for his scheme.

Rafe: AND I WOULD'VE GOTTEN AWAY WITH IT TOO IF IT WEREN'T FOR YOU MEDDLING KIDS!

Me: Tell it to the judge you asswipe. But wait, Rafe is not alone.

Velma: My thoughts exactly.

We turned to a man named Rafe and Scooby lassoed him.

Scooby Doo: Howdy Partner.

Tawny: It was you? But why?

Kyle: (Sighs) I lined up with a company that builds resorts. They offered millions for the Soregum City Area.

Tawny: But why would you pretend to be a ghost?

Kyle: The company wanted the resort to be themed around Dapper Jack the Outlaw. So I came up with the fake ghost. It would fill up interest in the outlaw stories and it would scare people off so I would buy their land through my company: Black Rattler Mansion.

Me: Very ingenious.

Kyle: But how did you know it was me?

Velma: Simple. You said you built the dude ranches website yourself. And you used El Kabong Font. No professional would use that font!

Me: Focus Velma.

Velma: Right sorry. Anyway, I saw the font again on the Black Rattler Management business card we found.

Me: Yep. We get the idea Velma. You're going to jail for 20 to 40 years Kyle.

The cop cars came and arrested Rafe and Kyle.

Kyle: And I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids.

Me: Meddling can be too much of a good thing. Get 'em outta here.

They took him away to the Uranus Prison for the next 20 to 40 years.

Waffle Woman, Zs'Skayr and Whiteout then appeared.

Me: Waffle Woman, Zs'Skayr and Whiteout.

Zs'Skayr: Didn't expect us to be out here huh?

Whiteout: Congratulations on getting rid of those guys.

Nico: We appreciate that.

Waffle Woman: Tara, I'm glad that your father is gone.

Tara: Me too. Too bad we didn't capture Rotwood's group as well.

Whiteout: Well, like we said, all we can do until they show themselves again is keep fighting each other.

Me: We only have 23 more times and then they'll be meat for the vultures.

Waffle Woman: True to that.

?: Lets see if you all are just as strong as I have seen.

A figure came out and it was KORAGG THE KNIGHT WOLF, the corrupted version of Leanbow from Mystic Force!

---

Koragg, The Knight Wolf was a fearsome warrior created by Octomus the Master after harnessing the power of Leanbow and the secondary antagonist, later turned ally of Power Rangers Mystic Force. He, along with the rest of The Master's minions were trapped for twenty years, while later being freed to free the Master himself.

After a small earthquake had happened, it made a small crack in The Gate that Koragg used to free himself.

Koragg often openly dueled with Morticon in a power struggle, shows contempt toward Necrolai, and bowed to no one except the Master. He has also lied to Morticon, keeping the Megazord power he stole from the Rangers for himself and claiming it was gone instead of using it to free Morticon in the episode "Legendary Catastros". Despite this, however, he proved to be a loyal servant of the Master and a persistent antagonist for the Rangers.

In the episode "Inner Strength", Koragg also found another rival in Daggeron, battling him several times to see if Daggeron is worthy of being a knight. Koragg considers him a worthless teacher for training the Rangers to use their powers for good, but seems to consider him a worthy adversary after he defeated him in the episode "Soul Specter".

When Koragg returned to the Underworld after Morticon's demise, he took a disliking to Imperious and warned him that he only bowed to the Master. What he didn't know was Imperious was directly trying to usurp the Master and wanted Koragg out of the way. First, in the episode "Ranger Down", Koragg was convinced to give up his magic to prove he was a warrior even without his powers. This shows that his pride as a warrior matters to Koragg.

In the three-part episode "Dark Wish", when Imperious released the Barbarian Beasts from the Oblivion, Koragg reveals that he despised them for their lack of honor. When Imperious used Jenji to create a world where the Rangers and good magic had never existed, Koragg - who was immune to Imperious' magic - believed that the Morlocks' victory should be claimed by honorable means and even helped the Rangers to reverse the Dark Wish by telling them of the Tribunal of Magic who could reverse the spell and lending them Fire Heart - who in this timeline had been found and raised by Koragg - to get them there. This act is more likely Koragg's revenge against Imperious who earlier sent Fightoe and 50-Below to attack the magicless Koragg and leave him for dead so he couldn't interfere. This proves that Koragg had no trouble turning on people who were on his side if they used cowardly means to win. When the world was returned to normal by the Tribunal's powers, Koragg joined the fight against Fightoe and 50-Below, and was impressed by the skill shown in the Rangers' Legend Warrior powers. He broke off his alliance with them soon after, though he had gained respect for them and vice versa - and the Tribunal itself spoke favorably of his honor.

In his final bid for power in the first part of the two-part series finale episode "Mystic Fate", the Master first possessed Nick Russell directly and transformed him into a new Koragg, who was more sadistic and vicious than his predecessor when he laid waste to parts of the forest and Root Core and fights deadly with Leanbow even he was in Wolf Warrior. Eventually however, Nick was turned down and returned to normal.

It can be assumed that the villainous identity of Koragg was lost when The Master was destroyed.

---

Leanbow: Koragg!

Nick Russell: I thought you were destroyed after The Master was destroyed!

Koragg: I was brought back thanks to Vypra.

Me: I know you all too well. You were one of the most formidable adversaries of the Mystic Force Rangers. I have seen how you fight and you are a worthy adversary. You have a good sense of humor and you have an amazing sense of honor.

Koragg: That's right. You have watched us on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Jared: I like this guy too. I'll help you fight him dad.

Koragg: You are not the only one I wiill fight, Jared Knudson. Your father, the Mystic Force Rangers, Udonna, Leanbow, and the Gatekeeper will fight me as well.

Nick: Any reason why? Besides my usual rivalry with you.

Koragg: This is a test. To prove if you all are ready for when Imperious, Morticon, and the remaining Ten Terrors appear again.

Zs'Skayr: He's right. We can't keep them patient forever. Sooner or later, we'll have to let them make their move.

Me: I see. So you want to see how powerful we are so we can be ready for when we face the 10 Terrors.

Koragg: Correct.

Me: Sounds like a good challenge.

?: Let me face them too.

A figure came out and it was the first enemy that Sailor Moon destroyed: MORGA!

---

Morga (モルガ Morga) is a Negamonster sent by Jedite to gather energy for the Negaverse. She appeared in Sailor Moon Episode 1, "A Moon Star is Born".

Biography

On Earth, Morga drained the energy from Molly Baker's mother, Susan Baker, and impersonated her. Morga took over her jewelry store and charged the jewelry with dark energy that would send anyone who touched it into a frenzy and drain the energy from their bodies.

Sailor Moon arrived to fight Morga, but was attacked by her victims, who were under her control. However, her scream attack immobilized them all. Before Morga could attack, Tuxedo Mask arrived and intervened. Sailor Moon attacked Morga with her Moon Tiara attack. Morga dissolved into dust with promise that she would return.

---

Sailor Earth: Morga!?

Sailor Moon: Morga!? I thought we destroyed you!

Morga: I'm back and Vypra gave us a huge proposition.

Qin: Who or what is she?

Shanan: Morga is a Rubberite from the planet Elasmita Prime. It's located 39,000 light-years away from Earth and they are extremely ruthless. They have the power to stretch their limbs a long distance.

Morga: Very Impressive. I remember you know the planet I came from and what I'm capable of.

Me: So Vypra brought back all of Sailor Moon's enemies to have us fight.

The charro appears at dusk in streets and lonely sidewalks, always looking for a pedestrian to whom to offer gold coins, which he takes out of a small bag that always carries the waist.

But if, on the contrary, the woman gives up her travel offerings and accepts a riding, that action is the beginning of the fin: Once upon the animal, the misfortune discovers that it is impossible to descend. When the black charro returns to his mount and goes away with the unknown course, ignoring the prayers or cries of his victim, one that is never seen again.

In some states of the Mexican Republic, people who are on full moon nights, along rural roads and remote towns, are presented with a skinny and cadaverous rider, who, riding on a lustrous black horse, of money. But for fear, no one has wanted to accept! All the year 1966, Mr. Abundio Rosas returned to his house, located on the outskirts of the port of Veracruz. Although there was a moon, it is hidden among the treetops, so that there was a certain darkness, which made a great impression on the ghostly forms.

Qin: No kidding.

Varie: But they were intense.

Lily: Watch this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: RINGO!

Lily floated in the air and the ocean formed behind her as she sang the song Ringo by Lorne Greene.

He lay face down in the desert sand

Clutching his six-gun in his hand

Shot from behind, I thought he was dead

But under his heart was an ounce of lead

But a spark still burned so I used my knife

And late that night I saved the life of Ringo

I nursed him till the danger passed

The days went by, he mended fast

Then from dawn till setting sun

He practiced with that deadly gun

And hour on hour I watched in awe

No human being could match the draw of Ringo

One day we rode the mountain crest

And I went east and he went west

I took to law and wore a star
While he spread terror near and far
With lead and blood he gained such fame
All through the West they feared the name of Ringo
I knew someday I'd face the test
Which one of us would be the best
And sure enough the word came down
That he was holed up in the town
I left the posse out in the street
And I went in alone to meet Ringo
They said my speed was next to none
But my lightning draw had just begun
When I heard a blast that stung my wrist
The gun went flying from my fist
And I was looking down the bore
Of the deadly .44 of Ringo
They say that was the only time
That anyone had seen him smile
He slowly lowered his gun and then
He said to me "We're even, friend"
And so at last I understood
That there was still a spark of good in Ringo

I blocked the path of his retreat

He turned and stepped into the street

A dozen guns spit fire and lead

A moment later, he lay dead

The town began to shout and cheer

Nowhere was there shed a tear for Ringo

The story spread throughout the land

That I had beaten Ringo's hand

And it was just the years, they say

That made me put my guns away

But on his grave they can't explain

The tarnished star above the name of Ringo

We went back home.

THE END

Another awesome Scooby Doo movie complete.

Scooby Doo Shaggy's Showdown was an awesome movie. I never saw it but it was really good from what I have read. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next is a land episode of the SpongeBob SquarePants episode Greasy Buffoons. We're gonna be in for a major fight with grease as we help Lynn Sr. take on Ophelia Shroud in a competition of grease that's deadly enough to clog your arteries.

See you all tomorrow.

Greasy Buffoons

At school, everyone was having a good time. Until they got a visit from Zarya's old bully enemy Mathis.

Lynn: Leave her alone you fucking loser!

Mathis: Oh yeah? What are you going to do, loser?

Nico: Lynn, just calm down. We don't want to make a scene.

Lynn: No way. This punk is going down!

Nico: (sighs) Fine then. (hits Lynn with club)

SMASH!

Unfortunately, this send Lynn stumbling over a puddle, where she trips and breaks her arm.

CRUNCH!

This results in her screaming in pain.

Lincoln: Lynn!

Mathis: (pales) Oh, man! I'm outta here! (runs away)

Lucy Loud: (glares at Nico) Nico, I know you're trying to be a good enforcer but that was uncalled for!

Nico: (shocked) But… it was an accident.

But they weren't buying it.

Poromon was getting a drink of water when he heard Peyton and Kaz talking.

Peyton: Dude! Did you hear what went down yesterday?

Kaz: Peyton, I was helping my mom yeseterday.

Peyton: You're not going to believe this. Nico broke Lynn's arm!

Kaz: (shocked) Are you sure?

Peyton: I'm sure. I heard Sora had to give Lynn 10 Potions so her arm would fully heal!

Poromon heard enough. He flies over into my room.

Poromon: Nico, you broke Lynn's arm? (laughs) I don't know whether to be concerned or proud!

Poliwag: Poromon, maybe you shouldn't remind Nico. He looks shaken up.

Nico: I keep telling everyone. It was an accidemt. I feel really awful!

Wolfcastle: (Arnold Schwarzenegger Accent) Nico, can I borrow a pencil and paper? I need them for a movie I'm planning.

Nico: Sure thing, Wolfcastle.

Nico opened his closet and looked through it. Suddenly, Nico high-kicked Wolfcastle in the face. Wolfcastle stumbles backwards and bows, pained. Nico then brings his foot down on Wolfcastle's head. Wolfcastle stands up, haggard, and the final blow comes - a rain of pencils, nailing him to the wall. Nico's body shakes as he lowers the cup and the last few pencils fall out.

Wolfcastle: I would've taken a simple no for an answer.

Everyone just saw the whole incident and look at Nico, shocked.

Lori: Nico, I understand that we can be reckless and angry in battle. But that doesn't give you the right to hurt us!

Nico: But…

Wolfcastle: (holds his injured head) How can someone as pure hearted as Nico do something like this? I ask you.

Lily: We're just as shocked as you are about this.

But then the Masters of Evil came.

Lincoln: What are you guys doing here?

Larxene: We're shopping for a few supplies. (glares at him) So you guys better stay out of our way. Got it?

Suddenly, Poromon throws the doors to the mall wide open with Nico walking in with him. He is dressed sharply in a black leather jacket and with black sunglasses. Leni cowers. Poromon takes a can of soda and cracks it open. Knowing that Nico will protect him if the Loud's go on the offensive, he thwacks Lisa and slaps Luan, sending her spinning. Nico continues walking and the Loud's back away from me.

Nico: Where are you guys going?

Poromon: (mockingly) Yeah! Where are you guys going?

Jimbo: That's my hot dog, I saw it first!

Bart: No way, I saw it first!

Bart and Jimbo are fighting over a hot dog.

Jimbo: In your dreams, loser.

Bart: I had first dibs, before you showed up.

Jimbo: Gimme it!

Bart: No!

Jimbo: Gimme it!

Bart: What are ya, deaf?

Jimbo: Let go, dork!

Bart: It's mine!

Jimbo: Ask me if I care!

Nico approach the arguing couple.

Nico: C'mon! I'm sure there's a simple way we can compromise about this.

Bart begins to sweat. Nico reached up and smacked him into Jimbo. Jimbo topples over, throwing Bart off. Bart flies into a wall and lands on the ground.

CRASH!

Bart: Have I stopped yet?

[Nico is currently holding the defeated Jimbo.]

Poromon: Who's next! [He sings La Cucuracha.] Ba, da da da da da da da da da, da da da da da da da da da, da da da da da da da, da da da da da da!

Luna: Oh, man.

Laney: "Not cool."

Lucy: [cowering] Viciousness, thy name is Nico Chan.

Poromon: Ole! [He throws confetti at Nico.]

Nico: Please, let me explain!

Poromon: Yeah, let him!

Lola: What the Hell did we do to deserve your wrath?!

Nico: There's been a great breach of judgement!"

Poromon: Yeah! Breach the hell out of em, Nico!

Nico: Things aren't as they appear!

Kalin: (scared) WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM US, YOU MANIAC!

Nico: (to Maria) Maria? You certainly can't believe- [Carmen, wearing an angry look on her face, steps in front of Maria]

Carmen: "Stay away! Stay away from my big sister, you bully! [uses a chair to back him up.]

Nico: Carmen! We're friends!"How can you say that?"

Carmen: (presses the chair into Nico's face): We're not friends anymore! I'm not going to be pals with a violent thug like you!

They both break down and cry.

Nico: [tear-filled] I'm ending this now! [He grabs the end of the chair.]

Carmen: AAAAH! [The beatdown begins] Holy schmoly! [Carmen goes flying and leaves her imprint on the ceiling] Oh, Help me! Uncle! Uncle! [The mall is torn up by the fight.] I surrender!

Nico: (shocked by what happened) Guys, I can explain-

Rich Texan: (scared) C'mon now! We don't want any trouble!

Nico: (looks at his hands) Are CLU and Carver right? Is me being an enforcer only hurting my friends?

Ashamed, Nico summoned Vulture's wings and fly off.

Poromon: (looks at the Loud's smugly) Maybe now, you'll respect Nico's wishes when he tells you guys not to be reckless and angry!

I arrived.

Me: Hey guys.

I gasped when I saw the destruction.

Me: Holy fucking shit! What the hell happened in here? It looks like it was ruined by a tornado.

Lincoln told me everything.

Me: (GASP) Oh man! Lincoln, he's just doing his job.

Lola: You know what? We're better off without Nico.

May: Say what?

Lynn: Lola's right! If he's gonna hurt us like this, then he shouldn't be on the team anymore!

That was the last straw for May.

POW!

Because she punched Lynn in the face, making everyone gasp in shock! Lynn got a nasty black eye.

Lori: May, what the Hell are you doing?!

May: You guys were the ones who pushed Nico to become enforcer! If you guys hadn't been so reckless and angry in past battles, maybe none of this would've happened!

Lincoln: I think we've been through enough therapy because of our anger issues and recklessness!

May: Maybe that wasn't enough therapy!

Me: I still believe in Nico.

May: Thanks, J.D. But you have some blame too.

Me: Why!? I was away and got back less than a minute ago.

May: Oh yeah. Where did you go though?

Me: I got called in by Lady Hokage to help the Leaf Shinobi with killing some pirates that were causing mayhem down in Somalia.

Yumi: May's right. You were pretty angry and reckless yourself in past battles.

May: Oh. wow. Big job. C'mon, guys. Let's go. (she, Yumi, Gwen, Sarah, Jen, and Tara start to leave)

Me: Where are you girls going?

May: To find Nico. Because that's what friends do.

Sarah: I'm pretty sure you guys still think of Nico as a friend.

Gwen: When you guys are ready to find Nico, you know where to find us.

Yumi, Gwen, Sarah, and May leave to find Nico.

Tara: Sorry, guys. But they're right.

Maria: Can I come too?

Jen: Sure, Maria.

With that, Tara, Maria, and Jen set out to find Nico as well.

Dark Spicer: (To the Loud Kids) I think you guys screwed up big time.

Lola: How exactly did we screw up?

Firefly: You know full well that Nico would never do anything bad to you guys.

Lincoln: You guys really aren't in any position to criticize us. No offense, but you guys are villains.

Electro: Well, maybe we aren't the bad guys in this situation!

Shiv: And unlike what you all did, we don't abandon our own!

They left.

Ben: J.D., Nico didn't do this on purpose.

Me: How do you know that Ben?

Ben: Let me show you.

He turned into Clockwork.

Ben: (Swedish Accent) CLOCKWORK!

He used his Time Rewind View ability and took us to the time when Rainier Wolfcastle asked for a pencil and we saw Nico getting one.

Nico: [Searching for his pencils, he knocks a container of Liquid White onto the floor. Stepping on it, he slips, and his foot slams into Wolfcastle's chin. His shirt catches on a hook in his locker, and his foot comes down on Wolfcastle's head. The shirt then yanks him back. He snaps forward afterwards, and the pencils in his cup fly forward, pinning Rolf to the locker.]

Me: Geez! That was a total accident.

Clockwork: Here's what happened earlier at lunch.

The time rewound to Nico offering to share the hot dog with Jimbo and Bart.

[In the flashback, Nico reaches into his backpack and stabs his finger on the fork. His hand leaps out, hitting Bart. This leads to the destruction seen earlier.]

Me: OOH! That was another accident!

Clockwork: And here's the scene from yesterday while you were gone.

Clockwork showed me what went down yesterday and we saw Mathis about to be smashed by Lynn and Nico was doing his job as chief enforcer that I gave him and I saw Lynn slip on a puddle that wasn't there before when she broke her arm.

Me: That puddle was not there before. Someone put it there.

Clockwork: How can you tell?

Me: The splash pattern of that puddle was not made by a dripping pipe or from a mop. It was planted there by someone pouring water onto the floor on purpose.

Clockwork: Lets see who made it.

Clockwork rewound it further and we saw that it was ROTWOOD!

Me: Rotwood! So he is trying to make Nico look like a total accident prone jinx!

Clockwork: So it would seem. Here's what happened just a few minutes before you came into the mall.

Clockwork showed me the destruction that took place at the mall 2 minutes before I came in.

[Nico grabs the chair and pulls at it. Carmen falls onto him. Carmen, panicking, then begins to scream, and runs around, destroying the lunchroom as she runs.]

Past Carmen: "Uncle! Uncle!"

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Clockwork: No kidding.

Ben reverted back and we were in the present.

Me: We got to gather everyone. Nico is in terrible danger!

Ben: Right!

We went to gather everyone.

---

Nico was sitting on a rock in total sadness. Suddenly without warning, 4 figures charges at Nico in a fury, looking for all the world like a bunch of mad dogs. Nico is completely helpless against the berserk figures; a thug through happenstance, he has no idea how to defend himself against the onslaught. When the dust cleared 45 minutes later, Nico was lying on the ground in excruciating pain, bruised and all over and looking like he lost a fight with a crazed superhero. The figures standing over him were none other than Rotwood, Morton, Squidward and Master Frown.

Nico: You know what? Go ahead and kill me. I've got nothing to live for now. No one wants anything to do with me. Even my own friends have abandoned me.

Morton: Oh, boo hoo!

Frown: We have just the weapon to kill you.

Rotwood: (takes out carbonadium sword) This is a carbonadium sword. It can kill Wolverine even with his healing factor. So it could kill you as well.

Squidward: Say hi to Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul for us, Chan!

Just as Rotwood was about to stab Nico…

BANG!

I fired a rifle bullet and blew the sword of out his hands!

Me: The game is over Rotwood!

Vince: I can't believe you would do this to Nico!

Lola: We're taking Nico back!

Squidward: You want this moron back after everything he did to you guys? You're really asking to get hurt again, aren't you?

Maria: No, Squidward. Both of our two groups just have something the four of you don't. Respect and trust in our teammates!

Me: That's right!

Suddenly they were experiencing excruciating pain. We saw the Cobra Marks move and I saw 30 more days go away.

Me: 22 more months left.

Squidward: We will be back!

They ran away.

We got Nico up and he was healing because of Sabretooth's Accelerated Healing.

May: You ok, sweetie?

Nico: I'm fine.

May: Good. (slaps Nico) That's for trying to get yourself killed!

Me: And this… (kicks Nico in the balls) Is for making us worry.

Nico: OW! Well, it's not like I can go back home. Since you guys don't want me around.

Me: That's not true Nico. You are just as important to us as you are to anyone.

Myotismon: That's right Nico. I want to tell you something. You are the most formidable adversary I've ever faced in both the Digital World and here on Earth. You have defeated me in both worlds and that makes you one of the most amazing archenemies I've ever had. You are also there for your friends whenever you need them, you love May just as much as J.D., Bart and Lincoln love all of their wives. You have a heart of gold and you are a powerful and amazingly awesome force of good.

Nico realized that Myotismon was right.

Nico: Thanks for those words, Myotismon.

Myotismon: Don't mention it.

Tai: (smugly) First, you're a dictator trying to conquer the Digital World. And now, you're giving advice?

Myotismon: Don't push it. I'm not going soft.

Nico: (to the others) So, you guys forgive me. After what I did to you guys?

Everyone nodded and hugged him.

Me: Aww.

Lynn Sr.: How about we go to my resturant to celebrate Nico choosing to stay?

Drakkon: Count me in. I could use some lunch after a day like today.

Me: Me too.

Eddy: I'm noticing a sense of deja vu here.

Kevin: Me too dude.

Nazz: We all are.

Jimmy Devlin: Yeah.

---

We later went to Lynn's Table for a good lunch.

Lori: And would you like to have sweet potato fries with that?

Frankie Billy: Uhh…

Lori: [gives Lincoln an order] Lincoln, order… [Lincoln stretches his hand out, and gets the order]… up.

Lincoln: [is reading order] One double New Orleans Sausage Sandwich with everything on it, one order of sweet potato fries, one… [looks confused at order] Lori, what size of sweet potato fries are these?

Frankie Billy: Uhh…

Lori: Large.

Lincoln: Comin' right up! [Lincoln rubs the order ticket on Lori's head then disappears to the kitchen. Cooks the sausage's with steam rising up as Lincoln brings the sweet potato fries. Brings the order but Lincoln slips in a puddle of grease, the order flies into the customer's face]

Frankie Billy: Now that's what I call fast food! [eats on his way out]

Me: Lincoln are you all right?

Lincoln: I think so.

Lynn Sr.: Are you all right son?

Lincoln: Uh.. Yeah dad I think so. I was bringing the customer's order, and then I slipped and fell in this grease slick. I think I may be hurt real bad.

Me: Hmm.

Lynn Sr.: Grease slick, eh? [opens the shaft door]

Lincoln: Ooh… what is it?

We saw a massive tank full of grease.

Lynn Sr.: That son is a grease trap.

Me: That is huge grease trap!

Lily: That is just as big as the Grease Trap at the Krusty Krab.

Lori: No kidding.

Nico: That is a mondo trap.

Lincoln: Kinda looks like nobody has cleaned out the trap for awhile.

Me: I agree.

Lynn Sr.: You know guys, you're right. But, that's a big job.

Lincoln: Yeah!

Me: I'm up for it.

Lori: Me too.

[A tanker is parked out side with a tube connected to the grease trap]

Lynn Sr.: Hmm… Nothing's coming out.

Lily: Dad, can I see that? I saw SpongeBob do this once. [sucks the tube in order to get the grease out but nothing come out] mmm…

Yeah maybe I wasn't doing it right. [grease spews out onto Lynn Sr.'s face] Oh never mind! I was. [fills up the tank] Yeah.. Nothing like a long night siphoning grease to put some hair on your chest, Eh dad?

Me: You said it Lily.

Lincoln: Yep.

Lily: Well Now we got the ol' grease trap cleaned out, what do you think we should do with all this excess grease?

Me: Well usually they bury it underground. They can't take it to the dump, it'll catch on fire and draw bugs from all over.

Lynn Sr.: Hmm.

[scene cuts to Lynn Sr. sitting next to Lincoln, who is driving a tanker truck filled with grease]

Lynn Sr.: Right behind there. [Lincoln pulls up behind the Pasta Bowl, presses 'SPILL' button, and grease spills out] Alright. Let's get out of here! [Lincoln drives away]

Lincoln: Dad, are you sure that was… legal?

Lynn Sr.: I think so.

[scene cuts to the front of the Pasta Bowl and then behind it. Door with 'DO NOT ENTER' sign opens and Ophelia Shroud walks out, humming, and carrying a garbage can]

Shroud: [slipping on grease] Wyaagh! [Shroud falls on greasy ground] What the? [Trash can falls, scaring Shroud] This is the most bizarre precipitation I've ever slipped and fallen in. [sniffs grease] Eeeaugh! It reeks! [tastes grease] But it tastes delicious! [looks at greasy ground] Darn it, I almost had an idea! [sits and sulks] Oh, I do. I do have an idea! [maniacal laughing]!

Selena: Shroud!

Shroud: Coming dear.

[Later there is a long line going to Pasta Bowl and Lynn Sr. is behind it from Lynn's Table's window.]

Lynn Sr.: Somethin' is terribly wrong guys

Me: Why do you say that Mr. Lynn?

Lynn Sr.: Ophelia Shroud has had a line of customers… all morning!

Me: Looks like business is booming.

Nico: We better go check it out.

Lynn Sr.: [goes to Pasta Bowl] Excuse me! Excuse me! Comin' through! [walks by three chewing fish. Stops by the sign] What the? [puts on reading glasses] Try Ophelia Shroud's… new delicious… Chummy Pasta… now with edible flavor?

Me: Hmm.

Nico: Something doesn't smell right.

Lynn Sr.: [sniffs air] Clearly something chummy is goin' on here.

Shroud: [in Pasta Bowl] Next Pastamer, please. [sees us and is a little surprised] Well, Well, Mr. Loud, James Dean Knudson and Nicolas Chan.

Me: Ophelia Shroud.

Nico: Little Ophelia.

Lynn Sr.: Save the formalities for your mother Shroud! You stole my recipe books, and I want them back!

Shroud: Oh sorry to disappoint, Mr. Loud, but I've done no such thing. I'm simply using a gift somebody left me to make my chum taste good.

Nico: A gift?

Me: What kind of gift?

Shroud: Sheh! It's almost like I got a personal visit from the Flavor Fairy! Oh and Nico, I heard what happened a few hours ago. I'm impressed you managed to hurt the Loud Kids. Too bad you didn't hurt their father as well!

Me: Don't remind him. We get enough trouble from Rotwood and his posse.

Lynn Sr.: [stunned, but then a little aggravated] Be that as it may, Shroud! It takes two to tango.

Shroud: Wha?

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: I don't like where this is gonna go.

[scene cuts to Lynn's Table's kitchen]

Lynn Sr.: [opens door] Lincoln! Stop what you're doing!

Lincoln: But dad, I'm not doing anything!

Lynn Sr.: Never mind that now, I've got some new directions for you. From now on, I want you to fry up two menu items for every item we sell! One for the item itself and the a second item just for the grease. Then, [picks up a burger patty and starts scraping it of with spatula] slather the grease from the burger patty onto the first one and [tosses the patty away] Voila! It's a deluxe item with extra flavor! [Lincoln burns eye from grease coming on it]

Lincoln: [holding eye] Dad, do you think it might be kinda… unhealthy to be feeding people all this grease?

Lynn Sr.: Well you're right son. But unfortunately we can't let Ophelia Shroud win.

Lincoln: I know dad.

[Scene cuts to outside]

Lynn Sr.: Lil' lower! Lil' more! More! Lil' more! Okay, A little to the left now! Up a bit! Okay wait, that's too far. Alright, alright, perfect, right there!

Me: What are you doing Mr. Lynn?

Lynn Sr.: Just hangin' a new sign, J.D. [worker unveils sign that says 'Now Serving! DELUXE Lynn's Table!']

Me: Deluxe Lynn's Table. Interesting.

Lynn Sr.: Shh! Okay, a little higher now!

[scene cuts to the front of the Lynn's Table]

Harold: Hey, look at that!

Nat: What?

Harold: There! Right up there!

Nat: Where? I don't see anything!

Harold: A little to the right…

Nat: Oh okay, I see it!

Harold: [to crowd] There's an new sign up at Lynn's Table! It says they're serving something called a deluxe items.

Nat: That sounds delicious!

Harold: You're telling me, I'm gonna try one! [runs to the Lynn's Table and then whole line of fish runs to Lynn's Table.]

Shroud: Next Pastamer in line, please! [zoom out of empty Pasta Bowl] Hello? [seat falls over]

[scene starts in Lynn's Table, and the screen darts to the right]

Frankie Billy: These are delicious!

Norma: Right! I can't imagine what makes them taste so good! [bites into deluxe Lynn's Table Po-Boy]

[we see a huge eye]

Shroud: [puts down telescope] Well, well, well, now I do see what Mr. Loud meant when he said two could play that game. But he's a bigger fool than he realizes if he thinks old Shroud it gonna take this one lying down! [looks down, and stands up] Uhhh… Meh.

Harold: Man am I stuffed!

Frank: Me, too! But that deluxe Po-boy was so deliciously good, I'm gonna get another one!

Harold: Sounds like a plan!

Nat: Hold it, what's that sign say?

Frank: It looks like it says, "NEW: ULTRA CHUMMY PASTA PACKED WITH QUADRUPLE TASTY GOODNESS!" [all three people look at each other, then get out of their tables and run to Pasta Bowl]

[there is a long line at Pasta Bowl, and the scene darts to the right, with Lynn Sr. standing in front of Lynn's Table]

Lynn Sr.: Quadruple goodness?! [mumbles] We'll see about that. [in Lynn's Table, we see Lincoln, sweating and cooking items] Keep the grill goin' nonstop to crank out as much grease as possible!

Lincoln: Okay dad. I never turn the grill off, but I can turn it off even less than that if you want.

Lynn Sr.: Uhh… I already see the… [slips on grease] Whoa! [clattering sound] Jumping Junipers! [picks up greasy bun] Eeeagh! What in the name of the love of cooking is this?

Lincoln: Sorry dad. I accidentally dropped some buns into our vat of extra grease. They've been soakin' there for about an hour. [Lynn Sr. smiles]

[sign outside Lynn's Table that says: "New! Yummy Bunz over an Hour of flavor in every bun"]

Shroud: Yummy Bunz huh? Well you're gonna have to try a lot harder than that Mr. Loud, once the hungry public hears about MY newest creation.

Selena: Creation? My scanner shows that's nothing more than a burnt grease crumb.

Shroud: You're right! And it's packed with flavor!

[cut to a sign outside the Pasta Bowl that says "Crispity Crunchities Fried grease crumbs packed with flavor". Cut again to Lynn's Table where Lynn Sr. walks by Lori with pure grease on a plate]

Lori: P.U, dad!

Lynn Sr.: Huh?

Lori: Don't you literally usually flush that stuff down the toilet?

Lynn Sr.: This is our latest product! It's pure grease in a bowl as soup.

Vanitas: You guys won't really close Lynn Sr's restaurant because of the grease, will you?

Lincoln: Of course not. We nearly made one mistake today. We're not making another one.

Me: Yeah. Also eating pure grease is like asking for a heart attack.

[cut to a sign that says, "New! Wow! Soup only at Lynn's Table". Cut again to Lincoln in the kitchen preparing some soup]

Lynn Sr.: Lincoln! Get those seven orders of Wow soup out to table 3 pronto! We gotta keep these customers happy or Shroud will steal them back!

[Lincoln walks out with the soup to find that the entirety of Lynn's Table is covered in grease and the customers look horrible. A man walks by Lincoln covered in grease]

Frank: Are you going to eat that?

Lincoln: It was supposed to be going to table 3.

Frank: Okay.

Lynn Sr.: [startles Lincoln] Lincoln! [Lincoln flips the plate over and the grease lands back in the bowl]

Lincoln: Sir yes sir!

Lynn Sr.: Are you gonna get that soup served to table 3 or are you gonna wait til it gets up and walks there itself?

Lincoln: Actually, dad, I've been thinking. And well, don't you think maybe this whole grease thing has gone a bit too far? [Lynn Sr. laughs]

Lynn Sr.: You know what I think son? I think you should be thinking about NOT thinking and get back to work! [Leni and Lana stumbles in fat and grease-covered]

Leni: Gotta… Have… Crunchity… Munchities… [Leni falls over and Lincoln runs to her side]

Lincoln: Leni!

Me: Okay this has got to stop!

Ed: I don't mind the grease (licks it)

Lana: Me neither. It's delicious! (Licks it)

Lisa Loud: Luckily I came prepared.

Lisa pulled out a special vacuum she made and it sucked up all of the grease like someone drinking soda through a straw. It was all gone in an instant.

Me: Nice job Lisa!

Laney: Way to come through Lisa.

William: Well, Mr. Lynn, I hope you learned something from all this.

Lynn Sr.: I sure did. Never use grease unless you want people to die.

Me: Good way to put it.

We laughed.

Unfortunately Ophelia Shroud's restaurant was shut down because of health code violations from the grease wars.

Me: (To the viewers) Worrying about your health is just as important as anyone else. But never poison your body with grease or you'll be looking at spending so much time in the hospital.

---

Later at the Krusty Krab, Lily was working at the grill.

Mr. Krabs: So your dad was using grease in a grease war with Ophelia Shroud?

Lily: Uch! You should've seen it Mr. Krabs. It was just as gross as the one we had with Plankton before we banished him into space.

Mr. Krabs: That bad? Wow. That is terrible lass. Glad J.D. and everyone talked your dad out of it.

Lily: No kidding. Deja vu.

They laughed.

THE END

Another Land Based SpongeBob episode done.

Greasy Buffoons was really funny! But it was awful that they were using pure fat from Krabby Patties to poison the fish. It was a funny episode though. It aired on November 27th, 2009 and it was awesomely funny! The first part of this chapter is based on the funny episode of Ed Edd N Eddy, A Fistful of Ed. It was funny but this part was sad and depressing. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. The next chapter is for the awesome Disney Pixar Movie from 2006: Cars. Get ready to burn rubber as we help Lightning McQueen and his friends on an awesome race adventure.

See you all tomorrow.

Into a World of Living Cars

In the world of Perim we were there to visit the Mipedim Oasis.

---

The Mipedians are extremely protective of their desert retreat. It is impossible to underestimate the importance of the Mipedim Oasis to Mipedian culture. Many Mipedians fear that, if the oasis ever died, their Tribe would not survive. When Deehna came to the oasis on a diplomatic mission for the OverWorld, she was astounded by the levels of security through which she had to pass. Once admitted to the oasis however, visitors find that the Mipedians are generous hosts.

A phenomenon called Aichlyys occurs in the Forest of Life where its trees and other flora glow with an eerie light. Overworld legends say that this light reveals the true nature of all things in its presence. When the Aichlyys illuminated the northeastern horizon of the desert, the inhabitants of the Mipedim Oasis gathered in a grand "Aichlyys Fest." These celebrations were meant to drive away the evil spirits of Aichlyys, as well as strengthen the Mipedians' bond with the guardian spirits of the desert.

---

Cheetah: So this is the Mipedim Oasis?

Sarah Gunnerson: Yep. It's one of the most beautiful places in all of Perim.

Me: It sure is a beautiful place.

Laney: It's like a perfect oasis.

Lana: What are the Mipedim's capable of?

Mudeenu: Besides invisibility, us Mipedians also have something the other tribes don't.

Rosemon: Which is?

Mudeenu: Have you ever heard of Warbeasts?

We shook our heads for no.

But then we felt massive footfalls and then out of the forests of the oasis came a WARBEAST! It was BLAZVATAN!

---

Blazvatan is a Mipedian War Beast.

Within the Mipedian Tribe, a group of Mugic users call themselves simply the "Conjurors." They use the raw Mugical Energy that flows throught Perim to conjure immense Warbeasts. Blazvatan is the mightiest of the Warbeasts, but at the same time the least stable. Many Conjurors are required to control and sustain him. The Mipedian Conjurors have never summoned a mightier Warbeast than Blazvatan, but no one knows what the future may bring.

Background Information

Blazvatan was created by the Conjurors of Old. However, they failed to properly control him, and Blazvatan went on a rampage that threatened the survival of the Mipedians. When they were disbanded Blazvatan spent eons in the world between worlds, until the young Adomo revived the order of the Conjurors. Ever since, Blazvatan and the other Warbeasts have protected the Mipedian Tribe time and time again. Due to his high recklessness, it usually takes more than conjuror to summon him. His current conjuror seems to be Fivarth.

When the M'arrillians invaded Rao'Pa Sahkk, Blazvatan was summoned to try to repel the invaders. Unfortunately, the M'arrillian Chieftain Ihun'kalin brainwashed Savell, who made the Warbeasts even more reckless, forcing the Conjurors to send him back to the world between worlds.

Later in the War, Blazvatan would be utilized once again against the M'arrillian forces that besieged Kiru City. He was summoned by Drimesse, Fivarth, and a recently freed Savell. Alongside Uboraan and Titanix, the three warbeasts nearly succeeded in scattering Phelphor's troops, until reinforcements lead by the M'arrillian Chieftain Aval'par arrived to assist Phelphor's depleted army. The new forces exhausted the Conjurors, and were eventually forced to send Blazvatan back, or else he would go completely reckless. However, the Dryland forces would eventually win when Takinom arrived with her own troops, destroying Phelphor's battalion.

Blazvatan was later summoned by Savell to disrupt the Perithon.

* * *

Ramjet: That's a Warbeast?! It's as big as a Kaiju!

Me: No kidding! Unbelievable!

Sarah Gunnerson: The Warbeasts are powerful. But they're difficult to control without a Conjurer.

Slingshot: Are they really that bad without a Conjurer to control them?

Sarah Gunnerson: Yes.

We got to know what the Warbeasts were like and they were incredibly powerful and immensely savage and they were all brawn and no brains.

Later back at the estate, we were watching one of my favorite movies from 2006: Cars. It was awesome!

* * *

The movie opens in the last race of the 2006 Piston Cup Season and championship in the Motor Speedway of the South, where a skilled but arrogant rookie racecar, Lightning McQueen, has overtaken his opponents, avoided a huge wreck, and built up a huge lead over the cup's defending (but soon retiring) seven-time champion, Strip "The King" Weathers, and perennial runner-up Chick Hicks. However, because of his refusal to make regular pit stops and get new tyres, his rear worn tyres burst into flames on the final lap, causing him to skid and ultimately crawl to the finish line, barely managing to tie the King and Chick Hicks in a photo finish by sticking his tongue out at the finish line. Race officials announced that because the three racers are also tied in overall season points they will compete in one final tiebreaker race to be held at the Los Angeles International Speedway in one week to determine the champion.

While traveling down Interstate 40 to California, Lightning becomes separated from Mack, his transport truck, and while trying to catch up becomes lost on U.S. Route 66, catching the attention of the local Radiator Springs Sheriff in the process. A chase ensues, during which Lightning crashes and gets tangled in wires, damaging part of the town's main street in the process.

Lightning is taken to traffic court, where the town's attorney, Sally Carrera, pleads against Lightning. He is sentenced to repave the road using "Bessie", an asphalt-laying machine. Only interested in leaving and extremely furious, he makes an escape attempt before being hooked up, only to discover that his gas was siphoned. Lightning rushes through his first day of paving and the new road surface is so bumpy, unusable, uneven, and poor that he is instructed to scrape it off and start over again.

When Doc Hudson offers Lightning a deal - beat Doc in a race around Willy's Butte and he is free to go - Lightning eagerly accepts. He leaves Doc in the dust at the starting line, but loses control on the loose dirt turn and crashes into a cactus patch. While the town's tow truck, Mater, hauls Lightning out of the cactus patch in which he landed, Doc effortlessly cruises to the finish line after informing Lightning that he races like he fixes roads. Lightning is compelled to scrape off the botched pavement and start over again.

As the ensuing days pass, Lightning is disturbed by nightmares of Chick Hicks winning the Piston Cup and landing Dinoco. He starts to befriend the town's residents and learn more about the town in the process: how Radiator Springs was once a thriving town until completion of the nearby interstate bypassed the little town, depriving it of its business traffic and visitors (and ironically, depriving those passing visitors of the natural beauty found in the scenery along the old highway); how Sally left behind her rich but unhappy life as an urban lawyer; what "tractor tipping" (a parody of cow tipping) is; and how Doc Hudson was once a famous racecar himself (the "Hudson Hornet") - and 3-time Piston Cup champion - until a horrible crash in 1954 ended his racing career.

Doc bitterly refuses to reveal much about his past (despite Lightning witnessing him expertly drifting through the loose dirt of Willy's Butte where Lightning crashed), labeling his old trophies as "a bunch of empty cups".

By the time Lightning finishes repaving Radiator Springs's main road, he has formed a bond with the town and its residents. Rather than immediately leaving for California (as he had initially been eager to do), he spends the day touring the town's businesses, receiving a fresh coat of paint and new tires in the process and participates in a cruise party that night. But he is suddenly found, then whisked away in his truck, Mack, without even a chance to bid farewell to Radiator Springs. The town's residents are sad to see him leave, and Sally is angry to learn that it was Doc who ultimately informed the media of Lightning's whereabouts.

The final race among Lightning, The King, and Chick opens with what the race's commentators call the "biggest race in history." Lightning is distracted by his memories of Radiator Springs, losing time to The King and Chick Hicks, and begins to fear he will simply lose. To his surprise, Doc Hudson has arrived at the race, with Mater and a few others from Radiator Springs who will serve as his pit crew; Doc, once again wearing his original "Hudson Hornet" racing stripes, takes over as McQueen's crew chief. With Doc's coaching, a record-fast pit stop for new tires, and a few tricks learned from the small town's inhabitants, Lightning is not only able to overtake his opponents but has built a considerable lead by the final lap.

As Lightning approaches the finish line, Chick sideswipes The King in a desperate attempt to avoid finishing behind him yet again, sending The King into a terrible rollover crash. Lightning, fearing that The King's racing career will end in the same way as did the Hudson Hornet's, comes to a full stop right before the finish line. After Chick gleefully crosses the finish line, Lightning then backtracks to push the veteran racer across the finish line ahead of him, saying that "I think The King should finish his last race". Although Chick Hicks has officially won the Piston Cup, he begins to learn that it's a hollow victory as he is jeered and despised for taking out The King, while Lightning is cheered as a hero for his good sportsmanship. Tex from Dinoco, The King's sponsor company, offers to support Lightning as his new sponsor; but Lightning, having now had a change of heart, respectfully declines, saying that his current sponsor Rust-eze gave him his "big break," and he wanted to continue with them.

Two days after the race, Lightning returns to Radiator Springs, announcing that he will establish his racing headquarters there. This helps to revitalize the town and draw back visitors and tourists, with the once-abandoned Route 66 being reclassified as "Historic Route 66."

---

When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That is so awesome!

Nico: I love the movie Cars.

Lana: It sure is awesome! Cars is one of the movies that got me into the Auto Repair business.

Lincoln: I introduced it to her through Cars and I also helped introduced her to Bobbie Fletcher when we were watching the Racing Channel.

Me: Wow. So that's how Lana knows all about Bobbie Fletcher.

Lola: Yep. It's really cool.

Lana: It sure is.

Nico: But I hate that jerk Chick Hicks.

Me: I do too.

Laney: Yeah. He was a total jerk.

Varie: And a major league cheater.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Lets see what it says about him.

I pulled up Chick Hicks's info.

---

Chick Hicks (also known as Thunder) is the main antagonist of Pixar's 7th full-length animated feature film Cars, and a neutral character in Pixar's 18th full-length animated feature film Cars 3. He is a green race car who appears as the rival and arch-nemesis of Lightning McQueen. He is also the main antagonist of some of the video games.

In Cars, he was voiced by Michael Keaton, who also played Ken in Toy Story 3, Betelgeuse in Beetlejuice, The Vulture in Spider-Man: Homecoming, Carter Hayes in Pacific Heights, Raymond Sellars in the 2014 RoboCop, and V.A. Vandevere in the 2019 live action remake of Disney's Dumbo. In Cars 3, he was voiced by the Pixar employee Bob Peterson, who also played Geri in Geri's Game, Roz in the Monsters Inc. films, Mr. Ray in the Finding Nemo films, and Dug and Alpha in Up. In the Cars 2 video game, he was voiced by Eric Smitt. In Cars 3: Driven To Win, he was voiced by Jude Hilary.

First race

Chick was seen taking a pit stop in the Dinoco 400. Later, he bumps the Transberry Juice racer, showing that he is the main villain. However, he was unexpectedly overtaken by the King, Strip Weathers. Darrell Caltrip and Bob Cutlass showed that Chick was behind him in his entire career, and became more evil when McQueen came in.

The Wreck

Chick was trying to overtake the King but failed, and later had to stop McQueen. He won Round 1, but lost Round 2. Because of this, Chick slams McQueen off the track to get back to the King. To make sure he gets more distance between him and McQueen, he slammed the RPM racer, who hits the Sputter Stop Racer, who hits the Faux Wheel Drive racer, and so on, and causes a massive crash. Unexpectedly, McQueen went through.

In the Pits

When Chick was in the pits, he was in pride till his crew chief told him McQueen went through and told his pitties to go faster, ending up with him being in the back.

Rest of the race

Chick rushed from the back to front to win, and he used his time wisely to win when McQueen lost his tires, but he failed.

Aftermath

Chick later comes in after McQueen's pitties leave. He taunts him, saying that the Piston Cup was his, but McQueen attracted more paparazzi. Later, when the three-way tie scene happens, Chick hosts his evil plan by telling McQueen whoever gets to California first gets Dinoco all for themselves.

Knowing that McQueen wanted to be with Dinoco, he presumably had the Delinquent Road Hazards to keep his driver staying up all night so McQueen may get lost.

When McQueen was lost by Chick's evil plan, the latter steals his fans by stealing how McQueen attracts people and sh-ooze with Dinoco.

When McQueen watches Mack's TV, he sees that Chick stole most of his fans, and stole his catchphrase as "Kachigga" as well.

Final Race

After attracting more fans, he was in the track "Kachigga"-ing McQueen. When the race happens, he slams his door and laughs when McQueen goes out of the track. When McQueen was coming, Chick slams McQueen, but his backward trick made Chick's plan fail. In anger, he burst McQueen's tire, but Guido's record made Chick enraged. Because of this, Chick tries to hit McQueen but misses him, so he slams McQueen and the King off the track, and the latter was about to lose.

As McQueen nears the finish line, Chick, refusing to finish the race behind the King again, sideswipes him, sending the King into a violent crash. McQueen sees the King's condition on a TV monitor, and (recalling Doc Hudson's famous crash) stops just before the line, allowing Chick to win the race. However, as Chick braggingly celebrates his victory, he realizes that the fans (including McQueen's friends) aren't cheering him on because of his notorious act, and instead giving praise to McQueen for his respectful act on helping the King.

Defeat

After McQueen pushes the King to the finish line, Chick comes into the podium and asks for his Piston Cup. Later, he asks for confetti, but to his shock, they slammed him with the confetti instead of using it as a celebration for him. Later, he "Kachigga"s, but the media and his fans booed showing they are unhappy with him winning by cheating and threw discarded tires, debris, and other stuff on him. Chick gets away with the Piston Cup but defeated and possibly chose to retire or got banned from racing for bad sportsmanship. Nevertheless, McQueen is still given applause by his friends and the rest of the crowd for his good sportsmanship, along with the King, and the former is given the opportunity by Tex Dinoco to become their new racer. However, McQueen declines, choosing to stay with Rust-Eze instead, but tells Tex to have Mater ride on a Dinoco helicopter.

Cars 3

Chick is retired and now an announcer for RSN and hosts his own TV show Chick Picks, where he introduces Jackson Storm along with special guest Natalie Certain. When Storm wins the Gears and Glory 450 at the Heartland Motor Speedway, Chick accompanies him on the winner's podium. Later, McQueen watches on Mack's television where Chick and Natalie give a report on Storm beating the record for fastest lap in Piston Cup history at the Florida International Speedway and the possibility of McQueen's retirement. He is not seen again afterward. Despite this, he shows some delight that Lightning lost showing that he might not have gotten over what happened. That said since he hosts his own show he might have gained some of his former fans back. It is also unknown why he became an announcer.

---

We gasped in shock.

Me: Geez! I can't believe he's that dangerous and that arrogant.

Nico: No kidding. I've always hated Chick Hicks. He has no honor.

Jared: My thoughts exactly.

Me: Looks like we have a car going into our newest impound lot.

Vince: Where is that?

Me: In the Saturn Prison. I call it the Saturn Impound Lot.

Laney: Cool!

Me: Sora have you and everyone ever went to the world of Cars?

Sora: Never have. This'll be our first time ever.

Kairi: It sure will be.

Aqua: I can't wait to see this world.

Me: Me too.

The doorbell then rang.

Lily: I'll get it.

Lily went to the door and she saw that it was Bobbie Fletcher and she had her casual clothes on: A red shirt and brown pants.

Lily: Bobbie Fletcher.

Bobbie Fletcher: Hey Lily.

Lily: Is there a race on?

Bobbie Fletcher: Nope. Not this time. I came to go on an adventure with all of you.

Lily: Awesome. We're gonna head into the world of the movie Cars.

Bobbie Fletcher: Wow! That's one of my all time favorites!

Lily: Sweet! Come on in.

She came in and Lana was amazed to have her racing hero with us for this one. We went to the garage and got in our cars. We drove through a portal and we were off to the world of Cars 2006.

---

We arrived in the famous town Radiator Springs and it was awesome.

Me: Wow! Here we are guys. Radiator Springs.

Lana: This is so cool!

Bobbie Fletcher: It sure is.

Nico: This is our first time here in the world of Cars.

We then drove around and we saw the town. We then saw Lightning McQueen!

Laney: There's Lightning!

Lana: Wow!

Lincoln: So awesome!

We got out of our cars and went up to him.

Lightning McQueen: Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an awesome honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same to you Lightning. We love all yours races and they are awesome.

Lana: We love how you win all the time and it's awesome.

Laney: Yeah.

Lightning McQueen: Thanks guys. (Sees Sora) Wow! The famous keyblader Sora. It's such an honor to meet you.

Sora: Same here Lightning. It's our first time ever in this world.

Me: Are we the first ever humans to visit this world?

Lightning McQueen: You sure are. It's awesome having you all here.

Me: It's an honor as well.

Lightning McQueen: My next race in the Piston Cup is coming up and I'm gonna show that monster Hicks what for.

Maria: Listen, Lightning. There are a few things in life besides winning races.

Lightning McQueen: Really? Like what?

Me: Like love, friendship, virtue and honor.

Lightning McQueen: Wow. I didn't know about that.

Me: Yeah it's tough but you can win if you follow your heart and believe in what you stand for.

Nico: Yep.

Me: The path to winning doesn't come from what you stand for alone, it comes from what you believe in and what you follow in your heart.

Lightning McQueen: Wow. I never looked at it that way.

William: We can convince Doc Hudson and the rest of the town to be lenient on you. But only if you let us train you for the Piston Cup race.

Lightning McQueen: Sure. Even though I probably won't make it on time.

Me: Don't worry. We'll get you there on time.

Mater: Let me help too.

Lola: Wow! Mater! It's an awesome pleasure to meet you.

Mater: Same to all of you guys.

Me: You too Mater.

We got to work on helping Lightning and Mater. We equipped them with all our powerful tools and weapons that were now in our cars and awesome things and we got Bobbie Fletcher's car the same upgrades. It was awesome and epic.

We were ready.

Lightning was looking at his upgrades.

Lightning McQueen: Wow! These are awesome!

Mater: They sure are.

Bobbie Fletcher: These upgrades are amazing! I saw you all use these in the races you all do and they are amazing.

Nico: Yep. They are the most amazing upgrades we have for our cars.

Marinette: Yep. These are all amazing.

Me: They sure are. We designed them.

Lana: Hey what's that?

We saw a dust cloud coming.

Me: Looks like a dust storm.

Lana: That's not a dust storm.

We saw 4 cars coming our way and my Signer Mark was glowing.

Me: Uh oh. It's the Masters of Evil. They are driving new cars.

We saw that it was Vexen, Firefly, Saïx, Carly Carmine and Greiger and they had awesome new cars.

Vexen's car was that of a 2015 Ferrari LaFerrari and it was ice blue and it had his shield on the sides and on his tail foil. It had menacing blue headlights and it had the number -4 on the side and it said Vexen's Absolute Zero Icecruiser.

Firefly's car was that of an awesome 2020 Dodge Viper and it was red and it had awesome flamethrower diesel exhaust pipes and it had flamethrowers all around it. It had fire around it and it had red headlights and it had the number 1800˚ Fahrenheit on the sides. The number was for the temperature of fire. It also said Firefly's Flaming Inferno Cruiser.

Greiger's car was that of an awesome 2020 Lotus Evora GT and it was black with indigo lines on it and it had the Killer Whale Nazca Line on the top, sides and front and it had Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua's tail fin on the back. It had purple headlights and it had the number -444 on the sides. It also said Greiger's Dark Whale Rider on it.

Saïx's car was that of a Lamborghini Murcielago and it was black and it had the phases of the moon on the sides and front. It had Saïx's claymores on the sides and it had the number -7 on it. It also said Saïx's Unstoppable Berserker Moonlight Speeder on it.

They pulled up to us and got out.

Vexen: What's up guys?

Firefly: Fancy seeing all of you here.

Me: Nice wheels guys. Your cars are awesome.

Firefly: Thanks J.D.

Greiger: We have our own race cars for adventures like this.

Carly Carmine: You all know my car.

Me: Yep.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) You all have amazing cars.

Greiger: Thank you Jack. We bought them and modified them ourselves.

Me: How did you do that?

Firefly: In our spare time we're bounty hunters.

Me: That's a very profitable job.

Greiger: It sure is.

Firefly: Hey, Nico. How're you feeling?

Nico: Good. Even though Rotwood's group tried ruining my reputation.

Vexen: Well, the best part is that until the Curse kills them, we can kill them over and over again.

Greiger: Also, after you fight us, can we help you all in the race? We have our own cars that Chick Hicks doesn't know we built.

Me: We can see that. You sure can Greiger. Turns out we all have a bone to pick with Chick Hicks. Or in this case a lug nut.

We laughed.

Lightning McQueen: (Laughs) That's a good one!

Firefly: That was funny. But it is true since this is a world of cars.

Nico: Yeah.

But then 2 figures came out of Vexen and Firefly's cars. The first one was Neon Tiger.

Me: Neon Tiger. Back for round 2 huh?

Neon Tiger: I sure am.

Me: We owe you one for helping us take down Sauron.

Neon Tiger: That was a one time deal.

Vince: I can see that.

Then another figure came out and it was BALM, the second enemy of Sailor Moon!

---

Balm (バーム) is a Youma of Jadeite who enlisted her help upon noticing the energy humans invested in seeking to know their future through clairvoyance. Balm would manipulate her victims by planting a devil tarot card into their victims, which caused them to behave mischievously around people.

One such victim was Umino. Naru recommended that Umino should see a real fortune teller to predict his future. Unfortunately, Umino fell victim to Balm and began to act out of character by attending school without his uniform, eating in front of his teacher Ms. Sakurada, flipping her skirt, distracting her class, pelting rocks at a teacher's office and demanding a kiss from Usagi.

Other students were taken under Balm's control as well, joining in with Umino as they distracted Ms. Sakurada's class and pelted rocks at a teacher's classroom. All these victims were the target of Jadeite's plan to gather the "rebellious energy of the young".

Whilst in disguise, Balm attacks Sailor Moon with her tarot cards, which turned into knives when hurled at her. As a Youma, Balm would use her hair as appendages to grab her opponents, as well as use her victims to defend her. Sailor Moon defeated the youma with Moon Tiara Action after being encouraged by Luna and Tuxedo Mask.

Sailor Moon: Balm!

Shanan: Not this one again.

Qin: Who and what is Balm?

Shanan: She's what's called a Hypnonian from the planet Hypina VII. It's a planet located 12,000 light-years away from Earth. Hypnonians are a race of magic creatures that feed on the good emotions of other creatures and they leave only the evil emotions behind. They use hypnosis and fortune-telling to further feed their goals. Their planet was destroyed when their sun went nova.

Balm: That's right. I remember you knew about that the last time we met Shanan.

Qin: Wow! I didn't know they were that dangerous!

Shanan: They are pure evil.

Laney: I remember that.

Lucy Loud: Same here.

Me, Ben, Riley and Bella got her DNA sample with our Omnitrix's.

Me: It was a good try though.

We laughed.

Sora and Kairi came in and Kairi's belly was getting big. They just came back from the doctors.

Me: How did it go Sora?

Sora: Kairi do you want to tell them?

Kairi: I sure can. I'm expecting twins. A Boy and a Girl!

We cheered for them!

Me: Way to go Kairi!

Sora: I'm so excited.

Nico: Me too.

Kairi: Uh oh.

Me: Whoa!

I used my super speed and got a trash can for Kairi and she threw up in it.

Me: Morning Sickness.

Sora: It's all right Kairi.

Me: It's part of the process. It's natural.

Lori: It's true Sora.

With us was another one of Hunter's friends that he knows from Mexico: Nora Eztli, she is a Mexican of Nahuatl origin. She has long raven black hair tied in a ponytail, has a heart shape face, goldenrod eyes, roman nose, square ears with Aztecan style earrings. She wears a red orange Mexican blouse, blue silk flat front shorts with a Aztecan style belt, tan sandals, and has powers of Fire, Earth, Water, Wind, Lightning, Heat, Firestorm, and Celestial Release.

Ronnie Anne: It's so awesome having you with us Nora.

Nora Eztli: (Spanish Accent) Glad to be here Ronnie Anne. Hunter told me so much about all of you. It's an amazing honor to be here.

Me: Glad you like it so far Nora. Hunter has a lot of friends that he knows from all over the world.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. It's true.

Nico: It sure is.

Nora Eztli: Si.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that there was a big disturbance going down in the Cartwheel Galaxy.

Me: Uh oh. We got trouble in the Cartwheel Galaxy.

Nico: All the way over there huh?

Me: Yep. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

We got on the ship and we were off to the Cartwheel Galaxy.

* * *

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the endless voids of space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2838.9: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to a mysterious planet located in the Cartwheel Galaxy, 500 million light-years away from Earth. Our mission is to investigate this world and find out what is going on and deal with the source of its problems.

Maria: So, are we going to a planet with an alien farm?

Me: We won't know until we get there. But something is telling me that it's gonna be an amazing world.

Nico: I can tell.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

We saw that we were at a planet that looked like Earth and it was a beautiful place. It had a single continent and it was covered in plants, forests, deserts and more.

Me: Wow!

William: What is this place?

Me: It's amazing.

Shanan: I know this planet. It's called Pangaea.

Me: Pangaea, you mean the supercontinent that was made during the Triassic Period, 235 million years ago?

Shanan: Exactly. But this is the planet Pangaea. It's home to a world of Monsters and Humans. But the monsters were made by humans and they have a terrible past.

Me: What do you think it is?

Shanan: We'll find out.

Me: Lets land.

We landed and we were on the planet. It was a beautiful world and it was loaded with all kinds of forests and more.

Me: Wow! It looks so much like Earth.

Then I sensed a tremendous power.

Me: Whoa! Do you guys feel that?

Nico: Yeah. What in the world is emitting that terrible energy?

Me: I don't know. But whatever it is, it's not good. It's evil whatever it is.

Laney: I'm sensing 5 energy signals just as strong and two powerful energy signals just like it. There's also one that's just as strong with them. (Points to the north) That way.

Me: Lets go see.

We went to see. We flew across the landscape and we saw that it was amazing.

Me: Wow. It's so much like Earth. It's breathtaking.

Nico: It sure is a beautiful planet.

Lincoln: Look there.

We saw a campfire and we saw 2 humans, a boy named Genki Sakura and a girl named Holly and we saw 5 monsters. We saw a Golem, a wolf creature called a Tiger, a Hare, Suezo and a Mocchi. And they were in front of a black monolith monster named Monol.

Me: (Gasp) I know this planet. It's the world of Monster Rancher.

Laney: Wow!

We landed.

Me: Hello there.

Genki: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Holly: Wow! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here.

Vince: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Tiger: We have heard so many amazing things about you all.

Mocchi: Chi.

Suezo: It's a pleasure to meet all of you.

Hare: Yeah.

Golem: Golem heard so much about you all.

Me: We get that all the time. We came all the way from Earth to see what is going on here.

Monol: It's part of my story. It's one that is part of a terrible mistake that has plagued this world.

We concentrated and we were taken on a journey into the past. We saw the planet Pangaea years ago.

Monol: Once long ago, there was a planet. And on that planet only one continent. A land called Pangaea. The people of Pangaea have created an advanced civilization. No, in fact an extremely advanced civilization.

We saw that the people of Pangaea lived in a city that was thousands, maybe millions of years more advanced than anything we have on Earth right now. It was far beyond the absolute pinnacle of prosperity.

Monol: These ancients developed a technology that allowed them to create monsters in a laboratory and then store there genetic information. Sealing it in CD-Roms.

We saw them seal a baby hare into a disk and it was an amazing process.

Genki: When the world was one continent. I almost feel like I'm right there. Back in that ancient civilization.

Me: Same here.

Nico: Cool.

Monol: In time this technology became commonplace and was taken for granted. And the monsters, the miraculous result of this wondrous technology became household pets. Created and used for peoples amusement. But not only monsters were created, the technology was used to create whatever believed would make people happy.

We saw that the ancients created all kinds of amazing ships, robots and all kinds of everyday tools unlike anything we have ever seen before.

Monol: Whatever they believed would please them. At the peak of the civilization, it's people believed they were gods. But despite their technology, they were not able to foresee the disasters that attacked the land.

Not even the people of Pangaea despite their advanced civilization were safe from Mother Nature's fury. Volcanoes erupted, tornadoes blew and tsunamis swept away everything in their path.

Me: So not even the people of Pangaea were safe from Mother Nature's fury.

Monol: Correct. All their advancements and civilized conveniences were soon forgotten. The thin veneer of civilization was stripped away and the people became savage.

We saw a huge war break out between a bunch of monsters and humans and it was brutal.

Monol: Fights became battles. And battles became wars. At first it was called The Final War.

We saw an orbital laser destroy much of the civilization with a massive blast that destroyed much of the city.

Monol: But as it went on, 30, 50, 100 years, the cause of the war faded from memory. No one remembered why they were fighting. Only the bitter feelings transferred from one generation to the next and the war continued.

The war raged on with incredibly and indiscriminate fury between monsters and humans like no other.

Monol: One day, countless years after the war had begun, a new monster was created. It was called Moo.

We saw a huge dragon monster and it was a terrifying monster called MOO!

---

Master Moo (also known as Moo) is the main antagonist of the Monster Rancher anime series and Monster Farm Lagoon. His original form is a furred, colossal dragon-like behemoth. Moo is an evil being that was never meant to exist due to him being a collective hatred of sentient beings that was given physical form.

Original Form

Moo's original form is a Dragon-type monster with black skin, white and pink reddish fur, and three-digit claws. He has a pair of golden horn which curved in the same manner with bulls. He has a squat face with a mouthful of sharp fangs (which get even sharper when he has gone berserk) and a pair of bat-like wings upon his shoulders. His tail is long and white, with a red tip, resembling that of a fox's. All in all, Moo resembles a mammal more than he does a reptile due to his form looked like a cross between Godzilla, gorilla, and a fox.

Humanoid Form

After possessing Holly's father, Moo takes on a more humanoid appearance, but is still quite large, nearly bigger than Golem. His appearance in this form resembling General Durahan, except with gold armor with brown highlights, a red and black cape which tied just below his neck and the Baddie Crests rests upon the knot, long white hair, a pure black face with red eyes, a helmet with a single brown spike, and two orange bull-like horns. This "face" is later revealed to be a sort of mask.

Final Form

Moo's final form as result of fusing Durahan and his minions to form a new body resulting him taking appearance of unique variant of a Durahan-type monster called Ruby Knight, massive animated suit of red armor which size were closer with his second form. While his original powers still remains, he can access Durahan powers includes typhoon blade and V-Slash.

Powers and Abilities

Being engineered from Dragon-Type monsters, Master Moo originally had a variety of typical Dragon-Type monster's typical abilities. However, darkness within Moo eventually gave him various dark powers exclusive to him and him alone, fueled by hatred and malice from sentient beings.

Fire Breath: Moo can unleash a stream of fire from his mouth.

Energy Blast: Moo can unleash a powerful beam of concentrated heat at will, be either from his breath or hands.

Flight: In his dragon form, Moo can fly at will.

Limited Aerokinesis: With his wings in his dragon form, Moo can unleash a destructive gust of wind.

God-like Strength: In any form, Moo displayed godlike strength as a dragon.

Claws: In any form except his Ruby Knight form, Moo possesses razor-sharp claws as weapon to tear his foes.

Air Blast: In his humanoid form, Moo can release a focused concussive blast of wind.

Reflex: In his humanoid form, Moo displayed great reflex.

Durability: Moo possesses uncanny ability to shrug off punishments.

Speed: Moo is unnaturally fast that made other monsters except Suzaku the Phoenix looked pale in comparison.

Hatred Manipulation and Absorption: Moo's hatred for his creators for turning him into a living weapon somehow made him gain new powers, that are literally fueled by the hatred within the hearts of sentient beings, within himself.

Corruption Inducement: Moo can brainwashed regular monsters into Baddies at will.

Hatred Empowerment: Moo can channel and feed on other sentient beings' hatred for both nourishment and increasing his powers tenfold.

Dark Resurrection: Moo's hatred-based powers allowed him to turned Lost Disks into Baddies at will.

Ball of Darkness: Moo can conjure a huge destructive ball of concentrated hatred that can destroy a mountain.

Background

Moo is a gigantic Dragon-Type monster that scientists of Pendant Civilization engineered for war centuries ago and intentionally engineered as the most powerful out of all genetically enhanced monsters. As with the rest of monsters in series, Moo was based on monsters that had powers of their own, but amplified and enhanced by scientists for war. However, Moo's bitterness from experiments that turned him into living weapon, and the fact that the said experiment driven by hatred within his creators, led him turned against his masters. For the same reason, his hatred gave him new powers to sense and channel negative emotions from other sentient beings as well as turned regular monsters into first Baddies.

Desperate, scientists from both sides join forces to ask the all-powerful Phoenix called Suzaku for help. Suzaku decided to lend them a hand to stopping Moo, but before that, he had the scientists modify his body so his abilities enhanced to the point where he can exorcise the entire planet of Baddies.

Suzaku fought Moo valiantly, but they ended up trapped in a seemingly everlasting battle, which forces the scientists to make a device to turn all monsters into Mystery Disks called Final Gate. Though aware with risks from the device, Suzaku and the scientists agreed that they had no other choice. So to ensure the success of the device, Suzaku used himself as the beacon to lure Moo into the device's range. Once the device activated, all rampaging monsters turned back into Mystery Discs, whereas Moo become separated with his body as his soul confined within one of Pendants' inactive flying castles alongside his own troops. Suzaku the Phoenix however, suffer greater loss: His spirit that separated from his body split into 5 and separated, with each residing within 5 Mystery Discs that later become main monster protagonists, namely Mocchi, Suezo, Tiger, Golem, and Hare.

Possessing Holly's Father

Eventually, Holly's father found the Mystery Disk containing Moo, and Moo was merged together with him and gained humanoid form. He then gathered several followers, each bearing a crest called the Baddie Crest. The Baddies were the evil monsters that served Moo. The strongest of Moo's servants were the Big Bad Four: Pixie, Gali, Gray Wolf, and Naga. Afterwards, Moo searched fort the Magic Stone as he terrorized the world (which was in the possession of Holly) and wanted to use it to find and regain his original body.

The Searchers (the protagonists, consisting of Genki, Holly, Mocchi, Suezo, Golem, Tiger, and Hare) fought Pixie, and she eventually switched sides. Afterwards, Moo found and kidnapped Holly to take the Magic Stone. Although the others rescued her with the help of Vulcan and the Pirate Dragons, Moo found the way to his original body and arrived at the area.

Retrieving and Return to Original Body

While the Baddies dug through the ice for Moo's original body, the Searchers fought Gali and Gray Wolf. Gali was killed by Mocchi using his Mocchi Cannon attack, and Gray Wolf was killed in 1 on 1 combat with his brother Tiger, who sent his horn through his Baddie Crest. Right after Gray Wolf's defeat, Moo found his original body. His Baddies dug the dragon-like body free of the ice, while Naga attempted to kill the Searchers.

By the time Moo merged with his original body with both Final Gate and the storyteller monster named Monol, the Searchers had already fought Naga, resulting in Naga getting hit with a Mocchi Cannon, hanging onto the edge of his castle on the cliff, and letting go and falling to his death. Moo attempted to invade a village, but was weak against sunlight due to his original body not get used with sunlight and has frozen for so long. When the sun rose, he was seriously weakened, and retreated back to his hideout.

For most of the following episodes, Moo remained severely injured inside his hideout, and sent Evil General Durahan after the Searchers. Many of Durahan's servants were defeated, but he wanted the Magic Stone for himself. Once he got the stone, he betrayed Moo and nearly killed him, but by this time Moo was almost back at full strength. However, his assistant Lilim betrayed him for Moo. The Searchers and Durahan and Lilim fought on Durahan's ship, and in the end, a Weed got the stone and took it to Moo. Durahan's troops, who now served Moo instead of Durahan, shot down Durahan's ship. Durahan killed Lilim before dying himself when the ship crashed.

Rematch with Suzaku the Phoenix

Moo got the Magic Stone and became immune to the sun. He attacked the Searchers just as they found the frozen Phoenix, and mortally wounded Pixie, but was prevented from killing her in a bizarre turn when he saw the true evil of his soul, after absorbing too much hatred. Moo completely lost his mind (symbolized by his original form being trapped in darkness and destroyed, and his eyes turning yellow) and began to go berserk, destroying everything in sight, even his own castle and the Baddies. Pixie was healed when Big Blue fused with her to form Granity, sacrificing his existence in the process. Monol informed the Searchers that the Phoenix was really Mocchi, Suezo, Golem, Tiger, and Hare, and so Genki fused them together.

The Phoenix fought Moo and grabbed onto him. Seeming to regain a part of his mind, Moo realized that he and the Phoenix were destined for eternal combat, and that he couldn't let the Phoenix nor himself exist. At this, the Phoenix and Moo destroyed each other, vanishing in an explosion of light.

Resurgence and Final Battle

In Season 3, the role of antagonist shifts to General Durahan, who is resurrected as a head by a Weed (who in turn becomes a cyborg), and attempts to absorb Moo's soul, which was trapped inside a disk after his death. In the final episode of Season 3, Durahan and his servants, Gobi, Mum Mew, Poison, and Weed, are fused with Moo's soul to form a gigantic warrior, with Moo dominant. Moo sucks the Searchers and Holly's father inside him, during which Mocchi, Suezo, Golem, Tiger, and Hare fused into the Phoenix again. Moo still seemed able to gain the upper hand, but when Durahan and the others give the Phoenix their energy, he is able to attack Moo's soul within, destroying it. The evil is last seen rising into the air and exploding. Thus, Moo was destroyed for good.

Legacy

Although Moo is gone for good, a sample of his DNA revealed to still preserved somewhere in Pangaea as revealed in events of Monster Rancher EVO. People from Warp Dimension later took Moo's DNA and created the cybernetically enhanced clone of him, Second Moo. The creator of Second Moo also stole an artifact originally intended to control original Moo-an anima recorder called Moo's Horn. They then set Second Moo loose on protagonist and he/she must defeat him as the final level boss.

---

Moo was a monster of unimaginable power and terror.

Me: Whoa!

Genki: Tiger is Moo really that big?

Tiger: He is huge and he is terrifying. Someone to stay away from.

We saw the monsters fight Moo. Moo fired a blast of fire from his mouth and obliterated the planes with ease.

Monol: Moo's strength could not be matched. Although he was a living being, he had been created for no purpose but to destroy the enemy. It was thought that whoever achieved control of Moo would win the war.

But then we saw Moo turn on his creators and he blasted them all to smithereens.

Monol: But Moo became his own master. He obeyed no other commands but his own. He had learned how to draw forth and amplify the darkness in the hearts of other monsters.

The monsters under his control were poisoned with his evil and he created his army of minions.

Monol: The scientists who had survived turned their efforts to the creation of a creature capable of stopping Moo. That creature was the Phoenix.

We saw them create a new creature and in a vortex of fire arose the creature of good: THE PHOENIX!

---

Phoenixes are already powerful enough, but the wisdom and power of the Phoenix from the anime series surpasses all others. More than likely, this Phoenix is Suzaku, the legendary Phoenix lord who has been mentioned in legends all over Pangaea for thousands of years.

Legend states that early on in Pangaea's history, before the the Dark Times started, there was a powerful firebird called the Cinder Bird who lived somewhere in Brillia. It was known to show up in times of trouble to help stop powerful monsters who were out of control. The Jills called on it for help when one of their kind became cursed and went on a killing spree. The Cinder Bird came to them and showed the evil Jill the kindness in its heart, turning the Jill good once again and igniting the bird. Many believe that each time the Cinder Bird would help someone, it would burn brighter and longer (Jill tells the Searchers this story in Episode 46).

Another legend says that a mortal king called upon Suzaku to save his ailing daughter. She had a peculiar talent-the ability to communicate telepathically with monsters. Suzaku saw fit to heal the girl using his blood, but made the king promise that if he ever needed her help, the princess would be at his disposal.

Coming of The Dark Lord

Not too long after, a powerful monster calling himself the Dark Lord tried to rise to power using humans' technological modifications on monsters. This was Xevion, who hundreds of years later tried to rise again. What he hadn't counted on was that Suzaku chose this time to call in his favor from the mortal princess. Together, they raised an army of monsters and humans that opposed Xevion and sealed him in a disc (This story is revealed in Monster Rancher 4).

The Dark Times

Unfortunately, this showed humans the capability of using monsters not just as pets, but as weapons of war. Seeing his error in bringing humans into the monsters' quarrel, Suzaku approached the king about his daughter's safety. Together they agreed, and Suzaku sealed the princess inside a mystery disc and hid it away to keep her safe. This disc was found hundreds of years later by a young Shrine master named Cesare, who unlocked it and raised the girl as his daughter, Rio. Unfortunately, nothing could prevent the natural disasters that occurred around the world, creating tension between the existing clans.

Soon, the humans and monsters began fighting territory wars against each other, and it escalated so much that the Pendant civilization began creating more powerful monsters to use as weapons. Moo was their last and most powerful attempt, but he proved to be too much for them. Instead of fighting for their side, he began amassing his own army, using the monsters' hatred for their captors to fuel his cause. Knowing that Suzaku was their only hope, the scientists begged for his help and the Phoenix lord agreed. He allowed them to modify him for the battle, making him a beacon for the Final Gate to latch onto. The Phoenix faced Moo in combat, long enough for the scientists to separate Moo's mind from his body. Unfortunately, that meant that the same happened to Suzaku, and because he was the beacon, his soul recieved the most damage, being split into five pieces. It was believed that the five pieces of the Phoenix's soul fell from the sky and embedded themselves in five mystery discs, which later were revealed as Mocchi (the Phoenix's courage), Suezo (Phoenix's pride), Golem (Phoenix's kindness), Tiger (the Phoenix's anger), and Hare (Phoenix's intelligence). They fuse together into the Phoenix 's frozen body to bring it back to life.

Defeating Moo

But even for this, the Phoenix had a plan. Even though the king from long ago had fallen in the battle against Moo, Suzaku entrusted his descendants with several magical relics called Gaea Stones that would allow them to reunite the pieces of his soul if he was ever again needed. One of these descendants was Holly, who listens to the legends of her people and follows one of the stones throughout the anime series on a quest to revive the Phoenix to stop Moo's new reign of terror. She is finally able to reunite the pieces of the Phoenix, and finds its body frozen in a glacier in Brillia. Using Genki's courage, they ignite the legend once again and battle Moo until their bodies burn up and their souls revert to their previous forms.

After the battle, the Phoenix's essence continued to live inside the five monsters, until it was used to destroy Moo's soul at the end of the anime series. Holly believed that Suzaku's essence was burned up in the battle, but true to form Suzaku rose once again during the events of Monster Rancher 4, being summoned by Rio to help prevent Xevion's return.

---

It was beautiful and majestic. The baddies battled it but they were helpless against its power.

Monol: But Moo and the Phoenix did battle.

It was a powerful battle.

Monol: The scientists created The Final Gate, the way to separate Moo's mind from his body. It was a dangerous machine, one that would affect all monsters. But the people believed they had no choice. It was the only way to stop Moo.

Me: So this was a last resort.

Monol: Yes. The ancient people of Pangaea had a terrible decision to make. If they were to rid themselves of Moo, they knew their solution would harm all monsters. But they had no choice. Otherwise they would all be destroyed.

They activated the machine and it fired a massive blast of rainbow energy. The blast hit Moo and the Phoenix.

Monol: And so Moo's body and mind were separated.

We saw a black blob of darkness come out of Moo's body through his mouth.

Monol: He was destroyed. But so was the Phoenix.

We saw a blob of rainbow light come out of Phoenix as well.

Monol: And all the other creatures.

The machine overloaded and fired a massive blast of energy into the sky and it sent powerful waves that turned all the monsters back into disks.

Monol: The cost was incomprehensible.

But the machines power was so strong that it destroyed much of the land in a massive apocalypse of cataclysmic proportions. Destroying much of Pangaea and obliterating all traces of the ancient civilization. The earth shook, volcanoes erupted everywhere and much of the continent sank beneath the sea.

Monol: That is my story.

Me: Holy shit.

Nico: Unbelievable.

Vince: That is terrible.

Lincoln: This is the price they paid for letting their pride cloud their judgement.

Holly: I didn't know. No one every told me.

Me: It's awful. But now I can see why we were called here. Moo has returned after all these years and we have been brought together to stop him once and for all.

Monol: That's right. You all have the power to destroy him.

Me: Something is telling me that his work is not yet finished.

Monol: That's right.

Me: He has come back because he is gonna finish what he started in the past.

Nico: Then we have to stop him.

Vince: That's right.

Me: Genki, we will find the Phoenix and help you all destroy Moo once and for all. All right team listen up!

I got on the rock.

Me: Moo has come back to destroy this planet with his army of evil and we will not let him do that. We're going to find the Phoenix and make sure that Moo dies once and for all.

Everyone cheered.

Nico: We're with you all the way J.D.

Vince: You can count on us partner!

Me: Awesome!

Genki: You can count us in too J.D.!

Holly: Yeah!

Golem: Golem agree.

Me: All right.

I concentrated and sensed for the energy signal of the Phoenix. Then I found it.

Me: Found it! It's coming from the north.

Holly: That way leads to Mount Kairus.

Me: Then that's where we're heading to. But it's gonna be a perilous adventure.

Genki: A lot of Baddies are gonna be after us and they will stop at nothing to kill us.

Me: And if that happens, they will regret it.

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln: Yeah lets get them!

Qin: We're with you all the way.

Me: Lets head out!

And so the great Quest to find the Phoenix began. We started by arriving at a lake and we saw a beautiful water mermaid monster called an Undine.

Genki: Wow! You're an Undine.

Me: The water elementals of Alchemical Mythology.

Tiger: She's a Baddie!

I saw a Baddie Crest on her shoulder on her dress.

Me: Oh no.

Undine: Master Moo is gonna kill you all!

Me: Not if I can help it!

I fired a massive wave of water at her and Undine fired a massive wave of water as well and the waves of water collided with a tremendous splash!

I then teleported behind her and grabbed her in a hug hold.

Me: Undine, I didn't want to have to do this to you, but it's the only way to save you from yourself.

Undine: Let me go!

Me: I'm going to purify you!

I flared up my rainbow aura and it was sucking out the darkness that Moo poisoned her with and she was freed from his influence. Her Baddie Crest was gone. But then I suddenly felt an incredibly massive energy increase unlike anything I've ever felt before. It felt like when I absorbed all the hatred from the Kisenian Blossom minion and it was 100 times more powerful than that. When it was done, my rainbow aura was now 100,000 times more powerful than ever and it looked like I had a massive rainbow inferno surrounding me and it was overflowing with incredible life energy.

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: Whoa! J.D. your power skyrocketed exponentially!

Me: Moo's darkness that he poisoned Undine with is many times more powerful than that of the Kisenian Blossom minions that I absorbed.

Vince: Unbelievable.

Laney: Wow! What power!

Maria: That is intense.

Me: I didn't even know Moo's hatred was that strong. It's like I absorbed energy from the most powerful ultimate evil in the universe.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Undine: What? What happened?

She got up and saw us.

Undine: Wow. You're Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right.

Undine: You have saved me from myself. I am forever in your debt.

Maria: We did what we had to do.

Me: Undine, would you like to come with us? We're going to find the Phoenix so we can destroy Moo once and for all.

Undine: I would be honored J.D.

Me: How would you like to be partnered with Maria?

Undine: I would like that.

Maria: I'm Maria Rockell, 2nd In Command of Team Loud Phoenix Storm's Redemption Squad.

Undine: Pleasure to meet you.

We got our search back underway and then we had an encounter with Tiger's brother GREY WOLF!

Genki: A Grey Wolf!

Grey Wolf: That's right. Hello brother.

Tiger: Grey Wolf stop this madness! I don't want to fight you!

Lana: I got this!

Lana flew and went onto his back.

Grey Wolf: Get off me you little runt!

Lana: No! I'm going to purify you.

Lana then flared up her blue aura and she sucked out all of the darkness that Moo poisoned him with and she had freed him from his influence. But then, Lana had a rainbow aura flare up and we felt her energy increase exponentially! When it was done, Lana's powers had been enhanced 100,000-fold and her power was now stronger than ever!

Nico: Wow! Lana your power is now enhanced dramatically!

Lana: Incredible! Now I know how J.D. felt.

Grey Wolf got up.

Grey Wolf: You saved me. I am forever in your debt Lana Loud.

Lana: I'm glad I could help you Grey Wolf.

Later we continued on and we met Granity, Genki's friend that he knew as Pixie from before she was tainted by Moo. We then encountered a Pixie, a bunch of monsters came to help us take down Moo once and for all. We saved a lot of Moo's minions from themselves by purifying them and removing the darkness that Moo poisoned them with and we got more powerful by absorbing the darkness they were poisoned with and it made us far more powerful than ever. We also had Poison, Big Blue, and many others. We arrived at Mount Kairus and inside it we found the bodies of THE PHOENIX and MOO! They were frozen in solid ice!

We were shocked and amazed!

Me: Whoa! Phoenix!

Nico: And Moo.

Monol: Yes. When the soul of the Phoenix separated from its body it was divided and it merged with 5 monsters. Those monsters are with you right now.

Tiger: That's right. Those monsters are me, Golem, Mocchi, Suezo and Hare.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: So in order to revive it we have to fuse you 5 into it.

Monol: That's right. Tiger, Mocchi, Suezo, Hare and Golem each carry a piece of the soul of the Phoenix: Mocchi the Phoenix's courage, Suezo the Phoenix's pride, Golem the Phoenix's kindness, Tiger the Phoenix's anger, and Hare the Phoenix's intelligence.

Me: Wow. I have an idea. But it's gonna be risky.

?: And I will have my body back as well!

We turned and we saw MOO! But he was in his humanoid form!

Me: So you are Moo!

Nico: You are not welcome here Moo!

Naruto: I can't believe that you are out to destroy everything in this world. It's pure evil.

Me: That's right bro.

But then I sensed another presence inside him.

Me: (In my head) (Gasp) I sense that Moo's evil spirit has possessed a man and he has taken over him. If I can remove that man from Moo, he'll be free. (Out loud) Who is the man that you have control over!?

Holly: That's my father!

We gasped in shock!

Me: Moo has your father!?

Nico: Oh man!

Me: Why have you taken her father!?

Moo: (Evil Laugh) Why else? So I can feel her loathing. Betraying my own flesh and blood will only strengthen my evil soul.

Me: Your evil soul is one filled with lies and evil. It's all nothing but an endless void of darkness. One big void of lies.

Moo: (Evil Laugh) You think it's all lies, but it's all true. I feed on hatred and it builds my power.

Me: What a coincidence, so do we. And it only makes our light far more powerful than ever. Now let Holly's father go!

I fired a powerful blast of light energy and it hit him and pulled him out of Moo and he was back to his normal self!

Holly: Father!

Holly's father: Holly! Thank goodness.

Me: Now you are next Moo.

Professor Calamitous, Ebon and Larxene then appeared.

Me: Calamitous, Ebon and Larxene.

Professor Calamitous: Yes it is us.

Larxene: Now you will face our wrath 100-fold.

Calamitous: Lincoln, we just want to congratulate you for winning the race with Lightning.

Lincoln: Thanks, Calamitous.

Eddy: The King finished the race with them as well.

Me: Yep. And he retired that day.

?: It was a good race though.

We saw a figure came out and it was GENERALISSIMO from episodes 20 and 21 of Operation Overdrive!

---

A monster who assisted Kamdor and Miratrix in a museum robbery to retrieve what they thought was another jewel of the Corona Aurora. The jewel just turned out to be an "ordinary" rare ruby. The Rangers came in and Kamdor, Miratrix and the monster does battle with the Rangers, he battles all of the Rangers at once at first and later does battle with Ronny and Rose, but was quickly out match when Mack and Tyzonn came into battle, this monster was destroyed by Tyzonn using the Drive Detector.

---

Mack Hartford: Generalissimo!

Generalissimo: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You assisted Kamdor and Miratrix in a museum robbery to find the Jewel of the Corona Aurora. But that jewel was just a really rare ruby.

Generalissimo: That's right. You watched us on TV haven't you?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Ed: So, what kind of monster are you?

Generalissimo: A monster that resembles new chalk and a sextant.

Eddy and Ed then laugh at that last word.

Generalissimo: What's so funny?

Me: They think a Nautical Navigation device called a Sextant is funny.

Generalissimo: I see.

?: He's not the only one.

We saw another figure come out and it was FRO! The third enemy that Sailor Moon destroyed.

---

Furau フラウ is a youma working under Jadeite, who was dispatched after he found a new source of human energy which is "expended on an emotion called love". The two antagonists begin a midnight airing of a write-in talk show on a Tokyo radio station (FM no. 10) called "Midnight Zero", where listeners were encouraged to send in their love letters. Under the human disguise of a radio station manager, Furau would steal the energy from humans by mailing flower brooches charged with dark energy to fortunate listeners who had their letters read by the Midnight Zero's host, J-Dite (Jadeite).

As the popularity of the Midnight Zero grew with female listeners, more victims were affected by the brooches. The first victim Usagi noticed as being under the effect of the brooch was her teacher, Haruna Sakurada, who fell asleep whilst trying to teach her class. A subsequent victim was Naru Osaka followed by Usagi herself as she makes an unsuccessful attempt to wake her friend up. After being revived by Luna, Usagi is persuaded by her to investigate the radio station, only to be attacked by Furau, who has shed her disguise and shoots from her breath bursts of dark energy. As the fight spreads to the roof, Sailor Moon uses her Moon Tiara Action to attack Furau. Initially, Sailor Moon misses but the Moon Tiara Action destroys Furau when it circles back, slicing her into two.

Shanan: Flau. I had a feeling you will be the one that was next.

Flau: Nice to see you again Shanan.

Shanan: For the last time.

Qin: Who or what is she?

Shanan: Flau is a Necmona from the dark planet Necmo VIII. It's a dark planet located in the same system as Morga's planet Elasmita Prime. Necmona's have the power to shoot breath blasts of dark energy that explode on contact and they are very skilled warriors.

Flau: I'm really impressed that you know about my powers and race Shanan. You revealed what I was the last time we fought.

Shanan: And you are a very formidable foe.

Me: Nice.

Then my Signer mark started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer coming.

Roman Goodwin then appeared in a flash of red light.

Me: Roman Goodwin.

Roman Goodwin: Indeed.

Troy: Time to take this monster down!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightspeed Rescue!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers.

Me: Lets dance!

I powered up to the max and I was now in my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form at full power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Shanan and Sailor Moon fired a massive blast of energy and it hit Flau and obliterated her in an instant.

Battle 7: MOO!

---

We all regrouped and we were facing Moo.

Me: You are gonna pay for your crimes Moo.

Moo: We'll see about that.

I teleported and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and then I grabbed him.

Me: Now you will never spread your hatred anywhere again!

I began sucking out all of his hatred and it was over 500 million times more powerful than all the hatred we absorbed from all the other monsters! My aura flared up and the amount of energy it had was insurmountable! It just kept on increasing at an exponential rate at an incredible magnitude. But then Moo blew me away with a blast of wind and then he fell down weak.

Moo: This can't be happening!

Me: It is Moo. Now you will face the power that you despise more than anything and that's love, goodness and courage.

Moo: I will never go down without a fight!

Moo then did something drastic! He turned into a blob of darkness and went back into his body! He was now fully resurrected!

Moo was back!

Me: We only have one chance to beat him guys.

Genki: That's right. J.D. we have to use our courage, love and power of friendship to stop Moo forever.

Me: Right.

I used my magic to have the soul fragments of Phoenix leave Mocchi, Suezo, Golem, Tiger and Hare.

Me: Now to use the power of the Courage and love within us to resurrect the Phoenix!

Genki: Right!

Genki then started glowing in a massive pink aura and it was incredibly strong and powerful! All over the planet, monsters and humans glowed in massively powerful pink auras and they poured in their courage and love to us and it flowed into the Phoenix! We did the same and our auras flowed into the Phoenix and it broke out of the ice and screeched as it was revived!

Me: Whoa!

Phoenix then looked at me.

Phoenix: (In a female voice) J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Wow. You are a beautiful phoenix.

Phoenix: Thank you. I am glad you revived me. You and I must merge together if we are ever to defeat Moo once and for all. It's the only chance we have to destroy him for good.

Me: I understand Phoenix. Lets do it.

I put my hand on her head and then in a blinding flash of light we merged into one powerful being!

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome show done.

Monster Rancher is one of my favorite shows and it was also one of the coolest shows I have ever seen next to Digimon when it aired on Fox Kids. Too bad Fox Kids isn't on anymore. What a Rip! Monster Rancher aired from April 17th, 1999 to September 30th, 2001. It was awesome! It will always be one of my favorite shows in my heart. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 9th Pokemon Movie: Pokemon Ranger and the Temple of the Sea and we're going to learn how May met Manaphy and kill the evil pirate Phantom. We're gonna make sure that Phantom never gets his hands on the Sea Crown and make sure that he pays the ultimate price for his crimes against Pokemon.

See you all tomorrow.

Mystery of Samiya the Sea Temple

In the estate we were watching Itchy and Scratchy. We were watching Moo Goo Gai Pain, Downton Tabby and The Glass Moanagerie.

When they were done, we laughed hysterically.

Nico: You girls are as drunk as loons!

Tigra: Are you girls drunk?!

Nico: They sure are.

May came up to me and she had Lynn's football in her hands.

May: Okay so here's the game, I'm drunk and I'm gonna throw the football too hard at you J.D.

Me: Why?

POW!

She threw the football into my stomach and it hurt.

May: Don't cry. Don't cry. Game's over if you cry. I want you to learn about life J.D. Cause in life it's like this.

SMASH!

She threw a football into my face and it gave me a nasty black eye!

Jen: (Slurred Speech) Hey I already have seen this movie. Lets talk about other movies we've seen.

Nico: You haven't seen any movies yet Jen.

Jen: Shut up Nico!

Tara then smashed me on the head with a rock!

Me: OW! Tara!

Tara: You shut the fuck up J.D.

Gwen: (Slurred Speech) You are not the boss of me.

Gwen got up and crashed into the wall. Leaving her imprint on it.

Yumi: (Slurred Speech) You make me sick J.D.

She threw a bottle and it hit me on my head and shattered into a million pieces.

Me: OW! I think you guys have had too much.

I snapped my fingers and they were back to normal but they had a massive headache.

Groove: You girls ok now?

Gwen: My aching head!

Tara: What the hell happened to me?

Me: Well you girls got really drunk. And look what happened to me.

Tara saw what happened to me and she gasped in shock!

Tara: Oh my gosh! J.D. I am so sorry!

Me: It's not your fault girls.

Out came Hunter's friend Delizia Nazzaro, she is a Florentine Italian from the city of Florence. She has a long brunette ponytail hair, olive green eyes, heart shape face, square eyes, roman nose, straight eyebrows, and wears a green, white, and red tricolor shirt that resembles the Flag of Italy. Luigi: (Italian Accent) Delicious.

Nico: (Slurps) Mmm!

Homer: Mmm Spaghetti. (Drools)

Later we were flying over the Pacific Ocean and we were there to witness one of the neatest events ever known. We were going to see the Sea Temple, Samiya rise out of the ocean and we were gonna see what it looks like.

---

Samiya (Japanese: アクーシャ Akuusha) is the location of an ancient temple constructed by the People of the Water, and also serves as the location of the civilisation's defining feature, the Sea Crown.

History

Samiya was built many eons ago by the People of the Water, as a homage to the Manaphy species, and as such the Sea Temple is constantly moving locations due to the current. It is said that Samiya was constructed to serve as a home for the Manaphy species, and this is present due to the fact that all Manaphy instinctively know the location of the Temple from birth.

Samiya is also sought after by people who wish to steal its crown jewel, the Sea Crown from the center of the Temple. As a countermeasure, the People of the Water adapted a cloaking mechanism around the entirety of Samiya, which in effect allows it to blend in with the surrounding water and therefore go unnoticed. However, this cloaking ability is negated on the night of a lunar eclipse, which The Phantom takes advantage of. When the eclipse ends, Samiya fades away.

The Sea Crown, hidden deep in the center of Samiya, is comprised of a variety of large crystals which serve as the power source behind the Sea Temple. When one or more of these crystals are removed from the base, this results in the dissipation of the energy field enveloping Samiya and allows for water to seep in at a rapid rate. This process can only be reversed if the stolen crystals are returned to the Sea Crown.

When seen in its entirety, Samiya is roughly the size of a large city. The main base at the center of the Sea Temple consists of a spiraling column ascending upwards into a spire-like peak. When inside, there are a variety of water fountains and sections traversable only through the aid of Water-type Pokémon.

In one particular section of Samiya, there is a stone tablet which bears the emblem of the Sea Crown. However, the text situated below the emblem is written in the native language of the People of the Water, which is a rare enough dialect that only two people are known to understand the symbols, one being The Phantom and the other being Lizabeth's grandfather.

Behind this tablet is a door leading to the location of the Sea Crown. The entrance to this door can only be activated through the use of the jade crystals possessed by the People of the Water, which resonate with one another when brought into close contact.

---

Me: This is gonna be so cool!

Nico: I can't wait to see what Manaphy's home looks like. It's gonna be so cool!

May: I remember seeing it. It was amazing.

Manaphy: You guys will love it. This is where I came from. It was the home of my people for a long time.

Lincoln: What are your people Manaphy?

Manaphy: You tell him mama.

May: They are called the People of the Water.

May went over the history of the People of the Water.

---

The People of the Water (水の民) were an ancient civilization whose existence predates that of modern society. Also, their technology was considered to be revolutionary due to the fact that they created the Sea Temple Samiya, as a homage to honor the Manaphy species. The descendants of the People of the Water protect a rare Manaphy Egg, which holds the key to discovering the location of their ancestors' temple.

The People of the Water are also known to possess a variety of special crystals, which are able to unlock the entrance to the Sea Crown's location. Each member of the current tribe are known to wear the crystals as necklaces. When the crystals are held in close proximity to the tablet describing the Sea Crown, both gems will resonate and a huge doorway will materialize from nowhere.

The last surviving individuals linked to the People of the Water are Lizabeth, Kyle, Ship and Meredith, whom all possess tanned skin and black hair. To combat thieves finding the entrance to the Sea Temple, the People of the Water constructed elaborate traps to prevent them from stealing the coveted Crown.

Me: Whoa!

Lily: That's amazing! So Samiya is the Pokemon World's version of the Lost City of Atlantis.

May: That's right.

Princess Kida: That's very interesting.

Me: That is amazing.

Nico: It sure is. It'll be like we're visiting the world of Atlantis: The Lost Empire.

Naruto: Amazing.

Laney: This is gonna be amazing to see.

Lily: It sure is.

Then we got a special surprise when we saw a man with blond hair on the back of a Zapdos!

Me: Whoa!

Jack Walker: Hey guys!

Ash: Jackie Walker!

Jack Walker: Long time no see Ash.

Ash: It's good to see you again, Jackie.

Jack Walker: Same to you Ash.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Jack.

Jack Walker: Same to you J.D.

I saw the badge on his shirt.

Me: Wow! You're a Pokemon Ranger.

Jack Walker: That's right.

Lincoln: What is a Pokemon Ranger?

Jack went over what they do.

Pokémon Rangers work day and night to protect people and Pokémon, and to safeguard precious natural environments. Working together with Pokémon, they expertly wield their Capture Stylers to overcome challenges. The people of this region are very protective of Pokémon and the natural environment.

Me: Whoa! That is a mondo huge job.

Nico: That is so cool!

Jack Walker: It sure is. But it's a major responsibility.

Me: It sure is. Just like we have with Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Our job is to protect the entire universe and everyone that we care about from all threats.

Nico: That's right.

Jack Walker: It's just that big.

Me: It sure is. We're heading over to the Sea Temple, Samiya and we are gonna see what it's like.

Jack Walker: I can see that.

Me: But what brings you all the way out here Jack?

Jack Walker: I'm on the hunter for the ruthless pirate Phantom.

Manaphy gasped when she heard that name.

Ash: That pirate that tried to destroy Samiya is back!?

Brock: I thought he was locked up in jail!

Jack Walker: He escaped last week.

Me: Can you tell us everything about him?

Jack Walker: I sure can.

Jack Walker went over Phantom the Pirate's history.

---

Phantom the Pirate is the main antagonist of the movie Pokémon Ranger and the Temple of the Sea.

He is voiced by Hiroshi Fujioka in the Japanese version, and Eric Schussler in the English version.

History

At the beginning of the movie, Phantom managed to snatch the Manaphy Egg that is drifting through the sea and has it in his possession for a few seconds until Pokémon Ranger Jack Walker steals it and escapes on a Mantine. The reason Phantom wants Manaphy is because he wants to become the "King of the Sea" but he can't become that unless the "Prince of the Sea" Manaphy shows him where the Sea Temple is.

Later, he is seen tracking Jack and his friends. When he finds them, he and his crew attack them with Beedrill, but the gang escapes to the ruins left by The People of The Water in which Phantom follows.

Later at the Sea Temple, he is seen pulling crystals out of the Sea Crown (after following Jack, Ash and friends who were led by a now hatched Manaphy) one by one, causing the Sea Temple to start to sink and then escapes. Jack puts most the crystals back in place until the final crystal fell off the edge. Ash went to get it, nearly drowning in progress, and puts it back in the Sea Crown, stopping the Temple from sinking.

A while after that, he got out of the sinking temple on a water rocket. After the temple was saved, he came up and stole Manaphy one last time. However, Ash grabbed it back (in a yellow energy beam, now being the temporary "King of the Sea") and Phantom was flung into the water. This wasn't the end of Phantom, as he soon rose above the waves in his submarine base and attempted an onslaught using the base's supersonic projectors that caused all Pokémon in the vicinity to writhe in pain.

Manaphy, however, began to fight the sonic waves and counters with its Heart Swap ability, restoring order to the water Pokémon. Soon the water Pokémon counterattack the base, with the Wailord bashing the submarine (nearly knocking Phantom off in the process), as well as creating a tear in the base. The Chinchou swim into the crack, short-circuiting the submarine. Lastly, Manaphy ordered Kyogre to use its Hyper Beam to destroy the sub. On the remains of the sub, Phantom attempted to hold up a pillar of debris up to prevent it from crushing him, revealing his mechanized super-suit (the object of his overwhelming strength), in which Jack says "I didn't think he took his vitamins.". But after the suit malfunctions, the pillar crushes him beneath its weight.

During the credits, both Phantom and his second-in-command Galen are seen in prison.

---

We gasped in shock.

Me: Looks like we found our next target. We're going to kill Phantom.

Jack Walker: And I will gladly help you all J.D.

Me: We greatly appreciate it Jack.

Lily: Hey look!

We saw a bunch of bubbles in the water and we saw a huge domed building rise out of the ocean and we saw that it was SAMIYA, THE TEMPLE OF THE SEA! It was one of the most beautiful temples ever and it was one of the most amazing buildings we've ever seen!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Look at that!

May: It's Samiya. It's just as beautiful as I remember it.

Manaphy: It sure is amazing!

Lana: It's beautiful!

Lola: Amazing!

Laney: It's magnificent and it's one of the most beautiful temples in all of the world of Pokemon.

Lisa Loud: It's a magnificent piece of architecture.

Me: It sure is.

Varie: It does look so much like Atlantis. It's breathtaking.

Princess Kida: It reminds me of home.

Me: Lets go check it out.

We flew over to it and the energy barrier dome vanished and we went inside. What we saw was a massive temple of magnificent wonder and it was filled with many kinds of water Pokemon from all over the world. It was crawling with them all over the place. An absolutely breathtaking marvel.

Me: Wow!

Nico: This is amazing! It's like we went to Water Pokemon Heaven.

Misty: I was just about to say that.

Undine: This is amazing! I can't believe there are so many species of water pokemon here.

Lana: It sure is breathtaking.

Lily: Yeah.

A bunch of Wailord came up to us.

Eddy: (sees the Wailord) Um… nice Wailord?

Me: It's all right Eddy. They are gentle giants.

The Wailord looked at him and they cooed.

Me: Wow.

Ariel: It's amazing here.

Luna Loud: It sure is dudes.

?: Hey guys!

We turned and we saw Ash's friends that he helped the first time here. We saw Lizabeth and her mother Meredith, her Father Kyle and her Grandfather Ship.

Ash: Lizabeth, Meredith, Kyle and Ship!

Ash and everyone went over to them.

Lizabeth: It's great to see you again.

Ship: You all are looking awesome.

Meredith: And you are a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Ash: I sure am.

Me: So you are friends of Ash?

Lizabeth: We sure are. It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same to you Lizabeth.

Jack Walker: It's great to see you again Lizabeth. And all of you too.

Meredith: Same to you Jack.

Laney: So you all are the descendants of the People of the Water?

Ship: That's right Laney. Our ancestors built Samiya thousands of years ago.

Me: We heard. It's amazing that Samiya is this breathtaking and still in great shape even after thousands of years have passed.

Meredith: It sure is.

Kyle: We came by to see Samiya.

Me: I can see that. But I'm afraid we have bad news. Phantom the Pirate escaped from prison and he's coming back to get Samiya again.

Lizabeth: Oh man!

Me: We're going to kill him.

Nico: Yeah and we're gonna make him pay for his crimes.

Lincoln: That's right.

We all agreed.

I then sensed something coming!

Me: Uh oh! We got trouble.

We went to the edge of the temple and we saw a huge submarine coming for us and on it was PHANTOM THE PIRATE!

Ash: It's Phantom!

Jack Walker: He just will never learn.

Me: Evil never does.

Jack Walker saw a Wailord and he used his Capture Styler and he had it under his command.

Me: That is so awesome!

Nico: It sure is. Wow!

Me: Lets get him guys!

Phantom came up to us.

Phantom: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. How nice to see ye.

Me: We won't let you become King of the Sea, Phantom! You can get to the Sea Crown over our dead bodies!

Phantom: That can be arranged. Hand over the Manaphy and no one gets hurt!

Poromon: STAY AWAY FROM MY GIRLFRIEND!

Me: Not gonna happen you fucksack!

Nico: You want to get to Manaphy, you'll have to go through us!

May: Yeah! I won't let you touch Manaphy!

Phantom: You don't seem to understand. There are two kinds of people in this world. Those who are meant to rule, and those who are not!

Me: And you fall under those that don't rule!

Phantom: Why you fucking little…

POW!

I teleported and punched him in the face with devastating force and knocked him down.

Me: Pirates like you are always destined to die.

Phantom: Where did you hear about that?

Me: From King Shut-The-Fuck-Up!

I fired energy blasts at him and they hit Phantom all over and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

?: Looks like the fight has started without me.

A figure came out and it was Vypra's Right-Hand Man from Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue: LOKI!

---

Loki is the most passionate in the crusade to restore his former city by tearing down what man has built. This brawny demon will stop at nothing to assist Diabolico in his mission. Loki was destroyed by Queen Bansheera, who mind controlled Diabolico into blasting him to destroy the Rangers. He is a supporting antagonist in Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue.

He was voiced by David Lodge, who also voiced Villamax in Power Rangers Lost Galaxy, and Tharok in Legion of Super Heroes

5,000 years ago

Five-thousand years, Loki served Queen Bansheera, who ruled over the area that the city of Marnier Bay, would be built over. However, Queen Bansheera was destroyed and left Diabolico in charge in her place. During the time Loki had served Queen Bansheera, he developed a friendship, with Diabolico and Vypra. They continued to terrorize humans until they were sealed a away by warlock.

Freedom

Five-thousand years later, some nomad wandering through the desert came across the ruins, where Loki and the demons were sealed. They released the demons from the tomb where the warlock had imprisoned them, then Loki and his demon comrades then returned to the Skull Cavern. Once free, Loki had explained to Diabolico about how humans had build Mariner Bay over the grounds where Queen Bansheera's palace once was. Enraged by this, Loki, along Diabolico and Vypra, became determined to destroy Mariner Bay and rebuild Queen Bansheera's palace. However, a government organization known as Lightspeed Rescue had five civilians with special skills to become the Lightspeed Power Rangers. Loki's plans to destroy the city then failed when the Power Rangers destroyed the monsters he and the others used to destroy Mariner Bay.

After Queen Bansheera returned to them in spiritual form, Loki and the others became more determined to destroy Mariner Bay and the Power Rangers. When Diabolico was destroyed by the rangers when he tried to defeat them himself, Loki and Vypra were upset about this but then Queen Bansheera gave Diabolico's powers, the Star power, to her infant son, Prince Impus, who then matured into Prince Olympius.

Loki (pronounced Lo-kai) was a fierce and loyal warrior demon and friend to Diabolico (to whom Loki gave a spider/scorpion-shaped amulet to as a token of their millennia-long friendship) and Vypra. He served as the dumb muscle of the demons, and was considered expendable by Bansheera despite his loyalty. When Diabolico was destroyed for the first time, Loki and Vypra were anguished by his death and considered the newly matured Olympius as a mere child who would not make a suitable leader. After losing favor with his mother, Olympius discovered that Bansheera considered making Vypra and Loki the new second in command and plotted to eliminate them by having Vilevine bury them alive. The two managed to survive and escape to where the demons were first imprisoned and brought Diabolico back to life to help get rid of Olympius. In a plan to destroy the Power Rangers, Bansheera telepathically took control of Diabolico's body and forced him to use Loki's bazooka to take aim at the Rangers, an act that would also risk harming Loki. The Rangers managed to survive the blast, but Loki was fatally wounded and died in Diabolico's arms, his body exploding and reduced to ash in the typical way monsters were destroyed. Diabolico swore to avenge Loki's demise at the hands of Queen Bansheera.

The monsters Loki created were mainly earth-elemental, including Quakemon and Elestomp. In battle, Loki normally used a two-pronged staff as his weapon, but in "The Wrath of the Queen", the final episode he appeared in, he used a bazooka that was in the shape of a dragon's head. Loki could also expel electricity from his eyes. Loki also knows hand-to-hand combat.

---

Me: Loki!

Loki: I see you know about me J.D.

Me: I remember you all too well. You were Vypra's Right-Hand Man and you followed her all over.

Loki: That's right. I'm amazed that you watched me on TV.

Me: Along with every single episode of the Power Rangers franchise. I also saw how Queen Bansheera double-crossed you and killed you and that shows that she has absolutely no honor.

Loki: I know.

Maria: F.Y.I., Loki, Bansheera and Olympius are gone for good. They're currently in the River of Fire.

Loki: Do I look like I give a damn about those two?

Me: Obviously not. And we killed them both.

Loki: I'm glad you did.

Me: But if Queen Bansheera ever does come back, we'll fight her and I'll Hakai her out of existence and into oblivion for all eternity.

Loki: I appreciate that.

Then we saw Vypra, Shiv and the Evil Green Ranger appear.

Vypra: Looks like we got here in time for the fight.

Shiv: We sure did.

Loki: Vypra!

Vypra: Loki!

They went and hugged.

Loki: I missed you Vypra.

Vypra: Same here Loki.

Me: It's good that you two are back together. After everything that happened with Queen Bansheera. I'll never forgive her for everything she did to both of you.

Vypra: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Evil Green Ranger: It's amazing that you know so many enemies J.D.

Me: I know.

Troy: Time to fight pirate with pirates!

Megaforce Rangers: Super Mega Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers were in their Super Megamode.

Loki: Power Rangers that look like pirates? Have I really been gone that long?

Me: Almost 20 years Loki. The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers debuted in 1999 and finished in the year 2000.

Loki: Wow! It really HAS been a while.

?: Let me help out as well.

A figure came out and it was IGUARA, the 4th enemy that Sailor Moon destroyed.

---

In her human form, Iguara opened a pet shop selling furry gerbils called Chanelas. Each Chanela would emit a unique perfume scent and doesn't require food or water. However, these Chanelas would steal human energy for Iguana by hypnotizing their customers who bought them, causing them to invest their energy admiring their pets and being apathetic to the world they live in. Shingo Tsukino, Usagi Tsukino's brother and some of her classmates fell under the influence of the Chanelas. After investigating the animals, Usagi also fell under its spell but was saved by Luna. Luna and Usagi investigated the suspicious pet shop only to be attacked by Iguana in her true youma form. As a Youma, Iguara would use her customers (including Shingo) to defend her, but they were healed by Sailor Moon's Moon Tiara Stardust. However, even without her minions, the Youma was a powerful opponent, capturing Sailor Moon with her tail with the intent to crush her. This proved to be a lethal mistake, as it put Sailor Moon in an ideal position to attack Iguara's single weak spot: a glowing spot of scales at the base of her tail. Sailor Moon used her Moon Tiara and managed to hit the careless Youma's weak spot dead on. Iguara began to scream as her body slowly turns to sand but it soon turned down to a whimper shortly before she crumbled to dust. Upon the defeat of the Youma, the Chanelas also disappear.

Sailor Moon: Iguara!

Iguara: Its been a while Sailor Moon.

Shanan: We never faced you before. You are a Reptofemna from the planet Komodus XIX!

Iguara: That's right Shanan. I heard you have a vast knowledge of every planet in the entire universe.

Shanan: I sure do.

Qin: What are the Reptofemna's known for?

Shanan: They are a ruthless warrior race of female reptilian humanoids. Planet Komodus XIX is located 72,300 light-years away from Earth and they are a very dangerous race that is greatly feared throughout the galaxy.

Nico: That's insane! They are just as feared as the Saiyans were.

Iguara: That's right Shanan. I'm impressed that you know so much about my world and what my people can do.

Shanan: I know. But your planet was destroyed when a massive meteor collided with it. Blown completely to smithereens.

Iguara: It sure was.

Me: That's rough.

Then my Signer Mark started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer incoming.

In a flash of Purple Light came Rex Goodwin!

Me: Rex Goodwin.

Rex Goodwin: Yes. This is gonna be a good fight.

Me: It sure will be a good fight. Lets do this.

Then Roman Goodwin and Misty Tredwell appeared as well.

Me: Looks like we're gonna face you two as well.

Me: All right.

Vypra: Don't worry about that. I used my magic to make us all immune to water now.

Luan: Clever thinking.

Luan formed a sword of light.

Luan: Shall we Light Up? (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

Vypra: (Laughs) I get it. Good one. Lets dance.

All the Final Smashes combined and they hit Phantom all at once and he screamed in pain as he exploded all over in a massive explosion of blood and guts all over the place and Phantom was dead!

Nico: Phantom the pirate, you have failed this world!

Jack Walker: He sure has.

The Masters of Evil came.

May: Today's been a pretty eventful day for me. First, I get drunk.

Then I get a new nemesis. And finally, I defended my daughter from Phantom.

Shiv: You got drunk?

Nico: Yep. You should've seen her.

Rex Goodwin: I'm not even going to ask.

Evil Green Ranger: Me neither.

Me: We won't ask.

Loki: (to May) It'll be fun having you as a nemesis, May. But for now, you should spend some time with your daughter.

Vypra: You've earned it.

May: Thanks.

The Masters of Evil then teleport out.

Me: This was awesome!

Jack Walker: It sure was J.D. and it was an honor to help you all out.

Me: Glad we could help Jack.

We shook hands.

Jack Walker: (To the viewers) Never mess with the beauty of ancient civilizations like Samiya and the people of the Water. Or you will answer to Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it Jack.

We later went home. Samiya was beautiful and we moved it to our lake so Manaphy can have her home with us.

THE END

---

Another awesome Pokemon movie done.

Pokemon Ranger and the Temple of the Sea is one of my all time favorite Pokemon movies and it was so awesome how we got to see May care for Manaphy when she was an egg. And now we have seen the last of the ruthless pirate Phantom. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter for the famous game for GameCube, The Legend of Zelda The Windwaker and we're going to help Link take down the ruthless Ganondorf and make him pay for his crimes against Hyrule and the world and make sure he never terrorizes the world that Link knows ever again.

See you all tomorrow.

Magic of The Wind

Note: The flashback in this chapter takes place between the events of Sleuth or Consequences and Change of Heart.

---

Over at the Gotham Royal York Cemetery, a figure dressed in a black trench coat and a black fedora hat was visiting the grave of Bowser. It had the symbol of Bowser on it as well as the symbol of Team Loud Phoenix Storm on it and it saw Bowser - Lord of the Koopas, 1985 to 2019. A Villain of Mario to A True Hero of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We saw that the figure was none other than the archnemesis of Link and Zelda from the Legend of Zelda universe and has been a terror to the world of Hyrule for over 34 years: GANONDORF!

Ganondorf: (to Bowser's grave) Oh Bowser. It's very unfortunate that you had to meet your end like this, Bowser. It's funny. When you and I worked together in the Subspace Emissary, I saw you as nothing more then an idiot. But now that you've sacrificed yourself to save half of the universe, I have nothing but respect for you. But rest assured. When I claim the Triforce and rule the world, I'll make sure you're brought back to life.

Ganondorf then left the cemetary.

Later at the estate we were having a really awesome baby shower for Kairi. She was due at any day now and we invited some of the Masters of Evil to join us for the party. We had lots of gifts and we had all kinds of amazing food and so much more. With us was another one of Hunter's friends from the Apache Indian Tribe in Oklahoma: Nantan, he is a Native Apache from Oklahoma. He has raven black hair, heart shape face, roman nose, square ears, straight eyebrows, hazel eyes, and wears a traditional Buckskin Apache shirt, Apache trousers with a Breechcloth loincloth, Moccasins shoes. And has powers of Wind, Earth, Desert, Heat, and Fire Release.

Me: It's an honor having you with us Nantan.

Nantan: Same here J.D. Hunter told me so much about you all and it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here.

Lana: I've always been very fascinated with the Apache Indians and they are amazing.

Nantan: Thanks Lana.

Me: They are also one of Colorado's major Indian Tribes. Next to the Navajo and the Comanche Indians, the Apache is one of our most important tribes of Indians.

Nantan: That's correct.

Lola: It's really cool learning so much about our Native American Indians.

Me: This is the second baby shower we've ever had.

Laney: It sure is. I'm so excited for Kairi.

Vypra: I am too. This is the first ever baby shower we've ever been to.

Carly Carmine: Me too. It's my turn when we face you guys and this is gonna be awesome.

Lana: I know. It's gonna be amazing taking care of Kairi's kids.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Loki: It's adorable that Kairi is married and is having children.

Lily: I know.

But then we heard Kairi scream and a glass smashed!

Me: Uh oh!

We went over to Kairi.

Rose Lavillant: Kairi, don't tell me you're going into labor now!

Kairi: I am! My water broke! It's time!

Poison Ivy: We need to get you to a hospital!

Me: All right everyone lets get Kairi to the hospital!

We got Kairi into the van and she was doing her breathing and we got her to the hospital. I had an ambulance siren hat on. We got her into the Delivery room and Sora and Aqua were with her.

We read some magazines as we waited and we heard Kairi screaming.

Kairi: SORA, IF YOU GET ME PREGNANT AGAIN, I WILL RIP YOUR HEAD OFF AND SHOVE IT SO FAR DOWN YOUR THROAT THAT YOU CAN SEE YOUR OWN INTESTINES!

Wolverine: (shivers) Even I'm scared by Kairi right now.

Me: Me too. But those are just the labor pains talking.

We heard the screaming stop.

Reflector: Are the babies out yet?

Me: We're gonna find out shortly.

Kairi later came out and in her arms was a baby girl and Sora had a baby boy in his hands.

Me: Oh Sora, Kairi they are so adorable.

Lana: They are adorable.

Lincoln: They sure are.

Aqua: Yeah. I'm so happy for him.

First Aid: I'm glad me and Ratchet were able to help in getting the babies out, Kairi.

Kairi: Me too First Aid.

Me: What did you name your kids?

Kairi: This is Oracle. We like that name.

Me: Oracle. Very mystifying.

Sora: And this is Vulcan. I named him after the God of Fire in Greek myth.

Me: Those are great names.

Lori: Literally great.

We later went back home and because Kairi was exhausted, we had her recover in our nursery.

Me and Carol put her in the rocking chair.

Me: If you need anything just let us know all right?

Kairi: I will J.D.

Carol: But congratulations Kairi. We're so happy for you.

Kairi: Thanks Carol.

We left the room to give Kairi some time to herself with the babies and we turned off the alarm to give Kairi some quiet.

AncientKazemon: I'm so happy for Kairi.

Me: Me too.

Laney: We need to give her some quiet so she can give her some time with the babies.

Carla: But I'm happy for Kairi.

Nico: We all are.

Woya: May the blessings of the Spirits of the Cherokee Indians guide her and her children.

Lola: Yeah.

Sarah Gunnerson: I'm so happy for Kairi.

Me: Me too Sarah.

Lori Jimenez: We all are.

Lori: Literally so happy for her.

Aqua: I'm very proud of my bro.

Nico: We all are Aqua.

Lily: Yeah.

Tara: It's so beautiful.

Lori then suddenly had a fearful breakdown!

Lori: Lincoln! NO!

Me: Lori what's wrong!?

Lori: Lincoln I'm sorry!

Lincoln: Lori it's all right.

Nico: What's wrong with Lori?

Me: I know what this is. It's this day. It forever haunts her.

Nico: How come?

Me: It was back in 2016. It was when Lincoln was forced to say bad things to Ronnie Anne because of his dumb classmates. Lincoln did so again at Jean Juan's French-Mex Buffet because of those fuckfaced classmates of his.

FLASHBACK - 2016.

---

Classmate #4: Hey, are those khakis? Gasp! You're wearing date pants!

Classmate #3: I knew it! Ronnie Anne is your girlfriend! [he and others laugh]

Lincoln: She is NOT my girlfriend! Guys, I already told you. Ronnie Anne is rude and gross and totally annoying. I'd rather lick the bathroom floor than kiss that weirdo.

Lori: [off-screen] LINCOLN!

[The camera shifts over to Lori and Bobby, both of whom look furious at what Lincoln just said, and then over to Ronnie Anne, who is again shocked and heartbroken at hearing Lincoln repeating these harsh words after all that bonding they just went through. Tears well up in her eyes and she runs for the entrance.]

Bobby: We're broken up again, babe. I mean, Lori. [Lori starts crying her eyes out and Lincoln's classmates point and laugh at him.]

Lincoln: Ronnie Anne wait.

Lincoln was about to go after her but Lori grabbed him and she was really enraged!

Lori: YOU MONSTER!

Lori then mercilessly thrashed Lincoln into oblivion! She punched him in the face, kicked him in the crotch and broke his arms and legs and smashed his head in with a chair. Me and Varie arrived and I saw Lori standing over Lincoln growling like a ruthless savage beast and all the kids were laughing and pointing at him in total humiliation. At the loud house, the Loud family (except Lori and Lincoln) are watching the news

Patchy Drizzle: I'm Patchy Drizzle. There is chaos at the Jean Juan's French Mex Buffet, it appears that an 11 year old boy has been beaten up by a 17 year old blond teen girl. We have Katherine Mulligan, on the scene to show the massacre at this! Katherine?

Katherine Mulligan: Thanks Patchy, I'm here at the restaurant where an 11 year old has been beaten up by a 17 year old blond girl. This is a very serious problem with this. If you have know this kid, and you are his parents, please save him and punish your daughter!

At the loud house, the Loud family (except Lori and Lincoln) are watching the news that an 11-year-old has been beaten up by a 17 year old blond girl. This is a very serious problem with this.

Patchy Drizzle: If you have know this kid, and you are it's parents, please save him.

Leni: OH NO! LORI ATTACKED LINCOLN?!

Luna: THIS IS MADNESS, DUDES!

Lola and Lana: WE GOT TO SAVE LINCOLN!

Luan: YEAH, NO JOKE!

Lynn Jr.: We have to stop Lori, before she kills Lincoln!

Lucy: I cannot believe this…

Lisa: I don't show emotions but… WE GOT TO SAVE OUR BROTHER FROM LORI!

Lily: WINKY!

Lynn Sr.: Okay kids, in the van now!

Rita: Hang in there my baby!

When the Loud family arrived at the restaurant, Lynn jr. looks at Ronnie Anne sad.

Lynn Jr.: Ronnie Anne, Lori is beating up Lincoln. He's in trouble, we got to save him!

Ronnie Anne: yeah right! He's just a…

Lola interrupts her by grabbing her in the jacket.

Lola: QUIT COMPLAINING ABOUT WHAT HAPPENED EARLIER AND COME ON!

As the loud family (except Lori and Lincoln) and Ronnie-Anne enters the restaurant and see Lincoln already beaten up by Lori. And Lincoln's classmates laugh harder. But Luna stops them

Luna: STOP LAUGHING AT MY LITTLE BRO!

Luna uses her speakers and a guitar to play a loud tune on Lincoln's classmates, causing them to go deaf

Lincoln's classmates: OW!

Rita and Lynn Sr. and me all glare at Lori

Rita and Lynn Sr.: LORI MARIE LOUD!

Lori: UH OH!

The rest of the Loud sisters look at an unconscious and badly battered Lincoln

Leni: LINKY!

Luna: I CANNOT BELIEVE THIS!

Luan: We got to take him to the hospital!

Varie: Right!

Sisters: (except Lori) Right!

Rita: Go on girls while we punish Lori!

Me: Okay.

I was infuriated with the kids that laughed at Lincoln.

I picked up Lincoln and looked him over and he was really hurt.

Lincoln had blood pouring out of his nose and his arms and legs.

We turned and we were heading towards the door. I then turned and looked at the kids that laughed at him with eyes glowing red with hatred and rage.

Me: You kids had better hope that Lincoln lives. If he doesn't, I will kill ALL OF YOU!

The kids were so scared that they peed their pants and shit themselves. If looks could kill they would all be dead.

I took Lincoln to the hospital and he was wrapped in a body cast and Lynn Sr. and Rita were not happy with Lori.

We took Lincoln to the hospital and Rita and Lynn Sr. were glaring at Lori again.

Rita: HOW CAN YOU DO THIS TO YOUR OWN LITTLE BROTHER, HE COULD HAVE DIED!

Lori: HE MADE BOBBY BREAK UP WITH ME!

Rita and Lynn Sr. glares at Bobby.

Lynn Sr.: Is this true Bobby?

Rita: You and Ronnie Anne go home while we punish Lori.

The Santiagos: Fine.

Bobby: Come on Nie Nie.

Ronnie-Anne glares at Lori.

Ronnie Anne: Shame on you, Lori the murderer!

Me: Ronnie Anne wait. It's not Lincoln's fault he did this to you.

After Lincoln is almost healed, Leni carries Lincoln to his bed.

Leni: Me, Luna, Lucy and Lana are going to put Lincoln in bed, okay?

Rest of the louds (except Lincoln and Lori): Okay.

The Loud's (except Lori, Leni, Luna, Lucy, and Lana) are ready to punish Lori.

Rita: UNBELIEVABLE LORI!

Lynn sr.: YOU'RE GROUNDED FOR 10 MONTHS!

Luan: You're so evil!

Lynn jr.: This is unacceptable!

Lola: YOU'RE SO DEAD!

Lisa: I don't show emotions but… YOU'RE IN DEEP TROUBLE!

Lily: Poo Poo, Wori!

Rita and Lynn Sr.: GO TO YOUR ROOM RIGHT NOW!

Lori approached hers and Leni's room.

Me: Lori wait. you need to see what I have to show you.

In Lincoln's room, Lincoln opens his eyes slowly.

Lincoln: (weakly) (groans) what happened?

Leni, Luna, Lucy, and Lana: LINCOLN!

The nice sisters hugged Lincoln.

Lincoln: Where am I?

Lana: You're in your room. Lori beat you up, and we heard everything on the news, so we saved you.

Lincoln: Really?! Thanks guys.

Leni: You're welcome Linky.

Luna: Glad we can help!

Lucy: Get better and stay away from

Lana: Yep

Lincoln: Okay.

Me: Ronnie Anne, Bobby, Mr. Lynn, Ms. Rita, it's not Lori's fault that she snapped like this. It's those kids at Lincoln's class that made him say those mean things to Ronnie Anne.

Bobby: What do you mean J.D.?

Me: I have evidence on my cell phone that shows it.

I played the scene from earlier at lunch in the cafeteria on my cell phone. I taped it while hiding in the shadows.

---

Classmate #4: [reading the note] Happy Sloppy Joe Tuesday, Lame-o. Signed, Ronnie Anne. [he says her name with flair]

Classmate #3: And there's a heart!

Classmates #1, #2, #3, & #4, & Trent: Ooooooo! Lincoln's got a girlfriend!

Lincoln: What?! No I don't.

Classmate #3: When's the wedding day, Lincoln?

[The classmates, excluding Clyde, laugh.]

Lincoln: Ha-ha. Very funny, guys.

Classmates: Ronnie and Lincoln sitting in a tree, K-I-S-S-I-N-G. [they start laughing again]

Lincoln: Guys, Ronnie Anne is NOT my girlfriend. She's rude and gross and totally annoying. I'd rather lick the bathroom floor than kiss that weirdo.

---

Bobby: Those kids were teasing both Ronnie Anne and Lincoln!?

Lori: It wasn't his fault?

Me: That's right. Lincoln didn't mean to say those things to Ronnie Anne. It was all because of those stupid peanut-brained kids in Lincoln's class that made him hurt Ronnie Anne.

Bobby: Oh babe, I'm so sorry! I didn't know that Lincoln was forced into doing all that!

Lori: (Crying) What have I done!? (CRYING HARD)

Lori hugged Bobby and cried hard into his chest.

Lynn Sr.: Oh Lori it's not your fault sweetie.

Rita: It was all blind rage. We didn't know about this either.

Ronnie Anne: Those kids will pay for this.

Me: (Narrating) After I showed the evidence to the principal, I got those kids suspended for 3 months and they had to do a lot of community service. After Lori beat Lincoln up, she had her grounding reduced to 4 weeks. But her sisters hated her guts as a result during that timeframe.

---

Me: Lori has been permanently scarred because of this day.

Nico: Wow! I didn't know that happened back then.

Varie: It was an awful day. We'll forever remember that day as the Black Jean Juan's Date.

Nico: Good way to put it.

Laney: J.D. really stuck up for Lincoln that day. Also I know the reason why J.D. gets angry a lot. I forgot to tell you this, but he has this powerful vigilante complex that comes out whenever his friends are being threatened. He told me so himself.

Nico: Wow! I didn't know that man.

Me: I know. Its a dangerous thing man. I have always had it with me ever since.

Nico: I didn't know about that.

Me: I try my best to control it. But it pops out whenever I see someone get hurt or threatened.

Nico: I see.

Me: Yeah.

Later I was playing one of my favorite games from my past. It was called The Legend of Zelda: The Wind Waker.

---

Set hundreds of years after the events of Ocarina of Time, The Wind Waker finds the hero Link in a sea scattered with 49 islands, which necessitates frequent sailing and naval combat. Link lives with his grandmother and younger sister Aryll on Outset Island, one of the few inhabited islands in the Great Sea. The people of the Great Sea pass down a legend of a prosperous kingdom with a hidden golden power. An evil man found and stole this power, using it to spread darkness until a young boy dressed in green sealed the evil with the Blade of Evil's Bane. The boy became known as the Hero of Time and passed into legend. It is clear that this legend is the story of Ocarina of Time, wherein the Hero of Time, Link, fought Ganondorf. When boys on Outset Island come of age, they are customarily dressed in green to pay reverence to the Hero of Time.

Ganondorf, the great evil that all still thought to be sealed away in the Sacred Realm of Hyrule, crept forth, eager to resume his dark designs. As the darkness was spreading over the kingdom, the people hoped that the Hero of Time would once again appear to save them, but the hero did not appear. Ganon's next step was to make another aggressive move for the Triforce. The king, Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule, attempted to stop the fiend, but was not strong enough.

As doom drew nigh, the king and his people prayed to the gods, leaving their kingdom in the hands of fate. The goddesses answered their prayers by instructing those chosen to flee for the mountaintops, before they flooded the land. Ganondorf and his minions were sealed along with Hyrule in an enchanted air chamber at the bottom of the sea, with the Master Sword serving as the key suspending the flow of time within the chamber. Over the centuries, the memory of the kingdom vanished, but its legend survived on the wind's breath.

On Outset Island, a young boy named Link finally comes of age to wear the green of the hero. Link's younger sister Aryll's present to him is permission to use her Telescope. With it, Link sees the Helmaroc King fly over the island, carrying a young girl in its talons. A pirate ship is pursuing the bird, firing at it with a Cannon. One of the projectiles causes the bird to drop the girl, who lands in a tree in the forest atop the island. Link grabs a sword and rushes off to find the girl. Link learns that her name is Tetra, and that she is the captain of that band of Pirates.

As Link leads Tetra back to her ship, the bird swoops down and kidnaps Aryll, mistaking her for Tetra. A Rito postman named Quill informs the stunned Link and the unsympathetic Tetra of stories of a large bird who kidnapped young girls with long ears and took them to the cursed Forsaken Fortress. He charges Tetra with helping Link rescue his sister from the Fortress. Tetra reluctantly accepts, and with her help, Link is able to infiltrate the Fortress and reach the cell where his sister is being kept. However, the large bird discovers him, and at the command of a sinister shadowy figure, it hurls him into the sea.

Link is recovered by a talking boat, who introduces itself as the King of Red Lions. The King tells him of the story behind the shadowy figure at the Forsaken Fortress, revealing it to be Ganondorf. Somehow, the seal of the gods had failed. The King explains to Link that the key to defeating Ganondorf is locked away in a great power, the Master Sword, which can only be wielded after many trials are overcome.

To access this power, Link must gather the three Goddess Pearls. First, Link and the King of Red Lions venture to Dragon Roost Island, home of the Rito tribe, in search of Din's Pearl. Before Link takes off, the King gives Link an ancient conductor's baton called the Wind Waker, which he can use to control the wind and navigate the Great Sea easier. Link meets up with Quill again and learns that the Rito are having trouble with the Sky Spirit, Valoo, atop the mountain on the Island. Fledgling Rito earn scales from Valoo that allow them to grow their wings, but the Dragon has somehow lost control of itself. He also learns that Din's Pearl is in the possession of a young Rito named Prince Komali, who is afraid of earning a scale from Valoo. However, Komali refuses to give the Pearl to Link, as it is a gift from his deceased grandmother. With the help of a friendly Rito named Medli, Link ascends the mountain and learns that a large beast named Gohma is responsible for Valoo's outrage. Link defeats Gohma and brings Valoo back to his senses. Prince Komali gives Din's Pearl to Link and is inspired to earn a scale from Valoo.

Link then sets out for Forest Haven, home of the Koroks and the Great Deku Tree, to find Farore's Pearl. The Great Deku Tree gathers his Korok friends to conduct a ceremony to give Link Farore's Pearl, but a Korok named Linder flies in and informs the Great Deku Tree that their friend Makar has fallen into the Forbidden Woods, a vine-covered island infested with monsters. The Great Deku Tree immediately requests Link to save Makar from the sinister island, and Link agrees to do so. He finds Makar in the depths of the dungeon and saves him from Kalle Demos, earning him Farore's Pearl from the Great Deku Tree.

Link and the King of Red Lions set sail for Greatfish Isle to obtain Nayru's Pearl from the Water Spirit Jabun. However, they find the island ravaged and Jabun nowhere in sight. Quill arrives and informs Link that Jabun fled to a cave behind Outset Island to hide from Ganondorf. However, he tells Link that the cave is blocked by a Giant Stone Doorway that cannot be penetrated and that Tetra and her Pirate Crew tried to break through it to no avail. Quill tells Link to find the Pirates on Windfall Island if he wishes to see Jabun. Link sails there and discovers that the Pirates have tied up Bomb-Master Cannon and are stealing his Bombs. After overhearing Gonzo telling Mako the Password to enter Tetra's Ship, Link proceeds to the ship and uses the Password to gain entry. He takes the Bombs the Pirates have stolen for himself and returns to Outset Island to break into Jabun's cave with them. Although he is skeptical about Link, Jabun agrees to hand Nayru's Pearl over to him. Link proceeds to place the Goddess Pearls on their respective statues on the Triangle Islands, which causes the Tower of the Gods to rise from the depths of the Great Sea.

Link scales the Tower of the Gods and defeats its guardian, Gohdan, who opens a portal to the roof of the Tower. Link finds a giant bell on the roof and rings it, revealing a golden portal on the waves in front of the Tower. Link and the King enter it and travel beneath the waves to find a Castle suspended in time. Link explores the Castle and finds the Master Sword, the Blade of Evil's Bane capable of banishing Ganondorf. Link pulls the Sword out of its Pedestal, which restores the flow of time to the Castle. Afterwards, Link returns to the Forsaken Fortress and defeats the Helmaroc King while Tetra and her Crew rescue Aryll. Link confronts Ganondorf, but the Master Sword proves to be ineffective against him. Ganondorf reveals that while the Master Sword is the Blade of Evil's Bane, it is also the key to sealing his magic. Link broke the seal by pulling the Sword from its Pedestal and restoring the flow of time to the Castle beneath the Sea. Ganondorf overpowers Link and declares that the Master Sword's power is gone. Tetra intervenes, but Ganondorf overpowers her as well, and his Triforce of Power resonates. He realizes that Tetra is in fact Princess Zelda, and recognizes Tetra's necklace as a fragment of the Triforce of Wisdom. Quill and the newly-bewinged Prince Komali swoop in and save Link and Tetra before Valoo engulfs Ganondorf's tower in flames.

The King of Red Lions takes Link and Tetra back to the Castle beneath the Sea and reveals that they are in the kingdom of Hyrule, which was flooded by the goddesses after the events of Ocarina of Time to prevent Ganon's return. The King of Red Lions also reveals himself to be Hyrule's king, Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule. He fuses the missing shard of the Triforce of Wisdom in his possession with the fragment on Tetra's necklace to reveal her identity as Princess Zelda, the true heir to the Royal Family of Hyrule. The King instructs her to remain in Hyrule, and sends Link back to the sea above to reawaken the Master Sword's power and reunite the Triforce of Courage-split when the Hero of Time left Hyrule after completing his mission. Until then, the portal to Hyrule is sealed to keep Zelda safe.

It is revealed that Ganondorf's forces killed the Sages of Wind and Earth whose prayers contributed to the Master Sword's power, rendering the Sword useless. To restore the Master Sword's power, those who carry the blood of the Sages must take their stead in the Wind and Earth Temples and pray to the gods. Makar and Medli awaken as the new Sages of Wind and Earth, respectively. With their power and prayers, Link is able to restore the Blade of Evil's Bane to its original form. He then hunts down the scattered shards of the Triforce of Courage and brings the completed piece back to the Tower of the Gods to present it to the gods. The Triforce piece then passes into him, proving that Link is the true Hero, the Hero of Time "reborn". Because Link had used the power of the Wind Waker to travel the Great Sea, the King of Red Lions declares him the Hero of Winds.

When Link descends beneath the waves, he discovers that Ganondorf kidnapped Zelda and took her to his headquarters, Ganon's Tower, a daunting fortress that even the legendary Knights of Hyrule were unable to assail in ages past. Link makes haste for the tower and scales it. Ganondorf is waiting for him, sitting on a bed where Zelda is sleeping. He expresses his outrage at the concept of people living on the Great Sea above Hyrule with little to nothing to achieve. He then transforms into a large marionette-like creature to battle Link, who defeats him. Ganondorf takes Zelda away and tells Link to follow and stand before him. He catches Link off guard and knocks him down, and proceeds to summon the pieces of the Triforce from within Link and Zelda, along with his own to assemble the full Triforce. He wishes for the rays of the sun to expose Hyrule anew so that the kingdom and the world may be his.

However, Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule touches the Triforce first. The King wishes for Hyrule and Ganondorf to be buried beneath the waves of the Great Sea. He also wishes for hope for Link and Zelda; that they might be able to create a better world. The Triforce grants the King's wish, flooding the land of Hyrule once again before vanishing.

In a fit of madness, Ganondorf attacks Link. With the Master Sword at its full power, Link and Zelda battle Ganondorf as Hyrule floods around them. Link eventually deals the final blow to Ganondorf, stabbing him through his head and turning him to stone. After bidding farewell to the King of Hyrule, Link and Zelda are spirited away to the surface of the Great Sea as the floodwaters come crashing down, burying Hyrule and its King beneath the Sea. Link and Tetra are reunited with Aryll, the Pirates, and some of Link's friends. In a post-credits scene, Link and Tetra sail away with their Crew in search of a new land with the wind as their guide.

---

I played the game and got a 100% on it.

Me: Yeah!

Lincoln: Way to go J.D.!

Me: Aw it was nothing.

Lincoln: Come to thing of it, we haven't been to the world of the Legends of Zelda yet.

Me: No we haven't. But that Ganondorf is one mean son of a bitch. All he wants is nothing but to plunge the world into total darkness with the power of the Triforce.

Qin: What does it say about him?

Me: Lets see.

I looked it up.

The "Unified" timeline refers to before the split in Ocarina of Time after the final battle.

Skyward Sword

After Hylia's servant Impa escaped with Zelda into the past and a Gate of Time was revealed Demise's sealing broke and he escaped in an imprisoned form. However, the chosen hero Link defeated him, driving a Seal Spike into his skull and resealing him.

Demise escaped again but was defeated and sealed by Link with help from fellow child of the sky Groose and his catapult; he was defeated a third time as well. As he was about to escape a fourth time Link used the Triforce causing a statue of Hylia to fall on and crush Demise obliterating him.

However, Ghirahim traveled to the past with Zelda and by means of a ritual gave her soul to Demise, who was able to return to power. Demise transformed Ghirahim back into a sword and faced Link who confronted him without fear. Favorably impressed, Demise told him that if he wished to fight him he should enter a dimension away from distractions; otherwise he could just wait for Demise to destroy the world.

Link eventually defeated Demise by stabbing him with the w:c:heroism:Master Sword. Before disintegrating into black smoke Demise praised Link's valor but cast a curse so his hatred and foes would be reincarnated to torment Link, Zelda and their descendants forever. What remained of Demise's consciousness was absorbed into the Master Sword to decay over time until there was nothing left.

Between Skyward Sword and Ocarina of Time

Several hundred years after Demise's consciousness had been absorbed into the Master Sword and finally decayed into nonexistence, allowing him to be reborn as Ganondorf.

Ocarina of Time

By the events of Ocarina of Time he was striving to conquer the lands of Hyrule and obtain the Triforce. In order to access the Triforce within the Sacred Realm he sought the three Spiritual Stones from the Kokiri, Goron and Zora tribes. When they refused to hand them over, he cursed the Great Deku Tree and Lord Jabu-Jabu and blocked off Dodongo's Cavern. At the same time he pledged false allegiance to the King of Hyrule.

Princess Zelda sensed the evil within Ganondorf and, along with Link, strove to prevent Ganondorf from obtaining the Triforce. Ganondorf betrayed and assaulted Hyrule Castle while Link gathered the three Spiritual Stones. He only came in time to see Zelda and Impa flee, pursued by Ganondorf. Ganondorf demanded Link to tell him where the two had fled too, but Link did not tell him. When Link shortly after opened the gate to the Sacred Realm, Ganondorf followed him and seized the opportunity to obtain the Triforce, with partial success. As he touched the Triforce, it split, leaving Ganondorf with only the Triforce of Power.

During the time that Link was asleep, Ganondorf conquered Hyrule while waiting for the moment he would find the other owners of the other two Triforce pieces. Eventually, he found them in the Temple of Time, where he kidnapped Zelda and challenged Link to come to save her. The three met again in Ganon's Tower, where the final battle ensued. Link reaches the top of the Tower to discover Ganondorf playing the organ (the sound of which can be heard throughout the Tower) and engages and bested him in battle. Link had to turn back the yellow bolts of light that he casted at him to bind the Evil King. After that, he fired a Light Arrow to stun him, and Link delivered the coup de grace with his Master Sword. Whenever he recovered, Link repeated this strategy and if he tried to accumulate dark energy for a devastating attack, a Light Arrow could be shot beforehand. After a couple of times, he fell, defeated and tried to bury Link and Zelda by crumbling the tower; fortunately, they managed to get out in time. Enraged, Ganondorf managed to pull together all his strength and unleashed the essence of the Triforce of Power to transform into a bestial form, Ganon. Despite this, Link managed to defeat him by striking its tail with the aid of the Megaton Hammer and the Biggoron Sword until he was weak enough to cast down his fire barrier so Link could recover his Master Sword. Using the Master Sword and some techniques like countering its blades' slashes with slashes of his own, firing a light arrow to its face and rolling between his legs, he managed to hack away at his tail some more times to weaken the Evil Beast. Link, with the help of the Master Sword, Navi, Zelda, and the power of the other Six Sages; dealt the final blow and Ganondorf was sealed into the Sacred Realm, where he could not harm Hyrule or lay his hands on the remaining pieces of the Triforce.

Child Timeline

This is the timeline where Link was sent back to the past and was able to warn the Royal Family of Ganondorf's treachery, leading to the events of Twilight Princess backstory.

Majora's Mask

Ganondorf briefly appeared in a flashback in the manga tie-in to Majora's Mask during a flashback showcasing part of his battles with Link.

Twilight Princess

Prior to the events of Twilight Princess, Ganondorf was captured, put on trial, and sentenced to execution by the Sages. While they managed to severely wound him, they could not kill him. It was revealed that he possessed the Triforce of Power, and with it, he managed to free himself from his chains, and well as kill the Sage of Water. Knowing no better solution, the Sages opened the gate to the Twilight Realm and sent Ganondorf through it. There he influenced Zant, who had been denied the throne of the Twilight Realm, to seize control and access Hyrule again. Ganondorf granted Zant a fraction of his power, in return for the opportunity to escape the Twilight Realm.

Before being killed by Midna, Zant said that Ganondorf will endlessly resurrect him. Link faced Ganondorf in Hyrule Castle and possessed Zelda's body, but Link defeated him and Midna drove him out. Ganondorf transformed into Ganon. Unlike his previous transformation into Ganon, this Ganon was on four legs and his weak spot was the scar on his chest. Link transformed into a wolf, in a sacred beast vs. evil beast battle, and Link won. Ganondorf transformed into a beast of flame, and Midna transformed and fought him, but he defeated her and engaged Link in horseback battle. Link knocked him off the horse, and Link and Ganondorf had their final battle, in which Link knocked Ganondorf down and stabbed him in his execution wound. The Triforce of Power left him thus rendering him mortal, and he has a vision of Zant snapping his neck before dying.

Four Swords Adventures

Ganondorf is again reincarnated as a member of the Gerudo tribe and begins his plan to usurp the powers of others so that he can once again cover Hyrule in Darkness.

Ganondorf begins his plan by violating the Gerudo law and heading to the Pyramid, inside he finds the Trident of Power, a demonic weapon of great power, now with the mighty Trident Ganon was the King of Darkness once again. Ganondorf then headed to the forests where the Deku began to worship him, he collected the Dark Mirror and released the Shadow Links from it.

He then began the next phase of his plan, sending the Shadow Links to trick Hyrule's Hero Link into releasing Vaati's essence from his seal. Once Vaati's essence was released, Ganondorf revived Vaati and took control of him, he used Vaati to corrupt the Royal Jewels and turn them into Dark Crystals. Once this was done, Ganondorf fought and defeated the Knights of Hyrule - transforming them into demons. Ganondorf then opened up the Dark World and unleashed an army of demons. He sent Vaati to the Palace of Winds and sealed it away, fooling the Heroes into believing that Vaati was the one behind the events, Ganondorf lurked in the Dark World below the Palace of Winds, where he absorbed the Maidens power.

The Links eventually defeated all of Ganon's minions and made their way to the top of the Palace of Winds, Vaati - under the control of Ganondorf - fought them but was defeated. The heroes descended to the bottom of the tower, where they found what was left of Vaati's darkness. Ganondorf absorbed the power, adding it to the other power he had stolen, and transformed into Ganon, engaging the heroes. Ganon was defeated and sealed inside the Four Sword.

His Shadow Link minions are manifestations of the resentment and thoughts of his previous incarnations and thus parts of him.

Adult Timeline

This is the timeline where Ganondorf was sealed after ruling Hyrule and then being defeated by Link, he eventually escaped, leading to the backstory of The Wind Waker.

The Wind Waker

Long before the events in The Wind Waker, Ganon himself managed to escape and wreak havoc in Hyrule once more. No hero appeared this time and the gods were forced to flood Hyrule in order to stop Ganon.

However, he managed to free himself and rebuilt his army. Still wanting to obtain the Triforce, he sent one of his minions, the Helmaroc King, on a search for "young girls with pointy ears", hoping to find Princess Zelda, the bearer of the Triforce of Wisdom. Among the girls kidnapped is Link's sister, Aryll, and this sets Link off on his adventure to rescue her. Link finds Ganondorf's hideout, the Forsaken Fortress, where Ganondorf had Link thrown far away into the ocean after being caught by the Helmaroc King. Later, it is revealed that Ganondorf has limited magic strength, for his powers were sealed away by the gods with the aid of the Master Sword. However, without this knowledge, Link himself takes the Master Sword, and thus removed the only barrier restraining Ganondorf's power.

Soon afterwards atop the Forsaken Fortress, Ganondorf reveals that the Master Sword is dull; its power to banish evil gone. Link and the pirate captain Tetra narrowly escape safely with the help of the Sky Spirit Valoo and the Rito, before Ganondorf can seize Tetra, who he finds is actually Princess Zelda and the keeper of the Triforce of Wisdom.

After this, Zelda is hidden inside the underwater castle in Hyrule and Link begins his quest to reawaken the Master Sword. Once Link achieves his goals of finding the Triforce of Courage and restoring the Master Sword, Ganondorf locates their haven and consequently captures Zelda, whom he takes to his underwater tower. Link finds Zelda unharmed, lying in a bed, sleeping, with Ganondorf watching over her and her dreams. However, before Link has any chance to approach, Ganondorf transforms into a giant puppet, which Link defeats. Ganondorf finally reappears to challenge Link, and with Zelda in his arm, he rises to the rooftop of the tower.

Soon after Link reached the rooftop, Ganondorf speaks to him about his reasons for desperately searching for the Triforce pieces, revealing a little of his origins from the harsh Gerudo Desert and his desire to take over the green landscapes of Hyrule. When he declares that he already has in his possession the Triforce of Wisdom, Ganondorf suddenly rushes against Link and delivers swift, hard blows that leave Link half-conscious and the Master Sword out of reach. Ganondorf, using his Triforce of Power, summons the two missing Triforce pieces from Link and Zelda and reforms the Triforce. Nevertheless, right before Ganondorf is able to touch the Triforce and make his wish come true, King Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule, the last King of Hyrule, appears to touch the Triforce first and makes the wish of washing away the ancient land of Hyrule. The Triforce disappears and water starts pouring through the protective barrier into the land of Hyrule as Ganondorf laughs scornfully. Link wakes up at that point and Zelda approaches him holding the Master Sword for Link to engage Ganondorf in the last battle. Now that he no longer has the Triforce of Power, he is no longer immortal. Ultimately with Zelda's aid, Ganondorf is defeated when Link deals the final blow by plunging the Master Sword straight into Ganondorf's forehead, turning him into stone. He remains atop the tower under the Great Sea with the Master Sword in his head, and the ocean finally drowns Hyrule under the Great Sea.

Phantom Hourglass

Ganondorf does not make an appearance but is mentioned in the prologue detailing the events of The Wind Waker.

Downfall Timeline

This is the timeline where Ganondorf successfully kills Link in the final battle leading to the Imprisoning War described in A Link to the Past.

A Link to The Past

Ganondorf appears in the A Link To The Past manga, showing how he stole the Triforce and became Ganon. He also appears in the comic which features the first design of Ganondorf. Although the manga and comic are non-canon it should be noted that he bears a strong resemblance to his appearance in Ocarina of Time.

Ganon was sealed in the Dark World by the Seven Sages after Link's defeat. However, Ganon then corrupted that world and tried to take over the real world as well. He possessed Agahnim and used him to send the Seven Sages' descendants to the Dark World and trapped them there. This caused the seal to weaken and Ganon was able to break free. After Link freed the Maidens he faced Ganon in the Pyramid of Power. He left Aghanim's body as a bat and manifested into his boar form. He fought Link but was banished again.

Oracle of Ages/Seasons

Ganondorf appears again as a copy of Agahnim who was left to guard the Dancing Dragon Dungeon.

He was also to appear in the linked games as a boss before transforming into Ganon but was cut. In the final game he appears in Ganon form after being resurrected by Twinrova.

A Link Between Worlds

Ganondorf's Lorulean counterpart Yuga is one of the main antagonists alongside a resurrected Ganon himself; late in the game they fuse into Yuga Ganon.

The Legend of Zelda

Ganondorf appears as Ganon who had stolen the Triforce of Power and attacked Hyrule in an attempt to steal the Triforce of Wisdom. He made his base of operations in Death Mountain under Spectacle Rock. Princess Zelda split the Triforce of Wisdom into eight pieces. His humanoid form also appears in-game under the alias Agahnim during the time of disasters in Hyrule and joins the king in stopping them all, only to take control of Hyrule after the king drops his guard transforming the land into the Dark World. He also manages to take control of Hyrule by stating that Link is behind these events, at the end of the game, Link defeats Agahnim who then transforms into Ganon and to prevent him from laying his hands on it. Link assembled them to fight and defeat Ganon using the Silver Arrows.

The Adventure of Link

Ganondorf does not appear in the sequel as his minions are attempting to revive him by spilling Link's blood on his ashes and appears as Ganon on the game over screen of the non-Japanese releases. The Magician in the backstory, is believed to be a minion or copy of Ganon. The Magician's influence had corrupted the Prince of Hyrule into seeking the full Triforce for selfish ends. When his sister, Princess Zelda, refused to divulge the location of Triforce of Courage, the Magician cast a spell forcing Zelda into a deep sleep before mysteriously dropping dead.

One of the more notable events in the comics is when Link steals the Triforce of Power causing most of his minions to abandon him and his powers to weaken to what they were at the end of the "Child" portion of Ocarina of Time.

The Calamity first appeared 10'000 years ago, where it attempted to destroy the land of Hyrule. But together with all the Sheikah technology, the princess and her knight were able to defeat it and seal it away under Hyrule Castle. There it was trapped for a very long time. Presumably that what they trapped there, was Ganondorf's corpse.

However, 100 years ago it started leaking Malice, a viral life form that is basically Evil in physical form, which started to spread in the land. The royal family noticed and prepared for the new reincarnation and trained special Champions of each race to pilot the huge Divine Beasts, four gigantic, animal-shaped, magic-powered warships.. Together with an army of powerful, mechanical Guardians, built by the Sheikah for his inevitable return, they should have been able to defeat the Calamity once again. But Zelda wasn't sufficiently prepared and hadn't awakened her sacred powers. So when Ganon emerged, they weren't fully prepared yet. His essence resurfaced and he caught the Champions off guard.

He used his Malice to take control of all the Guardians and used them to destroy the entirety of Castle Town and taking over the castle, slaughtering everyone present, including the king. The Champions were also subsequently killed and he took over their Divine Beasts and implanted a Blight Ganon in each of them. These machines were used to unleash even more destruction and also caused terror for the near settlements. His arrival also surfaced the Yiga Clan. They were Sheikah who betrayed their tribe and started to worship Ganon. Link and Zelda were running away and fighting their way through Guardians who were destroying everything in their path. But Link got fatally injured and Zelda was in tears. She blamed herself for everything, since she didn't get a hold of her divine powers. But through all the suffering around her, she finally found the strength to awaken her power.

She sent Link to the Resurrection Shrine and went to face Ganon alone. He, after destroying many towns and killing countless people by spreading his army of Guardians and monsters, planned to materialize fully. But Zelda stopped him and managed to bind Ganon to Hyrule Castle. She keeps him confined, but has to use all her strength to do so. Zelda endured fighting with Ganon for 100 years, giving it her all to seal him, while he tried relentlessly to break free of her binds.

The whole thing was a cataclysmic event, so that even 100 years later, most of the kingdom is still reduced to ruins overcome by wilderness, and civilization has heavily regressed, safe for a few settlements. Calamity Ganon is sealed but the Blights are still controlling the Divine Beasts to lay waste on the land, weakening the seal that is about to break anytime soon. Despite being sealed, he still spread his Malice over the entire country, corrupting the land and spawning many monsters. He covered numerous structures, where it festered and destroyed them along with the nature around it. Hyrule Castle is covered in the most Malice, as this is where it stemmed from. Every now and then, a Blood moon appears. At this time, Ganon's powers momentarily increase and he is able to revive all the monsters who were previously killed.

Breath of the Wild

Link awakens again having lost all his memories. Zelda calls out to him and tells him of Calamity Ganon. He is hovering around Hyrule Castle, where he is still confined, clouding it in a dark mist of Malice. He stays there, while Link journeys around the land. He doesn't interfere directly, but always reminds Link of what he must do. In general, he causes a dark presence, that lurks in every corner of the land. Link frees the Divine Beasts and the spirits of the Champions by defeating Ganon's Blights. He then makes his way to the castle and after battling many more monsters, the Hero of Hyrule finally reaches the throne room.

There Ganon lurks within a giant cocoon, that resembles a human heart, attempting to regain his physical form. But Link interrupted him and since Zelda was at the end of her strength, he broke free and regenerated prematurely, leading to him looking monstrous and messy as he was still not complete. The Divine Beasts, whose pilots were rescued, then fired their cannons in his direction, severely weakening him already. Ganon was full of hatred and anger and attacked Link with all weapons he had in his possession. He crawled on the walls and uses many elemental attacks, that the Blights have used. When he is weakened even further, he created a force field around his body that would protect him, but Link bypasses it by reflecting Ganon's laser back at him.

So Calamity Ganon was ultimately defeated. He let out a monstrous roar as his body violently disintegrates and his spirit summoned all the Malice in the kingdom to him and manifested into his true Dark Beast form. Zelda said that the Calamity Ganon had given up on reincarnation and assumed his pure enraged form. He stood in the middle of Hyrule Field and shot giant beams of dark light at Link. Zelda aided the famous Hero of Time and opened up weak points where Link could shoot arrows of light. As Link did so, the Calamity Ganon lost more of his power. Eventually, his core was revealed and Link shot one final arrow into the giant pulsating eyeball. Zelda emerged from within him and she used all her power to seal him again, bringing the land back to peace.

Breath of the Wild 2

Zelda and Link find the corpse of Ganondorf, whose Malice is still leaking out of his body. The power of his Malice seems to grow and manifest once again and his eyes glow up, indicating he might come to life again.

Super Smash Bros. Ultimate

The Calamity Ganon appears as a legendary primary attack spirit with only one support slot. His spirit battle is against a giant Ganondorf on the Great Plateau Tower with Zelda as an ally. The player takes sudden damage after a while and loses automatically if Zelda is KO'd.

We gasped in sheer shock and horror!

Laney: Ganondorf is that evil!?

Lincoln: We need to destroy him forever!

Me: No. Not this time.

Lily: Why!? He is pure evil and he needs to be destroyed.

Me: The Nintendo World has seen enough death in the Super Smash Bros Roster and this time we'll strip Ganondorf of his powers and skills and contain him in a prison card.

Nico: Good idea.

Nantan: Very wise act of judgement J.D. I have known about the deaths of the villains of Nintendo from what I was told by our spirits.

Me: Yeah. But lets see how powerful Ganondorf is against all of us when we face him.

Lucy cut open a portal into the world of Hyrule and we found ourselves in the world of Legends of Zelda.

Me: Wow! So this is Hyrule.

Laney: It's beautiful and absolutely magnificent.

Lana: It sure is.

Lola: Wow!

Lila Loud: It's breathtaking.

Nico: Just like I have seen in Super Smash Bros.

Me: Yep. Also there are many more worlds of the Nintendo Games we haven't seen yet after this one.

Nico: Yep. We have so many worlds of Nintendo to see.

Me: Nintendo has been very popular in the world of Video Gaming ever since it made its first video games in 1983.

Lincoln: So we have 37 years of video games to explore.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets check this place out.

We got to exploring all of Hyrule and as we explored we learned so much about all of Hyrule's history.

---

The beginning of the timeline encompasses the events of Skyward Sword, The Minish Cap, Four Swords, and Ocarina of Time, in that order.

Creation of the World

Before time began, the three Golden Goddesses descended upon the chaos that was Hyrule. Din, the Goddess of Power, created the earth. Nayru, the Goddess of Wisdom, bestowed order upon the world. Farore, the Goddess of Courage, created life.

Their labor complete, the goddesses departed for the heavens. They left behind the Triforce, an all-powerful artifact which would grant its holder their heart's desire.

Era of Hylia

The Triforce was entrusted to the goddess Hylia during the Era of Hylia, known more fully as the Era of the Goddess Hylia.

One day, the Demon King Demise sought to take it and make the world his own. He rose an army of malevolent forces against Hyrule. Hylia gathered the surviving humans on an outcrop of earth and sent it to The Sky beyond a Cloud Barrier of her creation. The outcrop would later become known as Skyloft. She hid the Triforce there as well.

Hylia rallied the remaining land dwellers, fought back the evil forces led by Demise, and sealed them away. She suffered grave injuries in the battle. Knowing the seal on Demise would not hold, she devised a plan. As the Triforce could not be wielded by a god, Hylia renounced divinity and transferred her soul to the body of a mortal who would come of age when Demise returned. She created the Goddess Sword and the spirit Fi to aid her chosen hero, who would reveal himself when he drew the sword from its pedestal.

Sky Era

Skyward Sword

Thousands of years later, during the Sky Era, Hylia is reborn as Zelda in Skyloft. On the day of the 25th annual Wing Ceremony, she is taken down to the Surface in a tornado created by Ghirahim, who attempts to have her kidnapped to revive his master Demise. Zelda is rescued from his minions by Impa, whom Hylia had sent through time to help her mortal self.[citation needed]

Zelda regains her memories as Hylia. Her childhood friend, Link, is led by Fi to draw the Goddess Sword, and so is revealed to be Hylia's chosen hero. At the Temple of Time, Zelda and Impa flee from Ghirahim by going through the Gate of Time and destroying it behind them. Link seeks out the three Sacred Flames to temper his sword into the Master Sword, which he uses to activate the second Gate of Time at the Sealed Temple. He finds Zelda by using the Gate of Time to travel back to the Era of Hylia, to a time shortly after when Demise was sealed. Zelda places herself in a thousand-year slumber to sustain the seal.

Link returns to the present, gathers the Triforce, and uses it to destroy Demise. Zelda awakens from her agelong slumber only to be kidnapped by Ghirahim. Ghirahim takes her to the past, where Demise is still alive, and uses her soul to revive his master. Link defeats Demise in battle and the Demon King is permanently sealed away in the Master Sword. With his last words, Demise vows an incarnation of his hatred (Ganon) shall ever follow "those who share the blood of the goddess and the spirit of the hero" in a cycle without end.

Link thrusts the Master Sword into a pedestal in the Sealed Temple; Fi becomes forever dormant in the sword. Link and Zelda return to the present, but Impa stays in the past-in her own time-to watch over the Master Sword. Zelda resolves to live on The Surface and watch over the Triforce.

Zelda (Hylia reincarnate) and others from Skyloft repopulated the surface world. Their descendants became known as Hylians. During this time, the land was named Hyrule.

Era of Chaos

After many years of peace in Hyrule, word spread of the supreme power of the Triforce. War engulfed the land, heralding the Era of Chaos. In particular, a group of powerful sorcerers known as the Interlopers sought dominion over the Sacred Realm, where the Triforce was located. The goddesses sent the Spirits of Light to banish them to the Twilight Realm. To protect the Triforce, the sage Rauru built a new Temple of Time around the pedestal holding the Master Sword-the location of the only entrance to the Sacred Realm. He placed the Triforce in the Temple of Light and sealed off the Sacred Realm with him inside it. The Master Sword became the key that joined the Temple of Time to the Temple of Light. It was closed behind the Door of Time.

Era of Prosperity

During the Era of Prosperity, Zelda's descendants established the kingdom of Hyrule and became its Royal Family. They built Hyrule Castle in the center of Hyrule near the Temple of Time. Years afterwards, many members of the royal family were born with special powers given that they were blood relatives of the goddess

Hylia. Princesses born into the royal family were named Zelda after the goddess reincarnate.

Force Era

The Minish Legend

During the Force Era, Hyrule was attacked by evil beings. The Minish, known to the Hylians as Picori, descended from the sky to save Hyrule. They brought the Picori Blade and the Light Force to the Hero of Men. The Hero sealed the evil beings in the Bound Chest and locked it with the Picori commemorate the event, a Picori Festival was held once a year. During the festival, the champion of a sword-fighting tournament would earn the right to touch the Picori Blade.

The Minish Cap

On the hundredth anniversary of the Picori Festival, a corrupted, power-seeking Minish named Vaati wins the sword-fighting tournament. During the award ceremony, Vaati breaks the Picori Blade and opens the Bound Chest, hoping to find the Light Force. This unleashes evil onto the Hyrule. He turns Zelda to stone and later kidnaps her when he discovers the Light Force is within her. He uses the Light Force to transform into a winged demon.

Link, a blacksmith's apprentice and Zelda's friend, is enlisted by King Daltus to have the Picori Blade reforged so it can break the curse on Zelda. He teams up with Ezlo, a Minish sage and Vaati's former mentor-Vaati had gained his power when he stole the Mage's Cap from Ezlo. With the help of Ezlo and other Minish, Link reforges the Picori Blade and infuses it with the Four Elements to create the Four Sword. With it in hand, Link vanquishes Vaati, breaking the curse on Princess Zelda. Zelda uses the Mage's Cap to wish Hyrule back to normal.

Four Swords

Vaati was presumed dead, but soon reappeared. Having no memory of his previous life as a Minish, he declared himself Wind Mage and claimed the Palace of Winds.[58] He brought terror to the land by kidnapping young maidens.[citation needed] A Hero appeared carrying the Four Sword. He sealed the demon inside the sword,[citation needed] which was then enshrined in the Four Sword Sanctuary.

Generations later, Vaati the Wind Mage breaks free and kidnaps Princess Zelda, taking her to the Palace of Winds. Link, who witnessed the kidnapping, draws the Four Sword and is split into four Links. The Links gather three keys to Vaati's Palace from the Great Fairies in the Sea of Trees, Talus Cave, and Death Mountain. The Links defeat Vaati in his palace and rescue Princess Zelda. The Wind Mage is once again sealed in the Four Sword, which is returned to its pedestal. Link regains his original form.

Era of the Hero of Time

Hyrule enters a long period of civil war. During the war, a dying Hylian woman flees to the Kokiri Forest and entrusts her baby boy Link to the Great Deku Tree. The boy is raised as a Kokiri. Eventually, the King of Hyrule ends the war and unifies the kingdom.

Ocarina of Time

Ganondorf, leader of the Gerudo, openly swears fealty to the king, but plots to open the Door of Time to obtain the Triforce. To that end, he curses the Great Deku Tree in an attempt to wrest from him the Kokiri's Emerald. With his dying breath, the Great Deku Tree sets Link and the fairy Navi on a quest to stop Ganondorf.

Link meets Princess Zelda, who like Link had premonitions of Ganondorf's treachery. The two plot to open the Door of Time and get to the Triforce before Ganondorf. When Link opens the Door of Time and draws the Master Sword from the Pedestal of Time, he is sealed within the Chamber of Sages for seven years. He reawakens as the Hero of Time. In this time, Ganondorf had entered the Sacred Realm and seized the Triforce. However, the Triforce had split in three and Ganondorf retained only the Triforce of Power. Link gained the Triforce of Courage, and Princess Zelda the Triforce of Wisdom. Ganondorf had used his power to take control of Hyrule Castle, and the Sacred Realm was transformed into the Evil Realm due to his evil heart.

Using the combined power of the Master Sword and the Seven Sages, Link and Princess Zelda seal Ganondorf in the Evil Realm. Ganondorf vows to destroy Link and Zelda's descendants when the seal is one day broken.

Zelda uses the Ocarina of Time to return Link to his own time. Link places the Master Sword back in the pedestal and closes the Door of Time. Navi, her mission complete, disappears.

The timeline splits into three branches after Ocarina of Time. The Fallen Hero Timeline is a branch in which Ganon defeats the Hero of Time. The branch where Link defeats Ganon is itself split in two when Zelda sends Link back in time to childhood. The Child Timeline is the branch that follows Link back to his own time. The Adult Timeline is the branch where the Hero of Time has disappeared from the world. Inexplicably, the Master Sword exists in both branches. In the Child Timeline, Link returns it to the Pedestal of Time. In the Adult Timeline, Zelda does it.

Fallen Hero Timeline

The Fallen Hero Timeline is an alternate timeline in which Ganondorf defeats the Hero of Time in battle. Ganondorf takes Link's Triforce of Courage and Zelda's Triforce of Wisdom, thus gaining the power of the complete Triforce. As a last resort, the Seven Sages, led by Princess Zelda, seal Ganon and the Triforce within the corrupted Sacred Realm, now the Dark World.

This timeline branch contains the events of A Link to the Past, Link's Awakening, Oracle of Seasons and Oracle of Ages, A Link Between Worlds, Tri Force Heroes, The Legend of Zelda, and The Adventure of Link.

Imprisoning War

After a brief time of peace, the doorway to the Sacred Realm re-opened. People fought each other to claim the Triforce, but none who entered the Sacred Realm returned. Instead came forth an army of Ganon's demons. The King of Hyrule commanded the Seven Sages of that era to seal the gate to the Sacred Realm. They succeeded, though the Knights of Hyrule who defended them were nearly wiped out. Due to the cost of resources and lives in the fight over the Sacred Realm, the Imprisoning War left Hyrule impoverished.

Era of Light and Dark

A Link to the Past

Following the Imprisoning War, the Era of Light and Dark began. The Kingdom of Hyrule remained at peace for many years, until the land was suddenly plagued by a series of misfortunes. The King of Hyrule offered a reward for anyone who could put a stop to them; it was then that the dark wizard Agahnim appeared. Using previously unheard-of magic, the mysterious stranger put a stop to the disasters. He was proclaimed a hero and said to be the second coming of the Seven Sages. As a reward for his services, the king appointed him chief advisor and priest at Hyrule Castle. Agahnim used this position and his magic to brainwash all of Hyrule's soldiers, depose the King of Hyrule, and make six of the Maidens, descendants of the Seven Sages, disappear into the Dark World. He did this in order to break the seal on Ganon, so that he could rule both the Light and Dark worlds. His last remaining victim was Zelda herself. As the princess lay in her prison cell, she used telepathy to call out to Link, who lived near the castle with his uncle.

Link awoke in the middle of the night to find his uncle leaving the house armed with a sword and shield. Despite his uncle's warnings, Link followed the telepathic call to the castle dungeon, where he found his uncle dying. With his last breath, Link's uncle bequeathed him the sword and shield, and told Link that he was the heir to the Knights of Hyrule. Link stormed the castle and rescued Zelda, leaving her in the care of the priest at the Sanctuary. The priest told Link to seek out Sahasrahla, the elder of Kakariko Village.

Sahasrahla told Link to seek out the three Pendants of Virtue in order to discover the Master Sword hidden deep within the Lost Woods. Link found these pendants in the Eastern Palace, Desert Palace, and Tower of Hera. Once he had obtained the legendary blade, however, Agahnim's forces attacked the Sanctuary and kidnapped Zelda. Link ventured into Hyrule Castle once again, only to see Agahnim send Zelda into the Dark World before his very eyes. Link defeated Agahnim atop Hyrule Castle, but Agahnim used the last of his magic to draw Link into the Dark World as well. This was a twisted dimension that transformed anyone into a reflection of their true selves. Link's dark world form was a pink rabbit. He was only able to remain in his human form with the help of the Moon Pearl.

Once trapped in the Dark World, Link could use the Magic Mirror to travel back and forth between worlds and rescue the maidens who were trapped in the Dark World palaces. During his adventures, Link learned that Agahnim was merely Ganon's pawn. He climbed Ganon's Tower and met Agahnim at the top. Link defeated Agahnim once more, but then saw Ganon rise out of Agahnim's crumpled body. Agahnim was in fact Ganon's alter ego. Ganon then fled to the Pyramid of Power in the center of the Dark World, with Link in hot pursuit. They faced off in one final battle, with Link emerging victorious. Following Ganon's defeat, he found the Triforce within the Pyramid of Power, whereupon it spoke to him. He touched it, and his wish restored Hyrule to peace. The king and Link's uncle returned to life, and Link entrusted the Triforce to the Royal Family.

Link's Awakening

After defeating Ganon, Link embarked on a journey of training in preparation for new disasters. On his sea voyage back to Hyrule, Link ran into a terrible storm. The waves and winds overpowered his boat and sunk it. Link awoke, washed ashore on an island known as Koholint. He was rescued by Marin, a young woman who bore a striking resemblance to Princess Zelda. Upon his attempts to leave the island, its inhabitants insisted that there was nothing beyond the sea. He learned that the only way to get off the island was to collect the Instrument of the Sirens and wake the Wind Fish who slept in an egg atop Mt. Tamaranch.

After traveling all over the island and obtaining the instruments, Link journeyed to the top of the mountain and played the Ballad of the Wind Fish and fought the Nightmare. Upon the Nightmare's defeat, it revealed that if the Wind Fish were to awake, the island would disappear, as it was just a dream of the Wind Fish.

Once Link had defeated the Nightmare and awakened the Wind

Fish, he awoke clinging to the driftwood of his ship, adrift on the open seas.

Oracle of Seasons and Oracle of Ages

After the defeat of Ganon, his surrogate mothers, the witches Twinrova, plotted to revive him. For this ritual, they required three flames to be lit: The Flame of Destruction, the Flame of Sorrow, and the Flame of Despair, and follow these with a human sacrifice. In order to obtain these flames, the witches sent their minions: General Onox, General of Darkness, to Holodrum; and Veran, Sorceress of Shadows, to Labrynna. One day, when Link, who saved the land of Hyrule, visited Hyrule Castle, the Triforce beckoned him into its chamber. Once he placed his hands on the Triforce, it transported him to the distant land of Holodrum, where a new adventure began.

Upon awakening in Holodrum, Link met with a group of traveling performers who were watching after a dancer named Din. Link danced with Din, but suddenly a whirlwind appeared and snatched Din away. Din was actually the Oracle of Seasons, and her capture by Onox meant that the seasons in the land of Holodrum were thrown into chaos. The only way to restore balance to the seasons was to collect the eight Essences of Nature scattered around Holodrum. Link quested for the essences, using the mythical Rod of Seasons in order to manipulate the seasons as he went. Once Link defeated Onox and rescued Din, he was magically transported to the land of Labrynna, the setting of his second trial. However, even after his death, Onox's actions caused the Flame of Destruction to be lit.

Upon waking up in Labrynna, Link met Impa, who had been attacked by monsters. He helped her by moving a block with the Triforce crest on it. Then, both of them met Nayru, who was singing to animals. Suddenly, a shadow came out of Impa and possessed Nayru, who was actually the Oracle of Ages. It was Veran, who had used Impa's body to trick Link. Veran used Nayru's time-traveling abilities to go back in time and alter the past. Veran influenced Queen Ambi in the past to build the sinister Black Tower. Link had to use the Harp of Ages to travel back and forth between the present and the past in order to collect the eight Essences of Time and challenge Veran atop the Black Tower. Link was able to drive Veran out of the body of Queen Ambi and defeat her, but he was too late: the Flame of Sorrow had been lit.

In order to light the third and final flame, Twinrova kidnapped Princess Zelda who had arrived in Labrynna. This would complete their dark ritual and light the Flame of Despair. However, Link challenged them and killed them in battle. As a last-ditch effort to complete the sacrifice needed to revive Ganon, the witches offered their own bodies and revived the King of Darkness. However, because the ritual was incomplete, Ganon returned as a mindless beast. Link battled Ganon and defeated him, restoring peace to Holodrum and Labrynna.

His quest to stop Ganon's revival complete, Link departed Labrynna by boat.

Sometime after the events of the Great Cataclysm and the defeat of the Demon King Ganon, and after Link's adventures in Holodrum and Labrynna, the Triforce was split apart. Ganon, despite being sealed in darkness following his defeat at the hands of Link, obtained the Triforce of Power, which remained sealed with him. The Triforce of Courage's location is unknown, but said to be hidden in the heart of the eternal hero.

A Link Between Worlds

Centuries after Ganon's defeat, the peace of Hyrule is once again shattered by the sudden appearance of a mysterious and enigmatic wizard known as Yuga. With his cruel magic, he invades Hyrule from another world, transforming the descendants of the Seven Sages into paintings. Link, a young apprentice of the Blacksmith attempts to halt Yuga in his ambitions, but Yuga succeeds in not only acquiring all Seven Sages in the form of paintings, but Princess Zelda as well. He retreats to his world, that of Lorule, while Link chases after him, using the power of a bracelet given to him by the mysterious peddler, Ravio.

Link is too late to stop Yuga. Using his magic and that of the Seven Sages, he is able to release Ganon. Along with the Triforce of Power, Yuga and Ganon are joined as one, and using this power, Yuga desires to consume both Hyrule and Lorule. Link is protected from the beast's onslaught by Hilda, the princess of Lorule and the dark counterpart of Zelda, who urges Link to rescue the Seven Sages who have been sent to the far reaches of Lorule. With Hilda holding back Yuga and guiding Link in his quest, he succeeds in rescuing the Seven Sages and, with their power, awakens the Triforce of Courage in himself.

Taking the Triforce, he rushes to challenge Yuga in Lorule Castle, only to find Hilda waiting for him in the Throne Room. Here, she reveals the truth; it was her who sent Yuga to obtain the Seven Sages and release the Demon King. Taking the Triforce of Wisdom from Princess Zelda's portrait, she explains the history of her kingdom. Lorule once had its own Triforce, but was destroyed by her ancestors long ago to stop endless wars over its power. However, with the Triforce gone from her world, the kingdom crumbled, monsters arose and the world turned to darkness and corruption. Upon hearing of another world with its own Triforce, she sent Yuga to obtain the keys to unlocking the Triforce of Power, and manipulated Link into obtaining the Triforce of Courage. Summoning Yuga, she demands he obtain the Triforce of Courage from Link. Yuga, using Ganon's power, unleashes his might upon the hero. Link fights valiantly however, and defeats Yuga, upon which point Hilda demands he relinquish the Triforce of Power to her. However, Yuga disobeys his ruler, and using his magic upon her he takes her portrait and her Triforce of Wisdom into himself, becoming stronger than ever. In a desperate final battle, Link, with the aid of Princess Zelda, finally defeats Yuga. Upon his defeat, Hilda and Zelda are returned to normal, yet Hilda still desires the Triforce to save her doomed kingdom. At the last moment, Ravio appears and reveals himself to be Link's Lorulean counterpart and once Hilda's loyal subject, and pleads with her to let Link and Zelda return to Hyrule with their Triforce. Finally relenting after seeing the senseless fighting that had led to this was not what her ancestors wanted, she helps Link and Zelda return to Hyrule with the last of the bracelet's power, through the first crack to appear between the worlds in Lorule's Sacred Realm.

Returning to their own Sacred Realm with the connection between worlds gone, Link and Zelda find the Triforce once again whole. It awaits for Link to make a wish upon it, and with his wish, Lorule's

Triforce is restored to its former glory, and a new, brighter age dawns upon both Lorule and Hyrule.
